Brown's 197 rushing yards leads Cal past UC Davis 27-13

BERKELEY, Calif. -- Christopher Brown Jr. rushed for a career-high 197 yards and a touchdown in his first start, and California overcame a sloppy first half and beat UC Davis 27-13 on Saturday.

Chase Garbers shrugged off two turnovers and completed 16 of 28 passes for 238 yards and two touchdowns, both to Kekoa Crawford. Greg Thomas kicked a pair of field goals, including a career-best 47-yarder, as the Golden Bears won their third consecutive opener under coach Justin Wilcox.

California won despite four turnovers including a fumble by Ashtyn Davis on the opening kickoff. That set up a short touchdown run by Ulonzo Gilliam Jr. and the Aggies went up 10-0 on a field goal by Max O'Rourke before the Bears rallied.

"We weren't in sync but it wasn't panic," Wilcox said. "We battled back and got into some rhythm on both sides of the ball. We just made it really difficult on ourselves at times."

Brown, a seldom-used backup to Patrick Laird last season, provided the biggest spark and became the first Cal running back to go over 100 yards in his first start since Jahvid Best in 2008.

"We knew Chris would get the ball a lot," Wilcox said. "That's what we expect of him. Probably more touches and more yards than he had all last year. He's been preparing for this."

That was critical on a day when Cal's passing game was hit-andmiss for most of the afternoon. Garbers threw an interception in the first quarter and lost a fumble in the third.

Brown's 5-yard touchdown in the third quarter helped put the Bears up 20-13. He later carried four times for 21 yards to set up Garbers' second touchdown throw to Crawford, a 26-yarder that was tipped near the goal line by Davis cornerback Jaylin White.

"Offensively we just came out too loose," Garbers said. "We were kind of lackadaisical to start. We regrouped and came out and did what we do."

Jake Maier, the Big Sky Conference player of the year, completed 19 of 37 passes for 173 yards.

The Aggies, 10-3 a year ago, were held to 100 yards total offense in the second half.

THE TAKEAWAY

UC Davis: The Aggies controlled the game early and had Cal's offense on the ropes but couldn't sustain the momentum. Maier made some crisp throws but clearly misses not having his No. 1 receiver from a year ago, Keelan Doss, who graduated. The loss probably won't drop Davis too far down in the FCS rankings -- the Aggies were No. 8 going into the game -- but coach Dan Hawkins and his group have a lot to clean.

California: The Bears were understandably rusty coming out of the blocks and their first four drives ended in two punts, an interception and a fumble. They eventually settled down and pulled away in the second half but will have to make significant strides heading into next week's Pac-12 opener in Washington. Johnson's running was huge considering Cal running backs had only two 100yard games in 2018.
