GEORGIA FOOTBALL

Postgame Notes: The Orange Bowl, Dec. 30, 2023

Historic 50th Win For Seniors: With today's 63-3 victory over No. 5 FSU, Georgia's 2023 senior class set a school mark for career victories as they finish with a 50-4 mark including two national championships. During their career, they beat three teams they faced in bowl games/CFP that were undefeated (2020 Peach-Cincinnati, 2021 CFP Semifinal/Orange-Michigan, 2023 Orange-FSU). The Bulldogs finish this year 13-1.

*UGA's 60-point win is the largest ever in a bowl game by any team. The old mark of 58 was set last year by UGA in a 65-7 win over TCU for the 2023 title.

*The Bulldogs in the Kirby Smart era are now 94-16 overall including 46-2 in their last 48 games. The Bulldogs are now 9-2 in bowl games/CFP appearances under Smart including winning the last seven contests.

*Georgia extended the nation's longest active bowl streak to 27 seasons and now has won its last seven bowl/CFP appearances.

*The Bulldogs are now 4-1 in the Orange Bowl and improve to 38-21-3 in bowl games. The 38 wins and 62 games rank second nationally.

Summary Of The Offense: The Bulldogs finished with a season-high and Bulldog bowl record 673 yards of total offense (4th most overall in school history) on 76 plays in a record 63-3 victory in front of 63,324. Coming in today, Georgia ranked ninth nationally in Scoring Offense at 38.4 points a game. Georgia's 372 rushing yards was a Bulldog bowl record too.

*After turning it over on downs on its first possession, Georgia scored TDs on its next nine possessions before having to punt in the 4th quarter.

*Georgia's 39-point first half lead set an Orange Bowl record and also was school bowl record.

*Georgia's 35-point outburst in the 2nd quarter tied an Orange Bowl record and was a Bulldog bowl record, the previous school mark was 21 twice (2006 Sugar Bowl vs West Virginia and 2023 CFP National Championship Game vs TCU). The 42 points in a half was a Bulldog bowl record.

*The Bulldogs were 8-for-8 in the Red Zone with 8 TDs.

*Senior RB Kendall Milton, named the Most Outstanding Player of the Orange Bowl, was the leading rusher with 104 yards on nine carries (11.6 avg.) with 2 TDs, all in the first half. He had the game's first two TDs, a 15-yarder and then a 5-yarder. It was his fourth career 100-yard game.

*Georgia took a 7-0 lead with 4:05 left in the 1st, going 69 yards on seven plays in 2:40, capped by a Kendall Milton 15-yard run.

*Coming in today, Georgia ranked ninth nationally in Scoring Defense, allowing just 16.6 points a game.

*FSU was 2-for-12 on 3rd Downs as the Bulldogs came in today leading the nation with opponents converting just 26% of the time on 3rd Downs.

*FSU cut it to 14-3 with a 22-yard field goal, going 71 yards on six plays. The big play in the drive was a 55-yard reception by Kentron Poitier that gave them a first-and-goal at the 3, and the Bulldogs held them to a FG.

*Sophomore Mykel Williams registered a sack/forced fumble and fumble recovery with 49 seconds left in the first half. He now has 4.5 sacks on the year. It was his first career caused fumble and fumble recovery. It led to a TD. Also to end the first half, sophomore Malaki Starks had an INT, his third.

*Tonight's leading tacklers were freshman CJ Allen with six while Jalon Walker and Mykel Williams had four apiece.

*Early in the 2nd quarter, Georgia forced a fumble (Cash Jones) on a kickoff, and it was recovered by Cole Speer. It led to a TD one play later and a 28-3 edge. It was the fifth forced fumble and second recovered by the Bulldogs this year. The Bulldogs are +3 in Turnover Margin.

Captains, Coin Toss and For Starters: Senior Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint (WR) and juniors Sedrick Van Pran (C), Javon Bullard (S) and Kamari Lassiter (DB) served as the game captains. Georgia improves to 7-4-1 all-time against FSU and snapped the Seminoles 19-game winning streak which was the second longest active streak in the FBS.

Honoring #77 Devin Willock: Senior Xavier Truss (RT), normally #73, wore #77 today in honor of his late teammate Devin Willock. A different Bulldog offensive lineman has worn #77 each game this season.

Up Next: The Bulldogs will enter the 2024 season on a school record streak of 39 consecutive regular season victories (dating to 2020) that leads in the FBS. The Bulldogs open 2024 against Clemson in the Aflac Kickoff Game in Atlanta.

Capital One Orange Bowl: Georgia vs Florida State

Saturday, December 30, 2023

Miami Gardens, Florida, USA

Hard Rock Stadium

Georgia Bulldogs

Coach Kirby Smart

Kendall Milton

Kamari Lassiter

Postgame Press Conference

take from that?

KIRBY SMART: Well, first of all, the game mattered because we're playing a game. As long as winning matters we're going to compete like hell at Georgia. It doesn't matter who it is.

Number two, we gave them about five things and we looked at them each day before practice, and there were five notes on there, and one of them was the senior class turning 49 to 50, and these two guys right here were a big part of it. They're tremendous parts of our culture, and all games matter if you're playing a game.

KENDALL MILTON: Like Coach Smart said, to me, it really mattered to me because it's a game. You want to take every game serious. No matter what the level is you have to prepare the same way, because at the end of the day this is top-level college football any given week, so we took that very personal.

And also just being able to go out there with the guys. This is a team that after this game, nobody -- it's not going to be the same next year. People are going to go to the league, some to the portal, some might not play football. This team might not ever be the same.

I feel like you have to really take advantage of every opportunity, and I really felt that being here for going on my fourth year I've seen teams change, I've seen 13 to 18 people leave, and the locker room is very different. So I feel like you have to really take advantage of every opportunity because you don't get too many opportunities.

KAMARI LASSITER: Yeah, I would say basically I think the game mattered just because if you're a competitor, then every game matters. Every opportunity you get to go out there and play the sport you love, play in front of the people you love, play for the people you love, it's second to none. You can't take it for granted, the opportunity to come out here and play with guys like this, play with coaches like this.

Just being able to come out there and just go out there with the guys one last time this season, it meant the world.

Georgia 63, Florida State 3

KIRBY SMART: I'll open with the fact that I want to thank the Orange Bowl committee, the Orange Bowl staff, so many people, Eric Poms, CEO, to make this possible.

It's really unusual to have people care enough about an event. There's a lot of pride in this city. You see people talking about the Orange Bowl. The Orange Bowl is one of the most historic bowls there is. I grew up watching the Orange Bowl, seen so many classic games in the Orange Bowl, and times, they are a changing.

The people that are a part of this committee, people that are part of this city, people that care about this game, it matters so much to them, and I wanted to thank those people who make sacrifices to put this event on. It's a great event. It's a great stadium. It's an awesome time for our players who get a chance to go out and finish out the season.

A lot of thanks to the Orange Bowl committee, our fan base who followed us down here, came, gave these kids great support. So many of these players that were playing tonight in the last game were also a part of two National Championships, and I think our fan base realized that and gave them tremendous support.

Last but not least, our senior class, people who care, who love Georgia, and just wanted to play football again because they love football, and they wanted to do it the right way. I've got a lot of thanks to give out to all those groups.

Q. Coach, what was your message to the players about why this game mattered, and guys, what did you

... when all is said, we're done.®

Q. To follow that up a little bit closer, Kendall, right after the SEC title game you said in the hallway there was no way you were going to abandon your brothers, and I think I saw on social media post Kamari that you and ^ Bullard were talking about running it back one last time. What was it like behind the scenes for there to not be any opt-outs?

KENDALL MILTON: To be honest, the rest of the team kind of took on that responsibility like the whole week. I would have receivers, the offensive linemen, the defensive linemen coming up to us saying we're going to send you out the right way, and that showed in practice, how hard we all practice. You would've thought it was a scrimmage the way we were practicing, you know what I mean.

Everybody really took it to heart, and I'm just blessed to be with a group of guys like that. I been fighting tears all week, before the game fighting tears, after the game fighting tears because this team is a family. Some people just say it, but this team is a real brotherhood.

It really shows day in and day out, and I couldn't ask for a greater team to be a part of.

KAMARI LASSITER: Yeah, behind the scenes there's nothing but connection. Just being able to get up every day and be with a bunch of guys like that, guys that you laugh with, guys that you cry with, guys that you sweat with, tired with, get in the hot tub. You just do basically everything with these guys. We even go to class together.

There's not really much of a reason you wouldn't want to play with these guys one more time when it's another chance to go out with the guys that you love, the guys that you've been with for four to five years.

Q. You just won an Orange Bowl against a 13-0 team by the largest margin in bowl history. Is there any doubt in your mind that if you had snuck into the four that you guys would be the ones holding the trophy at the end?

KENDALL MILTON: To be honest, in any fight, in any war, I'm taking my guys against anybody. That's just the belief that I have. I have faith in my team that everybody is going to go out and lay it all on the line. I take my guys over everybody.

KAMARI LASSITER: Yeah, for me, I'm not really into speculation, but anytime I get to go out there with those guys, I'm going to take my guys 100 out of 100 times because of the things I've seen these guys do day in and day out.

Q. Kendall, you shared a moment with Coach Smart after the game as the clock was ticking out and he gave you a hug. What did it mean to you? Kamari, you shared a moment with Kalen and Warren after the game. What did it mean for you to be with those guys that you grew up with in Savannah?

KENDALL MILTON: To be with Coach Smart after the game, he told me how proud he was of me. I feel like if anybody knows Coach Smart, knows what I've been through here at Georgia, this not in any way has been an easy journey. Has not been a smooth journey. There's been a lot of ups and downs, a lot of speed bumps along the way.

Coach Smart told me how proud he was of me I stuck it out, I ended up making it to the end, I achieved success. I basically told him thank you for believing in me, because at the end of the day that's all you can ask for, your coach to believe in you, your teammates to believe in you.

That's all I really said, just thank you for believing in me, thank you for giving me the opportunity to go out there and play the game.

KAMARI LASSITER: To answer your question, just to embrace those guys after the game, it was kind of awesome. It kept -- everything kind of came full circle. We're just three kids from Savannah, Georgia, and Kalen and I were on the same little league team, Savannah Stars, so for us to play with each other basically on one of the biggest stages in all of college football, it's just a testament for each one of our -- all our hard work and stuff like that.

So just being able to have a moment and just take everything in and just see everything around us, it definitely meant a lot.

Q. Kirby, you won the last game of last season by 58 points and won this game by 60 points. Why does your team play its best football in the final game of the season?

KIRBY SMART: Well, I don't know. I sort of think we get better as the year goes. There's a culture at our place of work ethic and the job is not done. I think a lot of coaches relax at the end of the year and say this game doesn't matter or this game is not important.

There's nothing that's not going to be important at our place. There's not going to be a day we walk out on that field that Kamari Lassiter is not walking through, that's not important. I think that standard has translated into success, and I think that's a big part of the culture that's been created.

Q. Kirby, the drive in the first half, how important was it at halftime to kind of send that message and what did you think of that play?

KIRBY SMART: I was really pleased. He's a kid that didn't get a lot of reps during the year in terms of game reps. Brock got most of those. I told the team at halftime, we're going to go out there and all the stars are going to play. Gunner is going in. Going to let him play. Called the game and let him go execute and play, because he deserves an opportunity to go play.

The only way you get better at that position is to go play meaningful minutes and get time, and I thought it was big for him to go in.

I thought Mike called a good game for him and he made some really good decisions, and we think he can be a really good player, so I was very pleased with that.

Q. You recruit all these guys and some of them probably know they're not going to get to play that much so when you see Jackson Muschamp get the 14 yards and everybody goes crazy, and some of the other guys that got a chance to play and score today, how much does that mean to you? Is it rewarding to you to get to see that and just the way the sideline reacts?

KIRBY SMART: Yeah, the whole sideline went nuts because Jackson has been doing that. We had a lot of gun runs this year and we didn't have a natural quarterback run guy, so Collin and Jackson had to run the ball all the time.

I told Coach Muschamp all the time he's a lot better athlete than Coach Muschamp ever was. Coach Bobo called a scrap. I was like, I don't want to punt again. I want to get this first down. And I said, Coach Muschamp, you might want to step up here, because he was over with the defense.

Jackson is going to sprint out and we're going to throw a pass, and Coach Muschamp was like, oh, God. Oh, God. He sprinted out, they pulled it up, he stuck his foot in the ground, and he got a first st down. He really looked good in that jersey number he had on, too, that 16.

But I was proud of those guys. We had a lot of guys get an opportunity to play tonight. That's the thing that nobody talks about these bowl games. I got to play in three or four bowl games and that was the highlight of my college career.

We didn't make it to a National Championship. We didn't make it to an SEC Championship. The highlight of my career was getting to play in opportunities like that in bowl games and got a lot of kids an opportunity to play today.

Q. Coach Smart, obviously Brock Bowers wasn't able to play in this game but he was on the sideline and I saw him talking to Oscar Delp. What impact did he have on the tight end room and this team as a whole?

KIRBY SMART: I don't know what impact he had today but the impact he had over the last 30 days was tremendous. He came out of the SEC Championship game really beat up, banged up, and did all kinds of work to get healed and get healthy. Mims the same way.

They were at every single practice, every single meeting. They were at everything they were supposed to be at, and we told them we were going to bring them down here later in the week, and we did that. I got tremendous respect for those two guys who pushed everything they had to get back and really to be honest with you, to give us an opportunity to be in the National Championship.

They both came back and really pushed hard. They're tremendous leaders. The team has nothing but respect for them, and I'll never forget what they gave to this program.

Q. Coach Smart, it seemed like two plays really sort of captured momentum for you guys. The tackle by Cash Jones, they turned it over, and Cole Speer, you talk about guys who don't normally get in the box score. Then the play with Ladd McConkey, he was laughing about it in the locker room that he really wanted to throw it. Can you just comment on those plays and their effect on the game?

KIRBY SMART: Yeah, I forget what the score was when the fumble and the kickoff happened. I guess it was 14-3 or 21-3. When that happened that was a huge momentum swing. Cash, man, all Cash does is give effort. We do special teams all the time, and you're like how does that guy beat some five star down the field? Because he wants to. He cares. It's important to him.

He has a tremendous toughness, and it shows on special teams. Cole Speers the same way. Cole Speers is one of our best special teams players. For Cash to knock the ball off of him and Cole to recover it, those kids were excited as hell, and so were we because of what they did.

We've had that play in all year with Ladd. We just never had a call it. I thought it was a great time to call it. Coach Bobo covered it and it becomes improvisation if he gets covered, and they got covered.

Ladd turned the improv into a touchdown, and good players make your coaches right, and Ladd made a tremendous play there.

Q. You got to see Kendall, Kamari, you got to see so many younger players, whether Roderick or even Daniel Smith on the other side, and then Coach, also obviously got to see guys like Mykel and Jalon Walker lead the team in tackles. What was it like to see some of your younger teammates play so well towards the beginning and end of the game, and what was it like to see some of the guys that you're also going to have come back and play at such a high level?

KENDALL MILTON: You know, I can think back all the way to the first game of the season, and I remember in warmups I looked at Andrew and Rod and I told them, I believe in you all because I knew there was a game they were going to get in, and I told them I believe in you all.

I know y'all are young so your head is probably spinning getting to the game time, but if nobody has told you I believe in y'all, and to see them go out today and achieve success and Rod running through people, AP running through people, that made me so happy.

I was jumping more on the sideline for them than I was for my own touchdowns because those are my little brothers. I really look at them as little brothers. Like I took them under my wing because at the end of the day this is a family.

So to see them achieve success and do the things that they've been working all year for even when haven't got all the opportunities, there was games they didn't get in, they were frustrated throughout the week in practice or whatever, they still stuck it and kept fighting all the way through.

I'm proud of my boys, proud of my little brothers to see them achieve success, and I'm excited to see them achieve success next year.

KAMARI LASSITER: Yeah, definitely being able to see guys like Daniel, guys like Kalen, guys like Julio, see their growth from the beginning year until now, you know, with Daniel being able to take a punch early in the game and then being able to come back, force a lot of incompletions, it's just so happy to see.

It makes me really happy because during the season things can get hard, especially whenever you're younger. We've all been there before. We're not playing, we're not the guy. Whenever you come in from high school you're so used to being the guy, and then you get to a place like this and it kind of humbles you.

Just being able to watch those guys just be able to grow and continue to progress and try to do everything the right way, it makes me very happy.

Like Kendall said, those are my little bros. There's not too many things in this world I wouldn't do for them. Being able to see Daniel get the interception, even Chris Peal being able to get in the game, it means a lot to me.

KIRBY SMART: Yeah, those guys, Mykel, Jalen, they played tremendous. They were great leaders during the time preparing, and they got bright futures. Really pleased to see all those players get in and play.

Q. You had a handful of guys in the second and third quarter that had only played maybe a handful of games. I think it was six all season long. To have them come on and execute seamlessly throughout this game, what's that like for you to have that confidence in them knowing that they can go out there and play Georgia football?

KIRBY SMART: Yeah, I wouldn't say they executed seamlessly. There were some mistakes and some things in there, but the results may have been good. We ran the ball hard. We played hard. But we didn't play perfect by any means.

I certainly am proud of the guys that got to go in and represent us, and that's what we said at halftime. We want to go out and continue to attack and play the right way.

Q. Sedrick Van Pran made his 42nd consecutive start today. Can you speak to what that means and how hard that is to do here and what Sedrick has meant for this program?

KIRBY SMART: Yeah, that's hard to do. 44th start is incredible in this league, the amount of physicality on the offensive line and defensive lines in our league is brutal, and he's stayed healthy. He's competed. Probably one of the best leaders I've ever been around.

He got the most votes for captain, but not as many as some of our other years. We've had guys really get an outlandish numbers of votes, Azeez and Nakobe. What was amazing was how consistent Sed has been as a leader. He doesn't really care what you think about him. He'll say anything he wants to the team, and he doesn't care what anybody in that room thinks about him.

That's kind of the way the center has got to be. Got to be a little bit of an asshole, and he's not afraid to do that.

I have respect for them. Coach Bobo texted me and said, whatever night it was, either Tuesday or Wednesday, and he's like Sed has got the O-line down here watching film with Stacy not here, not during meeting times. Like not even during meeting time he's got them down there watching tape as a group. That's just unheard of in this day and age.

Q. Bowl games I guess recap seniors leaving, current status, preview next year, you had two freshmen starting linebackers. Can you talk about them and the leadership? Talk about some of the leadership you're going to have coming back and what this game means going into the off-season with some of those guys.

KIRBY SMART: Yeah, so leadership at Georgia, I don't know how people do it other places, but leadership at Georgia is never not going to happen. We develop these kids at young ages. We put them on leadership groups. We put them in our skull sessions and they start developing early.

What I've noticed is our captain vote has started spreading out. It used to be five guys, six guys, seven guys got all the votes. Now 11 or 12 guys get the votes and it's more spread out across the board because we have a lot of really good leaders.

We've got a lot of really good leaders going into next year because they got to learn from these guys, and these guys learned from the guys before them. If that's passed down and that culture is created, it's a really good thing.

You're always going to have more turnover on your team now with the age that we're in, but you've got to make sure that your team is built annually the right way, and I'm very excited about the leaders we have coming back for next year and the team we have coming back for next year.

Q. For both players, you guys talked about the importance of having everybody play and sending seniors out on the right note and getting to play with your teammates one last time. That obviously was not true of the opponent. I'm wondering if there was any sort of frustration on your end that you gave them your best shot and didn't necessarily get their best shot?

KENDALL MILTON: One thing that I learned earlier on in college is you can only control what you can control. You can't control what other people are doing, what other people are saying. All you can control is how you approach every day and just how you handle things on your end.

I feel like that was the mindset our team had. We weren't worried about what other people were saying, what was happening on the other side. We knew that this was our last game together, so we took it serious as such.

KAMARI LASSITER: Yeah, the way I see it is I'm just happy to see whoever is across from me. I don't care who it is, honestly. It could be Coach Smart, I don't care, as long as I got to play somebody.

KIRBY SMART: He means that, too.

KAMARI LASSITER: It really doesn't matter. Just knowing I have 10 guys behind me and knowing there's 11 guys I get to play against, it doesn't really matter who it is. I love the game so much and I like being able to compete, so whoever it out there, I'm going to give it my best shot regardless.

KIRBY SMART: Let me say something, and maybe I'm wrong here and maybe this will be a bad soundbyte, but people need to see what happened tonight and they need to fix this. It needs to be fixed. It's very unfortunate that they, who has a good football team and a good football program, are in the position they're in.

Everybody can say it's their fault and it's their own problem, all right, and everybody can say we had our guys and they didn't have our guys. I can listen to all that.

But college football has got to decide what they want, and I know things are changing. I know things are going to change next year. You know what, there's going to still be bowl games outside of those. People got to decide what they want and what they really want to get out of it because it's really unfortunate for those kids on that sideline that had to play in that game that didn't have their full arsenal, and it affected the game 100 percent.

Q. Kirby, I know Daijun Edwards hasn't announced what he's going to do next, but if he never suits up in the red and black again, can you talk about the player he was and what it was like to coach him?

KIRBY SMART: Well, he's quiet. Kendall will tell you that. You can't get Daijun to say nothing, and he's from Colquitt County, which used to beat up on me in high school all the time. So every time I see him and talk to him, I love on him, hug his neck, and he's become such a great person.

He's one semester away from graduating. So proud of who Daijun is and what he's grown to be. Here's a kid that wasn't even that heavily recruited, but we took the kid because we knew he was tough as hell, he would work hard, and he had a tremendous season for us to really help us.

Before we break I want to say something about these two guys. Kendall has meant a lot to this program. He's given so much. He's been through a lot. He said that. I still remember going all the way to California, being in his house, seeing him and his parents, and he's sacrificed a ton to make this program a better place, and he's worked his tail off.

So I thank you Kendall publicly for what you've done.

I want to tell this story on Kamari because it shouldn't go unnoticed. Kamari Lassiter had a one-two grade, first-second round grade. Kamari had to make a tough decision, like all these other people, and I called Kamari in and I talked to him, and I told him, Kamari, you should come out for the draft. That's my opinion. You're one of the top corners in the draft. You've got to make that decision. That's one decision.

The second decision is you've got to decide if you want to play in this bowl game. I don't know that you've got a lot to gain in this bowl game, but I do know who you are and I do know how you practice and I do know how to lead. But I'm not going to be disappointed in anything you decide.

He came back about three or four days later and I met with him and his mom and talked to him and fully expected him not to play in this game.

He called me two days later and said, Coach, I can't do it. I can't do it. I'm sitting down, I'm over there coaching. I can't do it. I want to be out there. I want to play with my guys.

I think he did it against his mother's will to be honest. Now, I don't know that, but I think he did it against his mother's will because that's who he is.

All these teams that go shopping, this dude right here wants to play football. That's all he cares about is playing football and his teammates. He ain't worried about the next thing and all that.

He said, I want to play football, and he played football for the University of Georgia. He did it when he didn't have to do it, and that's what's different at this place than a lot of other places. Thank you.

Capital One Orange Bowl: Georgia vs Florida State

Saturday, December 30, 2023

Miami Gardens, Florida, USA

Hard Rock Stadium

Florida State Seminoles

Coach Mike Norvell

Brock Glenn

Kalen DeLoach

Press Conference

Georgia 63, Florida State 3

MIKE NORVELL: First off, tonight was a very difficult night. It's been a very difficult month, to be honest with you.

But I'm proud of this football team. I'm proud of the work they've put in, proud of what they've shown throughout the course of a season. To do some of the things that they were able to accomplish, they overcame a lot of adversity, they fought, they worked, they invested on and off the field.

It's a special group. It's a group that will be remembered.

Tonight, I didn't do a good enough job of being able to help showcase all of who they are, and I take full ownership for all things that happened there on that field tonight.

But when you come back to this season, it's because of them. It's because of their work. It's because of their heart, their spirit, the belief that they had in each other. For the third time in school history, to be 13 wins, to be able to win the ACC Championship, and against a lot of odds of things that happened and things that occurred, and those guys just -- they did respond and in a special way.

For the guys that played tonight, and this was their last game, what warriors. Kalen DeLoach, D'Mitri Emmanuel, Casey Roddick, James Rosenberry. There's a good number of guys that battled tonight and that chose to come out here and compete.

It's a special, special group of young men that I had the opportunity to coach this season.

Even though tonight was a disappointing result, this is a special season that will be remembered in Florida State history, and it's because of the young men.

Q. Coach Norvell, if you could for a moment talk about what this team means to the fan base in Tallahassee that hasn't seen a team reach the levels this team did in 10 years and just the impact it has on current FSU fans, the ones who saw that team from back then, and so on.

MIKE NORVELL: This team, it's a special team, and it's one that -- like I said, they were champions on the field, but they also lived it off the field. Highest ever team GPA in a fall semester, pushing 2.95 I think it was, pushing 3.0. The service that they do in the community. They do it right.

I believe that's what's allowed them to have this success.

We've had to overcome a lot of adversity throughout the years, and a lot of guys that have been on that journey, and they did it the right way. They have set a foundation for where we're going.

Even though tonight was a disappointing performance, we have a special, special foundation that's been laid, and there is an expectation, and I know how our guys will respond. We have guys that were thrust into action tonight that really haven't got as much work. There was plenty opportunities for growth.

But this team and what they did and what they stood for, what they represented, they appreciate our fan base. They appreciate all Seminoles that have come before them, past players. They're grateful to help Florida State, and they will forever be Seminoles.

That group that played their last game and are moving on to the next step of their life, they're going to have life lessons that are going to allow them to achieve all things that are in front of them.

We are definitely grateful for this team and for the fan base and all that we represent within our university because it is a special place, and it's because of the people.

Q. Given the roster situation that you guys had, what can you take away from this performance tonight, good, bad, or ugly?

MIKE NORVELL: I mean, a lot of guys got the most extensive work that they've had in this season. We had a lot of young players that kind of got, like I said, thrown into it, and you get to see kind of where you are. There was some communication issues. There were some things that -- technique and fundamentals where we can be better.

Obviously things kind of started to snowball on us there throughout the course of the game, and what are the things that we can do to get that right because we've lived it throughout the season. They've seen it happen with maybe more experienced players, but now it's on them to be able to take those steps.

We've seen it in challenging moments, and we've seen it done at an elite level. I think being able to have that opportunity for some young guys was big. We had some guys that were out due to injury. It was kind of just a perfect storm of challenge.

We've been used to challenges, and we'll learn from this experience and we'll grow from this experience and we'll be better as we continue to grow as a program.

Q. Kalen, can you take time to reflect on your four years at Florida State and what it's meant to you?

KALEN DeLOACH: Five.

Q. Five, sorry. And what it was like to play against Warren Brinson and Kamari Lassiter, two guys you grew up with?

KALEN DeLOACH: My experience here at Florida State, just being here when we wasn't where we at now, just to see the growth and the guys that bought in from day one.

I've been there the whole time, so to see the growth, the buy-in, I'm going to remember that forever, because a lot of guys made sacrifices to go out there each and every day to be their best every day. They've pushed every day to be their best.

I'm thanking them guys every opportunity I get for just -- just giving me the best season I've ever had so far in my life. Just the experiences and everything I got to go through, I wouldn't change it for the world.

Playing against those guys from Savannah, it means a lot, because we showcase that the kids from our city, we can make it. You can do it on the biggest stage there is, and I just feel like we gave those kids hope.

So just to continue to do that and continue to push forward each and every day, it's a blessing.

Q. Mike, given the perfect storm you talked about and the way that you were snubbed, was there ever a thought as a program, we're just not going to go play this, just opting out as a program?

MIKE NORVELL: No. I mean, it was hard choices for a lot of the young men that were on our team. We were hurt. I think that's -- when you do the things that our guys did throughout the year and the way that they responded, the way they fought, the way that they just pulled together, it hurt when we were not selected.

It was, like I said, the most challenging month I've ever had in my coaching career because you feel for your players.

As you sit there and you go through it, like I said, there were some tough choices that individuals made, and ultimately I had talked to them about the opportunity, and obviously there's guys like Kalen that came out here and gave all that they had through the finish and I'm grateful for that.

I'm grateful for the guys that have been on the journey throughout the season, and I'm grateful for the guys that were a part of this team and quite a few of them that didn't play tonight. They did so much. I hate that I didn't get one more game with them. That's probably the thing that probably hurts as much as anything.

There are going to be times in life where you do all the things right and it doesn't go your way. Maybe you're not selected where you want to be selected. Maybe you're not chosen. Maybe you find unexpected adversity. But it's the response that's going to showcase the identity of who you are and what you're about.

These guys have responded, and they've learned a lot of great lessons and they're going to carry them throughout their lives. But we had an opportunity to come compete, and we came and we competed. It didn't go obviously anywhere near the way we wanted it to, but there will be experiences that we learn from tonight that will build individuals and collectively a group as we move forward.

I've said it since I got here, I thank God for every challenge because he's blessed us with opportunity. Tonight we faced a lot of challenges, but I know the opportunities moving forward and what we're going to do with them.

It's because of these guys and their willingness to continue to push, and it's something that we're going to absolutely do as a program.

Q. As decimated as the roster was, what is it like to walk out there and try to compete with Georgia as shorthanded as this team was?

MIKE NORVELL: I cannot -- I'm disappointed in the outcome and I'm disappointed in the things that showed up, but I didn't do a good enough job in having this team ready to go and perform better than what we did.

But I told them this morning, and it's been throughout this journey, yeah, it's hard. It was hard to practice. It was hard to do everything in this last month.

But when you're willing to say yes, you're willing to stand up, you're willing to push forward, I still had ultimate belief that we would find ways to be able to make the plays, and there were some missed opportunities. There was a play, things that we had to have happen right there early, and we knew. We knew that it was a tall task. I said that yesterday.

But I believe in the way I coach, and obviously a lot of things I wish I could have done better to help this team and put them in a better position.

Q. Mike, obviously this isn't a fair representation of the team you guys had for those first 13 games, but would you have been -- how close to full strength would you have been? Would guys have played had you have been in the playoff, or would guys have missed a playoff game because of surgery, et cetera?

MIKE NORVELL: There would have been guys that due to injury would have been out or extremely limited, but obviously if you're in a playoff you have a couple more days, and we have a couple guys that were on the trip this week.

They pushed to do all they could to play, and unfortunately they couldn't. I think if we would have had a couple more few of them back at least in some limited capacity.

But this is a championship-level team. You go back and watch 13 games and that's what you saw. I am fully confident in what the team did throughout this year and what they could have achieved.

That was not the path that was set out for us, so obviously I'm proud of the guys that competed tonight and the way that they -- how they've responded.

Obviously we'll get better from it. But yeah, it's something we'll never know.

Q. Coach and Brock, for you to have Jordan Travis on the sidelines for you after everything that he's meant to this program, what did that mean? And for you, Brock, what was it like having his mentorship and having him on the sidelines cheering you on and supporting you?

BROCK GLENN: Jordan has been awesome from the moment I stepped in here in January. He took me in, literally like my older brother. That's how I view him. We've grown an unbelievable bond together. I know I can go to him for anything.

I know that everybody on the team feels the exact same way. That's the type of guy he is. That's the type of leader he is. You saw he left it all out there on the field this whole year. Outstanding player and even better person.

I'm just thankful that I was able to get to build a relationship with him and having him out here with me has been awesome and truly helpful.

During the week in practice, after the practice he'd come up to me and tell me what he say, how I could do things better, and I tried to apply that to the best I could.

Even out here in the game, going to the sideline after a drive, he was in my ear constantly giving me encouragement, constantly giving me advice. He's helped me tremendously.

MIKE NORVELL: Yeah, Jordan, guys like Jordan, Kalen, those guys meant everything to this program because they were here when we came in the door and they said yes. They said yes, and we laid out every challenge you could imagine. I mean, I just love watching them grow.

Jordan, for all the things that he had to go through, probably times where he doubted himself, all of what he could be, and to see him go and accomplish all that he could, ACC Player of the Year, all the things on the field, finished fifth in the Heisman, pretty special, what he did between the white lines for this program.

But he impacted this program so much more when he was off the field because what you see is what you get, and his heart, his care, just his passion for this place and passion for the people that he got to be able to do it with, he's one of the all-time great Florida State Seminoles.

I am blessed that I got a chance to coach him. I'm blessed I got a chance to coach Kalen DeLoach, Tatum Bethune, guys with all different journeys. You see the impacted that they've made, and it's pretty special.

Q. Brock, obviously coming into the season third string, you don't necessarily expect to be thrust into a situation like this, but you stay prepared for it. How do you take the lessons from a night like tonight where maybe not everything goes right and use those to learn in the future and continue to improve as a quarterback?

BROCK GLENN: Everything this program is built on is continuing to be our best and growing, and when we face adversity to keep climbing and fight it and to learn from it.

In the ACC Championship I had some mistakes, and I went back and I reflected, and I tried to -- I did everything I could to go back and fix the things that I missed on or messed up on, tried to speed up my process.

I think there's a lot to learn from in this game, as well, that I'm going to go back and reflect, and I'm just thankful for these seniors and what they've done for this team.

It's a true brotherhood. I really can't put it into words. It's a true brotherhood. We all love each other. We're super thankful for each other, and this program is only going to go up from here. They built this thing up. The seniors, Coach Norvell, they brought this program to the top of the top, and it's only going to go farther from there.

Q. Coach, there's obviously different levels of investment across college football. Is there anything that can be done via NILs, collectives to provide some incentives so maybe players don't opt out of the bowl games that aren't going to be a part of the playoff going forward and keep the bowl system healthy?

MIKE NORVELL: I think every situation is different. Ours was unique, something that's never happened in college football. Ultimately I think there was a lot of things that made it extremely challenging.

But at the end of the day, I think you continue to reflect, you continue to look at it -- we have an expanded playoff coming here in this next year that will provide more opportunities for teams to compete for championships when they earn it on the field, and that's something that I think is probably a good thing for players because it's a lot for them.

We went 13 weeks throughout this season, and it's a physical task, especially with what we faced and winning every one of them and rising up, guys that played hurt, guys that played through every different piece of adversity that could be thrown at them.

When you overcome that and still have a little -- still have the disappointment of not getting to compete for it all, I think that definitely affected some of our situation.

I fully believe that if we probably would have come up short in the championship game, it might have been even a little different. But ultimately this team did all that I asked them to, and they are forever champions. I told them in the locker room, this game will not define the season. But from now until forever they're going to walk into Doak Campbell Stadium they're going to see the 2023 ACC Championship and they're going to know they were 13-0 and unconquered throughout that time.

We faced adversity tonight, obviously faced our challenges, obviously didn't play to the level to what we're capable of, but we're going to learn from it. We're going to continue to move forward.

And when it comes to bowl season, when it comes to choices that people make, obviously there's a lot of people out there that will have their opinion, but I do think that the expanded playoff and opportunities for teams that earn it to go compete for it all will definitely help.
