Phil's Forecast:

The Mike Riley era appears to have gotten off to a disastrous start as they are a poor 2-4. Upon closer inspection, Nebraska has lost on a Hail Mary, in overtime, on a touchdown with ten seconds left and on a field goal with four seconds left. They are basically four plays away from being 6-0! They actually have a decent shot of winning out and if they do that could find themselves in the Big Ten title game with some help. Minnesota rolled to a 41-13 win over lowly Purdue last week but is still a banged up team that is 4-2, but has won three of their games by three points each, so they're a handful of plays from being 1-5! Nebraska is playing with revenge after losing a couple of close games as a double-digit favorite the last two years. The better team here is the one with the weaker record and is the 'dog. Nebraska gets the call for one of my "Best Bet" selections.

Best Bet: ★ Nebraska 21 Minnesota 17
