THE MOST COMPLETE FCS COLLEGE FOOTBALL PREVIEW!
I KNOW YOU WILL AGREE!

WELCOME TO OUR SECOND FCS STAND-ALONE MAGAZINE! While 2012 represents the 18th edition my College Football Preview, this is the 2nd edition of the Phil Steele's FCS College Football Preview.

In 2007 I made the commitment to provide quality in-depth FCS information and I provided a ¼ page on each FCS team in my Pac-10 Regional. There was moderate interest and I increased the coverage to 1/2 page per team in 2008. In 2009 I moved the coverage to my ACC & Big East Regional giving the FCS even more exposure. In 2011 I increased the coverage on each team to a FULL PAGE and the interest increased. This season I am very proud to produce a magazine that gives each and every school equal FCS coverage. I am counting on you the FCS fans, alumni, school leaders and athletic departments to help spread the word and make this magazine a success allowing me to continue publishing it.

The FCS continues to provide fans with quality football and with 115 games this season against FBS foes interest will continue to grow. TV contracts are also becoming bigger, which will continue to expand the viewing audience while more and more upsets seem to occur each season. The NFL draft also brings to light the quality of players that come from the FCS. It is time the Nation realizes that many of these quality FCS programs can compete day in and day out with many FBS conferences.

As you probably know I spend 7 days a week and 365 days a year working on nothing but football. It has made my FBS Magazine the "Most Accurate Preseason Magazine The Last 14 Years" and that same type of hard work and dedication goes into this FCS Preview as well as my NFL Magazine.

Three years ago I put out a full color NFL Magazine with 6 pages of coverage on each team. While I was thrilled with the product I continue to improve it and this year and again have a special Fantasy Football section written by Emmy-Award winning Erik Kuselias to author that section.

The FCS magazine is a bit different than the FBS in that I do not write all the teams myself. Jim Seman is our resident FCS expert and is greatly assisted by other members of our staff including Sean Rhodes and Martina Myles. Josh Buchanan again gave us input on the All-Conference and All-American teams while also supplying his position rankings. This year I am also pleased to again have The Sports Network provide a special featured section with FCS articles and information.

You will notice there is a lot of small type and abbreviations in this magazine. This is done so I can put as much information in this magazine as possible. Refer to the glossary on page 3 if you need assistance with some of the abbreviations. We also have an index on page 3, so you can find your favorite team quickly. In each conference the teams are listed in my projected order of finish.

I would like to thank my dad, Hank, who passed away in 1989. He instilled in me a strong work ethic and a passion for football, which will always be my favorite sport. He is a true inspiration. Also I want to thank my mother, Mary, who STILL invests many hours and prayers into the business.

If you want the information to keep coming your way check out my Daily Blog available exclusively at PhilSteele.com. This year I will be expanding the FCS coverage on my website and please use the "We Value Your Opinion" on the final page for all your input and comments.

Thank you for purchasing Phil Steele's 2012 FCS College Football Preview!!!

"As a sports talk show host the only publication I keep handy is Phil Steele's. When it comes to needing instant, consistent and quality information on the fly, Steele's the only source I would turn to and trust."

Gil Brandt

"Without question your College Football Preview is the best ever. I read my first college preview in 1941 (Street & Smith) and have not missed a year of reading the various publications since."

Pat Forde

"Phil Steele owns the genre. How valuable is his book? I left mine on a plane and nearly had a seizure when I discovered it was missing...If you want to know every meaningful stat from last year--individual and team, including game-by-game team breakdowns--Steele has 'em. If you want six-year statistical trends by team, every coach's career record, a three-deep at every position and the top 20-25 newcomers for every team...yes, Steele has 'em."

KEEPING AN EYE ON THE FCS

When the 2007 season started out with Michigan losing to "FCS" Appalachian St, many people may not have known what "FCS" meant. It was the first time ever that an FCS team beat a ranked FBS team. For those of you who already know about FCS football, you may want to skip to the next paragraph, for those of you who don't, I will try to explain. Division I Football is the only division that has "subdivisions". In 1978 Div-I teams were classified as either IA or IAA. The difference was based on scholarships as IA teams at that time all offered at least 90% of the maximum 95 scholarships (reduced to 85 in 1992). The IAA teams included some that offered none, some that offered partial scholarships and others who offered full scholarships but not as many (limit now is 63). Starting in 2007 those titles were changed to a more politically correct FBS (IA), which stood for Football BOWL Subdivision and FCS (IAA), which stood for Football CHAMPIONSHIP Subdivision. While most of the FBS teams are eligible to play in "Bowls" not all of the FCS teams play in the "Championship playoffs". The most notable exception is the Ivy League which does not allow its teams to play in any post season games. Another difference between the two subdivisions is attendance, as most FCS programs pale in comparison to most of the FBS teams, but a team like Appalachian St which averaged 26,211 fans in 2011 would rank above 38 FBS teams including Duke. While you would expect with more scholarships FBS teams usually attract more top quality players, but there is still a lot of talent that either starts out or ends up at FCS schools. One good example is New Orleans' top receiver Marques Colston, who came out of Hofstra University (dropped program) and has five 1,000 yd seasons in his first 6 years in the NFL. Numerous players annually sign as unrestricted free agents as many NFL scouts have spent a lot of time watching FCS games. One advantage the FCS teams have is that an FBS player can transfer to an FCS team and does not have to sit out the season. Therefore a lot of quality players who are extremely talented but are sitting behind someone on the depth chart at an FBS program will transfer for the chance of more playing time or to win a starting job. The big difference is money, not just in scholarships but in facilities and of course TV revenue. I'll finish with a good example of the difference. In 2009 MEAC member Delaware St was 0-1 before the season began. They were forced to forfeit a conference game to NC A&T as they could not reschedule their game which was on the same weekend DSU signed to play Michigan. Why would a team take a forfeit? Because the $550,000 they were paid to play in the Big House is about 25% of the football revenue they made in all of 2008.

The 2009 season produced just four FCS "upsets" of FBS teams but the 2010 season had 4 on 1 day (Sept 11th) and a total of 7 on the season. The season opened with a North Dakota St 6-3 win over Kansas and Jacksonville St beating Ole Miss 49-48 in 2OT. The next week Liberty beat Ball St 27-23, Gardner-Webb beat Akron 38-37 in OT, South Dakota beat Minnesota 41-38 and for the just the 2nd time in Div-I history an FCS team beat a ranked FBS team as James Madison beat #13 Virginia Tech 21-16. The final upset of the season was in early October as UC Davis beat San Jose St 14-13. If you go to page 151, you will see a breakdown of all the crossover games from 2011 including the 6 "upsets" from 2011 including 3 over BCS teams and the 9 "near misses" that were decided by 7 pts or less.

This year there are 105 crossover games that our friends from the Sports Network have broken down on page 222. While you would expect the non-BCS schools to be playing more FCS teams, it is actually the BCS schools who have 63 (60%) of those games scheduled. There are 4 FBS teams (all BCS) who face 2 FCS schools in Florida St, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and Texas A&M. If those 4 teams win both games they will only be allowed to count 1 of them toward bowl eligibility, so they would need 5 wins over FBS opponents to be bowl eligible. This year the 14 team SEC leads with 15 FCS games as every team plays 1 and as mentioned new member Texas A&M plays 2. The ACC which led the past 2 years is second TY with 12. The MWC and the Big East are tied for 3rd with 10 gms as both Pitt & Cincy needed to replace West Virginia (went to Big 12) with a 2nd FCS opp. Three conf tie for 5th with 9 games in the PAC 12, Big 12 & MAC. The Big Ten has the fewest of any BCS conf with just 8. The WAC & Sun Belt both face 7, while CUSA faces just 6 and the Independents face 3.

On the other side of the coin there are 26 FCS tms who play at least 2 FBS tms including 7 of 8 Southland conf teams (UCA plays just 1, Nichols St plays 3) but despite facing 16 FBS foes the Southland is 2nd to the newly expanded Big Sky Conf (13 tms) which leads the FCS with 17 crossover gms. The MVFC & MEAC both face 12 while the CAA & OVC both face 11.The SoCon & Big South both play 9 while the SWAC plays 6.Rounding out the match-ups is Patriot League associate member, Fordham facing 1 FBS opp after facing 2 LY, while NEC member Wagner faces their 1st ever FBS opponent.

Last year I hit on 1 of my 7 FCS upsets as Indians St beat WKU 44-16 but also came close as Northern Iowa lost to Iowa St 20-19 and Stony Brook could not hold onto a 24-10 lead over UTEP. This year I will call for Eastern Washington to upset possible future Big Sky member Idaho and for an improved Northern Arizona team to possibly catch UNLV flat footed in a BCS sandwich. Stony Brook faces a Syracuse team who will be coming off a huge game vs Southern Cal. New Hampshire has a history of FBS upsets while Minnesota has a history of FCS losses. Finally look for an improved SF Austin to give former SLC member Texas St a game in their first season in the FBS.

CHANGES IN THE FCS - Four former FCS teams moved up to the FBS this year in Texas St, UTSA, South Alabama and Massachusetts. Georgia St which joins the CAA this year is not eligible for the conf title as they will move into the FBS Sun Belt next year. Old Dominion, who joined the CAA last year is also ineligible for the CAA title his year as they will move up to CUSA next year. That has the CAA conference talking about looking for new members from other conferences including the SoCon. Speaking of the SoCon Appalachian St is still rumored to be looking at moving into the FBS in the near future. Another "team" that has announced moving up to the FBS is UNC Charlotte, who will not start playing football until next year. They will play as an FCS Independent in 2013 and 2014 before joining CUSA in 2015.

Several FCS teams have new homes this year. The Great West Conf no longer offers football as former member South Dakota joins the MVFC, while North Dakota, UC Davis, Cal Poly and Southern Utah all join the Big Sky, which is now the FCS largest conf with 13 teams. As mentioned above Georgia St will "join" the CAA TY but will move on next year. Rhode Island is playing in their final ssn in the CAA as they will move to the NEC in 2013.

Some new teams who will be starting FCS programs in the near future include Stetson University (FL) under former Princeton HC Roger Hughes and Mercer University (GA) under former Furman HC Bobby Lamb. Both look to join the Pioneer League in 2013. Kennesaw State University (GA) looks to start in 2014 while Houston Baptist University has announced their intention to add football, and is currently putting together a coaching staff under former Kansas DC Vic Shealy.

The Patriot League voted to begin offering football scholarships starting in 2013. That will leave only the Ivy and the Pioneer as the only "Non-scholarship" conferences left in Div I football. Current Patriot League players will not be eligible for the scholarships but the teams will be able to offer 15 scholarships to new signees each year until reaching the maximum number of 60 in 4 years. The league will vote later as to when associate member Fordham, which began offering scholarships in 2010, will again be eligible for the Patriot League Championship and the automatic playoff which goes with it.

The NCAA is expected to approve an expansion of the FCS playoffs from 20 to 24 teams beginning in 2013. The Pioneer League Champion is also expected to receive an auto-bid to the playoffs. The number of seeded teams is expected to increase from the current 5 to 8 teams.

The NCAA is also allowing FCS teams to play 12 regular season games in 2013 and 2014, which means a playoff team which reaches the FCS Championship Game could have the potential to play a 17 game season.

2011 FCS SPECIAL TEAMS RATINGS

I devised a formula to rate all of the special teams units which takes into account net punting, kick returns, punt returns & kick return defense. The total opportunities each team had was also factored into the equation. For an example, in 2010 Cornell punted EIGHTY ONE times and returned only 19 punts all year. Their net punting average was weighed 4.26 times as much as their punt return average ranking due to the difference in attempts. I also have a net td/blk's category. A negative number means a team allowed more blocks & td's than they garnered. A positive number means that they blk'd more kicks and scored more td's than they allowed. If a team blocked a punt AND returned the same punt for a td, I only give credit for one td/blk. However, if a team fumbled a punt snap which the other team recovered I counted that as a blocked punt. I do not count blocked FG's in the category as a missed FG has the same result and is not a game-changing play. The only time I count a blocked FG is if it was returned for a td.

A few years ago I added a formula to grade the kickers taking into account 6 categories. The first was overall accuracy and that % was multiplied times 5 (everything graded on a scale of 1-5). Then I took the amount of FG's made and divided it into the largest amount of FG's made in the NCAA and that percentage was multiplied by 5. Each counted for 30% of the overall grade. Then I factor FG's from 40-49 yds (both # of kicks and %) and did the same and they counted for 30% of the grade each. I then factor FG's of 50+ yds and they counted for 10% of the grade. This factored in kickers with stronger legs. Speaking of kickers, my KR Defense grade includes a formula for TB's on kickoffs. It grades a TB as a 12.5 yard return (avg KO goes to the 7.5) and an OOB KO as a 30 yard return and adds them to the actual KR defense numbers so my numbers will differ from the schools in that column as mine factor in both adjustments. The NCAA moved to a 1" tee in 2006, so there were fewer TB's. In 2007 they moved the KO's back another 5 yards, making dangerous KR's a bigger factor in games and this season they reversed course moving the kickoffs back up with KO touchbacks now coming out to the 25 yd line.

In past years I have listed a special teams rating, a kicker rating and a couple years ago added a combined special teams ratings. To get a team's final ST grade we take 2/3 of the K rating and add that to the ST rating. This year I just list them by the combined rating but for you long-time readers looking for the individual ratings, they are in the chart listed below. Congratulations to The Citadel and ST coach Aashon Larkins for finishing #1 in the Phil Steele FCS Special Teams rankings.

As you check out your favorite team, I want to give you a reference as to what the #61 team averaged of the FCS teams ranked by the NCAA: Net Punting (34.1), Kick Return Offense (20.5), Punt Return Offense (8.4) and Kick Return Defense (20.7).

TURNOVERS = TURNAROUND

By Phil Steele

Turnovers can have a huge impact on games and on a team's season. They can also lead to many misleading final scores. For years this article has had a place in my FBS Magazine but after looking at the FCS numbers the percentages are almost equal.

Here is a great example from last year. Utah benefitted from being +5 in TO's crushing their arch rival BYU 54-10 on the road, however the next week they were a 10 point home favorite vs Washington but were -4 in TO's and were beaten 31-14. Then the next week they were -5 in TO's to Arizona St and lost 35-14 at home!

In 2010 West Virginia outgained Conn 414-278 and had a 24-16 FD edge but were -4 in TO's and lost 16-13. The next week they hammered Cincinnati 37-10 as a small favorite.

In 2009, Iowa St benefitted from +8 in TO's vs Nebraska and pulled out a 9-7 win. Nebraska turned it over 4 times inside the 5 yard line and lost despite a 362-239 yard edge. The next 2 weeks Iowa St was overrated and they lost by a combined 69-18 vs Texas A&M and Oklahoma St despite only being a slight underdog in each.

In 2008, Ole Miss should have beaten Vanderbilt as they had a 385-202 yard edge but they were done in by being -4 in turnovers. The next week Ole Miss went into the Swamp and dealt the Florida Gators their only loss of the season in a huge upset (+2 in TO).

In 2007, Nebraska was mauled by Kansas 76-39 (-5 in turnovers). The next week they were even in TO's and despite being a home dog to Kansas St they rolled to a 73-31 win.

In 2006, Arkansas was -5 turnovers vs USC which led to a 50-14 loss. I picked Arkansas, which had finished 4-7 the previous year, #13 in my magazine and took some flak for that prediction. Arkansas recovered from that disappointing performance, WON the SEC West and finished #12 in the final regular season poll.

I could list many more examples, but as you can see, turnovers can determine the outcome of a gm. On my website, PhilSteele.com, I have many more examples listed. TO's can not only make a difference in a game but can make the difference between a winning and losing season.

One of the best examples was in 1999 when big turnaround seasons were had by Air Force, Arizona, Tulane and UCLA, which all finished with positive double digit turnover margins in 1998. Those 4 were a combined 46-4 for the '98 season!!! In 1999, those 4 were just 19-26!! Wow, turnovers can indeed equal turnaround. The NCAA's largest single season turnaround happened in 1999 when Hawaii went from 0-12 to 9-4. The Warriors made this article that year as they were -10 turnovers in 1998 but finished +1 in 1999.

More recently Minnesota made this article in B2B seasons. In 2007 they were my #1 "Going Down" team coming off a 6-7 season being +18 in turnovers. They finished 1-11 and in 2008 were listed as a "Going UP" team with -15 turnovers. They did rebound and after just one win the previous year finished with a 7-5 reg season and earned a bowl bid.

Last year 11 teams were in the "Going Down" box in the FBS magazine and only 4 managed to very slightly improve their records. The teams with the biggest drop offs were Rutgers which went from 9-4 to 4-8 and ended a streak of 5 straight bowls and Middle Tenn which went from 10-3 to 6-7.

In 2009, 17 teams were in the "Going Down" box and only 4 managed to slightly improve their records including Virginia Tech which went from 10-4 to 10-3. The teams with the biggest dropoffs were Rice which went from 10-3 to 2-10 and Oklahoma (12-2 to 8-5).

In 2008, Kansas went from 12-1 in '07 to 8-5 in '08 and LSU went from 12-2 to 8-5, Buffalo won the MAC Title thanks mostly to being +19 in turnovers. They were actually outgained by an avg of 408-370 during the season! Then in 2009 they had 13 returning starters and this time outgained foes 405-343. That means they went from -38 ypg to +62 ypg (100 ypg better) but their record dropped to 5-7 as their TO margin was -7.

In 2007, eleven teams made this article in the "Going Down" box. Of those 11 only ONE (Boston College) managed to improve its record and that was from 10-3 to 11-3. The biggest drop-off was Minnesota which went from a bowl game to just 1-11. Two others went from bowls to losing seasons.

Teams that benefitted from double-digit turnovers the previous year rarely get a repeat of that good fortune. In the last 19 years, 281 teams have had plus double-digit turnovers. Of those 281, 182 have had weaker records the following year (64.8%). Only 65 teams (23.1%) have improved their record and the other 34 had the same record. Teams with a positive double-digit TO ratio had the same or weaker records 76.9% of the time since 1996. Also new for the past couple of years is limiting the teams to those that were +11 or more in turnovers. Every team now plays 12 games and most play an FCS team which should increase their TO total so I have raised the number. Listed below are last year's most fortunate teams:

Let's take a look at some teams who had terrible luck (lots of turnovers) in one year then drastically improved the next year without those turnovers.

Last year Cincinnati was near the top of the "Going Up" box as they were -15 in TO's in 2010 and finished 4-8. Last year they rebounded in a big way going 10-3 and were +12 in TO's. Eastern Michigan also made the box with -11 TO's in 2010 going 2-10. Last year they simply achieved their first .500 or better season since 1995 going 6-6! Of the 12 teams that made the box last year only 2 saw their record get worse. The 12 teams were a combined 57-98 (36.8%) in 2010 and improved to a combined 64-87 (42.4%) in 2011.

As mentioned earlier in 2010, Miami, Oh was at the top of the "Going Up" box as they were -24 in Turnovers in 2009. They simply became the FIRST TEAM IN NCAA HISTORY to go from double digit LOSSES to Double Digit WINS! (1-11 to 10-4)!!! Of the 12 teams that made the box in 2010 only two failed to improve their records including New Mexico St which went from 3-10 to 2-10 (1 less FCS foe). The 12 teams in the box were a combined 50-98 33.8% in 2009 but improved to a combined 78-76 51% in 2010! In 2009, a record high 17 FBS teams made the "Going Up" box which meant they had suffered negative double digit turnovers in 2008 and were poised to receive better fortune. Of the 17 teams, 13 (or 76.5%!) had a better record than 2008, 1 had the same record and only 3 of the 17 (17.6%) had a weaker record. There were SIX teams on that list that went from a losing season to a bowl game! Those 6 teams were SMU, Idaho, Ohio, Wyoming, Texas A&M and UCLA!!

In 2008, 13 teams made the "Going Up" box. Of the 13, 9 had an improved record, 3 had a weaker record and 1 had the same record. Ole Miss went from 3-9 to Cotton Bowl champs, Minnesota went from 1-11 to 7-6 and a bowl. Both Northern Illinois and Nebraska improved by 4 wins with the Huskies going from 2-10 to a bowl and Nebraska from a losing record to a New Years Day bowl win!

As previously stated, if a team received bad breaks the year before, they will usually be headed for better fortune the following year. In the past 19 years, there have been 232 teams that have finished the season minus double-digits in turnovers. Of those 232 teams, 159 (68.5%) have had better records the next year! Teams with a negative double-digit TO ratio had the same or stronger records 81% of the time since 1996. I have kept the "Going Up" box for teams with -10 or more TO's. Which teams are headed for better fortunes and better seasons?

Now let's take a look at the FCS. In 2008 3 teams topped the list with +20 or more turnovers. Grambling was +24 and after going 11-2 fell to 7-4. Richmond was also +24 and after having 13 wins still had an excellent 11 wins. UNI was not so successful as they were +22 TO's in their 12-3 season of 2008 and was 7-4 the next year. In 2009 Liberty was the leader with +21 TO's and actually had the same 8-3 record both years. The next 3 teams all with +18 TO's didn't have that same success in Southern (6-5 to 2-9), Montana (14-1 to 7-4) and Savannah St (5-7 to 2-8). In 2010 Bethune-Cookman had +27 TO's and fell from 10-2 to 8-3 LY.

WR LaQuintin Caston
Nicholls St

Nicholls State is one of 2012's "Going Up" Teams

In the last 4 seasons their have been 75 teams that have been +10 or more turnovers in a season. After deducting the 7 teams who finished with the same record the next year, 46 teams or 61.3% had a worse record, while only 22 or 29% had a better record. If a team had +16 or more turnovers in a season it's been 100% perfect with all 13 teams having a worse record. Here are this seasons going down teams.

GOING DOWN?

Sam Houston St	+28	Wagner	+13
Bucknell	+27	Old Dominion	+13
North Dakota St	+18	Alabama A&M	+12

Georgetown	+15	Montana	+11
Eastern Kentucky	+15	Harvard	+10
Butler	+14	Campbell	+10
UNI	+14	South Carolina St	+10
Hampton	+13

Now lets look at the opposite side and analyze the teams which had negative double digit turnovers. Only one team had over -17 TO's in 2008 and that was Tennessee Tech (-20) who after going 3-9 improved in 2009 to 6-5. In 2009 5 teams had this very poor turnover total. Portland St and Presbyterian were both -20 TO's and while the Vikings had the same record at 2-9 the Blue Hose went from 0-11 to 2-9. VMI went from 2-9 to 3-8 while NW St improved 5 games from 0-11 to 5-6 and Texas Southern improved from 6-5 to 9-3.LY Howard was the only to make this list as they were -21 TO's in '10 and went from 1-10 to 5-6.

In the past 4 seasons there have been 66 teams with -10 or more turnovers. The numbers actually were better after taking out the 8 teams who had the same record, 43 teams or 65.2% improved while only 15 or 22.7% of the teams had a worse record. By tightening the list with using teams that had -13 or more turnovers in a season the percentage increases to 82.1% (23 of 28 teams). Here are your going up teams for the 2012 season.

WHAT EXACTLY IS A PS NUMBER ? ?

One very important part of my College Football Preview Magazine is an individual player's "PS#". You will see them on almost every page and I find them vital in my analysis of a team. If you have purchased my magazine before, I am sure you are very familiar with what each player's PS# stands for. This article is for those of you picking up my magazine for the first time and are asking the question listed at the top of the page.

A simple definition for a PS# is my ranking of the players at their positions coming out of high school or from a Junior College (JC or JUCO). The PS naturally stands for Phil Steele with the number representing a players rank at that position. I personally do not scout high school games or rate players. Covering college football as I do takes 52 weeks of the year as it is. I compile my PS#'s based on the many different recruiting services across the country. I not only use all of the biggest but use regional reports as well. On the bottom left of this page, I list the top recruiting services from which I compile information.

When we receive a recruiting magazine, we translate each player's ranking into a point system from 1-100. Brandon, Christy and Logan then log each and every player into the computer and give them a point total from each source. This is a very time-consuming process. This year's 2012 Freshmen List has roughly 13,000 players on it!!! Many players are listed by just one or two sources. The higher ranked recruits are mentioned by almost every source. The more they are mentioned and the higher they are rated in each publication, the more total points they accrue. After months of entering all of this information, I sort the list by each position and by total points. Naturally, the QB with the most total points then becomes PS#1QB for that year. If a player is PS#99QB, that means he ranks 99th in total points of all QB's coming out of high school that year.

Some positions simply do not have as many players as others. For example, this year's PS#100TE totaled just 261 points in my system, while this year's PS#100OL has 556 points!! The reason is simple. There are FIVE offensive linemen and just one TE on the field. Naturally, there are 5 times as many OL's to choose from as TE's, making it much more competitive. A player with 261 points on the offensive line is rated as a PS#319OL this year. The PS# is not their overall rank in the freshmen class, but their overall rank AT THAT POSITION in the freshmen class.

I also track JUCO's. A JUCO is a player who went to a Junior College (JC) after high school and played football there. They use up a year of their college eligibility for every year they play and most come in as juniors. They are older, more seasoned players, and usually can make an immediate impact. A players' PS number out of a JUCO are not separated by positions but instead all players at all positions get a JC number.

So what is the big deal about where they are ranked out of high school? I equate it to where a player ranks in the NFL draft. Obviously, there are some outstanding players in the NFL who were low-round draft picks or even signed as undrafted free agents. However, the majority of the all-stars in the NFL are higher round draft picks and 1st round picks usually make an impact much quicker.

Colleges are much the same. There are plenty of players without a high PS# who end up making it big. For example, Adam Archuleta was an unheralded walk-on at Arizona State who arrived as a slender 180 lb freshman. He left the Sun Devils' program as one of the most feared defenders in the Pac-10.

QB Cam Newton was PS#2JC in 2010. He was taken as the #1 overall pick to Carolina LY and set an NFL rookie record with 4,051 pass yds and added 706 (5.6) rushing.

He increased his weight to a chiseled 215 lbs, while bench pressing over 225 lbs 31 times with 4.36 speed, going as the 1st DB in the 1st round of 2001's NFL Draft. Some kids enter college at 17 or 18, undersized and not yet matured, but then grow into big, strong, fast players and make all-conference teams. Just like the NFL, there are a good number of these types of stories. For example, 2000 MVP Kurt Warner was not drafted and played in NFL Europe and the Arena Football League. Other notable UFA's are QB Tony Romo (Dallas), RB Arian Foster (Houston) and TE Antonio Gates (SD). Also, just like the NFL, there are MORE cases of those players who come in highly ranked out of high school, becoming stars and making an immediate impact.

Here are some examples of the previously mentioned highly ranked high school players that made an immediate impact in the NFL: In 2006, Percy Harvin was a PS#1WR. In 2009 he was the #1DC (22nd pick) of Minnesota and was named the NFL Rookie of the Year with 790 yds (13.2). In 2005, Jonathan Stewart was a PS#1RB. He came out early as the #1DC (13th pick) of Carolina and finished the 2008 NFL season with 836 yards (4.5) and 10 td's. In 2004, Adrian Peterson was a PS#1RB and had an amazing season of 1,341 yards. LaVar Arrington was PS#1LB in 1997 and ended up the #2 overall pick in the draft. Peyton Manning was PS#2QB in 1994 and started as a true frosh, TE Tony Gonzalez was PS#1TE, Orlando Pace was PS#1OL and started as a true frosh and like Manning, was the first overall pick in the NFL draft. In 1995, the top 2 RB's were PS#1 and PS#2 (Kevin Faulk and Ahman Green) while Randy Moss was PS#1WR. These are just some examples but as you can see, the stronger the PS#, the better chance the player has of making a big impact in college.

Many times after players graduate, the talent behind them is unknown because they have not played a lot of college ball. You would expect a 1st or 2nd round draft pick in the NFL to be able to step into an open starting spot quickly and the higher-rated players can usually do just that in college as well. That is the value of a PS#.

On each individual right hand team page we list the Top Newcomers which includes both freshmen and JUCO's. These are ranked by each player's combined frosh rating (not by PS#'s) so therefore the top player listed earned the highest ranking in the comb frosh rating (which does take into account total points).

Who is a VHT and who is a HT? To the right you will find a chart simplifying our distinctions between these categories. To use the QB's as an example: any QB from PS#1 thru PS#30 I consider a VHT (Very Highly Touted). QB's from PS#31 thru PS#100 are HT's (Highly Touted). Many recruiting publications do not distinguish between OL and DL for their lineman. As a general rule, we put them into the OL category so that position has, by far, the largest amount of players.

PHIL STEELE'S 2012 PS RANKINGS

POS	VHT	HT
QB	30	100
RB	50	150
WR	50	150
TE	15	75
OL	100	250
DL	60	250
LB	60	200
CB	60	250
K	10	35
JC	100	200

Also new last year on every Top Newcomers list is the number of VHT's and HT's that each team brings in this year. For example, Texas signed the most number of VHT's (22) and HT's (6) combined with 28 while Ohio St (20) and Alabama (19) were #2 and #3 in VHT signings. This is also a nice quick way to compare how your favorite team did in the recruiting wars vs other conf foes. For example, Arkansas St signed 3 VHT players while the rest of the Sun Belt only brought in 4 other VHT players combined! To check out how your team did on our overall recruiting ranking see pg 307.

A quick note about the players in my write-ups. Sometimes on the offensive line I will mention that a player was a top-notch wrestler in high school. To me, a top wrestler has very good body control and athleticism which makes for a quality lineman. I also list when a player is from Canada. I do this because not all of the recruiting services cover Canada so those players are generally rated lower in the PS#'s than their U.S. counterparts. Many times the top player out of Canada is an NFL prospect but only has a PS# around 150 or 200. Therefore, they are often more talented than their PS# would give them credit for.

On page 305 are all of this year's top freshmen and JUCO's. By the end of the year, many will have played and some will already be stars. If you like this type of information, you will love my 2007-2012 Complete Freshmen Recruiting Report. It is just $15 and lists all of the top recruits for all of the different positions over the last 6 years.

HOW MUCH DID YOUR FAVORITE TEAM LOSE?

Below is a chart submitted by Kim Keep from http://home.comcast.net/~keepersfootball/site/?/home/. It provides what % of stats has been lost from a teams rushing, passing and receiving yards. It also gives you the % of tackles lost from the team's defense. The numbers are from the spring rosters so if a player was suspended or not on the roster his numbers were not included. The rankings are based on Kim's formula with Sam Houston State ranked #1 meaning they lost the least or return the most, whichever way you prefer to look at it. Montana is #120 meaning unfortunately that they are the team which has the most to replace.

A LOOK AT 2011'S OFFENSIVE NUMBERS

While most fans look at a teams total yards gained and total points scored we've taken it one step further. Below is a chart with all the FCS teams comparing total and scoring offense as well as how many yards each team gained per play, how many plays each team averaged per game and how many yards each offense had to gain to score a point. Jackson St led the FCS with 490.9 ypg of offense while the weakest offense had 238.5 ypg. The scoring offenses ranged from 12.6 ppg to LY's FCS leader Stony Brook with 38.0 ppg. By looking at the yds per play Stony Brook had the highest with 6.7 ypp and the range went all the way down to 3.7 ypp. The team that ran the quickest offense with the most plays per game was Morehead St at 84.0 plays/gm while the methodical rush attack of Indiana St only yielded 57.5 plays/gm Finally lets look at yards per point which shows how efficient a team offense is or how much a team was benefitted by great Special Teams play or a defense which caused a lot of turnovers. The top 2 teams with the best offensive yards per point LY actually met in the FCS Title game with both Sam Houston St and North Dakota St at 11.0 and as mentioned above both were helped by turnovers and made our Turnover=Turnaround list on page 7.

A LOOK AT 2011'S DEFENSIVE NUMBERS

As we do with almost all of our charts after looking at the offensive numbers on pg 15 here's the defense. Below is a chart with all the FCS teams comparing total and scoring defense as well as how many yards each team allowed per play, how many plays each teams defense averaged per game and how many yards each defense allowed to score a point. FCS teams LY allowed from 245.0 yards/game to 514.9 ypg with Texas Southern not only finishing 1st but they allowed 30.8 ypg less than #2 Norfolk St. The Nat'l Champion North Dakota St Bison had the best scoring D allowing 12.7 pts/gm while last place scoring defense allowed 45.6 ppg. The Norfolk St defense finished #1 allowing only 4.1 yds/play while the most porous gave up a whopping 7.4 yds/play. Defenses can wear out if on the field too much but that wasn't the case for Texas Southern which averaged just 53.5 plays/gm while the Valparaiso D was on the field for 77.7 plays/gm. The North Dakota St defense only allowed 1 point for every 24.8 yds it's opponent gained while Texas Southern led in defensive yards gained but was last in yards/point as they gave up a point every 9.5 yards. So the next time you are checking a teams offensive or defense rankings take it step further to truly evaluate how well the unit has performed.

Last 15 Years Matchups on Every FBS Game This Year... Only at PhilSteele.com

PhilSteele.com is loaded with information but the chart above is my favorite type of info on the site and it is exclusively at PhilSteele.com. When you click on this year's schedule for each team you can click on any opponent and the past matchups chart will pop up. I used the Texas/Oklahoma matchup above as an example as it is one of the top rivalry games. The chart not only gives you the score of each of the past 15 years but it gives you the complete box score and much more. You will notice the matchup above is from the Texas team page. Therefore green numbers are good for Texas and red numbers are bad. At a glance you can see that Texas had a streak of 5 straight losses from '00-'04 but has won 4 of the last 7 since. A check of the last column quickly shows you that last year was the first time in 5 years that one team outgained the other by 100 yds. The Individual Game Grade is something I devised 3 years ago so it only goes back that far. If you look at the ranked columns to the left you see that both teams have been ranked in 11 of the last 12 meetings (6 str years). The "Upset" column lets you quickly see how many upsets there have been in the series (4) the last 15 years. This is available RIGHT NOW for EVERY FBS game being played this year!

TWICE AS MUCH INFO PER TEAM AS THIS MAGAZINE!!!
THE BEST NFL PREVIEW ON THE MARKET

DEFENSIVE LINE - The Giants have the best 8-deep DL rotation in the league. In fact, their 2nd string is arguably better than a few of the league's #1's. In 2010, NY was knocking around opposing QB's like it did back in 2007 while also shutting down some of the NFL's top RB's such as Adrian Peterson and Arian Foster. The Giants often play 4 DE's at the same time, but all 8 players are versatile and they get great up-field rush. The Giants led the league in red zone defense (66 of 208, 31.7%), were 8th vs the run (101 ypg) and 5th with 46 sacks (tied for 2nd most here in the L/10 yrs). DE's Justin Tuck and Osi Umenyiora each had 11.5 sacks LY. Tuck became the primary physical and vocal presence on the defense after Michael Strahan and Antonio Pierce departed. He plays the run equally well, chipping in 76 tackles. Umenyiora was rejuvenated after a subpar 2009 and began last year second string before coming on. He has led or tied for a team lead in sacks 5 of the last 6 years but did spend the offseason in the news regarding a contract dispute and it's uncertain at presstime whether we will be with the Giants in 2011. Mathias Kiwanuka only played 3 (inj'd) and at the time he went out, he may have been the DL's top player after notching 4 sacks. Jason Pierre-Paul benefitted as a rookie from opponents scheming to stop the other 2 DE's on the team. NY's 1st RD selection in 2010, Pierre-Paul needs to get stronger and learn the playbook better, but he still has great upside and should improve upon his 4.5 sacks. One of the team's biggest losses heading into 2011 is NT Barry Cofield who accepted a contract offer with the rival Redskins. Replacing Cofield in the starting rotation is 2010 2nd rounder Linval Joseph who barely played as a rookie because of the team's depth and is definitely a notch or two below Cofield's level. Chris Canty holds the point well at the other starting DT spot as he continues to lower his pad level to compensate for his giant 6'7" frame. NY went for another DT in the 2nd RD TY in Marvin Austin, who didn't play at North Carolina LY due to receiving improper benefits. Austin has a lot to prove, and is an explosive 3-technique penetrator who fills gaps. As long as everyone remains healthy and the Giants are able to rekindle a good relationship with Umenyiora, this will remain a dangerous unit for the upcoming season.

As you know a few years back we reached the maximum amount of pages I could put into my College Preview magazine. If I had 800 pages to work with I could put 6 full pages on each of the 124 FBS college teams and give even more complete writeups. The GREAT thing about my NFL magazine is that there are only 32 teams to work with so 6 full pages per team only takes up 192 pages. This allows us to be as in-depth as possible on each position. We have 6 statistical areas that we compare each unit to the rest of the NFL and rank them on each page.

The example on the left shows the NY Giants defensive line. We grade each DL by sacks and tfl's the previous year (how often do they get in the backfield), how many tackles the DL made (how active are they) and then compare how much of that production is coming forward against the other 31 teams. The units production over the previous 3 seasons in terms of sacks and tfl's are also compared as is the quality of the draft picks at the position for the 2 deep. Please check out page 341 for a complete layout of the SIX NFL team pages that we had for the Super Bowl Champion NY Giants last season.

You also get my NFL Fantasy Football Guide written by Erik Kuselias included in the magazine making it even more valuable. The Fantasy Football Top 100 & the Top Four Impact Players for each team are must-haves for anyone wanting to win their league.

PHIL STEELE'S FCS TOP 40

1) SAM HOUSTON ST - LY we had the Bearkats #22 at the start of the ssn and they of course easily surpassed that going 11-0 in the reg ssn incl an OT win at New Mexico. They were ranked #1 into the playoffs but after the long layover lost a defensive struggle in the FCS Championship game to finish #2. TY they ret 16 st'rs incl their top 6 rushers (all 266+ yds) and 11 of their top 13 tkl'rs. With 2 FBS foes on the schedule they will likely not be undefeated after the regular ssn but now with the extra practices and playoff experience from LY and the hunger created by coming up just short, we will call for the Bearkats to take the FCS Title TY.

2) JAMES MADISON - Last year JMU's 5 losses were to North Carolina and 4 ranked FCS tms including FCS Champ NDSU and 2 of those were by a combined 4 pts. They were #2 in the FCS in avg home attendance LY avg over 25,000. The Dukes are our pick to win the highly competitive CAA this year as they have the best schedule of the conf's top 5 teams with 2 sets of our power ratings calling for them to go 8-0 in CAA play. They ret 13 st'rs, get a '10 starter back and add in 3 BCS transfers on D.

3) MONTANA ST - The Bobcats have had 10 straight winning seasons, the longest streak in their history. LY after an opening loss to Utah they won 9 straight and were ranked #1 before falling to rival Montana in the reg ssn finale. They had their 1st playoff win since '06 but lost in the quarterfinals to SHSU. This year while they return just 14 st'rs, they ret 73% of their lettermen, 9 of their top 10 tkl'rs, their top 4 rushers and QB DeNarius McGhee. They have a good conf schedule hosting EWU, avoiding NAU and while they play their rival UM in Missoula, the road tm has won 3 straight in the series and the Grizzlies are in a rebuilding year. That has us calling for the Bobcats to win a 3rd straight Big Sky Title.

4) YOUNGSTOWN ST - All 4 of the Penguins FCS losses LY were by 7 pts or less (comb 17 pts) and they were the only team to beat FCS Champion North Dakota St. They were a MVFC best +88.8 ypg in conf play and this year ret 16 st'rs incl 10 on offense and add several transfers to fill in the defensive holes. We will call not only for the Penguins to make their first playoffs since 2006 but to also capture their 1st conference crown since that same year as they are our pick for MVFC Champ.

5) WOFFORD - The Terriers outgained conf foes by a SoCon best in each of the last 2 years (+98 & +131 ypg) but while they won a share of the SoCon Crown in '10 they tied for #2 LY. They still made their 4th playoffs in 5 yrs but fell to UNI by 7. TY they ret 15 st'rs incl AA FB Eric Breitenstein and a conf best 73% of their lettermen. They are our pick to win the 3 headed monster that is the SoCon which is a big accomplishment for one of Div-I's smallest schools.

6) NORTH DAKOTA ST - The Bison had an almost perfect season LY as their only loss was to YSU by 3. NDSU did it with a defense that again was in the top 10 in takeaways helping the Bison to a rare 2nd straight ssn with positive DD TO's (+15 in '10, +18 LY). They also held their 4 playoff opp to a combined 27 pts. Surprisingly they were actually 7th in the MVFC being outgained by 27.9 ypg in conf play. TY they ret 14 st'rs incl 8 on D but do lose their top 2 tkl'rs. While one set of power ratings call for an 11-0 ssn (incl an FBS win), they have the burden of being the FCS's reigning champs and will get an extra effort from every opponent week in & week out but are capable of a 2nd straight Championship.

7) EASTERN WASHINGTON - The Eagles won the FCS Championship in '10 but after just missing out on defeating Washington in LY's opener, shockingly opened 0-4. They rallied however to have a 5th straight winning ssn at 6-5. TY they must replace Payton Award winner QB Bo Levi Mitchell but bring in Kyle Padron who replaced Mitchell as the starter at SMU. They also ret 14 st'rs and 75% of their lettermen. While a game at Montana St may keep them from the Big Sky Title, they should return to the playoffs and if they regain the Red Turf magic they had in '10 could find themselves in the FCS Title hunt.

8) TOWSON - Every year there seems to be a team which comes out of nowhere and makes a big splash in the FCS. LY that team was Towson, as after 4 str losing years incl a 1-10 season in '10, the Tigers not only made the playoffs but won the outright CAA title. A big part was true frosh RB Terrance West who won the inaugural Jerry Rice Award for the FCS's top frosh. TY they ret 18 st'rs but face 2 FBS teams incl LSU the week before a crucial CAA gm vs James Madison. They played well as an underdog coming into LY but how they handle the pressure of being the CAA favorite will have a lot to do with how far they go this year.

9) STONY BROOK - The Seawolves came up just short of upsetting UTEP in LY's opener despite outgaining the Miners. They still won a share of their 3rd straight Big South Title but for the first time got the playoff auto-bid that went with it. After beating Albany they came up just short of upsetting SHSU despite outgaining the Bearkats. You do not normally see a team in the Top 10 which lost a 1,400+ yd rusher but at SBU Brock Jackolski (1418, 6.6) was just the #2 rusher and they add in PS#41RB Marcus Coker (1384, 4.9 at Iowa LY). The Seawolves return 16 st'rs and look to be on track for their 2nd straight auto-bid and another playoff run.

10) GEORGIA SOUTHERN - The Eagles switched back to the option in '10 and they looked like the GSU of old LY. They were ranked #1 by week 3 and seemed to be the team to beat until they were "upset" by conf foe App St but worked their way back up to #3 at the end of the regular ssn. They plowed through two CAA teams but then were shutdown by eventual FCS Champ NDSU. This year they ret 68% of their talented lettermen but just 13 st'rs and they must replace former GT transfer QB Jaybo Shaw, who was the leader of the offense.

11) NEW HAMPSHIRE - The Wildcats have the FCS's longest playoff streak making the post-ssn in 8 straight years. While they lose the CAA OPOY QB Kevin Decker, NH has a long history of talented QB's stepping up. They ret 14 st'rs & 79% of their lettermen and as long as a QB again steps up their streak will continue to grow.

12) DELAWARE - The Blue Hens could not hold onto a 19 pt lead in the 2010 FCS Championship game (2nd appearance 4 yrs). LY despite handing CAA Towson their only conf loss UD sat home for the playoffs at 7-4, thanks in part to 5 other CAA teams making the post season. TY they ret 14 st'rs incl 9 on an already strong D which adds a BCS transfer.

13) STEPHEN F AUSTIN - After 2 straight SLC Titles, the Lumberjacks had to replace a record setting QB and suffered through a 6-5 ssn LY in the shadow of SHSU. TY they ret 16 st'rs and should return to the playoffs for a 3rd time in the last 4 years.

14) NORTHERN ARIZONA - The Lumberjacks have had 4 winning seasons in the last 6 years but have a history of fading late in the season. This year they have the schedule to make a playoff run at the end of the year and with 14 ret st'rs, the talent to be able to do something once they get there.

15) NORTHERN IOWA - The Panthers shared the MVFC crown with NDSU LY but as the #5 seed fell at #4 seed Montana in the quarterfinals. While they return just 10 st'rs they get back 71% of their lettermen and have had 9 straight winning ssn's despite returning 10 or fewer starters in 4 of those years.

16) APPALACHIAN ST - The Mountaineers have made 7 straight playoff appearances but after winning 3 straight FCS Titles haven't been back to the title game in the last 4 yrs. TY while they ret 13 st'rs, they lose 42% of their lettermen and will not win the SoCon for a 2nd straight yr.

17) EASTERN KENTUCKY - The Colonels finished in a 3 way tie for the OVC title LY and made their 1st playoff in 3 yrs. TY they ret 17 st'rs and are our pick to take home the OVC Crown.

18) LEHIGH - The Mountain Hawks have won the Patriot League the L/2 yrs and for a 2nd straight yr beat a big conf champ as after beating UNI in '10, they beat Towson LY. They are the clear favorite in the PL again and will look to get another big playoff win for a 3rd straight ssn.

19) OLD DOMINION - The Monarchs would have been the talk of the CAA in their 1st ssn in the conf except for Towson's Turnaround Tigers. TY will be their last in the CAA as they move up to the FBS. That we pick them at #19 only shows the quality of the depth in the CAA.

20) MONTANA - Picking the Grizzlies outside of the Top 10 is always a scary proposition especially as they just missed out on the Championship Game LY. However, they return just 7 st'rs and lost their HC mid-spring practice and off-field questions remain a distraction.

21) ILLINOIS ST - While the Redbirds return just 11 st'rs, they added 7 FBS transfers to fill in the holes but play in the highly competitive MVFC.

22) SOUTH CAROLINA ST - The Bulldogs are our pick to win a strong MEAC as they host both of the other main challengers in Bethune-Cookman & Norfolk St.

23) HARVARD - With 14 returning starters the Crimson are our pick to win the Ancient 8 this year but will have a tough game at Penn.

24) JACKSONVILLE ST - The Gamecocks have an early OVC showdown with EKU and despite returning just 11 ret st'rs have the talent to finish strong.

25) ALABAMA ST - The Hornets look like the team to beat in the SWAC East and we will call for them to take the SWAC Title as well.

26) SOUTHERN ILLINOIS..... Will return to their winning ways after 2 down yrs.

27) MCNEESE ST..... With 16 ret st'rs MSU could make some noise in the SLC.

28) GRAMBLING ST..... The Tigers are our top pick of the SWAC West.

29) CHATTANOOGA..... The Mocs have the talent to compete with the SoCon's top 3.

30) MAINE..... Will need a late winning streak to return to the playoffs TY.

31) CENTRAL ARKANSAS..... Despite just 12 ret st'rs are still a talented tm.

32) MURRAY ST..... The Racers could make an outside run for the OVC crown.

33) INDIANA ST..... Sycamores are down a little from LY but are still happy to be here.

34) WILLIAM & MARY..... A rebuilding but talented team who could pull some upsets.

35) PENN..... The Quakers are Harvard's top challenger for the Ivy.

36) NORFOLK ST..... LY's MEAC champ, who will again be in the title hunt TY.

37) DUQUESNE..... Our pick to take home the NEC Title.

38) UT MARTIN..... An early chance at an FBS upset could propel them even higher.

39) LIBERTY..... A talented team which lost their HC due to their success.

40) HOLY CROSS..... Will be Lehigh's top challenger for the Patriot League Title.

This list takes into account not only talent but strength of schedule as some teams that would likely win a head-to-head contest are listed below others because they have a tougher schedule and will have a weaker record. MONTANA STATE BOBCATS

Rob Ash (Div I Career 164-83-2)
6th Year at Montana State (39-20)

Bozeman, Montana — Enrollment: 13,500

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 former Oreg trans Cody Kempt (PS#78) who had started the L/6 in '09 (1108, 58%, 9.4) was beaten out by rFr DeNarius McGhee as new OC Brian Wright's off had the QB's taking snaps from under center. McGhee was the BSC co-OPOY throwing for 3,163 (63%) with an impressive 23-6 ratio and 181 rush yds (2.3, 2 td). Kempt threw for just 151 (62%, 3-1) and departed. LY McGhee ret'd along with JC Grayson Galloway, who RS here in '10. McGhee's numbers dropped to 2,799 (61%) with just a 24-14 ratio but he rushed for 340 (3.8, 5 td). Galloway (8 att) left the team leaving only frosh as backups. McGhee returns but loses his top target and will be behind a rebuilt OL, but still could improve his numbers after his sophomore slump.

RB's - MSU ret'd 3 of their top 4 RB's in '10 incl #2 CJ Palmer (510, 4.4) but had to replace '09's #1, 2nd tm BSC Aaron Mason (618, 4.8). They added JC transfer Orenzo Davis and he led with 1,126 (5.5) earning 2nd tm BSC while Palmer was #2 (447, 5.9). LY they looked to ret their top 6 but Davis was ruled ineligible in June. They also added Nebraska transfer Tray Robinson (PS#82, 266 ttl yds 2Y). Surprisingly Cody Kirk, who had just 142 (3.8) in '10, led with 1,351 (5.6, 14 td) earning 1st tm BSC. Robinson was 2nd tm BSC with 641 (5.3) while Palmer had just 100 (3.7). TY they lose Palmer but ret their top 4 rushers and also get Davis back. This is a talented and deep unit.

Rec's - In '10 MSU ret'd their top 3 rec in Everett Gilbert (556, 12.1), Julius Lloyd (442, 12.3) and former Oreg tran Elvis Akpla (380, 14.1). Lloyd led with 711 (19.8, 7 td) but departed LY along with 2nd tm BSC TE Kyle Begger (253, 9.7). They ret'd 3 HM BSC WR's in Akpla (682, 15.9), Gilbert (574,12.0) and Tanner Bleskin (502,15.2). Akpla whose one handed grab vs SHSU made ESPN's Top 25 Plays of the 2011 ssn, won AA honors with 1,145 (18.2, 11 td) while Bleskin was #2 with just 417 (13.9) and Gilbert had just 152 (8.9). TY they lose Akpla and TE Steven Foster (11 st) moves to the OL but ret 6 of their top 7 incl John Ellis, who was the #3 rec despite just 1 start. The loss of an AA hurts but there is good depth and as long as someone steps up should be close to LY's unit.

O-Line - The OL lost a 1st tm BSC RG in '10 but ret'd 5 who comb for 44 sts led by 1st tm BSC RT Mike Person. They improved from 147 (3.9) to 176 rush ypg (4.5) and again all'd just 18 sks. LY they lost 1st tm BSC LT Person (#7DC SF) and 1 bkp. They ret'd 7 who comb for 48 sts incl 2nd tm BSC RG Alex Terrien and added a JC. They also looked to add an Oreg trans but he quit prior to the ssn. The OL paved the way for 212 ypg rush (most s/88, 219) while allowing just 16 sks (4.7%) thanks in part to a mobile QB (#3 rusher). TY they lose 6 OL who comb for 52 sts incl AA RT/RG Terrien and 1st tm BSC LT Conrad Burbank. They move in TE Foster (11 st) and ret HM BSC C Shaun Sampson (13 st) plus add in 2 JUCO's but the only other OL with gm exp is bkp LT Quinn Catalano. How the OL comes together will determine if MSU will be in the BSC Title hunt.

D-Line - In '10 MSU lost 1st tm BSC Fletcher (#3 tkl'r, 17 tfl) but ret'd 6 who comb for 35 st incl 1st tm BSC DT Dan Ogden (#6 tkl'r) and DE John Laidet (#9). The DL went from all'g just 82 ypg rush in '09 to 153 ypg (4 gm 248+ rush yd) with 6 fewer sks. LY they lost 1st tm BSC Ogden (#5 tkl'r, 6.5 sk), NT Jason D'Alba (11 st, 31 tkl) and BAN Dustin O'Connell (6st, 13 tkl). They ret'd DE Laidet (11st, 28 tkl) and DT Zach Minter (28 tkl, 10 tfl). While their rush ypg remained close (149, 4.5) they led the BSC with 43 sks. TY they lose DE Laidet (13 st, #11 tkl'r) and NT Christian Keli'i (11 st, t-#15) but ret AA DT Minter (13st, #6, 7.5 sk), BAN Caleb Schreibeis (13 st, #3, 7 sk) and 2nd tm BSC DE Brad Daly (#10) who despite 0 sts led the BSC with 12.5 sk.

LB's - In '10 the LB unit had to replace their #7, #9 and #11 tkl'rs but ret'd 2nd tm BSC MLB Clay Bignell (#1 tkl'r), SLB Jody Owens (#4) and added JC Roger Trammell but their ppg all'd rose from 22.2 to 25.8. LY they ret'd 4 LB who comb for 33 sts incl WLB Owens (#2, 8.5 tfl) and MLB Bignell (#7) but SLB Aleksei Grosulak (#1) tore his ACL in April. MSU improved slightly to all'g 24.5 ppg. TY they lose 2nd tm BSC MLB Bignell (#2 tkl'r) and SLB Roger Trammell (3 st, 11 tkl). They ret AA WLB Owens (#1 tkl'r, 17 tfl), SLB Na'a Moeakiola (#9) along with Grosulak (8 tkl) who missed the spg rehabbing his knee.

DB's - In '10 the secondary lost 2nd tm BSC CB Kevin Retoriano (#8 tkl'r) but ret'd 6 who comb for 33 sts led by FS Michael Rider (#1 tkl'r, 4 int) and SS Jordan Craney (#5). They finished #59 in pass eff D all'g a 19-8 ratio. LY they lost FS Rider (#3 tkl'r) and SS Craney (#4). They ret 'd 3 who comb for 19 sts in S Joel Fuller (#9 tkl'r), CB Darius Jones (11 pbu) and CB Sean Gords. They improved to #18 in pass eff D (50.7%) with a 19-12 ratio. TY the unit ret intact led by 2nd tm BSC S Fuller (#4 tkl'r), 2nd tm BSC CB Jones (t-#4) and HM BSC FS Steven Bethley (#7) and they add in Texas trans Eryon Barnett (PS#47).

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 the ST unit only lost their P but true frosh P Rory Perez had a 36.6 net while 1st tm BSC K Jason Cunningham hit 20-24 (L/55) and they finished #19 in our ST rankings. Both ret'd LY along with their top RM but they dropped to our #98 unit as Cunningham hit just 22-31 (L/55) while the tm's net fell to 32.4. TY they only lose Cunningham and could improve.

COACHES - HC Rob Ash enters his 6th ssn here after 18 yrs as the HC at Drake and he was the BSC COY in '10. DC Jamie Marshall moved over with him from Drake. OC Brian Wright left after 2 yrs to become the OC at FAU. The new OC is Kevin McGiven who was the OC at Weber St ('06-'08) and asst HC at Utah St ('09) and Memphis ('10-'11).

Overview - MSU came into '11 ranked #6 and was looking for a better finish after being stunned by NDSt in the 2nd rd of the '10 playoffs. They only lost to Utah by 17 and then blew out UC Davis & Minot St. MSU led defending FCS Champ EW 26-21 in the 4Q before pulling away. After a close 1H vs a ranked Sac St, MSU led by 17 in the 4Q. They allowed PSU 17 4Q pts but stopped a would be game tying 2 pt conv & held on for the win. They led NAU 34-10 in the 3Q but struggled against UNC (24-21 mid 4Q). They then blew out ISU. Against Weber St they trailed 24-20 at the half but outscored the Wildcats 24-0 in the 2H. They then were smacked by rival Montana with whom they would share the BSC Title. They made a comeback after trailing UNH 19-9 late 2Q but then needed a blk'd xp with :06 left. In the playoffs they then were blown out by SHSU and again ended the ssn on a down note. While the D again looks strong, how well a very young OL under a new OC does will determine how far they go TY.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '09 Matt Nichols was the Big Sky OPOY and left as the Big Sky's career leader (12,616 pass, 13,308 ttl yds). In '10 SMU transfer Bo Levi Mitchell (PS#122) threw for 3,496 (59%, 37-15) and was the FCS Champ gm MVP. His bkps comb for 119 yds (1-1). LY Mitchell threw for an EW ssn rec 4,009 (63.2%, 33-13) leading the FCS in ttl ypg (364) and winning the Payton Award. He departs as EW's #3 car passer in just 2 ssn's. Anthony Vitto played in 3 gms the L/2 yrs. Vitto split all of the snaps in the spg with rFr Vernon Adams. True frosh Bowe Merin will join in the fall. The big addition came in late May in SMU trans Kyle Padron, who replaced an inj Mitchell in '09 and threw for 3,828 (59%, 31-14) as a Soph at SMU in '10 before being inj LY (med RS) and replaced. EW led the FCS with 368.4 ypg passing LY and if Padron wins the job, they should reload again but this is a very inexperienced group without him.

RB's - In '10 EW ret'd their top 3 rushers led by 1st tm BSC Taiwan Jones (1213, 7.5). Jones was BSC co-OPOY (1742, 7.9) but left early for the NFL (#4DC). LY EW ret'd Mario Brown (341, 3.4) and Darriell Beaumonte (219, 2.7) and added Wash trans Demitrius Bronson (PS#69). Surprisingly they were led by 2 true frosh in Jordan Talley and Quincy Forte who also comb for 395 rec yds (8.4). Brown added 141 (3.3) while Bronson had just 21 (1.5). TY they lose Beaumonte (3rd tm BSC ST,15 tkl). They are a little more exp'd and should improve.

Rec's - In '10 EW lost their top 3 rec's and their top ret WR's were Nicholas Edwards (334, 12.8) and Brandon Kaufman (294, 12.8). Kaufman (1st tm BSC) led the conf with 1,214 yd (16.0). Edwards was #2 (614, 10.8) and Greg Herd was #3 (374, 11.7). LY all 3 ret but they lost their starting TE. Kaufman was lost after 4 gms but still finished #4. Edwards set the EW rec with 95 rec's (Erik Kimble '05, 87) and tied the EW rec for rec td's (Erik Kimble '07, 19) while winning AA honors. 2nd tm BSC Herd was the #2 rec while Ashton Clark was #3. TY they lose TE David Miles (9 st, 4 rec) but ret their top 9 rec's and add true frosh Dalis Bruce (PS#175), and depending on the QB position could have another huge ssn.

O-Line - The OL ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 (35 car sts) and their rush ypg improved to 156 (4.8) and they trimmed their sks all'd to 24 (4.6%). LY they lost 1 st'r (14st) and 2 bkps (3st). They ret'd 4 (81 car sts) who started 13+ incl 1st tm AA C Chris Powers and 2nd tm BSC LT Gabriel Jackson. They were hit hard by inj's as 1 ret st'r and 2 others who earned sts were all OFY by gm 3. With the inj's and having to replace an NFL DC RB, their numbers plunged to 79.0 ypg (3.0) while allowing 27 sks (5.3%). TY they lose AA C Powers (8 st, 3 yr st'r), LT Jackson (11 st, 3 yr st'r) and 2 bkps (4 sts). They ret 6 OL with starting exp incl 3 that st'd 8+ LY and while less exp'd (60 car sts) they should remain healthier and can only improve on their worst rush numbers in over 16 yrs.

D-Line - In '10 EW ret'd 1st tm BSC DT Renard Williams (7st, 35 tkl, 16 tfl), DE Evan Cook (10st, 30 tkl) and NT Tyler Jolley (11st, 44 tkl). They all'd 140 ypg rush and improved their ypc all'd from 3.9 to 3.5 ypc but their sack ttl only rose from 29 to 33 despite 3 more gms. LY they lost DT Jolley (10 tfl) but ret'd DT Williams (15st, 16 tfl), DE Paul Ena (11st, #8 tkl'r, 10 tfl) and DE David Gaylord (8st, 26 tkl). They added Wash tran Andru Pulu (PS#94) but he RS. Shockingly EW allowed 213.2 ypg rush (4.8), their worst in over 16 yrs, with just 27 sks. TY they lose 2nd tm BSC DT Williams (9 st, 23 tkl, 9tfl) and DT Charles Moetului (11 st, #8 tkl'r, 5 tfl). They ret 5 with starting exp incl Ena (11 st, #6 tkl'r, 12 tfl) along with DE Jerry Ceja (21 tkl) who led with 5.5 sks & DT Pulu. They can only improve on LY's poor performance.

LB's - In '10 the LB unit ret'd SLB Zach Johnson (#1 tklr '08, OFY inj '09) along with AA JC Sherritt (#1 FCS, 170 tkl) and improved from 27.4 to 24.9 ppg all'd. AA Sherrit won the Buchanan Awd (#1 FCS 176 tkl) but departed LY. The unit ret'd 2nd tm BSC WLB Johnson (#2 tkl'r, 17.5 tfl) and MLB Tyler Washburn (#4 tkl'r) but Johnson was lost after 4 sts and EW all'd 30.2 ppg (most s/'01, 31.7). Johnson was awarded a 6th yr so EW ret's 6 who comb for 29 sts LY (all in top 14 tkl'r) led by SLB Ronnie Hamlin (#1 tkl'r) and Grant Williams (#3). They also add HT true frosh Jordan Pulu (PS#113) and are talented and deep.

DB's - The secondary lost 3 who comb for 20 sts incl their #4 tklr in '10. They ret'd SS Matt Johnson (#2 tkl'r, 6 int) and improved from all'g 289 ypg pass (63%, 21-17 ratio) to 239 ypg (57%, 16-26). LY they lost both CB's (2nd tm BSC CB, #7 tkl'r & #5 tkl'r) but ret'd 1st tm BSC S Johnson (#3 tkl'r, 5 int) and S Jeff Minnerly (#10 tkl'r, 3 int). Partially due to team's running success they improved from #84 to #27 in pass eff D, all'g 199 ypg (64.8%, 17-7) despite Johnson being lost after 7 sts. TY they lose Johnson (#4 tklr) and 2 CB's (comb 13 st). They ret S Minnerly (8 st, #2 tkl'r), S Allen Brown (7 st, #5) and CB TJ Lee (8 st, #6) and add HT true frosh Diamonte Wiggins (PS#247). With the loss of Johnson (#4 DC DAL) and an improved rush D, their numbers may slip a little although they could improve their td/int ratio.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY EW lost their P & top KR. They ret'd K Mike Jarrett and added Wash St trans P Jake Miller. Their ST ranking dropped from our #37 in '10 to #54 LY despite Jarrett leading the FCS with 2.18 fg/gm. He departs with the EW car rec for kick scoring (236). They ret their top RM, Miller (tm net 36.3) along with K Jimmy Pavel (3 TB on 51 KO) but will be down a bit.

COACHES - HC Beau Baldwin enters his 5th ssn. Aaron Best enters his 12th as a cch here and his 4th as OC while John Graham returns for his 5th as DC.

Overview - Expectations were high LY for the FCS Champs with 14 st'rs back but EW was hit hard by inj's. In the opener, they were int'd in the EZ with :48 left & lost by 3 to Wash. SD ambushed them & then they lost by 3 at Montana. MSU handed them their first loss ever on the Red Turf & they were 0-4. They hung on vs both Weber St & NAU but breezed by UNC. They needed a late td to force OT vs Sac St & won. They were outscored 21-6 in the 2H vs PSU (5th loss). They again got a late td to force OT vs Cal Poly & won in 3 OT (CP 2 pt ng). They beat ISU for a 5th straight winning ssn but sat home for the playoffs. TY the Off loses a Payton Awd winning and QB but add another SMU transfer QB & should reload with 7 ret st'rs. The D despite losing an NFL DC, returns 7 st'rs, 13 of their top 16 tkl'rs, gets back LB Johnson (6th yr). They also add an FBS trans (RS LY) and 2 HT frosh & can only improve upon LY's poor numbers (30.2 ppg, 412 ypg). TY EW hosts both UM & Sac St & looks to be in the BSC hunt once again.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 former Ole Miss trans Michael Herrick (PS#30) threw for 2,061 (63%,15-9) but departed. Former Ariz St trans Chase Stangel (PS#83) threw for 376 (61%, 2-0) while Cary Grossart played in 1 gm (3-4-58) but still RS. Both ret'd LY along with rFr Chase Cartwright. Stangel played in just 1 (no stats) and departs. Grossart st'd all 11 throwing for 2,745 (65.9%) with a 16-7 ratio and was the #3 rusher (65, 0.8) while Cartwright played in just 3 (9-13-130). Both ret but will be under a new OC who was hired during spring camp.

RB's - NAU had to replace a 1,000 yd rusher in '10 and their top returnee was Giovannie Dixon (252, 6.5). Dixon finished #2 (512, 6.2) but 2nd tm BSC Zach Bauman led as a true frosh with 1,059 (4.5,14 td). Both ret 'd LY along with 2nd tm BSC FB Vinnie Paciulli (4 st) and Boise St trans Jake Hess. Bauman became the first NAU RB to rush for over 1,000 yds in both of his 1st two ssn's. He was then unanimous 1st tm BSC RB (1435, 5.3, 15 td) and was also the #2 rec. Hess beat out Paciulli and was 2nd tm BSC FB. TY they lose Paciulli (8 yd) while Dixon (286, 8.9) was not with the tm in the spg. Bauman and Hess ret. They move in WR Austin Shanks (RS LY) and add VHT Cal transfer Covaughn DeBoskie-Johnson (PS#17) giving them a solid 1-2 punch.

Rec's - In '10 NAU lost their top 4 rec who comb for 2,761 yds incl 1st tm BSC WR Ed Berry (1075, 14.3). Their top returnee was WR Daiveun Curry-Chapman (227, 8.4) and they added San Jose St trans Khalil Paden. LY they lost 2nd tm BSC Curry-Chapman (738, 10.7) and TE Nick Larson (117, 18.4). They looked to ret 4 of their top 5 incl 2nd tm BSC WR Austin Shanks (613, 9.4), Mike Czyz (331, 12.7) and Paden (200, 10.0) but Shanks RS. Paden led with 991 (16.2) while Czyz had just 97 (13.9). Both depart along with TE Brian Riley (8 st). Two stepped up LY in so Ify Umodu (667, 13.3) and true frosh Dejzon Walker (328, 14.9). Both return while Shanks moves to RB, but the team is slightly ahead of LY's unit.

O-Line - The OL ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 in C Kris Poindexter, RG Jeff Hines and LT Anthony Williams. They improved their rush ypg from 131 (4.0) to 138 but their 3.8 ypc was the worst S/'05 while allowing 17 sks (4.4%). LY they lost 1st tm BSC C/RG Poindexter (11 st), LT Williams (9 st), C Jeff Hines (4 st) and RG Adrian Garcia (2 st). They ret'd LG Alex Mott (11 st) and RT Trey Gilleo (11 st) along with RT Matt Wilson (1 st) and RG Dwight Boyd (5 st). While their rush numbers increased to 166 ypg with a 4.4 ypc (best s/'07) their sks all'd doubled to 34 despite QB Grossart rushing for 65 net yds. TY they lose 2nd tm BSC C Mott (11st) and HM BSC OG Boyd (11 st). While they ret three 11 gm st'rs in HM BSC OG Kyle Walker, HM BSC OT Gilleo and OT Wilson they have just 1 other upperclassman OL. With a new OC look for them to try to cut the sack ttl as the rest of the OL gains exp.

D-Line - In '10 NAU ret'd 6 who comb for 42 sts incl 2nd tm BSC DE Isaac Bond (#5 tkl'r) and DE Brandon Vance (#7, 6 sk) while getting back Kyle Rath (#8 tkl'r '08) who missed the '09 ssn (inj) and Michael Battisti, who was lost in the '09 opener. They cut their rush ypg all'd from 125 ypg (3.8) to 94 ypg (2.9) with 33 sks (#1 BSC both categories). LY they lost NG Kainoa Pe'a (#8 tkl'r), DE Rath (9 tfl) and DE Battisti (25 tkl, 3.5 sk). They ret'd 1st tm BSC DE Isaac Bond (#9 tkl'r, 5.5 sk) and DT Dan Pela (11 st, 27 tkl) but allowed their worst ypg s/'07 (139) and 4.3 ypc while their sk ttl dropped to 26. TY they lose 4 DL who comb for 30 sts in 1st tm BSC DE Bond (#6 tkl'r, 7.5 sk), HM BSC DT Blayne Anderson (#5, 4 sk), DT Pela (18 tkl, 2 sk) and DE Alec Hutton (19 tkl, 2.5 sk). They ret DE Jarret Bilbrey (8st, t-#9 tkl'r, 5 sk), HM BSC DT Tim Wilkerson (5 st, #11, 2 sk) and former SDSt trans Perry Jackson (13 tkl) while adding Boise St trans Justin Jungblut (PS#164) and 5 JC's.

LB's - The LB unit lost their #2 (2nd tm BSC) and #9 tkl'rs in '10 but ret'd Reid Worthington (5 st, #8 tkl'r) and two '08 st'rs who RS in '09 (inj) in Cody Dowd (2nd tm BSC '08) and Anthony Llanos (#2 tkl'r '08). NAU all'd just 19.8 ppg, their best S/'95. LY they lost 1st tm BSC Worthington (#1 tkl'r), Dowd (#2) and Llanos (#6). They ret'd 2nd tm BSC Scott McKeever (#3 tkl'r, 5.5 sk) and added JC Ryan Reardon but he was lost after 3 st. They allowed almost 7ppg more and started a NB 5 times. TY they lose HM BSC McKeever (11 st, #1 tkl'r). They ret Craig Frum (10 st, #2 tkl'r), Brandon Phillips (4 st, #8) get back Reardon and add 2 JC's.

DB's - In '10 the secondary ret'd 6 who comb for 45 sts incl 1st tm BSC S Matt Estrada (#1 tkl'r), S Taylor Julio (#3), CB Daivon Dumas (#4) and CB Taelor Worrell (#10). Dumas was lost in the opener (MedRS) but they finished #55 in pass eff D with a 17-10 ratio. LY they lost 2nd tm BSC FS Estrada (#4 tkl'r), CB Worrell (#10, 11 pbu) and CB Brian Hunter (#5, 3 int). They ret'd SS Julio (#7) and FS Taylor Malenfant (1 st, 24 tkl). They also got Dumas back but he st'd just 1 gm (18 tkl). They plummeted to #94 in pass eff D allowing a 19-6 ratio. TY they only lose two 1 gm st'rs incl Dumas. They ret 8 who comb for 49 sts (incl NB) led by SS Malenfant (#4 tkl'r) and CB Anders Battle (#7).

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit lost their P and top PR in '10 but ret'd 2nd tm BSC K Matt Myers (14-18 L/51) and they finished #30 in our ST rankings. LY they only lost their top PR and ret'd 2nd tm BSC P Drew Zamora (42.2 avg) and Myers. Zamora had a 36.0 net and players hit 15-32 L/48 and NAU finished and were #37 in our rankings. TY they lose both kickers and LS Ben Bachelier, who had 200+ successful snaps in his 4 yr car and may drop a bit.

COACHES - HC Jerome Souers enters his 15th yr (8 winning ssns). Andy Thompson enters his 4th yr as DC (6th overall). They added new OC Rich Scangarello in the spg, who was the OC at UC Davis in '08.

Overview - Coming into LY NAU had faded late in the yr for 3 straight ssn's going a comb 4-11 in their final 5 gms of the ssn. With just 9 st'r back LY it looked like a rebuilding yr. NAU started the ssn an expected 1-1. Their comeback bid vs PSU fell short on a failed 2 pt conv. They beat ISU by 17 but could not hold on to a 21-20 halftime lead vs EWU. After an expected loss to MSU, they almost had a comeback win vs Montana but only held a 24-21 4Q lead for 19 sec. They made another comeback vs Sac St but this time held on blocking the would be game tying XP. They cruised past UNC and still had a shot at a winning ssn but faded once again losing their final 2 by 3 pts each (gave up 4Q gm winning scores). This is a much more veteran tm with 14 ret st'rs but they will be adjusting to a new OC. NAU will likely open 1-2 (2 FBS opp) but TY's schedule gives them a good shot at finishing strong and they avoid both MSU & Sac St in conf play giving them a chance at a winning ssn.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 UM ret'd Andrew Selle (3043, 63%, 28-6) and former Oregon trans PS#91 Justin Roper (951, 58%, 8-3). Selle st'd the F/4 until he was inj'd (OFY) finishing with 599 (53%, 5-5). Roper threw for 1,885 (62%,19-11, 120 rush). Both departed LY. UM ret'd Jordan Johnson (PS#177, 15-20-44) and Gerald Kemp (224 rush) while adding Notre Dame transfer Nate Montana. Johnson started 13 throwing for 2,400 (59.8%, 21-9) and was the #3 rusher. With Johnson out Montana st'd vs UNC but in 8 gms he threw for just 274 (61.9%, 2-1) while Kemp had 218 (57.1%, 2-1). Montana transferred while Johnson was susp'd indefinitely in late July. Kemp also had offseason issues but is likely to be the starter if available. If Kemp and Johnson do not play, the QB race will come down to 3 players with 3 career att's in So Shay Smithwick-Hann, rFr Trent McKinney (PS#100) and Stanford trans Adam Brzeczek. This unit is a big ?.

RB's - After back-to-back 1,500 yd ssn's in '08 and '09, RB Chase Reynolds led UM again in '10 but with just 982 (5.1) and fell 3 yds short of becoming UM's all-time leading rusher. LY Reynolds departed and UM's top ret RB's were Dan Moore (42, 3.2) and Peter Nguyen (37, 2.2). Nguyen (7 st) led with 835 (5.5), while Moore (5 st) finished #4 (430, 3.6) and rFr Jordan Canada (1st) was #2 (580, 5.1). All 3 return giving UM a deep and experienced unit.

Rec's - UM lost 3 of their top 4 rec's in '10 only returning #2 rec Jabin Sambrano (512,16.5). UCLA trans Antwon Moutra led in '10 with 600 (16.7) while Sambrano was #2 (584,15.0). LY UM ret'd 8 of their top 9 and added Wash transfer TE Kavario Middleton (PS#3). Sambrano led with 632 (17.6) while Moutra was #3 and Middleton added 270 (12.3). All 3 depart but UM returns WR Sam Gratton (#2) and 1st tm BSC TE Greg Hardy (#6).

O-Line - In '10 UM lost three 15 gm st'rs (two 1st tm BSC). They ret'd C Alec Verlanic (15 st), LT Jon Opperud (14st) and LG Charles Burton (1 st) while adding JC Stephen Sabin. UM's ypg rush dropped for a 2nd straight yr to 140 (4.1) while their sk ttl rose from 19 (3.8%) to 20 (5.2%). LY they lost two 2nd tm BSC OL incl C Verlanic. They ret'd RT Burton (11 st), LG Sabin (10 st) and LT Opperud (10 st) while adding UNLV trans Kjelby Oiland. With a mobile QB (506, 5.7), UM improved to 211 ypg (4.8) and all'd just 10 sks (2.4%). TY they lose AA 1st Tm BSC LT Opperud (12 st), HM BSC RT Burton (13 st), HM BSC C Sabin (14 st) and LT Jeremy Lapan (2 st). The OL returns 4 who comb for 29 sts led by 2nd tm BSC RG Danny Kistler (14 st, RT spg) and LG Oiland (12 st, C spg). They are slightly less experienced and could see a drop off this year.

D-Line - The DL lost two 2nd tm BSC st'rs in '10 but ret'd two 15 gm st'rs in DT Tyler Hobbs (39 tkl, 6 tfl) and DE Severin Campbell (#6 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl) along with DE Bobby Alt (19 tkl, 5 tfl) and added Wash trans Tyrone Duncan (PS#101) after spg. Their rush ypg all'd rose from 109 (3.4) to 150 (3.4) but their sk ttl went from 23 to 30 despite losing 2nd tm BSC DE Campbell (4.5 sk) after 7 st (inj). LY they lost Campbell and DT Hobbs (8 tfl). They ret'd 2nd tm BSC DT Bryan Waldhauser (#7 tkl'r, 5 sk), DE Ryan Fetherston (9 tfl), DE Alt (5.5 tfl) and DT Duncan (22 tkl). While their ypc all'd rose to 3.7 they cut the ypg all'd to 137 and increased the sks to 37. TY they lose all 5 DL who comb for all 56 DL sts and 17.5 sks incl 2nd tm BSC DT Waldhauser (#4 tkl'r, 5.5 sk). They ret DE Josh Harris (#12 tkl'r, 9.5 tfl) but his 43 tkl LY is more than the rest of the DL had combined.

LB's - In '10 UM lost a 1st tm BSC LB (#1 tkl'r) and a 2nd tm BSC LB (#5) but ret'd OLB Alex Shaw (#4 tkl'r). Their ppg all'd rose for a 3rd straight ssn from 19.0 to 22.1. LY they ret'd all 3 st'rs in 2nd tm BSC Caleb McSurdy (#1 tkl'r), Jordan Tripp (#2) and Shaw (#4) but Tripp was lost after 3 gms (Med RS) and they only improved to all'g 19.9 ppg. TY they lose BSC DPOY McSurdy (#1 tkl'r, #7DC DAL) and Shaw (#3). They ret SLB John Kanongata'a (#2 tkl'r) and get Tripp back while adding former Wash walk-on Nick Holt. Losing an NFL DC along with the losses on the DL will likely mean UM's numbers will slip for the 4th time in the L/5 yrs.

DB's - In '10 UM lost a 1st tm BSC FS (#3 tkl'r) and two CB's (#9 & #16). They ret'd SS Erik Stoll (#2 tkl'r) and 1st tm BSC CB Trumaine Johnson (#8, 5 int) along with former st'r Jimmy Wilson. They finished #7 in the FCS in pass eff D (10-12 ratio). LY they lost AA Stoll (#3 tkl'r, 5 int) and FS Wilson (#7DC MIA) but ret'd AA CB Johnson (4 int) and FS Mike McCord (#8). They all'd 51 pass ypg more and dropped slightly to #19 in pass eff D (17-19 ratio). TY they lose 4 who comb for 46 sts LY incl AA CB Johnson (#3DC STL), 2nd tm BSC SS McCord (#7 tkl'r) and 2nd tm BSC CB Houston Roots (#10). They ret FS Bo Tully (8 st, t-#8 tkl'r) and SS Matt Hermanson (1 st, #5). With the loss of 3 All-BSC players comb with the losses on the front 7 look for a sizable drop in UM's pass D ranking.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 UM's ST unit only lost their top PR but then P Sean Wren was inj and RS. K Brody McKnight took over at P (38.5) while also earning 2nd tm BSC at K. RB Nguyen was 1st tm BSC RS (977 ret yd) but UM only finished #73 in our ST rankings. LY everyone ret'd incl McKnight (#1DC CFL). McKnight was HM BSC at both K and P while WR Sambrano was 1st tm BSC RS (1190 ret yd, 2 td) and UM improved to our #29. TY they lose all their top ST players and should drop some.

COACHES - HC Robin Pflugrad, the '11 BSC COY was shockingly dismissed mid-spg. LY's asst HC Mick Delaney, who had retired, ret'd in mid-spg as interim HC but then signed a 2 yr contract. Pflugrad had replaced both coor in the spring promoting 8 yr asst cch Ty Gregorak to DC and hiring former New Mexico St OC ('09) Timm Rosenbach as OC.

Overview - In '10 UM saw both their BSC Title streak (12) and playoff appearance streak (17) end. UM opened at Tenn, their 1st FBS opp s/'06 and lost by 26. After trailing in the 3Q, UM scored the game's final 16 to get by Cal Poly. They held on to defeat defending FCS Champ EW by 3 but then were stunned by Sac St with a UM td with :28 left making it "just" a 14 pt loss. They then took their frustrations out on over-matched UNC & ISU. UM then got come-from-behind wins vs both PSU & NAU. They then waxed both Weber St & W Oregon. On the road vs #1 ranked rival Montana St they took out their 2010 frustrations on the Bobcats winning a share of the Big Sky crown. They were the #4 seed in the playoffs and dispatched both UCA and UNI with ease at home. At #1 SHSU the Grizzlies trailed 21-0 after 1Q and while they battled back they came up 3 pts short. With the off-the-field turmoil, a new HC, 2 new coordinators and just 7 returning starters UM may be reloading.

CAL POLY MUSTANGS

Tim Walsh (Career 134-98)
4th Year at Cal Poly (17-16)
San Luis Obispo, California Enrollment: 19,925

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 ret st'r Tony Smith (1618, 51%, 15-8, 230 rush) battled Andre Broadous (PS#81) in the spring. Smith won the job but missed 4 gms (inj) and threw for just 572 (58%, 2-4) with 192 rush (3.2). Broadous st'd gms 4-7 and had much better numbers (510, 64%, 4-0, 305 rush, 3.5) leading CP to road wins over McNeese St and Old Dominion. Doug Shumway (192, 50%, 2-0), made 1 st (4 gm). Smith departed LY. Broadous was the clear-cut starter and threw for 1,235 (59.4%, 9-1) and was the #2 rusher (646, 3.2) with an amazing 18 rush td's and was 2nd tm GWC. Shumway saw limited action. Both ret TY along with rFr Chris Brown and HC Walsh said Shumway could see time at SB to get him on the field together with Broadous.

RB's - The RB unit ret'd their top 2 in '10 in 1st tm GWC Jake Romanelli (492, 4.6) and Jordan Yocum (459, 4.0). This spread triple-option offense used to rely mostly on the FB but that changed with the addition of WV tran Mark Rodgers. At WV then-asst Doc Holliday compared Rodgers to Percy Harvin and Rodgers earned 3rd tm AA rushing for 882 (6.9) with 208 rec (10.4). FB Jordan Yocum was #2 (497, 4.9) while FB Jake Romanelli (459, 4.5, 8 td) only had 2st but was 2nd tm GWC. WR David Mahr was the #4 rusher with 310 (7.4, 168 rec). Everyone but Yocum ret'd LY. Rodgers dropped to #3 with just 588 (5.2, 198 rec) while 1st tm GWC Romanelli led with 1,015 (4.5, 7 td) but both depart TY. While CP ret 3 of their top 5 rushers the top RB's are former San Diego St signee WB Deonte Williams (385, 4.7) and FB Akaninyene Umoh (74, 3.5). They add Air Force trans Brent Michaels (RS LY) but are a much less experienced unit.

Rec's - In '10 former UCLA transfer Dominique Johnson (PS#41) who had led in '09 with 741 (17.2), led again with just 634 (13.5) but that was 49% CP's rec yds. The only other WR's with a rec (3 of top 4 RB's) were Mike Anderson (1st, 55, 7.9) and Kellen Moriarty (9 st, 37, 9.2). All 3 departed LY leaving this unit without a receiver who made a catch in '10. The cch's were high on rFr Lance Castaneda and he led LY with 283 (10.9) while true frosh Willie Tucker was #2 with 265 (18.9) and former JC Brandon Michalkiewicz added 161 (16.1). Jared Houston made 4 sts in '09 (74, 12.3) and played TB in '10 (41 yd) but in 6st LY had just 4 rec (78, 19.5). TY they only lose Houston and are more exp'd and with HC Walsh wanting the Off to be more explosive should see their numbers increase.

O-Line - The OL ret'd all 5 st'rs in '10 and improved from 179 (3.9) to 253 ypg (4.7) with 7 fewer sks (10, 5.4%) despite losing a pair of st'rs (inj) after just 3 gms. LY they lost 4Y st'r AA Will Mitchell and C Hal Kelley (3 st '10, 14 car). Six OL ret'd that st'd in '10 incl 2x 2nd tm GWC OT Scott Winnewisser and 2nd tm GWC LG Maurice McClure. With 88 car sts ret the unit avg 255 ypg (#7 FCS) but their ypc fell to 4.1 and they all'd 20 sks (10.8%). TY they lose 3 who comb for 30 sts LY incl 1st tm GWC LG Winnewisser and LT McClure. They ret 3 who comb for 24 sts LY and 44 car OL sts. While the OL has a solid core they are less exp'd and could be down a step.

D-Line - The DL ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 and were in the 2nd yr of the 4-3. They improved from all'g 134 (4.1) to 107 rush ypg (3.4) with 9 more sks (26) and if you take out the 253 vs Fresno St they all'd just 92 ypg (3.0). LY they only lost 1st tm GWC DT James Chen. They ret'd 1st tm GWC DE Gavin Cooper (#7 tkl'r, 6 sk), 2nd tm GWC DE Kyle Murphy (#12), DE Brandon Roberts (7st, 39 tkls 2Y) and NT Erich Klemme (#10). Despite the exp they all'd 128 ypg (3.8, 22 sk). TY they lose 3 st'rs in NT Klemme (#8 tkl'r), DE Murphy (#9, 6.5 sk) and DE Roberts (10 st, 16 tkl) along with DE Cooper (5 tkl). They ret HM GWC DT Sullivan Grosz (#7 tkl'r, 6.5 sk) and add Wisc trans DE Jake Irwin and 2 JC's who gave them a talented but inexp'd unit.

LB's - The LB unit lost 1 st'r (#3 tkl'r) in '10 but ret'd Marty Mohamed (#1) and Kenny Jackson (#2) and improved from all'g 27.5 to 25.5 ppg. LY they lost GWC DPOY Mohamed (#1 tkl'r). They ret'd 2nd tm GWC Kennith Jackson (#2 tkl'r) along with Johnny Millard (L/6st), Max Schulz (5 st, 12 tkl) and Xavier Ramos (2st at S, 11 tkl) but they all'd 29.9 ppg, their most since 2000 (35.9). TY they lose SLB Schulz (9st, #12 tkl'r) but ret 1st tm GWC MLB Jackson (#2, 10 pd), WLB Milliard (#1), SLB Nick Dzubnar (#11) and WLB Ramos (1st, 5 tkl). This is the most exp unit on the D but may have trouble improving on LY's numbers.

DB's - The secondary ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 incl 2x 1st tm GWC CB Asa Jackson (#5 tkl'r) and S Scottie Cordier (#9) along with CB Bijon Samoodi (1st, #6) but finished #89 in pass eff D (20-11 ratio). LY they only lost S Cordier (#6 tkl'r) but ret'd CB's in 1st tm GWC Jackson (#4 tkl'r, 11pd), Samoodi (4 st, #3, 5 pbu) and Nico Molino (7st, #5, 7 pbu) along with S's Greg Francis (8st, #9) and Angel Morales (1st). Surprisingly they finished #90 allowing a 26-12 ratio. TY the losses are heavy as they lose AA CB Jackson (#5 tkl'r, 9 pd, #5 DC BAL) and both 11 gm starting S's in Francis (#4), and Morales (#6). They ret CB's Samoodi (11st, #3 tklr), Molino (1st, 16tkl) and Vante Smith-Johnson (1st, #10 tkl'r) but with the losses and an inexp DL could drop even more.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd their #1 K and PR Jackson (15.5 ypr) in '10 but finished #78 in our ST rankings. LY they lost both K's but ret'd PR Jackson (12.6) and KR Rodgers (27.4) and improved to #26 but TY only ret P Paul Hundley (35.2 net) and will drop some.

COACHES - Tim Walsh is in his 4th ssn as HC and returns to the BSC where he cch'd for 14 yrs (PSU). His 4th yr co-OC's Bryan Cook and Saga Tuitele both ret while 2yr LB cch Josh Brown was promoted to DC.

Overview - Cal Poly was off coming off a 7-4 ssn incl upsets of ranked Montana & McNeese St tms but their 14 ret st'rs were 5 fewer than in '10. They only trailed SDSt 28-14 at half trailed 42-14 in the 4Q. They led Montana 23-21 in the 3Q but lost by 14. They led South Dakota St 27-7 at the half. They trailed future MAC Champ NIU 34-7 at the half. They trailed Central Okla 19-10 at the half before blowing them out in the 2H. They scored a td with :45 left to beat SUU by 4. Against a ranked ND team they held on for another 4 pt win and against a ranked SD scored the final 17 pts incl a td with :36 left to win by 3. With the outright GWC Crown within their grasp, Cal Poly trailed UC Davis 24-3 in the 3Q and their comeback fell short so they were co-champs with ND. Against future conf opp EW, CP fell in 3OT (2pt conv NG). CP then shocked South Alabama leading 41-3 in the 4Q. TY looks to be a rebuilding ssn with just 8 st'rs back in their 1st yr in the Big Sky Conference.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - PSU went from the Run & Shoot to the Pistol off in '10. They ret'd 4 QB's in Tygue Howland (3st, 1111, 49%, 5-5 in '08, inj '09), Drew Hubel (8 st, 1976, 56%, 9-12), Connor Kavanaugh (2st, 444, 57%, 2-5, 390 rush) and Justin Engstrom (1st, 303, 49%, 3-6) but Hubel RS. Kavanaugh st'd the F/8 (brk hand OFY) throwing for 1,109 (60%, 6-3, 506 rush). Howland st'd the L/3 (1017, 49%, 3-7) while Engstrom had 12 yd rush. LY everyone but Howland ret'd. Kavanaugh (11 st) threw for 1,628 (58%, 9-6) and led with 1,060 rush (6.5, 7 td). Hubel and Engstrom comb for 392 pass and 26 rush. TY all 3 depart and there is not one player who has taken a snap at QB for PSU. They ret soph Josh Milhollin, who was lost (knee inj) in LY's opener on ST's. They move former Air Force trans Nick Green back to QB from FS and bring in JC Collin Ramirez.

RB's - In '10 PSU's top returning RB was #3 Ben Bowen (275, 4.3) but he moved to FB (3 yd). They moved in WR Cory McCaffrey and added Wash transfer Willie Griffin (PS#107). They switched to a running off and were led by 1st tm BSC McCaffrey (1287, 5.6, 10 td) while Griffin had 204 (3.0). LY all 3 ret'd in the 2nd yr of the system and while the top rusher was QB Kavanaugh, McCaffrey was again 1st tm BSC (731, 6.0) with 13 rush td. Griffin added 314 (4.1) while Bowen played in 7 (3 tkl ST). True frosh Shaquille Richard was the #2 RB with 384 (3.8). TY they lose McCaffrey and Griffin but add Maryland transfer DJ Adams (PS#71) who had 174 (4.3, 4 td) there LY.

Rec's - PSU lost 4 of their top 6 rec in '10 but ret'd #1 Raymond Fry (904, 13.5) along with #5 Keitrell Anderson (101, 16.8), Nevin Lewis (45, 9.0) and Nick Hutter (45, 9.0). Needing TE's (full-time pos in Pistol Off) they added PSU basketball star 6'5" Julius Thomas. Hutter led with just 521 (13.7), 1st tm BSC TE Thomas was #2 (453,15.6) while Fry had just 114 (14.2) and TE Rory Richards (8st) had 89 (7.4). All 4 left LY and Thomas was a #4 DC (DEN). They ret'd 4 of their top 6 led by Justin Monahan (369, 12.3) and Anderson (150, 11.5) and added JC TE Gage Loftin. TY they ret 9 of their top 11 incl #1 Mohanan (707, 13.6), #2 Lewis (337, 15.3), #3 TE Kalua Noa (4 st, 217, 12.8) and TE Loftin (8st).

O-Line - In '10 the OL ret'd 5 who comb for 30 sts (3 st'd 7+) but made a major switch on off. Their rush ypg climbed from 108 ypg (3.6) to 203 (4.7) with 7 fewer sks all'd. LY the OL ret'd 6 who comb 51 sts incl 11 gm st'rs C Adam Kleffner, RT Kyle Ritt and LT Dustin Waldron. In the 2nd yr of the Pistol off their numbers climbed to 248 ypg (5.0) and with a 1,000 yd rusher at QB their sack ttl dropped to 11 (3.9%). TY they lose that QB along with 2nd tm BSC LT Waldron (7st) and OG Kleffner (8 st). They ret 4 OL who comb for 41 sts incl 11 gm st'rs HM BSC C Mitch Gaulke, OT/OG Ritt and RT Mitchell Van Dyk and add a JC.

D-Line - PSU lost 2 st'rs in '10 and switched to the 4-3 so they had an extra spot to fill. They moved ret st'r Travis Beckley (29 tkl, 3 sk) from DE to DT and he had just 14 tkls in 10 sts. PSU gave up a ghastly 6.2 ypc (worst FCS) with just 15 sks. LY they only lost Beckley. They ret'd 6 who comb for 34 sts incl DE Jack Forbes (5 tfl) former UCLA commit DT Julious Moore (PS#69, 12 tkl, 4.5 tfl) and former Oreg St trans DE Carl Sommer (PS#22, #5 tkl'r, 11 tfl) but he was lost after 1 st. They added TX Tech tran Myles Wade (PS#38JC) and all'd almost 100 rush ypg less increasing their sk ttl to 26. TY they lose Sommer (2 tkl), 2nd tm BSC DT Wade (11st, #10 tkl'r), DE Forbes (11 st, t-#7) and DT Alika Vaiese (7 st). They ret 4 DL who comb for 13 sts but add in former Oreg St signee Thomas Molesi, Boise St trans Nick Alexander, Texas Southern trans Marquis Jackson (50 tkl, 18.5 tfl LY) and JC Jeremy Boone.

LB's - The LB unit lost 2 st'rs (#3 & #8 tkl'rs) in '10 but ret'd 6 who comb for 26 sts led by ILB Ryan Rau (#1 tkl'r) and added JC Shane Melbo with 1 less spot to fill. Their ppg all'd swelled from 33.8 to 40.5. LY they lost SLB DJ Macarthy (#3 tkl'r, 9 tfl) but ret'd MLB's Rau (10 st, #1) and Melbo (2 st, 6 tfl) along with WLB's Joel Sisler (10 st, 26 tkl) and Jaycob Shoemaker (1st, 3.5 tfl). They also added JC Khalil Bass and improved to 28.0 ppg (best s/'06). TY they lose MLB Rau (#1 tkl'r) and WLB Melbo (1 st, 19 tkl). They ret WLB Ian Sluss (8st, #3 tkl'r), SLB Joel Sisler (10 st, #9) and LB Bass (2 st, #4).

DB's - In '09 the secondary lost 5 who comb for 30 sts and 8 ints. They ret'd 2nd tm BSC CB DeShawn Shead (#1 BSC w/6 int) and FS Cody Worthen (#9 tkl'r) while adding 3 JC's. The unit dropped to #7 BSC in pass eff D (28-5 ratio). LY they lost 2 st'rs (#2 & 6 tkl'rs) but ret'd CB's Mike Williams (#5 tkl'r) and Shead (#7, 3 int) and added VHT Oreg St tran CB David Ross (PS#52) and JC Manoa Latu. They finished #113 in pass eff D with a 27-8 ratio. In '10 the entire 2 deep ret'd led by 2nd tm BSC Shead (#4 tkl'r, 7 pbu), FS Latu (#2, 9 pd), CB Ross (#6) and SS Nathan Snow (#7) along with JC Aaron Kincy (RS '10). They improved to #48 in pass eff D with a 17-10 ratio. TY they lose FS Shead (11st, #2 tkl'r), CB Ross (11 st, #11), SS Donte Almond (9 st, #6) and SS Latu (2 st, t-#7) and only ret CB Williams (11 st, #5) and Snow (medRS).

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 PSU lost their top RM but ret'd 2nd tm BSC K Zach Brown and P Thomas Duyndam (38.5 avg) and were #89 in our ST rankings. LY all of their top players ret'd and they finished #8. TY they only lose 4 yr LS Braedyn Eagle and could have another top 25 finish.

COACHES - HC Nigel Burton enters his 3rd yr. He was the DC at Nevada ('08-'09) and was DB cch here from '01-'02. OC Bruce Barnum was the OC at Cornell ('07-'09) and Idaho St ('01-'06). DC Eric Jackson was the Secondary cch/ST Coor at Princeton ('00-'09) and a former DC at Cal Poly. Both enter their 3rd ssn here.

Overview - After 4 straight losing ssn's PSU had a lot of ground to make up LY. They started with a blowout of Southern Oregon. PSU led NAU 31-17 in the 3Q but needed to stop a would be game tying 2 pt conv to hold on. They picked up a check at TCU but then shockingly trailed ISU in the 4Q needing a td with 1:52 left to pull out the win. They scored 17 pts in the 4Q but had their own game tying 2 pt conv stopped vs MSU. They were tied at 24 with UM in the 4Q but lost. They easily beat Willamette and then outscored EW 26-10 in the 2H. With a winning ssn on the line PSU outscored Sac St 13-6 in the 2H. They were lucky to get past UNC thanks to an officiating error. They were ranked #25 and had dreams of the playoffs running through their heads but were outscored 21-6 in the 4Q vs WSU. Expectations will be high as they are in the 3rd ssn of their systems but the Vikings ret just 11 st'rs, are inexperienced at QB and lose 37% of their lettermen.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 WSU ret'd starter Cameron Higgins (3326, 64%, 30-20) and bkp Mike Hoke (7-9-74, 40 rush). Higgins threw for just 2,512 (59%, 15-11) while Hoke had 345 (64%, 2-0, 104 rush). Higgins departed after '10 as WSU's car leader in pass yds (12,274) and is the BSC's car leader in pass td's (98). Hoke ret'd LY and was backed-up by Jordan Adamczyk. Hoke made 10 sts throwing for 2,080 (62.6%) with an outstanding 19-4 ratio (#12 FCS pass eff) while adding 130 rush (1.7, 6 td). Adamczyk made the start vs Montana (Hoke shdl'r inj) but plyd in just 5 gms, throwing for 196 (44.2%, 0-2, 4 rush). Both ret and despite the HC changes they are under a 4yr OC and Hoke could improve his ypg in his 2nd yr as the st'r as he was slowed by his inj at the end of LY.

RB's - WSU had to replace their only 5,000+ car rusher (Trevyn Smith) in '10. They ret'd #2 rusher, FB Bo Bolen (442, 5.0) and #3 RB Via Tafuna (42, 8.4) and added Utah trans FB Zac Eldridge. Tafuna st'd the F/2 at RB but moved to FB earning 1st tm BSC (551, 4.1, 10 td). Bolen was 2nd tm BSC (704, 4.6, 256 rec). Both departed LY (Bolen mission) along with FB Eldridge (9 st). Their top 2 ret RB's were Josh Booker (550, 6.0) and CJ Tuckett (12, 3.0). Booker led with 701 (5.9) and was 2nd tm BSC. Tuckett was #2 as he finished with a flare becoming the first Wildcat with 400+ all-purp yds in a gm (254 rush, 144 ret, 7 rec, 3 td) vs NAU and then vs PSU rushed for 211 (10.5) with 5 td (tied WSU rec). Barr Collins added 359 (4.9) while Tanner Hinds had 349 (4.2). They lose Hinds (back surg) and Collins but the top 2 ret making for a deep and solid unit.

Rec's - WSU lost 3 of their top 5 rec incl 1st tm BSC WR Tim Toone (1109, 13.4, #7DC DET) in '10 but ret'd #2 Mike Phillips (704, 18.1) and #3 Joe Collins (455, 9.5). Collins led with 1,046 (17.1) earning AA honors and Phillips was #2 (793, 15.2) but both departed LY. Their top returnees were Austin Raught (184,10.2) and Erik Walker (122, 8.7). They also got back TE Tyrell Francisco (131, 10.9 in '08) who missed '09 with inj and added Utah trans Chase Nakamura. Raught was the #3 rec (9 st, 244, 11.6) but Walker (1 st) and Nakamura comb for just 9 rec. Shaydon Kehano who had just 2 rec (50 yd) in '10 led with 883 (20.5) and 8 td while rFr Xavian Johnson was #2 (320, 11.4). TY they ret their top 2 only losing Raught and #5 Eric Shufford (120, 13.3) and are a much more experienced unit.

O-Line - In '10 the OL lost a 1st tm BSC C and 2nd tm BSC RT. They ret'd 3 st'rs incl 2nd tm BSC OG JC Oram and moved in TE Kevin Halfhill. They improved from 115 (3.6) to 181 ypg (4.2) and all'd 8 fewer sks (11, 2.8%). LY they lost Halfhill (5 st) but ret 5 st'rs incl AA LG Oram, 1st tm BSC LT Caleb Turner and C Tyson Tiatia. They paved the way for 206 ypg (4.9), their best in over 10 yrs but all'd 24 sk (7.8%). TY they lose HM BSC LT Turner (10st), AA LG Oram (11st) and RG Jiniki Timoteo (6 st). They ret 3 OL who comb for 27 sts in 2nd tm BSC Tytan Timoteo and RT Shelton Robinson and C Tyson Tiatia (8).

D-Line - In '10 the DL's losses were heavy incl a 1st tm BSC DE (#4 tkl'r), their #10 and #11 tkl's along with Ryan Eastman (26 tkl, trans to Hawaii). They only ret'd DE's Sam Fenn (27 tkl) and Gabe Bowers (19 tkl) as they all'd 174 rush (4.6) their worst S/'04 with just 15 sks. LY they only lost DE Fenn (#7 tkl'r) and ret'd 3 st'rs incl DT Adam Sagapolutele-White (#5 tkl'r) and Bowers (23 tkl) Eastman trans back but Bowers was susp after 2 gms and they all'd 167 ypg (4.2) but did have 23 sk. TY they lose 4 DL who comb for 19 sts incl Bowers and DE Caldwell Taylor (#6 tkl'r). They ret 6 DL who st'd LY led by 2nd tm BSC DE Trevor Pletcher (#8 tkl'r, 6.5 sk) and are now in a new 4-2-5 system under a new DC who wasn't hired until April and who takes over as HC.

LB's - The LB unit lost SLB Caldwell Taylor (#6 tkl'r) but despite the presence of MLB Taylor Sedillo (#1) and Rov Nick Webb (#5) the ppg allowed mushroomed from 21.7 to 31.1. LY they lost MLB Sedillo (#3 tkl'r) but ret'd 1st tm BSC Rov Webb (#2, 8.5 tfl) and SLB Maurice Neal (#6). They also added in Utah transfer Mo Neal but all'd 32.2 ppg. TY the unit loses 1st tm BSC WLB Webb (#2 tkl'r) and SLB Neal (#5). MLB Anthony Morales (#1), Kela Marciel (#7) and Willie Harris (#10) ret but 1 will likely move to the new Rov pos in the 4-2-5 D.

DB's - The secondary only lost SS Beau Hadley (#3 tkl'r) in '10 but despite having 3 st'rs back and adding WY trans David James, they fell to #98 in pass eff D all'g 269 ypg (58%) with a 22-9 ratio. LY they lost 2nd tm BSC S Jordan Brown (#1 tkl'r, 7 pd) and Faron Creighton (9 pbu). They ret'd 2 st'rs in S Blake Keller (#4 tkl'r) and CB James (21 tkl, 3 int) but finished #100 allowing 272 (60%) with a 27-11 ratio. They ret all 4 st'rs and an LB should fill the added Rov position. The Cats should improve but we thought the same thing LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 the ST's lost their 1st Tm BSC PR and P (also K) but finished #21 in our ST rankings as K Shaun McClain hit 15-20 (4 miss 40+) and P Josh Kealamakia avg 39.9 ypp (36.6 tm net) Kealamakia left on a mission LY and they lost their top RM. K McClain ret'd and thanks to 7 blk'd punts they improved to our #11. TY the top ST players all ret and they could have another top 25 finish.

COACHES - While you would expect some change as 7 yr HC Ron McBride retired, WSU got more than they bargained for. They hired WSU grad John L. Smith who did not hire new DC Jody Sears until late in spg prac. Smith then left to take over Ark after spg and Sears, who was Wash St 's co-DC the 3 prior ssns, was promoted to interim HC. OC Matt Hammer does ret for his 4th ssn.

Overview - LY WSU was off 3 straight winning seasons but had to replace their all-time leading passer. They opened vs 2 FBS opp but after giving WY a scare (WY td :22 left) were crushed by Utah St. They shocked a ranked Sac St and cruised past UNC (35-0 at half). Their comeback vs EW came up 6 pts short. They only led ISU 15-6 at the half before scoring 21 3Q pts. They led SUU 14-3 at the half but trailed 35-21 in the 4Q. After leading 3-0 at Montana, WSU all'd 45 unanswered before a td with :42 left. WSU led #4 Montana St 24-20 at the half but were outscored 24-0 in the 2H. HC Ron McBride then announced his retirement effective at the end of the ssn. In McBride's final home game WSU RB Tucker carried the tm on his back (405 all purp yds, 3 td) and QB Hoke scored the GW td with :26 left. Against a ranked PSU, Tucker again led with 4 td's (3 in 4Q) to send McBride out on a winning note. How well the D comes together under the new DC, sorry new HC, will determine their ssn.

SOUTHERN UTAH THUNDERBIRDS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 SUU had to replace Cade Cooper (2988, 65%, 31-12). Transfer (BYU/San Bernardino Valley Coll) Brad Sorensen took over throwing for 3,163 (67%, 21-6) earning 1st tm GWC and leading SUU to the GWC Title. Backup JJ Mayer plyd in 3 gms (7-11-86, 1-1). Both ret'd LY and Sorensen was the GWC OPOY, throwing for 3,143 (67.8%, 17-11) while Mayer plyd in 2 (4-8-18, 0-0). Both ret TY but they will need some rec's to step up as they lose 5 of the top 6 rec and move to the BSC or Sorensen's numbers could be down a bit TY.

RB's - They ret'd their top 3 RB's in '10 incl #1 Austin Minefee (544, 5.5) and #2 Major Gray (490, 4.0) while also ret '08's #1 Deckar Alexander (384, 2.7), who was inj after 3 gms in '09. Minefee was 1st tm GWC leading with 764 (5.7) and 229 (10.0) rec. Alexander was #2 (420, 5.5) and Gray #3 (77, 3.2). LY they lost Gray (1st) and FB Tui Siliva (9 st, 1 att). Minefee led with 625 (4.1, 9 td) and was the #3 rec (395, 8.6) while Alexander was #2 with 320 (4.4). Both depart and the leading returnees are FB Henna Brown (118, 4.4) and RB Mike Tagliaferri (42, 4.7) making this unit much less experienced.

Rec's - In '10 SUU ret'd 12 of the 13 who made a reception incl 2x 1st tm GWC Tysson Poots (1081, 12.7, 15 td) and 2nd tm GWC Fesi Sitake (848, 10.7). Poots had 1,230 (14.5, 11 td) earning 1st tm AA and GWC OPOY and left as SUU's car leading receiver. Sitake was 1st tm GWC with 877 (10.7). Both departed LY along with #3 Robert Ah Sue (317, 14.4). The top returnee at WR was Jared Ursua (1st, 8 rec) and they added Utah trans Fatu Moala. They spread the ball around (7 plyrs 300+ rec yd) as Ursua led with 606 (12.9) while Moala was #4 with 370 (14.2). They were led in receptions (48) by true frosh GWC NOY Brady Measom (547, 11.4), who was 2nd tm GWC. TY they lose 6 of their top 8 rec incl Ursua and Measom (mission). They ret Moala and Erick Pederson (304, 13.2) while adding former Utah walk-on Griff McNabb putting the unit on par with LY's unit.

O-Line - In '10 despite the loss of 3 All-GWC OL (1st, 1st & 2nd tm) HC Ed Lamb was pleased with the positive signs and tremendous work ethic he saw and the unit improved for a 2nd straight ssn to 135 ypg (4.1) but did allow 30 sk (7.4%). All five 11 gm st'rs earned GWC honors and ret'd LY in C Gavin Farr (GWC OL POY), RG Trevor Schauerhamer (1st tm), LG Zach Brackus (1st tm), RT Brandon Beddes (2nd tm) and LT Brock Christensen (HM). Christensen lost his job and Farr was lost (inj) after 4 sts but shockingly their numbers plummeted to just 94 ypg (2.9) with 31 sks (7.1%). TY they lose RG Schauerhamer (11st), LT Beddes (9st), RT Devin Tavana (11st) and Christensen (7 gm). They ret 5 OL who comb for 28 sts incl C Farr, LG Brackus (10st) and C/OG Russell Petersen (7st) and while less exp'd could improve on LY's poor numbers.

D-Line - The DL lost 2 st'rs in '10 incl a 1st tm GWC but cut their rush ypg all'd almost in half (116 ypg, 3.3) and the D doubled their sk ttl (27). LY the unit ret'd intact led by a pair of GWC 1st teamers in DE Tyler Osborne (7 sk, 11.5 tfl) and NT Cody Larsen (11st) along with DT Nick Witzmann (5st), DT Cody Heinreich (5st) and DE Jeff Tukuafu (8st). While the D had 30 sks they surprisingly all'd 173 rush ypg (4.5). TY they lose GWC DPOY DE Osborne (#5 tkl'r, 10.5 sk), DT Witzmann (#12) and NT Heinreich (1st, 16tkl). They ret 1st tm GWC DT Larsen (#11 tkl'r, 6sk) and DE Tukuafu (#10) and while less exp'd could put up similar numbers.

LB's - The LB unit lost their #1 tkl'r (2x 1st tm GWC) in '10 but improved from allowing 30.9 to 19.2 ppg (1st time under 20 ppg s/'02). LY they lost their #2 and #3 tkl'rs who were both multi-year st'rs (1st & 2nd tm GWC). Blake Fenn (#1 tkl'r, 2nd tm GWC) ret'd but the replacements had little game experience. Surprisingly, while their ppg slipped, it was only to 22.8 as rFr MLB Chad Hansen led with 104 tkl and was 1st tm GWC. While Hansen ret TY they lose 2nd tm GWC SLB Fenn (#2 tkl'r) and 2nd tm GWC WLB Herman Sword (#3). This unit is on par with LY's unit but the rest of the D returns 4 fewer st'rs than they did LY.

DB's - The secondary ret'd all 8 DB's that st'd in '09 and they improved by allowing 193 ypg pass (61.4%) with a 12-6 ratio and finished #54 in pass eff D. LY they lost their star in CB Colin Pretlow (3x 1st tm GWC) but ret'd 6 who made starts incl 1st tm GWC CB Dion Turner (6st, #6 tkl'r), 1st tm GWC SS Erron Vonner (11st, #4) and CB Marlon Hogains (6st, #10). They also added JC Brennan Fjord who would start 9 at FS. SUU improved again to #28 (178 ypg, 59.0%) with a 10-9 ratio. TY they lose 3 st'rs in 1st tm GWC Dion Turner (#4 tkl'r), 1st tm GWC SS Vonner (#6) and CB Hogains (#7). They ret FS Fjord (#9 tkl'r), S Tommy Collett (3st, #8) and CB Gordon Garrett (1st, 8 tkl) but are less exp'd and will drop some.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 the ST unit had to replace their K and P Trevor Ward, who led the FCS with an incredible 45.1 net in '09. K Brock Miller (RS '09) hit 12-17 FG (L/50). P's Trent Barney (4st DE) and Ryan McNamara comb to avg 35.8. RS Fesi Sitake avg'd 10.8 on PR and 22.6 on KR and SUU finished with our #15 ST unit. LY they only ret K Miller who split time at P (39.1 tm net). K Colton Cook hit 14-19 (3 misses from 50+) and KR Minefee was the GWC STPOY avg 29.2 ypr with 2 td's as SUU moved up to our #2. TY they ret Cook and Miller but may drop some with the loss of Minefee and PR Measom (12.3).

COACHES - HC Ed Lamb enters his 5th ssn after leading SUU to their 1st B2B winning ssn's since '99-'00. OC Steve Clark is a former BYU OL cch ('05-'07) who ret for his 5th ssn. Justin Ena was promoted to DC in '10 after working with ST's and LB's in '09.

Overview - SUU was coming off their 1st winning ssn s/'04 and after going 4-0 in conf play and winning the GWC in '10 much was expected. Against SDSU they trailed 29-7 into the 4Q but after scoring a td with :02 left went for the win but failed (2pt conv NG). They shocked #12 Sac St, who was coming off an upset of Oregon St, scoring the gm's final 25 pts. They breezed past UTSA and then shocked UNLV 41-16 thanks to 3 IR td's. They were 3-1 and ranked #17 but then the ssn unraveled. They trailed ND 16-0 and #18 SD 14-0 never having the lead in either game. They led CP 27-24 late 4Q but allowed a td with :45 left and were 0-3 in GWC play. After trailing WSU 21-10, they scored 25 unanswered and then held on. They led UC Davis 34-0 in the 4Q but were outscored 17-0 in the 2H vs #5 UNI. They trailed NAU 17-3 but scored 24 straight and held on for a winning ssn. While they ret just 8 st'rs they do have 42 lettermen back although may find it a tough first ssn in the Big Sky.

20th Year at UC Davis (140-78-1)

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10, two yr st'r Greg Denham (comb 6410, 64%, 46-24, 2x All-GWC) decided in the spg to forgo his senior ssn. RFr Randy Wright stepped in and earned 2nd tm GWC and NOY throwing for 2,432 (59%, 17-8) while Austin Heyworth (7-9-11 in '09) plyd in just 3 (3-8-23). LY Wright threw for 2,250 (56%, 14-6), while Heyworth (1st, 3 gm) had 158 (44%, 1-0). Both ret TY but Wright split 1st tm snaps in the spg with London Lacy (2-2-25 LY) as they have new co-OC's for the first time in over 20 yrs.

RB's - Joe Trombetta departed in '10 after having led the team in rushing from '07-'09. Josh Reese was #2 (375, 5.5, 110 rec) in '09 and finished #2 again in '10 (317, 3.9) while adding 165 (5.6) rec. FB Nick Aprile (123, 4.2 in '09), who also saw time as the wildcat QB led with 389 (3.9, 6 td). Both ret'd LY. Reese was #2 once again with 208 (3.2, 51 rec) but Aprile only plyd in 5 with just 60 (8.6, 2 td) but did add 63 rec (10.5). Two rFR started at RB in Colton Silveria (3st), who led with 570 (4.4, 13 rec) and Austin Edmonson (2st), who was #3 with 201 (4.5). They ret 6 of their top 7 incl their #1 rusher and are slightly ahead of LY despite losing their "starter" Reese (6st).

Rec's - In '10 the Aggies had to replace their top 2 rec in GWC OPOY Chris Carter (889, 10.5) and Bakari Grant (584, 13.0, SF 49ers). Their top returnees were #3 Sean Creadick (466, 11.9) and #4 TE Dean Rogers (326, 11.2). Creadick led with 928 (14.1) and was 1st tm GWC while Rogers was #2 with 404 (13.5) and earned 3rd tm AA but both departed. Their top returning WR's were Anthony Soto (344, 11.9) and Tom Hemmingsen (140, 10.8) while they also ret former JC TE Mike Cody (5 rec). TY they only lose TE Cody (5st, 5 rec) and #7 rec Dwight Smith (110, 15.7). They ret their top 6 led by 1st tm GWC WR Hemmingsen (9st, 622, 12.4), #2 Soto (11st, 551, 12.5), #3 Corey Galindo (11st, 334, 13.4) along with #8 TE Taylor Sloat (5st, 105, 13.1). This is the Aggies most exp'd rec unit in several years.

O-Line - The OL only had to replace 1 st'r in '10 but that was 1st tm GWC C Tommy Hernandez. With 4 st'rs back they expected to improve on '09's poor numbers of 90 rush ypg (3.1) and 22 sks all'd (4.9%) but instead avg'd just 80 ypg (2.7) with 28 sks all'd (7.8%). LY they lost 1st tm GWC RT Mark Tos but ret'd 1st tm GWC C Ray Wilburn (20st 2Y), 1st tm GWC LG Sean Davies (21st 2Y), 2nd tm GWC LT Robert Ayotte (26st 3Y). RG's Al Doiron (8st) and Tim Ketaily (3st) both ret'd but neither started. While their rush ypg improved, it was just to 95 ypg (3.1) and they again all'd 28 sks (7.7%). TY they lose HM GWC RT Ayotte (10st) and C Ivan Perez (1st). They ret 4 who st'd 10+ gms LY incl 1st tm GWC C Wilburn and 1st tm GWC LG Davies and should improve again.

D-Line - The DL had to replace 1 st'r (1st tm GWC DE, #11 tkl'r) in '10 but then returning starter DT Jacob Maxson (36 tkl, 7.5 tfl) was banged up and had just 7 tkl in '10. They all'd 168 rush ypg (4.3) their worst since moving up to Div I and had just 17 sks. LY they lost 1 st'r in 1st tm GWC DE Eric Sobotka (34 tkl, 5 sk). They ret'd 3 st'rs in 2nd tm GWC DT Andrew Benjamin (32 tkl), DT Brock Galvin (39 tkl) and DE Tommy Grillo (20 tkl, 2.5 tfl) along with DE Bobby Erskine (2st, 35 tkl) and got back a healthier DT Maxson. They only improved to 150 ypg (4.1) and again had just 17 sks. TY they lose 4 DL who comb for 24st incl 1st tm GWC DE Grillo (29 tkl, 7.5 tfl), DT Galvin (28 tkl) and DT Maxson (20 tkl, 5 tfl). While they ret just 2 st'rs in 1st tm GWC DE Erskine (32 tkl, 9.5 tfl) and DT Benjamin (40 tkl, 5 tfl) they could improve again.

LB's - The LB unit ret'd just 1 st'r in '10 but added Utah St trans Jordan Glass. While they all'd 37 ypg more, they trimmed the ppg all'd to 26.8. LY they lost GWC DPOY Dozie Amajoyi (#1 tkl'r) and Marshall Congdon (5st, #5). They ret'd MLB Glass (9st, #3 tkl'r) and WLB Byron Gruendl (7st, #4) while adding JC Reece Ludwig but their numbers slipped slightly (26.9 ppg, +10 ypg). TY 2nd tm GWC MLB Glass (t-#1 tkl'r) was granted a 6th yr, so all 3 st'rs ret incl 2nd tm GWC WLB Gruendl (t-#1, 7.5 tfl) and SLB Ludwig (#5) so their numbers should improve.

DB's - For a 3rd str ssn the secondary lost 2 st'rs (1st & 2nd tm GWC) in '10 but they were close to '09's numbers all'g 204 ypg pass (59.1%) with an 18-9 ratio and finished #86 in pass eff D. LY they only lost 2nd tm GWC SS Danny Hart (#2 tkl'r). They ret'd 2nd tm GWC CB Jonathan Perkins (#8 tkl'r, 9pd), FS Kevyn Lewis (#7) along with CB's Jonathan Calhoun (4st, 13 tkl) and Dre Allen (5st, #6). Surprisingly they only improved to #82 with a 19-8 ratio. TY they lose CB Calhoun (#7 tkl'r, 8 pd) and 2nd tm GWC SS Patrick Shelton (#4). They ret CB's Perkins (11st, 12 pd) and Allen (2st, #9 tkl'r) along with 1st tm GWC FS Lewis (#3), who has st'd 30 straight gms. While slightly less experienced the DB's could still improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit only lost their top PR in '10 but finished #90 in our ST rankings despite 2 All-GWC kickers in K Sean Kelley (1st tm, 13-17, L/43) and P Colton Schmidt (2nd tm, 34.5 net). LY the unit ret'd intact and improved to our #45 as 2nd tm GWC P Schmidt improved his net to 37.2 and PR Hemmingsen avg 11.4 ypr (tm avg 1.3 ypr in '10). TY they only lose K Kelley (9-15, L/54) but could drop a little.

COACHES - HC Bob Biggs enters his 20th ssn and final ssn as he will retire after this year. Former 23 yr OC Mike Moroski moves to Asst HC. They add co-OC's Kevin Daft (former Cal WR cch) and Tim Plough (QB cch here L/2 yrs). Mark Johnson enters his 4th ssn as DC (4th stint here, 12th ssn).

Overview - The Aggies were off B2B 6-5 ssns and ret'd 16 str's LY, their most s/'06. After an expected loss to Ariz St (trailed 41-0) UCD fell to #6 Montana St (trailed 28-7 at half). They only led San Diego 7-0 at half before pulling away in the 2H for their 1st win of the ssn. They picked up a check in Hawaii (trailed 49-0 at half). They were stunned by Div II Humboldt St giving up the gms final 10 pts. QB Wright put up a career high 320 yds passing against UTSA (led 38-3 in 4Q). They dropped their GWC opener vs SD thanks in part to 5 TO's. They were never in the game vs SUU (trailed 34-0). They were tied at 7 into the 4Q with #22 ND, but a fumble at their own 37 set up ND for their game winning score. In the 58th Causeway Classic, RB Silveria had a ssn high 170 yds to lead UCD to a 23-13 4Q lead (SUS scored td on final play). The Aggies will try to send longtime HC Bob Biggs out on a winning note TY with 16 ret str's and 61 ret lettermen but do have new co-OC's for the first time in 23 yrs and move from the GWC to the much tougher BSC.

NORTH DAKOTA

Chris Mussman (Career 23-20)
5th Year at North Dakota (23-20)
Grand Forks, North Dakota Enrollment: 14,194

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After throwing for 1,968 (59%, 12-9) with 217 rush (2.6) as the starter in '09 Jake Landry made only 7 st (inj) as a Sr in '10 throwing for 1,328 (62%, 11-6) with 95 (1.9) rush. Brent Goska, who is more of a runner, st'd the final 4 throwing for 413 (55%, 1-2) with 266 rush (5.2). Goska ret'd LY along with Marcus Hendrickson (131, 28%, 0-2, 39 rush). They added JC Joey Bradley, who started the F/7 (out 3 gm inj) throwing for 791 (52.7%, 3-3). Goska started the final 4 and threw for 999 (59.9%, 9-5) with 107 rush (1.9). TY they lose Goska and Bradley and added VHT North Carolina trans Sr Braden Hansen (PS#11) was added in the spring giving them a more talented group.

RB's - In '10 UND ret'd 1st tm GWC Mitch Sutton who led in '09 with 689 (4.6, 280 rec) along with '08's #1 rusher, Josh Murray (1146, 6.1) who missed the '09 ssn. Sutton made only 3 st and finished as the #2 rusher (288, 4.2), while 2nd tm GWC Murray led with 670 rush (5.5) and was the #2 rec (237, 7.4). Both were scheduled to ret LY along with Jake Miller (197, 5.6) and FB Catlin Solum (10st, 1 att) but Murray was dismissed. Miller led with 942 (4.8, 13 td) was the #3 rec (142, 8.9) and earned 1st tm GWC. Sutton was #2 (290, 3.8) while true frosh Jer Garman was #3 (270, 4.6). All 3 ret TY giving them a deep unit but they do lose HM GWC FB Solum (10st, 47 rec).

Rec's - In '10 this unit lost its #1, #2 & #4 WR's which left only 2 WR's that had rec's in Chris Anderson (124, 7.3) and Ryan Dressler (150, 6.5). Dressler despite only starting 4 was the #2 rec (202, 10.1). RFr Greg Hardin burst onto the scene and led with 736 (18.0) earning 2nd tm GWC honors. Anderson was the #4 (190, 14.6) and RJ McGill was #6 (119, 6.3). The unit lost Dressler LY but ret'd the other 3 WR's plus blocking TE Seth Wisthoff (10st, 6 rec). Hardin led again with 549 (12.8) and was 1st tm GWC. Anderson dropped to #6 (115, 9.6) while McGill jumped to #2 (433, 12.7). TY they lose Anderson but are a little more exp'd as they ret 7 of their top 8 rec incl 2nd tm GWC TE Wisthoff (10 st, 76, 10.9) and Seth Nichols (3st, 109, 8.4).

O-Line - The OL had to replace 2 st'rs (1st & 2nd tm GWC) in '10 but improved their rush ypg from 120 (3.7) to 151 (4.3) but all'd 10 more sacks (28, 9.4%). LY they again lost 2 starters (1st & 2nd tm GWC) but ret'd three 11 gm str's in C Ian McGurran, RG Emmet Lynch and LG Joe Kleason. While their rush numbers dropped a little (148, 3.8) they cut their sks all'd to 18 (6.0%) despite losing RG Lynch after 6 st to inj. TY they ret 4 who comb for 33 sts LY in 2nd tm GWC LG Kleason (11st), 2nd tm GWC C McGurran (11st), RG Caleb Gillson (5st) and RG Lynch making this unit even more experienced.

D-Line - The DL ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 and while their rush ypg all'd increased from 135 (4.0) to 151 ypg (3.9), they all'd 364 to N Illinois and in their other 10 gm only all'd 129 ypg (3.4). They did increase their sk ttl from 15 to 25. LY they lost 3x All-GWC NT Ty Boyle but ret'd DE's Broc Bellmore (35 tkl) and 2nd tm GWC Ross Brenneman (35 tkl, 4 sk, 4 tfl) along with NT Devin Benjamin (15 tkl), who had 2 st in '09. Despite Bellmore being lost to inj after 5 st, they all'd just 81 ypg (2.6) incl holding UNC to -16 yds rushing. They also increased their sk ttl to 31. TY they lose DE Bellmore (13 tkl, 3 sk) but ret the rest of the 2 deep incl HM GWC Brenneman (#4 tkl'r, 8.5 sk), HM GWC NT Benjamin (23 tkl) and DE Jay Nelson (23 tkl, 10.5 tfl) putting them on par with LY's unit.

LB's - In '10 the LB unit ret'd 3 st'rs (#2, #6 & #7 tkl'rs) and improved from allowing 27.9 to 25.0 ppg. LY they lost 2nd tm GWC Ross Cochran (#5 tklr), 1st tm GWC Ryan Kasowski (#6) and Curtis Dublanko (t-#8). They ret'd just 1 st'r in 2nd tm GWC ILB Dan Hedrickson (#1 tkl'r, 8 tfl) but also ret'd ILB Mitch Goertz who was the #3 tkl'r despite just 1st and all'd just 20.4 ppg. TY the unit loses 3 st'rs (#1, #2 & t-#9 tkl'r) incl 2nd tm GWC ILB Hendrickson (7 tfl) and ILB Goertz (3.5 sk). While they again ret 1 st'r (OLB Damon Andrews) and an exp'd backup (ILB Garrison Goodman) they were just the #11 and t-#9 tkl'rs so this unit is a step down from LY.

DB's - The secondary ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 in 2nd tm GWC CB Dominique Hawkins (#1 tkl'r) , S Joel Schwenzfeier (#3) and S Kris Ankenbauer(#4). They improved to allowing 240 ypg with a 19-11 ratio (#79 pass eff D). LY they lost S Ankenbauer (#2 tkl'r) and 1st tm GWC S Schwenzfeier (#8, 4 int). They ret'd CB's Chavon Mackey (#7 tkl'r), Kenny Watkins (5 st '08) and 2nd tm GWC Hawkins (#4). Hawkins moved to SS but Mackey lost his starting job. They fell to #93 in pass eff D (20-7 ratio). TY they lose 3 st'rs in FS Justin Belotti (#3 tkl'r), SS Hawkins (#5) and CB Watkins (#8). They ret CB's Daryl Brown (#6 tkl'r) and Mackey (t-#12) and 2 S's who comb for 43 tkl LY and could improve on LY's poor numbers.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit lost their top plyr in '10 who was All-GWC at both P & K but ret'd their top RM and finished t-#39 in our ST rankings. LY they only had to replace their top PR. They remained our #39 ST unit as HM GWC PR Erik Mersereau avg'd 18.2 ypr (1 td) and 2nd tm GWC K Zeb Miller hit 15-19 FG incl 7-10 from 40+. Both ret along with 2 yr starting P Brett Cameron and this unit could have a top 25 finish this year.

COACHES - Chris Mussman enters his 5th yr as HC after 7 yrs as the OC here. Greg Breitbach is in his 5th as OC and 7th overall. Mike Mannausau enters his 9th yr overall but after 6 yrs as co-DC drops the co- from his title as 7 yr co-DC John Kelling moves on.

Overview - LY UND was off their first losing ssn s'/89. They opened with a shut-out of Drake. They had their 1st ever lead over an FBS team leading Idaho 14-10 at half but were outscored 34-0 in the 2H. They then led Fresno St 22-20 in the 4Q but could not hold on. They blew out Black Hills St and then took a 16-0 1Q lead over returning GWC Champ SUU and held on for the win. They blew out Montana Western and were ranked #20 but after trailing Cal Poly 23-6 had their comeback fall 4 pts short. UND then needed a last second FG to get by Sioux Falls by 2. Against UC Davis they recovered a 4Q fumble to set up a 37 yd GW td drive. With a share of the GWC title within their grasp UND staged a 21 pt 4Q comeback to defeat rival #22 South Dakota in their final game as conf foes. TY they are a full FCS member and eligible for the playoffs but their schedule gets much tougher because while they play 1 fewer FBS foe, they play 2 fewer division foes and join the deeply talented Big Sky.

SACRAMENTO STATE HORNETS

Marshall Sperbeck (Career 24-32)
6th Year at Sacramento St (24-32)
Sacramento, California — Enrollment: 29,241

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 Sac St had to replace 3Y st'r Jason Smith (1707, 58%, 12-9) but ret'd ex-UCLA transfer McLeod Bethel-Thompson (2st, 746, 52%, 4-5) and added NMSU transfer Jeff Fleming, who st'd 9 there in '09. Bethel-Thompson st'd the opener but was inj'd and lost his job. He played in just 5 (21-38-161) and left LY. Fleming was 2nd tm BSC throwing for 2,044 (56%) with a 23-10 ratio and was the #2 rusher (399, 3.8). LY Fleming st'd the F/6 before being inj'd and while he st'd vs PSU that was his only other appearance of the ssn. He threw for 1,138 (54.4%, 7-5) and was the #2 rusher (382, 4.7, 5 td) but departs along with Tommy Edwards (1st, 3 gm) who threw for 365 (51.8%, 2-1). They ret Garrett Safron (3st, 5 gm) who threw for 394 (42.1%, 3-0) and was the #4 rusher (286, 5.4, 3 td) and add Nevada transfer Mason Magleby (MLB DC Orioles).

RB's - Sac St had to replace their top rusher (617, 5.2) in '10 but ret'd Sam McCowan (344, 4.1) and Jake Croxdale (199, 3.6) while getting back '08's leader 2nd tm BSC Bryan Hilliard (1082, 4.6, 12 td) who RS (inj) in '09. The unit was so deep that they moved Jeff Badger and Evander Wilkins to def. LY they ret'd their top 9 rushers incl RB's Hilliard (883, 4.5, 12 td), Croxdale (236, 3.4) and McCowan (211, 4.7). Hilliard led with 665 (4.0) while McCowan had (307, 5.8) and Croxdale added 158 (4.5). TY they only ret 4 of their top 12 with McCowan being the only RB among them but they add Fresno St trans AJ Ellis, JC Ezekiel Graham and 4 true frosh incl Demetrius Warren.

Rec's - In '10 Sac St looked to only lose TE Brian Heath (#5 rec) but Brandyn Reed (#1) ply'd in just 2 and John Hendershott (#2) RS. They ret'd Dylan Lane (#3 , 409, 10.2) and got back '08's #3 rec Chase Deadder (inj '09, 358, 17.0). LY they lost 4 of their top 6 incl #3 Ron Richardson (240, 10.9) and #4 Lane (152, 11.7). They ret'd their top 2 in 2nd tm BSC Deadder (788, 21.3) and Morris Norrise (532, 15.2), got Reed and Hendershott back and added USF transfer TJ Knowles. TY the Hornets lose 4 of their top 6 incl #1 Reed (542, 20.8), #3 Hendershott (264, 8.5) and #5 Deadder (152, 10.1). They ret #2 Norrise who led with 38 rec (471, 2.4), #4 DeAndre Carter (161, 13.4) and Knowles (1 rec) but move #8 TE DJ Maciel (7 st) to OL and look a little down from LY.

O-Line - In '10 the OL lost 3 st'rs but added Hofstra trans Jaren Harrell (2 yr st'r C). They improved from 122 (3.5) to 170 rush ypg (4.0) and went from all'g 21 (5.8%) to 14 sks (4.8%). LY they lost C Harrell and 2nd tm BSC LT John Taylor. They ret'd RT Nate Doverspike (11st) and RG Tyler Worthley (11st) and LG Clay DePauw (6st). While their ypg dipped to 165 their ypc improved to 4.3 while allowing just 15 sks (4.9%). TY they lose two 11 gm st'rs incl 2nd tm BSC LT Doverspike. They ret 4 OL who comb for 33 sts incl RG Worthley (11st) and LG DePauw (11st) while adding TE DJ Maciel.

D-Line - The DL lost two 11 gm st'rs in '10 but ret'd 2nd Tm BSC DT Christian Clark (#7 tkl'r, 10 sk) and DE Zack Nash (#9). They moved in LB's David Coleman (33 tkl) and Avery White (25 tkl) but White was inj'd (OFY) in the opener. They still trimmed the rush yds all'd from 146 (4.2) to 112 ypg (3.6) with 5 more sks (27). LY they lost 2nd tm BSC DT Clark (#8 tkl'r) but everyone else ret'd led by AA DE Nash (#1 BSC w/13 sk) and DE Coleman (#10). Shockingly they all'd 167 ypg (4.1), the most s/'03 with just 24 sks. TY they lose AA DE Nash (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 10.5 sk), HM BSC DE Coleman (11st, #6) and DT Matt Agaiava (11st, #14). They ret NT Matt Lawrence (11st, #11 tkl'r) and 4 bkup's (comb 27 tkl) and may struggle again.

LB's - The LB unit lost their #4 and #6 tkl'rs in '10 and moved White and Coleman to DL. They ret'd Peter Buck (#2 tkl'r) and added RB Jeff Badger and despite starting just 2 LB's in the L/10 gm (used NB) all'd their best ppg (24.7) in over 10 yrs. LY they lost 2nd tm BSC Buck (#1 tkl'r) but ret'd MLB Badger (11st, #6) while adding JC John Bloomfield. They again st'd just 2 LB's in 10 gms as their ppg all'd slipped to 27.4. TY the unit returns intact led by WLB Todd Davis (11st, #1 tkl'r), MLB Badger (11st, #3), Henry Fernandez (#10) and Bloomfield (#13) while adding Fresno St trans Ofa Fifita (PS#148).

DB's - In '10 the secondary lost their #5 tkl'r but ret'd 3 st'rs in CB Marquese Smith (33 tkl, 8 pd), FS Deionte Gordon (#3 tkl'r) and BSC NOY SS Zach Schrader (#1, 4 int). They added RB Evander Wilkins and JC's Kyle Monson and Joe Larche and despite starting a NB in 10 gm finished #82 in pass eff D with a poor 23-10 ratio. LY they lost two 2nd Tm BSC S's in Schrader (#2 tkl'r) and Dana Willis (#3) but ret'd CB's Monson (#4), Osagie Odiase (#5), Smith (4st) and NB Wilkins (#9) and added USC transfer Ryan McMahon. They again st'd a NB in 10 gms and improved to #36 in pass eff D all'g a 12-9 ratio. TY they lose 4 who comb for 36 sts inc 2nd tm BSC CB Monson (#7 tkl'r), FS Larche (#4), NB Wilkins (#8) and CB Smith (#11). They ret SS McMahon (#2 tkl'r) and CB Odiase (#9), while adding Nebraska trans Dijon Washington (PS#96) and UConn trans Christopher Lopes (PS#188) and could be on par with LY's unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 all their top ST plyrs ret'd. They were our #3 ST unit as P Augie Heath avg 36.5 (34.1 net), K Chris Diniz hit 13-15 (L/52). LY they only lost K Diniz but his brother Jason (RS '10) struggled (3-8 FG) and they fell to #105. TY they lose all their top ST plyrs but ret P Smith Heath (Augie's brother) who had 16 punts (31.6 tm net) here LY and add 2 JC K's and could improve.

COACHES - HC Marshall Sperbeck's 24 wins are the most by a HC here in their F/5 ssns. He was his own OC but TY brings in Paul Peterson, who was SUU's pass gm coor the L/4Y. Anthony Parker is in his 3rd ssn as DC (4th overall).

Overview - LY the Hornets were off their 1st winning ssn since 2001 and looked primed to make some noise with 14 ret st'rs. They started the ssn #24 and upset Oregon St in OT and moved up to #12. They were then stunned at SUU being outscored 15-0 in the 2H and then were never in the game at WSU. They were unranked in their 1st home game but stunned Montana, beating them for the first time in the 17 gm series history. They only trailed by 3 at the half vs #4 MSU but lost. They only beat UNC 14-0 as QB Fleming was inj. Despite never trailing in regulation. The Hornets lost to EWU in OT. Vs NAU they had the game tying XP blk'd with 4:52 left. They had another comeback attempt fall short vs PSU and were doomed to losing ssn. They trailed ISU 9-8 in the 3Q before pulling away. They led UC Davis 13-10 at the half but all'd the next 16 pts before a meaningless td as time expired. TY looks much tougher as they ret just 10 st'rs and just 54% of their lettermen.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 ISU ret'd Russel Hill (1388, 55%, 8-8 in '09) who split starts the previous 3 seasons but under a new HC, RFr Kyle Morris started 5 of the F/6 throwing for 671 (47%) with a poor 4-10 ratio. Hill started 6 (incl L/5) throwing for 1,194 (45%, 8-8) and departed. LY Kevin Yost (PS#380JC) was named the spg's MVP and Morris transferred. JC Justin Arias joined the team in the fall and became Yost's backup. Yost started all 11 and finished #2 in the BSC (#14 FCS) in passing ypg (270.3). Arias played in 8 gms throwing for 348 (52.2%) with a poor 2-5 ratio. Both ret but rFr Brad Kragthorpe left in June.

RB's - In '09 ISU lost their #1 rusher (434, 3.1) but ret'd 3 of their top 4 (comb 195 yd). They added Idaho trans Corey White (PS#106) along with JC's Jahmel Rover and Tavoy Moore (started ssn at WR). White led with 274 (4.9). Rover was inj'd after 4 (#3, 131, 3.7). Moore st'd 4 of the L/5 at RB (252, 4.1) and led the tm with 34 rec (421, 14.2). Due to inj's they moved in DB Phil Pleasant (112, 3.2). LY they lost White, Pleasant moved to LB (DNP) but they added JC Jarrod Daniels and true frosh Aaron Prier. ISU avg'd just 27 ypg rush as Daniels led with 157 (4.0). The QB's comb for over 53% of the tm's rush att's but almost half were sacks (66)! TY they lose 3 of their top 4 in Daniels (career ending MedRS), Moore and Rover. Prier (#2, 3 st) ret and ISU can only improve on LY's poor numbers (last in FCS).

Rec's - ISU lost 2 of their top 3 rec in '10 but ret'd Kelvin Krosch (540, 14.6, L/7st) along with starting TE Josh Hill (68, 8.5). Isaiah Burel was lost after 5 sts (152, 12.7) and departed. LY they ret'd their top 4 rec incl #1 Rodrick Rumble (464, 14.5), #3 Krosch (299, 12.5) and #4 TE Hill (165, 9.7) and added Wash transfer Anthony Boyles (PS#84) along with JC's Derek Graves and Cameron Richmond. However Krosch missed the ssn and Richmond was inj'd and was lost for the ssn after 1 start. ISU still finished #9 in the FCS in passing (301 ypg). TY their top 5 rec return led by AA WR Rumble, who had 3 times the #2 rec's yds, but Boyles (#5) moved to DB in the spring.

O-Line - In '09 four OL who started 9+ ret'd incl former Boise St tran RG Mitch Rudder and they added 2 JC's. They all'd 3 fewer sks (31, 7.5%) but finished LAST in the FCS in rushing (43, 1.6). In '10 they ret'd 6 OL who comb'd for 39 sts incl Rudder (12). They "improved" to 2nd worst in the FCS (56, 2.1) with the FCS's 3rd worst sks all'd (42, 12.8%). LY they lost Rudder (7st) but looked to ret 6 OL with a comb 38 sts but Brad Shedd (9 st, 3 yr st'r) missed the ssn (inj) while RT Braeden Clayson (10st, 2 yr st'r) only started 7. They were also learning a new off (spread) and their rush numbers dropped to last in the FCS (27, 1.2) as they all'd an FCS worst 66 sks (19.5%). TY they lose Clayson and Shedd but ret 6 who comb for 48 sts, are in the 2nd yr of the Off, and have nowhere to go but up.

D-Line - In '10 the DL lost a DT (#7 tkl'r) but ret'd 6 DL who comb for 31 sts, led by DE Sean Rutten (#9 tkl'r) and DT Chad O'Donnell (#10). They also added JC Jordan Monga and improved from 212 ypg (5.7) to 164 ypg rush (4.0) and from 8 to 14 sks. LY they switched to a 3-4 and lost 5 DL (comb 32 st) incl 2nd tm BSC DE Rutten (#7 tkl'r, 5 sk). They ret'd NG Monga (2.5 sk) and added Wash St tran Austin Graves. They allowed a horrid 249 ypg rushing (5.6, 5th worst FCS) with 15 sks. TY they lose Monga (11 st, #9 tkl'r) and a bkp (#13). They ret DE Jake Rouser (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 3.5 sk), DE James Bergren (9 st, #14) and Graves (#12, 2.5 sk) while adding true frosh PS#267 Drew Sharkey.

LB's - This unit only lost their #8 tkl'r in '10 and ret'd 1st tm BSC AJ Storms, who led with 120 tkl (5.5 tfl) and Phillip Arias (#2, 113) while adding Hofstra trans Basim Hudeen (78 tkl, 8 tfl). Their ppg all'd improved to a 4 yr low (33.3). LY they lost Arias (#10 tkl'r) and their #6 tkl'r. They ret'd AA WLB Storms who led the FCS in '10 with 13.3 tkl per gm (146, 10 tfl) and MLB Hudeen (100 tkl, 8 tfl). They all'd 3.4 ppg more but that was still better than in '09 (38.5). TY they lose all 5 who had starts at LB LY, incl Hudeen (#2 tkl'r), JT Albers (#3) and 1st tm BSC Storms (ISU's all-time leading tkl'r). Their only LB with starting exp is Mitch Beckstead (t-#15 tkl'r) who started 2 at TE LY before moving to LB.

DB's - In '10 the secondary lost 2 st'rs incl their 6 tkl'r. They ret'd their #3 and #4 tkl'rs along with NB Phil Pleasant (#5). They added Hofstra transfer Greg Melendez (#3 tkl'r, 72 tkl) but he tore his MCL after 1 st and Pleasant moved to RB. They fell to #105 in pass eff D all'g 254 ypg (68%) with a 24-10 ratio. LY they lost both S's (#2 & #4 tkl'rs) and a CB (10st, 30 tkl). They added JC Donovan Henley and looked to ret CB's Kelvin Miller (#9, 5 st) and Cameron Gupton (3 st) while getting Melendez back but Gupton was inj after 1 gm and RS. ISU's pass eff D improved to #73 all'g 202 ypg (57%) with a 19-10 ratio but teams did not need to pass due to their weak run D. TY they lose CB Miller (9 st, #8 tkl'r) and FS Melendez (9 st, #15) but ret CB Henley (11 st, #11, 4 int) S Tanner Davis (10 st, #4) and move in Boyles (7 st WR).

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 David Harrington earned AA honors (44.3 ypp) while Brendon Garcia hit 8-14 FG (L/50). Tavoy Moore earned 1st tm BSC honors avg 18.3 on PR (2 td) and 24.1 on KR (2 td) as ISU finished #1 in our ST rankings. LY everyone ret'd and Harrington again won AA honors (48.7 ypp) despite the team having 4 blk'd but Moore had just 10 comb ret's (tm 0 ret td) & fell to our #88 and lose Harrington TY.

COACHES - Former EW and MSU HC Mike Kramer enters his 2nd ssn and is his own DC. Former SDSU pass gm coord Don Bailey enters his 2nd ssn as OC.

Overview - ISU has not had a winning ssn since 2003 & that was also the last time they had a positive TO margin. LY they brought in a new HC & switched to a spread Off. While they improved to #14 in the FCS in passing they finished last in the NCAA in rushing & sacks all'd & the D all'd 451 ypg (5th worst FCS). However their 2 wins were their most since '07. ISU opened the ssn with an expected loss to Wash St and an expected win over Western St College. They then hosted UNC in a game which would determine who finished in the basement of the BSC. ISU only led 29-20 in the 4Q before putting up the games final 21 pts for a 50-20 win and were 2-1. Then reality set in as they lost their final 8 games by an avg of 28 ppg. They did have two 4Q leads over PSU before allowing a td with 1:52 left. ISU is in the 2nd ssn of the spread & should show some improvement with 8 off st'rs back but the D returns just 4 str's & may continue to struggle.

NORTHERN COLORADO BEARS

Earnest Collins Jr (Career 8-23)
2nd Year at Northern Colorado (0-11)
Greeley, Colorado — Enrollment: 12,392

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 UNC had to replace a 2 yr st'r (2410, 60%, 9-7). They ret'd Dylan Orms (96 pass, 149 rush). They added Colorado transfer rFr Seth Lobato. Orms threw for 2,055 (52%, 15-9) and was the #3 rusher (217, 2.2). Matthew Baca started 1 when Orms was inj'd throwing for 272 (58%, 2-1). Lobato plyd in 4 gms (10-18-120, 29 rush). All 3 ret'd LY under a new HC and Lobato won the starting job and despite missing 1 gm (inj) threw for 2,448 (54.5%, 17-10, 57 rush) but came on at the end of the ssn avg 330 ypg with a 10-4 ratio in the last 5 gms. Baca plyd in 11 (8-17-63) while Orms plyd in 4 (2 st, 11-26-103) but departs. HC Collins said Lobato "grew up" and is the clear cut starter (Baca #2) and expect him to have him contend for all-conf season.

RB's - UNC looked to ret their top 4 rushers (3 RB) in '10 but #2 John Burnley (158, 3.4) missed the ssn (ACL, RS). Andre Harris (646, 4.5) led again (690, 4.6, 10 td) while Jhamele Robinson (#4 in '09) was #2 with 477 (3.9) but both left LY. Their top 2 ret rushers were QB's as CJ Glenn (25, 2.3) was the only ret RB who had a carry in '10. They also ret'd FB Andrew Downing (18 yd rec) and got Burnley back. They added Colorado trans Quentin Hildreth and he led with just 388 (3.3). Burnley was the #2 RB with just 61 (2.7). Both ret and their numbers can only improve (4th last FCS rush ypg).

Rec's - UNC had to replace their #1 rec (864, 12.2) but ret'd their next 4 incl #2 Patrick Walker (615, 11.4) and #5 Jace Davis (163,10.9, 3 st as true). They also added JC TE Doug Steele. Davis (1st tm BSC) led with 992 (18.7) while Walker was #2 (570, 15.4) and 2nd tm BSC Steele was #3 (265, 22.1). LY they lost Matt McDonnell (97, 16.2) and TE Sam Sewell (10st, 3 rec) while Davis RS (acad). They ret'd 4 of their top 5 and Walker was 2nd tm BSC leading with 1,171 (13.9, 10 td) but Steele had just 68 (9.7). Walker departs as UNC's all-time reception leader (178) but they ret 5 of their top 6 led by Chris Morris (502, 9.8). With the ret of Davis this unit is ahead of LY's starting unit.

O-Line - In '10 the OL lost their 2 most exp'd OL (comb 61 car sts) but ret'd 6 OL who had a comb 43 st in '09 led by C Tim McGraw and RG Alex Shapiro while adding JC Rick Aversano. LG Amal Gumbs (7st '09) was lost after 2 sts (inj) and RS. While UNC's 131 ypg rush (3.4) was their best s/'05 their sks all'd rose from 19 (4.8%) to 34 (11.1%). LY they only lost C McGraw (3 yr st'r) and added JC Jake Solomon but were in a new Off. Despite 4 OL starting all 11, UNC's rush numbers plummeted to just 56 ypg (2.2) allowing 35 sks (8.6%). TY they lose C Shapiro (11st, 3 yr st'r) and RT Lee Barbiasz (11 st, 2 yr st'r). They ret 5 OL who had 32 comb sts LY, led by LT Nick Chandler (11st, 2 yr st'r), LG Solomon (11st) and RG Aversano (5st) and are in the 2nd yr of the Off and can only improve their rush numbers.

D-Line - The DL ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 led by DE's Nick Hernon and Ethan Davis and added WY transfer Marcus Felker. Despite the exp they put up nearly identical numbers at 175 ypg (4.4, 17 sk) to '09. LY they lost Davis (6.5 tfl) and Pasi Fahina (18 tkl). They ret 3 st'rs incl DE's Hernon (#6 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl) and VJ Holmes (17 tkl) but were under a new DC. While their ypc all'd improved to 3.9 they all'd 171 ypg with 18 sks. TY they lose 3 st'rs incl HM BSC NG Felker (#9 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl), HM BSC DE Hernon (#10) and DT Holmes (#12). However they are not as inexp'd as you would think. They ret HM BSC Devontae Chapple (#7 tkl'r, 5.5 sk, DT spg) who moved from DE to DT and NG Lexington Smith (1st, #11) while moving in LB Gavin Miller (2st, 17 tkl) and adding 2 JC's.

LB's - In '10 they lost the #5 tkl'r but ret'd 4 (comb 24st) led by WLB Matt King (#1 tkl'r) and 2nd tm BSC MLB John Eddy (#2) but their ppg all'd went from 26.2 to 31.4. LY they lost all 3 st'rs in 1st tm BSC MLB Eddy (#1 tkl'r), SLB King (#2) and WLB James Schrenk (#9). Their top returnees were Cameron Friend (34 tkl) and Gavin Miller (4.5 tfl) along with former Kan St trans Clarence Bumpas (1 tkl). Under a new DC (st'd 2 LB L/5 gm), they all'd 34.7 ppg their most since moving up to Div I. TY they lose a 4 gm st'r (9 tkl) and move Miller (2st) to DL. They ret 2nd tm BSC MLB Bumpas (145 tkl) and WLB Friend (#2 tkl'r) and add VHT UCF transfer Leilon Willingham (PS#38) and former Hawaii signee Dominick Sierra and can only improve.

DB's - The secondary lost their #6 and #7 tkl'rs in '10. They ret'd FS Max Hewitt (#3 tkl'r) and 2nd tm BSC CB Korey Askew (#4) and added Colo St trans Brandon Owens but they fell to #96 in pass eff D (21-9 ratio). LY they lost 1st tm BSC CB Askew (#4 tkl'r) and FS Hewitt (#3). The unit ret'd CB Owens (4st, #5 tkl'r), S Marcel Gibbons (8st, #7), S Elliot Dorsey (3st, #8), S Chuks Nweke (#10) and CB Colby Riggins (7st, #11). Despite starting an extra CB in 5 gms UNC fell to #114 (23-10). TY they lose HM BSC SS Newke (11st, #4 tkl'r), FS Dorsey (11st, #5), CB Owens (1st, #6) and CB Riggins (2st, 27 tkl). They ret CB's Gibbons (8st, #3 tkl'r), Courtney Hall (5st, #8) and James Davis (1st, 28 tkl). While less exp than LY they have no where to go but up.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit only lost their K (11-16 FG) in '10. Two K's comb to hit just 5-11 but P Cameron Kaman went from 39.7 to 40.4 ypp while RS Dominic Gunn (11.8 PR, 23.4 KR) was 1st tm BSC but the unit finished #107 in our ST rankings. The unit ret'd intact LY and improved to #73. TY they lose 4 yr P Kaman but ret K Dave Eden (9-14) and 2nd tm BSC RS Gunn and could still improve.

COACHES - Former Alcorn St HC Earnest Collins had a tough 0-11 first ssn at UNC. DC Zach Shay ret for his 2nd ssn. OC Michael Armour also ret but TY will be co-OC with LY's QB cch Jon Boyer.

Overview - After back-to-back 3-8 ssns (last winning ssn '03) UNC brought in a new HC. They opened against Lindenwood but after taking a 20-19 lead with 1:10 left allowed a GW FG as time expired. They trailed 28-0 at the half vs Colorado St. Against ISU, a team they beat by 14 in '10 they lost by 30. Weber St led 35-0 at the half and Montana led 55-14 into the 4Q. In a windy downpour UNC only lost to Sac St by 14. UNC only trailed EWU by 7 in the 3Q before giving up the next 21 pts. Against #4 MSU, UNC only trailed by 3 mid-4Q. Against future conf foe North Dakota, UNC took a 25-24 lead with 3:45 left but lost on a 54 yd ND FG with 1:52 left. UNC trailed NAU 27-0 into the 4Q. Vs PSU (UNC won by 5 in '10), UNC had a gm tying td (xp for lead) called back on a penalty which BSC later apologized for, saying it was an incorrect call. TY UNC should improve on Off with 8 ret st'rs and could improve on D, despite just 4 st'rs back as they ret 7 of their top 13 tkl'rs.

PHIL'S 2012 BIG SKY FORECAST

1. MONTANA ST - The Bobcats have now had 10 straight winning ssns as they extended their longest streak in tm history once again. They won a share of their 2nd str BSC Crown and also made their 2nd straight playoffs but after holding off UNH for a 1pt win, were the first of the 2 BSC Co-Champs to be knocked out by SHSU. They had been ranked #1 going into their final reg ssn game vs rival UM having won 9 str after an opening loss to Utah. They were outgained in that game by 223 yds (lost by 26) but still finished #2 in the BSC at +99.1 ypg in conf play. TY they are again led by BSC co-OPOY QB McGhee as they ret 14 st'rs overall (t-#2) and also ret 73.0% of their lettermen (#4). While they only got by PSU by 2 LY all of their other conf wins were by 10 pts or more incl 3 by 17+ pts. TY they do not face an FBS team and while they avoid an improved NAU along with WSU & Cal Poly, they also do not get to play ISU. In a game which could decide the conf champ they get the critical game vs EW at home while also hosting PSU, UND & UNC. While they travel to SUU, UC Davis & Sac St they will need to beat rival UM on the road, but the road team has won 3 str in the series. We will call for MSU to take their 3rd straight BSC Crown.

2. EASTERN WASHINGTON - LY the Eagles were off a 13-2 FCS Championship ssn and ret'd 14 st'rs (4 more than '10) incl former SMU transfer QB Mitchell. They were -4 TO's but still only lost by 3 to Washington but then in a daze were shocked by South Dakota and they lost to UM & MSU to start 0-4. They were still able to salvage a winning ssn and Mitchell won the Payton Awd throwing for 4,000+ yds. They were 5-3 but just +4.4 ypg (#5) in conf play but also beat Cal Poly 53-51 in 3OT with a 45 yd edge. TY they lose Mitchell but add SMU trans QB Padron, who replaced Mitchell at SMU. He will be supported by 14 ret st'rs (t-#2) as EW ret 75.0% of their lettermen but do lose a #4 DC in S Johnson. EW's HG vs Cal Poly will be counted as a non-conf gm and while they avoid NAU they miss both UNC & ISU. They host UM along with ND, UC Davis and Sac St. While road games at SUU, WSU & PSU fall into the winnable category their showdown with MSU is on the road which could keep them from the conf crown but they should return to the playoffs TY.

2. NORTHERN ARIZONA - The Lumberjacks are off just their 2nd losing ssn in the last 6 yrs but all 4 winning ssns were just 6-5 ssns. NAU has a tendency to start well but then fade at the end of the ssn as they are just 6-14 in the final 5 gms of the ssn in the last 4 years. LY they started 2-2 but won just 2 of their final 7. Surprisingly despite a 3-5 conf record LY NAU was +55.1 ypg in conf play which was 3rd behind both conf co-Champs but they were -96 yds in a 3 pt loss to SUU at the end of the ssn. They had -3 net close losses in conf play as while they only defeated Sac St by 1 they lost 4 others by 4 pts or less. TY they bring in a new OC who was hired during spring camp, so they will just have the fall to make any changes but do ret 7 st'rs on off incl QB Grossart and 1st tm BSC RB Bauman, while also ret 4 of their top 5 rec and adding a PS#17 Cal transfer RB. The D also ret 7 st'rs and 13 of their top 16 tkl'rs. Their 14 ret st'rs is t-#2 but their 66.1% of ret lettermen is just #7. They avoid the top 2 tms in the conf (EW & MSU) along with WSU but do not play a rebuilding Sac St. They host middle of the pack tms Cal Poly, PSU, SUU & UC Davis which should help them finish above those teams. While they must travel to UM, their other road gms are vs ND, ISU & UNC. That schedule has us calling for the Lumberjacks to be toward the top of the conf and we will call for them to have their best final 5 games in over 5 yrs which could put them in position for the playoffs and even a darkhorse candidate for the BSC crown.

4. MONTANA - The Grizzlies last losing ssn was in 1985, but in '10 they finished just 7-4 and FCS's longest playoff streak ended. LY UM started the ssn 2-2 but then won their final 7 reg ssn games incl the L/3 by an avg of 29 ppg incl a 26 pt win over rival #1 MSU with whom they shared the conf Title. They continued that run winning their F/2 playoff gms by 27 & 38 pts but had their comeback vs #1 SHSU fall 3 pts short. They were a BSC best +110.4 ypg in conf play and also knocked off Cal Poly by 14 LY despite being just +24 yds. TY was a huge upheaval as LY's BSC COY HC Pflugrad was dismissed mid-spg practice. LY's asst HC Delaney, who had retired, ret'd as the interim HC and in July was given a 2 yr contract. QB Johnson was susp'd in late July and the top 3 eligible candidates at presstime had 3 career att between them. They have just 7 ret st'rs (t-#11, last), their fewest in over 7 yrs and they ret just 56.3% (#12) of their lettermen. They avoid Cal Poly & UC Davis but do not get to play PSU & Sac St. They must face EW & WSU on the road but their other 2 road games are at ND & UNC. They get to host NAU & rival MSU along with SUU & ISU. While the Grizzles history and schedule seem to be pointing to another run at the conf crown, a coaching change, off-field ?'s and inexperience has us calling for them to be down TY, which in UM terms is a 4th place finish.

5. CAL POLY - The Mustangs have had 8 winning ssn's in the last 9 yrs incl 2 straight and LY thanks to a 23-19 win over UND shared the final Great West Title with UND but missed out an the outright GWC Crown losing to last place UC Davis thanks to being -3 in TO's. The Mustangs were -12.5 ypg (#3) in GWC play LY and in a non-conf loss to UM LY were only outgained by 24 yds. TY they move up to the Big Sky conf and ret just 8 st'rs (t-#11, last) and just 60.9% (#10) of their lettermen. HC Walsh, who now returns to the Big Sky (cch'd PSU '93-'06) has said he wants a more explosive offense TY and also brings in a new DC. They ret QB Broadous (#2 rusher) and their top 3 tkl'rs on D while also adding a BCS (Wisc) tran and several JC's on D so they have a solid core to build around. Their game vs EWU will be counted as a non-conf game and they avoid UM, MSU & SUU. They must play NAU, UND and WSU all on the road but host ISU, UNC, PSU & UC Davis giving them one of BCS's best schedules TY. Despite their inexperience the Mustangs sked should allow them to have a solid 1st ssn in the Big Sky.

6. PORTLAND ST - They Vikings were off 4 str losing ssn's LY but thanks in part to 2 wins over lower div tms finished 7-4 incl 5-3 in conf play but 5 of those gms (3-2) were decided by 7 pts or less. PSU was +37.5 ypg (#4) but was +1 (3-2) in net close gms. They are now in their 3rd yr of the Pistol offense after converting from the pass happy Run & Shoot. While the off returns 7 st'rs they are very inexperienced at QB which is a key to the offense and also lose 2 of their top 3 RB's but the OL with 4 ret st'rs and a JC should give the new QB time to grow. Another part of their improvement LY was due to the D allowing 113 less ypg and 12.5 less ppg but this yr they ret just 4 st'rs incl just 3 of their top 8 tkl'rs. Their 11 ret st'rs overall is 9th in the conf while their 63% of ret lettermen is 8th. TY they play just 1 lower div tm as their game vs new BSC member N Dakota will count as a non-conf game. While they avoid UM & WSU they do not get to play a rebuilding Sac St. They must face NAU, MSU & Cal Poly all on the road along with UC Davis with 2 of their HG's vs EW and SUU but do host both ISU & UNC. PSU looks to be on track for some high scoring games TY and will need a QB & the D to step up if they hope to win them.

7. WEBER ST - Despite winning their L/2 gms LY to send retiring 7yr HC Ron McBride out on a winning note, the Wildcats had their first losing ssn in 4 yrs at 5-6 but 2 of those losses were to FBS tms incl a 3 pt loss at Wyoming. They still finished 5-3 in the conf but were just +0.1 ypg (#6) in conf play but did outgain non-conf SUU by 81 yds despite losing 35-28. They hired WSU alum John L Smith as HC and he did not hire DC Sears until late in spring practice. Smith then left to take over at Arkansas & the newly hired Sears was promoted to HC. They do ret OC Hammer for his 4th ssn, providing some continuity. WSU is tied for #1 in the conf with 15 ret st'rs and have 67.9% of their lettermen returning. The Wildcats avoid both MSU & NAU along with UND & PSU. While they must face SUU on the road the other road gms are against UC Davis, ISU & Sac St. They also host UNC but their other HG's are vs Cal Poly, EW & UM. With all the coaching changes WSU will need to come together quickly in the fall and starting the ssn vs 2 FBS tms and an improved McNeese St could put them in an early hole that could cause doubt in the new coaching staff.

8. SOUTHERN UTAH - The Thunderbirds started LY 3-1 incl 21+ pt wins over #12 Sac St & UNLV and were ranked #17 but then lost 3 str GWC gms by 6 pts or less. They also beat both Weber St & NAU. Despite being #12 in pass off and a GWC best +74.3 ypg in conf play they finished just 1-3 in GWC play. While they ret just 8 st'rs overall (t-#11) they ret GWC OPOY QB Sorensen and ret 68.9% (#5) of their lettermen. The schedule makers were not kind as while they avoid both UC Davis & Cal Poly they do not get to play either ISU & UNC. While they host both Sac St & WSU their other HG's are vs EW & MSU. They also must face UM, NAU & UND on the road along with PSU. While LY's SUU team could have been in the BSC title race, TY they lose their top 2 rushers, 5 of their top 6 rec and 6 of their top 7 tkl's and may not have enough to make it to the top TY.

9. UC DAVIS - The Aggies have had 4 of 7 winning ssn's since moving up from Div II in '05 but they had just 6 wins in each of those. LY they ret"d 16 st'rs and while they had a disappointing 4-7 ssn, 2 of those losses were to FBS tms and they handed GWC co-champ Cal Poly their only conf loss. They were -40.3 ypg (#4) in conf play 28 yds behind #3 Cal Poly and also were outgained by 211 yds in a 38-14 loss to MSU. TY they lead their new conf with both 16 ret st'rs and 81% of their lettermen returning. They only face 1 former GWC foe (Cal Poly) and do not get to face UNC but avoid UM. While they draw MSU at home their other HG's are vs PSU, Sac St & WSU. They must travel to EW, NAU & Cal Poly but should be able to put up some pts at ISU. While they only face 1 FBS tm TY their schedule is tougher with the move to the BSC but if they can get an upset or 2 along the way they could finish with another winning ssn.

10. NORTH DAKOTA - UND has had 3 of 4 winning ssn's since moving up from Div II incl 8-3 LY but 4 of those wins were vs 3 lower Div tms and Pioneer member Drake. They were a 4 pt loss to Cal Poly away from winning the outright GWC Crown LY but did need an amazing 4Q comeback (21 pts) to beat rival South Dakota in the ssn finale to grab a share of that crown. Surprisingly UND was -42 ypg (worst) in conf play LY as all 3 of their wins were by 7 pts or less. They also defeated Big Sky member UNC by 2 despite being outgained by 79 yds. They ret 14 st'rs (t-#2) and 78% (#2) of their lettermen but they take a big step up in competition with just 1 gm vs a lower div tm. Their game vs PSU will be counted as a non-conf game. They do not get to play ISU or UC Davis and also avoid WSU. Their HG's are vs UM, Cal Poly, SUU & NAU with their most winnable gms vs UNC & Sac St both on the road (also travel to MSU & EW). That schedule does not bode well for a winning ssn as they are the polar opposite of Cal Poly, being very exp'd but facing one of the toughest schedules in the conf and they will not win a share of a 2nd straight conf crown.

11. SACRAMENTO ST - The Hornets were off their 1st winning ssn since 2000 & looked primed for a run at their first BSC crown LY. After an OT win over Oregon St they were ranked #12. They then lost their next 2 before seeming to get back on track with an upset of #10 UM but 3 str losses (incl 1 in OT) doomed them to another losing ssn. They were only -5.9 ypg (#7) in conf play but were outgained by over 100 ypg vs both non-conf SUU & UC Davis. TY they ret just 10 st'rs (#10) and have just 54.1% (last) of their lettermen returning. Unfortunately for the Hornets their HG vs UNC will be counted as a non-conf gm TY. While they will not get a shot at PSU they do avoid both UM & NAU. Their most winnable game is at ISU as they also travel to EW, SUU and UC Davis while their HG's are vs MSU, UND, Cal Poly and WSU. While they are capable of an upset or two this will be a rebuilding yr for Sac St.

12. IDAHO ST - The Bengals went 8-4 in '03 but since then have had 8 straight losing ssn's incl 7 with 3 or fewer wins. LY ISU brought in new HC Kramer and he brought a new spread offense and while they were #9 FCS in pass off, they finished last in the FCS in rush off and sks allowed while their D struggled (#115 ttl D, #111 scoring D). They actually started the ssn 2-1 incl a 50-20 win over UNC, which kept the Bengals out of the Big Sky cellar LY. However they lost their final 8 games and only 1 of those losses was by less than 15 pts (7 vs PSU). ISU ret's 12 st'rs (t-7th) and 67% of their lettermen (#6) and while the offense should improve with 8 ret st'rs, the defense will struggle again with just 4 ret st'rs and just 2 of their top 10 tklr's back. TY they avoid EWU, MSU & SUU in conf play but must face UNC, PSU & Cal Poly all on the road. While they could escape the cellar again their D must step up to make that happen and even if they do they have a lot of ground to make up as they were -150.9 ypg (last) in conf play LY.

13. NORTHERN COLORADO - Since moving up from Div II in 2004, the Bears have had 8 str losing ssn, with their best rec in the time frame being 4-7 in '05 the year before they moved from the Great West to the Big Sky. Since joining the BSC they are 5-43 in conf play with two 0-8 ssn's incl LY. They brought in Alcorn St HC Collins LY to take over and while the Off was #31 in passing they were just #117 in rushing while their D finished #109 in ttl Def and #107 in scoring. They were -149.9 ypg in conf play, which was 144 ypg worst than #7 Sac St and while it was 1 ypg better than ISU they were outgained by ISU by 269 yds. TY the Bears ret 12 st'rs (t-#7) and while they ret just 63.5% (#9) of their lettermen they get back 7 of their top 13 tklr's despite ret just 4 st'rs on D. Their game vs Sac St will be considered a non-conf game TY. They avoid EWU, SUU and UCD in conf play. They travel to both PSU and Cal Poly while 2 of their HG's are vs UM and NAU. They also get to host both UND, who UNC only lost to by 2 LY and ISU, which are their best shot to escape the expanded BSC Cellar but LY they did lose to the Bengals 50-20.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '09 the Seawolves ret'd their starting QB but Michael Coulter (PS#413JC) signed here and started all 11 throwing for 2,060 (55%, 15-10). He started all 11 in 2010 finishing with 1,811 (60%, 17-10) while Kyle Essington threw 4 passes in 4 gms. Both returned LY but after making 4 sts Coulter was inj'd and had ssn ending surgery finishing with 347 (52.4%, 0-2). Essington threw 4 td's and ran for another in his first start helping him earn 2nd Tm BSC honors throwing for 1,919 (54.7%) with an outstanding 20-4 ratio. Coulter departs but Essington is now an exp'd Sr and will again be one of the conferences top QB's.

RB's - When Hoftstra dropped their FB program no unit benefitted more than this one. Both Miguel Maysonet and Brock joined the team and the duo rushed for 1,128 (6.4) and 1,029 (6.9) respectively combining for 21 td's. They both ret'd LY and bettered their numbers with the BSC OPOY Maysonet for 1,633 (6.5) while Jackolski added 1,418 (6.6) and this time they combined for 31 rush td's. JeVahn Cruz started the ssn at CB (15 tkl's) but also pitched in 334 yds (11.1). While they lose Jackloski they should be just as strong with the addition of Marcus Coker (PS#41). Coker was suspended for Iowa's bowl LY but still finished with 1,384 (4.9) earning 2nd tm B10 honors. Both FB's also return to lead the way in Chris Fenelon (10 st, 6 rec) and David Shukri (2 st). While it's hard to imagine them improving on LY's numbers this unit should rank among the top in the FCS.

Rec's - In 2010 Matt Brevi (668, 17.1) and Jordan Gush (525, 13.5) combined for 65% of the receiving yards. Both returned LY and the duo finished #2 and #3 with 616 (19.9) and 541 (13.2). Kevin Norrell was a Wash St tran via the JUCO route and finished #1 with 673 (16.4) despite only making 3 sts. TY they lose Brevi but add VHT Adrian Coxson (PS#15) who RS at Florida and had 4 rec in an inj filled season LY at Maryland. TE Brett Arce also returns and while he only has 12 rec's in 2 seasons his 25 career sts validates his blocking abilities. As with the RB's this unit can match almost any in the FCS.

O-Line - The OL lost 3 starters in 2010 yet improved their numbers to 218 ypg and 5.6 ypc with an 8.0 sack%. LY they again lost 3 starters and despite a pair of Frosh at C and RG, they opened holes for 267 ypg which was 4th in the FCS behind 3 option teams. Their 5.9 ypc was #2 in the FCS and their sack% fell to 6.7%. This year they only lose 1 starter (1st tm SBC) and the 4 back made 50 of the 52 sts. The open spot will be filled by PS#167 Fernando Diaz, who started his career at Pitt while still having an HT to fill in with PS#187JC Joe Danaker.

D-Line - The Seawolves had played a 3-4 and in '09 lost all 3 starters while having to replace 2 starters in '10. They still improved on their rush def both seasons. LY they switched to a 4-3 under a new DC and not only had to replace 2 starters but added another DL to the lineup. Even with just one starter back the rush D improved for a 3rd straight season allowing 101 ypg, 3.4 ypc and went from 10 to 22 sks. TY they again have only 1 starter back losing both a 1st and 2nd tm BSC. This is by far the teams weakest unit and you can certainly expect the 3 year streak to get stopped.

LB's - The scoring defense has been incredibly consistent as in the L7Y they've allowed between 23.3 and 26.3 ppg. The unit returned just 1 starter in 2010 and they allowed 2.3 ppg more then the previous season. LY they lost only one starter but had 1 less spot to fill. The returnees were the teams #2, #4 and #6 tkl'rs and while they matched their 7Y best it must be noted that it included 2 FBS games for the first time as well as 2 playoff games. The unit returns intact with a pair of 13 gm starters (one 1st tm BSC) and a pair that split starts at SLB. MLB Jawara Dudley was 1st tm BSC and it would be no surprise if they had a sub-20 ppg season.

DB's - The 2010 secondary lost 3 starters but gained a Rutgers tran. After allowing 185 ypg passing in '09 they gave up 223 ypg but thanks to a 14-17 ratio were #43 in pass eff D. LY they lost only 1 st'r but it was their #1 tkl'r and a 1st tm BSC CB. The team allowed 235 ypg but only had a 24-14 ratio against the much tougher schedule and finished #59. This year they again only lose 1 starter but add transfers from Idaho St (9 sts LY), Utah St and an HT from Maryland (PS#161).

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Seawolves finished in the middle of the pack of our ST rankings in 2010 at #66. Wesley Skiffington (7-12, L/44) earned 2nd tm honors and he improved LY and took home 1st tm BSC going 11-15 (L/46) with the most xp's in Big South history (60-62). He also punted LY (22-35.8) along with Luke Allen (34-34.7) but together they finished with a 31.8 net. While both K's return they do have to replace KR Brock Jackolski whose 29.4 avg was good for a #6 FCS finish. The unit almost cracked the top 10 at #12 and it'll be tough to match that.

COACHES - Chuck Priore took over a 6-5 team, transitioning Stoney Brook from the NEC to the Big South. They totaled 5 or 6 wins his first 5 seasons but still won BSC COY in 2009 and again LY with their 9-4 season. OC Jeff Behrman is back for his 7th as well. Rob Neviaser is in his 2nd season as DC after spending the previous 3 seasons at Rhode Island (DC L2Y).

Overview - There was promise heading into LY after winning 4 of the L/5 and grabbing a share of their 2nd straight BSC title. They showed their potential leading Utep 24-10 but lost in OT finishing with a 24-19 FD edge. They couldn't handle a 2nd straight FBS game on the road and allowed a 57/12 pl td drive with 3:06 left to fall to 0-3. They not only rebounded but reeled off 7 straight wins by 32 ppg with no game closer than 17 pts. The regular season finale was vs Liberty who had gone 19-2 in conf play from '07-'10 winning or sharing 4 straight conf titles. The game was tied at 7, 14, 24 and 31 before SB scored the final 10 pts finishing with 30 FD's and 537 yds. Their first ever play-off game was at home and nerves may have led to a 28-10 3Q deficit but 80/11pl, 53/2pl and 80/6pl td drives gave them a school record 9th straight win. Against #1 SHSt SB led 10-3 at HT and later it was tied at 20 and 27 but the Bearkats went 83/10pl for a td with 1:01 left, ending the magic. The Seawolves are not only in a position for another conf title but a deep playoff run as well.

LIBERTY FLAMES

Turner Gill (Career 25-49)

Lynchburg, Virginia — Enrollment: 12,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2009 SC tran PS#72 Tommy Beachum had 1,700 (68%, 9-5) while sharing time with WR/QB Mike Brown (427, 71%, 4-0) who also had 698 (11.6) rec and 498 (5.7) rushing earning BSC OPOY. Beechum departed and Brown was conf OPOY for a 2nd straight season throwing for 2,956 (64%, 23-11) while rushing for 854 (5.3). He finished off his Flames career LY earning 1st tm BSC with 2,664 (65.6%, 18-10) and rushing for 437 (3.4). Tyler Brennan made 1 st LY and on the season threw for 164 (56%, 1-1). Brennan was to return but after spring practices decided to purse other interests. That leaves PS#252 Brian Hudson (145, 66.7%, 2-0) and rFr Josh Woodrum (PS#176) who split snaps in the spring. Obviously this spot will be down a few notches and for the first time in 3 seasons will not have an all-conf QB lining up behind C.

RB's - Aldreakis Allen led the RB's in 2009 with 530 (4.5) followed by SirChauncy Holloway (385, 5.3) and BJ Hayes (247, 6.2). Along with QB Brown (#2 rusher) the top 4 were to return in '10 but Allen left the program. Holloway led the RB's with 524 (4.9) while UMass tran Korrey Davis had 201 (3.5). Every player that had a rush att in 2010 ret'd LY plus '09's leader Allen came back. Allen led again with 612 (5.1) followed by QB Brown, Holloway (294, 5.5) and True Desmond Rice (158, 4.5). The top 3 RB's return as does Davis (34, 3.1) who was limited with inj's LY. New HC Gill liked having a workhorse back when at Buffalo and coupled with an inexp'd QB you can expect a lot of carries TY.

Rec's - QB/WR Brown led the team in rec in 2009 and with his full-time move to QB Chris Summers led the way with 1,081 (14.2 & 15 td). Pat Kelley was #2 with 635 (16.3) while BJ Hays was #3 with 546 (9.8). Nine of the top 10 ret'd LY incl the top 3 and Summers led again with 1,014 (15.8). Kelly was again #2 with 591 (14.8) earning 2nd tm BSC followed by TE Tommy Shavers (2nd tm BSC, 9 st, 307, 18.1) and Hayes (306, 10.9). This year only Kelly returns from the above group with Ryan Ferguson (148, 16.4) being the next most exp'd. TE Peter Gagliardi (4 st FB, 6 rec) RS at Buffalo under Gill in 2009. While Kelley is capable of being a #1 they are very inexperienced behind him.

O-Line - The OL lost 3 starters in '09, 3 starters in '10 and 4 starters LY. That certainly can explain a 3 year slide in both ypg and ypc. This unit however has been well decorated with 3 All-BSC players each of the L3Y. This year they only lose one starter (11 st, 2nd tm BSC) and the 4 returning starters made 42 of the 44 sts with a ret'g backup making the other 2. Also battling is 6'7" Hunter Steward who transfers in from Virginia. Obviously this is the most experienced unit in a while and could easily top any rush numbers over the L7Y.

D-Line - In 2010 the DL lost one starter (1st tm BSC) and the 3 man front posted a recent best allowing 116 ypg, 3.5 ypc and 24 sks. LY they lost 2 starters (1st and 2nd tm BSC) and the rush numbers slipped to 144 ypg, 3.8 ypc and 20 sks. This year they again lose 1 starter (3x All-conf) but also transition into a 4 man front. Four player return that combined for 27 sts incl Francis Bah (4 sk, 7.5 tfl) who earned 2nd tm SBC despite making only 2 sts. Jibrille Fewell RS at Buffalo under Gill, was an HM JUCO AA LY and his 300 lbs will clog the middle. With new schemes any performance close to LY's will be acceptable.

LB's - This unit lost 2 starters in 2010 incl their #1 and #5 tacklers and finished the season allowing 20.2 ppg. LY their #1 and #2 tacklers who were also 1st and 2nd tm BSC graduated and they moved a 3rd starter to the DL. The young unit held their own and only slipped to allowing 22.0 ppg. This season they lose only 1 starter (#8 tkl'r) and with one less spot to fill, three 11 gm starters will line up.

DB's - The Flames had to replace a pair of starters in 2010 and finished at #51 in pass eff D. LY they lost one starter to graduation and another in a move to LB but the unit still improved and finished #37 in pass eff D. TY they again lose 2 starters but have talent in waiting as CB Kevin Fogg earned 2nd tm BSC honors without making a start giving them a pair of All-Conf corners with Pitt Tran Ron Hobby (PS#109) backing up. They also have Ga Tech tran VHT Ryan Ayers (PS#40) at FS who made only 3 sts LY. Expect another step up in the rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The '10 ST unit finished only #51 despite having an AA K and All-Conf P. They both ret'd LY and Matt Bevins, who was 20-27 (L/52) in '10 was 4-8 (L/50) with true Fr Alex Kacere going 7-11 (L/45) LY. Mike Larsson upped his avg from 41.7 (34.4 net) to 42.8 (33.7 net) earning B2B 1st tm awards. Both depart TY. They also lose their top PR but KR Kevin Fogg is back after leading the FCS LY with a 33.5 avg. There are holes to fill and it'll be tough to match LY's #5 finish.

COACHES - Danny Rocco departs to Richmond after taking over a 1-10 team and earning COY his first 3 seasons leaving with a 47-20 record. Turner Gill takes over the reigns. Gill was of course a Neb QB who was the HC at Buffalo ('06-'09) and Kansas ('10 & '11). The co-OC's are Dennis Wagner who was the W Car HC from '08-'11 and Aaron Stamn who was Gill's TE cch at both Buffalo and Kan. The co-DC's were under Gill at Kansas in Robert Wimberly (Sec) and Vantz Singletary (DL/LB).

Overview - In 2011 the Flames were going for a 5th straight conf title. The ssn started at NCST and while they had a 406-318 yd edge they were -5 in TO's. Liberty dominated Robert Morris but then dropped B2B games vs ranked foes by identical 27-24 scores. Against JM they lost on a 40 yd FG on the final play and vs Lehigh they missed a 54 yd'r on the final play to force OT. They overmatched 3 weaker opponents and collectively led 52-3 at HT and the next week against CCU (#20 cch poll) led 42-7 at HT. After dispatching CSU they were finally tested vs Presbyterian. Liberty took a 3-0 lead to HT and after PC tied the game with :05 left on a 22 yd FG the Flames won in 2OT. The next week VMI fought back to take a late 3Q lead (24-23) but Kevin Fogg ret'd 1 of his 3 KR td's on the ssn to turn back the momentum. The showdown for the Big South Title went to Stony Brook in a game that was tied at 7, 14, 24 and 31. There will now be the adjustment period for the players and new coaches but this team will have a say in who wins the conference title in 2012.

GARDNER-WEBB BULLDOGS

Ron Dickerson (Career 4-7)
2nd Year at Gardner-Webb (4-7)
Boiling Springs, North Carolina Enrollment: 4,300

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - John Rock made 12 pass att's in '09 and came into '10 as the #1 throwing for 1,298 (53%, 7-15) making 8 sts. RFr Chandler Browning (PS#185) made the other 3 sts throwing for 863 (54%, 4-5). Browning came into LY as the #1 and started the F/3 but after going 13-41 combined vs OU & WF they made a switch. Lucas Beatty started the next 3 gms and on the season threw for 631 (53.6%, 2-3). Browning started the L/3 and finished with 871 (50%, 3-6). Both return TY as does HT Exavier Johnson (PS#69) who played in 2 gms here LY after being a JC in '10. They will also plan to utilize WR Jordan Paul who made 1 st at WR LY as a dual threat. Four QB's are certainly a luxury for the coaching staff and this unit is clearly in better shape then they were heading into LY.

RB's - Patrick Hall departed after leading the team in both '09 (599, 5.5) and '10 (616, 4.0). Kenny Little who had 594 (4.5) in '09 started the opener in '10 but missed the rest of the season. Juanne Blount was #2 in '10 with 494 (3.9) but for a second straight season the starting RB in the opener was OFY(102, 7.3). Little returned LY and missed 2 gms but still finished with 1,042 (5.2) earning 2nd tm BSC. Ricky Rhodes who DNP in '10 finished #2 with 553 (4.7). This year their top 6 are all back plus they bring in an Ole Miss tran at FB and they also signed a PS#210 true.

Rec's - James Perry led the team in rec in '09 (749, 12.3), '10 (673, 10.4) and LY (590, 14.0). He was the only rec in the top 4 to return. Lyndon Leslie had 156 (15.6) in '10, finished #2 LY with 352 (14.1) playing in only 7 gms while TE Treymaine Schley was #3 with (244, 12.2) making 8 sts. This year they are again depth shy as they lose their top 4 with the leading returner being a RB. While a couple of true's will clearly see time, Marquis Sanders (4 st in '10) who was inj'd LY was granted a 6th year while BCS recruit Kenny Cook (PS#334JC) was impressive this spring after being at a JC LY. If they find a go to guy they could easily match LY's numbers.

O-Line - The Bulldogs lost 2 starters in '10 but the rush numbers slipped more than expected dropping to 112 ypg and 2.9 ypc allowing a whopping 36 sks. LY they not only lost a pair of starters but they were both 4 year st'rs. While topping '10's numbers wasn't a surprise, having the best numbers in the previous 6 years was with 167 ypg, 4.1 ypc and only 17 sks. This year they return all 5 starters that have a combined 92 career starts incl a 1st and 2nd tm All-BSC from LY. The 2005 numbers are clearly in jeopardy with this veteran unit.

D-Line - In 2010 they had to replace 1 starter but underachieved allowing 159 ypg and 4.0 ypc with 21 sks. The coaching change of course brought in a new DC and despite having to replace 2 starters the rush numbers improved to 142 ypg, 3.8 ypc with 25 sks. TY they have to replace a 4 year starting DE but return their star in Preston Pemasa who's led the conf in tfl's the L2Y earning B2B 1st tm honors. The open spot will be filled with experience as Maurice Dickson made 4 sts in '10 and LY had 4.5 sks and 6 tfl's as a backup. It's the best DL in years and the 2008 numbers are within reach.

LB's - The LB's ret'd only 1 of the 3 starter's in 2010 and their numbers slipped for a 3rd straight season allowing 27.8 ppg. LY they had to replace 1.5 starters (#2 & # 3 tklr's) but they return a full and part-time starter that finished tied as the teams #4 tkl'rs. Brian Wittenberger missed the ssn with an inj and with one starter back the numbers fell again to allowing 31.8 ppg. TY they lose all 3 starters (#1, #2 & #3 tklr's). They return Wittenberger but replacing your teams top 3 tkl'rs is always a challenge.

DB's - In '10 the secondary had to replace 2 st'rs but also got back a 1st tm BSC CB that missed '09 with inj. The group finished #20 in pass eff D all'g 50.8% comp with a 10-11 ratio. LY they had to replace a pair of 2nd tm BSC CB's and they fell back to #70 in pass eff D with a 20-8 ratio. TY they have to replace 1 starter in Alonzo Winfield who was a 1st tm BSC in '09 and 2nd tm in '10. Chris James (6 st '09, 1 st '10, OFY LY) returns after getting a 6th year and will look to fill the opening along with newcomer Steven Cristobal (PS#426JC).

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Bulldogs only had to replace their KR in 2010 but had the unfortunate distinction of finishing last in our ST rankings. LY all the major components ret'd and P Graham Purvis put up similar numbers (37.4, 31.5 net). True Fr Trevor Austin was 12-15 (L/41) earning 2nd tm BSC. The top PR in '10 avg'd only 6.0 while Ricky Rhodes avg'd 11.0 LY. Rhodes also handled the KR duties and while his 19.2 avg was below par it was still an increase from 2010 (top 2 w/ 17.4 &14.9). Everyone is back and after only moving up to #115 they should make a huge rise.

COACHES - Ron Dickerson is the 8th HC for Gardner-Webb and he is now in his second season. Dickerson was the WR coach at Ole Miss for 3 years prior. The new OC TY is Kurt Beathard, son of NFL GM Bobby. Kurt spent the L3Y in the UFL and was at Ill the 3 years prior as a WR and then QB cch. DC Tony Pierce is in his 2nd season. He spent '10 at Valparaiso, '09 at Tenn St and 2003-'08 at Alabama St where he was named the AFCA Asst COY in 2004.

Overview - The Bulldogs made a coaching change after 14 years and went through the normal adjustment period. They finished with the same 4-7 record but both the offensive and defensive numbers slipped. The first 3 games went as planned with GW overwhelming a DII and getting overwhelmed vs Ohio and Wake Forest. Samford blk'd a punt for a td and got a 60yd 1Q td pass and GW couldn't fight back. The next week Liberty continued their series domination, winning for a 5th straight time by 26 ppg. At Presbyterian they again imploded in the 1Q with 2 TO's and trailed 21-0 in the 28-14 loss. They snapped a 5 gm losing streak as well as a 7 gm series losing streak by hitting a 31 yd FG on the last play vs CCU. In front of a HC crowd the D stepped it up with 7 sks and 2 int in the 14-7 win over CSU. They got their 2nd win over a DII opponent but were mauled by SB in their home finale. In the season finale against a 1-9 VMI team they again trailed 17-0 after 1Q but were int at midfield with 1:22 left. Expect a better performance in the second year of this coaching staff.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Brandon Miley (PS#151) started the F/7 in '09 throwing for 1,736 (55%, 11-16) and came into '10 as the #1 but only started the F/5 throwing for 509 (55%, 4-6). Former Ga Tech walk-on Myron Gray started 5 of the L/6 throwing for 711 (49%, 4-4) while rushing for 175 (3.4). Ryan Singer (PS#267) played in 6 and started 1 throwing for 560 (56%, 4-4) while rushing for 147 (5.1). Gray departed and Singer made 8 sts throwing for 1,472 (52.5%, 8-8) and rushing for 360 (3.0) while Miley started 3 throwing for 338 (52.5%, 2-1). Singer was to return and went thru spring drills but will not be with the program this year. That leaves ZERO pass att's returning. The top 2 into the fall camp are rFr Tamyn Garrick (PS#257) and Soph Chad Sanders (PS#289). Whoever wins the job will go through a tough learning process.

RB's - Lance Byrd led the team in rushing in '09 with 700 (5.5) but battled injuries in '10 finishing #2 with 339 (4.5) making only 1 st. He and QB Ryan Singer (#4 in '10 with 147, 5.1) returned LY and finished #1 and #2 with Byrd (910, 5.3) earning 2nd tm BSC and Singer finishing with 360 (3.0). Seth Moreland made 1 st at WR in '10 and mostly played ST's, but gained 326 (5.0) in his switch to the backfield. Every player returns that had carries with the exception of the QB and this unit is far more experienced then LY's. Which ever QB they go with will be less mobile so the production here should increase significantly.

Rec's - The rec's returned 4 of their top 6 in 2010 but lost their #2 and #3. Patrick McCoy earned 2nd tm BSC in '09 with 615 (13.1) but saw his production drop in '10 (#3, 218, 9.1). The unit only returned 2 of their top 6 LY but it incl their #1 from '10 in Michael Ruff (487, 14.8) and McCoy. Ruff led for a 2nd straight ssn with 432 (11.4) while McCoy (140, 12.7) only made 4 sts and played in 4 gms. True Fr Jeremiah McKie (PS#341) made 7 sts and finished #2 with 367 (15.3) while Anderico Baily was #3 with 209 (7.5) and Arthur Williams (190, 14.6) was #4. TY McCoy is the only significant loss from the entire unit making it the deepest they've had in the recent past.

O-Line - In 2009 they returned 3 starters and got an Air Force transfer and they improved to 115 rush ypg (3.7) but allowed 30 sacks. In 2010 they returned 3 starters and got another Air Force transfer but 9 different players made starts and upped the numbers again to 131 rush ypg (3.8) but with 32 sacks. In 2011 they returned 5 players that made 36 starts so we'll say that they had 3 back. With a new OC the unit posted a recent high with 176 ypg and 4.4 ypc while cutting the sacks to 25. This year they only return an 11 game and a 6 game starter so a 4th straight increase will be a difficult feat.

D-Line - It's not often a team will allow 229 rush ypg and 5.1 ypc and we write that it was a 2nd straight season of improvement but those were their '10 numbers with 2 starters back. LY the DL retuned 5 players that made starts and just as the OL did, they improved the rushing numbers for a 3rd straight year to 203 ypg and 4.8 ypc but the sacks actually dropped to 17. The improved unit was noticed and 2 players were All-BSC with a 1st and a 2nd but unfortunately they are also the 2 starters that depart for this season. Five players return that made starts but similar to the OL, a 4th straight increase will be a difficult feat.

LB's - The '09 team had the dubious distinction of finishing last in the FCS allowing 40.1 ppg. They returned 1 starter in '10 and brought in a PS#398JC and allowed 33.9 ppg. They also allowed 393 ypg which was 85 ypg better and it marked the first time in 4 ssns they broke the 400 yd barrier. LY they returned 2 starters but lost their #1 tkl'r who was a 2nd tm BSC. The unit improved to allowing 31.5 ppg while allowing 400 ypg. We limit the secondary to 4 players so the Bandit is incl here and the Blue Hose return 2 starters again who where the #2 and #5 tklr's plus 2 others that were LY's #9 and #10 tklr's. We'll call this unit up a notch.

DB's - In 2010 the unit ret'd 3 starters but still only finished #103 in the pass eff D rankings allowing a horrendous 21-5 ratio. LY they returned all 4 starters and showed marked improvement finishing #67 in pass eff D and while they had a 22-12 ratio they allowed only 49.8% comp. The unquestioned leader of their unit has been FS Justin Bethel who was 2nd tm BSC in '09 and '10 and BSC DPOY and 2nd tm AA in his senior ssn. TY they only return 1 starter so after taking a few steps up we may see them go one or two back.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After a #97 finish in our ST rankings in '10 their only loss was their K (7-8, L/42). Aaron Mayes was 7-11 but the team was 8-14 with a long of only 37 yds. P Patrick Morgano increased both his avg (39.5-40.7) and his net (33.7-35.0). The top PR only avg'd 5.5 but the main reason the team fell back to #107 was that they only avg'd 16.9 per KR which was 5th worst in the FCS. Everyone's back and more exp'd so we certainly look for an upper half finish.

COACHES - Harold Nichols was a former QB here and was hired in 2009 as the team moved from DII to the FCS. He was previously the OC at Brown for 2Y and at Rhode Island for 6Y as the asst HC and OC. Todd Varn is in his 2nd ssn and second stint as OC. He was here in '05 and '06 before leaving as the asst HC and OC for DII Newberry. They bring in a new DC in Drew Watson who spent 10 seasons at Coastal Carolina mostly as a safeties coach.

P 46 PATRICK MORGANO SR. 6-2 205 PS#482. 40.7 punts LY, 12 FC, 12 Tm BSC.

Overview - It was a tough move up to the FCS as they dropped their first 17 games in '09-'10 but they've gone 6-10 since. The season started with excitement as they scored 21 straight 3rd & 4Q pts to tie #8 Wofford but allowed a 80/6pl with a 26 yd td pass with :51 left. After beating a DII tm their 3 game road trip was a nightmare allowing 63, 62 and 62 points. They sent their HC fans home happy after a 28-14 win vs G-W thanks to a +3 TO ratio. They opened up another 3 game road trip with a 48-14 loss to #1 Ga Southern. At #23 Liberty they led 10-6 then trailed 13 -10 but had a 1&10 at the L13. They settled for a FG and lost in 2OT. The next week they led 8-7 in the 4Q vs Coastal Carolina but after a 20 yd sk and a 15 yd pen on a punt, CC started at the P39 and scored 3 plays later. PU drove and had a 1&10 at the C16 but was SOD. They kept the momentum and blewout VMI and CSU for their 1st B2B wins since '08 and over their last 7 games they outgained their foes by 35 ypg. While they only have 12 starters back the fans in Clinton may have seen the corner being turned at the end of LY.

COASTAL CAROLINA CHANTICLEERS

Joe Moglia (Career 0-0)
1st Year at Coastal Carolina (0-0)
Conway, South Carolina — Enrollment: 9,084

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - For 3 years this spot was manned by Wake Forest tran Zach McDowell (PS#64). In his final season in 2010 he threw for 2,632 (61%, 20-16) while South Carolina tran Aramis Hillary (PS#53) threw for 132 (52%, 1-2). Hillary made 10 sts LY finishing with 1,749 (65.5%, 14-5). TE Jamie Childers made 3 sts at QB in '09 and played in 4 LY as a Wildcat making 1 start throwing for 209 (39.5%, 2-0). Hillary returns for his senior season and if spring practices are any indication he seems to be a very good fit for the new "Coastal Wave" up-tempo offense. Backing him up are a pair of underclassman (PS#278 & PS#261) but many times a new HC wants his own recruits to play so keep an eye on true Dalton Demos (PS#137).

RB's - In '10 this unit ret'd 5 of their top 6 rushers but the loss was '09's #1. The leading returnee was Eric O'Neal (377, 4.2) who finished #1 with 781 (4.4). LY O'Neal departed as did the #2 and #3 leaving Aaron Jones (152, 5.8) as the top returnee. Jones could never break into the 2-deep and finished with 88 (2.1). It became a RB-by-committee as Travis Small who RS here in '09 and DNP in '10 made 5 sts and had 432 (4.7). Marcus Whitener totaled 207 yds and made 1 st in '09 and '10 combined and finished #2 with 318 (5.3) in 6 sts. Jeremy Height made 3 sts with 305 yds in the 2 seasons prior finished LY with 197 (3.5) making 3 sts. While the numbers were certainly underwhelming every RB (except Jones) that made a carry returns making them far more experienced.

Rec's - Four of the top 5 rec's ret'd in '10 incl Bradon Whatley who led with 469 (15.6) in '09 and 545 (13.6) in '10. Only 2 of the top 5 ret'd LY incl Mich St tran TE David Duran (PS#58) who was #2 in both '09 (273, 14.4) and '10 (472, 13.9). Joining him back was Matt Hazel who was #5 in '10 with 276 (13.8). Duran came into LY as B2B 1st tm BSC but was inj'd and OFY after 4 sts (5 rec). Hazel became the go-to guy and finished #1 with 488 (15.2) while TE/QB Childers was #2 with 233 (21.2) earning 2nd tm honors. This year the only loss among the top 7 rec's is Childers plus Duran is back after a 6th year was granted. After Hazel no one separated themselves as the #2 thru #7 receivers. All had between 11 and 19 rec's, between 105-233 yds and 6 of the 7 scored td's with 4 scoring multiple td's. Keep an eye on SC tran DeMario Bennett who was likely the fastest on the Gamecocks roster in '09 and should blossom in the new offense TY.

O-Line - The Chanticleers rushed for 204 ypg in 2007 but those numbers have slipped the L4Y. In 2010 they lost 2 starters and while the ypg slipped to 147 ypg the ypc improved to 4.0 and they only allowed 7 sacks on the year. LY they lost only 1 st'r (2nd tm BSC) but the numbers fell to recent lows opening holes for only 137 ypg and 3.5 ypc although the 4.0 sack % was solid. Four players made all 11 sts LY with the 5th starter making 7 (inj'd). This year they lose 2 multi-yr starters (34 & 35 sts) incl a 2nd tm BSC. VHT Clemson tran Kenneth Page (PS#33) made 1 st here in '10 but DNP LY and will be a boost if he plays up to his potential.

D-Line - The defensive front 4 lost a starter each of the last 2 seasons and after posting a 6 year low in 2010 (151 ypg, 3.7 ypc) they slipped back LY (167, 4.1). NINE different players LY made multiple starts on the DL. Only 2 made over 7 sts in Chad McField (9 st, 22 car st) who has graduated and Quinton Davis (9 st, 22 car st) who is returning. TY they lose 4 players with 15 sts LY (46 car st) and return 6 players with 29 sts LY (61 car st). It'll be interesting if the new staff continues with the rotation or finds a true starting 4.

LB's - In '10 they returned all 3 st'rs and their top 4 LB's who were the teams #1, #2, #5 and #6 tkl'rs. The tm improved slightly from '09's numbers as they all'd 25.2 ppg. LY they returned 2 starters that were #1 and #2 again incl the BSC DPOY Andrae Jacobs and moved in DB Marcus Lott (#4 tkl'r). It was shocking that they allowed 27.9 ppg their most in program history. TY they lose 2 st'rs (#2 & #5 tkl'rs). Jacobs is back and despite a decrease in tkl's still earned 1st tm honors. The new st'rs saw extensive action LY and finished as the teams #9 and #11 tkl'rs. They do have to learn new schemes but should stop the slide.

DB's - The secondary returned 3 starters in 2010 and behind budding star CB Josh Norman they finished #35 in pass eff D thanks to a 14-13 ratio. They lost 2 starters LY and despite Norman earning 1st tm AA honors they slipped to #56 with a 16-6 ratio. TY they lose only 1 starter as Norman became the #5DC of the Carolina Panthers. Six players return that made starts so the results may surprise you.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 the unit returned intact but they still finished in the middle of our ST rankings at #60. LY they had to replace both K's. ULM tran Grant Clayton (PS#45) struggled going 9-16 (L/42). RFr P Austin Cain avg'd 34.5 with a 31.4 net which was an improvement from 2010. Niccolo Mastromateo avg'd 19.0 on KR's LY after avg 24.1 in '10 earning 2nd tm honors but he did improve his PR from 7.7 to 8.8 grabbing 2nd tm PR LY. Everyone is back and they will top LY's #76 finish.

COACHES - New HC Joe Moglia is a college HC for the 1st time. He was the DC at Dartmouth in 1983 then went into business before volunteering as Neb executive advisor to the HC in '09 and '10 and was a UFL HC the L2Y. OC Dave Patenaude held the same spot at Georgetown the L2Y. DC Clayton Carlin was the DC at Bucknell in '10 and the asst HC there LY but was actually the OC at Cornell prior.

Overview - In 2010 the Chanticleers won 4 of their final reg ssn games, a share of the Big South and a playoff berth in which they lost to Western Illinois. With 14 starters back for the opener and the game tied they went 71/9pl and scored a td with 1:32 left. They split their next 2 easily handling a DII foe then getting mauled at Georgia. They had the next 2 games in hand early having 10+ point leads from the 2Q on. They traveled to Liberty and turned it over their first 2 poss and trailed 21-0 in a runaway. CCU lost their composure vs GW as after taking a 1 pt lead with 1:53 left 3 personal fouls led to a GW 31 yd FG on the final play. In NY it was 32° with 20-30 mph winds and with CCU having 13 pass yds & SB having none the team with the better rush attack easily won in a shutout. At 4-4 they hosted PU and even with QB Hillary getting KO'd early the D came through. They were outgained for a 5th straight but with CSU at the CCU24 yd line with under a min left, CCU got an int at their 1. They finished at 7-4 after a win in the finale which incl a school record 7 sks. With 15 starters back the season will hinge on how the new staff and players mend together.

CHARLESTON SOUTHERN BUCCANEERS

Jay Mills (Career 43-57) DIII: 3-22
10th Year at Charleston Southern (43-57)
Charleston, South Carolina Enrollment: 3,224

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Both of '09's starters returned and AJ Toscano threw for 1,066 (61%, 9-4) while Andrew Trudnowski threw for 1,043 (54%, 7-6). They both departed LY and the leading returnee was Malcolm Dixon (236, 78%, 4-0). Dixon (PS#338) st'd 8 due to inj's and threw for 847 (45.6%, 3-6) while finishing #2 in rushing with 281 (2.7). Richard Mounce (PS#252) played baseball at Clemson as a Fr, had 7 att's here in '10 and started the other 3 LY throwing for 1,145 (45.1%, 10-9) while rushing for 120 (2.1). Dixon returns but he'll have to fend off Ark tran Derek Hatcher (PS#195) who had 8 punts here LY and was named MIP QB after spring practice.

RB's - In '09 the top rusher had just 490 (4.3) then departed and in '10 it was just 456 (3.5) and then he departed. The top returning RB's LY were BJ Hackworth (#4, 182, 4.7) and Teddy Allen (#5, 79, 3.3). Hackworth started all 11 but finished with an eye opening 122 (2.0) while Allen led but with only 360 (3.9). QB's were #3 and #4 while Keelyan Bryant was #5 with 74 (2.2). Duckworth departs and it wouldn't be a surprise to see more youngsters get a go such as soph Trey Dorsey (PS#491QB) and true frosh Gabriel Johnson (PS#226). The production only has one way to go.

Rec's - In 2010 they ret'd their top 3 rec's and Gerald Stevenson (777, 14.4) left after earning B2B 1st tm BSC. LY the cupboard was bare as they lost their top 7 receivers. Nathan Perera gave them a 3rd straight 1st tm BSC WR with 709 (16.5) while JUCO tran Corvaughn Archie was #2 with 355 (18.7). Mike Davis played RB at JC and was #2 in rec with 23 (10.4) with 5 others having 100+ yds rec. LY's inexperience lead to a squad that returns their top 7 and 9 of their top 10 making it a much deeper unit.

O-Line - Three starters returned in '10 but there was a significant drop in production to 104 ypg and 2.9 ypc with 17 sks. LY expectations were high with four 11 gm starters ret with former Mia, Oh tran Nick Kemper (PS#193) filling in the 5th spot. Well not only didn't they improve but they posted recent lows with 97 ypg and 2.6 ypc with the sacks ballooning to 32. This season they lose two 3.5Y starters that combined for 76 starts. Five players return that made starts so despite the poor numbers the unit is actually down from LY. After 2 seasons which saw injuries plague the offensive backfield, better health and better production are to be expected.

D-Line - After finishing last in rush D in '09 two starters ret'd in '10 and "improved" to allowing 206 ypg and 5.5 ypc. LY they were again set to return 2 of their 3 DL starters but Jacque Carter took a med RS and the unit fell back to allowing 225 ypg and 5.1 ypc with 16 sks. This year 2 starters return plus they get Carter back making it 3 back. They'll play more of a 4-3 D and they also get an upgrade in talent With Brad Spivey at DT as he is a PS#319JC who also took a med RS in 2011. I expect them to break the 200 ypg barrier and the 5.0 ypc for the fist time since 2008.

LB's - The 2010 unit ret'd 2 starters but had to replace AF tran Andrew McKain who earned B2B All-BSC honors and was the teams #1 tkl'r both seasons. They allowed 34 pts or more to every FCS team and was 2nd last in scoring defense. LY they lost 2 of their 4 starters but it was their #1 and #2 tklr's incl 1st tm BSC Chris Patrick. They allowed 45 pts or more 5 times and on the season gave up 39.9 ppg (5th worst in FCS). This year they lose 1 starter in 1st tm BSC Ban Cris Kuzdale. They do return their #1 and #4 tkl'rs and 7 players that made stars incl Michael Chocholousek who earned 2nd tm BSC. With the new 3 man LB there's plenty of exp to fill the opening incl Brad Sweatt who made 7 sts in '10 and was inj'd after 3 sts LY or newcomer Adam Witzman (PS#400JC) who was IFS. It is clearly the deepest unit on the team and should spearhead a much improved defense.

DB's - The Buccaneers had to replace 2 starters in 2010 and while they only allowed 54% comp they had a ratio of 24-13 which put them at #101 in the pass eff D rankings. LY they returned 3 starters incl 1st tm BSC CB Charles James so it was very surprising that their comp% allowed rose to 61.5% and they actually fell to #116 in pass eff D. This year they again return 3 full time starters incl James who despite the teams poor performance took home his 2nd straight 1st tm All-conf honors. The numbers returning are the same as LY but the results have to improve after LY's finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST's unit finished the 2010 season #104 in our rankings. Only P Andy Brown returned and after a horrific '10 (34.1 avg, 28.2 net) upped his numbers to avg 38.5 with a net of 36.0. Brown was 1-1 in FG's in '10 (other FG K 3-8) and LY took the job finishing 9-13 (L/43). Charlie James handled PR's (19-9.7) while Kevin Glears was the main KR (20-21.8) and they rose all the way to #36. This year Brown departs leaving them 2 spots to fill and a probable drop in the rankings.

COACHES - Veteran HC Jay Mills enters his 10th season here. Despite LY's winless season Mills is the winningest coach in school history finishing .500 or better. Chuck Kelly was the OC here for 8Y but was switched to a full-time OL cch LY. Former Auburn QB Patrick Nix was the WR cch here in 2010 and then took over the OC duties. Nix was the OC at Mia, Fl for 2Y and spent 5 seasons at Ga Tech incl the L/3 as OC. New DC Shawn Quinn spent the L2Y as GA Southern's LB cch.

Overview - The season started off with a pair of "money games" and while they're important for the program they're a killer on your season ending stats as they lost by a combined 124-10 getting outgained by a combined 1207-203. In a 3rd straight road game they fell behind 14-0 to JU but took a 20-17 lead and later it was tied at 30 before they allowed a 42 yd td pass with 4:20 left in the loss. Their HC game was against a very good DIII team but a win was expected but the stats did match the scoreboard in the loss. At 0-5 they played their closest game of the year but after blocking a punt for a td they fumbled a punt giving up a 7/1pl td at VMI and lost by 4. Two pick 6's and a KR td was all Liberty needed and at G-W they outgained their 2nd straight foe but -2 in TO's led to another loss. Their home finale was sandwiched by a pair of DD losses and it was tied 5 times incl at 31-31 but -2 in TO's gave CCU 5 td drives of under 59 yds. While they went winless they were only -37 ypg in conf action and they are deeper then the 14 ret starters with multiple players back after injuries.

VMI KEYDETS

Sparky Woods (Career 74-79-5)
5th Year at VMI (11-33)
Lexington, Virginia — Enrollment: 1,650

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Kyle Hughes was the starter here for 2 seasons and running the option he led the team in rushing in 2008 and was #2 in 2009. The switch was made to the West Coast offense and as expected it was a rough transition with John Rock producing a 7-15 ratio (1298, 53%) in 8 starts. Eric Kordenbrock (PS#341) made 3 starts as a true and threw for 723 (50%, 3-7). Kordenbrock started all 11 LY and finished with 1,792 (50.7%) with a 10-9 ratio. He returns in the 3rd year of the new offense and expect to see a sizeable increase in production. Health will be essential as back up Adam Morgan moves to SS leaving a pair for True's and Jr AJ Augustine who has 3 career att's.

RB's - The Keydets led the FCS in rushing in both 2008 and '09. With the switch in offense in 2010 the numbers plummeted by 191 yds. Chaz Jones (502, 3.8) led the team but was alone among the top 4 to return LY. Jones led again with 629 (4.0) and the depth shy unit also welcomed TJ Talley who was a RB in '09 and the teams top rec in '10. Talley was #2 with 427 (4.7) while Jabari Turner was #3 with 87 (4.1). Turner is the only RB returning that had a carry LY. David Turner played 6 gms on ST but has impressed and is the #1 out of spring. Deon Watts (7 gm, 3 tkl) joins the mix from LB and FB and Hardy Temoney (5 rec) returns after making 3 sts LY. Despite the inexperience the unit could still match LY's production.

Rec's - In 2009 with the option offense the team only avg'd 70 ypg passing so the unit was very green into '10. The top 3 rec's were TJ Talley (407, 11.6), Mario Scott (375, 12.5) and Tracy Hairston (242, 14.2). Hairston was the only one of the trio to return to this unit in '11 and he led with 521 (13.0) earning 2nd tm conf honors. Aaron Lewis (314, 16.5) was #2 despite making only 1 st while TE Mario Thompson (9 st, 222, 20.2) was #3. Dexter Bridges (1 st, 141, 10.8) played as a true and Stefawn Ross (139, 12.6) made 10 sts after coming over from the secondary with the new offense. This year they lose their #1 and Trent White (179, 9.9) but this unit could see the biggest increase in production having now learned the system.

O-Line - The OL ret'd all 5 starters in '09 and '10 but with the change in schemes went from 277 rush ypg and 5.3 ypc to 86 ypg and 2.9 ypc. Five players ret'd LY that made a combined 44 sts but they only raised the numbers to 98 ypg and 3.4 ypc while the sack % went from 6.3 to 5.3. This season the losses are huge as 4 players depart that combined for 42 sts LY and 117 career sts. Robert Collins (9 st) and Andy Marcotte (1 st) are the only 2 with exp and they also bring in NT Patrick Gouldon (L/3 sts) and TE Will Lucas (3 sts). Despite being inexperienced like the majority of the off, we still expect them to be able to match or top their numbers from the previous 2 years.

D-Line - The 3 man front returned all 3 starters in 2010 and improved to allowing 140 ypg and 3.6 ypc with 19 sks. LY they had to replace all 3 incl a 1st and 2nd tm BSC DL. They performed as expected getting run over for 196 ypg and 4.6 ypc with 16 sks. This year all 3 are back and while they only avg 239 lbs they were productive finishing as the teams #7, #8 and #10 tkl'rs.

LB's - The team has struggled keeping foes out of the endzone and in the L7Y their best season was '10 when they ret'd all 4 starters and allowed 28.3 ppg. LY they lost 2 starters (#5 & #7 tkl'rs) yet allowed only 3.6 ppg more then '10. AJ Gross led in tackles and was the teams only 1st tm BSC. This year not only do they lose Gross (11 st) but also Josh Sneed (10 st, #5), Emilio Calvin (9 st, #3) and Byron Allen (6 st LB, 4 SS, #4). With 3.5 starters lost and the only experience being 3 players who combined for 8 sts LY it'll be hard to match 2011's numbers.

DB's - The secondary returned all 4 starters in 2009 yet finished #110 in pass eff D. In 2010 they lost 1 starter and made a sizeable jump to #77 with a 19-10 ratio. LY they again only lost 1 starter but then moved Allen to LB making it like 1.5 starters lost. The team only had 4 int's and they fell back to #98 in pass eff D. Eight players made sts in the secondary and this year they lose 5 that had a combined 23 sts. SS Michael Johnson (11 st) was #2 in tkl's and is clearly the units leader. The CB's are young with 3 underclassman in the 2 deep and PS#211QB Adam Morgan switches to the D after making 1 st and having 118 pass att's the L2Y. Like many units for VMI they are inexperienced.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit finished #77 in our rankings in 2010. Jeff Sexton was 7-15 on FG's and the only to return LY. Sexton made 3 of 4 FG's (L/29) while James Devens was 1-3 (L/37). Cameron Murray was replacing a 3Y P and avg'd 36.8 but had SIX punts blk'd and finished with a 30.2 net. The teams 20.0 avg on KR was below avg but the 12.7 avg on PR was #13 in the FCS. The return defense however surrendered 5 td's. The only player back is Sexton but LY they finished dead last so there's only one way to go.

COACHES - Sparky Woods returns for his 5th season here. Woods was an OC at Memphis, Virginia and Miss St and of course a HC at South Carolina from 1989-'93. Matt Campbell is in his 3rd ssn as OC and played for Woods at SC. New DC Jeff Farrington spent LY as an asst at Mercer and was at Furman from 2002-'10 getting promoted to DC his final season.

Overview - Sparky Woods took over a team that totaled 6 wins in 4 seasons. He matched that win total his first 2 seasons but then made a switch from the option to a West Coast offense. The Keydets struggled as expected going 3-8 in 2010. LY started with a 3 pt loss to Del St. They dropped their next two against a pair of CAA powers (#5 W&M and #6 Richmond) and then lost at Akron. Their record dropped to 0-5 as Coastal Car jumped out to a 27-3 HT lead. VMI got their first win vs CSU as a 14-0 HT lead turned into a 21-17 win as they recovered an onside K at the end. B2B losses by 28 and 27 points dropped them to 1-7. They traveled to #22 Liberty and had a 17-16 HT lead but lost by 6 pts. They were mauled by Presbyterian but finished off the 2011 season with a win vs Gardner-Webb. While they only return 10 starters they now have an exp'd QB and teams usually show the biggest improvement in the 3rd season of new schemes.

PHIL'S 2012 BIG SOUTH FORECAST

1. STONY BROOK - The Seawolves have now won at least a share of 3 straight Big South crowns and are an overall 16-2 in 3 yrs of conf play. Heading into 10's ssn finale vs Liberty, SB was 5-0 in BSC play and seemed to be heading for their first ever FCS playoff appearance. Even if they lost to LU, CCU was expected to beat a 3-7 CSU, which would cause a 3 way tie. The tie-breaker was fewest points allowed in conf gms and SB had a 38 pt advantage heading into the finale. Somehow they not only lost the gm but by giving up 54 pts (68 ttl in other 5 gm) lost the BSC auto-bid. The Seawolves, despite losing to the Flames by 26 pts and being outgained by 294 yds, still finished 2nd in the BSC at +100.8 ypg in conf play. LY they ret'd 15 st'rs (2nd most in conf) incl their QB and two 1st tm BSC RB's. With a home gm vs Liberty in the season finale we called for the SeaWolves to take home their first outright Big South Crown and they did just that going a perfect 6-0 while outgaining foes by 158.7 ypg (+86.4 more than #2) while outscoring them by an avg of 49-21! This year they return 16 st'rs and add in PS#41 Iowa trans RB Coker. They did benefit from +16 TO's LY (+13 in '10) but suffered 2 net close losses. While the conf schedule is daunting with road gms at Liberty, Presbyterian and CCU, this team looks even stronger than LY's edition and should make it 4 straight Big South crowns!

2. LIBERTY - Coming into LY the Flames had won or shared 4 straight Big South Titles, had 8 or more wins in those 4 ssns and finished in the Top 25 from '08-'10. In '10 they closed out the ssn beating SB, winning a share of the BSC crown and finished ranked #19 and their +165.3 ypg was #1 in the BSC. However they once again sat at home for the playoffs. Liberty's 13 ret'g st'rs LY was the most they had back since '07. While they ret'd QB Brown and their top skill players, they ret'd just 1 st'r and 12 career sts on the OL. We wrote that the BSC Title should come down to the ssn finale at Stony Brook, which is still the only conf site the Flames have never won at and they lost by 10, finishing #2 in league play at 5-1. It was concerning that their ypg fell to just +42.7 ypg (#3). This year HC Rocco departs for Richmond and they welcome in new HC Turner Gill who inherits 13 ret st'rs but does lose their all-conf QB. The conf schedule is manageable with HG's vs CS and SB but with a new coach comes new systems and schemes and their usually is an adjustment year or two. The home tm in the Lib/SB rivalry has won 4 straight en route to a BSC Title but this year we'll call for that streak to end.

3. GARDNER-WEBB - After winning the BSC in each of the 1st 2 yrs, the Bulldogs went through 4 straight ssns with an exact 2-2 record in league play. In 2007 they were -46.7 ypg in league play. In '08 they had 17 ret st'rs (2nd most). In the official BSC standings they went just 2-3 but if you include Presbyterian they were .500 for a FIFTH straight yr at 3-3. They did have a winning ssn (6-5) in '09 despite 2 FBS gms. In '10 they finished with their 5th losing ssn in 7 yrs (2-4 in conf) and HC Steve Patton was let go after going 87-66 in 14 yrs. LY with a new HC, GWU ret'd just 9 st'rs (fewest in conf) and lost their top QB, top RB and 3 of their top 4 rec plus were transitioning to a new off. We expected that they would escape the basement but with a new HC and so much inexp we called for their 4th losing ssn in the last 5 years and they again finished 4-7 overall and 2-4 in the BSC. However, they were only -26.7 ypg (#4) and this year are more exp'd with 13 ret'g st'rs and now are in the 2nd year of the new schemes. They host Presby, CCar and VMI could have their first winning season S/'09.

3. PRESBYTERIAN - The Blue Hose moved up from DII and joined the conference in 2009 and after a winless inaugural season beat Gardner Webb in 2010 giving them their 1st and only Big South win in 2010. After getting outgained by 119 ypg in conf play their first season they got outgained by 113 ypg in '10. Presbyterian ret'd 16 starters LY and faced the top 3 conference teams on the road and hosted the other 3 bottom BSC teams. In LY's magazine we wrote that while Presbyterian will likely suffer a 4th straight losing season, they should have their best conference record since joining the Big South and they did just that finishing 3-3. This year they are less exp'd with just 12 ret st'rs (2nd fewest in BSC) and now face the top BSC tms at home while playing the bottom tms on the road which could either make their season or break it. LY's team was even better than their record as their +72.3 ypg was actually #2 in the BSC and they outscored BSC foes by 7.5 ppg but they suffered 3 net close losses. Despite the inexp, we think they are just as good as LY's tm and if they catch a break or two unlike LY, a continued climb up in the BSC standings could be in the offing.

3. COASTAL CAROLINA - After starting 2-5 in '10 the Chanticleers finished the reg ssn with 4 straight wins incl 70-3 over CSU in the ssn finale. They won a share of their 4th BSC Title and slipped by SB in the tie-breaker to win the Big South's first auto-bid to the playoffs. Thanks in part to their blowout win over CSU, CCU finished a conf best +21.7 ppg and #3 in the conf with +84.8 ypg. LY their 14 ret st'rs were 3rd most in the BSC but it was 2 less than 2010. They lost their #2 all time passer, their top 3 rushers, 2 of their top 3 rec's and their top S, who had 6 int's and 2 of the CCU's 4 IR td's. They also had to face the other 2 co-champs on the road, which had us calling for them to finish 3rd in the conf and that is exactly where they finished at 3-3. This year they return 15 st'rs (2nd most in BSC) but have a new HC with new schemes and there are a couple of factors pointing downwards. First, they benefitted from 2 net close wins LY and despite a 3-3 conf record they were actually outgained by 92.7 ypg which was 2nd to last in the BSC and were outscored by 7 ppg. They also had beneficial off and def ypp's. While they do get both Lib and SB at home this year and are more exp'd, it may be tough for the Chanticleers to move up in the BSC standings.

6. CHARLESTON SOUTHERN - The Buccaneers started football in 1985 and had their best ever season in 2006 finishing 9-2. After a 7-5 finish in '08 their record fell the last 3 years going form 6-5 to 3-8 to an 0-11 finish LY. In 2010 they were outgained by a BSC worst 125.8 ypg in conf play and ended the ssn with a 70-3 loss to BSC co-Champ CCU. All 8 of their losses were by DD and 5 were by 20+ pts. CSU's 41.5 ppg allowed was 2nd worst in the FCS and a school worst S/'03 (1-11). LY they ret'd just 11 st'rs, the 2nd fewest in the conf and lost their top 2 QB's, their top 2 rushers and their top 7 receivers and we called for a last place finish. The 2011 season started off with a pair of FBS games which they lost by a combined 124-10 and were outgained by a combined 1,004 yds. Those 2 "money games" incredibly deflated their season stats. On the year they were outscored by 23 ppg and outgained by 159 ypg but in conference action they were outscored by 15 ppg and outgained by only 37 ypg which was actually 5th in the BSC. They also suffered 4 net closes losses! This year they return 14 st'rs but are deeper than that due to an injury plagued season. After finishing 1-11 in conference play the L2Y they host the 3 teams that finished directly above them LY and could double their conf win total from the L2Y combined!

7. VMI - The Keydets have never won more then 2 Big South gms in a ssn and coming into '10 had just 2 total in the previous 4 yrs. In '10 the Keydets began the transition from an option run to a wide open pass offense and, as usual, struggled as the change normally takes 2-4 yrs to be effective. VMI put up its worst offensive numbers since '04. They were outgained by 91.2 ypg (3rd worst) in conf play. However their 2 conf wins were the most since '05. They also came up 3 pts short on the road vs GWU in the finale. After ret'g 17 st'rs in '10, VMI ret'd just 12 (3rd fewest in BSC) LY. In LY's mag, we wrote that the offense should improve in the 2nd yr of the system but the D was inexp'd. They had the advantage of hosting both Charleston Southern and Gardner-Webb (won both gms) and we called for them to equal 2010's 2 conf wins which is exactly what they did at 2-4. This year the Keydets are even less exp'd as they have just 10 ret'g st'rs (fewest in BSC) and were a league-worst -117.7 ypg LY. While tms usually show the biggest improvement in the 3rd year of new schemes, the Keydets have to travel to CS and GW and will find it difficult to match LY's 2-win total in conf play.

JAMES MADISON DUKES

Mickey Matthews (Career 96-61)
14th Year at James Madison (96-61)
Harrisonburg, Virginia — Enrollment: 19,722

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 JMU ret'd CAA Rookie OPOY Justin Thorpe (8 st, 1260, 57%, 6-9), who was JMU's #1 rusher (654, 4.4, 5 td) and Drew Dudzik (3 st, 472, 56%, 6-2, 158 rush), who had been lost to inj after 5 gm in '09. Dudzik was the st'r after spg but threw for just 1,282 (55%, 5-9, 345 rush). Thorpe only ply'd in the opener (31 rush yd, 0-1 pass). WR Dae'Quan Scott was the Wildcat QB (207 rush, 4.3). LY they lost Dudzik and looked to add K-St tran Billy Cosh (PS#45) who was IFS but he was not with the tm in the fall. Thorpe started the 1st 4 before missing 5 gms and then started the L/4. For the ssn he threw for 872 (59.0%, 5-3) and was the #3 rusher (385, 3.6). RFr Jace Edwards started the 5 Thorpe missed and threw for 733 (62.6%, 3-2) but left the team in June. Thorpe returns for his Sr ssn and they add Vandy tran rFr Lafonte Thourogood (PS#43) and a talented group of true frosh giving Thorpe a talented, but inexp'd, set of backups.

RB's - JMU ret'd 5 of its top 6 in '10 but the #1 and #5 rushers were QB's as the top ret RB's were #2 Jamal Sullivan (451, 3.6) and #4 Scott Noble (282, 4.3). They added HT true Fr Dejor Simmons (PS#87) but he RS. They were led by 2nd Tm CAA Sullivan (716, 4.2) while Noble was #2 (380, 4.6) with 134 rec yds (8.4). LY their top 3 rushers departed and the top ret TB was Jordan Anderson (78, 4.9) but they moved in WR/QB Dae'Quan Scott, who was the leading returning rusher with 207 (4.3, 206 rec). Scott was the tm OMVP and 2nd Tm CAA as he led with 1,304 (5.5, 12 td). Anderson was #2 (858, 5.1, 9 td) while Jauan Latney added 221 (6.3) but Simmons ply'd in just 4 (21, 3.5). TY JMU ret's 6 of their top 7 rushers incl their top 4 and is one of the top RB units in the CAA, which is saying a lot.

Rec's - In '10 JMU lost 4 of its top 5 rec incl #1 Rockeed McCarter (597, 20.6) and #2 TE Mike Caussin (438, 17.5). Their top returnees were RB Scott Noble (235, 14.7) and WR Marcus Turner (78, 7.8). Turner (2 st) had just 28 (9.3) and departed. LY they ret'd 5 of the top 7 incl the top 2 in Kerby Long (283, 17.7) and Dae'Quan Scott (206, 12.9) but Scott moved to RB. Long led with just 386 (13.3) while TE Brian Barlow had the most rec's (33) and tied for #2 (316, 9.6) with WR Renard Robinson (316, 19.8). TY they lose Long and TE Jon Sharp (8 st). They ret 10 of 12 who caught a pass LY incl #4 Daniel Brown (157) who had an outstanding 31.4 ypc. Despite losing their top man this is an exp'd unit whose main job is to support the run game.

O-Line - JMU avg'd 200+ ypg rush for 5 straight yrs incl '08 (4 ret OL st'rs) when they were #1 CAA (#4 FCS, 283 ypg, 5.7). In '09 they lost 3 st'rs incl an AA C and 2nd Tm CAA OT. They ret'd 2nd Tm CAA Dorian Brooks but slumped to 180 ypg (4.1) while all'g 18 sk (most s/'04). In '10 they lost 2 st'rs incl 1st Tm CAA OG Brooks and had their worst rush ypg s/'03 (174, 4.0) while all'g 15 sk (8.1%). LY they lost a 2nd Tm CAA LT but looked to ret four 11 gm st'rs but RG Scott Jones had surg in spg and ply'd in just 1 gm. Still they broke the 200 ypg barrier (223, 4.7) despite all'g 32 sk (14.2%). TY they lose 2x 2nd Tm CAA C Roane Babington (13 st) and OT Matt Krout (13 st). They ret 5 who comb for 39 sts incl 1st Tm CAA LG Earl Watford (2 yr st'r) and get Jones back giving them a solid unit.

D-Line - In 2010 the DL lost 2nd Tm CAA DT Sam Daniels (#3 tkl'r, 12.5 tfl) and 1st Tm CAA DE Arthur Moats (#1 tkl'r, #6DC), who led the CAA in tfl (23.5) and was #2 in sk (11). They ret'd 5 DL who comb for 21 sts. While they trimmed the ypg for a 2nd straight yr, their sk ttl dropped from 27 to 15. LY they lost 1st Tm CAA DT Ronnell Brown (8 st) but ret'd 7 who comb for 34 sts. They all'd just 107 rush ypg (3.3) their best s/'06 (#13 FCS) and increased their sack ttl to 39. TY they lose 1st Tm CAA DE DJ Bryant (#6 tkl'r, 7 sk) and 3rd Tm CAA DT Lamar Middleton (#9, 6 sk). They return 4 who comb for 25 st led by DE Tyler Snow (#7, 4 sk) and add Virginia Tech transfer Isaiah Hamlette (PS#178) putting them close to last year.

LB's - The LB unit ret'd its top 3 LB's in '10 who were the #2, #6 and #9 tkl'rs. They all'd just 14.7 ppg their fewest since 1978 (12.4). LY they again ret'd their top 3 in #1 tkl'r Pat Williams (11 tfl), CAA Rookie DPOY LB Stephon Robertson (#2, 9.5 tfl), Chase Williams (#10) and moved in SS Vidal Nelson (11 st) but slipped some all'g 19.6 ppg. This year they lose 2nd Tm CAA LB Pat Williams (#2 tkl'r, 8.5 tfl) and Nelson (#3). They return 1st Tm CAA Robertson (#1, 9 tfl) and Chase Williams (6 gm, 15 tkl) but could see their numbers drop again.

DB's - The secondary lost 3 DB's in '10 incl 2nd Tm CAA CB Scotty McGee (#7 tkl'r, #6DC). They ret'd 4 with 6+ sts led by WS Jonathan Williams (#4 tkl'r, 2 int) and SS Vidal Nelson (#5) and were #22 in pass eff D all'g a 9-9 ratio. LY they lost WS Williams (#5 tkl'r, 11 pd) but ret'd 8 who comb for 45 sts led by FS Jakarie Jackson (#4) and CB Taveion Cuffee (#6, 3 int) but Nelson moved to LB. They fell to #40 but with a 13-14 ratio. This year they lose CB's Cuffee (8 st, #11 tkl'r) and Mike Allen (11 st, #8). They return 4 DB's who comb 33 sts led by 3rd Tm CAA WS Dean Marlowe (#4 tkl'r, 4 int), FS Jackson (#5) and CB Leavander Jones (7 st, #10). While less experienced they add 2 Maryland transfers in Titus Till (PS#50, 6 st) and Jeremiah Wilson (PS#126) giving them a boost of talent and should move up in the pass D rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - JMU lost Scotty McGee (1st Tm CAA PR & KR) in '10. Despite the fact that both the returning P and K lost their jobs they still finished #20 in our ST rankings. LY they ret'd their P and top RM but despite PR Scott earning 2nd Tm CAA they dropped to our #56 ranking as they had the #116 PR D (15.3 ypr). TY they only lose their top KR and should improve.

COACHES - Fourteen yr HC Mickey Matthews is JMU's winningest HC and has led them to 8 straight winning seasons. They ret 9th yr OC Jeff Durden and 4th yr DC Kyle Gillenwater who enters his 14th ssn here overall.

Overview - JMU was off 7 straight winning ssn and with 17 ret st'rs looked primed for a run at the CAA crown. UNC did not look past a JMU tm that had upset VT the prior ssn. They had 5 TO's vs CCU but still led 14-3 before giving up a td with :01 left. They hit a GW FG as time expired to get by #22 Liberty. They led #6 W&M 20-7 in the 4Q before giving up a td with 1:25 left. JMU scored the final 31 vs #10 Richmond but vs #19 Maine allowed a game tying FG with :44 left and lost in OT on a 2 pt conv. They blew by Villanova with a 28-3 2H but were outscored 9-0 in the 2H vs #15 ODU and lost by 3. They allowed the final 17 vs #9 UNH. They won their final 2 reg ssn gms by 17+ pts and secured an at-large bid to the playoffs. They trailed 17-7 in the 3Q at EKU but got a GW FG as time expired in the opening round. JMU only trailed eventual FCS Champ NDSU 19-14 in the 4Q but gave up a 60 yd td pass :13 later. TY they have just 13 ret st'rs but are talented enough for another playoff run.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After losing their career passing leader (Sean Schaefer 11,644), TU used 5 QB's in '09. While 4 of those QB's ret'd in '10, Peter Athens (6 st, 691 pass, 132 rush) and Tommy Chroniger (3 st, 183 pass, 154 rush) both RS (inj) while Jeremy Jayne (302 pass) ply'd in just 2 (1 st, 2-3-27) and Brian Potts (1 st, 391 pass) threw for just 157 (46%, 1-3). JC Chris Hart started 6 and led with 1,013 (48%, 9-6) and was the #1 rusher (518, 4.6), while Citadel tran Bart Blanchard (3 st) threw for 597 (54%, 1-6) but both departed LY and Chroniger didn't work at QB. While Potts and Athens competed in the spring, JC Grant Enders won the job in the fall and started 11 throwing for 2,081 (67.3%, 16-8) and was the #2 rusher (387, 4.3). Athens made 1 st (Enders out) and threw for 332 (64.7%, 1-2, 47 rush) on the yr. TY they lose Potts (holder) but ret both Enders and Athens making them a more experienced unit.

RB's - In '10 TU ret'd its top 2 rushers led by RB Tremayne Dameron (588, 3.3, 8 td). While TU's rush ypg improved for a 2nd straight yr, their top rusher was QB Hart. LY they ret'd their top 6 rushers incl Dameron (477, 3.7, 5 td), Dominique Booker (267, 4.3) and 2nd Tm CAA FB Tyler Wharton (4 st, 24 ttl yds). The big news looked to be the addition of BC tran Sterlin Phifer (PS#98) and Colorado tran Trea Jones but it was the addition of true frosh Terrance West who despite just 1 start led TU with 1,294 (6.7) and led the FCS with an amazing 29 rush td. He was not only 1st Tm CAA and CAA Rookie OPOY but also won the inaugural Jerry Rice Award (top FCS freshman). TY they ret 4 of their top 5 RB's in West, Booker (316, 5.5), Phifer (240, 4.4) and Jones (140, 4.8) but lose "starter" Dameron (6 st, 274, 5.5) and 3rd Tm CAA FB Wharton (225 ttl yd, led w/5 rec td). This is a deep and solid unit as long they find a suitable replacement for Wharton.

Rec's - TU lost 3 of their top 5 rec in '10 but ret'd #2 Hakeem Moore (286, 10.2), #4 Tom Ryan (190, 10.6) and #6 Erron Banks (111,18.5) and improved by 17 pass ypg. LY they lost their top rec in 2nd Tm CAA Moore (559, 19.3, 6 td) along with TE Ryan Hanley (9 st, 1 rec). Everyone else ret'd led by Erron Banks (334, 8.4) and Alex Blake (261, 15.4) and they added FAU tran TE James Oboh and 2 Conn tran WR's Gerrard Sheppard and Leon Kinnard. While TU's numbers improved (+38 ypg), Banks and Blake comb for just 225 (10.7) and 4 st. Tom Ryan (#4 '10, 245, 9.4) stepped up and led with 560 (14.4). TY all 3 ret along with #2 Kinnard (402, 11.2), #3 TE Oboh (297, 18.6) and #4 Sheppard (274, 12.5) making this a deep unit as they only lose TE Mike Evans (2 st, 1 rec).

O-Line - In '10 the OL ret'd 9 of 12 OL who started in '09 (comb 42 st) but lost 4Y st'r Dan Bridges (43 car st). In the 2nd yr of the off they improved from 105 (3.0) to 133 rush ypg (3.6) and cut the sks all'd from 24 (7.8%) to 21 (6.5%). LY they ret'd 4 who comb for 31 st led by LT Eric Pike (11 st) and with the emergence of RB West improved to 230 (5.3) but despite a mobile QB all'd 23 sk (8.2%). TY they lose 2nd Tm CAA RT Henry Glackin (32 car st) but ret 5 who comb for 48 st led by 3rd Tm CAA LT Pike.

D-Line - The DL lost a former BC tran DE (#4 tkl'r) in '10 but ret'd 5 who comb for 33 st led by DT Yaky Ibia (#7 tkl'r, 11.5 tfl). They all'd just 2 rush ypg more (181, 4.1) but had 5 fewer sk (14). LY the DL lost 2nd Tm CAA DT Ibia (13.5 tfl) but ret'd three st'rs incl Frank Beltre (#3 tkl'r, 12.5 tfl) and added Syr tran Romale Tucker. They all'd just 142 rush ypg (4.1) with 21 sk. This year they lose DT's Marcus Valentine (34 tkl) and Rob Osborne (33 tkl). They return 4 who combined for 35 st incl 1st Tm CAA DE Beltre (T-#4 tkl'r, 12 tfl) and DE Tucker (#3, 9.5 tfl) and should be on par with last year's unit.

LB's - In '10 the LB unit ret'd 4 who comb for 14 st, but lost MLB Alex Butt (#5 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl) and #1 tkl'r Danzel White (inj, OFY). The inexp'd unit all'd 2 ppg less (34.5), but that was still #108 FCS. LY they lost Donte Blakey (T-#2 tkl'r, 9 tfl, 7 st) but ret'd 5 who comb for 26 st led by MLB Chris Patterson (#5 tkl'r). They also got back a bulked up White and added BC tran Alexander DiSanzo (PS#72) and all'd 26.0 ppg, the fewest s/'07. This year they lose MLB Patterson (27 tkl) but he had just 3 st. They return 6 who combined for 32 st incl MLB White (#2 tkl'r), SLB DiSanzo (#5) and WLB Kenton Powell (#6) giving them a solid and deep unit.

DB's - The secondary lost its #2 tkl'r (FS) in '10 but ret'd three 11 gm st'rs and added Hofstra tran Jordan Dangerfield. The exp'd unit finished just #104 in pass eff D allowing a 15-2 ratio (2 int - last in FCS). LY they lost CB Jeremy Gardner (#4 tkl'r, 7 pbu), CB Ollie Thomas (7 st, 34 tkl), S Chris Sheahin (4 st, 2 tkl) and S Raymond White (3 st, 29 tkl). They only ret'd #1 tkl'r FS Dangerfield (11 st) and CB Corey Ford (1 st, 17 tkl) but improved to #74 allowing a respectable 17-13 ratio. TY they lose SS Nick Oates (10 st, 29 tkl) and CB Justin Harris (7 st, #9 tkl'r) but ret 1st Tm CAA FS Dangerfield (#1), CB Ford (10 st, #7) and CB Tye Smith (7 st, #8). They also add Rutgers tran Darrell Givens (PS#29) and Georgia tran Jordan Love (PS#45, 1 st there LY) and should improve again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit only ret'd its top KR in '10 (lost 4 yr P). They finished #99 in out ST rankings as K Nick Wallace hit 10-15 but he departed along with KR Hakeem Moore (21.6). They ret'd P DJ Soven (33.5) and the top PR and improved to our #63 unit as KR Derrick Joseph avg 27.9 ypr (#9 FCS, 1 td). All of the top players ret and they should improve again.

COACHES - Former Conn OC Rob Ambrose replaced a 17 yr HC in '09 and is his own OC. LY he was the Eddie Robinson COY in just his 3rd ssn leading TU to the CAA Title. Matt Hachmann enters his 4th yr as DC here.

Overview - The Tigers were off 4 straight losing ssns and not much was expected but with the addition of 8 FBS transfers and frosh RB West, the 'Turnaround Tigers' made a statement. They opened 3-0 blowing past Morgan St, a rebuilding #20 Villanova and Colgate (1st win in 10 meetings) by a comb 115-30. They only trailed Maryland 7-3 at half and 14-3 mid-4Q. They led #14 UR 14-10 at half but needed a GW FG as time expired. TU trailed #18 ODU 35-24 into the 4Q but scored 2 td in the final 3:13. They held on vs #14 W&M and were 4-0 in conf play and ranked #13 when #21 UD scored the GW td with 2:05 left. They never trailed #7 Maine and after tying #7 NHU 7-7 mid-1Q led the rest of the way. They trailed URI 10-0 in the 2Q but pulled away capturing an outright CAA Title and the auto-bid but after a week off could not hold onto a 38-31 4Q lead over #6 Lehigh. Towson was 6-2 vs raked opponents and expectations will be high TY with 18 returning st'rs.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 RJ Toman (2181, 54%, 15-11, 251 rush) ret'd for his 3rd ssn as the starter along with Kevin Decker (380, 55%, 5-1). Toman was 2nd Tm CAA throwing for 2,414 (62%, 15-11) but departed. Decker (PS#102) threw for 447 (69%, 5-1). He ret'd along with former Georgetown tran James Brady (PS#179), who threw for 880 (52%, 4-2) in 2 yrs at GT (RS here '10). Decker was the CAA OPOY, throwing for 3,272 (68.9%, 22-15) and was the #2 rusher (429, 3.2) with 9 rush td but departs TY. Brady ply'd in 3 (1-2-6, 3 rush), while Andy Vailas ply'd in 2 (3-4-18, 25 rush) and both ret along with rFr Sean Goldrich. Whoever wins the starting job will have some big shoes to fill, but UNH has turned out a string of strong QB's.

RB's - UNH had to replace 2nd Tm CAA RB Chad Kackert (780, 4.6, 10 td) in '10 but ret'd 5 of its top 6 led by Sean Jellison (424, 4.4, 7 td). Jellison, despite starting 10, was the #2 rusher (375, 3.4) and departed LY. They ret'd 2 of their top 3 RB's in Dontra Peters (707, 5.0) and Chris Setian (184, 5.1). TY the RB unit returns intact led by Peters (595, 5.1, 7 td), Nico Steriti (370, 5.7) and HB Setian (338, 4.2) and the 3 comb for 517 rec yds (8.5). This is a solid and deep unit and while Steriti missed the spring with inj, that allowed #4 RB Jimmy Owens (13, 2.6) some extra practice time.

Rec's - In '09 UNH had to replace a 1,000 yd rec then #3 rec Terrance Fox (490, 13.6) was susp. The Wildcats still ret'd 4 of their top 6 led by AA TE Scott Sicko. In 2010 they lost 3 of their top 6 incl their #1 rec, 1st Tm CAA TE Sicko (725, 12.7) and #2 JT Wright (437, 10.9) and then #5 Mickey Mangieri, missed the ssn with inj. They ret'd their #3 and #4 rec's and got back '08's #3 Terrance Fox. Fox (10 st) led with 821 (10.3) but departed along with #3 Kevon Mason (13 st, 442, 13.0) and TE Chris Jeannot (4 st, 205, 8.5, car ending inj). They ret'd 3 of their top 7 incl #2 Joey Orlando (12 st, 585, 11.7), TE Sean Cullen (250, 12.5) and got Mangieri back. Surprisingly, rFr RJ Harris (4 st) led with 714 (14.3, 7 td) and was 2nd Tm CAA. Orlando was #2 with 679 (12.6) and was 3rd Tm CAA. Both ret along with #3 Justin Mello (416, 18.1, 5td). While they lose 2 st'rs in #4 Mangieri (8 st, 341, 11.0) and #5 TE Cullen (9 st, 281, 18.7), this is the most exp'd unit in several yrs.

O-Line -The OL lost 2 st'rs in '10 incl 2nd Tm CAA RT/C Tom Neill but ret'd 3 OL with 9+ sts but their rush numbers fell 128 ypg (3.5) while all'g 38 sk (8.7%). LY they only lost 2nd Tm CAA LT Seth Price (12 st, 2 yr st'r). They ret'd 6 who comb for 49 st led by 2 yr st'rs LG George Pecoraro (12 st) and C Chris Zarkoskie (13 st) and improved to 153 ypg (4.2) while all'g 5 fewer sk (33, 8.5%) despite Pecoraro only making 2 st. TY he is the only loss as they ret 6 OL who comb for 58 st incl 2nd Tm CAA RG Ricky Archer, 3rd Tm CAA LT Seamus O'Neill and Zarkoskie (10 st LG) and could improve again.

D-Line - In '10 UNH lost 3 DL who comb for 28 sts but ret'd both starting DT's incl Steve Young (6 tfl) and '08 CAA Rookie DPOY Brian McNally (3 st in '09). For the 3rd yr in a row they all'd just 3.4 ypc while tying for a CAA lead with 37 sk. LY they lost 2 st'rs in DT Young (13 st, 6 tfl) and DT Lance Mailloux (5 st, 19 tkl, 4 sk). They ret'd DE James Jenkins (13 st, 4 sk),1st Tm CAA DE McNally (13 st, #1 CAA w/13 sk) and DT Jared Smith (5 st, 38 tkl). Shockingly they all'd 230+ rush yds in 4 gm incl 334 to Towson as they gave up 182 rush ypg (4.5) with just 23 sk on the yr. They ret DT Smith (#9, 5.5 tfl) and DT Sean McCann (#10) but they lose 1st Tm CAA DE McNally (#11 tkl'r, 7.5 sk) and DE Jenkins (#8, 7 tfl). Despite being less exp'd they could still improve on LY's poor numbers.

LB's - While UNH runs a 4-2-5 we incl the Whip S in the LB unit. They ret'd 2 st'rs (#1 & #6 tkl'rs) in '10 but had to replace Sean Ware (#2 tkl'r). They all'd just 16.5 ppg (#5 FCS). LY they lost Ryan McGuinness (#5 tkl'r) and Devon Jackson (2 st, inj'd). They ret'd Alan Buzbee (#3 tkl'r, 8 tfl) and AA Matt Evans (10.5 tfl), who led the CAA with 156 tkl but their ppg all'd almost doubled to 31.6. TY they lose WS Rod Walker (#6 tkl'r) but ret AA Evans who led the CAA with 165 tkl (#2 FCS) and Buzbee (tm's #3 tkl'r) along with WS Tre Williams (20 tkl) and should improve.

DB's - The secondary lost 2 st'rs (#3 & #7 tkl'rs) in '10 but ret'd FS Hugo Souza (#4 tkl'r, 11 pd) and 2nd Tm CAA CB Dino Vasso (#5 tkl'r, 5 int). They were #16 in pass eff D with a stellar 14-23 ratio (#2 FCS int). LY they lost 1st Tm CAA CB Vasso (#4 tkl'r, 6 int), FS Souza (#2 tkl'r) and SS John Greer (#6 tkl'r, 3 int). The unit only ret'd CB Kyle Flemings (13 st, 30 tkl, 4 int) and fell to #77 in pass eff D but with a still respectable 24-20 ratio. TY they lose CB Flemings (#7 tkl'r, 2 int) but ret FS Chris Beranger (142 tkl), SS Manny Asam (#4 tkl'r, 3 int) and CB Chris Houston (#5) who tied for #1 in the CAA with 6 int. This unit is much more exp'd and should move up in the rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit lost a 1st Tm CAA K and their top KR in '10. P Ryan Glasgow (34.7 avg in '09) only had 3 punts as TE/P Kyle Auffray (9 st TE in '10) took over at P and UNH finished #49 in our St rankings. LY they lost Auffray (37.7) and their top PR's but ret'd K Mike MacArthur (10-13) who took over as P as well (38.3) and they improved to our #40. The unit returns intact TY.

COACHES - Sean McDonnell is in his 14th yr as HC and has led UNH to 8 straight winning ssns. Former Dartmouth HC John Lyons enters his 2nd ssn as DC. UNH has their 3rd OC in 4 yrs as WR cch Ryan Carty was promoted to OC after 2Y OC Tim Cramsey took the OC job at FIU.

Overview - UNH entered '11 with the FCS's longest playoff streak and extended it to 8. They never threatened Toledo trailing 30-8 at half. At #14 Lehigh they needed a 4Q FG to force OT and won it there. Then UNH held off Richmond 45-43 despite giving up a td with :28 left. They beat Holy Cross by 7 then blew by Villanova. Then-#16 W&M outscored them 17-0 in the 2H and UNH lost by 2 td. They got by UMass by 6 in their final CAA meeting. They trailed URI 24-21 in the 3Q but pulled out the win. They only led #13 JMU 11-10 in the 1Q but scored the final 17. In a CAA Title elimination gm #7 UNH trailed #12 Towson 42-28 at the half and lost. They held on to beat #11 Maine in their home finale. UNH was 1 of 5 CAA tms to make the expanded playoffs and drew a bye for the opening round. Then they got to travel across the country to play Montana St but after a td with :06 left had the would be game tying xp blocked. The L/2 times they ret'd 14 st'rs they finished with 10 win ssn and look playoff bound again.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 UD ret'd Penn St tran Pat Devlin (PS#5), who had 2,664 (64%, 16-9, 127 rush) in '09 along with bkp Tim Donnelly. Trevor Sasek beat Donnelly out for the bkp spot and ply'd in 7 (1 st) throwing for 199 (63%, 1-1, 50 rush). AA Devlin was the CAA OPOY throwing for 3,032 (68%, 22-3, 130 rush). LY Devlin departed and Sasek, Donnelly and rFr Justin Burns comp for #1 in the spg. Sasek started 2 incl the opener but finished with just 218 (55.3%, 0-1). Donnelly started 9 throwing for 1,732 (62.7%, 11-10). TY they both ret and added to the mix is Bowling Green tran Trent Hurley (PS#157) making this a much improved unit.

RB's - UD ret'd 6 of its top 7 rushers (lost #3) in '10 but Phillip Thaxton (#5) moved to WR. David Hayes, who led in '09 (409, 4.0) finished #2 (528, 5.7) while '09's #2 Leon Jackson (316, 3.2) finished #3 (302, 5.2). True Andrew Pierce walked on in spg and ended the season an AA after leading the CAA (#15 FCS, 110 ypg) with 1,655 (5.0, 14 td). He was the CAA Rookie OPOY and set most of UD's Fr rush rec's. All 3 ret'd LY but Jackson moved to LB. Pierce led again but with 1,279 (4.6, 16 td) but was "only" 2nd Tm CAA and #13 FCS (116 ypg) finishing just #3 CAA. Hayes was #2 with 393 (4.6) and both ret again TY.

Rec's - UD lost its #1 rec (1st Tm CAA) in '10 but ret'd 8 of the top 9 incl Mark Mackey (374, 11.3), Tommy Crosby (299, 12.0) and Nihja White (238,11.3) while adding RB Thaxton. Crosby finished with 517 (12.0) while Thaxton had 515 (11.0) but Mackey had just 87 (12.4). LY those 3 departed along with TE Zack Reed (1 st, 39 yd). They ret'd White who led with 752 (12.5), Mark Schenauer (15 st, 510,14.2), Rob Jones (6 st, 400, 13.8) and TE Colin Naugle (10 st, 178, 12.7) but with a new QB saw their numbers drop some. TY they ret their top 2 incl 2nd Tm CAA WR White who led with 673 (13.5), Jones (338, 13.0) and TE's Nick Boyle and Ryan Cobb who comb for 8 sts. They lose 3 of their top 6 in Schenauer (11 st, 242, 12.1), Bobby Russo (6 st, 223, 8.9) and TE Naugle (6 st, 129, 12.9) putting them a little behind LY's unit but with improved QB play they could see their numbers increase.

O-Line - The OL lost 2nd Tm CAA LG Corey Nicholson (3Y st'r) in '10 but ret'd the other 4 st'rs. They improved from 112 (3.1) to 184 rush ypg (4.4) which was the best s/'05 and while they again all'd 27 sks that was in 4 more gms. LY they lost 3Y st'r RT Kevin Uhll (14 st) but ret'd 9 of their top 10 (4 st'rs) incl 1st Tm CAA LG Gino Gradkowski, 2nd Tm CAA C Rob McDowell and 3rd Tm CAA LT Shea Allard. Surprisingly their rush numbers fell to 166 ypg (3.8) and while they gave up 7 fewer sks (20, 6.3%) that was in 4 fewer gms. TY the losses are heavy as they lose 5 who comb for 44 st LY and 125 car sts incl AA LG Gradkowski (3Y st'r), 1st Tm CAA LT Allard (2Y st'r), 2nd Tm CAA C McDowell (3Y st'r) and RG Will Nagle (2Y st'r). They only ret RT Brandon Heath who has all of the OL's 14 car sts. Saying this unit is less experienced is an understatement.

D-Line - In '10 the DL lost its top 2 incl a #6DC (1st Tm CAA). They ret'd 2 st'rs led by DT Siddiq Haynes and added Hofstra tran DE Quincy Barr. They improved in the rush D for a 4th straight ssn all'g 105 ypg (#12 FCS) but despite 4 more gm had just 2 more sk (19). LY they lost 3 st'rs incl 2nd Tm CAA DT Haynes but ret'd DE Michael Atunrase (9 tfl), DE Ethan Clark (6 st, 17 tkl) and former Rutgers tran Matt Hardison (14 tkl) and they slipped to all'g 148 (4.7) with just 14 sk. TY they lose 2nd Tm CAA DE Atunrase (11 st, T-#5 tkl'r, 9 tfl) and 2 DT's who comb for 7 sts and 33 tkl. They ret 4 DL who comb for 26 sts incl DT Laith Wallschleger (5 st, 23 tkl), DE Clark (18 tkl) and DE Barr (21 tkl, 3 sk) while adding Conn transfer Andrew Opoku and should improve their numbers.

LB's - The LB unit ret'd its top 4 (comb 33 st) in '10 led by MLB Benard Makumbi (#2 tkl'r) and Paul Worrilow (#3). Matt Marcorelle got a 6th yr and led with 10.5 tfl as UD all'd just 12.1 ppg (#1FCS) despite playing 10 ranked tms. LY they lost 2nd Tm CAA LB Marcorelle (#5 tkl'r) and Makumbi (4 st). The unit ret'd OLB's Harrison (#3 tkl'r) and Worrilow (#1, 9.5 tfl) while adding Aub tran Jessel Curry and RB Leon Jackson. They all'd 20.0 ppg but that was still T-#19 in FCS. TY they lose OLB Harrison (#2 tkl'r) but ret 2nd Tm CAA MLB Worrilow (#1, 11 tfl), MLB Curry (2 st, T-#7), OLB Jackson (#9) and OLB Patrick Callaway (T-#7, 9 st as true) putting them on par with LY's unit.

DB's - The secondary lost a 1st Tm CAA FS (#1 tkl'r) in '10 but ret'd 4 who comb for 33 st incl 2nd Tm CAA SS Anthony Bratton (4 int) and CB/SS Anthony Walters (#6 tkl'r). They added N'Eastern tran Darryl Jones, (NE's #2 tkl'r). UD led the CAA (#9 FCS) in pass eff D and all'd a 14-21 ratio. LY they lost 2 AA's in SS Bratton (#2 tkl'r, 14 pd) and CB Walters (7 int) along with 2nd Tm CAA CB Tyrone Grant (5 int) and FS Jones (#4 tkl'r, 3 int). They ret'd CB Marcus Burley and added MD tran Travis Hawkins and surprisingly led the CAA again (#8 FCS) all'g an even better 9-18 ratio. TY the unit returns intact incl 2nd Tm CAA CB Hawkins (10 pd) and should have another Top 10 finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST lost its top KR and UD's car FG leading K in '10 and as the ret units struggled UD finished #70 in our ST ranking. LY they lost 2x All-CAA P and then after losing his spot, 2nd Tm CAA K Mike Perry did not ret for his Sr ssn. With just their top PR ret they shockingly improved to our #20 ST unit. TY everyone returns and they should have another strong finish.

COACHES - HC KC Keeler is in his 11th ssn and has led UD to 7 winning ssns incl an FCS Championship in '03. DC Nick Rapone returns for his 7th ssn, while former Buffalo HC Jim Hofher enters his 4th ssn as UD's OC.

Overview - UD came up just short of the FCS Championship in '10 but only ret'd 10 st'rs LY. UD opened with a loss to Navy and then almost let a 21-0 2Q lead get away vs West Chester (21-17 4Q). They easily took the first DE State Cup over DSU. They trailed ODU 17-16 in the 4Q but scored the final 11. A #6 UD was outscored 17-0 in the 4Q vs Maine and lost. They bounced backed to shutout #9 W&M 21-0 but then were outscored 21-0 in the 1Q vs UMass and lost. In a back and forth game vs URI (18-18 at half) they actually trailed 28-18 before scoring a meaningless td (:00). At 4-4 they handed eventual CAA Champ Towson their only conf loss holding onto a 35-30 3Q lead. They eased past Richmond leading 24-3 in 3Q but then needed 13 4Q pts to get past Villanova in the finale. At 7-4 just missed the playoffs. TY while their D should be formidable (9 ret st'rs) how well the rebuilt OL does (loses 125 car sts) does will determine if they return to the playoffs.

Overview - ODU joined the CAA LY & almost came away with the conf title. They opened with an easy win over Campbell but only led Georgia St 20-17 in the 2Q before scoring the final 20. They trailed Hampton 34-31 in the 4Q but came back for a 3 pt win. In their CAA opener they led UD 17-16 in the 4Q but could not hold on. They trailed #20 UMass 26-25 in the 3Q but scored the next 23 to pull the upset. ODU trailed URI 23-21 in the 3Q but made the comeback. The Monarchs led Towson 35-24 into the 4Q but allowed 2 td in the final 3:13 & lost their shot at the conf crown. They skipped by Villanova & thanks to a 9-0 2H beat #9 JMU by 3. They were tied at 28 in the 4Q vs UR but scored the final 14. ODU got a td with 2:48 left to get by W&M. They led #19 NSU 35-7 in the 1st round of the playoffs and won by 17. ODU gave up 477 rush yds to GSU but got within 7 with :39 left but GSU recovered the onside. TY ODU can not win the CAA Title as they will be leaving for the FBS's CUSA, however they are still eligible for an at-large playoff bid.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - JC Thomas DeMarco won a 4-way battle in spg of '09 to lead ODU in their inaugural ssn. He started all 11 throwing for 1,921 (54%, 21-4) and was the #1 rusher (892, 5.5) with 17 rush td (#1 FCS pts resp for, 21.1 ppg). In '10 vs a tougher, all FCS schedule (2 DII tms '09), DeMarco threw for 2,756 (58%, 23-12) and was the #2 rusher (423, 3.3). Rashad Manley ply'd in 2 (9-15-90). Both ret'd LY and they added JC trans Nate Ong (IFS) and true frosh Taylor Heinicke. DeMarco st'd the F/6 throwing for 1,055 (63.1%, 7-5, 141 rush) on the ssn but after 28 straight sts was replaced by Heinicke, who st'd the L/7. Heinicke earned 3rd Tm CAA throwing for 2,385 (68.7%) with an amazing 25-1 ratio (int on a hail mary vs Towson) and was the #3 rusher (363, 5.3). TY they lose DeMarco, but ret Heinicke, who was runner-up for the Jerry Rice Awd (Top FCS frosh) and Ong (3-5-55) and should be solid once again.

RB's - In '10 the RB unit ret'd its top 3 RB's in Mario Crawford (600, 6.1), Desmond Williams (385, 4.6) and Jamar Parham (281, 4.1). Parham finished #5 (140, 6.1) while Williams was #3 (255, 5.9). Both departed LY while #1 Crawford (505, 3.8) RS. They ret'd #4 Colby Goodwyn (186, 4.5) and he finished #2 with 581 (4.5), while rFr Angus Harper led with 633 (4.5) with 10 rush td. Both Harper and Goodwyn ret and while neither #3 RB Lorenzo Smith (176, 5.9) nor Crawford were with the team in the spg this is still a solid and improved unit.

Rec's - ODU ret'd 9 of the top 10 rec in '10 incl #1 Reid Evans (602, 13.1) and their deep threat, #2 Nick Mayers (468, 19.5) while adding JC Prentice Gill. Evans led in rec (55) and was #2 with 616 (11.2). Dorian Jackson (3 st) had just 98 (10.9) and was replaced as the st'r by Gill (8 st) who led with 686 (16.7). Mayers (5 st) was #4 (289, 11.6) but was replaced by frosh Marquel Thomas (7 st, 324, 13.5), while Chris Lovitt had 200 (14.3). LY they only lost TE James Edwards (5 st, 1 rec) and Monty Smalley (1 st, 174, 10.2). They ret'd their top 6 rec along with TE Kai Blanco (1 st, 6 rec). ODU spread the ball around with 5 having 488+ yds and 3 more having 118+ led by 1st Tm CAA Mayers (698, 11.3) and 3rd Tm CAA WR Evans. TY they lose #3 Gill (591, 14.1, 7 td) and possibly Evans (susp spg) but if he ret's that gives ODU 10 of their top 11 back making this a deep and talented unit that should improve again.

O-Line - Against a light sked in '09, ODU had the FCS's #9 rush off (217, 5.1) while all'g 7 sk. All 5 st'rs (four 11st) looked to ret in '10 but 1 left, RT Ryan Jensen RS (inj) and C Jeremy Hensley missed the L/5 (inj). TE Matt Carrillo was moved to RT (5 st). Their ypc dropped to 3.9 but they all'd just 9 sk (2.2%). LY they lost Carrillo and LT Tobin Cameron (11 st). They ret'd 5 who comb for 39 st and got Jensen back. Despite the tougher CAA schedule and 2Y st'r Bryan Morrison losing his starting job (to JC tran David Born), ODU improved to 168 ypg (4.5) but saw their sk ttl more than double to 21 (4.4%). TY they lose two 13 gm st'rs in 3rd Tm CAA C Hensley and LT Jensen. This year they ret 3 who st'd 12+ and 5 who have a comb 88 car sts putting them on par with LY's version.

D-Line - In '10 the DL ret'd all 4 st'rs and added 2 Hofstra tran in DE Deron Mayo and DT Ronnie Cameron. They all'd just 132 (3.5) with 29 sk. Cameron (#2 tkl'r) led with 19 tfl and Mayo (#3) led with 6.5 sk, while NG Chris Burnette (#11) had 8.5 tfl. LY they lost Mayo and then DE Andrew Turner (9st, 32 tkl) missed the ssn (inj). The DL ret'd 4 with 6+ car sts and while the rush D slipped a little (144, 3.6) they had 7 more sk. TY they lose 3 st'rs (comb 35 st) in CAA DPOY DT Cameron (#2 tkl'r, 6.5 sk), DE Chad King (#10, 5.5 sk) and DE Edmon McClam (#11, 2.5 sk). ODU returns NG Burnette (#8, 3.5 sk) and add Maryland tran Rahsaan Moore (PS#219) but will likely be down a step with the loss of their star.

LB's - The LB unit looked to ret all 3 st'rs in '10 but their #1 and #3 tkl'rs left before the ssn, so they moved in SS Craig Wilkins (#2 tkl'r). They improved from all'g 23.0 to 21.7 ppg despite ret st'r Mateus Porter having just 4 st (#9 tkl'r). LY they lost Porter, Michael Williams (#6) and Nikita Logan (15 tkl) but ret'd 3 who comb for 21 st in Wilkins (#1 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl), JJ Williams (#7) and Michael Colbert (#12). Against a tougher sked they all'd 27.8 ppg. TY they lose MLB JJ Williams (#3 tkl'r) but ret 1st Tm CAA LB Wilkins (#1, 14.5 tfl), John Darr (#4), Alex Arain (#9) and bkp Colbert (39 tkl). This is a deeper unit but with the losses up front may not see that reflected in the numbers.

DB's - The secondary looked to lose just 1 st'r in '10 but then moved SS Wilkins to LB and CB Markell Wilkins (28 tkl) missed the ssn. They ret'd FS Devon Simmons (#6 tkl'r, 8 pd) and CB TJ Cowart (8st, 33 tkl) and finished #70 in pass eff D as they improved their ratio all'd from 17-15 to 15-7 LY. The unit lost CB's Donald Smith (11st, 6 pd) and Lee Daniel (1st, 26 tkl). They ret'd 5 who comb for 32 sts led by Cowart (11st, #4 tkl'r, 12 pd), FS Carvin Powell (10st, #6 tkl'r), and SS Simmons (7st, 38 tkl) and got Wilkins back. Despite facing a tougher group of QB's in the CAA, and Cowart only played in 2, they improved to #55 but all'd a 21-15 ratio. TY the unit returns intact led by 2nd Tm CAA CB Eriq Lewis.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After struggling on ST's in '09 HC Wilder put an emphasis on the unit in '10. They finished #39 in our ST rankings as KR Colby Goodwyn set a DI rec with 333 KR yds vs Cal Poly. LY they only lost their top PR, LS and '09's starting K who lost his job in '10 and improved to our #25 ST unit thanks in great part to 1st Tm CAA P Jonathan Plisco (37.3 tm net, 3Y st'r). The unit ret's intact and should have another solid finish.

COACHES - Bobby Wilder, an asst at Maine for 17 yrs, was hired in '07 to restart the prog. OC Brian Scott came with him from Maine and TY they promoted QB cch Ron Whitcomb to co-OC. TY they promoted OL cch Bill Dee to acting DC and 5th yr DB cch Keita Malloy to Asst DC.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 UM ret'd former Iona starting QB Warren Smith, who started 6 here in '09 (1695, 61%, 12-13) and was the #2 rusher (205, 2.8). Chris Treister started the L/2 in '09 setting the UM gm rec for comp (40) & comp % (87%) while throwing for 771 (72%, 7-4). In '10 Smith started 10 throwing for 1,861 (65%, 9-10) and was the #3 rusher (141, 2.2). Treister played in 10 (1 st) throwing for just 221(49%, 1-0). Both ret'd LY for their Sr ssn. Smith started all 13 and was 2nd Tm CAA throwing for 3,122 (63.5%, 22-14) and was the #3 rusher (306, 2.9, 6 td) while Treister had just 2 rush att. TY the most experienced QB is Marcus Wasilewski, who in the L/2 yr is 2-2 for 10 yds. John Ebeling was the LS and LY had 2 rec (24 yd) both for td's. Needless to say this unit is much less experienced and will be a few steps down.

RB's - UM ret'd its top 4 rushers along with starting FB Conor Keating in '10 but #1 Derek Session (479, 4.0) moved to HB. They also got back '09 AA FB Jared Turcotte (inj '09). Turcotte, despite missing 5, was still #2 with 452 (4.6, 6 st). Pushaun Brown (#4 in '09) led with 650 (4.8) incl three straight 100 yd gm to end the ssn. Turcotte tran LY but everyone else ret'd and Session moved back to FB. Brown led again with 1,093 (4.8, 11 td) and was 3rd Tm CAA but departs along with FB Session (12 st) who was the #5 rec (398, 10.5). While they ret #2 David Hood (326, 4.7) and #4 Terrel Walker (41, 2.0) they are much less exp'd.

Rec's - In '10 the Bears lost #1 Landis Williams (798, 11.2) and #3 QB/WR Michael Brusko (480, 9.1). They ret'd 6 of their top 8 rec led by Tyrell Jones (547, 11.4). They were led by HB Session (580, 11.6) while Jones had 293 and 2nd Tm CAA TE Derek Buttles had 291 (10.8). LY they lost Jones and #4 rec Desmond Randall (256, 9.1). They ret'd 4 of their top 6 but Session moved to FB. They improved by 50 pass ypg as they had 4 rec with 500+ yds. They were led by 1st Tm CAA WR Maurice McDonald (591,10.2) while 2nd Tm CAA TE Justin Perillo was #4 (511, 10.0). Two rFr WR's stepped up in Damar Aultman (575, 14.7) and Arthur Williams (517, 14.4). All 4 return giving whoever wins the QB competition a solid group of targets.

O-Line - While UM lost 2nd Tm CAA LT Tyler Eastman (11 st) in '10, they ret'd 7 who comb for 44 st and improved by 28 rush ypg and all'd a CAA-best 12 sk (3.4%). LY they lost LG Matthew Spearin (7 st) and 2 bkps (comb 5 st) but looked to ret 5 who comb for 43 st (87 car st) but a 10 gm st'r DNP. While their rush ypg remained unchanged their ypc fell from 4.2 to 3.9 and they all'd 20 sk (4.7%) despite all 5 OL starting all 13. TY they only lose starting RT Steve Shea (37 car sts) as the OL ret's 115 car sts led by 1st Tm CAA RG Chris Howley and 2nd Tm CAA LT Josh Spearin. This is a very veteran unit but their numbers may not show it as they have an entirely new starting backfield behind them.

D-Line - In '09 the DL ret'd 2 st'rs but lost an AA DE (#1 tkl'r). They still all'd 3.9 ypc for a 3rd straight ssn while the D increased the sks to 28. In '10 they lost 3 who comb for 20 st incl Jordan Stevens (#4 tkl'r) who led with 10 sk. They ret'd 5 who comb for 24 st led by NT Ryan Nani (4 tfl). Their rush ypg all'd improved from 151 (3.9) to 127 (3.5) but the sk ttl dropped from 28 to 16. LY they only lost DT Omar Jacobs (2 st, 20 tkl, 3 sk) and ret'd 5 who started in '10 led by DE Doug Alston (11 st, 3.5 sk). Their rush D slipped to all'g 162 ypg (3.9) but they increased their sk ttl to 33. TY they lose 3rd Tm CAA NT Raibonne Charles (#5 tkl'r) and DT Kevin Phanor (T-#7). They ret a solid group of 4 DE's who comb for 151 tkl and 19 sk led by 2nd Tm CAA Michael Cole (11 sk) and add 2 JC's to fill in the middle. They are less exp'd but could put up similar numbers.

LB's - The LB unit lost #3 tkl'r in 10 but ret'd BLB Donte Dennis (106 tkl), MLB Vinson Givans (#2 tkl'r), MLB Ryan McCrossan (38 tkl) and Mark Masterson (#5 in '08), who ply'd just 2 in '09. Surprisingly the more exp group all'd 24.5 ppg and the LB unit had a comb 2.5 sk. LY they lost ROV Masterson (8 st, 26 tkl), Levi Ervin (2 st, 15 tkl) and McCrossan (6 tkl) and then #1 tkl'r MLB Dennis was inj'd (OFY). They ret'd BLB Givans (#2 tkl'r, 11 st) and ROV Troy Russell (#8) and made a slight improvement to 23.8 ppg. TY they lose 2nd Tm CAA BLB Givans (#1 tkl'r) but ret 4 LB who comb for 26 st led by ROV Russell (#4) and MLB Sam Shipley (#11) while hoping MLB Dennis can ret. Even if he can't, this will still be more exp'd than LY's unit.

DB's - In '10 the secondary only lost a 3 gm st'r as SS Jerron McMillian (#5 tkl'r, 5 int), FS Trevor Coston (5 int) and CB Steven Barker (3 int, 10 pbu) all ret'd. They surprisingly dropped to #81 in pass eff D all'g a 16-8 ratio but got very little help up front (16 sk). LY they lost both starting CB's in Barker (#7 tkl'r) and Dominic Cusano (#5). They ret'd 2nd Tm CAA SS McMillian (#4 tkl'r) and FS Coston (#3 tkl'r) and improved to #25 with a 16-19 ratio as the front 7 did its part (33 sk). TY they lose 1st Tm CAA SS McMillian (#2 tkl'r) and 2nd Tm CAA FS Colston (#3, 6 int) and will likely slip some.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd P/K Jordan Waxman (32.4 avg, 8-10 FG), their top KR's and got K Brian Harvey (inj '09) back in '10. Harvey hit 7-10 FG while Waxman avg'd 38.0 and they finished #72 in our ST rankings. Everyone ret'd LY but they slipped to #80 despite PR Coston being 1st Tm CAA (9.7, 1 td). TY they only ret Harvey (8-14) and may slip a bit more.

COACHES - LY HC Jack Cosgrove led UM to its 4th playoff appearance in his 19 yrs. Kevin Bourgoin is in his 6th as OC (9th overall). New DC Paul Ferraro was Rutgers DC ('01-'04) and the St Louis Rams LB cch the L/3 yrs.

Overview - After a playoff run in '08 UM was off 2 disappointing losing seasons. UM led Bryant 28-0 into the 4Q, trailed Pitt 35-25 late 4Q, and led Albany 24-0 into 4Q before late scores made them appear closer than they were. They trailed #5 UD 17-14 into the 4Q but scored 17 unanswered for the upset. UM hit a FG with :44 left vs #6 JMU to force OT and went for the win and got it (2 pt conv). They led URI 27-7 into the 4Q before 2 late td's. They trailed #18 Richmond 16-0 before outscoring them 23-6 in the 4Q. They led Villanova 34-12 in the 4Q and won. They trailed #14 Towson 33-16 in the 4Q and lost. UM trailed UMass 21-19 into the 4Q before scoring 13 unanswered incl a FR td with 1:01 left. UM led UNH 20-16 into the 4Q but gave up 14 pts in :15 and lost. UM opened the playoffs with an easy 34-12 win at #9 App St but after getting within 21-17 vs GSU gave up 14 unanswered. UM ret just 13 st'rs (fewest s/'09) and will struggle to make the playoffs TY.

WILLIAM & MARY TRIBE

33rd Year at William & Mary (213-151-2)
Willamsburg, Virginia Enrollment: 7,800

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 W&M added UNC tran Michael Paulus (PS#6, IFS) but Sr Mike Callahan (PS#108), who had not seen the field in his 4 yrs here, started the1st 4. Paulus led the 4Q comeback vs Maine (GW td pass :20 left). He started the next 3 and QB'd most of the gm vs UNC before being inj'd (OFY). He threw for 883 (62%, 4-2). Callahan started 4 of the L/5 and threw for 1,659 (62%, 10-3). RFr Brent Caprio started vs NH (5-10) but was inj'd. W&M struggled at QB LY as Paulus (OFS) started 4 gm (incl 1st 3) but only threw for 267 (38.9%, 1-3). Michael Graham, who was the '09 Scout Tm OPOY (DNP '10), started 3 throwing for 787 (59.8%, 5-3). Caprio started 4 incl the L/3 and threw for 795 (63.6%, 6-7). TY both Caprio and Graham return along with Raphael Ortiz (1-3-5) and rFr Christian Brumbaugh (PS#164) and HC Laycock wants an emphasis on the passing game TY after LY's poor numbers (169 ypg, lowest in 12+ yrs).

RB's - W&M ret'd its top 3 rushers in '10, in 1st Tm CAA Jonathan Grimes (1294, 4.7), Courtland Marriner (458, 4.9) and Terrence Riggins (290, 5.1). Grimes was banged up and led with just 887 (4.3) but still earned 1st Tm CAA again. Marriner had 355 (3.8) and Riggins had 211 (4.7) but both departed LY along with 1st Tm CAA FB Jimmy Hobson (6 st, 49 ttl yds). Grimes who was already W&M's car leader ret'd (5445 ttl yd into yr) and they added Navy tran Keith McBride (PS#168). Grimes was again 1st Tm CAA, with a career best 1,431 (5.0, 10 td) but departs along with FB Kyle O'Brien (7 st, 21 ttl yd). They ret 6 of their top 7 but after #2 McBride (281, 5.0) the other 3 RB comb for just 96 (3.4). Losing the 4x All-Conf career leading rusher means this unit will be a few steps down.

Rec's - In '10 W&M lost a 2nd Tm CAA WR (620, 10.9) and a 2nd Tm CAA TE (467, 9.3). They ret'd 4 of their top 6 receivers led by Cameron Dohse (566, 18.9) and Chase Hill (469, 13.8). Dohse ply'd in just 4 (205, 18.6) while 3rd Tm CAA Hill had 490 (14.8) but both departed LY. They ret'd 4 of the top 6 led by 2nd Tm CAA WR Ryan Moody (731, 15.6) and 3rd Tm CAA TE Alex Gottlieb (350, 10.3) but Moody was inj plagued and ply'd in just 6 (174, 17.4). DJ Mangas led with just 591 (13.1), while 1st Tm CAA TE Gottlieb was #2 with 424 (12.8). Both depart along with Ryan Woolfolk (8 st, 97, 10.8). Their top 3 returnees are Moody, WR Tre McBride (146, 10.4) and TE Nolan Kearney (2 st, 77, 11.0). While less experienced, after LY's poor numbers and with a healthy Moody their numbers should improve.

O-Line - The OL lost two 14 gm st'rs (2nd Tm CAA C) in '10 and then LT Jake Marcey (14 st) missed the ssn (ret'd two 14 gm st'rs). Their rush ypg fell from 167 (4.1) to 129 (3.5) and all'd 2 more sk (24, 6.6%). LY they lost 1st Tm CAA LT Keith Hill (11 st, 3 yr st'r) and RG Derek Toon (7 st, 2 yr st'r). They ret'd 5 who comb for 41 st incl 3rd Tm CAA C James Pagliaro and got back up to 166 rush ypg (4.2) but all'd 19 sk (6.9%). TY they lose 1st Tm CAA C Pagliaro but ret 5 who comb for 45 st. The Tribe is on par with LY's unit but their numbers may not show it, with the loss of their career rush leader.

D-Line - This unit lost 3 st'rs in '10 incl two 1st Tm CAA DL (both NFL DC). They ret'd 3 who comb for 17 st led by DT Michael Stover (#8 tkl'r, 12.5 tfl). After leading the FCS in rush D in '09 (61, 2.0) they all'd 147 ypg rush (4.0) while the sk ttl plummeted from 49 to 19. LY they lost 2 st'rs incl 2nd Tm CAA DT Stover (12 tfl). They ret'd 2 st'rs incl 2nd Tm CAA DE Marcus Hyde (12.5 tfl) and put up identical numbers. TY they lose 2nd Tm CAA DE Hyde (#5 tkl'r, 10 tfl) and DT Harold Robertson (24 tkl). They ret 3 who comb for 21 st incl DT George Beerhalter (#10, 8 tfl) and DE Stephen Sinnott (#11) but are down a little from LY.

LB's - In '10 the LB unit looked to ret 4 who comb for all 42 st but 2nd Tm CAA Jake Trantin (#1 tkl'r) missed the ssn and their ppg all'd went from 12.1 (#2 FCS) to 16.7. LY they lost Evan Francks (#2 tkl'r, 11 st) and Wes Steinman (#5 tkl'r, 12 st) but ret'd 2nd Tm CAA OLB Dante Cook (#1 tkl'r, 10 st) and Jabrel Mines (#4 tkl'r, 3 st) along with Trantin. W&M still all'd 22.2 ppg. TY they lose MLB Trantin (#2 tkl'r) but ret OLB Cook (#4) and 3rd Tm CAA OLB Mines (#1) and could slip again.

DB's - The secondary lost 2 st'rs in '10 in 1st Tm CAA SS David Caldwell (#5 tkl'r) and FS Robert Livingston (#6). They ret'd their top 3 CB's incl CAA Rookie DPOY BW Webb (2nd Tm CAA) who led the conf with 8 int. They moved up to #10 in pass eff D allowing an impressive 6-13 ratio. LY they ret'd 3 st'rs incl 1st Tm CAA CB Webb, SS Brian Thompson (#3 tkl'r) and FS Terrell Wells (T-#6 tkl'r) who moved to CB. Surprisingly fell to #62 pass eff D but allowing a respectable 13-11 ratio. TY they lose CB Wells (#7 tkl'r) and FS Jake O'Conner (#8, 8 st). They ret 1st Tm CAA CB Webb (#9), 2nd Tm CAA SS Thompson (#3) and S Jerome Couplin (8 st, #6) while adding Wisc tran Frank Tamakloe (PS#112) in June and could improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - W&M usually has a solid ST unit. Since the CAA began ('07) they've placed 11 special teamers on the All-Conf lists. In '10 W&M lost a 2nd Tm CAA K but ret'd 3 All-CAA ply'rs in P David Miller (1 st), PR Webb (3rd) and KR Grimes (3rd). They finished with our #47 ST unit and PR Webb and KR Grimes were both 2nd Tm CAA. LY they lost AA P Miller (43.0) but ret'd everyone else. They still dropped to #75 despite Grimes being the CAA STPOY. TY The "only" loss is Grimes and the unit could move back up.

COACHES - HC Jimmye Laycock enters his 33rd yr. Zbig Kepa enters his 21st yr as OC (29th overall). Scott Boone enters his 9th overall ssn here and after 4 yrs as the LB cch is now in his 2nd ssn as the DC.

Overview - W&M looked primed to make a playoff run but struggled with inconsistent QB play (3 st'rs). Virginia got revenge for an '09 loss to W&M and led 40-0 in the opener. The Tribe had little problem with VMI (led 24-0) but in the rain was tied at 10 in the 4Q vs New Haven and only won by 3. Against a lower ranked JMU, a costly fumble at their own 24 allowed JMU a late 17-7 lead. They trailed a 1-3 Villanova 16-14 but pulled out a 20-16 win. Outgained 338-210 they were shutout by UD. They then upset #6 UNH outscoring them 17-0 in the 2H. They were still ranked 1 spot ahead of future CAA Champ Towson but trailed 35-17 into the 4Q. Still ranked #19 W&M was shocked by URI being outscored 17-8 in the 4Q. They led #11 ODU 31-28 but gave up a GW td with 2:48 left for their 6th loss. They got a GW td with :02 left to get past Richmond. TY they lose their career leading rusher and play all 6 conf tms that finished ahead of them but could overachieve.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Chris Whitney who was 1st Tm CAA in '09 (1936, 64%,18-5, 987 rush) ret'd in '10 and was 2nd Tm CAA (2241, 65%, 22-7, 606 rush, 13 td) while WR Matt Szczur was the Wildcat QB (7-8-171, 2-0 ratio, 368 rush). Both departed LY. VU ret'd 3 QB's in Dustin Thomas (1 gm, 1-2 pass), Marlon Calbi (13 gm holder, 1 td pass) and Christian Culicerto (3 gm, 2-3 pass). Thomas started the F/2 but was inj vs Towson (out next 4). He would start 2 more and threw for 412 (53.8%, 2-6, 88 rush). True frosh Chris Polony started vs Monmouth but then Culicerto made the next 3 st and for the ssn threw for 556 (53.2%, 3-3, 83 rush). Polony started the final 3 and for the ssn led with 713 (56.6%, 7-6, 132 rush). TY Culicerto and Calbi (0 pass att) depart while Thomas moved to WR. Polony is competing with rFr John Robertson for the starting spot but the unit is still more experienced than LY.

RB's - In '10 VU ret'd a top 4 rushers with the top 2 RB's being #3 Aaron Ball (794, 4.8) and #4 Angelo Babbaro (442, 6.4). Ball had 794 (4.9) again but this time was the #1 rusher while Babbaro was #3 (528, 4.9). LY VU lost its top 4 rushers with the top returnee being RB Lawrence Doss (182, 5.4). Doss started the F/5 and led but with just 367 (4.3) while rFr Austin Medley also started 5 and was #2 with 328 (5.2). Kevin Monangai made 1 st and was the #4 rusher (176, 3.3) and true frosh WR Jamal Abdur-Rahman was #3 (293, 7.7). Not only did VU's rush yds decline but even more drastically their rush td's fell from 29 to just 9. TY they lose Doss and FB Miller Edwards (2 st, 6 yd) but could improve.

Rec's - The Wildcats lost a 2nd Tm CAA WR in '10 but ret'd 5 of their top 6 rec led by CAA OPOY Matt Szczur (610, 12.0, 813 rush, 2 pass td) and #3 Norman White (14.8). Szczur (#5DC MLB Cubs) missed 6+ gm (inj) and only finished #5 (240, 8.6) and departed LY. VU looked to ret their top 3 in 1st Tm CAA White (886, 12.8), Dorian Wells (554,15.0) and Mikey Reynolds (279, 10.3) but White was lost for the ssn with a foot inj. They did add HT true frosh Jamal Abdur-Rahman (PS#130), who finished #3 with (218, 10.4). With the inexperience at QB, Wells led with just 450 (11.8) while Reynolds was #2 with 284 (12.3) and Joe Price was #4 with 217 (10.3). TY they lose Reynolds and possibly Abdur-Rahman (susp) so just 2 WR's return but VU does have both starting TE's and get back a healthy White putting them ahead of LY.

O-Line - The OL lost 2 st'rs in '10 but ret'd LG Brant Clouser and AA LT Ben Ijalana along with 2 OL who comb for 15 st. They went from #1 CAA (#4 FCS) with 240 rush ypg (5.2) to 195 (4.4) but they cut their sk all'd from 36 (12.2%) to 28 (8.5%). LY they lost 1st Tm CAA LG Clouser, 3x 1st Tm CAA Ijalana (#2DC IND) and RT Chidozie Ekweozor who tore his ACL in the spg (OFY). They only ret'd 2 st'rs in 3rd tm CAA C Dan Shirey and RG Josh Bucci and their numbers fell to 138 (3.8) their lowest s/'05 and all'd 36 sk (12.1%). TY they looked to ret all 6 OL that comb for all 55 sts LY but 1st Tm CAA C Shirey was inj'd at the start of spg and is ? for the ssn. Even without their top man they should put up better numbers.

D-Line - The DL all'd just 67 ypg rush (2.3, #3 FCS) in '09 but in '10 lost 2nd Tm CAA NG Phil Matusz (30 tkl) and 1st Tm CAA DE Tim Kukucka (#8 tkl'r) who led with 18.5 tfl (9.5 sk). Their top returnee was DE Marlon Johnson (26 tkl, 1.5 tfl) but he was lost after 1 st. Still VU's led the CAA all'g 100 ypg (3.2, #7 FCS), but the sk ttl fell from 40 to 20. LY they lost NG Thomas Weaver (#8 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl) but ret'd DE's Antoine Lewis (48 tkl), Rakim Cox (8.5 tfl) and got Johnson back. With an inexperienced LB unit (0 ret st'rs) behind them they all'd 173 ypg (4.1) with just 19 sk, their worst numbers s/'05. TY the DL ret all 3 st'rs (114 comb tkl) and with 7 st'rs behind them should make an improvement.

LB's - VU runs a 3-3-5 D. In '10 the LB unit lost 2nd Tm CAA Osayi Osunde (#2 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl) but ret'd 2 st'rs in AA Terence Thomas (#1 tkl'r, 8.5 sk) and Marquis Kirkland (#5, 10.5 tfl). They went from all'g 14.1 ppg (#6 FCS) to 19.2 ppg. LY they lost their top 4 incl two 1st Tm CAA LB's in Kirkland (#1 tkl'r, 15 tfl) and Thomas (#4) along with their #7 and #12 tkl'rs. Their top returnees were Jeremy Rodriguez (13 tkl) and Devon Bridges (12 tkl) and they all'd 30.5 ppg (most s/'05). TY they lose Rodriguez (1 st, 16 tkl) and Delano Ferguson (16 tkl) but ret 4 who comb for 32 sts incl Bridges (#4) and CAA Rookie DPOY Dillon Lucas (#1). Saying they are more exp'd is an understatement.

DB's - The secondary lost FS Ross Ventrone (#5 tkl'r) but ret'd 4 st'rs in '10 incl SS John Dempsey (#3, 11.5 tfl, 9 pd) and CB James Pitts (#6, 12 pd). They finished #46 in pass eff D (15-17 ratio). LY they lost 3 st'rs in 2nd Tm CAA FS Fred Maldonado (T-#2 tkl'r), SS Dempsey (#5) and WS Martel Moody (3 int). They ret'd CB Pitts (T-#2 tkl'r, 14 pd), CB Eric Loper (#6) and S Ronnie Akins (4 st, 6 pd) but with even less experience in front of them fell to #112 all'g a 15-8 ratio. TY they lose 1st Tm CAA CB Pitts (#7 tkl'r, 5 int) but ret 7 with starting exp led by SS Akins (#2, 2 int) and WS Loper (#3) and should move up in the rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd P Dominic Scarnecchia (38.0), K Nick Yako (12-16 FG) and CAA STPOY KR Szczur (27.2, 1 td) in '10. Yako lost his job to Mark Hamilton but VU still finished #31 in out ST rankings. LY they lost Szczur and 2nd Tm CAA P Scarnecchia (43.2) but ret'd K's Yako and Hamilton (6-8, L/38), who took over at P. They improved to #10 as Hamilton hit 10-13 FG and was 3rd tm CAA P (t-#6 FCS 38.2 net). TY they only lose K Yako (5 TB on 39 KO) and KR but should have another solid unit.

COACHES - HC Andy Talley has had 20 winning ssns in 27 yrs and led the VU to its only FCS Championship in '09. Sam Venuto is in his 14th yr as OC (18th overall). They replaced a 7yr DC by promoting Billy Crocker after 7 yr as a Def asst here (LB/DL).

Overview - Villanova was a young and inexp'd tm LY, with just 8 ret st'rs and in the opener ply'd 12 true and 5 rFr. They opened the ssn ranked #14 due to past glories but were destroyed by Temple and had 3 TO's lead to 17 pts & vs eventual CAA champ Towson. They let a 7-3 3Q lead slip away and shockingly lost to Monmouth. They struggled with Penn until an IR td with :12 left finally sealed their 1st win of the ssn. They led #11 W&M 16-14 in the 3Q but lost. They were never really in it vs #6 UNH but did lead #13 JMU 7-6 at half before being outscored 28-3 in the 2H. They were roughed up by #21 ODU and #8 Maine. They exploded for 28 pts in the 2Q in their final conf meeting with UMass. Then in the ssn finale with 8 frosh & just 1 Sr in their starting lineup VU led #14 Delaware 16-13 in the 4Q before allowing 13 unanswered pts. They finished 2-9, their worst record since 1972. TY they are much more exp'd but have a long way to climb back up.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 UR lost 4 yr st'r, Eric Ward (2396, 62%, 16-10, 360 rush) who left as UR's career passer. They ret'd bkup John Laub (9-18-122) and added USC tran Aaron Corp (PS#9). Corp started the first 5 but was inj (OFY) on the 1st series vs NH. Laub was out with a wrist inj so P Nick Hicks (HS QB) came in but threw 5 int. He suffered a concussion vs UNH so they took the RS off true Montel White. White started 3 (14-29-174, 2-1) and went 2-1 but was lost to an eye inj vs JMU. Laub was finally healthy and started the L/3 throwing for 506 (45%) but with a 2-9 ratio. Hicks went 17-44-181 with an 0-6 ratio. Despite missing the L/6, Corp still led with 645 (55%, 3-4). All 4 ret'd LY but Hicks stayed at P and White RS. Corp started all 11 throwing for 2,682 (63.7%, 17-13) but now departs. Laub ply'd in 8 (8-17-116) and returns but has to learn a new offense. They added UVA tran rFr Michael Strauss (PS#93), who along with White will try to beat out Laub, who was voted a tm capt for his Sr ssn. While there is potential, they are down a notch.

RB's - UR ret'd 5 of its top 7 in '10 but lost #1 Justin Forte (1057, 4.6) and their top ret RB's were #3 Garrett Wilkins (282, 4.6) and #5 FB Kendall Gaskins (93 yd, 6 td). Tyler Kirchoff led with 547 (4.5, 6 td) while Wilkins had 181 (4.5) but both departed. LY they ret'd 2 of top 3 in 1st Tm CAA FB Gaskins (402, 4.1, 5 td, 133 rec) and Jovan Smith (266, 4.6) but Smith did not play. FB Gaskins led with 650 (3.9, 10 td) while starting RB Turner was #2 with 252 (3.2) and WR Justin Grant (15, 3.8) was the only other player with positive net yds. TY they lose Turner and Grant moved to DB, but they ret Gaskins for his Sr ssn along with Smith and can only improve on LY's poor numbers.

Rec's - UR ret'd its top 3 rec in '10 in 3rd Tm CAA Tre Gray (713, 14.0), 2nd Tm CAA Kevin Grayson (545, 11.4) and Donte Boston (494, 15.0). With a new offense and QB inj's their numbers dropped as Gray led with just 478 (12.6) but was still 1st Tm CAA. LY they lost Grayson (190,10.0) and Boston (190, 19.0). They ret'd Gray, TE Kevin Finney (157, 9.2) and Ben Edwards (135, 13.5)ray was again 1st Tm CAA but led with a much improved 1,187 (12.5). Edwards was #2 (509, 11.6) while TE Finney was #4 (348, 11.2). RFr Stephen Barnette, despite just 1 start, was #3 (440, 13.8). TY they lose Gray but ret their other top 3 and have solid potential.

O-Line - The OL lost 4 st'rs incl two 1st Tm CAA in '10 but ret'd C Drew Lachenmayer and added Rutgers tran Richard Muldrow (PS#83). For the 3rd yr in a row, the rush ypg fell while their sks all'd went from 18 (5.1%) to 15 sk (5.2%). LY they only lost 2nd Tm CAA C Lachenmayer as they ret'd 6 who comb for 44 st but their rush numbers fell to just 77 ypg (#113 FCS, 2.6) while all'g 32 sk (7.8%). TY they lose two 11 gm st'rs but ret 5 who comb for 33 sts and added Kansas tran Chad Kolumber in June. While they are learning a new off which calls for a mobile QB, their numbers can only improve.

D-Line - The DL lost 3 st'rs in '10 incl NG Parker Miles (#6 tkl'r, 4 tfl) and were under a new DC but ret'd AA NT Martin Parker (#4, 15.5 tfl). After finishing #5 FCS in rush D (79, 2.7) in '09 they had their worst rush D s/'03 allowing 168 ypg (4.1) with 2 less sk (19). LY they lost 3 DL (18 comb st) incl AA DT Parker (#2 tkl'r, 13.5 tfl) and DE Tyler Sullivan (#10). They slipped even further all'g 175 ypg (4.6) with just 12 sk (T-#112 FCS). TY the only loss is DT Corey Jackson (6 st, 10 tkl) as 7 ret who comb for 37 sts, move in former Miami, Fl tran Andrew Tallman (PS#43, 4 gm here LY) and are in the 3rd yr of the system and should improve.

LB's - After finishing #6 and #9 in the FCS in scoring in '08 and '09 UR lost 1st Tm CAA MLB Collin McConaghy (#1 tkl'r) in '10. They ret'd 1st Tm CAA Eric McBride (#3 tkl'r) and Patrick Weldon (#2) but all'd 20.5 ppg (worst s/'07). LY the unit lost Weldon (#3 tkl'r) and their #2 all-time tkl'r, CAA co-DPOY McBride (CAA best 54 straight sts). They ret'd Darius McMillan (#4 tkl'r), but all'd 26.8 ppg. TY they lose Derek Mayo (#3 tkl'r) but ret 4 of their top 5 LB's led by 2nd Tm CAA McMillan (133 tkl) and Aaron Roane (#8) and are more exp'd. The slide should stop.

DB's - The secondary lost 3 st'rs in '10 but ret'd 1st Tm CAA CB Justin Rogers (3 int, 8 pbu) and as teams found it easier to run against them, their pass D improved to #57 in pass eff D with a 12-14 ratio. LY they lost SS Max Prokell (#5 tkl'r, 6 pbu) and 1st Tm CAA Rogers (7 pd, #7DC). They ret'd CB Tremayne Graham (#6 tkl'r, 8 pd) along with S's Darryl Hamilton (6st) and Colin Pehanick (6st) while adding Georgia Tech tran Cooper Taylor (PS#102). They moved up to #51 but all'd an 11-6 ratio. TY they lose 3rd Tm CAA S Pehanick (#2 tkl'r, 8 pd) and CB Graham (#5, 8 pd) but ret 4 DB's that comb for 23 sts in SS Taylor (#4), FS Reggie Barnette (#7), CB Wayne Pettus (#9) and CB Hamilton (#11) giving them another solid unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit lost its P, K and top PR in '10. New K Wil Kamin was 1st Tm CAA (11-12, L/45) while new P Nick Hicks avg 39.0 and PR/KR Justin Rogers was 1st Tm CAA PR as they were #17 in our ST rankings. LY they lost Rogers and it showed as UR fell to our #51 ranking as both Kamin (9-12) and Hicks (38.0) saw their numbers slip a little. TY the unit ret intact and new HC Rocco's Liberty unit was #5 last year, so there should be solid improvement this year.

COACHES - LY 2nd yr HC Latrell Scott resigned 10 days prior to the ssn opener and OC Wayne Lineburg served the interim HC. TY UR brings in 6 yr Liberty HC Danny Rocco who went 47-20 with the Flames. While Rocco brings his 3 year Liberty OC Brandon Streeter to fill that spot here, Lineburg was retained as Assistant HC and should help the transition along with now 3rd year DC Bob Trott, who was also retained.

Overview - Much was expected of UR LY as they started the season ranked #16 after a 6-5 ssn with just 13 ret st'rs. They then lost their HC 10 days before the ssn opener but rallied to upset Duke 23-21. They only led Wagner 14-6 into the 4Q but then led VMI 34-0 and at 3-0 were ranked #5. UR got a td with :28 left vs #11 UNH to only lose by 2. They allowed the final 31 to #9 JMU and after tying #25 Towson with a td with 2:33 left gave up a last play FG but at 3-3 were still ranked #18. They led #9 Maine 22-7 when the Bears ret'd a blk'd PAT for 2 and UR ended up losing by 1. They allowed 21 pts in the 1Q vs UMass and then after tying #12 ODU at 28 in the 4Q all'd the final 14. They trailed UD 24-3 into the 4Q but in the ssn finale led W&M 23-19 before all'g a td with :02 left finishing the ssn with 8 straight losses and 4 conf losses by a comb 8 pts. TY UR ret's 14 st'rs but loses a VHT QB and has a new HC. However, with a few breaks going their way TY the Spiders could have their 7th winning ssn in the L/8 yrs.

RHODE ISLAND RAMS

Joe Trainer (Career 22-44)
4th Year at Rhode Island (9-24)
Kingston, Rhode Island — Enrollment: 16,392

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - URI ret'd Rutgers tran Chris Paul-Etienne (1745, 53%, 14-7) in '10 but was inj in the fall (OFY). Hofstra tran Steve Probst, who was expected to RS, had every pass att except 1 (by a WR, int). Probst threw for 1,876 (59%, 9-12) and was the #1 rusher (600, 3.8, 7 td). LY Paul-Etienne departed. Probst ret'd but after starting the first 6 (1-5) was replaced by Bob Bentsen, who almost led a comeback vs Maine. HC Trainer called it a new ssn and with an eye toward the future, Bentsen started the L/5 (2-3) and led the upset of #16 UD in his first start. Bentsen led with 1,137 (59.6%, 9-8) and was the #5 rusher (163, 4.2, 1 td). Probst threw for 917 (53.8%, 8-10) and was the #2 rusher (369, 5.0, 5 td) and departs. Bentsen returns and they added JC Dan Farley, who was comp with Danny Fenyak in the spg for the backup spot. Despite ret their "2nd ssn" st'r URI is less exp'd and with fewer ret st'rs on the rest of the off may see their pass numbers dip some.

RB's - URI ret'd its top 3 rushers in '10 in Anthony Ferrer (411, 4.0), Ayo Isijola (365, 4.3) and Ryan Lawrence (155, 3.6) but Lawrence moved to WR. While QB Probst led, Isijola was #2 (455, 4.0), while Ferrer was #3 (326, 3.8) and true frosh Travis Hurd was #4 (234, 3.4). LY they only lost Ferrer (2 st) but Isijola played in just 2 (0 att). Hurd started the first 8 and led with 433 (3.9) while Deontray Johnson was the #2 RB (#3 rusher) with 355 (3.9) but both depart. TY they lose their top 4 rushers and the top 3 ret rushers are a QB and 2 WR's incl WR Billy Morgan, who started the final 3 at RB but had just 99 (2.2). The top ret RB is Assani Mudimbi (27, 2.2), who was competing with Jordan Sebastian for the #1 job in the spring making this an inexp'd unit.

Rec's - URI lost 3 of its top 5 rec in '10 incl #1 Shawn Leonard (858, 18.3, 11 td) and #3 Joe Bellini (273, 11.9). They ret'd #2 Ty Bynum (506, 13.3), #4 Ryan Lawrence (164, 9.1) and # 6 Brandon Johnson-Farrell (84, 14.5). Despite just 1 st, Anthony Baskerville led with 500 (10.4) while Johnson-Farrell had 400 (10.3) and Bynum added 208 (9.5). LY they lost former Rutgers tran TE Tom Lang (3 st, 1 rec) and Lawrence (3 gm) but ret'd their top 8. They were led by 2nd Tm CAA Baskerville (731, 15.9) but he departs along with #3 Bynum (250, 10.0). They ret 5 of their top 7 led by Johnson-Farrell (567, 12.9), TE Joe Migliarese (202, 10.6) and WR Morgan (120, 10.0). While the unit is less exp'd than LY it is filled with upperclassmen and should not drop much, if at all.

O-Line - In '10 the OL ret'd 4 st'rs and with a mobile QB improved from 90 (2.8) to 146 rush ypg (3.7) while cutting the sks all'd to 17 (5.0%). LY the OL's only loss was C Dave Valley (11 st, 3Y st'r) as they had 7 who comb for 44 sts ret incl LT Jason Foster and LG Kyle Bogumil. They made a little improvement in their rushing numbers (150, 3.9) but all'd 18 sk (5.8%). TY they lose three 3 yr st'rs (all 11 st LY) in 2nd Tm CAA LT Foster, 3rd Tm CAA LG Bogumil and RT Michael Gross. They ret 3 Sr OL who comb for 22 sts LY led by LG Kyle Elliot (11 st) but clearly are down a couple of pegs.

D-Line - The DL lost 1 st'r (#4 tkl'r, 8 tfl) in '10 but ret'd 3 incl DE Victor Adesanya (4 sk) and DT Willie McGinnis (6.5 tfl). They cut their rush ypg all'd from 184 (4.5) to 126 (3.7) but their sk ttl slipped from 21 to 19. LY they lost 1st Tm CAA Adesanya (25 tkl, 4.5 tfl) but ret'd three 11 gm st'rs in McGinnis (#7 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl), DT Matt Rae (#6, 7.5 tfl) and DE Matt Sheard (7.5 tfl). They added JC Damen Vargas but he ply'd in just 3 (4 tkl) while Sheard played in just 4. They all'd 147 (4.0) but the tm's 24 sk were the most s/'05. TY they lose 2nd Tm CAA DT McGinnis (#4 tkl'r, 10 tfl), DT Rae (#T-#6, 5.5 tfl) and Sheard (1 st, 12 tkl). They ret 3 DE's who comb for 21 sts but even with the ret of a healthy Vargas will likely see their numbers slip as not only are they less exp'd but URI's D ret's just 2 st'rs behind them.

LB's - In '09 the LB unit ret'd all 3 st'rs in the #1, #2 and #5 tkl'rs and added Hofstra tran Chris Edmond. URI cut its ppg all'd from 36.9 to 24.4. LY they lost all 3 st'rs in 2nd Tm CAA MLB Matt Hansen (#1 tkl'r, 8 tfl), WLB Edmond (#2 tkl'r) and SLB Joseph Harris (#3 tkl'r, 21 tfl) along with Rob Damon who was a pressn AA but only ply'd in 3. Their top returnee was Dave Zocco (21 tkl, 3.5 tfl). They added JC Doug Johnson and Bucknell tran Ahkiel White. They only slipped to all'g 28.4 ppg despite playing 7 ranked tms. TY they lose White (#8 tkl'r) returning both SLB Zocco (#1, 13 tfl) and MLB Johnson (#2, 16 tfl). While they are more exp'd the rest of the D isn't.

DB's - The secondary lost 1 st'r (#6 tkl'r, 7 pd) in '10 but ret'd 6 of their top 7 incl SS Jarrod Williams (#3 tkl'r, 4 int) and CB Robenson Alexis while adding JC Stanley Dunbar and LB Daniel O'Connell. They finished #71 in pass D eff with a 17-11 ratio. LY they lost 3 st'rs in Williams (#5 tkl'r, 11 pd), ROV O'Connell (#4) and S Jordan Dalton (6 pd). They ret'd CB's Dunbar (4 st) and Devon Dace (7 st) along with bkp S Darrell Dulany (#8 tkl'r). They fell to #101 all'g a 19-8 ratio. TY they lose their top 6 DB's incl all 4 st'rs. They add 2 JC's but the returning DB's comb for just 17 tkl LY. This is the least exp'd unit on an inexp'd D but URI can not fall much.

SPECIAL TMS - The ST's only lost its top PR in '10 while the PR unit struggled (5.5 ypr) they did have 2 td and 1st Tm CAA KR Hurd avg'd 26.2 (1 td) and they had our #10 ST unit. LY they again only lost their top PR and K Louis Feinstein also took over as P (tm net 31.2). URI fell to #66. TY they lose Feinstein but ret their top PR/KR.

COACHES - Former URI DC Joe Trainer enters his 4th as HC. OL cch Roy Istvan enters his 2nd as OC, and for a 2nd straight year URI has a new DC in LY's DL coach Brian Vaganek.

Overview - With 10 ret st'rs on off, there was much hope for URI LY after a 5-6 ssn but as they reduced scholarships (joining the NEC in '13) they faded in some close games. They put a scare into Syracuse (14-14 in 4Q) but lost. They led UMass 21-16 in the 4Q but lost. They led Fordham 14-3 at half but need a td with 1:13 for the win. URI trailed Brown 35-14 in the 4Q but led #25 ODU 23-21 in the 3Q before losing. They trailed #12 Maine 27-7 until two 4Q td's made it close. They opened the "new ssn" with an upset win over #16 UD despite all'g a final play td. They took a 24-21 3Q lead over #10 UNH but faded. URI scored the final 10 to upset #19 W&M but trailed #20 JMU 28-0 into the 4Q. They only trailed #8 Towson, who was playing for an outright CAA Title, 21-17 into the 4Q but could get no closer. This is URI's final ssn in the CAA and as they continue to lower their scholarships, they also lost several non-Sr's. With just 9 ret st'rs this could be a long final CAA ssn.

GEORGIA STATE PANTHERS

Bill Curry (Career 92-118-4)
3rd Year at Georgia St (9-13)
Atlanta, Georgia — Enrollment: 32,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - HC Bill Curry decided to build the QB spot with youth and had 3 rFr QB's in GSU's inaugural ssn. Drew Little threw for 2,102 (62%, 18-11) while Kelton Hill was the #1 rusher (416, 6.9) with just 15 passes. Bo Schlechter moved to P. All 3 ret'd LY but Little sat out spg and was susp for the first 3 gms. Schlechter started the first 3 but then Little started 2 but ended up only playing in 4 gm throwing for just 468 (44.6%, 0-6). Schlechter started vs SCSU but plyd just 5 gm ttl throwing 550 (49.4%, 4-3, 51 rush). Hill, started the L/5 throwing for 1,021 (54.0%, 11-4) and was the #2 rusher (609, 5.9). Both Little and Schlechter depart and while they ret Hill, rFr Ben McLane was #1 out of spg. They add Ohio transfer rFr Ronnie Bell (PS#109) and 3 true frosh. They play a full CAA sked plus Tenn so things get tougher, but despite being less exp'd overall GSU could put up similar numbers.

RB's - In '10 GSU's top rusher was QB Hill as they spread the ball between their RB's incl Travis Evans (382, 4.8), Rosevelt Watson (170, 3.7), Parris Lee (161, 4.0) and Sam Burkhalter (101, 3.1). Burkhalter moved to LB but they added Kentucky tran Donald Russell (PS#167). Russell led with 665 (5.2, 9 td) while Evans was #3 with 390 (4.5) and Malcolm Smith added 75 (3.4). TY GSU ret's its top 5 rushers but will need the rebuilt OL to come together quickly to keep its numbers up.

Rec's - Danny Williams (649, 12.0) led the way in '10. UCF tran Sidney Haynes (PS#108) was #2 (298, 11.5) followed by Albert Wilson (294, 15.5) and Jordan Giles (217, 12.8), who missed 3 gm and ply'd with a cast (brk finger). The TE's split time in Emmanuel Ogbuehi (199, 13.3) and Arthur Williams (164, 10.2). LY all 6 ret'd and, despite missing 2 gms, Wilson led with 772 (20.9). Danny Williams was #2 (485, 16.2) while Giles was #3 (264, 16.5). TY all 3 ret along with speedster Darren McCray (55, 11.0), who was slowed by inj LY, and TE's Ogbuehi (100, 14.3) and former Kentucky tran Alex Smith (PS#12). They lose TE Arthur Williams (11 st, 101, 11.2) and WR Haynes, who had just 4 rec (34, 8.5) LY. This is a solid unit that should help whoever starts at QB.

O-Line - GSU brought in quality FBS transfers to give the OL and the off stability. All of those transfers 3 started all 11 in '10 in Ball St's C Ben Jacoby and Georgia Tech's LT Clyde Yandell (PS#54) and LG Joseph Gilbert (PS#186). JC RG Ladeven Kirkland made 9 st while rFr RT Grant King started all 11. The OL opened holes for 123 ypg (4.3) and all'd just 10 sk (3.0%). The unit ret'd intact LY and thanks to a mobile QB at the end of the yr (108 ypg first 5, 218 ypg L/6) they avg'd 168 ypg (4.5) but all'd 15 sk (5.1%). TY they lose all 4 transfers (comb 38 sts LY), They ret 4 OL who comb for 17 sts led by RT King (11 st) and Ulrick John (4 st). How well this unit comes together will determine how well GSU's off performs.

D-Line - The 3 man DL did play 3 lower div teams but also played Bama and finished '10 all'g 187 ypg (4.4) but the D had just 15 sk. All 3 st's ret'd LY in DT Christo Bilukidi (#6 tkl'r, 5 sk), NG Khiry Karriem (24 tkl) and DE Kalan Jenkins (30 tkl, 1.5 tfl) and they added Conn tran AJ Portee. While the rush numbers improved slightly (181, 4.2) the D had 21 sk. TY they move to a 4-3 under a new DC and lose DE Portee (11 st, 31 tkl, dismissed), DE Qwontez Mallory (27 tkl), DT Bilukidi (10 st, 38 tkl, 5 sk), NG Jenkins (9 st, 18 tkl) and NG Karreim (6 tkl). They ret NG Terrance Woodard (1 st, 21 tkl) and former Nev tran DE John Kelly while adding KY tran Nermin Delic (PS#184). With 0 ret st'rs this unit is a few notches down.

LB's - GSU all'd 26.0 ppg (22.3 excluding Bama) in their inaugural ssn as 5 LB's made 7+ sts. LY they looked to ret all 5 but ILB Louie Muasau (8 st, #4 tkl'r) inj'd his knee (OFY). The unit did ret OLB Jake Muasau (9 st, #7 tkl'r, 4 sk), ILB Evan Bostic (7 st, #3), OLB Mark Hogan (8 st, #5) and Olufemi Opanubi (7 st, #8 tkl'r) along with OLB Robert Ferguson (3 st, 36 tkl) and added JC Dexter Moody (PS#22) but slipped to all'g 31.2 ppg. TY they lose OLB Muasau (7 st, T-#3 tkl'r), ILB Michael Hall (8 st, #5), ILB Opanubi (2 st, 26 tkl), ILB Bostic (12 tkl, 2 sk) and likely Moody (9 st, #1) who was susp indefinitely. They have 1 less spot to fill, move in S Kail Singleton (1 st, 24 tkl) and ret 4 who comb for 17 sts LY incl OLB's Hogan (6 st, T-#3 tkl'r) and Ferguson (5 st, #6). While less exp'd GSU is still in decent shape here.

DB's - Despite just 5 upperclassmen in the secondary in '10, GSU finished #53 in pass eff D all'g a 13-10 ratio. LY they lost CB Justin Hughes (11 st, 30 tkl, 7 pbu) and SS Fred Barnes (#1 tkl'r) was suspended for the first 2 gm. They ret'd FS Brandon Jones (#2 tkl'r) and CB's Brent McClendon (8 st, #8) and Jamal Ransby (4 st, 20 tkl) while adding JC's D'Mario Gunn and Demazio Skelton. They dropped to #85 all'g a 16-13 ratio. TY they lose FS Jones (8 st, T-#7 tkl'r) and SS Barnes (3 st, 28 tkl) while S Singleton moves to LB. The unit ret's 5 who comb for 33 sts in SS Skelton (#2 tkl'r, 8 pd) and CB's Demarius Matthews (8 st, #9), McClendon (8 st, #10), Gunn (5 st, 24 tkl) and Ransby (1 st, 17 tkl) along with former Louisville tran Rashad Stewart.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit was an impressive #39 in our ST rankings in '10 thanks to 3rd Tm AA K Iain Vance (15-17, L/49), QB/P Schlechter (44.5) and averaging 24.2 (2 td) on KR (#6 FCS). LY they lost Vance, had a new P in Matt Hubbard (41.9), avg'd just 18.8 on KR's and fell to #109. The unit ret's intact and should improve.

COACHES - GSU hired former GT, Bama and KY HC Bill Curry to start an FCS program in '08 and next year they move up to the FBS's Sun Belt Conf. John Bond has been the OC and QB coach since the team formed and was an OC for 11 years at GT, N Ill, Army and Ill St. TY they replace a 2Y DC by promoting secondary/ST cch Anthony Midget to handle the switch from a 3-4 to a 4-3.

Overview - GSU was off a 6-5 inaugural ssn with 20 ret st'rs. They opened with an easy 41-7 win over Clark Atlanta and then only trailed ODU 20-17 in the 2Q but all'd the final 20 pts. The Panthers only trailed #17 Jacksonville St 24-21 into the 4Q but lost by 16 before picking up a check at Houston. GSU led Murray St 10-7 after 1Q but all'd 21 unanswered in the 2Q and got no closer than 11. They led SCSU 13-10 in the 3Q but all'd the final 13. GSU gave up a game tying td with :02 left but won in OT vs South Alabama. They led UTSA 14-3 into the 4Q but all'd a game tying FG with :24 left and this time lost in OT. GSU led St Francis 24-10 into the 4Q but all'd a game tying FG with :00 left and lost in OT yet again. They were shocked by West Alabama all'g a GW td with 2:12 left. They led Campbell 42-21 but needed to hold on for a 7 pt win. While GSU moves into the CAA as orig planned they are inelig for the conf crown as they will move to the SBC in '13. This is a big step up in competition and likely a 2nd straight losing ssn.

PHIL'S 2012 COLONIAL FORECAST

1. JAMES MADISON - They Dukes looked poised for a run at the CAA Crown LY with 17 ret st'rs. They did get back to the playoffs but after just getting by EKU by 3, lost to eventual FCS Champ NDSU. While they were #1 in the CAA at +86.1 ypg in conf play they finished just 5-3 as 2 losses were by a comb 4 pts. TY while they ret 13 st'rs (t-#7), 8 are on off. The D adds 3 BCS transfers and so JMU is better off than the 5 ret st'rs would indicate. They also have the best conf sked of the CAA's top 5 as they avoid UD & UNH and host ODU & Towson, which is even more impressive when you note they led the CAA (#2 FCS) in attendance. The Dukes are our pick to win the CAA crown as 2 sets of our power ratings call for them to go 8-0 in conf play.

2. TOWSON - After 4 straight losing seasons not much was expected of the Tigers LY. They ret'd 76.5% of their lettermen (#1 CAA), were in the 3rd yr of their systems and with the addition of JC QB Enders and true frosh RB West took the CAA by storm. West led the FCS in scoring (29 rush td) and won the inaugural Jerry Rice Awd (Top FCS Frosh). HC Ambrose won the Eddie Robinson Awd for top FCS HC leading the Tigers to their 1st ever FCS playoff. They led #6 Lehigh 38-31in the 4Q but lost. They were 6-2 vs ranked teams and after going 0-8 in conf play in '10 had their 1st positive CAA rec at 7-1. While they were only #3 at +47.3 ypg they were #1 at +8.6 ppg. Their 18 ret st'rs is #2 in the conf only behind Villanova (20) and is 3 more than #3 ODU. While they are the easy pick to repeat as CAA champs their sked is tough as they face 2 FBS foes incl LSU the week before playing at JMU. They also face UD & UNH on the road and play ODU at home thus facing all the other top CAA tms while they will miss UR and GSU. They have the talent to repeat but their sked will likely keep them from the title however, they should make their 2nd str playoffs.

2. NEW HAMPSHIRE - After an opening loss to Toledo the Wildcats won 4 str incl 2 over ranked tms but then fell at W&M. Their only other reg ssn loss was at Towson, which cost them the CAA Title. UNH extended the FCS's longest playoff streak to 8 LY but after an opening round bye had to travel to Montana St and lost by 1. While UNH was #2 at +54.8 ypg in conf play their were just #4 at +4.7 ppg as 4 of their 6 CAA wins were by 7 pts or less. TY they ret 14 st'rs (t-#4) but lose CAA OPOY QB Decker. They avoid JMU and VU in conf play and host both UD & Towson but do have to play ODU on the road. Still while the sked & UNH's ability to find a quality QB has us calling for a high finish, if they struggle at the key QB position they could slip, and that playoff streak would end.

4. DELAWARE - The Blue Hens came up just short of the FCS championship in '10 and then came up just short of making the playoffs LY. Despite 3 straight wins to finish the ssn 7-4 incl handing CAA Champ Towson its only conf loss they sat home for the playoff. The Hens were surprisingly -34.9 ypg in conf play, which was 4th worst. Even more surprising is that beside a 4 pt loss to URI and a 5 pt win over Towson all of their other conf gms were decided by 10+ pts. TY they have 14 ret st'rs (t-#4) incl 2nd Tm CAA RB Pierce, ret 11 of their top 13 tkl'rs and add some FBS transfers but do ret just 1 starter on the OL. They do not get to play GSU and must face both UNH & ODU on the road but do not face an FBS tm, avoid JMU and host Towson, Maine and Villanova. While the Hens will challenge for the CAA Crown we will call for them to come up short of that but they should return to playoffs TY.

4. OLD DOMINION - HC Wilder had the Monarchs ready for the tougher CAA sked. After losing their conf opener to UD they went 6-1 in CAA play with the only other loss to CAA Champ Towson by 4. They were +46.6 ypg (#4) in conf play less than a yd behind #3 Towson. They made the playoffs in just their 3rd ssn but after defeating MEAC Champ #19 NSU in the opening round they became the first of 2 CAA tms that Georgia Southern sent home. While ODU is ineligible for the CAA crown and will officially finish with a 0-0 conf rec (moving up to CUSA) they are still eligible for an at-large playoff bid. TY ODU ret's 15 st'rs which is the 3rd most in the conf led by QB Heinicke who had an amazing 25-1 ratio LY. While they do not get to play URI they avoid Maine and get to host both UNH and Delaware. However, they must face Towson and JMU on the road which will likely keep them from capturing the unofficial CAA Title, but they have a solid shot at their 2nd straight playoffs.

6. MAINE -The Black Bears were off a disappointing 4-7 ssn. With 16 st'rs back LY they started 7-1 incl wins over 3 ranked CAA foes (only loss was to Pitt). Maine was ranked #7 but was upset by eventual CAA Champ #14 Towson. They had a shot at a share of the CAA crown but lost at UNH. The Bears still earned their 1st playoff berth s/'08 also getting an opening round bye. They beat #9 App St but lost to #3 GSU. While UM was 6-2 in conf play 3 wins were by 6 pts or less and their +20 ypg (5th) in conf play, were the lowest 5 of the CAA's 5 playoff tms. TY they ret just 13 st'rs, (t-#7), lose a 1,000 yd rusher along with 5 of their top 7 tkl'rs and are very inexp'd at QB (2 pass att) as they lose a 2nd Tm CAA QB. The Bears avoid both ODU and UR TY and while they host UNH that is the week after B2B road trips to UD and Towson. That 3 gm gauntlet will determine Maine's playoff hopes but this looks to be a rebuilding year.

7. WILLIAM & MARY - The Tribe looked primed for a run at the CAA Title LY with 12 ret st'rs from '10. They also got back two '09 st'rs who had missed the ssn and after an injury plagued ssn were even more exp'd than their numbers indicated. W&M would again be hurt by inj's and inconsistent QB play as 3 QB's started LY. They were still 2-2 in conf play and off the upset of #6 UNH but lost their next 3 and only got by Richmond (0-7 in conf) by 2 in the finale and finished a disappointing 5-6. They were -2.8 ypg (7th) in conf play finishing 3-5 and while 3 of those conf losses were by 6 pt or less, 2 of their conf wins were by 4 pt or less. TY looks to be a rebuilding year as they ret just 11 st'rs which is 3rd fewest in the CAA and must replace their car leading rusher Jonathan Grimes (4x all-CAA). They don't get to play either URI or Villanova and face Towson, JMU, UNH and ODU all on the road giving them one of the toughest CAA sked TY. Still they host GSU, Maine and UR, which should allow them to finish in the middle of the pack again this year.

7. VILLANOVA - The Wildcats were off of 5 straight winning seasons incl an FCS Championship in '09. They had flirted with moving up to the Big East but hesitated and the offer was tabled. They started the '11 ssn ranked #14, which had much to do with their past accomplishments as they ret'd just 8 st'rs and were clearly in a rebuilding ssn. VU fell fast opening 0-3 before holding on to beat Penn. They were 1-8 when they benefitted from UMass's mistakes (+5 TO) for their only conf win. That kept them out of the CAA cellar despite being a conf worst -107.5 ypg (40 yds worse then #10) and a conf worst -13.7 ppg in CAA play as only 1 of their 7 conf losses was by less than 10. TY VU ret's a CAA high 20 st'rs, avoids both UNH and W&M, host both URI and UR but do have to play at GSU. They close the ssn facing Towson, JMU and Delaware which likely keeps them in the middle of the CAA pack.

9. RICHMOND - The Spiders came into LY ranked #16 despite coming off a 6-5 ssn with just 13 st'rs back. They then lost their 2nd yr HC as he resigned 10 days prior to the ssn. The team rallied together and upset Duke and after a 3-0 start were ranked #5. They then lost all 8 conf gms and while 4 were by 3 pts or less they were still -10.1 ppg (2nd worst) in conf play. They were also -67.5 ypg in conf play was 2nd worst but actually 40 yds better than Villanova who finished ahead of them in the standings. TY UR brings in Liberty HC Danny Rocco, and while he brings his own OC, he retained LY's OC/interim HC Lineburg as asst HC and also kept 3 yr DC Trott. So despite a new HC and a new off, there will be less turmoil than you normally see with a HC change and after LY's preseason turmoil, things should be smoother TY. The bad news is UR ret's just 14 st'rs but they do get some FBS trans. They avoid both Towson and Maine while playing both GSU and URI but they do have to face an improved VU on the road. While UR will likely miss the playoffs for a 3rd str ssn they will have a shot at their 7th winning ssn in the L/8 yrs.

10. RHODE ISLAND - This will be Rhode Island's last ssn in the CAA as next year they move to the NEC. Since the NEC offers fewer scholarships than the CAA, URI has been reducing their number and LY was probably their last chance to make a statement as they had to bid farewell to 18 Sr's at the end of the ssn. The Rams did upset 2 ranked CAA tms LY(#16 UD & #19 W&M) and came close in 3 others. However, after going 4-4 in CAA play in '10 the Rams were just 2-6 LY as they were -48.6 ypg (#9) and -6.5 ppg (#9) in CAA play. After ret 14 st'rs in '11 URI ret's just 9 TY (fewest CAA). They do get to host CAA newcomer GSU which could be their best shot at a conf win but they have to face both teams they finished in front of LY (VU & RU) on the road. While HC Trainer will have his team playing hard once again, this will be a tough final go around in the CAA as they lack the depth of a normal CAA team.

11. GEORGIA STATE - GSU joins the CAA TY but is ineligible for the crown and will officially finish with a 0-0 conf as they will be moving up to the Sun Belt next year. The Panthers played their 1st ssn of football in 2010 going 6-5 against a fairly weak sked except for their finale vs Alabama. LY they struggled going 3-8 incl losses to both UTSA and St Francis in OT as well as being upset by Div II West Alabama. In their 1 gm vs a CAA tm they lost 40-17 to ODU being outgained 408-291. The Panthers return just 9 st'rs TY and they lose 35% of their lettermen (24). While they host both teams that finished at the bottom of the CAA LY, Richmond had 4 net close losses in CAA play and Villanova returns a conf best 20 st'rs. GSU must also face URI on the road but does avoid both Towson & Delaware. Still this will be a tough 1 time trip through the CAA and the Panthers look to be headed for a 2nd straight losing season.

HARVARD CRIMSON

Tim Murphy (Career 152-104-1)
19th Year at Harvard (120-59)
Cambridge, Massachusetts Enrollment: 20,699

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Collier Winters threw for 1,861 (57%) with a 15-7 ratio in '09. After being named the Ivy's preseason Off POY in '10 Winters tore his abductor muscle and DNP in the first 5 gms. Another injury placed #3 QB Colton Chapple into the starting lineup for 3 gms before Winters returned, albeit at less than 100%. Crimson QB's combined to throw for 1,883 (57%) with just a 12-12 ratio. Last year Winters started the opening day loss to Holy Cross but inj'd a hamstring late and missed the next 4 gms. Chapple became the first Harvard QB to throw for at least 4 td's in back-to-back games with 4 vs Cornell on 414 yd (#2 all-time) and tying the school record with 5 vs Bucknell (Carroll Lowenstein, '53). Winters returned vs Princeton where he tied and joined the 5 td club while throwing for 403 yd while Ivy pass efficiency leader Chapple had 0 att in the L/5. The offense's 26 td's broke the school's all-time single season td pass record (21 in '03) and the QB's combined to throw for 2,556 (65%) with a 26-7 ratio. Winters (1594, school record 69%, 13-4) now moves on leaving the job firmly in Chapple's grasp with Michael Pruneau and Conner Hempel battling it out for the back up job. This position is the epitome of how Harvard reloads rather than rebuilds under Tim Murphy.

RB's - Treavor Scales, the Ivy's Rookie of the Year in '09, was the team's #2 rusher his first 2 seasons behind 2010 league MVP Gino Gordon. Scales became the #1 guy as a junior last year running for a career best 816 yd (4.8) with 8 td earning 2nd tm Ivy honors for the 3rd straight season. The #2 job fell to freshman Zach Boden (484, 6.1) who earned the league's Rookie of the Week award twice vs Lafayette and Dartmouth when he was 1 of a school record 3 Crimson runners to amass at least 100 yds in a blizzard. Scales and Boden both return making this the conference's best 1-2 punch.

Rec's - The Crimson ret'd just 2 of their top 7 receivers in 2011 but got back Chris Lorditch (545, 18.2 in '09) who missed most of 2010 due to a knee injury. Lorditch led the team in receiving yds (545, 15.6). TE's Kyle Juszczyk and Cameron Brate make the offense go with their versatility in the pass game and their ability to open running lanes for the tailbacks. They also make reliable targets in the redzone with both having 7 td rec LY. Both earned Ivy and All American recognition and should do so again in 2012. With Lorditch (10st) departing along with Alex Sarkisian (9st, 435, 13.2) and Adam Chrissis (1st, 201, 12.6) the WR jobs were open in the spring with speedy return specialist Seitu Smith and #1 returning receiver WR Matt Brown (113, 16.1) at the top of the depth chart. Even without 3 of their top 5 receivers, this group is more experienced than LY.

O-Line - Despite having just 1 returning OL st'r in 2010 Harvard's rush numbers were their best s/'04 avg 198 ypg (4.7) while allowing 16 sks (5.5%). Three starters departed LY and their replacements were lightly tested. The rushing fell to 180 ypg (4.2) and the sks allowed increased to 21 (6.9%). This year 1st tm Ivy LT Kevin Murphy (2 yr st'r) departs but 4 starters return including 2nd tm Ivy C Jack Holuba and RT Will Whitman who started all 10 gms as a true frosh. With their most experienced line in some time, don't expect the rush numbers to decline.

D-Line - Despite the presence of AA DT Josue Ortiz the Crimson allowed 105 rush ypg (3.0) in 2010, the 2nd time in the previous 3 years they'd allowed over 100 ypg on the ground. Improved numbers vs the run were expected LY and Harvard led the league (#6 FCS) allowing just 90 ypg (3.0). Despite constant double teams Ortiz was dominant, leading the league in sacks (10) while being named the Ivy's Defensive POY. This year they lose their star DT Ortiz (10st, #7 tkl) but plenty of talent remains from a unit which played a deep rotation.

LB's - The last time Harvard allowed over 20 ppg came in 2005 proving that this unit is annually among the league's best. LY they welcomed back 4 players but starting exp and 3 were among the D's top 4 tkl'rs while starting SLB Blaise Deal was KO'd for the season in the opener due to inj. Alex Gedeon was 2nd in the league in tkl with 92. The ppg dipped from 18.7 to 17.1 (#1 Ivy, #5 FCS). This year Gedeon (10st, #1 tkl'r) and Deal (1st, 7 tkl) are gone but the LB's jobs should be filled by 3 seniors in Joshua Boyd (#2 tkl'r), Alex Norman (t-#4 tkl'r) and Bobby Schneider (t-#4 tkl'r). Expect the streak of allowing less than 20 ppg to continue.

DB's - For the 2nd year in a row Harvard welcomed back 2 st'rs to the secondary and their pass eff D improved from #23 (204, 56%, 12-13) to #21 (232, 57%, 9-14). This year 1st tm Ivy CB Matthew Hanson (10st, #6 tkl'r, 10 pbu) and FS Dan Minamide (9st, #8 tkl'r) depart leaving CB Brian Owusu (#3 tkl'r) as the leader. This unit should continue to be among the FCS's best.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After ranking #115 FCS in net P in 2010 (27.2), Jacob Dombrowski improved to a 37.2 net ranking #14 LY. Frosh KR Seitu Smith avg'd a terrific 29.9 (#4 FCS). K David Mothander hit 6-8 FG L/42. The return units allowed 18.3 on KR and a stellar 3.5 on PR with the Crimson finishing #9 overall in our ST rankings. With everyone back, this remains one of the league's best ST's units.

COACHES - HC Tim Murphy is back for his 19th season after being a finalist for the 2011 Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year. Murphy is the only Ivy HC to lead his team to 7+ wins in 11 straight years. While OC Joel Lamb (6th year) and DC Scott Larkee (4th) return, the big offseason news was rival Yale's hiring of 4 Crimson assistants including ST/DB cch Tony Reno as their new HC.

Overview - The Crimson have had 11 straight winning seasons under HC Murphy and are 31-4 in Ivy play s/ '07. 2011 began inauspiciously however with an opening day 30-22 loss to Holy Cross in which the Crusaders returned a 4Q int 97 yd for a td. QB Winters missed the next 4 gms but his replacement Chapple led the team to 4 straight wins including a key misleading 24-7 final over Brown in which the Bears were int'd in the EZ and fmbl'd at the 1. Despite record setting performances vs Cornell and Bucknell from Chapple, Winters returned to set records vs Princeton as the Crimson scored 40+ pts for 4 gms in a row for the 1st time since 1890. All told Harvard dominated league play winning all 7 gms by double digits (20.6 ppg) and wrapping up the crown with a 37-20 win over Penn before the final week of the season for the first time in program history. They finished the season ranked (#16) for the first time since '08 (#15).

PENN QUAKERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2010 Billy Ragone's ability to run the option won him the QB job for the last 8 games. He was elected 1st tm Ivy throwing for 834 yd (57%) with a 6-5 ratio and was the team's #2 rusher with 548 yd (6.3) and 7 td. Last year Ragone and backup Florida St transfer Ryan Becker, who started the first 2 games of 2010, both returned. Behind an OL with 4 new st'rs Ragone struggled at times tossing 3 int and passing for just 32 yd in a shutout loss in a rain storm at Brown which snapped the Quakers' 18 game Ivy win streak. He did lead 4Q comeback wins vs Dartmouth, Columbia and Yale and was the league's only QB to finish in the top 10 in rushing (424, 4.0) and top 5 in passing and pass efficiency hitting 1,860 yd (57%) with an 11-11 ratio including 4 pick sixes. With a more experienced supporting cast Ragone should have his best season yet.

RB's - Penn had their top 8 rushers back in 2010 and sophomore Brandon Colavita emerged to lead the squad in rushing with 728 yd (5.8) and 12 td. Last year the top 5 rushers were back and big things were expected of Colavita who won the offseason Iron Quaker Award as the team's strongest player (570 squat). Colavita again led the way but with 665 yd (4.6) and just 4 td as he missed 1 gm (Fordham) and wasn't the same down the stretch with 163 yd (3.3) in the last 4 gms after rushing for 156 vs Yale. Colavita again returns along with his backups #3 rusher Jeff Jack (165, 3.3), #4 rusher Lyle Marsh (89, 4.0) and #5 rusher FB Greg Schuster (74, 3.5). All told the top 6 rushers are back and expect Colavita to get back to 2010's form.

Rec's - In 011 the leading returning WR Conner Scott who had just 10 rec as a freshman, DNP due to injury. Ryan Calvert, who had 6 career rec's coming in, emerged to lead the way with 641 (11.1), the most rec yds by a Quaker s/'06. His 58 rec were the most here s/'04 including 11 rec vs Harvard. The #2 receiver was Ryan Mitchell (587, 15.1) while Joe Holder returned from an injury in 2010 to finish #3 (251, 12.6). 1st tm Ivy WR Calvert (10st) and HM Ivy TE Luke Nawrocki (10st, 192, 9.6) now depart but Aaron Bailey (349 all purpose yd in '10) returns along with Scott. Watch out for freshman Cameron Countryman (PS#255) who turned down several PAC 12 schools and Mitchell looks ready to break out.

O-Line - The line was the key to Penn's offensive success in 2010 as 4 st'rs returned to form a unit which paved the way for a league leading 242 rush ypg (5.1) while allowing an FCS low 6 sacks (2.8%). Last year the Quakers had to replace 4 starters incl 2 three year starters who were both 1st tm Ivy. Their numbers slipped dramatically to 146 ypg (3.9) with 14 sacks allowed (4.5%). This year top OL 1st tm Ivy LT/LG Greg Van Roten (10st, 3 yr st'r) departs but 4 st'rs return including HM Ivy RT Joe Bonadies. Expect another bump in the numbers with a more experienced front wall.

D-Line - The Quakers had dominated the buttoned up offenses of the Ivy up front by using the '50' defense and cramming 7 or 8 men in the box. As a result they've led the conservative league in rush D in both '09 (#2 FCS - 63 ypg, 2.1) and '10 (# 1 FCS - 72 ypg, 2.4). Last year 3 st'rs departed but '09 starter DT Jared Sholly returned. While Penn still finished 2nd in the league and #16 FCS the rush ypg ballooned to 117 (3.3) and the Quakers also moved to a more conventional 4-2-5 as teams like Cornell and Harvard opened up their pass games. This year 2nd tm Ivy DT Sholly (10st, 14 tfl) and DE Kameron Jones (6st) depart but their top player 1st tm DT Brandon Copeland returns. With 2 starters back the DL should be solid once again.

LB's - In '09 the top 2 tkl'rs were LB's as Penn finished #1 FCS allowing just 9.5 ppg. In '10 the #2 and #6 tkl'rs returned but their ppg slipped to 14.5 (#2 FCS). Last year the #1 tkl'r returned in Erik Rask and he led the squad once again with 83, the most by a Quaker s/'06. Steve Lias (6st, #7 tkl'r) and Jason Rasmussen (3st, #10 tkl'r) split the other LB duties due to injury and the ppg swelled to 25.2. This year 1st Tm Ivy LB Rask (10st) moves on along with Rasmussen. Even with their top guy gone, look for their ppg to improve.

DB's - Even though they had just 1 st'r returning to this unit in 2010 Penn allowed 199 ypg (55%) with a 10-9 ratio to finish #19 in our pass efficiency defense rankings. LY 2 st'rs were back to a unit which frequently used 5 DB's as the league offenses opened up. Their numbers were similar to 2010 until the finale when they allowed an Ivy record 548 yd and 5 td's to Cornell's Jeff Mathews. As a result the Quakers allowed 222 ypg (55%) with a 17-10 ratio to finish #57 in pass eff D. This year 2nd tm Ivy NB Matt Hamscher (9st, t-#2 tkl'r), FS Jason Schmucker (6st) and Fred Craig (5 st) depart but 3 st'rs return to what should cap an improved D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - It's surprising that Penn has been relatively mediocre on ST finishing #93 in our 2011 rankings. Their strength was in the coverage units which allowed 3.6 on PR and 16.5 on KR. Return specialist Matt Hamscher avg'd just 6.0 on PR and 16.5 on KR. True frosh PS#20 K Connor Loftus hit 9-15 FG with a long of 44 and 2 blk's. P Scott Lopano avg'd 37.5 with a 34.6 net and 3 blk's. This year Hamscher departs but both kickers are back and perhaps 2012 will be the year that the ST take a step forward.

COACHES - Al Bagnoli is the 2nd winningest active coach in the FCS and owns the highest win percentage in Ivy history including 8 titles in his 20 years. OL coach Jon McLaughlin is in his 4th year as OC and 7th overall. DC Ray Priore has the staff's longest tenure as he enters his 26th season.

Overview - Penn came into 2011 fresh off back-to-back Ivy titles riding a 15 game conference win streak. The Quakers did have to replace a staggering 33 lettermen and ret'd just 7 starters. They got off to a 0-2 start with mistake prone losses to Lafayette and Villanova. Penn had a chance to erase 100 years of futility vs the Wildcats but 2 IR td's including a 26 yd'r with 0:12 left proved to be the difference. Penn rebounded to win their next 4 games with QB Ragone directing 4Q comebacks vs Dartmouth, Columbia and Yale to run their Ivy win streak to 18 games. The streak was stopped in a rain storm at Brown where they were shutout for the first time in 136 games s/'97. The Quakers got back on track vs Princeton but struggled keeping up with the league's 2 highest powered offenses falling behind Harvard 37-7 and losing to Cornell at home ending a 10 game Ivy home winning streak in Philadelphia.

BROWN BEARS

Phil Estes (Career 85-54)
15th Year at Brown (85-54)
Providence, Rhode Island   Enrollment: 8,649

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Kyle Newhall-Caballero (PS#99) won the QB job over 4 contenders in '09 and throw for a league best 2,709 yds (63%, 18-14) while earning 1st tm Ivy honors. Newhall-Caballero played in just 2 gms in 2010 due to injury throwing for 407 yds (63%) with 3-2 ratio. Senior Joe Springer threw for 1,625 yds (57%) with a 10-5 ratio in 8 starts in '10 while Patrick Donnelly hit 411 yds (53%) with a 1-2 ratio. Last year Newhall-Caballero was back for his 5th year and he threw for 2,356 yds (61%) with an 18-7 ratio to finish #3 in the Ivy League in total offense. He started all 10 gms throwing every pass by a Bears QB and departs as the school's #5 (5,472) passer and #3 (39) in pass td's. Nicholas Lawley and Marcus Fuller finished the spring as the top competitors to fill Newhall-Caballero's very large cleats.

RB's - In 2010 the Bears welcomed back their #1 rusher in Mark Kachmer along with their starting FB Jackson Freeman. Kachmer battled a turf toe injury all year but also had a 95 yd td run vs Yale, the fourth longest in Ivy history. John Spooney makes a nice thunder and lightning combo as he ran for 156 yds vs Cornell including an 81 yd td run. Spooney is considered the Ivy's fastest man as he won the 100 (10.61) and 200 (21.05) on the track team. Surprisingly the Bears were able to stop Penn's 18 game Ivy win streak without both Kachmer and Spooney as backup FB Cody Taulbee led the way with 49 yds. This season Kachmer and Spooney are back and should be healthier which means that this unit is one of the league's finest.

Rec's - For years Brown has been known as the Ivy's "WR U" so despite losing 2 WR's to NFL training camps in '10 the Bears reloaded the position with 6'4" Alex Tounkara-Kone finishing #2 in the conference in rec's and ypg. Last year their top 3 receivers were back but the numbers were spread more evenly with Tounkara-Kone leading the way once again in receiving yds while former basketball player Tellef Lundevall led in receptions. This year 2nd tm Ivy WR Tounkara-Kone (10 st), WR Jimmy Saros (9 st, #3 rec), WR Jonah Fay (1st) and TE Nicholas Faber (8 st) all depart. While Lundevall remains one of the league's best, he will be working with a new QB.

O-Line - Brown had just 2 returning st'rs to this unit in 2010 when they needed to replace 3 All Ivy players. Their rush ypg fell to 123 (3.7) while the sacks allowed also fell to 10 (2.7%). Two starters returned LY but there was a slight uptick in the rush numbers as they avg'd 127 ypg (4.0) with 13 sks allowed (3.5%). In 2012 2nd tm Ivy C Jack Geiger (10 st, 2 yr st'r), RG Luke Landers (10 st, 2Y st'r) and LG Evan Johnson (10 st) all moved on. Yet again 2 starters return so the numbers should stay close to the same level.

D-Line - In 2010 the Bears lost all 4 DL st'rs including DT David Howard (#7 DC) and the rush numbers swelled to 130 ypg (3.7) although the sacks increased to 23. Last season 2 st'rs returned including Ivy tfl leader Clayton McGrath. DT Joseph Rettig and McGrath were one of the league's best tandems but surprisingly the numbers stayed about the same (132, 3.6, 21 sks). This year 2nd tm Ivy DE McGrath (9st, 15 tfl), 1st tm Ivy DT Joseph Rettig (10 st, 10.5 tfl) and DE Luke Miller (1 st) all depart. Two starters are back including DT Ross Walthall who is considered one of the conference's strongest players. With the same level of experience back, look for similar results.

LB's - Brown's unique 4-4-3 D has produced many All Ivy LB's as the defense relies on their production. In 2010 3 str's departed and the ppg allowed increased from 19.7 to 21.0. Last year all 4 st'rs were gone (#2, t-#3, t-#3 and #7 tkl'rs) although Robert Gillett ('09 st'r) returned after missing '10 due to injury. LB's were the top 3 tkl'rs and the scoring D fell to 18.6. This year all 4 st'rs depart again in 1st tm Ivy ILB Brett Wyman (10st, #3 tkl'r), 2nd tm Ivy OLB Daniel Smithwick (7st, #1 tkl'r), HM Ivy ILB Matthew O'Donnell (10st, #2 tkl'r), OLB Robert Gillett (9st, #8 tkl'r) and OLB Sam McGrath (1st, #13 tkl'r). This unit is even less experienced than LY and the ppg will likely increase.

DB's - HC Estes called CB AJ Cruz one of the Ivy's best players prior to the 2010 season and BU went from last in the league in pass D to first allowing 180 ypg (54%) with 7-12 ratio to finish #8 in the FCS pass efficiency D rankings. In 2011 all 3 st'rs returned including Cruz and 2010's #1 tkl'r S Stephen Peyton. With a less experienced D the numbers fell a little to 184 ypg (59%) with a 10-12 ratio for a #26 finish. This season 1st tm Ivy S Peyton (10st, #4 tkl'r) moves on along with CB Mel Farr (2st). Cruz returns with a rare opportunity to become a four time All Ivy player and he should earn some All American attention as well.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2010 freshman Alexander Norocea took control of the K job hitting 15-21 FG with a long of 45. With much fewer opportunities LY he hit just 7 of 13 with a long of 42. First tm Ivy P Nathan Lovett averaged a league best 40.8 with his 37.3 net finishing #9 FCS. The coverage units were strong allowing just 1.9 on PR's and 19.0 on KR's. While the PR's must improve (3.4), Cruz finished as the FCS's #3 KR (31.2). A new P must be found but Cruz and Norocea are back from a unit which finished #27 in our ST rankings LY.

COACHES - Phil Estes is back for his 15th year and remains the Ivy's most underrated coach winning 3 titles in his tenure ('99, '05 & '08) from a school which had won only one in the previous 42 years. DC Michael Kelleher returns for his 12th year while OC Frank Sheehan is back for his 7th season.

Overview - In the opener Brown rallied to take a 21-20 lead with 3:06 left and then Stony Brook missed a 55 yd FG attempt with 0:56 left. The Bears were int'd in the EZ and fmbl'd at the 1 in a 24-7 loss at Harvard. QB Newhall-Caballero threw 3 int's as Brown had a 20-19 FD edge. After a 35-21 win over Rhode Island was aided by 5 Rams TO's, Newhall-Caballero led a 99/11pl scoring march hitting a td pass with 3:04 left for a 20-13 win over Holy Cross. The Bears D got their first shut out s/'90 in a 34-0 win over Princeton. After Newhall-Caballero out dueled Cornell's QB Jeff Matthews, the D got its second straight home shut out for the first time s/'85 over Penn which ended the Quakers' 18 game Ivy win streak. Brown stretched their win streak to 6 gms by beating Yale (led 34-14 with 6:00 left). The Bears were upset by Dartmouth (21-16 despite 346-276 yd edge) and in the finale lost 35-28 in 2OT to winless Columbia despite 27-14 FD and 386-241 yd edges as TO's (-4) and a goal line stop on 4 & goal at the 1 gave the Lions the win.

CORNELL BIG RED

Kent Austin (Career 7-13)
3rd Year at Cornell (7-13)
Ithaca, New York — Enrollment: 20,633

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After earning the Ivy's Rookie of the Year in HC's Austin's first season after throwing for 1,723 (55%) with a 7-7 ratio, the expectations were high for Jeff Mathews' sophomore campaign. Mathews didn't disappoint as he blossomed to lead the conference in passing setting a new Ivy standard throwing for 3,412 yds (68%) with a 25-11 ratio. He set several school records en route to winning the Bushnell Cup as Ivy's Offensive MVP. He compiled two of the top 3 passing performances in conference history including a record setting 548 yd in the win at Penn. Since Mathews took nearly every QB snap in 2011, there's little experience behind him with senior Chris Amrhein playing in 2 gms in 3 seasons (5 career att). Many league records are likely to fall with Mathews only heading into his junior year.

RB's - Such an emphasis was placed on the pass game LY that Cornell's top rusher from 2010 Grant Gellatly was moved from RB to WR during the season in 2011. His rushing numbers declined from an Ivy freshmen best 437 yd (4.6) to 260 (4.3). Hybrid TE Ryan Houska actually led the Big Red in rushing with 404 yd (4.3). Houska (10st) now departs leaving the RB job up for grabs between Ahmad Avery (101, 3.7) and Dustin Dillard (27, 6.8). This position isn't a priority of the offense but the versatile Houska will be missed.

Rec's - Mathews wasn't the only record setting member of the offense as the trio of Shane Savage, Luke Tasker and Kurt Ondash became the first in CU history with 50 or more receptions. Savage set school records for receptions, receiving yds and receiving td's while earning 1st tm Ivy and 3rd tm All American honors. In an effort to use his speed in the open field RB Grant Gellatly was moved to WR and he finished as the #4 receiver. Lucas Shapiro has good size (6'5" 204) and speed and may be the unit's next breakout star. TE/RB Ryan Houska (#5 rec) is gone but everyone else is back from the Ivy's best receiving corps.

O-Line - In Austin's first season the OL returned just 2 starters and struggled adapting to the new scheme allowing an FCS worst 49 sacks (15.2%) and averaging just 76 rush ypg (2.4). LY once again 2 starters returned and in the second year of the schemes the pass blocking greatly improved to 30 sacks allowed (8%) while the run game remained an afterthought (68 ypg, 2.5). This year the Big Red have their most experienced OL in some time as 4 st'rs return and 6 have starting experience overall. This should be the best OL in Austin's tenure.

D-Line - In 2010 the injury ravaged DL saw 11 different players start a game. The result was the FCS's second worst rush D which allowed 246 rush ypg (5.8) with 12 sks. LY 4 st'rs returned as 2010's #1 tkl'r MLB Zach Imhoff moved to DE and wound up leading the Ivy League in tfl including 8.5 sks. Their rush numbers improved to 179 ypg (4.3) with 19 sacks. This year Imhoff (10st, HM Ivy) departs but everyone else returns to a unit which should continue to improve.

LB's - In 2010 two LB st'rs returned but they switched schemes from a 3-3-5 to a 4-3 and despite LB's being the top 3 tkl'rs they allowed 27.4 ppg. Last year they returned just 1 st'r to this unit as #1 tkl'r Imhoff moved to DE. Brandon Lainhart led the team in tackles with the other starters finishing #4 and #7. The ppg allowed slipped to 28.7 as the Big Red was involved in several shootouts as they allowed 33 pts or more in 6 of their 7 conference games (2-4 in those contests). This year MLB Lainhart (10st) graduates but the 2 other starters are back with a new scheme that was simplified in the spring. Look for the LB's to take a step up in 2012.

DB's - In Austin's debut season in 2010 the secondary was rarely tested thanks to one of the FCS's worst run D. The Big Red finished #29 in the FCS in pass efficiency defense (191 ypg, 53%, 12-10 ratio). With 2 st'rs returning to the secondary LY CU moved TB Nick Tandy to CB. After CB DeMarr Moulton was knocked out for the season in the 3rd game of the year Tandy took over the job. Despite being just 5'8" 182 Rashad Campbell finished #2 on the squad in tkls and led the team in int earning 2nd tm Ivy plaudits. UCLA transfer Josh Barut took over the FS job while freshman Andrew Nelson made the last 7 starts at SS. The secondary was tested more often with the improvement up front and finished #66 in pass efficiency D allowing 228 ypg (58%) with a 16-12 ratio. Despite the loss of their star Campbell (10st) the secondary played well at times with the numbers inflated by 2 games of allowing over 400 yds vs Harvard and Columbia. Expect the secondary to pick up where they left off LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY the Big Red had the luxury of one of the Ivy's most reliable K's in Brad Greenway who hit 13-15 FG with a long of 47. He also acted as the P avg a poor 34.3 with a team net of 30.7. Rashad Campbell finished 1st tm Ivy as a KR with a 24.9 avg and becoming the first Cornell player to have 2 KR td's in a season. Luke Tasker averaged just 4.9 on PR while the coverage units allowed 19.2 on KR's and 6.9 on PR's. CU finished #19 in our ST rankings LY but now must replace their 2 stars in Greenway and Campbell.

COACHES - Kent Austin was Saskatchewan's HC in 2007 when the Roughriders won the Grey Cup. He was Ole Miss's OC in '08-'09 before coming to Ithaca. OC Jeff Fela returns for his 3rd year after setting numerous school and Ivy records in 2011. Safeties coach Kim Dameron was promoted to share the DC duties with veteran Ron McCrone. Dameron was previously the S's cch at Ole Miss with Austin and was the DC at ULM ('05-'07).

Overview - Since 2000 Cornell has had just one winning season ('05) and went just 2-8 finish in 2010 in Austin's debut. The Big Red were outgained by 156 ypg and outscored by 12 ppg in his first year so there was a lot of ground to make up on the rest of the Ivy. The team got off to a 2-1 start with wins over Bucknell and Wagner when they lost 3 straight shootouts and it looked like Cornell was still a step behind the pack. The Big Red righted the ship with their second straight win over Princeton thanks in part to Tigers mistakes as they had the yard edge (309-303) but committed the game's only 3 TO's. After losing 33-24 to Dartmouth and allowing Nick Schwieger a school record 257 rush yds, Cornell finished the season strongly by burying Columbia and Penn by a combined 110-79 ending a 4 gm series skid to the Quakers as QB Mathews threw for an Ivy record 548 yds and 5 td. Now with 18 st'rs back in Austin's 3rd yr should make some noise in the Ivy.

YALE BULLDOGS

1st Year at Yale (0-0)
New Haven, Connecticut — Enrollment: 11,666

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2010 Nebraska transfer Patrick Witt (PS#60) led the Ivy in passing with 2216 yds (60%) with a 12-12 ratio. With a 379 yd, 3 td performance vs Princeton in 2011 Witt set nearly every school career passing record. After throwing for 2,368 yds (62%) with a 17-14 ratio as a senior he departs as Yale's all time pass leader (6,033 yds). After throwing for 3 td in the spring game John Whitelaw appears to have sewn up the job. He is the only Bulldog QB with game experience and has a strong arm with good mobility. Derrick Russell or a new HC Reno recruit could be the backup. While Witt was a rare talent, he threw more int (37) in the last 3 years than any Ivy QB. It'll be interesting to see how Whitelaw's performance compares in 2012.

RB's - Alex Thomas and Mordecai Cargill have been the Bulldogs top 2 rushers for the past three years. Thomas led the team each of those seasons with increased production (286 '09, 710 '10, 732 '11) despite getting injured while running for a career high 204 yds vs Penn and missing 2 gms as a senior. With Thomas out Cargill ran for 230 yds on 42 carries in a snow storm vs Columbia for the 4th best performance in school history. After being the #3 rusher as a freshman Deon Randall moved to a hybrid WR/RB role to get on the field. He led the Bulldogs in rec's and once again finished as the #3 rusher. This year Thomas (3st) graduates with Cargill being the go-to guy. Speedy sophomore Wynston Bouknight and Javi Sosa are the backups. While Thomas will be missed, Cargill is one of the league's best runners.

Rec's - Two of the top 3 receivers returned in '11 and the staff upgraded the talent by adding in RB Deon Randall. Randall's presence allowed #1 returning receiver Gio Christodoulou to concentrate on PR. Despite missing several games due to injury Chris Smith led the team earning 2nd tm Ivy honors. The speedy Randall led in receptions with 48. This year their top 7 receivers are back with Christodoulou (1st) graduating and TE Beau Palin (3st) being moved to DE in the spring. Smith is one of the Ivy's best all around players and this unit is loaded.

O-Line - Four OL starters returned in '10 and the Bulldogs avg'd 124 rush ypg (3.5) while allowing 18 sacks (4.7%). LY 3 starters returned along with 7 players with starting experience. The rush numbers were their best s/'07 avg 143 ypg (4.1) with 17 sacks allowed (5.3%). This year 2 starters depart in 2nd tm Ivy RG Gabriel Fernandez (10st, 3 yr st'r) and LG Colin Kruger (9st, 2 yr st'r). Three starters return once again as well as LT Wes Gavin (4st) who missed most of 2011 due to injury. This has the makings of a quality OL.

D-Line - All 3 DL st'rs returned in '10 with the Bulldogs moving to a 4 man front. Yale finished #9 FCS rush D allowing 103 ypg (3.0) with 20 sks. Last season 3 multiyear st'rs departed and as expected the run D slipped to 151 ypg (4.4) with 17 sks. The unit has been wiped out due to graduation once again with 2nd tm Ivy DT Jake Stoller (10st), DT Reed Spiller (10 st), DE Cliff Foreman (9 st), DE Matt Battaglia (5 st) and DE Austin Pulsipher (2 st) all departing. Only 4 career starts returned until TE Beau Palin was moved into the group which moved back to a 3 man front in the spring. This is the team's biggest question mark.

LB's - The Eli's lost 3 LB st'rs (#1, #2 & #9 tkl'rs) with another moving to DE in 2010 when they moved from a 3-4 to a 4-3. As a result the ppg allowed went from 16.6 to 21.1. LB's did finish as the team's top 3 tkl'rs with only one (#3) departing LY. The LB's were the top 2 tkl'rs but with a weaker DL in front of them it was not surprising that the ppg increased to 26.2. This year two time 1st tm Ivy LB Jordan Haynes (10 st, #1 tkl'r) will be missed. Two starters are back (#2 & #7 tkl'rs) along with Wes Moyer being granted an extra year of eligibility. With a switch back to a 3-4 ex-DE EJ Conway is competing with Ryan Falbo (1st) for one OLB job. Will McHale (2nd tm Ivy) is the team captain and despite the loss of their star their numbers should improve with a move back to the 3-4.

DB's - This has been a quality unit for years and with 3.5 str's back in 2010 Yale finished #33 in pass eff D (207 ypg, 55%, 12-10 ratio). With 2 starters back LY and with a less exp'd front 7 the Bulldogs allowed 225 ypg (60%) with a 19-7 ratio to finish #44. This year 2nd tm Ivy CB Drew Baldwin (10st, 8 pbu), FS Geoff Dunham (10st, #3 tkl'r) and CB Dawson Halliday (6st) depart. SS Nick Oklano is the only full-time starter back but 3 others ret with starting experience. Despite the loss of 2.5 starters this is still a fine secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Bulldogs finished #64 in our ST rankings in 2011 mostly due to their return units as PR Gio Christodoulou (10.0) and KR Chris Smith (24.0) remained among the league's best. The coverage units were strong as PR's were held to 1.5 (#1 FCS) and KR 17.4 (#12 FCS). K Phillippe Panico hit 8 of 13 FG's with a long of 39 but just 25-31 PAT. P Kyle Cazzetta avg'd 35.2 with a 34.4 net as a freshman. Christodoulou now departs with a school record in PR yards but every one else is back to what should be a stronger unit.

COACHES - Tom Williams finished with a 16-14 record in 3 years before resigning after the season in a resume scandal. New HC Tony Reno was previously the DB cch in New Haven before moving over to Harvard as DB cch/STC ('09-'11). He immediately spiced up the rivalry by hiring 3 members of the Crimson's staff. OC Kevin Morris was the HC at UMass from '09-'11 and served as OC there from '04-'08. Rick Flanders moves back to the DC role he held from '97-'08 with his scoring D ranking #1 FCS in '07 and '08.

Overview - After wins over Georgetown and Cornell, Yale was manhandled 37-7 at Lehigh with the Mountain Hawks having 23-10 FD and 475-203 yd edges. Yale had a 269-55 yd rush edge over the league's returning MVP Nick Schweiger in a 30-0 shut out of Dartmouth. An early 4Q td bomb cut Lafayette's lead to 21-19 but Yale would get no closer as the Bulldogs failed to recover the ensuing on-side kick. Panico missed a 22 yd FG and a Thomas run was SOD at the Lafayette 24. Yale led Penn 20-10 going into the 4Q when the wheels fell off as they Quakers scored 27 pts in the final 13 mins. With #1 rusher Thomas out Mordecai Cargill ran for 230 yd and 2 td in a win in a blizzard at Columbia that the Bulldogs led 16-0 with 9:00 left. Four TO's, a blk'd FG and a missed FG cost the Bulldogs in a 34-28 loss to Brown. After their 3rd straight win over Princeton, Yale was flattened 45-7 in The Game, their 5th straight loss to Harvard and 10th in the last 11 years.

PRINCETON TIGERS

Bob Surace (Career 2-18)
3rd Year at Princeton (2-18)

Princeton, New Jersey — Enrollment: 7,592

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - HC Bob Surace inherited QB Tommy Wornham who was #12 FCS in passing in the first 5 gms of 2010 before suffering a season ending shoulder injury. The Tigers no huddle limped down the stretch scoring just 42 pts in the final 4 gms. Wornham returned in 2011 but had a disappointing senior season ranking last among Ivy QB's in pass eff throwing for 1,277 yd (51%) with a 6-9 ratio in a run heavy offense. After Wornham's final home game Surace went to Quinn Epperly (first Tigers freshmen QB to start s/'00) vs Dartmouth where he was named the Ivy Rookie of the Week. With Wornham (9st) gone, the QB race in the spring was between the mobile Epperly and the strong armed Connor Michelsen. The race could change however as UCF decommit Kedric Bostic, who was compared to Tony Romo by Surace, enters the fray in the fall. Princeton was #118 FCS pass eff (154 ypg, 50%, 6-14 ratio) so there's nowhere to go but up.

RB's - Jordan Culbreath finished his eligibility in 2010 as the team's leading rusher with 384 yd (5.3) in a career truncated by his struggle with aplastic anemia. The Tiger's leading returning rusher for 2011 had just 131 yd. After seizing the starting job Chuck Dibilio ran for 815 yd in league play becoming the first true frosh to run for 1,000 yds in Ivy history. The Ivy Rookie of the Year suffered a stroke in January however and while he's working his way back there are major questions on whether he will be medically cleared. Akil Sharp is considered the team's fastest player but don't discount freshmen "Thunder and Lightning" duo of Dre' Nelson and DiAndre Atwater. While there is talent on hand, Dibilio's cloudy future leaves this position in flux.

Rec's - The Tigers had their top 6 rec's return in Surace's first season in 2010 and were the only Ivy team to have 2 players with 50+ rec's in Trey Peacock and Andrew Kerr. LY the top 3 departed and top deep threat Connor Kelley tore his ACL in the opener. Shane Wilkinson and true frosh Matt Costello led the way while Mark Hayes had 11 of the 13 rec's by Tigers TE's. TY Isaac Serwanga (7st, 256) leaves but everyone else is back and watch out for Seth DeValve who was the spring game MVP with 250 yds receiving. The receiving corps has gone from a question mark to the offense's most deeply talented unit.

O-Line - In Surace's first year the OL returned just 1 st'r and the rush numbers fell to 120 ypg (3.4) with 18 sks allowed (4.7%) in a new offense. LY PU had 4 st'rs back, 7 OL with starting experience and were in the offense's 2nd year so a bump in the numbers was expected. The Tigers went from 2nd to last in the conference in rushing to leading the league avg 202 ypg (4.5) with 15 sks (4.9%). This year RT Kevin DeMaio (10st, 2 yr st'r), 2nd tm Ivy LG Matt Allen (10st, 2 yr st'r) and RG Mike Muha (6st) all depart. Since Max Coale started the final 4 gms at RG in 2011, 2.5 starters return including C Joe Goss. With less experience up front, their rush numbers may dip.

D-Line - The Tigers were plagued by inj's up front in 2010 with their best DL, DT Caraun Reid suffering a leg inj in the opener and sitting out the rest of the season. PU allowed a horrendous 224 rush ypg (4.9) with just 12 sks. Three full-time starters and Reid returned LY and the Tigers had one of the FCS's most improved rush D's allowing just 126 ypg (3.4) with 18 sks. Two Tigers DL (Reid and DE Mike Catapano) earned All Ivy honors for the first time s/'03. Both return this year with Catapano turning down grad transfer offers from Miami (FL) and Maryland. Although they lose 1 starter again in DE Dan Fitzsimmons (11st, #10 tkl'r), both of their stars are back giving the Tigers their best DL in years.

LB's - Princeton lost their leading tkl'r from '08 and '09, MLB Steven Cody in the 2010 opener for the season which left them without their #1, #4 and #7 tkl'rs. Their ppg mushroomed from 21.4 to '08 to 26.5 in '09 to 33.4 in '10. LY Cody returned along with their #2 and #3 tkl'rs in Andrew Starks and Tim Kingsbury. Thanks to secondary woes, the ppg only improved to 32.5. This year 2nd tm Ivy MLB Cody (11st, #3 tkl'r) is gone but #1 tkl'r Starks and #8 tkl'r Kingsbury are back for their senior seasons. Look for the ppg allowed to shrink with an improved back seven.

DB's - The Tigers have struggled in the secondary for years highlighted by a #102 pass efficiency D finish in 2010 (218, 64%, 20-9). Three starters returned LY to a more exp'd unit but the Tigers allowed 271 ypg (71%) with a horrible 24-3 ratio for a #119 pass eff finish. Surace made this unit the priority of the offseason with 8 recruits joining the squad in the fall while RB Brian Mills was moved to CB in the spring. Two full-time starters return and FS Phillip Bhaya should be healthier after being limited by injury all of last season.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Princeton had everyone back to this unit LY and it was the squad's best unit finishing #28 in our rankings. 1st tm Ivy K Patrick Jacob led the league hitting 15-18 FG. P's Joe Cloud and Otavio Fleury improved the team net from 34.1 in '10 to 35.5. Ivan Charbonneau (21.2) and Matt Costello (6.0) were the top KR and PR. The Tigers blocked a superb 8 kicks including 3 by DT Reid. This year only Cloud, Costello and Reid return meaning a rebuilding job is in order.

COACHES - Bob Surace spent 9 years as an assistant with the Cincinnati Bengals before returning to his alma mater in 2010. The Ivy's all-time leading passer James Perry enters his 3rd year as OC while former Temple assistant Jared Backus is in his 3rd year as DC.

Overview - After Princeton's second winless Ivy campaign in Bob Surace's first season in 2010, improvement was expected in his second season as his recruits filed in and his systems were fully installed. After back-to-back losses to open the season PU ended its school record 10 gm losing streak with a 24-21 win over Columbia in the Ivy opener. After a close 28-23 loss to Hampton in which the Tigers scored 1 td in seven trips inside the 20 and were SOD on their final possession at the 16 with 1:26 left. PU lost their next 5 Ivy contests by a combined 184-79 margin as the secondary was shredded on a weekly basis. Surace played more freshmen as the season wore on with 6 starting on offense in the season finale 24-17 loss at Dartmouth. The Tigers finished tied for 7th place and 1-9 for the second year in a row as much progress still needs to be made to catch up to the league's powers.

DARTMOUTH BIG GREEN

Buddy Teevens (Career 80-149-2)
13th Year at Dartmouth (46-72-2)
Hanover, New Hampshire Enrollment: 6,141

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After splitting the job in his first 2 years Conner Kempe threw all but 3 passes in 2010 throwing for 1,647 yds (54%) with an 8-12 ratio. Kempe was suspended in the spring of 2011 but began the year as the starter. He struggled however and was benched after throwing 2 int vs Penn. Andy Gay hit just 3-11 for 14 yd in a shutout loss to Yale before being relieved by Kempe. Dan Rooney got the call vs Holy Cross hitting just 1-6 for 10 yd with 1 int before Kempe reclaimed the job. New Hampshire transfer Alex Park also got a look in the blowouts vs Columbia and Harvard. Dartmouth finished last in the league in passing with Kempe avg 119 ypg (55%) with a 9-5 ratio. Kempe (8st) departs as the school's #3 all time passer along with Rooney (1st). Park was the clear cut #1 QB out of spring and despite his inexperience their numbers should improve as the Mean Green moves more to a pass based attack.

RB's - Nick Schwieger established himself among the elite players in Dartmouth history with a strong Senior season in 2011 in which he led the conference in rushing with 1,310 yds (5.4). Schwieger led the team in rushing for a 3rd straight season, was named 1st team All Ivy for the 3rd year in a row (just 5th player in Dartmouth history) and became the school's all time leading rusher by nearly 900 yds finishing his career with 3,150 yds. Schwieger set the school record with 257 rush yds vs Cornell, one of 8 gms in which he ran for at least 100 yds. Dominick Pierre has run for 744 yd (5.0) with 8 td in his first 2 seasons which is actually 37 yds ahead of Schwieger's pace. Wildcat QB Greg Patton could be the backup if healthy, but it wouldn't be surprising if a younger player filled the role. Pierre is a quality back but he has big shoes to fill.

Rec's - The top 2 rec's were expected to return in 2011 in 1st tm Ivy WR Tim McManus (528, 13.9) and Michael Reilly who avg'd a league high 23.9 ypc in 2010. Reilly sat out the season with academic issues while McManus suffered a concussion in the 3rd game vs Penn which ended his career. With little experience available two freshmen WR's led the team in receiving in Bo Patterson and Kirby Schoenthaler. Their most experienced receiver TE John Gallagher finished #3 (209, 9.1) and was named 1st tm Ivy but now moves on (10 st). McManus (3st) departs as the school's #3 all time receiver while his brother Ryan should play a larger role as a sophomore after missing most of LY due to a concussion well. Reilly also returns to what should be an improved receiving corps.

O-Line - Four OL starters returned in 2010 and the Mean Green avg'd 166 rush ypg (4.3) with 7 sks allowed (2.7%). Four starters were expected to return again LY but RG Patrick Lahey (2 hip surgeries) sat out the year. The line was stellar once again paving the way for 189 ypg (4.8) with just 9 sacks allowed (3.6%). This year 3 decorated multiyear starters graduate in 2nd tm Ivy C Austen Fletcher (10st, 4 yr st'r), 1st tm Ivy LG Ryan O'Neill (9st, 3 yr st'r) and 2nd tm Ivy LT Kyle Cook (10st, 3 yr st'r). Lahey now returns but to Dartmouth's least experienced OL in the last 3 years. Expect their rush numbers to go down and the sacks to increase.

D-Line - The DL returned 7 players with starting experience including all 4 starters in '10 and they had their best rush D in years allowing 143 ypg (3.7) with 28 sks. All 4 starters were back again LY but the D surprisingly took a step back with their 197 ypg (4.9) and 11 sks both ranking last in the Ivy. This year all 4 starters depart in DE Matt Oh (10 st), top sacker 1st tm Ivy DT Eddie Smith (10 st), DE Connor Phillips (10 st) and NG Royce Egeolu (10 st). All 4 projected starters have experience but there is little behind them. This group is a work in progress.

LB's - LB's finished as the Mean Green's top 3 tkl'rs in '09 aasnd they allowed 28.2 ppg. The top 5 LB's returned in '10 and they finished as 4 of the top 6 tkl'rs as Dartmouth allowed 21.2 ppg, their best s/'04. LY one starter departed (#2 tkl'r) and LB's were 2 of the top 3 tkl'rs with the ppg remaining steady at 21.9. TY SLB Luke Hussey (10 st, #3 tkl'r) departs but HM Ivy WLB Bronson Green (#2 tkl'r) and MLB Michael Runger (#9 tkl'r) are back. With an entirely new DL in front of them expect the ppg to increase.

DB's - Three DB st'rs were expected to be back in '10 but CB JB Andreassi missed most of the year due to an injury. As a result they allowed 224 ypg (62%) with a 12-12 ratio but finished #44 in pass eff D. LY all 4 starters were back but FS Garrett Waggoner and CB Chase Womack missed most of the year. This unit remained the strength of the D as they allowed just 180 ypg (63%) with a 7-12 ratio which was #22 in pass D. Attrition is heavy TY as 1st tm Ivy CB Shawn Abuhoff (10 st), 2nd tm Ivy SS Casey (10 st, #1 tkl'r), Andreassi (9 st) and FS Anthony DiBlasi (8 st) depart. While Waggoner and Womack are nice building blocks, another top 25 finish looks doubtful.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After an amazing '10 season in which Shawn Abuhoff avg'd 17.2 on PR with 3 td and 26.4 on KR, his numbers fell to 10.1 on PR with 1 td and 22.6 on KR. K Foley Schmidt hit 11-14 FG with a long of 46. P Daniel Barstein's avg (37.4) and net (31.4) both decreased. The coverage units allowed an alarming 11.2 on PR and 21.9 on KR accounting for their #102 ST finish. TY Abuhoff and Schmidt move on but the coverage units will be the key to improvement.

COACHES - Buddy Teevens is now in his 8th year of his 2nd tenure as Dartmouth's HC. He has also been the HC at Maine, Tulane and Stanford. DC Don Dobes enters his 3rd year while OC Keith Clark returns for his 2nd year (4th overall) breaking the streak of 3 different OC's from '09-'11.

Overview - Thanks to a pivotal blk'd P which set up a short td drive Dartmouth won the opener 37-20 over a Colgate team minus AA RB Nate Eachus as Nick Schwieger ran for 175 yds. Sacred Heart hit a 22 yd FG with 1:00 left and Dartmouth had their own 53 yd att fall short after a holding penalty negated a 12 yd pass completion in a 24-21 loss. The first night game in Memorial Field history was a thrilling 22-20 loss to Penn as QB Ragone engineered an 89/13pl drive which ended on a td pass with 0:13 left. The Mean Green played QB roulette the next 2 games which resulted in a 4 gm losing streak with meek losses to Yale (first shutout s'06) and Holy Cross (outgained 522-224). QB Kempe returned to the starting lineup in a 37-0 shutout of a Columbia team without their top weapon, QB Brackett. After being blown out at Harvard, Dartmouth finished the season in style with a 3 gm win streak buoyed by Schwieger's school record 257 yds vs Cornell.

COLUMBIA LIONS

Pete Mangurian (Career 16-14)

Manhattan, New York — Enrollment: 22,920

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Sean Brackett earned 1st tm Ivy honors leading the league in pass eff and total offense as a sophomore in 2010. He also finished as the team's #1 rusher (516, 3.6). LY Brackett battled injury throughout the season incl missing the Dartmouth game. With only 1 receiver who had more than 100 yd receiving in 2010 available Brackett struggled until the final 2 gms when he threw for 409 yd in a loss to Cornell and accounted for all 5 of the Lions td's in a double OT win over Brown. Jerry Bell made the 2nd start of his career vs Dartmouth hitting just 5-20 for 36 yd with 2 int. This year Bell moves on while the backup duties could fall to Mangurian recruit Trevor McDonagh. Brackett will once again be the offense's focal point and he should remain healthier.

RB's - CU has gone with a RB-by-committee approach for the past several seasons and QB Brackett actually led the squad in rushing the past 2 years. The leading RB rusher had just 350 yd in '10 and 232 yd (2.8) in '11. This year the top 4 rushers all return with Mangurian singling out Marcorus Garrett for his play in the spring. The Lions need to get more production from this position to keep Brackett healthy.

Rec's - In 2010 Andrew Kennedy emerged as the Ivy's top TE leading the Lions with 616 (12.3) and 9 td. He departed LY along with the #2 rec but the Lions welcomed back Mike Stephens ('09's #4 rec) who was injured and OFY in '10's opener along with #3 receiver Kurt Williams. Williams had the best game by a Columbia receiver in years with 12 rec, 191 yd and 3 td vs Cornell. As a result he led the squad with an injury plagued Stephens finishing #2. TE Hamilton Garner earned HM Ivy honors. This year Williams (10st) and Stephens (5st) move on with Garner (#3) and WR Louis DiNovo (#4) being the top returning starters. Look out for UTSA transfer Jake Wanamaker who had 7 rec LY as a rFr and Mangurian said that the WR position will be the most effected by the freshman class. This is a group in transition.

O-Line - The Lions had 2 st'rs returning up front but thanks to Brackett's mobility still ran for 152 ypg (4.0) with 28 sks (9.1%). Last season 3 st'rs were back including All Ivy LT Jeff Adams. Only 1 OL (C Bob Hauschildt) started all 10 games at the same position. There were 6 different starting lineups and although the unit's star Adams became the first Lion to be named All Ivy for 3 consecutive seasons since '94-'96, he missed the last 3 games due to injury. Their numbers plummeted to 98 ypg (2.9) with a league worst 30 sacks allowed (8.5%). This year 3rd tm AA LT Adams (7st, 3 yr st'r), C Hauschildt (10st, 2 yr st'r) and OG Kyle Stupi (7st) depart leaving 2 starters once again. Mangurian expressed disappointment in this unit in the spring and freshmen could be in line for some early playing time.

D-Line - In 2010 the Lions returned 2 st'rs to this unit and while the rush D improved slightly to 153 ypg (4.0), the sacks dropped to 15. Two starters returned once again LY and the scheme changed from a 4-3 to a 3-4 to get more speed on the field. The D's top player Josh Martin moved from DE to OLB in the transition. While the sacks increased to 21 thanks to Martin's team best 7, the run D allowed 165 (3.9). This year DE Ben Popeck (8st) departs but Martin is back in the fold as the scheme switches back to a 4-3. While just 2 st'rs return there is good depth and talent in this unit which welcomes back its star.

LB's - CU lost 1 st'r to this unit in 2010 who was their #2 tkl'r but welcomed back 4 with starting experience who were their #4, #6, #8 and #13 tkl'rs. 1st tm Ivy LB Alex Gross led the league in tkl's and the D allowed 22.8 ppg. LY they lost Gross (#1 tkl'r) along with their #6 and #8 tkl'rs. Four players returned who had 14 career starts and they moved DE Martin into the unit as they moved to a 3-4. Only 1 LB (Martin) finished among the team's top 4 tkl'rs and the ppg swelled to a league worst 32.8. This year ILB Nick Mistretta (10 st, #9 tkl'r) and ILB Evan Miller (1st, t-#11 tkl'r) graduate and Martin moves back to DE. Two st'rs return and 4 with starting exp who were their #5, #6, #7 and #8 tkl'rs. This will be the Ivy's most improved LB corps.

DB's - The Lions essentially had 2.5 st'rs returning to the secondary in 2010 and they allowed 205 ypg (61%) with an 11-7 ratio to finish #62 in pass D eff. LY they had to replace 3 st'rs including a 1st tm Ivy CB. Only 1 player (SS Neil Schuster) started every game and the jumbled lineup allowed 250 ypg (68%) with a 21-7 ratio to finish #109. This season the team's Def MVP SS Schuster (10st, #1 tkl'r), FS Maddox (9st, t-#3) and CB Ross Morand (8st, t-#3) all depart leaving the Lions in search of 3 new starters yet again. WR's Ian Cummins and Augie Braddock were moved into the secondary and Mangurian said the freshmen class will figure prominently on another rebuilding unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY both the K and P returned to this unit but a new return specialist needed to be found. Frosh Alec Fisher led the tm in KR (18.9) and PR (4.5). K Luke Eddy hit 6-9 FG with a long of 48 as a freshman but suffered a sophomore slump hitting 2-5 with a long of 35. Greg Guttas (37.2 avg, 34.6 net '10) lost the P job to Paul Delaney who avg'd just 35.6 with a 32.9 team net. CU finished #108 in our ST rankings and a new emphasis on ST with the new staff can only improve with everyone back.

COACHES - After their 6th 1-9 season s/ '89 Norries Wilson was let go with a career 17-43 record. Pete Mangurian now comes aboard after spending the last decade coaching in the NFL including being the OC of the Falcons in '02-'03. He has Ivy experience as Cornell's HC from '98-'00 compiling a 16-14 record. The OC is Jaime Elizondo who was the OC/QB coach with CFL's Toronto Argonauts in '10-'11. The DC is Kevin Lempa who was the DC at Hawaii ('00-'02) and Dartmouth ('91-'96).

Overview - The Lions led 7-0 and were driving for more on Fordham's 2 yd line when QB Brackett's pass was int'd as returned 100 yds for a td. CU finished with a 312-297 yd edge in the 21-14 loss. Thanks to +3 TO margin Albany turned a 21-14 HT margin to a 44-21 win. CU lost their Ivy opener 24-21 to a Princeton team they'd beaten by a combined 80-14 in '09-'10 as PU had a 421-275 yd edge. Columbia blew a 13-6 late 2Q lead vs Sacred Heart in a 34-25 loss. CU put together its best effort vs Penn by tying the game at 20 with 1:31 left when Quakers QB Ragone led a 56/5pl td drive with 0:25 left in a 27-20 loss. Minus Brackett the Lions were mauled 37-0 at Dartmouth. In a freak October snow storm CU rallied from a 16-0 4Q deficit but Brackett was int'd with 0:58 left. Harvard and Cornell scored 28 and 27 unanswered pts in their wins respectively before the Lions pulled off the biggest upset of the Ivy season with a double OT win over 2nd place Brown in which they stopped the Bears on 4th and goal at the 1 on the final play.

PHIL'S 2012 IVY LEAGUE FORECAST

1. HARVARD - The Crimson have by far the Ivy's best record the last 8 years. In '07 they went undefeated in conf action and their +135.5 ypg was almost 90 yards better than #2. In 2008 they ret'd 15 starters and again finished #1 with +94.9 ypg but shared the title with a 6-1 record. They ret'd only 12 starters in '09 and in the matchup of undefeated teams lost 17-7 to Penn giving them a 2nd place finish as they were also #2 with +115.1 ypg. In '10 with only 10 starters back we called for a 2nd place finish and that is exactly where they ended up but their +65.3 ypg (#3) was outside the top 2 for the first time in 5 years. LY despite only having 10 ret'g starters we called for them to win the Ivy as they had an advantageous schedule. The Crimson would simply dominate their way to a perfect 7-0 record outscoring their league foes by an avg of 20.6 ppg and their +131.7 ypg was 55.1 ypg more than #2 Brown. This year they return 14 st'rs (most S/'08) including the best 1-2 punch in the Ivy at RB and 4 of their top 5 tkl'rs. Despite 4 Ivy AG's which include Brown and Penn, the Crimson have proven to be the cream of the crop in the Ivy and the rest of the league still has a ways to catch up.

2. PENN – HC Al Bagnoli has 20 years under his belt at Penn with only ONE losing season. In 2007 they went 4-6 incl 3-4 in Ivy action but still outgained conf opp by 37.3 ypg. The Quakers ret'd only 8 st'rs in '08 but only lost 2 conf games (by 10 ttl pts) while finishing #2 at +80.4 ypg. In '09-10 they were dominating as they ret'd 13 starters both seasons finishing a perfect 14-0 outgaining opponents by +125.6 ypg in '09 and 99.0 ypg in '10. LY they ret'd only 7 st'rs while also having to play 4 conf road games. Penn also had 3 net close wins and had a def ypp of 18.7 and an off ypp of 13.3 in '10. We called for the Quakers to drop in the standings and they did just that falling to 4-3 and actually were -11.6 ypg (#4). This year they are much more exp'd with 14 ret'g st'rs (most in L/7 yrs) and the Ivy League Title could be there for the taking in their L/2 gms vs Harvard and at Cornell.

3. BROWN - With only 10 st'rs back in '07 the Bears moved up to 3rd place with a 4-3 record although they were -72.5 ypg (7th). They had 14 st'rs back in '08 and improved again finishing as co-champs (+68.5 ypg, 3rd). In 2009 they again only had 10 st'rs and while they went 4-3 they actually improved to +75.4 ypg. The 2010 season was impressive as they had just 6 st'rs back incl only 2 on defense. They went 5-2 finishing tied for 2nd while improving for a 4th straight season going +86.3 ypg (2nd). LY they only had 3 Ivy home games and while they ret'd just 10 st'rs it was 4 more than the prev yr and they again exceeded our expectations finishing in a tie for #2 at 4-3 and their +76.6 ypg was #2. This year again they are relatively inexp'd with only 8 ret st'rs (#7), lose their QB and top rec and also lose 8 of their top 9 tkl's on D. They also benefitted from +2 net close wins LY but they do have 4 Ivy League HG's incl Harvard and Cornell and HC Estes has proven to be the Ivy's most underrated coach so they could surprise yet again.

3. CORNELL - The Big Red went 6-4 in 2005 which was their only winning season in the last 12 years. In both '07 and '08 they went 2-5 in Ivy League action but outgained foes in BOTH years (1.8 and 32.1 ypg). They fell back to 1-6 in 2009 with only 8 ret'g st'rs and finished last at -126.9 ypg. They made a coaching change two yrs ago and again went 1-6 finishing last in the league at -156.4. Last year they ret'd 15 st'rs, were in the 2nd year of new systems and we called for them to climb out of the basement but they even exceeded our expectations. They finished 3-4 incl a upset over Penn in the finale and their -18.0 ypg was actually 5th in the league. This year they are the most exp'd team in the Ivy with 18 ret'g st'rs incl the Ivy's Off MVP QB Jeff Matthews and return the top 3 rec's in the Ivy! While they must travel to Brown and Harvard, they do get Yale, Princeton and Dartmouth at home and could achieve their first winning record in conf play since 2005!

5. YALE - In 2007 the Bulldogs they ret'd 15 st'rs and while they again went 6-1 in the League they fell to 2nd place. In 2008 they ret'd 14 starters and went 4-3 (#4) but were actually -26.8 ypg. The '09 season saw a new HC and with only 10 st'rs back with new schemes they fell to 2-5 but were +19.1 ypg. In the '10 magazine in the 2nd year of the new staff we said they had a great chance to finish in the top 2 which they did tying for 2nd with the 2 losses both by a td to Harvard and Penn and they improved to +63.0 ypg. They ret'd 11 st'rs LY but they did have 3 net close wins in '10. They still had a advantageous schedule and we picked them to finish 2nd in the League for a 2nd str season and again they tied for 2nd with their +39.9 ypg being #3. A resume scandal saw former HC Williams resign while new HC Tony Reno comes over from Harvard. While we like the replacements on the staff it usually takes at least two years for the players to adjust to the new schemes and we will call for the Bulldogs to fall in the standings with 4 Ivy League AG's incl Harvard, Brown and Cornell.

6. PRINCETON - The Tigers averaged four Ivy wins from '05 to '09 so we raised a few eyebrows when we picked them for the basement in '10. The 2009 season produced a 3-4 record but we pointed out they were actually -112.9 ypg in conf play which was 7th. We also wrote the defense was our main concern with just 5 starters back after allowing 400+ yds in five straight games, finishing last in 5 of the 9 defensive categories and 6th in two others (were ranked #4 in rush ypc). They would go to finish 0-7 in League action getting outscored by 17.9 ppg and outgained by 141.7 ypg. The positives were that they lost two Ivy games by a total of 5 points and also hosted Columbia and Cornell LY so while we picked them last we also wrote that they should be improved. The Tigers would finish last at 1-6 but their ypg jumped to -43.4 ypg (a 98.3 ypg improvement!). TY the Tigers return 14 st's (most in recent history) and have 4 Ivy HG's. HC Surace is now in his 3rd yr which should see even more improvement as the Tigers will win more Ivy League gms this yr than they did the past two yrs combined!

7. DARTMOUTH - The Big Green suffered through 12 straight non-winning season and from 2004-2009 never topped 3 wins. In 2007 they went 3-4 in Ivy play but were last at -84.8 ypg. With only 10 st'rs back in 2008 they not only went 0-7 in conf play but 0-10 overall. In 2009 they still only had 11 ret'g st'rs but got 2 conf wins and after being -215.7 in '08 finished -105.9 ypg (6th). In '10 with 19 st'rs back and a positive offseason we picked them for 6th and they exceeded our expectations finishing 5th with a 3-4 record and while their ypg was still 6th it was by far a recent best at -18.3 ypg. It was their first winning campaign since 1997. LY they again had 19 starters back (4 more than #2) and we picked them in a tie for 3rd. They finished in a tie for 2nd with four teams at 4-3 but their ypg actually fell to -36.6 ypg (#6). This year they are the least exp'd team in the Ivy returning just 6 st'rs but do ret their top rusher, passer and 4 of their top 5 tkl'rs. They also benefitted from +9 TO's in '11 and now have to play 4 Ivy AG's TY. Clearly this looks like a rebuilding year for the Big Green.

8. COLUMBIA - In the last 39 years Columbia has had TWO winning season with the last coming in 1996. While they went 0-7 in 2007 they were actually 6th at -50.0 ypg. They continued to be more competitive and with 15 starters back in '08 went 2-5 but were only outgained by 6.1 ypg. They finally outgained their Ivy counterparts in 2009 (+2.3 ypg, 5th) and the 15 returning starters went 3-4. In '10 they only ret'd 11 starters and while they fell back to 2-5 they actually outgained their conf opponents for a second straight season (+2.9 ypg, 5th). LY they only had 9 st'rs back but did have 2 net close losses. They got 4 home games but unfortunately they all come against the teams we ranked above them and the bottom fell out as they finished 1-6 and were -138.6 ypg which was 95.2 ypg less than the #7 team! TY the Lions welcome in a new HC along with new schemes and again are relatively inexp'd with just 10 st'rs back. They did have 3 net close losses LY and do get Dartmouth at home but they have too much ground to make up on the rest of the League.

SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BULLDOGS

Buddy Pough (Career 83-33)
11th Year at South Carolina St (83-33)
Orangeburg, South Carolina Enrollment: 4,700

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 SCSU ret'd 2nd tm MEAC QB Malcolm Long (PS#107, 2502, 65%, 20-10) and he threw for 1,875 (57.3%, 9-12) again earning 2nd tm MEAC. LY Long departed but they ret'd 2Y backup Derrick Wiley (103, 71%, 1-0) who was the #5 rusher (142, 5.1) in '10. Wiley started the F/5 but suffered a knee inj vs Norfolk St and he would play in just 2 others and threw for 727 (50.4%, 6-3) and was the #4 rusher (285, 3.4). RFr Richard Cue started the L/6 throwing for 900 (54.4%, 7-6) and was the #2 rusher (514, 5.8, 8 td). Both ret along with Derrick's brother TeDarrius Wiley (2-2-25, 1 td) giving them a deep and exp'd unit.

RB's - The Bulldogs lost MEAC OPOY William Ford (1032, 5.3) and #2 Travil Jamison (357, 3.8) in '10. While the unit improved their numbers were more distributed as they were led by Chris Massey (639, 5.2) and Asheton Jordan (622, 5.8) who had trans from The Citadel. LY they lost Massey but ret'd 4 of their top 5 rushers incl Jordan, #3 Chris Merrill (377, 4.7) and #4 FB Devin Wherry (363, 6.8). Jordan (7 st) led with 774 (5.6) and was 2nd tm MEAC. Jalen Simmons (4 st) was #3 (304, 4.3) and Merrill was #5 (86, 3.9). All 3 ret but FB Wherry (6 st, 54, 4.2) was nursing an injury in spg and is questionable. This unit still has more depth than LY's unit.

Rec's - SCSU lost 4 of its top 6 rec in '10 incl their top 3 who comb for 165 rec and 1,885 rec yds incl #1 Oliver Young (995, 15.3). The unit was led by possession rec 1st tm MEAC Lennel Elmore (595, 12.4). LY they lost Elmore (inelig) and #5 rec Richard Christie (154, 8.1). They ret'd #2 rec Tyler McDonald (333, 10.1) and #3 Thomas Williams (250, 13.2) along with Caleb Davis (76, 8.4) and TE's 1st tm MEAC Antwanne Kerr (2 st, 189, 14.5) and DeWain Clark (7 st, 4 rec). McDonald led with 573 (14.0), while Davis was #2 with 467 (13.0) and Williams was #3 with 208 (12.2). TY all 3 ret as well as Elmore giving them depth at WR but they lose both TE's in Kerr (7 st, 34, 8.5) and Clark (4 st, 61, 12.2) leaving a big gap to fill at that position.

O-Line - The OL ret'd all 5 st'rs in '10 and improved from 148 (4.1) to 184 (4.6) rush ypg but their sks all'd rose from 12 (3.4%) to 14 (4.3%). LY they lost 4 st'rs incl the MEAC OL POY Josh Harrison as well as Johnny Culbreath (#7DC DET). The unit did ret 2 yr st'r RG Juavahr Nathan (10 st) and OG Sam Hammond (5 st) and actually put up similar number avg 191 ypg (4.5) while allowing 12 sk (4.5%). TY they lose RT Nathan (11 st) but ret 5 OL who comb for 44 sts LY incl three 11 gm starters in LG Hammond, C Tristan Bellamy and LT Domanic Wilson. This is a solid unit and should see improved numbers across the board.

D-Line - The DL ret'd 2 of their 4 st'rs in '10 and still improved from all'g 98 (2.6) to 91 (2.3) ypg while the D led the MEAC with 40 sks! LY they had to replace 1 st'r in 2nd tm MEAC DE Jayson Ayers (40 tkl, 8 tfl). They ret'd 2nd tm MEAC DE Pat Washington (42 tkl, 9 tfl, 8 sk), NG Ronell Ferguson (10 st, 24 tkl, 3.5 tfl, 4 sk) and DT Malcolm Reed (8 tkl, 2.5 tfl) while moving in LB's Leon Smith (3 st) and James Fulwood (6 st LB, 2 st DE, 18 tkl) moved over from LB. Surprisingly they all'd 134 rush ypg (3.2) their most s/'05 while the D had just 26 sk, their fewest s/'06. TY they lose 1st tm MEAC DE Washington (#9 tkl'r, 7 sk) and NG Ferguson (#10, 8 tfl) while DE Alex Glover (4 st, 16 tkl) moves to LB. They ret DE Fulwood (15 tkl, 3 sk), DE Curtis Hill (19 tkl), DE Andrew Carter (14 tkl), DT Smith (16 tkl) and DT Reed (9 tkl,) who started the F/5 before inj. With the loss of their top 2 DL this unit may be down a step but has plenty of depth.

LB's - After all'g 19.6 ppg in '07 SCSU improved their ppg all'd for 3 str yrs to 17.0 in '08, to 15.6 in '09 and to 15.3 ppg in '10. In '10 they ret'd 3 st'rs led by their top 2 tklr's in ILB David Erby (82 tkl, 4sk) and OLB Julius Wilkerson (82, 4.5 sk). LY they lost MEAC DPOY Erby (#1 tkl'r, 6 sk, 8.5 tfl) and OLB Wilkerson (#3). They ret'd 2nd tm MEAC MLB Donovan Richard (#2 tkl'r, 6 sk) but also got back Devonne Quattlebaum who DNP in '10 (48 tkl, 5 tfl '09). They switched from a 4-2-5 to a 3-4 but struggled allowing 18.5 ppg. TY they lose 1st tm MEAC MLB Richard (#1 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl, 2 int), DOG Quattlebaum (#8, 9 tfl) and BUCK La'Taris Douglas (#5, 4 sk). They ret WLB Joe Thomas (#2 tkl'r, 5 tfl, 3 int) and DOG Cortney Ingram (3 st, #6, 6 tfl) while moving in DE Glover but will likely see their ppg climb once again.

DB's - The secondary lost all of their st'rs in '10 incl Phillip Adams (#7DC SF). Surprisingly they finished #2 in pass eff D all'g a 5-17 ratio. They were led by the duo of 2nd tm MEAC DB's in FS Dominique Ellis (52 tkl, 4 pd) and CB Semaj Moody (22 tkl, 6 pd). LY they ret'd 3 st'rs incl FS Ellis, SS Christian Thompson (46 tkl, 8 pd) and CB Yari King (24 tkl) along with Mason Harris (15 tkl, 3 pd). While they all'd a 12-17 ratio they were still #10 in pass eff D. TY they lose 1st tm MEAC SS Ellis (#4 tkl'r, 2 int) and 2nd tm MEAC FS Thompson (#3, 2 int). They ret 5 DB's who comb for 23 sts incl CB's Darius Drummond (#7 tkl'r, 2 int), Steven Murphy (#11, 7 pd), Harris (23 tkl) and King (11 tkl). With just 2 ret st'rs in front of them this unit will drop some.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite losing a 2nd tm MEAC RM in '10, SCSU was #4 in out ST rankings as K/P Blake Erickson earned B2B 1st tm MEAC honors. Erickson ret'd LY but they again lost their top RM. Erickson handled all the kicking duties and while he avg 38.1 ypp he hit just 13-22 FG and they fell to our #53. TY they lose Erickson but get back their top RM and could improve.

COACHES - HC Buddy Pough has led the Bulldogs to 10 straight winning ssns as he enters his 11th ssn here. OC Kevin Magouirk is back for his 5th year and will also coach the QB's while DC Mike Adams is back for his 7th year and will also cch the LB's.

Overview - The Bulldogs were off 3 straight playoff appearances but had just 11 st'rs back LY. They only trailed 14-6 at the half at Central Michigan. SCSU trailed #25 B-CU 18-12 in the 4Q but 2 td in :46 (55 yd IR) gave them an 8 pt win. They trailed Indiana 24-7 at the half. SCSU blew by DSU 69-0. They trailed NSU 17-7 into the 4Q but only lost by 3. SCSU trailed NCCU 38-35 in the 4Q but won by 11. They trailed GSU 13-10 in the 3Q but scored the final 13. SCSU led FAMU 24-13 into the 4Q but all'd the GW td with 2:31 left. They led Howard 17-0 in the 1Q and cruised to a 31-0 win. SCSU trailed NC A&T 14-3 in the 2Q but led 30-14 into the 4Q. SCSU led 17-0 in the 1Q over Savannah St but only won 20-10. While they finished with their 11th straight winning season they sat home for the playoffs. While SCSU ret 9 st'rs on Off (most in 7+ yrs) they ret just 4 st'rs on D (fewest s/ '06). TY they face 2 BCS tms in B2B weeks and if they can remain healthy should still have another winning ssn.

NORFOLK STATE SPARTANS

Pete Adrian (Career 79-73-1)
8th Year at Norfolk State (43-36)
Norfolk, Virginia — Enrollment: 7,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After setting a single ssn completion % record in '10 hitting 61.4 to go along with his 1,859 pass yds, Chris Walley ret'd LY with even more success as he threw for 2,672 yds (68.7%) with a 19-6 ratio while earning MEAC Co-OPOY honors. Walley departs TY and hoping to fill the void is former UCF trans Nico Flores who saw spot duty a yr ago earning 1 st and passing for 156 yds (52.9%). Flores will have to hold off JUCO trans Jake Basmagian who is very mobile and has good arm strength. No matter who takes over the productive reins under center, this unit will clearly drop a notch or two with the loss of their 2Y st'r.

RB's - NSU had a huge hole to fill LY with the loss of All-MEAC selection DeAngelo Branche who led the Spartans in rushing in each of his final 2 yrs incl a 1,330 yd performance in '10. Battling for carries in '11 were Takeem Hedgeman and Randy Maynes who finished the ssn with a combined 1,141 (4.6). Both return to the squad this ssn along with a pair of bkps in Brendon Riddick and Calvin Roberts who are both looking for touches. This is an improved group whose combined efforts should match '10 production.

Rec's - NSU ret'd 3 of their top 5 rec's LY incl #1 Victor Hairston who pulled in 580 yds (11.2) in '10. Hairston would go on to post similar numbers in '11 finishing 2nd on the squad with 546 (10.7) while VA Tech trans Xavier Boyce would emerge to be the #1 option with 750 (11.0) earning 1st Tm MEAC in the process. Derrick Demps was the only other player to reach the 400 yd plateau with 417 (21.9). TY the unit returns everyone except for Hairston but with a new QB taking over the offense, this group may have trouble exceeding LY's fine numbers.

O-Line - After returning 4 st'rs and seeing a rush increase in '10 to 175 ypg (4.2), the Spartans saw just one ret st'r a ssn ago and as expected, saw their numbers dip to 157 (3.9). TY the unit returns 3 st'rs led by MEAC OL POY Blake Matthews with departures being 1st Tm MEAC LT Kendall Noble to graduation and LY's starting RG Nico Washington (11 st) who moves over to the DL. The group returns 37 sts to the unit from a yr ago and accompanied by an improved RB corps which will be leaned on a bit more with the departure of LY's starting QB, expected improvement in their overall rushing statistics should be in the offing.

D-Line - The Spartans ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 but saw their rush ypg all'd increase from 124 ypg (3.4) to 130 ypg (3.7) while the D recorded 21 sks. LY they again ret'd 2 of their starting 3 led by starting NG Josh Turner who earned MEAC honors in each of the prior 2 ssns. Turner and fellow ret st'r Joey Christine would go on to lead the way to significant improvement by this group as they all'd a recent best of 98 ypg (2.6, #9 FCS) while the defense as a whole saw their sks increase to 36. TY the losses are heavy as they lose both Turner and Christine with Matt Grant listed as the only returning starting DL from '11. NSU is hoping that the addition of Mich St trans Cameron Jude (PS#260) will seal the other outside spot on the unit while LY's 2 gm st'r George Riddick will handle the NG position with former starting OL Nico Washington handling the primary bkp duties. While still filled with talented individuals, a slip in productivity should be on the horizon.

LB's - NSU has now held their opponents under 20 ppg in each of the past 3 ssns incl LY's impressive mark of 17.1 ppg (#4 FCS). 2012 doesn't appear to be as promising as not only does the front 3 ahead of them get weaker, but this unit loses 3 st'rs in 1st Tm MEAC and leading tkl'r Corwin Hammond (12 st, 14 tfl), #2 tkl'r Onyemechi Anyaugo (11 st, 9 tfl) and #8 Hasan Craig (10 st, 38 tkl, 12.5 tfl). The group does add in Florida trans Lynden Trail (PS#41) to the mix but with the substantial losses, this group will be a few notches weaker.

DB's - The secondary has been a strength in each of the past 3 yrs for the Spartans incl '10 when they finished #18 in def pass eff all'g 154 ypg (49.8%) and just 10 td passes all yr. NSU again posted solid numbers LY all'g 178 ypg (50.7%) with an 18-10 ratio and earning #15 PDR. TY the Spartans return both of their starting CB's but do part with a pair of starting safeties in 2nd Tm MEAC DeVonte Reynolds (55 tkl, 6 pd) and Ricardo Volcin (30 tkl, 4 pd). NSU is hoping that UCF trans Marquee Williams (PS#121) will take over one of the vacated spots while the other job will be battled for between Keenan Lambert and Darrin Marrow. After 3 yrs of solid numbers, this group may see their production take a small hit in 2012.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Spartans were inexperienced heading into '10 as they lost both their K and P. LY the only loss was return man Dwight Fluker-Berry who handled both their KR's (18.2) and PR's (20.5) the yr prior. Victor Hairston would go on to handle to KR duties (21.4) while Marcus Cooperwood handled the PR's (11.4). P Troy Muenzer (36.8, 30.6 net) and 1st Tm MEAC K Ryan Estep (20-22 FG's) both returned for their 2nd yr as well. TY the losses are heavy as they lose everyone but Cooperwood. K Everett Goldberg saw minimal action LY hitting on 6-10 att (all 40+) and takes over the vacated position while the Spartans are hoping that JUCO trans Dylan Shaddix takes over at P. NSU finished with our #59 ST's ranking a yr ago but with the departures of so many of their key contributors, expect this group to fall a bit in 2012.

COACHES - Pete Adrian returns for his 8th yr with the Spartans and fresh off guiding his tm to a FCS playoff berth and earning MEAC COY in the process. Howard Feggins begins his 1st ssn as OC and 2nd with the NSU staff while Mark DeBastiani also enters his 8th ssn as the DC.

Overview - After an expected win against Div II foe Virginia St and an expected loss to WVU of the FBS, the Spartans rattled off 5 consec wins incl a 4-0 start in MEAC play (incl a 3 pt win over #22 SCSt). After a poor offensive outing that saw NSU score just 6 pts and total just 249 yds vs Bethune-Cookman (245 ypg under ssn avg), NSU would squeeze past NC A&T by 4 before knocking off Savannah St and Morgan St by a combined 92-17 to finish 7-1 in the MEAC. The Spartans were ranked #19 entering the FCS playoffs but were knocked off in round 1 by ODU 35-18. NSU has now posted winning ssns in 4 of the L/5 yrs but TY's version has some holes to fill at QB and at LB (just 5 st'rs returning on D). We'll give the Spartans another shot at a winning record but LY's 9 wins may be hard to reach.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - A pair of QB's split time in the new offense under the new staff incl Matt Johnson who threw for 838 (54%) and ran for 223 (2.5) but had a 1-7 ratio. He blossomed in '10 winning MEAC OPOY throwing for 2,053 (65%, 14-5) while leading the team in rushing with 700 (5.1). He departed leaving Jackie Wilson (371, 47%, 3-2) as the only one with experience. They added Maryland tran Jamarr Robinson (PS#208) who made 5 st there and started 4 of the first 5 and finished with 607 (56.6%, 5-6). The more mobile Wilson ret'd to the starting lineup and finished making 5 st throwing for 920 (66.4%, 5-4) while rushing for 357 (4.8). David Blackwell came here from a JC after orig signing at Iowa making 2 st throwing for 409 (57.9% 3-1) and rushing for 345 (12.8!). They lose Robinson and plan to move Blackwell to WR. While Wilson is the only QB with exp that returns, his job is not locked up as they are extremely pleased with rFr Quentin Williams (PS#131) who was FL's Mr. FB and broke all of Tim Tebow's records. They also planned to use La Tech tran Brodrick Waters (PS#89JC) at WR but his eye opening spring play at QB makes that a question. This group is loaded and has multiple options.

RB's - In 2010 the unit had to replace its top 2 rushers but ret'd their next 5. Following the QB was Isidore Jackson who had 514 (4.4). Androse Bell was #3 (426, 3.6), Andronicus Lovette (PS#256) was #4 (261, 6.7) and Johnathan Moment was #5 (257, 4.4). LY they lost their #1 (QB) and #3 and Jackson led the backs again and this time also led the team with 866 (5.9). They added a VHT in Ole Miss tran Rodney Scott (PS#39) who was #2 with 563 (5.2), the QB's were #3 and #4 while Anthony Jordan was #5 (235, 4.7). The top 5 return and this unit can hold a candle with any in the FCS.

Rec's - The top 3 and 4 of the top 5 ret'd in '10 with Jevaughn Reams leading both seasons (553, 14.9 & 714, 17.4) departing after '10. They ret'd 2 of their top 4 in '11 in Rutgers tran PS#326 Eddie Poole (#2, 550, 16.7) and Maurice Francois (#4, 249, 16.6). Francois led the team with 530 (18.3) while Poole was #2 and led in rec (41, 10.3). While they lose their #1 TY, they return their next 7 and add a slew of talent. If Waters doesn't play QB that adds a VHT, they bring Blackwell in from QB and also have a another Rutgers trans (PS#240) along with a Purdue tran (PS#236) and a true PS#174 who orig signed at WV.

O-Line - Despite losing 3 starters in '10 in the 2nd year of the off and with a mobile QB, the numbers jumped by 61 ypg but they did allow 29 sks. LY they ret'd 3 starters incl a 1st and 2nd Tm MEAC and the rushing numbers produced a recent high at 259 ypg (5.5) but the sacks were at 25 (9.4%). TY they lose 3 starters incl their 2x All-MEAC C Natiel Curry but one spot will be filled Marquell Rozier who's made 17 st the L2Y. If the 2 new JUCO's adjust quickly, the offense around them is absolutely dynamic.

D-Line - The DL lost 2 starters in both '10 and LY and after the rush numbers slipped just a touch in '10 (147, 4.1), they came back down LY (133, 3.7). They also improved on '10's sack total of 26 by grabbing 30 incl 12 from departing DE Ryan Davis who earned MEAC DPOY and 3rd Tm AA honors. While they lose 3 starters TY the returning DT's made 6 and 8 st so both are battlefield ready plus they have a UCF tran as well. At DE they'll lineup with another UCF tran who was IFS while a JUCO and 10 game starter from '10 will battle for the last opening. They continue to just reload.

LB's - With just 1 returning starter in '10 the team posted a new recent best allowing 19.0 ppg (16.6 w/out playoff gm). LY they not only ret'd intact but added a PS#91 Rutgers tran and while the numbers slipped to 20.2 ppg, they did play a BCS team for the first time ever. TY they lose a pair of starters who both earned 2nd Tm MEAC but their HT tran Al-Ghaffaar Lane (14 tkl) is now acclimated. We'll call them down a notch or two.

DB's - They ret'd 3 starters in '09 and allowed 46% comp and ret'd 3 starters again in '10. While their comp % rose to 49%, their ratio was 11-19 which put them #3 in pass eff D. LY they had to replace 3 starters and 8 different players made sts so it was quite an impressive feat that they only fell to #20 in pass eff D. TY they lose 2 starters but you already know what we're going to write and the spots will be filled by 3 newcomers in trans from Minnesota (PS#162), Cincy (PS#185) and Cent Mich (PS#408). Another Top 20 finish certainly seems to be in order.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Wildcats finished #50 in our 2010 ST's rankings. They ret'd both K's LY and after splitting FG's duties in '10 (comb 2-10, L/27), Sven Hurd went 7-13 (L/42). Kory Kowalski avg'd 35.9 with a 35.1 net getting named 2nd Tm MEAC in '10 avg'd 36.7 LY but with only a 31.6 net due to a porous PRD (#122, 16.1). Both of the return specialists couldn't quite match '10's numbers and they slipped back to #62. Everyone returns intact and we'll call for them to finish in the Top 30 TY.

COACHES - Brian Jenkins took over in 2010 and was named MEAC COY after winning his first 10 games and getting them to a playoff berth for the first time in 7Y. Prior to this job he was the RB cch at Rutgers for 1 season and at Louisiana for 7Y. They'll have a new OC for the 3rd straight year in veteran Jim Pry. Pry was Dartmouth's OC in '10 and the WR cch at Ill for 4Y with several more OC jobs incl Akron ('04-'05) and Duke ('02-'03). DC Charles "Yogi" Jones returns for his 3rd season. He spent 10Y overseas incl coaching for NFL Europe.

Overview - After a 10 win season expectations were high and they pummeled Prairie View thanks in part to being +6 in TO's. In their home opener SCSU's PR's set up 2 td's and their D scored 9 pts dropping them back to .500. B-CU went 80/6pl for a td with 2:50 left to beat Hampton and after their first ever BCS foe, got whipped by NC A&T with just 108 yds and 5 FD's. The Wildcats knocked off DIII Ft Valley and traveled to face #24 NSU holding them to 249 yds and 2 FG's. Their next 3 games were stat builders against bottom half teams and they left no question as they beat them by a combined 142-32 outgaining them 1626-807. In the finale in front of an ESPN crowd and 60,218 fans in Orlando, they got triple revenge vs FAMU with a 26-16 win. This year HC Jenkins' moto is "Back to Business" and don't be fooled by 12 returning starters as 5 of the openings will be filled by FBS transfers with more available depth.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Heading into LY the battle at QB was thought to have been against Austin Trainor and Memphis trans Tyler Bass (PS#135). While Trainor did see action starting the 1st 4 gms of the ssn, a new contender emerged in true frosh Damien Fleming who would start the final 7 gms of the ssn throwing for 1,622 yds (60.1%) and an 11-5 ratio after coming off the bench against Southern and leading FAMU to 21 pts in a come-from-behind victory. TY the position appears to be Fleming's with the departure of Trainor prior to spg. Bass (battled inj's) did not see the field at all yr and looks to be settling in as the Rattlers' #2 for the upcoming yr. With a full offseason in the books, expect progression in Fleming's game in 2012.

RB's - The Rattlers were forced to replace their top 2 rushers a yr ago incl Philip Sylvester (968, 5.7). Despite the departures, the position looked to be in good shape with the return of Lavante Page (176, 4.2), Eddie Rocker (172, 3.7) and the new addition of Purdue trans Al-Terek McBurse (PS#41). With McBurse plagued by inj's for a good portion of the ssn, Rocker would go on to lead FAMU in rushing with 524 (5.0) while Page handled the bulk of the goal line touches with 13 trips to the EZ. TY the top 5 rushers return incl a now healthy McBurse (349, 6.6). The Rattlers' RB unit should be one of the best in all of the MEAC for 2012.

Rec's - In '11 FAMU was expected to return 5 of their top 6 rec's from the yr prior but following spg, their leading rec Antonio Lawrence left the program. The Rattlers' #2 rec in '10, Kevin Elliott would go on to lead the unit with 720 (17.6) while Lenworth Lennon had (596, 13.2) and Brian Tyms (538, 14.2) rounded out the top 3. TY the losses are heavy as they lose Elliott, Tyms and Edmond Baker (164, 13.7). TE Michael Etheridge (88, 9.8) is the only member of the unit returning with a career start making the importance of an improved running game even more valuable for the upcoming ssn.

O-Line - After paving the way for 153 ypg (4.3) on the ground in '10, the FAMU OL, despite returning 4 st'rs, saw their numbers dip to a recent low of 112 ypg (3.3). TY the group loses its top 2 players in 1st Tm MEAC C Shelley Anthony (11 st, former WKU trans) and 2nd Tm MEAC RT Brandon Curry (10 st, former Marshall trans). With the departure of Curry the Rattlers are expected to slide RG Robert Hartley to the vacated RT spot while former UCF trans Steven Robinson continues to settle in at LG. With the lack of true playmakers in the rec gm and an abundance of talent in the running game, the 2012 version of the FAMU OL should see a significant increase in rushing production despite losing their top 2.

D-Line - The FAMU DL has seen their rush ypg cut in each of the L3Y incl a 144 ypg (4.1) mark of a ssn ago that incl 28 def sks. A look at TY's group gives us mixed emotions as while they lose 2 of their 3 st'rs in DE's Nicolas Hollinghead (10 st, 37 tkl, 5 sk) and Jerry Willis (11 st, 29 tkl, 8 tfl), the arsenal of talent remains with a pair of FBS transfers, Padric Scott (Stanford) and Brandon Forge (UTEP) among those who expect to start. The DL has an opportunity to improve yet again despite just 12 car sts returning to the group.

LB's - After all'g a recent best 18.4 ppg in the '10 ssn, the Rattlers saw their numbers drop a yr ago as they all'd nearly a td more (25.2) despite the return of all 4 of their st'rs. FAMU's '12 LB corp will feature 2 returning st'rs and 2 FBS transfers in Kevin Nelson (Miami, FL) and Javen Harris (UCF). Once again we'll call for the LB's to trim down of the ppg all'd as their only significant losses are John Williams (9 st, 27 tkl) and #1 tkl'r Demarius Folsom (11 st, 68 tkl).

DB's - The Rattlers have posted very impressive def passing marks in each of the past 3 ssns finishing #12 and #9 in the pass eff D rankings the L2Y. In fact, over that 3 year span FAMU has produced an opposing passer ratio of 28 td's and 44 int's! TY the secondary returns 3 st'rs to the rotation with the only losses being SS Greg Harvey (11 st, 40 tkl) and a pair of reserves in CB Jerral Stewart (5 st, 32 tkl) and FS Anthony Shutt (1 st, 50 tkl, 7 pd). The unit is led by 2x 1st Tm MEAC FS John Oye Ojo (42 tkl, 4 int) who very well could guide the Rattlers to yet another top 15 finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite the return of all the key contributors a ssn ago the Rattlers finished with our #85 ST's ranking in '11. TY they lose 4Y K Trevor Scott who connected on 47 of his 70 FG's throughout his career while earning 2nd Tm MEAC LY hitting on 13-16. Look for soph Chase Varnador to take over the position. The group does however return P Branden Holdren who earned 1st Tm MEAC honors for a 2nd straight yr in '11 posting a 40.7 avg and a 33.4 net. The KR and PR's were nothing to gloat about as they put up average numbers at best while the PR defense (12.2 avg) was a big reason for the unit's overall slide in the ratings. Despite having to replace everyone but Holdren this ssn, the Rattlers could find themselves moving up a notch or two in our rankings.

COACHES - After inheriting an FAMU program that posted a 3-8 record the ssn prior to his arrival, Joe Taylor has but together 4 consec winning ssns for the Rattlers (32-13 record). His coordinators stay the same for a 5th straight yr in OC Lawrence Kershaw and DC Earl Holmes.

Overview - After nearly getting knocked off by Div II member Fort Valley St (won by 6), the Rattlers would drop a close matchup against Hampton before getting their doors blown off by FBS foe USF by 53. FAMU would earn a victory over Southern in comeback fashion led by QB Fleming but after a solid win over Delaware St, they would drop a 1 pt battle at home against Howard. Wins in their next 4 would march their record to 7-3 before dropping their finale on the road to Bethune-Cookman. The Rattlers finished 7-4 overall and 5-3 in a very competitive MEAC but taking a look at '12 has us a bit intrigued. While the team returns just 12 st'rs, the FAMU front 7 on defense features 4 former FBS transfers while the secondary has notoriously been one the elite groups in all of the FCS. If Fleming continues to develop at QB as a sophomore and the running game chews up a good amount of the clock, this team will contend for the MEAC Title in 2012.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - They ret'd a 2nd Tm MEAC QB in '09 but he was inj'd and split starts with Syracuse tran PS#58 David Legree (803, 41%, 7-2). Legree ret'd and took over the starting role throwing for 1,679 (48%, 9-7). LY Legree only made 7 st and played in 9 gms throwing for 1,636 (61.6%, 10-4) while adding 299 (3.5) rushing. True frosh Travis Champion (PS#211) made 2 st finishing with 494 (70.4%. 4-2) while Brad Hudson (269, 49%, 3-3) started the L/2. Legree departs and was invited to the Colts TC and the top 2 out of spring were Champion and newcomer tran Najee Tyler (PS#150) who RS at Purdue and was at a JC LY. While they have to replace an HT, there's talent waiting to get on the field.

RB's - The Pirates produced a 1,000 rusher in '09 and while he departed after that season, they ret'd the next 3 rushers. Steve Robinson (510, 5.5) was the leading returnee but finished only #2 with 404 (4.8). Antwon Chisholm (PS#221) made only 3 st but finished #1 with 607 (4.6) earning MEAC ROY while the QB was #3 and Antonio McCloude was #4 (169, 4.2). They ret'd 3 of the top 4 (lost #2) LY and Chisholm led again with 796 (4.1) while also adding 192 (6.6) rec. QB Legree was #2 with Iowa St tran HB Jeremiah Schwartz (PS#106) #3 (162, 4.6) and McCloude again #4 (146, 3.2). They again return 3 of their top 4 (lose QB) and are another year more experienced while having 4 RB/HB with PS#'s of 235 or lower.

Rec's - Isiah Thomas led in rec in '09 with 550 (20.4) and finished #3 (315, 10.9). UVA tran Javaris Brown (PS#150) led the team with 639 (16.0) followed by Donte Davis (366, 13.1) and PS#118 Dyrri McCain (144, 13.1). Davis was the only one among the top 4 to not return and while Brown started all 11, his production fell to 462 (10.5). McCain stepped up and led with 673 (15.3) with Thomas finishing #2 (589, 11.3). Reginald Hicks was the 4th starter finishing #4 with 351 (10.6). TY Brown is the only one in the top 4 to return but it looks as though they'll use more of a 3 man unit utilizing their BCS tran at HB. While Brown is a nice start, they have 4 underclassmen in the 2 deep and will need someone to step up quickly.

O-Line - Hampton returned 4 starters to this unit in '10 but the numbers still slipped to 146 ypg and 3.7 ypc despite trimming the sacks to 23. LY they had to replace 3 starters incl a 1st Tm MEAC OG but with the addition of a Rutgers tran (PS#142) who started all 11 and a JUCO tran that started 9, the rush numbers held steady while improving the sacks again. TY they have to replace 1 player who made 6 st so they ret 4.5 starters plus get back a 7 gm starter from '10 that DNP LY. They haven't topped 175 ypg or 5.0 ypc the L6Y so those '05 numbers are clearly their goal.

D-Line - After having to replace just 1 of their 3 starters in '09 they lost 2 starters in '10 but the returnee was SC tran Kenrick Ellis (PS#16) and thanks to his performance the team still only allowed 3.3 ypc while the rush numbers slipped to 130 ypg and the sks fell to 17. LY they had to replace a pair of starters incl their star Ellis (#3DC NYJ) and switched to a 4-3 leaving 3 openings. They added a Maryland tran (PS#187) but the numbers dropped to157 (3.6) although they did total 24 sacks. LY 9 players started with only the Mary tran making over 8 sts and he's 1 of 3 that combined for 22 sts that will not be returning. While we'll call it 2 back, they obviously need to find several go-to-guys.

LB's - This group was to ret 2 starters in 2010 but despite a 1st Tm MEAC LB getting inj'd in the opener and OFY, they still improved to 18.4 ppg. LY they had to replace 3 starters that finished as the teams #1, #3 and #4 tacklers. They went from a 4 man unit to a 3 leaving 2 spots to fill with Delbert Tyler (#6 tkl'r '09) the lone returnee but added VT tran and VHT Lyndell Gibson (PS#55). They struggled mid-season and allowed 21.8 ppg on the year but only 9.8 ppg the L/4. They return all 3 starters (#1, #2 & #4 tklr's) and can match any unit in the conference.

DB's - This unit has put up some incredible numbers such as allowing only 45.2% completions in 2005. They ret'd 2 starters in '09 and after not allowing over 53% in over a decade, they allowed a very atypical 61%. In 2010 they again lost 2 starters after 1 moved to LB but normality returned as they shot all the way up to #3 in pass eff D. For a 3rd straight season they had to replace a pair of starters but added a UNLV tran (PS#237) and again finished #3 in the FCS in pass eff D. Watch out as this year they only lose 1 starter and add a Mich tran (PS#167) who made 3 st for the Wolves as a true, a FIU tran (PS#243) and a Temple transfer.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Many coaches say that quality DB's make for a solid ST's unit but the Pirates finished #123 in 2010. They had to replace their K and PR but there was only one way to go LY. Taurean Durham took over on FG's and hit 10-17 (L/39) which was similar to '10 (6-11, L/39). Jordan Stovall did improve by raising both his avg (37.9 - 39.4) and net (30.5 - 36.0) earning 2nd Tm MEAC. The ret's were similar but the PRD and KRD were above avg raising them to a #61 finish. With everyone returning, we'll see an upper half finish.

COACHES - Donovan Rose returns for his 4th season as HC and his 21st overall (DC). The new OC is Earnest Wilson who was the OC at Jackson St the L2Y and the RB cch at N Mex St prior. Former NFL LB and #3 DC Keith Goganious is entering his 4th season as DC.

Overview - 2010 ended on a sour note dropping 4 of the L5 but they opened LY in Chicago and overcame a 17-0 deficit and blocked a 34 yd FG on the last play to beat Ala A&M. They led wire-to-wire vs FAMU but the 6 point final does represent how the game was played. HU led 14-3 early and 34-31 in the 4Q vs ODU but after couple of close wins they suffered a close loss. They traveled for a 2nd straight wk and after all'g an 80/6pl td drive with 2:50 left, they had 4&10 at the B-CU12 and a td was reversed by instant replay in the loss. They were outgained and were -2 TO's to Princeton but the RZ D held as PU got to the HU5, 6, 10, 16 and 18 with 6 total points. They fell behind 17-0 vs NSU in windy conditions and couldn't come back and looked past a 1-5 NCCU needing OT to win. In the final 4 weeks Hampton beat 3 lower rung teams by 26 ppg and against Howard their off was shutdown and held to only 122 yds. While one of the best MEAC teams TY, they will not be part of the postseason (APR's) and coach Rose has already started to rally his team to shed off the disappointment.

NORTH CAROLINA A&T AGGIES

Rod Broadway (Career 73-29)
2nd Year at NC A&T (5-6)
Greensboro, North Carolina Enrollment: 10,881

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Aggies lost st'r Carlton Fears (971, 46%, 4-6, 191 rush) in '09 and backup Lewis Kindle (354, 52%, 2-4) was lost for the ssn due to inj (ACL). Four QB's saw time in Shelton Morgan (576, 45%, 2-5), George Hines (602, 42%, 3-6), Terence Webb, (228, 53%, 3-0) and Ricky Lewis (4 att, 64 yd), who was the #2 rusher (122, 5.1). LY Morgan and Hines both departed and Webb moved to CB. They ret'd Kindle and he started all 11 throwing for 2,020 (55.7%, 16-11) and was the #4 rusher is being used at RB and WR (150, 1.6, 5 td). While Lewis st'd 5 gms at WR and hit just 2-4-23 at QB. Lewis moved to RB, so in the spring Kindle's backups were all frosh.

RB's - In '10 the Aggies ret'd 5 of their top 5 rushers led by MEAC Rookie POY Mike Mayhew (471, 4.2). Mayhew led again but with 1,082 (4.9) and was 1st tm MEAC. LY they ret'd 4 of their top 6 rushers incl Mayhew, QB Lewis, and #3 rusher Dominique Drake (121, 3.4). They also ret'd FB's Tony Coles (17, 2.8) and Devin Moore (2 st). They were again led by MEAC co-OPOY Mayhew with 1,120 (4.8, 9 td) while Drake was #2 with 312 (4.1) and Chauncey Burgess added 64 (4.0). QB/WR Lewis was the #3 rusher with 155 (5.0) and was used at RB in the spg. Coles (33, 4.1) split time between FB (3 st) and TE (6 st) but departs. TY they ret their top 5 rushers along with FB Moore (92 rec yd) and Mayhew needs just 139 yds to become NC A&T all time leading rusher. This unit should be solid again and Mayhew was voted the MEAC pre-ssn OPOY.

Rec's - NC A&T ret'd 3 of their top 4 rec in '10 incl converted soccer plyr Wallace Miles, who led with just 494 (11.8) and #2 Larry Raper (166, 11.1). Miles led again with 508 (14.9). Torrian Warren was #2 with 302 (11.6) but Raper had just 3 rec (25, 8.3) as he saw time at RB (89, 2.3). All 3 ret'd LY but they lost #3 Eldridge Cooper (167, 8.4) and #4 TE Devon Stewart (142, 11.8, 6 td). Miles became the first Aggie rec to have over 1,000 in a ssn and also the 1st to lead the tm in rec 4 str yrs but came up 64 yds short of becoming their car leading rec. He accounted for 46% of QB Kindle's car comp incl 70 LY. While he departs along with TE/FB Coles (3 rec) they ret 7 of their top 8 rec led by Raper (410, 18.6, 7 td) and #3 Lewis (239, 15.9). The ball should be more evenly distributed TY and their is plenty of experience and depth but they will miss their record setting star.

O-Line - The Aggies ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 but RG Thomas Hearn was lost after 1 st (inj). They still improved from 127 (3.4) to 137 (3.6) rush ypg while all'g 25 sk (8.7%). LY they ret'd just 2 st'rs in C Brenton Walker and OG Alex Harper while moving in DT Nathan Isles (2 st, 8 tkl) but Hearn missed the ssn with inj. Despite having to learn a new offense they paved the way for 167 ypg (3.9) while all'g 24 sk (8.6%). TY they lose C Walker (11 st, 3 yr st'r) and 2nd tm MEAC RG Harper (10 st, 4Y st'r). They ret 4 OL who started 6+ LY and 7 w/st exp (56 sts) in RT Isles (11 st), LG William Ray Robinson (9 st), LT Armon White (8 st) and Ronald Canty (6 st). They also get back a healthy Hearn (14 car st), who was working at C in the spring. This unit should have another solid ssn in the 2nd yr of the offense.

D-Line - The DL had just 1 ret st'r in 10 and went from all'g 157 rush ypg (4.1) to 234 ypg (#114 FCS, 4.9). LY they ret'd 3 st'rs led by DT Chris Neal (#4 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl), DE Tony Mashburn (#7, 8 tfl) along with DE's Edward Hill (18 tkl) and Tyree Hearn (14 tkl). The unit made a big improvement under new DC Sam Washington as they were #7 FCS in rush D (93, 2.8) and the D increased their sk ttl from 23 to 29. TY the unit ret all 4 st'rs in DE Mashburn (#7 tkl'r, 5.5 sk), DT Brandon Young (#8, 4 sk), DE Hearn (#10) and DT Neal (#11) while adding VHT UNC trans Jared McAdoo (PS#35). This unit should have another Top 10 finish.

LB's - The LB unit ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 but they all'd a whopping 33.6 ppg which was 12.8 ppg higher than '09. LY the Aggies ret'd just 1 st'r as they lost 2x #1 tkl'r Brandon Jackson (10.5 tfl) and Jeremy Graham (#2, 11 tfl). They ret'd Ben Binder (#6 tkl'r) along with Dareon Mays (2 st, 24 tkl) and Brandon Hover (4 st, t-#8) and all'd just 22.9 ppg. TY they ret D'Vonte Grant (#1 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl) and Mays (#6, 7 tfl). They add Colorado trans Ayodeji Olatoye but Brandon Hover (#3 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl) moves to ROV. This unit is still more exp'd and should improve once again.

DB's - The secondary ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 and were led by 1st tm MEAC FS Justin Ferrell (#7 tkl'r, 6 int) and CB D'Vonte Graham (#3) but finished #78 in pass eff D all'g a 17-12 ratio despite Graham having 7 int (#2 FCS). LY they looked to ret 2 st'rs in 2nd tm MEAC Ferrell (#3 tkl'r) and Graham (14 tkl, 15 pd) but Graham missed the ssn. They moved in QB Webb and like the other D unit they improved, to #42 in pass eff D but all'd a 17-9 ratio. TY they lose 1st tm MEAC CB Ferrell (#5 tkl'r, 17 pd) but ret 3 st'rs in ROV Travis Crosby (#2 tkl'r, 10 tfl), FS Isaiah Martin (#4, 9 pd) and CB Webb (#9, 8 pd). They also ret Graham and should improve again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd all their top players in '10 and were #38 in our ST rankings with 1st tm MEAC RM Ferrell (3td) and 2nd tm MEAC P Alex Grubb (36.8). LY they lost Grubb and their top PR but plummeted to #119 as they had 5 punts blkd (29.9 net) and the tm had 0 ret td's. TY the ret both their P and K. They lose their top PR and KR Ferrell (20.2) but this unit can only improve.

COACHES - Former Grambling St HC Rod Broadway became the school's 6th HC in 9 yrs when he took over LY. He is having to deal with APR issues and had just 7 coached sessions in spg practice. Both Coor ret in OC Joe Pizzo who was the 10 yr OC at Gardner-Webb for 10Y (14 overall) and DC Sam Washington from GSU where he coached DB's.

Overview - The Aggies were off 7 str losing ssn's and brought in a new HC. They only led Virginia Union 10-0 at half but pulled away in the 2H. They were only outgained by 156 yds vs App St but lost by 52. They trailed Coastal Carolina 21-0 at half and never challenged. They shocked Morgan St 24-3 thanks to 3 blk'd FG's and RB Mayhew outrushed MSU 233-33. They outgained B-CU 330-108. They led DSU 28-0 and were 3-0 in conf play. They trailed Howard 13-0 but lost in OT. Against eventual MEAC champ NSU, they had the ball at NSU's 13 with :45 but had 3 str inc passes and lost 4. They were tied at half vs FAMU but were outscore 6-0 in the 2H. They led SCSU 14-3 in the 2Q but trailed 30-14 into the 4Q. They never trailed vs rival NCCU and gave up a meaningless td with :56 left and finished the ssn 5-6 incl 4-4 in conf play. The D finished #8 FCS in ttl D and with 10 st'rs back should be the terror of the conf and with 7 st'rs back on off the Aggies should have their 1st winning ssn s/'03.

HOWARD BISON

Gary Harrell (Career 5-6)
2nd Year at Howard (5-6)
Washington, DC — Enrollment: 10,500

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '09 the Bison started to incorporate some option into their offense and a pair of QB's split the starts in '10. Randy Liggins made 6 st throwing for 684 (45%, 3-9) while Terry Bradden threw for 705 (51%, 4-6). Liggins ret'd but they scrapped all parts of the option offense and true frosh Greg McGhee won the job and threw for 1,784 (56.7%, 13-10) and rushed for 388 (3.3) being named 2nd Tm MEAC and MEAC Rookie POY. Both return and the Bison now have a seasoned All-conf player to run their offense making them far ahead of where they were LY.

RB's - Howard's top two RB's departed after 2009 and Charles Brice (93, 1.7) was the leading returnee and he led the team in '10 with 462 (4.7). Justin Duncan was #2 (246, 3.8) while converted SS Casey Council was #3 (219, 2.7). The top 8 were all back LY but of the top 3, Brice was the only one to see the field and he couldn't crack the starting lineup and had only 85 (4.7). Terrence Lefall was the blocking FB in '10 (3 st, 107 ttl yds) but switched to TB and led the team with 893 (3.7). The QB was #2 and Andra Williams was #3 (266, 4.8). TY the top 7 return which includes FB Darrin Christy who made 10 st leading the way LY. While they return intact for basically a 2nd straight season, they are several notches ahead of LY with the upgraded talent.

Rec's - In 2010 they returned 3 of their top 4 rec's finishing #1 (630, 13.7), #3 (150, 6.2) and #4 (126, 12.6). They finished in the same order again but this time Willie Carter (#1, 563, 19.4), Daley Gunter #2 (285, 16.8) and #3 Brandon Drayton (226, 10.8) with Carter earning his second straight 2nd tm MEAC honors. LY they ret'd only 2 of the top 5 and Carter led again with 731 (12.2) this time getting 1st Tm MEAC honors followed by Drayton (304, 11.7). New Mex St tran Brandon Flanagan was #3 (214, 9.7) and Clayton Gidron was #4 (205, 10.2), TY they lose their #1, #2 and #5 leaving them less experienced and without a go-to rec for the 1st time in 3Y.

O-Line - The OL struggled as the team experimented with offenses avg 80 & 87 ypg in '08 and '09 and with 2 starters back in '10, upped the numbers to 123 ypg (2.5) but with 29 sacks. LY they ret'd 8 players with starting exp and that incl all 5 starters so while the increase was decent, it was less then we expected at 142 ypg (3.2) with 21 sks (6.5%). All 5 starters started all 11 games and it showed, especially in pass protection as they allowed 15 sks the F/6 gms and a total of 2 sacks over the L/3. TY they lose 1 starter but do return their C and OT (1st Tm MEAC). The openings will be filled by a 5 gm starter from '10 and also on the second team is a 7 gm starter from '10 making this by far the best unit since at least '06.

D-Line - The defense also experimented with changes and went to a 3-4 in 2010 meaning that with only 1 returning starter they only had to fill 2 spots. They did a yeoman's job posting a 5Y best with 117 ypg (3.6) and 23 sacks. Surprisingly despite that success they went back to the 4-3 and ret'd 3 starters. Their numbers were skewed as they played their first FBS team since '03 and by taking out the opener they allowed 111 ypg (3.1) with 30 sacks. TY they lose both multi-year starting DE's who were 1st and 2nd Tm MEAC LY. One opening clearly goes to "high energy" Markee White (1 st LY) who had 6 sks and 8 tfl LY. The unit's down from a year ago and plays a tougher schedule meaning we may see more of a struggle.

LB's - In TO=Turnaround we talk how a ssn is affected by the TO and 2010 is the perfect example. They did return just 1 starter and they allowed only 319 ypg (#28) but were -21 in TO's and allowed 37.5 ppg (#119/125) with an 8.5 D ypp. Three starters ret'd LY led by Keith Pough who led the FCS in tfl (10.5 sk, 18 tfl) and again their overall D (289 ypg, #7 FCS) was far better than their scoring D (24.8 ppg, #46). This year they lose 1 starter in Wash tran Kurt Mangum (PS#100, 7 st) and his spot will be filled by Matthew Vann (4 st LY). Our 1st Tm AA Pough returns and he's the ONLY FCS player to appear on any of the FBS Watch Lists (Butkus) and the team should approach '06's numbers.

DB's - As with the other units, the '10 numbers were poor with a pass eff D of #99. After returning 2 starters in '10 they ret'd basically intact with 9 players that had starting exp and not only did they improve, but they skyrocketed to #12 in pass eff D. TY they have to replace their starting CB's incl a 2nd Tm MEAC. Three return that split 23 st incl DeCarlos Knight (7 st LY, 7 st CB '10) who will slide back to CB and be joined by Ariz St tran Josh Jordan (PS#131). While they have 2 less starters ,we'll call the returning talent equal to LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Someone had to finish last in our 2010 ST rankings but fortunately one team was worse than the Bisons. By looking at the player stats Parker Munoz (2-6, L/40) improved on his '10 numbers and new P Bryan Jackson also bested them (38.0 avg, 29.7 net). The KR and PR were close and the team moved up to #87. Everyone's back and we'll look for them to break into the upper half.

COACHES - Five of the 10 coaches are Howard alum incl the HC and OC. Gary Harrell is in his 2nd season and was previously the OC at Bowie St. Both coordinators are also in their 2nd ssn with OC Ted White who was the Southern QB cch prior and DC Rayford Petty who was the HC here from 2002-'06.

Overview - Twenty ret st'rs brought hope after totaling 4 wins in 3Y. They last ply'd an FBS tm in '03 and after a pick 6 and a 9-3 lead, were outscored 32-0 and lost to EM. The next week Howard trailed 20-9 but score 21 straight to pull out a win vs Morehouse. They were outgained by 153 yds but MSU had 142 yd in pen and HU trailed only 10-9 but were shutout the rest of the way. The 20 pt win vs Sav St was the largest MOV since they beat the same tm in '08 as they scored td's on three one play "drives" (69, 57, 67). On the road for a 3rd straight they trailed FAMU 21-0 at HT but scored 29 4Q pts and 15 in the L/1:23 getting a GW FG w/:04 left. The offense turned it over 4 times in a sloppy loss to Georgetown but they recovered the next week to win in OT. They held SCSU to 203 yds but after turning in over 3x times to start the game, they allowed scoring drives overall of 9/7pl, 11/2pl and 10/3pl in the 31-0 loss. The D stepped it up allowing a ssn low 122 vs Hampton and in the finale they blew a 12 pt 4Q lead allowing 51/4pl and 60/8pl td's to finish 5-6. The 5 wins ties for their most S'04 and after avg -83 ypg the L3Y vs conf foes they OUTGAINED them TY by 60 ypg. With 13 ret starters the goal may be to top 6 wins (Last time 7 wins '98) but the schedule is tougher.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After a strong move up the depth chart in spg of LY, Donovan Dickerson earned the first start of the ssn for the Bears. Robert Council also saw action in the opener and took over the starting job for the next 3 wks. True frosh Seth Higgins became the 3rd QB to start a gm in wk 5 and took over the duties for the remainder of the ssn passing for 1,116 yds (52.2%) with a 9-7 ratio. TY the unit returns both Higgins and Council (372, 44.8%, 3-3) with Higgins likely getting the nod heading into the ssn.

RB's - The Bears ret'd their top 4 rushers in '11 led by David Brown (439, 5.7). Surprisingly Brown saw just 7 carries for MSU LY as JUCO trans Travis Davidson emerged to take over the #1 role (732, 5.1) while earning 2nd Tm MEAC honors in the process. TY the Bears return both Davidson and LY's #2 rusher Tracy Martin (317, 4.2) with the only losses being Brown and former Rutgers trans Jourdan Brooks (3 st, 193, 3.3) making this group even more improved in 2012.

Rec's - MSU ret'd their top 5 rec's from '10 a ssn ago led by Chuka Okakpu who recorded 325 yds (11.6) and 4 td's. After pulling in just 5 catches for 55 yds in '10 TE Lamont Bryant went on to lead this group LY with 371 (17.7) while Tyrone Hendrix finished a close 2nd with 315 (16.6). Okakpu played in just 6 gms and caught 7 ttl passes. TY the losses are heavy as 3 of the top 5 rec's from a yr ago depart incl Bryant. Hendrix and Chris Flowers (198, 7.3) are the leading returners while the Bears also hope to get some contribution from former Cincy trans Montrel Church (PS#298). While not as experienced, more consistency at the QB position could see this unit's numbers increase.

O-Line - MSU's rush numbers had continuously dropped from '07 to '10 but with 4 st'rs returning a yr ago incl 2nd Tm LT Lawrence Brewer, the unit paved the way for 129 ypg (3.3), a 24 ypg increase from the yr prior. They did however allow a recent high 31 sks in the process but some of the blame could be on the fact that this group was forced to endure a change at QB on a near weekly basis thru the 1st 5 gms of the ssn. TY the only loss in the starting lineup is Brewer (2x 2nd Tm MEAC, 32 car sts) as the group returns 82 car sts. Another improved performance should be in the offering despite the loss of their star.

D-Line - After all'g a splendid 95 ypg (2.7) on the ground in '08, the L3Y haven't been as stellar with the defense all'g 179, 156 and 153 ypg respectively. MSU has used a 4-3 scheme in the past but with the added spd in the MEAC they have begun to flirt with more of a 3-4 concept the past few ssns. TY the losses are heavy to the DL as they lose 2nd Tm MEAC DE Zary Stewart (11 st, 44 tkl, 6 sk), DT Justin Young (11 st, 41 tkl, 4 tfl) and NT Kevin Myrie (11 st, 45 tkl, 7.5 tfl). We list the Bears as a 3-4 alignment on the PSL this ssn and despite having to replace one less st'r, this unit is clearly weaker and could allow more than the 153 ypg of a ssn ago.

LB's - With the potential transition to the 3-4 we'll list 4 LB's on the PSL for the Bears TY. After all'g 21.2 ppg in '09 MSU saw their numbers slip to 30.5 in '10 thanks in part to the departure of the entire starting lineup. LY the group ret'd all 3 and as expected saw their numbers improve to 27.5 ppg. TY the group loses st'r Michael Dallas (9 st, 63 tkl, 6.5 tfl) while also having to fill an extra spot with the scheme change. This group does have some talent led by former Va Tech trans Allen Stephens (PS#123) giving them an opportunity to improve again.

DB's - Despite the inconsistency in the front 7 this unit has put together very similar yrs in both '10 and '11 finishing #69 and #68 in the pass eff D rankings respectively. The Bears all'd 187 ypg (55.4%) and a 19-12 ratio in the air a yr ago and enter '12 having to replace a pair of safety st'rs in Paul Eatman (9 st, 59 tkl) and Reshaude Miller (10 st , 41 tkl, 7 pd). The unit does return 4 with starting experience from a yr ago including 3 at CB so assuming they are able to replace a stop-gap at S, a better performance is in the realm of possibility.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After a solid performance by the ST's in '10, the Bears ret'd everyone but their K to the tm LY in hopes of stringing together another successful campaign. The kicking combo of Abraham Mercado and Ervin Gonzalez combined for just 10-22 FG's while P Nicholas Adams avg 39.0 yds per att with a net of 36.1. KR Hendrix avg 22.5 PR while Winfred Diggs had a 7.2 avg. TY the unit loses Mercado and Diggs but return everyone else and assuming the FG accuracy improves, the Bears could climb up our ST rankings after LY's #58 finish.

COACHES - HC Donald Hill-Eley enters his 12th ssn with the Bears with a career mark of 51-61. MSU uses a pair of co-coordinators with Joseph Wright and William "BT" Sherman running the offense while Herbert Parham and Alonzo Lee handle the defense.

Overview - Morgan St had won at least 5 gms for 4 consec ssns before falling to a 4-7 mark during 2010. LY the Bears drew a favorable schedule avoiding both SCSU and FAMU and landing a key home game against Norfolk St. While a winning record was possible, a loss to Hampton in the ssn finale sealed a 5-6 record for MSU and their 2nd losing campaign in as many yrs. The ssn didn't start off well for the Bears as they were beaten by a combined 100-16 in matchups against Towson and FBS foe Bowling Green. Morgan St went on to escape with B2B close wins in their next two matchups as Robert Morris missed the tying xp att with 1:57 left and used from help from their defense and ST's in a 14-9 victory over Howard as they were outgained by a 375-187 yd clip. After a 21 pt loss at the hands of NC A&T, the Bear defense dominated the next 3 wks holding Savannah St, NC Central and Delaware St to a combined 20 pts incl a shutout of the Hornets. At 5-3 and needing just one more win to secure a winning ssn, the Bears would drop their final 3 being outscored by an avg margin of 46-18. TY the Bears return 12 st'rs and 65 lettermen and again avoid SCSU and FAMU. While a 1-2 start could be in the offing with trips to FBS MAC foes Buffalo and Akron, a solid run in the middle of the ssn against their MEAC rivals could see them bring a winning record in 2012.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 NCCU ret'd former Tulsa trans Michael Johnson (11 st, 1931, 57%, 18-10) but he only started 5 (1179, 57%, 6-8). Keon Williams (5 st) threw for 334 (55%, 5-3, 142 rush) while former WSSU trans Jordan Reid (1 st) threw for 305 (55%, 2-3). LY they only lost Williams. New OC Michael Bryant brought in a fast paced no-huddle off that Johnson adapted to in spg. Johnson started all 11 (2113, 53.3%, 16-8) and set a NCCU ssn rec with 196 comp (188, Earl Harvey, '85) while the tm also set a ssn rec with 210 comp (196, '85 & '95). Reid hit 14 of 23 for 120 (0-1) with 73 rush (2.6). TY they lose Johnson (#3 car passer) and while Reid returns, JC Matt Goggans was #1 out of spg with rFr Quenton Rucker was #2. While the unit takes a step back in overall exp, Johnson did well in his 1st yr of the off and NCCU now ret 2 who are in their 2nd yr of it and another who was recruited for it, so their numbers should still be strong.

RB's - NCCU ret'd its top 3 rushers '10 in Tim Shankle (739, 4.1), Tony McCord (359, 4.7) and Arthur Goforth (86, 3.9). LY they lost their top 2 in Shankle (596, 4.2) and McCord (461, 4.9), who was also the #3 rec (163, 8.1). They ret'd #3 Goforth (192, 5.1) and looked to ret bruising FB's George Mobley (5 st) and Justin Manning (3 st) but Mobley did not play. They added Maryland trans Gary Douglas and Prairie View trans Idreis Augustus. RFr Andre Clarke started the F/5 and was #2 (405, 4.0, 5 td). Despite not joining the tm until the 5th gm of the ssn, Augustus (L/6 st) led with 429 (4.2, 2 td). TY they are in the 2nd yr of the offense and ret their top 5 rushers incl RB's #3 Goforth (106, 4.4, 51 rec) and #4 Douglas (79, 2.2, 92 rec).

Rec's - In '10 NCCU lost Will Scott, who was the #1 rec 2 str yrs with 706 (15.7, 10 td) in '09. They ret'd 3 of their top 4 led by Geovonie Irvine (582, 15.3) and TE Earthan Ward (248, 13.1) and got back WR Corey Harris (#5 rec '08) who missed '09 (inj). Irvine led with 758 (14.3) while Harris was #2 with just 231 (12.2). LY they ret'd 3 of their top 4 rec. NCCU lost Ward (86,10.8) but ret TE's Detwan Robinson (35, 8.8) and DeMarcus Hill (1 rec). LY the ball was spread around more evenly with Irvine (10 st) leading with just 580 (12.3), Ashland trans Demario Lackey (5 st) was #2 with 407 (12.0) and #3 Jonathan Nicely (5 st) adding 327 (12.1). TY they ret their top 5 rec but lose Harris (1 st, 128, 9.8) and Hill (9 st, 46, 5.8), while TE Joe Hutchinson (2 st, 1 rec) moves to the OL. This is a solid unit which should give the new QB plenty of quality targets.

O-Line - The OL only ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 in C James Frye (2 yr st'r) and RG Tim Charity but avg'd 142 rush ypg (best S/'05, 3.8) while all'g 21 sk (6.9%). LY they ret'd 4 st'rs in C Frye (9 st), RG Charity (11 st), RT Dominique Moore (9 st) and former WSSU trans LG Julian Gray (10 st). The Eagles also added DE Charles Goodwin (2 st), JC Seung Jun Oh and Maryland trans Justin Lewis but he was lost (foot inj) after the F/4 sts. They went to more of a passing off and their rush numbers fell 98 ypg (3.0) as they all'd 38 sk (9.7). TY they lose 4 st'rs in C Frye (11 st), OG Charity (7 st), LT Gray (10 st) and RT Moore (11 st). They ret 4 OL who comb for 14 sts incl LG Jun Oh (3 st), LT Goodwin (4 st) and RG Lewis. They move in TE Hutchinson, add JC Michael Wells and fill the rest of the 2-deep with frosh, who were recruited for this offense and so despite the inexp, could actually improve.

D-Line - The DL ret'd 3 st'rs in 10 led by DT Teryl White (#3 tkl'r, 11 tfl) and all'd their lowest rush ypg S/'06 (148, 4.1) with 21 sk. LY they lost White (#6 tkl'r) and NG Mark Blakeney (5 st, 21 tkl) while former WCCU tran DE Charles Goodwin (2 st, 7 tkl) moved to OL. NCCU moved from a 3-4 to a 4-3. They ret'd DE Xavier Proctor (10 st, #9 tkl'r), DT Tyrone Jackson (15 tkl), DE Chase Tripp (7 tkl) and former Duke tran DT John Drew (11 tkl). The Eagles moved in LB Roger Stewart (#4 tkl'r, 11 tfl) and added JC Aaron Wallace. They all'd 181 rush ypg (4.2) but their 24 sks were the most since moving up. TY they lose DT Mark Blakeney (#9 tkl'r) but ret 6 who comb for 35 sts, move in LB Chris Drew (5 st, #11) and are in the 2nd yr of the D and should improve.

LB's - The LB unit lost their #4 tkl'r but ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 in Calvin Hillie (#1), Donald Laster (#3) and Rakeem Vick (#8) along with Roger Stewart (#6). They all'd 23.7 ppg, the fewest since moving up despite Vick (10 tkl) being lost after 2 st. LY NCCU lost Hillie (#1 tkl'r), Kenneth Campbell (#5), Laster (#8) and Vick while Stewart moved to DE. They ret'd Eliezer Sandifer (4 st, 28 tkl) and Brandon Outlaw (19 tkl) with 1 less spot to fill but all'd 31.0 ppg. TY they lose MLB Outlaw (11 st, #1 tkl'r) and WLB Sandifer (1 st, 7 tkl) while WLB Chris Drew moves to the DL. They ret 4 LB's that comb for 12 st led by SLB Ty Brown (#10 tkl'r) and are more exp'd than LY.

DB's - The secondary ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 in CB's Rashad Fox (#9 tkl'r) and David Ingram (t-#6, 18 pd) along with SS Ja'Quez Canty (#10). They would have been #68 in pass eff D all'g a 15-10 ratio. LY they lost CB Fox (#2 tkl'r) and SS Canty (#3). They ret'd FS Marc Lewis (#7 tkl'r) and CB Ingram (#12, 3 int) along with SS James Reese (4 st, #10), S Brian Frierson (1 st, 20 tkl) and CB Malik Cromartie (15 tkl) but fell to #82 all'g a 17-10 ratio. TY they lose FS Reese (#2), CB Frierson (#4) and CB Ingram (19 tkl) but ret 3 who comb for 18 sts in Lewis (#3 tkl'r), Cromartie (#8) and S Rickie Hubbard (28 tkl) and could show some solid improvement.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd intact in '10 and finished #28 in our rankings. LY they lost their P/K but ret their top PR/KR Arthur Goforth. Despite KR Geovonie Irvine earning 2nd tm MEAC RS, the unit fell to #52. TY the unit returns intact and should show solid improvement.

COACHES - HC Henry Frazier enters his 2nd ssn here after 7 yrs as the Prairie View HC (43-31). He brought his OC Michael Bryant with him LY. DC John Morgan, who was the DC here in '07 also enters his 2nd ssn of this stint here.

Overview - The Eagles replaced a 4 yr HC LY, they switched their Off & Def and joined the MEAC. They picked up a check at Rutgers as they trailed 45-0 in the 3Q. They led Central St 35-0 in the 2Q in Cleveland Browns Stadium. Thanks to being +5 TO incl a 75 yd IR td they led Elon 22-17 in the 4Q and only lost by 1 despite being outgained by 306 yds. In their MEAC opener a they all'd SSU a 50 yd IR td with :46 left and despite a KR td :11 later fell by 3. They led SCSt 38-35 in the 4Q but lost and then were smoked by Morgan St. They got a td with 1:54 left to force OT vs Hampton but lost. They trailed BCU 34-0 in the 3Q but got their 1st MEAC win with a 3Q GW td vs DSU. They trailed FAMU 28-0 at half and never led vs NC A&T. They finished tied with Savannah St & Delaware St for last in the conf (1-7). TY they are in the 2nd year of their systems and are more experienced then their 11 ret st'rs would indicate as they ret their top 5 rusher & receivers and 13 of their top 17 tkl'rs.

DELAWARE ST HORNETS

Kermit Blount (Career 94-95-3)
2nd Year at Delaware State (3-8)
Dover, Delaware — Enrollment: 3,609

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After earning 2 sts in his rFr ssn of '09 Nick Elko (PS#187) was relegated to coming off of the bench in '10 behind BG trans Anthony Glaud. Elko took over as the full-time st'r LY throwing for 2,064 yds (57.2%) but with a poor 15-16 ratio. Elko enters his Sr campaign 4th on the Hornets' all-time list for pass att (499) and comp (281) and 5th in td passes with 22. Marlon Kelly saw 2 att's a ssn ago as Elko's bkp and will once again serve in that capacity. Assuming Elko improves upon LY's shaky 16 int's, progress should be made among the unit.

RB's - DSU ret'd its top 3 rushers a yr ago led by Jaashawn Jones who came on strong late in the '09 ssn and carried that with him into '10 (724, 4.5). Jones again led the Hornets on the ground, but with just 333 (3.0) as he saw 49 fewer carries than the yr prior. Josh Bailey finished 2nd on the tm behind Jones with 192 (3.7). TY DSU loses Jones but returns Bailey and speedy Jr Malcolm Williams (13 rush yds LY) who was the unit's most effective rusher in spg. While Jones will be missed, it may not be too much of a challenge to see one of the previously mentioned returnees eclipse his rush total of a yr ago.

Rec's - With the Hornets returning all but their #2 rec from '10 heading into LY, improvement was expected for one of the best corps in all of the MEAC. After leading DSU with 937 yds (15.9) and 11 td's, 1st Tm MEAC honoree Justin Wilson finished #2 LY due to an ankle inj that kept him out of 3 contests. He pulled in 563 yds (10.4) to go with 6 td's. With the inj to Wilson, a new #1 rec took over in '11 as Travis Tarpley pulled in a DSU single-ssn record of 66 catches while his 144.2 ypg all-purp avg was tops in the MEAC. TY they both return with the only departure being #3 receiver Darius Jackson (391, 9.5). With a now healthy Wilson, the Hornets should again have one of the best units in the conf.

O-Line - After a poor '10 performance that saw DSU rush for just 93 ypg (3.0), improvement was expected as the unit ret'd 4 st'rs to the rotation. Shockingly the group regressed even further paving the way for just 50 ypg (2.0), the 2nd worst mark in all of the FCS while their sks increased to 35 after 28 in '10. TY the unit again returns 4 st'rs with the only losses being Rutgers tran RT Keith Newell (PS#65, 22 car st) and reserve Marcus Ponder (13 st). With a car 60 sts returning to the group for 2012, there should be only one way to go for one of the worst units from a year ago.

D-Line - This unit switched over to a 3-3-5 scheme again LY with the addition of the new coaching staff. After all'g 196 ypg (4.5) with a 4-man unit in '10, the group had better depth but still saw their numbers take a dip down to 211 ypg (4.7) while the defense as a whole recorded just 12 sks. TY the group returns just 1 st'r to the rotation as NT Darrell Brown (9 st, 27 tkl) departs in graduation and DE Olusegun Ayanbiola moves over to LB. DE Aaron Richardson started each of the past 2 ssns with the Hornets (22 tkl LY) but with the emergence of Rodney Gunter at the tail end of '11 (39 tkl, 4.5 tfl), he could find his starting gig in jeopardy. Assuming Gunter is again able to surpass expectations, the Hornets should be able to get the rush totals back under the 200 ypg plateau.

LB's - DSU has seen their ppg elevate in each of the past 6 ssns including LY's 34.5 performance under the new 3-3-5 alignment although we mention the "R" position in this unit writeup. TY the Hornets lose a pair of st'rs to the group in leading tkl'r Quentin Ferguson (11 st, 12 tfl) and #2 Brandon Harvey (10 st, 18 tfl). While the group does get the addition of DE Olusegun Ayanbiola (10 st, 28 tkl, 6 tfl) and LY's starting SS Joe Boyd (10 st, 53 tkl) to the "R" position, it may be tough to make too much of a dent despite LY's poor performance.

DB's - Much like the DSU front 7, this unit has also seen its fair share of struggles over the past 2 yrs going from #75 in pass eff def in '10 to any even worse #106 LY as the Hornets all'd 199 ypg (63.4%) with an 18-7 ratio. The unit was struggling so bad LY that they went ahead and moved RB Nick Williams to bkp CB for a good portion of the 2H of the yr (26 tkl). TY DSU loses a pair of st'rs to graduation in FS Matthew Scott (11 st, 38 tkl) and CB Tavis Tabb (8 st, 34 tkl) along with SS Joe Boyd's switch in position. Nick Williams is expected to make the full-time jump to CB this ssn but with just 1 returning st'r among the group, the Hornets may be in for another tough ssn.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite returning all of their key contributors to the unit a ssn ago, the Hornet ST's were a major disappointment as they finished #120 in our overall rankings. K Mitchell Ward saw just 8 FG att's LY converting on just half while Travis Tarpley pulled double duty as the RS avg 20.5 on KR's and 7.0 on PR's. While Marko Kano finished 4th in the MEAC in punt avg at 38.4, his net left something to be desired as he posted a miniscule 31.1 mark. Everyone returns again TY so improvement should be expected.

COACHES - Kermit Blount took over here a ssn ago after spending the prior 16 yrs as the HC at Winston-Salem State. Both coordinators also return for their 2nd ssn with the Hornets with Arrington Jones serving as the OC (HC at Virginia Union 6 yrs prior) and Michael Ketchum running the defense after spending the previous 5 yrs under Blount in the same capacity.

Overview - After going 18-5 from '06-'07, the Hornets have now suffered thru 4 consec losing ssns. New HC Kermit Blount took over the tm LY and with the changes in schemes, it wasn't much of a surprise to see the Hornets land at 3-8 for a 2nd straight yr. After starting off at 2-0 against VMI and Div II foe Shaw, DSU was shutout in B2B gms against #7 Delaware and #25 SCSU by a combined margin of 114-0. The losing streak would continue over the next 6 wks with DSU avg just 8 ppg in that span but in their home finale against Howard, the Hornets would put together a ssn high offensive total of 412 yds against a Bison squad that came in ranked 4th in all of the FCS in ttl defense at 288.5 ypg. DSU returns 13 st'rs TY and while we expect them to be a little more competitive in the 2nd yr under Blount, this may not necessarily translate in wins on the scoreboard after they were outscored by an avg of 20 ppg a ssn ago.

SAVANNAH STATE TIGERS

Steve Davenport (Career 1-10)
2nd Year at Savannah State (1-10)
Savannah, Georgia — Enrollment: 3,820

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Tigers returned both of their top QB's a ssn ago in AJ Defilippis and Antonio Bostick who combined for 1,222 (49%) and a 6-13 ratio. Defilippis received the bulk of the sts with 7 throwing for 840 yds (41.2%) and a 5-7 ratio while Bostick lined up under center for 4 sts passing for 755 (39.4%) and a 3-8 ratio. Defilippis moves on TY leaving Bostick as the full-time option for the Tigers. RFr Derrick McQueen (PS#211) and Victorian Hardison (PS#313) round out the depth. Bostick had a solid spg and assuming he can improve his career accuracy mark of 46.2%, the unit may see some improvement.

RB's - After a 620 (4.8) performance in '08, Justin Babb put up even more impressive numbers in '09 rushing for 804 (6.2). He appeared on track to surpass those numbers through 3 gms in '10 but a hamstring inj ended his ssn early with just 260 yds (6.3). In his absence, Sheldon Barnes stepped to the forefront to lead SSU with 563 (4.7). LY Barnes and Babb (received 5th yr) ret'd giving the Tigers a solid 1-2 punch. Babb regained the #1 title with 525 (3.5) while Barnes saw his carries diminish to just 33 the entire ssn (119 in '10). Babb moves on TY leaving Barnes as the frontrunner for the #1 spot. Challenging Barnes for carries will be former Cincy trans Isaiah Nearor who didn't see action with the Tigers a ssn ago. While talent remains in the unit, expect a drop in productivity with the departure of Babb.

Rec's - The Tigers ret'd their top 4 rec's from '10 LY so improvement was expected. Surprisingly, '10 leader Simon Heyward saw his numbers cut in half (207, 12.9) with the previous yr's #2 rec, Edward Lackey (335, 14.6), finishing as the leader at 353 (23.5). Kris Drummond (151, 11.6) and Desmond Gantt (31, 6.2) form a solid duo at TE when the SSU chooses to use multiple sets at the position. TY the Tigers again return their top weapons (top 3 rec's) but after LY's abundance of struggles, this will be a group to keep a good eye on in 2012 as they look for redemption after less than stellar numbers in '11.

O-Line - With SSU's transition to full-time MEAC status and eliminating a good amount of Div II members from their schedule, it's no surprise that their rushing numbers have taken a dip in each of the past 3 ssns with LY's 89 ypg (2.7) being a recent worst for the SSU program. Another big area for improvement is in the area of sks as they have now surrendered 37 and 38 the L2Y's respectively. Looking at what returns for the upcoming ssn has us wondering how much further they can drop as st'rs Jared Brunson (11 st), Lenworth McKenzie (10 st), Demetrius Edwards (11 st) and Thelmore Jackson (6 st) all depart. Cedric Brown (8 st) is the only full-time st'r returning to the group so the Tigers will be working a slew of new players into the rotation highlighted by Marshall trans Darrell Martin and JUCO addition Caleb Freeman. It appears that a 4th consec yr of faltering numbers could likely be expected.

D-Line - The DL unit was one of the worst in all of the FCS in '10 as they all'd a whopping 241 ypg (5.7) on the ground while recording just 6 sks (2nd worst FCS). While they picked up 21 sks a yr ago, their ypg all'd was nearly as bad all'g 227 (5.5). Improvement is expect in 2012 as the unit returns all 4 st'rs and also gets the large upgrades of Illinois trans Chris Jones (PS#137) and Colo St trans Charles Green in the middle. The SSU DL should deliver its best numbers in at least the past 3 ssns.

LB's - With the struggles on the DL, it's not much of a surprise to see the LB unit have its issues as well all'g an enormous 40.1 and 40.2 ppg in each of the L2Y. While the DL does return everyone from a yr ago, the same cannot be said for this unit as they are forced to depart with all 3 st'rs in Reginald Givens (11 st, 41 tkl, 9 tfl), leading tkl'r Nate Clay (11 st, 73 tkl, 6.5 tfl) and Sadrak Jeanbaptiste (5 st, 50 tkl). The only 2 returnees with sts from a yr ago are Frederick Fluker and Broderick Sellers with a combined 7 making this a major issue among the defensive unit.

DB's - After all'g just 164 ypg (51.8%) in the '08 ssn, the numbers have heavily increased in the past 3 ssns in the transition into the MEAC. In '10 the unit all'd 213 ypg (66.8%) with a 21-7 ratio ranking them #117 in the NCAA's PDR. They followed that up LY with a #115 ranking all'g an even worse 225 ypg (61.5%) and a 26-3 ratio. In fact, SSU's 3 picks on the yr tied them with 4 other tms for last in the entire FCS. TY they lose 2 from the starting lineup in SS Chris Asbury (#2 tkl'r, 5 pbu) and CB Byron Leggett (14 tkl, 2 pd). While the unit doesn't necessarily return a ton of talent, there is really only one way to go in the NCAA's PDR rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Tigers returned all their key contributors to this unit a year ago so improvement was expected. Derek Williams again pulled double duty at K/P hitting on 9-13 FG's while posting a 37.5 avg on his punt att's (33.4 net). Seven different players handled the PR duties with Simon Heyward's 5 opportunities being the most (7.2). Justin Babb was the tm's top KR with a 21.1 avg. TY the losses are heavy as just Heyward returns. The Tigers are hoping that Kyle Bruce is able to pull double duty in 2012 after seeing the field LY for 9 punt att's (35.6 avg). Bruce may see a challenge from Preston McCarthy in the fall. SSU finished #53 in our ST's rating a ssn ago which is likely a bit higher than they will land this ssn with much less experience coming back.

COACHES - Steve Davenport took over as the HC here a ssn ago and now returns for yr number two. Also returning to his staff is former NFL All-Pro Terance Mathis as the OC and Saeed Khalif as the Tigers' DC.

Overview - With the transition into a full member of the MEAC and the elimination of some of the former Div II tms from their schedule, it's not a huge surprise to see the Tigers post B2B 1-10 ssns with their only wins in that span coming against the same tm, NC Central. After dropping a 3 pt defeat at the hands of Div II Albany St to begin LY, the Tigers would go on to drop the next 2 against SEL and #3 App St by a combined 104-12. Following their previously mentioned victory over NC Central, SSU would go on to drop their final 7 contests scoring 10 or fewer points in each of the final 5. TY the team returns just 11 st'rs (16 LY) and has big questions on the OL. While the defense may improve upon the 40 ppg they have surrendered the past 2 ssns, they won't get off to a good start with meetings against FBS foes Okla St and Fla St to begin the yr. HC Davenport has a plan for his program but he may not necessarily judge his progress on wins and losses in 2012.

PHIL'S 2012 MEAC FORECAST

1. SOUTH CAROLINA ST - Coming into '08 SCSU was tied for the best record in the MEAC over the previous 4Y (26-6) and had 16 ret st'rs. They also had a remarkable 19 of their top 21 tkl'rs back from a D that was #2 in the league in ppg. We called for them to make the postssn and they did not disappoint (only mag to pick them #1 in MEAC). SCSU went 8-0 in the MEAC and a league best +214 ypg. They did have just 12 ret st'rs back in '09 but went 8-0 again with a league best +173 ypg. In '10 they had 14 ret st'rs and went 7-1 but finished 2nd. They were +150.6 ypg (#1) and LY ret'd 11 st'rs. While they aren't the clear cut fav as they've been in the past (due to inexp, #112 in FCS), they were still 49-7 the previous 7 yrs in conf play and remained the tm to beat in the MEAC. Losses to Florida A&M and eventual MEAC Champ Norfolk St saw them finish in a tie for 2nd at 6-2. TY they have 13 ret st'rs incl 9 on off. They outgained conf foes by 59.4 ypg in '11 and get both Norfolk and Bethune-Cookman at home. Another top finish should be on the docket for the Bulldogs.

2. NORFOLK ST - Pete Adrian was rightfully named MEAC COY after a 7-2 record in '07 and had his most talented tm yet with 14 ret st'rs in '08. Surprisingly they were -22.4 ypg in MEAC play and finished just 3-5 (7th place). In '09 they had a very favorable sked with just 4 road gms and 14 ret st'rs. As expected they moved up to 5-3 (3rd place) and were +97.1 ypg (3rd best). In '10 they had 14 ret st'rs and slipped to 4-4 in conf play but were +41.0 ypg (4th best). LY they lost their star RB but ret'd their top QB and WR along with their top 5 tkl'rs and got SCSU, Hampton and Bethune-Cookman at home while avoiding Florida A&M. We expected them to continue to rise in the MEAC standings and the mission was accomplished as they went 7-1 and earned the MEAC Title and a playoff berth while outgaining conf foes by 123.3 ypg. TY the Spartans return just 12 st'rs and while they avoid Florida A&M again, they are forced to battle both SCSU and Bethune-Cookman on the road. We'll call for NSU to finish 2nd in the MEAC TY.

3. BETHUNE-COOKMAN - In '08 B-CU had 14 ret st'rs but they lost their top QB, who also led the tm in rushing and 5 of the top 6 tkl'rs. We mentioned that they should improve upon '07's 3 MEAC wins and that they did going 5-3 (official) and 6-3 (unofficial) which was tied for 2nd place. In '09 they had 14 ret st'rs but went 4-4 (-14.8 ypg, #5 MEAC) and were 5-6 overall and let HC Wyatt go. In '10 they brought in a new pass offense and that is generally a 2 to 3 year process. We were shocked to see them improve to 8-1, winning the conf (+95.5 ypg). They did benefit from an incredible +27 TO ratio and LY lost their OC who helped them avg 38.2 ppg. After a dream ssn in '10, they saw their hopes dashed early vs SCSU but still finished at 6-2 and a tied for 2nd in the MEAC while outgaining conf foes by 107.4 ypg. TY the Wildcats return 12 back to the starting rotation but do begin and end the ssn with 3 consec road gms incl trips to SCSU and Florida A&M. Why still talented, the schedule may be the main culprit for their decline in victories for 2012.

4. FLORIDA A&M - In HC Taylor's first ssn in '08 FAMU had 14 ret st'rs and for the 1st time outgained league foes (+51.6 ypg). In '09 they had their best squad in quite some time with 19 ret st'rs incl Kentucky trans QB Curtis Pulley. They returned 2 AA's and 7 All-MEAC performers and looked like they would be playoff bound for the 1st time S/'01. They finished 2nd at 6-2 and were +55.1 ypg (4th best). In '10 they had 13 ret st'rs but lost Pulley. They improved to 7-1 in conf play but were just +3.8 ypg and benefitted from 4 net close wins. LY they again ret'd 13 st'rs but had 84% of their lettermen back and appeared to have the most talented team in the MEAC. They did have to face Hampton, SCSU and Bethune-Cookman away from home which had us calling for a 2nd straight runner-up finish. While they were able to knock off SCSU, they did lose to Hampton and Bethune-Cookman while also dropping a tight home matchup with Howard. The Rattlers finished 5-3 in the MEAC tying for 4th in the conf while outgaining conf foes by 29.4 ypg. While they skip Norfolk St on the schedule again and get home meeting against SCSU and Bethune-Cookman, FAMU's 12 ret st'rs could find themselves in for a challenge in 2012.

5. HAMPTON - Hampton won 3 straight MEAC Titles heading into 2007 but with just 8 st'rs back suffered through a rebuilding season and dropped to a tie for 3rd in the league and was -6.4 ypg. They had just 14 ret st'rs in '08 and finished 5-3 which was a 4-way tie for 2nd (+33.1 ypg, #5). In '09 they had 13 ret st'rs but had an exp'd QB and 5 MEAC home gms. While they were +99.9 ypg (2nd best) they stunningly dropped to 3-5! In '10 they had 16 ret st'rs and we called for them to return to MEAC contender status and that's what they did with a 6-3 mark (+82.1 ypg). LY they lost a #3DC at DT and had a new offensive scheme with a new QB. The Pirates performed better than expected in '11 with a 5-3 mark in the MEAC while outgaining conf foes by 44.4 ypg. TY they return 14 st'rs but do go on the road for 4 of their final 5 contests. We'll go ahead and call for a middle of the back finish after exceeding expectations a yr prior.

5. NORTH CAROLINA A&T - A&T suffered 4 net close losses in '07 and in '08 improved their record from 0-11 to 3-9. This is a tm that actually won a conf title in '03 but had only won 7 league gms (8 w/forfeit) from '04-'10 and in '07 and '08 were outgained by a league worst -150.8 ypg and -194.8 ypg. They stayed out of the cellar in '09 for a 2nd straight yr and improved to -49.1 ypg which was "only" 4th worst! In '10 they had 14 ret st'rs but lost their QB and fell to 1-7 (-114.3 ypg, 2nd worst). LY they ret'd 11 st'rs and made a splash by hiring Grambling HC Rod Broadway. A&T was much improved as they outgained their conf foes by 86.6 ypg and went 4-4 in the conf, their best mark S/'03. TY the Aggies return 17 st'rs to the rotation incl 10 on the def side that all'd just 289 ypg in '11. While a solid start appears to be on the docket, they are forced to battle Norfolk, Florida A&M and SCSU in consec wks at the end of the ssn.

7. HOWARD - In '08 HU had just 11 ret st'rs (fewest league) and were just 11-21 in MEAC play the prev 4Y. It looked like it would be a rough ssn and the bottom fell out at 0-8. HU was "only" -59.1 ypg in MEAC play which is more indicative of a 3-6 tm and in '09 they had 15 ret st'rs. The result was 0-8 again and a league worst -129.7 ypg. In '10 they drastically switched the off and we called for a 3rd str year in the basement which is exactly what happened (0-8, -59.0 ypg, 4th worst). LY they brought in a new HC but were more exp'd with 16 ret st'rs. After not winning a conf gm in 3 ssns, the Bison went on to finish at 4-4 in the MEAC while outgaining conf foes by 60.4 ypg. TY they return 13 st'rs but do face a slew of tough MEAC squads away from home so a dip in the conf win department may occur.

8. MORGAN ST - In '08 MSU had 8 st'rs back from the #1 def which allowed just 267 ypg. They lost their top QB and RB and had just 2 winning ssns S/'79 but we said they could break through with a 3rd in '08. They just missed out as they opened the yr at 6-3 but unfortunately they lost at home to Hampton in the ssn finale by 4 and fell to 6-6 (4-4 MEAC). Once again they were 2nd best in ypg in league play at +75.7 and had the #1 def this time all'g just 196 ypg in MEAC play! In '09 they had a veteran QB in Akron trans Carlton Jackson. They improved to 6-5 (4-4 MEAC again) but they dropped to -71.8 ypg (3rd worst). In '10 they had 12 st'rs back but lost their QB. They fell to 3-5 and were a league worst -131.9 ypg. LY they ret'd 16 st'rs and had 84% lettermen returning. They drew a favorable MEAC sked avoiding SCSU and Florida A&M and were expected to top '10's 3 conf wins. The Bears actually jumped out to a 4-1 MEAC record before being hammered in their final 3 for a 4-4 overall mark while outgaining conf foes by 5.4 ypg. TY they return 12 st'rs but face 3 road trips in their final 5 gms. The Bears should slide back some in 2012.

9. NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL - The Eagles finished their last ssn in DII going 11-1 in 2006. Throughout their transition they increased the number of FCS tms on the schedule and have plyd 8 for 2 str yrs. In '09 they went 2-6 vs FCS foes but lost 3 gms by a td or less incl two in 2OT. We thought they would improve their record but they fell to 3-8 and HC Mose Rison was let go after going 17-26 in 4 yrs. LY the schedule was tougher with 8 conf gms and they were changing schemes. With a rebuilding yr on the horizon, the Eagles went 1-7 in MEAC play while being outgained by 100 ypg against conf foes. TY they return just 11 st'rs but do get Delaware St at home in November. We'll go ahead and call for the Eagles to double their conf win ttl from 2011.

10. DELAWARE ST - The Hornets swept the board in the MEAC at 9-0 in '07 and had 14 ret st'rs incl 4th yr starting QB Winston and were the trendy pick for the '08 conf title (we pegged them 3rd). They were actually -47.4 ypg in MEAC play benefitting from +8 in TO's and 5 net close wins in '07. As expected, despite being a little more talented, their record dropped to 5-3 in league play with SEVEN of their 9 league gms decided by a td or less meaning they could easily have been 8-1 or 2-7! They were +36.3 in MEAC play but lost Winston LY who was 31-14 as a starter and had just 12 ret st'rs and forfeited to NC A&T. We thought that they would have their 1st lower division finish S/'03 and that they did at 3-5 (forfeit) and -69.5 ypg. In '10 they had just 3 ret st'rs on D and slipped to 2-6 (-67.9 ypg). LY they brought in a new HC but were more exp'd than in '10 with 14 ret st'rs. Surprisingly they struggled to an even worse 1-7 mark in MEAC play while being outgained by 181.3 ypg vs conf foes (2nd worst). The Hornets are returning 13 to the starting lineup in '12 but they have plenty of ground to make up with a maximum of 2 conf wins being the best we could consider.

11. SAVANNAH ST - The Tigers have struggled with their transition to FCS and in '09 went 0-6 vs FCS tms getting outgained by 126 ypg. They ret'd 15 st'rs in '10 but regressed getting outgained by an avg of 228 ypg and 29.9 ppg. LY was their first full ssn as an FCS conf member and they had a much tougher schedule with no DII tms. While much improved with 17 ret st'rs, they did have a new coach again for the 2nd year in a row and were expected to struggle to get a single conf win. Despite being outgained (234.9 ypg) and outscored (26.1 ppg) by large margins against MEAC foes, the Tigers were able to steal away a victory at NCCU early in the year to finish 1-7 in conf play. SSU returns 11 st'rs TY but still appear to be far away from competing on a regular basis within the conf. A home matchup vs NCCU could be their only chance to land a conf win in 2012.

YOUNGSTOWN STATE PENGUINS

Eric Wolford (Career 9-13)
3rd Year at Youngstown State (9-13)
Youngstown, Ohio — Enrollment: 15,194

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - A 4 year starter departed after '07 and Brandon Summers split starts in '08 due to inj's and finished his career here by throwing for 2,329 (64%, 17-14) in 2009. They ret'd only 3 pass att's of experience and installed a new offense in 2010. Kurt Hess (PS#190) who RS in '09, went on to start all 11 gms earning MVFC FPOY throwing for 2,117 (59%) and his 12-8 ratio was tainted with 4 int's in the ssn finale. There was no soph slump for Hess as he improved by throwing for 2,460 (64.8%) with an excellent 26-8 ratio earning 1st tm MVFC honors. Athletic soph Patrick Angle threw for 248 (54.5%, 2-1) in the spring game this year after the coaches considered moving him to safety LY. Both return making this one of the top units in the country as Hess will be in the All-American mix.

RB's - In 2010 this unit lost 5 of its top 6 returning only #3 rusher Jamaine Cook (PS#319, 111, 5.6). Cook exploded with 1,276 (5.3) while also adding 219 (8.8) rec taking home 2nd tm MVFC honors. Adaris Bellamy (PS#67) who originally signed at USF was #2 with 545 (5.0) while Jordan Thompson added 144 (4.0) and QB Kurt Hess was #4 (141, 2.3). LY the top 7 all returned and Cook improved to 1,386 (5.1) with 183 (9.1) rec matching his QB as a 1st tm MVFC. Thompson (401, 7.6) and Bellamy (345, 5.8) continued giving the Penguins a 3 man option. QB Hess was #4 (165, 4.1) and Torrian Pace was #5 (150, 6.0) and the cch's called him too talented to keep off the field. While Thompson will RS TY, everyone else is back and this unit can rival any in the FCS.

Rec's - Dominique Barnes led the way in '10 with 911 (13.6) and was the only one not to return. The staff decided to go with a youth movement and Ely Ducatel and Juilian Harrell who combined for 12 st and 450 yds in '10 had a combined 2 rec's LY. True Fr Christian Bryan (PS#484) led the team with 722 (15.7) while Jelani Berassa was #2 with 552 (14.9) after having 4 rec as a true and missing '10 with an ACL inj. Kevin Watts made 9 st in '10 with 141 (12.8) and was #3 LY with 291 (10.4) making 7 st. This year they only lose their #4 rec among their top 7 and TE Will Shaw is one to keep your eye on as he made 8 st at SS in '10 and made 4 st learning the TE spot LY finishing as the #5 rec (200, 25.0).

O-Line - The OL unit had to replace 1 starter in '10 and almost doubled their rushing production finishing with 215 ypg (4.7) allowing only 13 sks. LY there was concern as they lost 3 starters incl a 2nd tm MVFC LG. Two JUCO's were IFS and would be counted on to fill the void and did they ever deliver. The starting 5 incl both JC's made 54 of the 55 sts and actually increased their numbers by opening holes for 231 ypg (5.3) and only allowing 9 sks. All five are back and this offense is set to be part of a special season.

D-Line - The 4 man front ret'd 2 starters in 2010 and the numbers slipped to 157 ypg (4.7) with a recent low of only 12 sks. They lost 2.5 starters LY but still improved across the board (146 ypg, 4.2 ypc, 22 sks). This season they lose 3 starters incl NT Andrew Johnson who was the tm's DMVP and 2nd tm MVFC. Nick DeKraker and Aronde Stanton are veterans in the middle but the DE's will both have very limited experience. A slide in the numbers wouldn't be a surprise.

LB's - The unit was to return intact into 2010 but their #1 tkl'r did not return and their numbers fell back to 31.5 ppg. LY they not only returned all 3 starters but their top 8 LB's were back. Despite having all of that experience they started three freshman all but 4 games. The unit did improve but still allowed 25.7 ppg. This year they return 2 soph's in VHT PS#26 Travis Williams (#2 tkl'r) who RS at Mia, Fl in '10 as well as non-related Teven Williams (PS#330) who led the team in tackles despite only starting the final 8 gms. With this dynamic soph duo they may approach the numbers posted in 2007 (18.5 ppg).

DB's - The '10 def numbers across the board were very poor and despite having 3 starters back finished #114 finish in pass eff D. LY they lost 3 starters including a 2nd tm MVFC CB but improved to #76 in pass eff D bettering their ratio from an ugly 26-7 to 15-7. Eight different players made starts in the secondary LY and they lose 3 who combined for 13 st so we'll call it 3 back. Much like the LB's LY you may see newcomers lining up as they add a PS#294JC CB and a PS#248JC SS as well as a PS#325JC FS who RS at FIU. We'll expect a sizeable move up in the rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '10 the unit had to replace their P and both PR's and limped to a #117 finish in our rankings. LY the unit had to replace their K (12-14, L/43) and PR again and only improved to #96. This year everyone is back and by looking at the stat leaders and the numbers they finished with there's clearly only one way to go.

COACHES - In 35 seasons from '75-'09 YSU had just 3 HC in Bill Narduzzi, Jim Tressel and Jon Heacock. Eric Wolford is now in his third season and was previously a BCS OL cch at S Car, Ill and Arizona. Third year OC Shane Montgomery was previously the HC at Mia, Oh ('04-'07). First year DC Joe Tresey was the DC at UCLA LY, USF in '09 and Cincinnati in '07-'08.

P 81 NICK LISTE JR. 5-10 185 PS#171. 39.8 punts LY, 8 from 50+.

Overview - After an unaccustomed 3-8 '10 season LY they opened with a loss at Mich St albeit closer than most expected and a blowout win vs non-scholorship Valparaiso. They led wire-to-wire vs Ill St leading by 8+pts from the 2Q on. The D allowed td plays of 62, 39, 61 and 51 yds in a loss to ISU yet Indy St scored with 1:21 left to cut it to 2 pts but the on-side K went OOB. The next week another big play cost them as they were tied at 28 when they allowed 73 yd td pass to fall to 2-3. They trailed for almost 3Q vs SIU and finally took the lead 28-23 with 1:11 left before adding a fmbl rec td for the final and then won the next 2 vs overmatched foes as they led at HT by a combined 84-3 vs SFU and WIU. They had B2B road games against the top 2 conf teams. At #6 UNI it was a back and forth affair with 5 lead changes but YSU couldn't hold on allowing a 63/10pl drive for a td with 1:59 left. The next week they got their first win against a #1 ranked team since 1997 fighting back from being down 11 pts twice outscoring NDSU 17-3 in the final 31 min. At 6-4 heading into their season finale they jumped on MSU and led 27-10 at HT but letdown big time as they were outscored 28-7 in the 2H incl allowing a 67/9pl td drive with :10 left. They are now in the 3rd year of the new coaching staff, have 16 starters back and outgained all 4 FCS foes on the road incl 3 that were ranked at some time LY making this team a clear threat for the conf title and perhaps more.

UNI PANTHERS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - For the last 4 seasons the Panther QB has either taken home 1st or 2nd tm MVFC honors. Pat Grace did it in '08 and '09 and the dynamic dual threat Tirrell Rennie (PS#122JC) did it in '10 and '11. Rennie joined the team in 2010 after leading all JUCO QB's in total offense and earning AA honors in B2B seasons. He threw for 1,526 (56%, 8-11) while rushing for 1,291 (5.6, 15 td's) in '10 and LY threw for 1,802 (58.6%, 14-4) rushing for 885 (4.9, 9 td's). Jared Lanpher (PS#190) made 1 st as a rFr and played in 5 gms throwing for 365 (57.4%, 4-2). Rennie departs leaving Lanpher as the only QB with UNI game exp. Stephen Kaiser (PS#66) transferred in from SMU over the summer. It's a steep drop compared to where they were heading into LY.

RB's - Carlos Anderson was #2 in '09 with 532 (4.7) earning MVFC Newcomer honors. He was the leading returnee in '10 and was the top RB (#2 behind QB) with 974 (5.7) followed by Matt Strathman (294, 3.9) and no one else had over 22 yds rushing. Anderson ret'd LY but his production fell to 410 (5.3) in 8 st. RFr David Johnson moved from WR to RB in the spring then made 6 st and led the RB's with 822 (4.6) plus added 422 (12.8) rec. Zach Cutkomp (75, 2.8) was #4. This year all 3 RB's return and without their mobile QB taking away carries the RB's numbers will climb dramatically.

Rec's - Jarred Herring was #3 in '09 with 516 (19.1) and was the leading returnee in '10. The offensive scheme changed with the mobile QB and Herring did lead in '10 but with only 549 (17.7) while 5 others made 15 or more rec's. They ret'd 5 of their top 7 LY but were without their #2 (405, 16.9) and #3 (289, 17.0). Herring led for 2nd straight year with 542 (15.1). Terrell Sinkfield who had 5 rec but for 26.8 in '10, finished #2 with 464 (16.6), RB Johnson was #3 and TE Darion Howard was #4 (182, 11.4). Seven of the top 9 are scheduled to return but they not only lose their leader as well as Josh Collins (120, 7.1) who made 8 st but TE Darion Howard who was susp for the season. The numbers will certainly increase for this unit and we'll call them on par with LY despite losing their #1 player.

O-Line - How many times has a team lost all 5 OL starters incl a pair of AA yet saw their numbers increase? That's what happened in '10 magnifying the importance of QB Rennie. They increased the ypg from 189-217 and the ypc from 4.9-5.0 but the sacks did skyrocket from 10-34. LY they only lost 1 starter and again surprisingly the numbers fell to 168 ypg (4.5) with 25 sks. This year they lose 1 starter in 1st tm MVFC LT Jay Teply. Three are back who started all 13 gms and 2 part time starters (6 & 7 st) will move into full-time roles. They lose 1 starter for a second straight yr but we have them up just a touch.

D-Line - In 2010 they actually played a 3-4 D for 8 gms and a 4-3 in the other 4. They lost 3 starters into '10 but almost still matched '09's numbers as they allowed 104 ypg and 3.1 ypc with 37 sks. LY they basically ret'd intact and the numbers ballooned to 158 ypg (3.9) but those numbers were inflated against 2 rush oriented playoff teams. In the regular season they allowed 121 ypg (3.3). This year they lose 3 starters incl DT Ben Boothby (7.5 sk, 11 tfl) who earned B2B 1st tm MVFC honors. It's possible we will see the worst numbers here in over 7 years.

LB's - The 2009 defense allowed only 13.2 ppg (#4 FCS). In 2010 they lost a pair of starters (#1 & #4 tkl'r) but moved in their FS (#2 tkl'r). They allowed over a td more per game, their most S/'06 at 21.1. LY they only lost 1 starter but it was converted FS Jamar Thompson who was the #1 tkl'r and 1st tm MVFC. Much like the rush numbers the team allowed 16.2 ppg in the reg ssn but after allowing 48 pts in the quarterfinals finished the season allowing 19.0 ppg. TY the cupboard is bare as they lose all 3 starters who were the team's #1, #2 and #3 tacklers while also combining for 19 tfl's.

DB's - In '10 the secondary lost 1 st'r with a 2nd switching to LB and they finished #76 in pass eff D with a 17-15 ratio. LY they basically returned intact and in the spring HC Farley called it his MIP group. His assessment was correct as they improved their ratio to 12-18 and finished #30 in pass eff D. This year they only lose a part time starter as Tre'Darrius Canady had 8 st and 35 tkl while returning FS Wilmot Wellington made 5 st with 59 tkls. The duo at CB can compare with any as Varmah Sonie (20 st L2Y) was 1st tm MVFC LY and JJ Swain (24 st L2Y) was 2nd tm in '10.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd intact in '10 with both the K and KR earning 1st tm MVFC and they finished #7 in our ST rankings. LY they lost their career FG leader but didn't miss a beat as Tyler Sievertsen was 18-20 (L48) earning 1st tm MVFC. P Kyle Bernard saw his avg dip slightly from 42.4 to 40.6 but the net grow from 33.3 to 35.3. Varmah Sonie handled the PR and his 8.6 avg topped '10's leader (7.7) while Carlos Anderson was the main KR again and his numbers dropped slightly from 27.2 to 23.1. Everyone's back so after LY's #16 finish they will be a challenger for the top spot.

COACHES - Mark Farley is in his 12th year as HC here and has led UNI to 7 playoff appearances and 10 Top 25 finishes. The co-OC's are also back for their 12th season in Bill Salmon and Mario Verduzco. They'll have their 3rd DC in as many seasons as Jovan Dewitt moved on to FAU. As of presstime the new DC has not been named.

Overview - The Panthers went into 2011 loaded with confidence. After returning only 9 starters in '10 they still made the playoffs and had 18 starters back LY and were ranked #7 in the pre-ssn polls. In the opener at Iowa St it was a wild final few minutes. ISU scored with 4:30 left to lead 14-13, UNI got an 80 yd td pass to lead 19-14 with 4:17 left but that ISU went 60/9pl to score with :40 left. UNI traveled to #16 SF Austin and +4 TO's led to the win. They blew out their next 2 foes by 28 and 35 pts then the defense rose to the occasion. They led Ind St 10-9 at HT and shut them out in the 2H, they led SDSU 21-14 at HT and also shut them out in the 2H and then against SIU it was tied 7-7 at HT and they held them to a FG in the 2H. They travelled to face #3 NDSU but a loss dropped them to 6-2. Their next 3 were closer than expected as they needed a 63/10 pl td drive with 1:59 left to beat YSU, trailed a 5-4 SUU team 21-7, and in the reg ssn finale needed a FG on the final play to win in 2OT vs Ill St and clinch a playoff berth. In the playoffs they tailed Wofford 14-7 but got a 3Q fum rec for a td to secure the win. Against Montana in the quarterfinals they trailed 14-10 mid-2Q but allowed 34 unanswered thanks in part to -3 TO's.

NORTH DAKOTA STATE BISON

Craig Bohl (Career 75-31)
10th Year at NDSU (75-31)
Fargo, North Dakota — Enrollment: 14,189

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Jose Moehler (1181, 59%, 5-6) won the job in 2010 but after an injury Brock Jensen came in and he started gms 4-6. He was inj'd and originally thought to be OFY but unexpectedly returned and started the L/4 throwing for 950 (45%, 7-2) while adding 231 (3.4) rushing. Jensen took control LY starting all 15 despite being hampered by turf toe. He finished with 2,524 (67.2%, 14-4) adding 173 (2.4) rushing with 9 td's and set a school record with 142 passes w/out an int. Jensen returns and very few teams can say they have back a National Championship winner at QB.

RB's - The Bison have had a 1,000 yd rusher for NINE straight seasons. DJ McNorton was #2 in '09 with 282 (4.4). He took over in '10 and led with 1,559 (5.6) and 15 td's plus 433 (17.3) rec. While McNorton topped 1,000 again LY (1,020, 5.2, 13 td) he finished #2. Sam Ojuri who played as a true in '09 with 144 (4.5) and RS in '10, led with 1,105 (5.9) despite making only 1 start. McNorton departs but Ojuri returns and will be spelled by Derrick Lang (142, 3.5) who was the #3 RB LY. Also back is FB Andrew Grothmann (10 st) who deserves accolades for opening holes for the school's first pair of 1,000 yd rushers. We'll call the unit even with LY's and a tenth straight season is well within reach.

Rec's - In 2010 they ret'd 6 of their top 8 rec's incl their top 3. Warren Holloway led with 698 (14.2) while RB McNorton was #2 and they were the only ones to return LY. Holloway again led and this time topped the century mark with 1,003 (13.0). Ryan Smith was #2 with 531 (12.1) while TE Matt Veldman finished #3 (331, 12.7) taking home 2nd tm MVFC honors. This season Smith is the only rec in the top 4 to return and while 3 others are back who made at least one start at WR LY none had over 100 yds rec. Losing a 3 year starter who led in B2B2B seasons will be tough to replace.

O-Line - The OL opened holes for 200+ ypg rushing from '07-'09. They lost 3 starters in '10 and the numbers fell to 174 ypg (4.5) but the shocking number was 34 sks (16 more than any of the L7Y). LY they only lost 1 starter and with a pair of 1,000 yd rushers you would have thought they bettered their numbers but with 15 games played they basically stayed the same at 173 ypg. They did however improve to 4.9 ypc and allowed a respectable 18 sks. This year they lose 2 multi-year starters incl a 1st tm AA RT Paul Cornick who signed a UFA contract with the NYJ and a 2nd tm MVFC LG.

D-Line - After losing 2 of their 4 starters in 2010 they allowed their worst rushing numbers (172 ypg, 4.6) since their move up to the FCS but did produce 38 sks. LY they lost 1 starter who was an AA DT. All 3 back made 14 st in '10 making it a veteran unit and they produced their best numbers since 2006 allowing 119 ypg (3.5) with 41 sks. TY they lose 1 starter but it was their sk leader Coulter Boyer (9 sk, 1st tm MVFC). They are set up well to fill the big shoes as the 2 DE's split the spot making 7 and 8 sts respectively. NDSU lost their star into LY and now do so again so we'll call the unit equal.

LB's - What a difference 2 seasons can make. In'09 they lost 2 starters (#1 & #2 tkl'rs) and allowed 28.6 ppg, their worst in FCS play. In '10 they lost 1 starter but ret'd their #1 and #2 tkl'rs and improved to allowing 18.2 ppg. LY they lost one starter, (#10 tkl'r) but returned their #1 and #2 plus a LB who started 3 gms but was the #3 tkl'r. The unit not only improved to 12.7 ppg but that led the FCS thanks to only allowing a total of 27 points in their 4 playoff games. TY they lose their #1 and #2 tklr's so a sizeable drop off would not surprise.

DB's - The unit has clearly overachieved the last several years. They lost 2 starters in 2010 yet still finished #15 in pass eff D with a 12-18 ratio. They again lost 2 starters LY but with the very effective front 7 finished #16 in pass eff D with a 14-21 ratio. TY they only lose 1 starter and ret a 2nd tm MVFC SS and 1st tm AA CB Marcus Williams (7 int). Andre Martin made 24 st at CB at UNI and tran in after grad so they move Christian Dudzik to the open FS spot basically giving them 4 starters back.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Heading into LY the Bison lost their AA P and top 2 KR's. Matt Voigtlander avg'd 41.0 with a 36.6 net compared to 42.6 and 39.2 in '10. Ryan Jastram was 14-23 (L/51) in '10 but improved by hitting 16-18 (L/53). The PR duties for both seasons were handled by Ryan Smith who avg'd 10.7 in '10 and 10.5 LY earning 2nd tm MVFC. The KR unit got a boost as '10's top man avg'd 22.7 while AA CB Marcus Williams would have led the FCS LY with more att's avg'd 34.2 and both main return men are back. A #5 finish in '10 was followed by a #2 finish LY but with having to replace both K's we expect a decent drop in the rankings for this year.

COACHES - HC Craig Bohl is entering his 10th year here and has produced 8 of 9 winning seasons, B2B playoff appearances and now a Nat'l Championship. Brent Vigen is in his 3rd yr as OC and in his 15th yr overall here as an asst. Chris Kweman is in his 2nd year here and after being the DB cch in 2011 he was promoted to DC this year.

P 19 Ben LeCompte rFr. 5-10 196 #1 punter in spring. 36 .0 avg in HS.

Overview - The Bison came into '11 off of a confidence building 9-5 season in which they made their first ever FCS playoff appearance and won a pair of post-ssn games by 26 and 25 pts before falling to the eventual Nat'l Champs in OT. They came into LY ranked #11 and blewout a pair of overmatched foes by a combined 89 pts. They stood toe-to-toe vs Minnesota and 2 def td's by AA CB Williams opened up the door for their 2nd str upset of the Gophers. They led ISU 14-3 and got a 14 pt swing with an 82 yd int ret td to secure the win. The next week a defensive battle ensued with NDSU needing a 50/7pl 4Q drive for the 9-3 win over #17 SIU and they led SDSU 38-7 before allowing a td with :04 left. It was #2 UNI vs #3 and the game turned in the 3Q as NDSU, leading 17-13 got a 3 yd fmbl rec td. Against #17 Ind St the bend but don't break D got outgained for the 4th time in 6 games but again led 27-10 before allowing a 4Q td with 3:01 left. There was nothing fluky about getting upset by YSU as they were outgained 451-293 and lost the TOP battle 37:36-22:24. They clinched the MVFC Title taking out their frustrations on WIU as they led 37-7 into the 4Q. They got progressively better in the playoffs beating # 17 James Madison by 12, shutting out #6 Lehigh 24-0 and were +3 in TO's against #3 GA Southern in a 28 pt win. NDSt won 5 DII Nat'l Championships with their last in 1990 and got their 1st FCS Nat'l Championship by holding Sam Houston St to 210 yards and 31 pts below their FCS leading scoring offense. This year they return 14 starters plus a 1,000 yd rusher but thanks to 9 def/ret td's the team that only outgained its foes by 30 ypg outscored them by 18.6 ppg.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS SALUKIS

Dale Lennon (Career 131-50)
5th Year at Southern Illinois (29-18)
Carbondale, Illinois — Enrollment: 19,817

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Chris Dieker led the team in passing in '08 (2083, 57%, 16-10), '09 (1326, 58%, 10-5) and '10 (1816, 62%, 15-11). In '09 Dieker was inj'd after 7 st and Army tran Paul McIntosh (PS#94) started the final 6 throwing for 888 (67.2%, 8-3). McIntosh threw for 231 (50%, 3-2) while rushing for 222 (4.2) in '10 and he came into LY as the starter but was inj'd after 4 games throwing for 649 (53.9%, 3-4) while rushing for 218 (5.1). Kory Faulkner (PS#115) made 2 pass att's in '10 and started the final 7 LY throwing for 1,477 (59.4%, 5-8) while rushing for 235 (2.4). Both now return giving them a pair of exp'd starters plus they have AJ Hill (PS#110) a tran from N Ill as their #3. This unit is several notches ahead of where they were a year ago.

RB's - This unit has produced stars as Larry Walker left after gaining 1,265 (5.9) in '09 earning AA honors. Deji Karim stepped in the next season and rushed for 1,694 (7.1, 18 td) being named MVFC OPOY and departing as a #6DC. Pitt tran Shariff Harris (PS#59) led in '10 with 604 (4.6) starting 4 gms while Steve Strother (PS#399) was #2 with 467 (5.4) also starting. Lucien Walker was #3 with 429 (5.6) while QB's were #4 and #5. The top 2 ret'd but LY Harris only had 128 (5.6) in 8 gms. Strother was again #2 with 277 (6.0) starting the first 4 while newcomer and Iowa tran Jewel Hampton (PS#186) started the last 7 finishing with 1,121 (4.9) and 17 td before departing early for the NFL (UFA SF). Strother returns and is again joined by an Iowa tran in Mika'il McCall (PS#54) as well as Indiana tran Antonio Banks (PS#136). There's talent 3 deep so we'll call it even with LY.

Rec's - In 2010 the receiving unit retuned only 2 of their top 7 but it was their #1 Joe Allaria (697, 13.4) and #3 Jeff Evans (319, 17.7). Evans finished #1 (576, 14.4) and Allaria #2 (511, 8.8) in '10 but both left LY and their top returning rec in 2011 was Cam Fuller (4 rec). Fuller finished #2 LY with 530 (20.4). RFr TE MyCole Pruitt led with 562 (13.1) while John Lantz was #3 (278, 10.7), David Lewis was #4 (182, 14.0) and LaSteven McKinney was #5 (181, 11.3). This year Fuller in the only loss making this unit by far the deepest it's been in the past several seasons.

O-Line - In 2010 they lost 3 starters but ret'd both a 1st and 2nd tm MVFC. The rush numbers fell as they avg'd 190 ypg (4.4) while allowing 22 sacks. LY everyone ret'd again incl 1st and 2nd tm'rs so it was very surprising that they rushed for only 183 ypg while the ypc fell to 4.3. This year they lose their decorated 1st MVFC C (3Y st'r) and 2nd Tm MVFC LT (4Y st'r) as well a 3rd starter. They return 3 players who made 6+ st and the 4th spot will be filled by a PS#187JC easing the blow a bit.

D-Line - The DL ret'd only 1 of its 3 starters in 2010 and the numbers fell accordingly as they allowed 153 ypg and 3.9 ypc with only 22 sks. LY they again had to replace 2 starters but bettered the numbers across the board (126 ypg, 3.4 ypc, 24 sks). This year they return 2 starters and while it's unusual enough to have a pair of DL lead your team in tackles it's even rarer to have your NT finish #1. Both now return to what should be an even more improved front.

LB's - After losing 1 starter in '09 and posting a recent best (15.9 ppg), they lost all 4 starters in '10 and posted a recent worst (25.9). LY they lost 1 starter and ret'd three 11 gm starters plus moved in an 11 gm starter from FS. Even with the 3 returning LB's all making 10+ st the team again allowed an eye popping 27.0 ppg. This season they return a pair of 2Y starters and certainly feel they will stop this slide.

DB's - The 2010 secondary returned a pair of starters but it included an AA CB and 1st tm MVFC FS. They finished #66 in pass eff D with a 15-11 ratio. LY they lost 2 starters and moved one to LB and the unit fell all the way back to #107 in pass eff D with a 21-12 ratio. SS Mike McElroy still took home 1st tm MVFC honors. CB James McFadden was inj'd and OFY after 8 st and was still inj'd this spring making him a ? for the ssn. They'll have at least 1 starter back and perhaps 2 so we will call them one step up from the 2011 version.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In '09 and '10 this unit produced a 1st tm MVFC K, P and RM. They finished 2010 #57 in our ST rankings. LY Jackson MacLachlan was 9-14 (L/40) after '10's K was 7-11 (L/38). Austin Pucylowski avg'd 39.8 (32.3 tm net) in '10 and ret'd LY with an avg of 38.3 (32.7 tm net). LaSteven McKinney took over as PR avg 7.6 which bested '10's leader (5.6) while Steve Strother improved his KR avg from 26.1 to 27.6. This year the unit returns intact after a 2nd straight #57 finish we'll expect their ranking to improve this season.

COACHES - HC Dale Lennon is in his 5th season here and he earned MVFC COY his first 2 seasons. He was previously the North Dakota HC for 9 seasons. OC Kalen DeBoers is in his 3rd season and was previously the HC at NAIA Sioux Falls for 5 years leaving with a 67-3 record. DC Bubba Schweigert is in his 5th year and also has HC experience at DII Minn-Duluth (2004-'07).

Overview - In HC Lennon's first 2 seasons the Salukis combined for 20 wins extending their playoff streak to 7 straight seasons. Unfortunately they've now had B2B losing seasons for the first time since '01 and "02 (Jerry Kill's 1st 2Y). LY the season started with a blowout at SEMO and while they outgained Ole Miss they couldn't overcome 4 int's and allowing a 67 yd PR. In their home opener SIU trailed MSU late but went 62/11pl with a 27 yd FG from their rFr with :50 left for the win. At 2-1 they were tied with under a min left vs WIU but when a gambling CB came up empty it lead to a 77 yd td pass with only :26 left on the clock. The next week the D held #4 NDSU without a FD until late-3Q but allowed a 50/7pl 4Q td drive in the 9-3 loss. The close games continued as SIU held a 17-7 HT lead but the offense stalled and a 4Q FB td in the EZ locked up the win for YSU. #2 UNI gave them their 4th straight loss in a game that was tied at 7 at HT. They trailed virtually wire-to-wire vs ISU scoring a td on the game's last punt. After SDSt gave them a 6th straight conf loss HC Lennon still said "The attitude of the team is encouraging". The quote came to fruition as they finished off the disappointing season with a 17 pt win vs EIU and won their 8th straight reg ssn finale over jumping out to a 21-0 lead. For the 6th time in 7Y they return 13 or fewer starters but have a better nucleus TY.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Drew Kiel was the starter into 2009 and hit 20-22 in the opener before getting inj'd and OFY. The Matt Brown (PS#286) era began and he started the final 10 setting multiple school frosh records and taking home MVFC FPOY and 2nd Tm all-conf honors with 2,369 (64%, 11-6). Brown had a successful soph ssn throwing for 2,665 (64%, 22-11) and after 2Y was the school's 5th career pass leader. His consistency cont'd LY as he finished with 2,187 (65%, 18-7) again earning 2nd tm MVFC. Brown returns and will be backed up by dual-threat Wyoming tran Adam Pittser (PS#86) as well as a PS#239 soph and PS#120 rFr. Obviously with a 3Y starter returning who has 7,221 yds passing this unit is in fine shape.

RB's - Clifton Gordon led the tm in '09 with 542 (3.6). He ret'd in '10 and the team added a pair of Big Ten transfers in Ashton Leggett (PS#119, Mich St) and Erik Smith (PS#85, Wisc). Gordon only had 9 att's in the first half of the season and moved to LB. Smith led with 656 (4.6) while Leggett was #2 with 599 (4.3) and no other player had over 76 yds. Both ret'd LY and Leggett earned 2nd tm MVFC with 1,031 (4.6) while Smith made only 1 st and played in only 5 gms with 76 (7.6). Gordon moved back to RB and was #2 with 406 (3.7) while JC tran Darrelynn Dunn was #3 (247, 5.4). Dunn is the only rusher among the top 5 to return but they get another BCS tran in Jonathan Miller (PS#58, Oklahoma) who played in 1 gm for the Sooners LY. While they have less experience at RB they are close in talent.

Rec's - In 2010 they were without their #1 and #3 rec and then their TE (#5 rec) moved to the OL. Tyrone Walker (486, 13.1) was the leading returnee and he finished #1 with 974 (16.5). E Mich tran Marvon Sanders was #2 with 754 (10.3) with the top 2 RB's finishing #3 and #4. The top 4 ret'd LY and Walker was #1 again with 787 (12.3) followed by Sanders (441, 11.3) with rFr Lechein Neblett finishing #3 (358, 9.2). Matt Younger made 2 st in '09 (126, 14.0) but was banged up and only started 5 LY finishing #4 (170, 12.1). TY Sanders is the only one among the top 5 to depart. Newcomer Chick Chatham (PS#158JC) may knock a returnee from their spot and we'll see how they use WV trans Brian Athey (PS#108QB) as he RS here LY as a QB but was used at TE this spring. HC Spack got the size he was looking for as Illinois trans Anthony Williams (PS#73, 6'4") joined the team in the summer. This unit has been upgraded from LY.

O-Line - The OL unit ret'd intact in 2010 bringing back all 7 players that made starts and they upped the numbers to 131 ypg, 3.6 ypc with 17 sacks. LY they ret'd 3 starters incl a 2nd tm MVFC C who was 1st tm LY in Cal McCarthy. The unit overachieved and opened holes for 183 ypg (4.4) allowing 6 sacks (#3 FCS). This year they lose all 5 starters and are clearly the biggest ? on the team. OG Rocco Ammons (4 st) is the only one back with starting exp but the OT will be fine with Mia, Fl tran Jermaine Barton (PS#193) and Oklahoma tran Josh Aladenoye (PS#96).

D-Line - Three of the 4 starters were back in '10 but the numbers still slid to 200 ypg, 5.0 ypc and the sacks were cut in half with only 12. LY they again ret'd 3 of 4 starters but this time it incl a 1st tm MVFC DT and an Ill tran, Nate Palmer. Eric Brunner grabbed his 2nd straight 1st tm honors and spearheaded a unit that showed incredible improvement allowing 86 ypg (2.7) while tripling their sacks to 36. While they lose Brunner the other 2 DT's split the sts LY in an FBS trans from Buffalo (PS#361) and a VHT from Wisconsin (PS#42).

LB's - After the LB corps returned intact in '10 and having allowed 25.5 ppg it was mind boggling that the ppg allowed soared from 25.5 to 39.6. They ret'd intact again LY and added Ill tran Evan Frierson who finished as the #2 tkl'r and with the talent upgrade they went from posting a recent worst to a recent best at 19.2 ppg. TY they lose B2B #1 tkl'r Josh Howe but have exp to fill the gap with Mike Zimmer who made only 2 st LY but made 15 combined st in '09 &'10. There is basically no exp behind the front 3 so health will be a major factor if they went to come close to LY's numbers.

DB's - Like the entire defense in 2010 the unit was inj plagued and they limped to a #112 pass eff D ranking. Despite returning only 1 starter LY all 4 started at least 10 gms and they finished #88. TY they only lose 1 starter but we may see a pair of new faces starting. Ezra Thompson is a CB tran from Col St where he made 3 st at SS while VHT Dominic Clarke (PS#47) started the F/2 LY at Ohio St. This is yet another position that sees an increase in talent.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After a #6 finish in our ST rankings this unit had to replace a dual K&P LY. Patrick Wright topped '10's numbers avg 37.7 with a 36.4 net but Nick Aussieker only hit 9-17 (L/40). Donovan Harden shared the PR's (9.2) and KR duties (23.5). While the numbers were solid LY they were +4 in td/blk and TY they were -1 dropping them back to #32. This year they return intact and could challenge for a top 10 finish.

COACHES - Brock Spack returns for his 4th season and he became the 1st HC here to have B2B winning seasons in his first 2 in over 60 years. He spent the previous 12 seasons as the Purdue DC. Luke Huard returns for his 4th year (3rd OC) and previously was the QB cch at Washington. The DC stepped down in April of '11 and Spack took over the duties after his defense improved 20.4 ppg and 151 ypg he'll retain the DC title in 2012.

Overview - The opener against instate rival EIU was tied at 12, 19 and 26 but 3 4Q TO's cost Ill St the game. After handling Morehead St they trailed YSU 28-13 at HT and were never closer than 7 in the 2H. Against SDSU they held the Jackrabbits out of the EZ until the 4Q coming away with a win and then outgained #5 NDSU but TO's again cost them the game as they had 1&gl at the N5 and was int'd then had 1&10 at the NDSU28 and that one was ret'd 82 yds for a td. A couple of comfortable wins got them to 4-3. They led most of the way in a close win against #16 Ind St and were ranked heading into SIU where they raced out to a 24-7 lead and held on. They handled WIU and headed into the finale #14 vs #4 with a probable playoff berth going to the winner. Ill St had a 27-12 FD edge against the Panthers but settled for 2 short FG's and were SOD before losing a heartbreaker in 2OT. While it says ISU has11 ret starters the talent makes it closer to 18 and the Redbirds will be in the MVFC hunt.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Thomas O'Brien started 6 gms in 2009 and threw for 1,448 (57%, 11-9). O'Brien had every QB att in '10 finishing with 2,236 (54%) but only a 10-15 ratio. There was a 3 way battle in the spring of '11 between O'Brien, rFr Austin Sumner (PS#467) and Jordan Thomas (PS#445JC). O'Brien started the first 3 but left the team finishing with 692 (61.2%, 5-7). Sumner started the final 8 throwing for 2,382 (59.7%, 16-9) while Thomas (7-11, 80 yd) played in 2 gms. Sumner now has almost a full season of experience but all 3 backups are either true or rFr with dual threat rFr Eric Kline (PS#229) listed #2. The unit is basically in the same shape as LY.

RB's - Kyle Minett departed after the 2010 season as the schools #2 all-time rusher after posting B2B2B 1,000+ yd seasons. In his final season here he rushed for 1,208 (5.2) and landed on several AA lists. Tyrel Kool was #3 in '09 with 96 (5.6) but switched to WR in '10 and led the team rec with 808 (12.6). With the departure of their star LY Kool retuned to his natural position and led the team in rushing but with only 534 (3.5) in 9 st but did add 224 (8.6) rec. RFr Zach Zenner made the other 2 st and finished #2 with 470 (4.4) while no one else had over 47 yds. After not returning a RB with any rush yards LY this spot is obviously well ahead of where it was a year ago with the top 2 back.

Rec's - In 2010 the receiving unit had to replace their top 3 but that blow was softened by RB Kool who finished #1. Brandon Hubert was #2 with 375 (11.7) followed by the addition of Colin Cochart (338, 10.9) and Aaron Rollin (292, 12.2) who made 8 st but was inj'd and OFY. With Kool moving back to RB they lost their #1, #3 and #5. Dale Moss was a basketball player and joined the tm for one season ending up #1 with 949 (15.6) earning 2nd tm MVFC. Rollin was #2 (906, 14.9) followed by Hubert (485, 14.3), Kool and rFr Jason Schneider (187, 10.4). This year they again lose their #1 but return the next 7 that had receptions making this unit a couple of notches above LY.

O-Line - The unit opened running lanes for 140 ypg (4.1) with 3 starters back in 2010 and led the FCS with only 6 sks allowed. They ret'd 4 starters LY but lost an AA C and a 2 time 1,000 yd rusher. Despite having the extra starter back they plummeted to recent low gaining 84 ypg and 2.6 ypc while ballooning to 33 sks. This year they basically return intact having 8 players that made sts with the starting 5 all having made 8+ st. There should be a substantial jump in the numbers with an exp'd OL in front of an exp'd RB corps.

D-Line - This unit posted a recent best in '09 allowing only 103 ypg and 3.1 ypc with 29 sks. They returned 2 starters in '10 but lost a pair of 12 gm starters incl Danny Batten (#6DC BUF). They went from a recent best to posting a recent worst allowing 183 ypg (4.2) with 21 sks. LY they rotated players so they needed to replace 1.5 starters. The unit again posted recent highs allowing 204 ypg (4.8) with 22 sks. Eight players made DL sts LY so they are in the same position as in '10 but clearly have to believe they can stop a 3 year skid.

LB's - The LB's matched the DL in '09 by putting up recent best in allowing 17.4 ppg. They returned their #1 tkl'r (1st tm MVFC) in 2010 but lost the other 2 starters and gave up 21.1 ppg. LY they lost their 2x 1st tm'r but returned the other 2 starters (#2 & #5 tklr's) but despite being more exp'd allowed 12 ppg more at 33.1. This year they lose both multiyear starters (#1 & #3 tklr's) and a part-time starter leaving 2 who combined for just 6 st as the only exp'd returnees. It'll be a long season defensively unless they find a couple of diamonds in the rough.

DB's - The 2010 secondary looked to return intact but their capt (2nd tm MVFC) ended his career (medical) leaving 3 back. The unit was the bright spot as they finished #28 in pass eff D with a 14-9 ratio. LY they lost 2 starters incl a 1st tm MVFC CB and much like the front 7 saw their numbers plummet as they finished #97 in pass eff D with a 20-11 ratio. This year they lose 3 players that combined for 13 st so 3 starters return. After LY's who numbers incl allowing 64.8% completions we'll expect the entire D to rebound to some degree.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Jackrabbits ST's units excelled in '10 and finished #12 in our rankings. LY all the major components departed leaving the cupboard bare. The '10 K's went 11-20 (L/47) and LY Justin Syrovatka was 6-10 (L/47). The P avg went from 40.4 to 42.2 but the net fell from 38.2 to 36.8 and TY they'll have their 3rd new P in as many seasons. The PR numbers were similar in both seasons but they'll need to find a replacement while Zach Zenner will return to try and better his 24.3 avg on KR's. It was a very impressive #24 finish for this basically new unit so we expect another solid finish.

COACHES - Longtime vet John Stiegelmeier is entering his 16th season as HC. He oversaw the transition from DII to the Great West and now to the MVFC. Eric Eidsness was the OC here from '99-'03 when he left to become the SW Minn St HC. He ret'd in 2010 and was promoted back to OC TY. The co-DC's are entering their 4th season together with Clint Brown being in his 4th year overall while Jay Bubak enters his 8th season here.

Overview - The fans in Brookings have become accustomed to winning as under HC Stigelmeier they finished above .500 in 12 seasons including 8 straight years ('02-'09) even after moving up from DII in 2004. In 2010 they went 5-6 and after LY it was the first B2B losing seasons for the Jackrabbits since '89 & '90. They opened against previous Great West rival S Utah and led 29-7 in the 4Q but S Utah scored a td with :02 left and SDSU stopped the 2pt conv for the win. After a loss at Illinois they traveled west and had 2 int ret'd for td's in a 48-14 loss to Cal Poly. The offense struggled vs Ill St and then they trailed Ind St 38-15 in a 10 pt loss to drop their 4th straight. At YSU the game was tied at 7, 14, 21 and 28 before getting a 73 yd td pass for the final margin. In B2B weeks they lost by 17 pts vs #2 UNI and by 24 pts to #3 NDSU to fall to 2-6. Missouri St came in with only 1 win on the season but after four 2H lead changes the Jackrabbits pulled it out in 2OT's. In their FHG the Jackrabbits jumped out to a 35-14 HT lead and won by 11 and then were :36 away from a shutout in the season finale finishing with 3 straight wins. They return 15 starters and despite losing to all 3 ranked foes LY they outgained each of them.

INDIANA STATE SYCAMORES

Trent Miles (Career 13-32)
5th Year at Indiana State (13-32)
Terre Haute, Indiana — Enrollment: 11,494

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Sycamores used 3 QB's in 2009 with horrific results totaling 871 yds, 48% comp and a 2-11 ratio. No position on any team in the country had a more important influx of talent as this one. In 2010 Wash tran Ronnie Fouch (PS#55) threw for 2,252 (58%) with a school record 20 td's with only 5 int's leading ISU to their 1st winning season S/'96. Cody Glass replaced an inj'd Fouch in the finale and on the season threw for 116 (44%, 1-2). Both ret'd LY but Fouch's numbers slipped a bit throwing for 2,064 (53.3%, 18-10). Both depart and they'll go the transfer route again. Out of the spring Mike Perish (PS#120, W Mich) was #1 followed by Blake Loncar (PS#257JC) and JD Pride (PS#170, Minnesota). If Pride doesn't crack the top 2 you can expect to see the talented athlete switch to WR. While there is talent here the unit is down a notch as LY they ret'd a veteran QB with great numbers.

RB's - In 2010 Darrius Gates (1057, 5.6) earned 1st tm MVFC and became the first 1,000 yd rusher here S/'99. Gates departed LY but they ret'd the next 5 rushers. Shakir Bell (PS#178) was #2 in '10 with 649 (6.8) but exploded with 1,670 (7.3) earning MVFC OPOY. FB Brock Lough was #3 in '10 with 243 (4.9) and finished #2 with 309 (5.3). Lough earned 1st tm MVFC for his blocking ability and TY is the only loss among the top 5. It was a 2 man show LY as the top 2 took 86% of the RB carries and Bell not only led the FCS in rushing but his 152 ypg was 21 ypg more than the #2. This entire unit's grade is based on Bell's continued health.

Rec's - The leading rec in 2009 had 326 yds (16.3) and in 2010 Justin Hilton (PS#373JC) led the team with 684 (17.1). Bryan Kent was #1 in '09 and #2 in '10 with 572 (13.3) while Alex Jones was #3 with 545 (18.2). Kent was the only player among the top 5 to not to return LY and Hilton led again with 540 (16.9). Jones was #2 with 501 (21.8) while Mich St tran Donald Spencer (PS#63) was #3 (459, 14.8). This year the losses are heavy as they lose 4 of the top 5 incl their #1 and #2. It will be easier to rebuild this unit with a near VHT anchoring it and have athletes across the board bringing in converted CB's and QB's.

O-Line - In 2010 they ret'd all 5 starters but lost one after 2 st yet still managed to almost double their rush production to 193 ypg (5.1) while allowing 16 sks. They lost 2.5 starters LY yet only opened holes for 11 ypg less while raising the ypc to 5.3. This year they lose 1 starter in LG Ben Geffert who earned 2nd tm MVFC LY and made 31 OL sts and 40 career sts here. The glue to this unit does return in C FN Lutz who has made 30 st in the L3Y and earned 1st tm MVFC LY. This OL is a notch or 2 ahead of where they were LY so the expectations are high.

D-Line - The front 4 ret'd all 4 starters in '09 and only lost 1 starter in '10 but replaced him with a UTEP tran. After allowing an obscene 329 ypg (5.6) in 2007 they allowed 197 (4.7) in '09 and 204 (4.4) in '10. They lost 1 starter LY and moved a 2nd to LB yet showed significant improvement allowing 169 ypg (3.9) with 22 sks. TY they again lose 2 starters. Zakee Bashir (PS#190) was a Marshall tran who got 2 st here at DE LY and will be more acclimated opposite Ben Obaseki who has 16.5 sks the L2Y earning 1st tm MVFC honors both years and MVFC DPOY in '10 while also making our preseason 1st tm All-American squad.

LB's - All 3 LB's returned for 2010 but they moved Jacolby Washington to DE so it was like having 2 back. The scoring defense improved for a 4th straight season as they allowed 29.8 ppg. LY everyone ret'd. MLB Aaron Archie was 2nd tm MVFC in '10 and 1st tm LY. ISU welcomed Washington back to the unit and he and Archie finished #1 and #2 in tackles and both return TY. They will have to fill one spot but Dillon Painter (10 tkl LY) made 3 st in 2010. They were loaded LY but this year have a pair of senior leaders.

DB's - The secondary had to replace 2 starters in 2010 but despite a very good 15-13 ratio they finished #83 in pass eff D. LY everyone ret'd and despite a weaker ratio of 16-8 they finished #63. This year they have to replace a pair of starters incl S Alex Sewall who was 1st tm MVFC the L2Y. Obviously this unit is down a couple of notches but a great pass rush always helps a secondary overachieve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ISU ST's only finished #106 in our 2010 rankings. They ret'd intact LY and after hitting 5-7 (L/32) in '10 Cory Little was 6-10 (L/44). Santino Davis avg'd 38.4 with a net of 33.1 in '10 but only punted 9x (40.0) while newcomer Lucas Hileman was 2nd tm MVFC with a 42.7 avg and 38.2 tm net (#6 FCS). Leonard Riston handled both ret duties and while the team's PR avg slipped from 11.1 to 6.7 the KR's went from 15.2 to 21.3. After finishing #47 LY everyone is back again TY so this unit may see a ST's ranking they have not seen in a while.

COACHES - Trent Miles is in his 5th season here. He took over a team that went 1-32 the previous 3Y and after a 2 year transition had B2B winning seasons for only the 2nd time since 1984. Harold Etheridge is in his 3rd season as OC and was previously the OL cch at Wash St. Jesse Minter is in his 4th season as DC and prior to ISU was a grad asst at Cincinnati where his father (Rick) was HC.

Overview - To put the L2Y into perspective ISU was 2-54 from '05-'09 but 12-10 the last 2 seasons. The Sycamores also learned to win on the road as their 3 wins LY matched their total road wins from the last EIGHT seasons. After an opening loss to Penn St, ISU evened their record vs Butler in a game they led 48-20. The next week they not only got a road win but they had a 34-3 lead vs WKU, their first win over an FBS team since 2001. ISU jumped out to a 21-0 lead vs YSU and held on for a 2 pt win. They were ranked for the first time S/'96 and didn't disappoint beating SDSU by 10. ISU missed some opportunities against #2 UNI but big plays got a HC win vs WIU with 6 td's of 30+yds. They lost a tight battle at Ill St and outgained the #1 team NDSU but were -2 in TO's. For a team with so few recent wins the finale sure was a disappointment against a 3-7 SIU squad. While a playoff berth would have been a longshot they trailed 21-0 at HT but tied it at 21 and 28. Down 28-21 RB Bell was inj'd and they threw an interception at the SIU1 on their final drive. After returning 18 starters each of the L2Y they only return 12 TY but are clearly at a higher level.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - LY the Bears had to replace Cody Kirby who made 41 straight starts and became the first Bears QB to throw for 2,000+ yds in 3 consecutive seasons from '08-'10. Trevor Wooden (PS#199) made 10 st at WR in '10 and LY was susp for the opener then started the L/10 throwing for 1,853 (61.9%, 17-8) while also leading the team in rushing (567, 3.8). True frosh Kierra Harris started the opener and played in 3 gms going 10-16 for 83 yds with a 1-1 ratio. The position looked set coming out of spring TY but Wooden was dismissed in May leaving Harris and incoming frosh Brodie Lambert as the only QB's on the roster. They did get a big addition as Missouri transfer Ashton Glaser (PS#81) will join the competition this fall. He threw for 213 yd (56%) with 2 td for the Tigers in their spg game but will have to quickly learn the MSU offense to unseat Harris or Lambert. Although the Bears did not have much exp at the position coming into LY they did have a player accustomed to starting, so we'll call the unit down a notch this year.

RB's - In 2010 MSU returned only Chris Douglas (#3, 325, 4.5) among their top 4 rushers. Douglas made only 1 st in 2010 but led with 1,051 (6.9) while Stephen Johnston had 10 st and rushed for 752 (5.1). Kirby was #3 (403, 2.9). The top 2 returned LY and with the dual threat QB finishing as the #1 rusher (1567, 3.8) the numbers fell by more than expected as Douglas had 511 (3.5) and Johnston had 260 (3.2). Vernon Scott (PS#273) made 1 st and finished with 167 (4.0) and is the ONLY RB to return who had a carry LY. Mikael Cooper-Falls rushed for 424 (4.6) in '09 but had ACL inj's in B2B spring practices. He did participate this spring and it would be a huge bonus if he's able to produce this season. Expect a sizable burden to be placed on the shoulders of true frosh Cedric Miller (PS#202). Obviously this unit is down multiple notches from LY.

Rec's - In 2010 the Bears ret'd 11 of their top 13 rec's but did lose their #1 and #3. Jermaine Saffold led with 869 (16.4) followed by Cadarrius Dotson (495, 13.2) and Trevor Wooden (284, 13.5). The top 3 ret's LY but Wooden moved to QB. Saffold led again with 913 (20.3) earning 1st tm MVFC honors. There was a huge drop to #2 which was TE Matt Thayer (247, 12.4) while Dotson was #3 (214, 9.7) followed by Ian Starnes (163, 14.8). TY they lose their #1 and #4 with those 2 players combining for 55% of the rec yds. Two others return who each started 3 games so the unit is not completely green but paired with an inexp'd QB the passing game may struggle.

O-Line - The 2010 this unit lost only 1 starter and they posted recent highs with 214 ypg rushing (4.9) allowing 24 sks. LY the losses were massive with 4 starters departing and as you'd expect the numbers tumbled to 142 ypg (3.6) despite having a mobile QB. TY they only lose 1 starter and the 4 back each started all 11 gms. Randy Richards (PS#333JC) stepped in LY at RT after originally choosing Marshall and they hope that Patrick Blanar (PS#590JC) can line up next to him and fill the opening. It's as talented of an OL as they've had in a while.

D-Line - The 3 man front lost 1 starter in 2010 and while the rush numbers fell (157, 4.2) it was still the 2nd best total in recent years. They lost 2 starters LY and allowed 205 ypg and 4.9 ypc with only 18 sks. TY they again lose 1 starter in DE Mikel Ruder who was the tm's DPOY and 2nd tm MVFC. They rotated three others so each position for this season will be filled by someone who made 7+ st LY with 3 new JUCO signees lining up behind them for depth. Despite losing their top defensive player they are actually ahead of where they were LY at this time.

LB's - After returning all 4 LB's in 2009 the team posted their best scoring D S'/00 at 22.4 ppg. All 4 were to return in '10 but 1 suffered an inj so a slight drop would have been understandable but they fell to 34.0 ppg. LY they lost 3 starters (#1, #3 & #4 tkl'rs) and fell for a third straight season to 37.1 ppg. They only lose 1 starter TY (#3 tkl'r) and return 5 that made sts (#1, #5, #8, #9 & #10 tklr's) plus have 3 JUCO's who were listed 1st or 2nd string out of spring. It'll be tough to get back to '09's numbers but they'll be improved.

DB's - The secondary lost 1 starter in 2010 but surprisingly allowed almost 60% comp and a 22-11 ratio finishing #106 in pass eff D. LY they lost 2 starters but had to improve, right? They actually finished #120 allowing 68% comp and a 27-3 ratio!! TY they lose 1 starter (2nd tm MVFC) but they get back an 11 gm starter from '10 who was OFY after 3 st LY. There's only one way to go.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit finished #83 in our rankings in 2010 and only had to replace their main PR. PK Austin Witmer was a mid-ssn replacement in 2010 and hit 6-9 (L/42) after Jordan Chiles hit only 5-13 LY Witmer returned but was only 5-10 (L/44). Chiles did improve his gross P from 38.3 to 40.6 but the net was the same (33.3) as the team allowed 13.4 on PRD. Julian Burton handled both ret duties (18.8 KR, 7.3 PR) but couldn't match '10's top guys. They have to replace their P but after finishing 2nd to last in the FCS (#121) they have to move up, right?

COACHES - Terry Allen returns for his 7th year here and 14th as a MVFC HC. He led UNI from '86-'96 where he was named MVFC COY 5 times. Rob Christophel is in his 6th year as OC after spending 5 years with Louisiana-Lafayette. DC DJ Vokolek enters his 7th season after spending 3 years with conference rival UNI.

Overview - Missouri St started the 2011 season with 4 straight road games incl paycheck games at Arkansas and Oregon. They traveled to EKU and trailed 14-0 at HT. They cut it 14-10 but allowed a KR td on the ensuing KO and after scoring with 1:54 left couldn't recover the onside K. Against #13 SIU they took a lead with :06 left in the 3Q and the only 4Q score was on a 62/11pl SIU td drive with :50 left. The next 3 weeks saw the Bears get handled by #2 UNI and #4 NDSU sandwiched around Ill St. MSU led 13-3 at HT vs ISU but got outscored 35-0 in the 2H. At 0-7 the Bears travelled to WIU and led 24-17 with WIU having a 1&gl with over 2 min left. A 91yd pick 6 and the 14 pt swing led to MSU's first victory. They posted a ssn high 451 yds vs SDSU grabbing a 14-3 1Q lead but at the end of regulation missed a 31 yd FG and lost in 2OT. In their FHG they trailed Indy St wire-to-wire and closed it to 8 with 1:39 left but couldn't recover the onside K. YSU was coming off an upset of #1 NDSU and the Bears trailed at HT 27-10 but reeled off 54, 57, 60 and 64 yd 2H td drives for the win.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Matt Barr departed after throwing for 3,410 (58%, 27-10) and with 449 rush (4.3) in his final season of 2010 earning MVFC OPOY. Barr was inj'd in 2009 starting just 4 games and in his absence Wil Lunt (PS#216) started the L/7 throwing for 994 (53%) but with only a 4-12 ratio and then only had 2 att's behind Barr in'10. LY Lunt battled Cody Reardon (PS#253) who played only 2 gms in 2Y and newcomer Josh Hudson (PS#563JC) who was IFS. Lunt started the opener but after going 4-11 with an int the switch was made to Hudson. Hudson started the next 9 gms and on the season threw for 1,528 (57.5%, 12-11) while Reardon started the finale and finished with 156 (48.4%, 2-2). Lunt threw for 178 (50%, 0-1). All 3 return and they are far ahead of LY when they had to replace the school's career pass leader.

RB's - The RB's have produced quite a legacy as Herb Donaldson departed after the '08 season as the MVFC's all-time rush leader. Dan Gibbs ran for 1,110 (4.5) in 2009 earning AA honors. Caulton Ray (PS#114) transferred in from Mich St and after gaining 1,075 (4.4) in '10 the Leathernecks had their 8th straight 1,000 yd rusher. Bryce Flowers was #2 in '10 with 804 (5.4) while also adding 332 (17.5) rec and both ret'd LY. Ray wasn't 100% LY and the 1,000 yd rusher streak was snapped as he finished with 620 (4.3) in 7 st while Flowers was also banged up and had only 158 (2.3) in 7 gms (2 st). After 7 gms they pulled the RS off Nikko Watson and he finished #2 with 485 (5.4) in 1 st and 4 gms. This year all 3 return and the 240 lb Watson will line up at FB making it a dynamic RB trio.

Rec's - Lino Senatus departed LY after leading the team in '09 (819, 12.6) and '10 (1145, 17.6). Terriun Crump was #2 in '10 with 888 (15.9) followed by a RB at #3 and then by Drew Helt (262, 16.4), Charles Chestnut (222, 12.3) and Justin Morgan (192, 10.1). They ret'd 4 of the top 6 rec's LY and the top 3 returning WR's were Crump (944, 15.5), Chestnut (296, 12.9) and Morgan (202, 14.4). TY only Chestnut and Morgan return among the top 7 rec's and the 498 yds they return is less than half of their lowest total in any seasons the L4Y.

O-Line - The OL had to replace 2 starters in 2010 but still almost doubled '09's production with 191 rush ypg (4.6) while cutting the sks from 46 to 27. LY they had to replace 2.5 starters incl a 1st tm MVFC RT and coupled with a banged up RB unit the numbers fell to 140 ypg (3.5) and the sks rose to 37. TY they have to replace 3 players who combined 23 sts so we'll call it 3 starters back (5 plyr's combined 32 st). They have more experience back than in 2011 and will certainly have a healthier backfield so the expectations will be high.

D-Line - The defensive front 3 lost 2 starters in '10 and the numbers slipped across the board (195 ypg, 4.5, 19 sk). LY they again lost 2 starters incl a 2nd tm MVFC DE and set recent records for the wrong reasons as they allowed 209 ypg, (5.1) with only 12 sk. This year they return 2 starters but the new DC will switch to a 4-3. There's only one way to go after LY's poor performance.

LB's - The 2010 unit returned 3 of its 4 starters incl their B2B #1 tkl'r and allowed 5 fewer ppg at 22.6. LY they lost 3 starters incl the MVFC DPOY and 3x leading tackler Kyle Glazier along with the #2 and #9 tkl'rs. The young unit showed promise starting the season as they held Sam Houston (finished FCS #4 in scoring) to 20 pts and Jacksonville (finished #21) to 21 pts but after allowing 69 at Missouri the wheels fell off as they finished #110 FCS allowing 36.1 ppg. This year they again lose 3 starters but with the defensive scheme changes only have 2 spots to fill. There is talent waiting as one spot will go to N Ill tran Mike Hellams (PS#178) while Ethan Bachinski (PS#237) made 1 st here LY. This unit will clearly be better than LY.

DB's - The unit looked to be down in '10 with only 1 starter back but a pair of JUCO's helped them finish #31 in pass eff D with a 10-11 ratio. LY they had to replace 2 starters but struggled as with the rest of the defense as they plummeted to #110 in pass eff D. The unit rotated players in and out and no one started all 11 at the same spot. They lose 1 starter this year but all 4 spots will be manned by a player who made at least 5 st LY. With all 4 players in the 2nd string having also made starts. It's obvious this unit is headed towards a better season.

SPECIAL TEAMS - This unit finished #88 in our ST's rankings in 2010. Pat Smith was 5-7 (L/38) in '10 but the team was 6-11 and LY he had even fewer opportunities as Smith was only 3-6 (L/26). New P Michael Shroble couldn't match '10's numbers (39.2, 35.2 net) as he only avg'd 37.4 with a tm net of 34.0. The team only avg'd 3.2 on PR's but Larry Patterson was a bright spot with a KR avg of 23.0 on 42 returns including a 90 yd td. The team finished #111 LY and while both K's return, they'll need new returnmen and don't have to do to much to improve in our rankings.

COACHES - Mark Hendrickson returns for his 3rd full season as HC and 14th overall (OC 11Y). He also was named acting HC in portions of both the '08 and '09 season. Both coordinators are new as KiJuan Ware was promoted to OC after being the RB cch here for one seasons. The new DC is Brian Ward who spent LY as Drake's DC Ward also spent '10 here in the MVFC as NDSU's DB cch and the previous 3 years at his alma mater (McPherson College) where he was the HC and was named NAIA COY in 2009.

Overview - The Fighting Leathernecks are an almost perfect example of "Turnover=Turnaround" going 1-10 in '09 (-12 TO's), 8-5 in '10 (+11) and 2-9 LY (-9). The season opened against eventual Nat'l Championship runner up SHSt and the offense struggled with 216 yds snapping a streak of 7 ssn opening wins vs FCS foes. Results went as expected the next 2 weeks beating non-scholorship Jacksonville and getting crushed at Missouri. They trailed #2 UNI 28-3 at HT and couldn't fight back but with the game tied at 21 vs #12 SIU WR Crump caught a tipped pass and went 77 yds for a td with :26 left for the upset. At 2-3 they lost at #21 Ind St then they had a 1&gl at the 9 with 2 min left down by 7 and threw a pick 6 vs MSU. They dropped the next 3 by 29 ppg and finished the season as they started it playing a team that would be in the Nat'l Championship game and fought back after trailing 37-7 in a 16 pt loss. TO=Turnaround calls for a swing back in the 3rd year for the HC. After 10 and 11 ret starters the previous 2Y they do return 13 starters plus are deeper than the previous 2 seasons.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Noah Shepard was a 3Y starter leading the transition from DII to the Great West and he departed after throwing for 2,451 (63%, 21-10) in 2009. Dante Warren was a back up in '08 and '09 then started his final 2 seasons throwing for 2,137 (55%, 18-6) and rushing for 393 (4.1) in '10 and finishing LY with 1,729 (60.4%, 14-7) while rushing for 415 (3.1). Josh Vander Maten walked on here in 2010 and returns with the most experience as he played in 7 gms LY throwing for 221 (57.9%, 3-0) while rushing for 72 (3.0). He was #1 out of spring but can expect a continued challenge from rFr Kevin Earl (PS#177) this fall. This unit returned an 11 gm starter LY so it is clearly several notches below that.

RB's - Chris Ganious started 9 gms as a rFr and gained 755 (6.7) then went on to lead the team in rushing in both '09 (828, 5.6) and '10 (817, 4.3). With the QB finishing #2 in '10 Marcus Sims was #3 with 286 (5.5) and the top 3 all ret'd LY. Ganious started all 11 LY but his production plummeted as he finished with 471 (4.0). Sims picked up the slack and finished #1 with 660 (5.2) with QB's finishing #3 and #4. Quintin McMartin is a 234 lb blocking beast and the throwback FB made 11 st LY with only 1 rush att and 2 rec. This year Sims will have the weight added to his shoulders while Jasper Sanders (PS#223JC) was IFS and proved he'll be an integral part of this offense. Noah Pearl (PS#196) had 12 att's (5.6) as a true and will add depth while McMartin will again lead the way. While the top 2 returned LY we'll still call this unit even with the '11 version especially with the addition of a near HT JUCO who was IFS.

Rec's - In '10 the unit ret'd 4 of their top 6 with their #2 and #3 graduating. Will Powell was a 2-way player in '09 (14 rec, 15 tkl's) as a true and as a full time WR in '10 led the tm with 933 (19.9). Dustin Nowotny was #4 in '09 (337, 10.9) and finished #2 in '10 with 489 (14.4). Both ret'd LY along with #4 Jeremy Blount (163, 18.1) and a RB Ganious at #5. Powell led again with 763 (18.2) followed by Blount (467, 18.7) and Nowotny (323, 11.5). TY Powell is the only one in the top 5 to return but it's a great place to start. TE Jay Burns (5 rec) also returns after starting the L/5 in '11 because of his blocking. Expect Troy tran Anthony Williams (PS#152) who had 7 rec here LY to seize the opportunity. This unit is down a notch but if someone steps it up opposite Powell it could be as strong as LY.

O-Line - This unit left DII as a dominant force but after having to replace 3 starters in '10 the rush numbers fell to 151 ypg (4.2) and the sacks allowed doubled to 21. LY with 4 starters back and all 5 making all 11 sts it's hard to explain the ypc falling to 3.9 and the sacks allowed a recent tm high at 38. This year they lose 4 starters who made 97 career st incl 1st tm AA LT Tom Compton (#6DC WAS). Tim Ross returns at C after starting all 22 the L2Y but he'll have his work cut out for with no other OL with starting experience around him.

D-Line - The 3 man front ret'd intact in 2010 yet shockingly allowed 61 ypg and 1.2 ypc more and had 3 fewer sacks than the previous season. LY they again ret'd intact but switched to a 4-3 with only 2 holding on to their starting roles and the numbers improved to 138 ypg (3.7) with 33 sks. This year they lose 2 starters. Jordan Eaton will fill the DE role after 2 productive seasons as a back up (3 st, 50 tkl, 8 sks 2Y) which gives them a dynamic duo teaming with Tyler Starr (14 sk). Kenny Greer (1st) will fill the NT spot after adding 31 lbs. This unit is in better shape and should top LY's numbers.

LB's - In '08 the Coyotes transitioned from DII and allowed 18.6 ppg but they only faced 6 FCS teams and allowed 32.5 ppg against them. After allowing 27.2 ppg in '09 they returned 2 of 3 starters in #1 tkl'r Adam Broders and #3 tkl'r Shea Williams and showed a slight improvement to 25.5 ppg. LY both returned and they allowed 24.8 with the duo finishing #1 & #3 again. Broders (#3) still earned 1st tm GWC for a 2nd str ssn with Williams 2nd tm. TY both depart leaving one starter and this unit is a notch or two below LY's.

DB's - In 2010 the secondary returned 3 of the 5 returning starters and finished #108 in pass eff D allowing 67% comp. Everyone ret'd LY and into the season they had a combined 89 career st and the starting 4 made 42 of the 44 st. The unit improved to #68 in pass eff D. This year they lose a pair of multi-year starters but 1 spot will be filled by Charlie Goro (PS#38QB) who was a late tran here LY after spending the 2011 spring at Vanderbilt as a QB. While much less experienced the talent pool continues to rise.

SPECIAL TEAMS - SD finished #39 in our ST rankings in 2010 thanks in part to their 2nd tm AA P and they returned LY basically intact. Cole Zwiefelhofer actually improved his gross from 42.4 to 43.1 and net from 36.6 to 38.1. Kevin Robb was 12-16 (L/49) in '10 before hitting 17-20 (L/51) LY. Jermey Blount's PR numbers slipped a bit (16.7 to 11.6) but his KR numbers were even at 21.5. With the improved K the Coyotes finished #14. TY they lose Blount but return both K's and will clearly challenge for a top 10 finish.

COACHES - A new era begins when USD pegged a veteran. Alum Joe Glenn has 24Y of HC exp incl 14 straight winning seasons at N Col and Montana. His most recent HC spot was at Wyoming from '03-'08. Alum and standout QB Wesley Beschorner stayed on board and is in his 7th year here and 4th as OC. New DC Jason Petrino was a grad asst and later Dir of FB operations under Glenn at Wyom and spent the L2Y as a DC at a pair of DII's.

Overview - The Coyotes were DII in '07 and after 4 years in the Great West make another move up in class and a coaching change. LY started with a loss at Air Force but then shockingly jumped out to a 21-0 lead and upset #1 and def Nat'l Champ E Wash. A pair of blowout wins against a provisional DII and an NAIA tm were sandwiched around a blowout at Wisc. After the first 5 gms being decided by an avg of 29 ppg. SD played a close game but did lead wire-to-wire vs SU. The next week their offense was shut down with only 108 yds at new conf foe ISU to fall to 4-3. They hosted UCD and were out'FD 21-12 but were +4 in TO's to grab a 27-24 win. They Coyotes lost by the same score the next week blowing a 17-0 HT lead at Cal Poly. They blewout their 3rd lower div team of the year and in the season finale blew another 17 pt HT lead this time to rival North Dakota as they were -3 in TO's. It maybe a difficult 1st season in the MVFC with only 8 ret starters and a coaching change.

PHIL'S 2012 MVFC FORECAST

1. YOUNGSTOWN ST - The Penguins had 11 ret st'rs in '08 but were the FCS's most injury-plagued team with 26 players missing at least one game and fell to 3-5 (-24.8 ypg). In '09 YSU finished 4-4 and their ypg was in line at +14.6. In '10 they made a coaching change and had 12 st'rs back but their 1-7 MVFC record (3-8 overall) was not impressive. A closer look revealed that they LED IN ALL 11 GAMES in '10, had 4 net close losses and were only -16.6 ypg. LY they had 14 st'rs back and were in the 2nd season of scheme changes but had to travel to all 4 tms we picked at the top of the MVFC. They went just 6-5 incl 4-4 in conf play but were a league best +88.8 ypg which was 27 yds better than #2. They handed FCS National Champ NDSU their only loss on the ssn (27-24) and all 4 conf losses were by a comb 17 pts. TY they enter their 3rd ssn under HC Wolford and ret a MVFC best 16 st'rs incl 10 on off and add several JC's on D. They do not play MSU and while they host UNI, SIU & Ind St they must travel to Ill St & NDSU but did win in the Fargodome LY. The Penguins look to be the team to beat TY and at the very least should make their 1st playoff appearance since '06.

2. UNI - The Panthers football program has been very consistent as they've won or shared 6 MVFC Titles in the last 9 yrs. UNI ret'd just 10 st'rs in '09 and went 5-3 with the 3 losses being their most in conf play s/'02 but their +121.4 ypg was #1 and was 48.6 ypg more than #2. They only ret'd 9 starters in '10 but we still called for a title and they came through winning the MVFC in an incredibly balanced ssn with 8 of the 9 teams finishing conf play .500 or better but were only +26.8 ypg. LY they ret'd a conf high 18 st'rs incl 10 of their top 11 tklrs and shared the title with FCS Champion NDSU, who was their only conf team to beat them. They only finished 3rd in the conf at +17.9 ppg but were #2 (0.3 behind NDSU) at +12.5 ppg. TY they ret just 10 st'rs and lose QB Rennie, who was also their #1 rusher and benefitted from +14 TO's LY. They avoid Ind St and host Ill St & NDSU but must face both YSU & rival SIU on the road. While they may not capture the MVFC crown. TY they will as usual be in the hunt.

2. NORTH DAKOTA ST - The Bison switched conf's in '08 coming over from the now defunct Great West where they finished 3-1 in their last ssn. In their first MVFC ssn they ret'd 14 st'rs and went 4-4 but finished #2 at +100.5 ypg. They were the least exp'd conf team in '09 with only 8 st'rs back, so while a 2-6 record wasn't a surprise, their #4 finish at +53.3 ypg was. In '10 they only had 11 st'rs back but opened the ssn with an upset of Kansas. They went 4-4 in conf action but this time they were dead last with -95.6 ypg but still made the playoffs and won 2 games before losing to eventual champ EW in OT. LY they had 15 st'rs their most s/'04 but they had been +15 in TO's in '10. The Bison made an improbable run as despite being 7th in the conf at -27.9 ypg they were #1 at +12.8 ppg due in part to being an even better +18 TO. While they beat UNI they ended up sharing the MVFC Crown with them as NDSU lost at home to YSU in the only game in which they were - TO's but only 27-24 despite being outgained by 158 yds. NDSU's playoff run had a lot to do with Def as they allowed just 27 ttl pts in 4 gms. TY they ret 14 st'rs and while that D ret 8 st'rs they lose 4 of their top 10 tkl'rs incl their top 2. While this is a talented team much of their success has been due to their outstanding TO margin as the D has forced 31 & 37 TO's the L/2 yrs. TY they do not play WIU and while they must travel to UNI & Ill St they host YSU, SIU & Ind St which should help them make their 3rd str playoffs but they may not regain their MVFC Crown.

4. SOUTHERN ILLINOIS - Former HC Kill led the Salukis to the playoffs in each of his L/5 yrs (avg'd 10 wins per ssn). Dale Lennon took over in '08 and was named MVFC COY B2B ssn's going 15-1 in conf play. In '08 they went 7-1 but were only +23.1 ypg (6th) as they benefited from +8 in TO's. Despite going 8-0 in '09 they were only +57.5 ypg (3rd) as they finished +17 in TO's. In '10 they had Turnovers=Turnaround working against them in addition to only having 9 st'rs back. The result was their first losing ssn s/'02 going 5-6 overall but ironically SIU had their best MVFC numbers at +64.8 (#2) going 4-4. LY they had 13 st'rs back which was more than they had in 4 of the previous 5 ssn's but shockingly went 2-6 in conf play. The Salukis were -23.8 ypg (#6) which was actually 4.1 yds better than NDSU but while the Bison were +18 TO, SIU was only +6. They only lost to the MVFC Co-Champs by a comb 13 pts. TY the Salukis ret just 11 st'rs but add some FBS & JC transfers. They do not get to play newcomer SD TY and while they host both UNI & Ind St they must travel to YSU, NDSU & Ill St. That schedule may keep them from making a run at the conf crown but they should end their streak of losing ssn's.

4. ILLINOIS ST - In '08 the Redbirds had 13 ret st'rs and while they finished just 2-6 in the MVFC, they were +26.5 ypg, finishing the ssn with B2B OT losses. They made a coaching change in '09 and despite finishing -26.1 ypg in conf action, they compiled a 5-3 record thanks to Turnovers=Turnaround (-15 in '08 & +6 in '09). In '10 they ret'd 17 st'rs and finished 4-4 in the MVFC and benefitted from 3 close wins as they were -54.6 ypg. LY they ret'd 16 st'rs and 73.3% of their lettermen and finished 5-3 in conf play and despite being 2nd in the conf at + 61.8 ypg they missed the playoffs thanks to a 2OT loss in the ssn finale to conf co-Champ UNI. TY while they ret just 11 st'rs (t-#7) they add 7 FBS trans to fill the holes. They avoid playing SDSU and while they face UNI & Ind St on the road they host YSU, NDSU & SIU. As long as the new editions gel with the rest of the team the Redbirds should be flying near the top of the conf.

6. SOUTH DAKOTA ST - The Jackrabbits went 4-0 in their final Great West ssn in '07. They were 1 of only 3 MVFC teams in '08 which ret'd their QB and in their inaugural ssn in the league produced a 6-2 record with a conf best +118.0 ypg despite returning just 11 st'rs. They ret'd 14 st'rs in '09 and went 7-1 for a second place finish also finishing #2 with +72.8 ypg and made their first ever FCS playoff appearance. In '10 with 11 st'rs back they went 4-4 (-22.8 ypg) but overall finished with their 1st losing ssn in 9 yrs. They ret'd 14 st'rs back LY and while they again finished 4-4 (7-4 overall) they were +10.9 ypg (#4). TY they ret 15 st'rs which is the 2nd most in the conf. They avoid Ill St and host the bottom 3 tms but also host YSU and must face UNI, NDSU, SIU and Ind St all on the road. With their experience they are an upset or 2 away from moving up.

6. INDIANA ST - Sycamore fans struggled with 13 str losing ssn's ('97-'09) incl just 3 ttl conf wins in 7 ssn's. From '07-'09 they were by far the MVFC's worst team statistically at -250.6 ypg in '07 (167.3 behind 2nd to last), -211.8 ypg in '08 (53.9 behind) and -194.4 ypg in '09 (95.8 behind). While they ret'd 18 st'rs in '10 and were in the 3rd year of their systems they had a lot of ground to make up. HC Trent Miles deservedly won COY getting Indiana St to a 4-4 MVFC record (-16.3 ypg) and their first winning ssn s/'96. LY much was expected as they again had 18 st'rs back incl 75% returning lettermen but we mentioned how it would be tough to continue to improve as ISU was still just 1-33 on the road in the prior 6 yrs. They finished 4-4 again but did improve to +6.8 ypg (5th) and while they hoped for more they still had their 2nd str winning ssn (6-5) and had 3 wins on the road. TY they ret just 12 st'rs (their fewest s/ '08 which was HC Miles 1st yr, 0-12). While they lose a 2Y st'r at QB they had 2 FBS & a JC trans compete for the job in the spring and on D ret 9 of their top 13 tkl'rs incl 2 who had 120+ LY. They avoid UNI and while they host Ill St and the bottom 2 teams they must travel to YSU, NDSU, SIU & WIU. This looks like another middle of the road ssn which is good news for the Sycamores.

8. MISSOURI ST - The Bears under HC Terry Allen went from 1 conf win in his first ssn ('06), to 2 in '07, to 3 in '08 despite being -157.9 ypg. With just 9 st'rs back in '09 they improved once again to 4-4 finish (-0.1 ypg). In '10 they ret'd 16 st'rs and again went a 4-4 but the defense underachieved allowing 11.6 ppg more than in '09 but were still +9.4 ypg. LY they ret'd a league fewest 9 st'rs and lost the MVFC's #2 car leader in ttl off (QB Kirby). They finished just 2-6 and were a conf worst -88.5 ypg (47.6 behind #8) but did upset YSU in the ssn finale. TY they ret 14 st'rs and bring in Missouri transfer QB Glaser and several JC's to fill the holes but have a lot of ground to make up. They avoid YSU and host SD which should keep them out of the cellar.

8. WESTERN ILLINOIS -The Leathernecks bounced between 2 and 3 conf wins from '04 to '07 before returning 17 st'rs in '08 and finishing with a 4-4 record (+42.9 ypg). In '09 they had 13 ret st'rs but had to replace the MVFC OPOY (RB Herb Donaldson) and then their QB was inj'd and the offense went from scoring 32.3 ppg in '08 to 14.0 ppg in '09. WIU fell to 0-8 (1-10 overall), getting outgained by 98.6 ypg (2nd worst). Despite only ret 11 st'rs in '10, WIU not only went 5-3 but finished #1 MVFC at 104.6 ypg. Their +7 wins was the largest improvement in MVFC history. WIU ret'd just 10 st'rs LY and lost the conf's OPOY and DPOY. WIU had been +11 TO's in '10 and LY were -9 and they finished just 1-7 in conf play being outgained by 45.9 ypg (2nd worst) and while their 1 win was 27-21 over SIU they were outscored by a conf worst 20.0 ppg losing all 7 by 14+ pts. TY WIU has 13 ret st'rs and are in their 3rd yr under HC Hendrickson. While they avoid NDSU their HG's are vs YSU, UNI & Ind St meaning their most winnable games are all on the road (SD, SDSU & MSU). That schedule will not let them make another huge turnaround so while the Leathernecks are improved they may not get back to the winning side of the ledger.

10. SOUTH DAKOTA - The Coyotes moved up to the Great West in '08 going 6-5, but were 1-5 vs FCS tms. They went 4-5 vs FCS tms in '09 (5-5 overall). In '10 they ret'd 11 st'rs but faced 2 FBS foes. After getting mauled at UCF they pulled the 41-38 upset at Minn (led 28-10). They were 2-2 when they beat rival ND for the first time in 5 yrs which kept them out of the GWC cellar as they were -2 net close losses. LY they ret'd conf-high 18 st'rs and while they played 2 FBS tms again they had 3 lower div tms on the schedule as well. They shocked reigning FCS Champ EW 30-17 and started 2-0 in GWC play but then lost by 3 to GWC Cal Poly. With a share of the GWC Title going to the victor the Coyotes blew a 17 pt lead over rival North Dakota in the ssn finale. They still finished #2 in the conf at +20.5 ypg. While they had a winning 6-5 ssn, 3 of those wins were over lower div tms. TY while the rest of the GWC moved to the Big Sky the Coyotes join the MVFC and take a big step up in competition. They ret just 8 st'rs and this will be a rough inaugural yr with their best chances at a win coming when they host WIU and at MSU.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After seeing 2 sts in his rFr ssn of '09 (342, 48%), Sean Patterson (PS#252) started all 11 gms during '10 completing 54% of his passes (2050 yds) while posting a 20-10 ratio (286 rush). LY Patterson saw his comp % jump all the way up to 57.3% (2011 yds) with a 23-8 ratio and 552 yds (6.3) on the ground. Marty Mitchell (PS#268) and Zach Nichi will again battle for the bkp duties in '12. Now in his 3rd full ssn as a st'r, expect Patterson (2nd Tm NEC LY) to continue to outperform expectations.

RB's - Larry McCoy burst onto the scene for the Dukes in '09 rushing for the best mark among freshmen with 807 (5.0, 8 td). The 2010 season saw his numbers improve to 1,291 yds (5.1) as he earned 2nd Tm NEC. For the 3rd consec ssn LY McCoy again increased his productivity as he rushed for 1,381 yds (4.8) incl 12 td's (1st Tm NEC). Bill Bair rushed for 314 yds (6.4) as McCoy's primary bkp but he now departs. Ryan Ho and Diondre Person (each had 1 rush att LY) will battle it out for #2. With B2B 1,000 yd campaigns in the books, McCoy has assured himself a spot among the top players in the history of this program.

Rec's - The Dukes returned 2 of their top 3 rec's heading into LY led by Connor Dixon who collected 602 yds (14.0) in '10 while earning 2nd Tm NEC. Dixon led again LY in yds (792), ypc (19.8) and td catches (16) on the way to 1st Tm NEC honors while Isaac Spragg led the tm in receptions with 59 (11.2). TY Dixon, Spragg and the rest of the top 5 depart with Noel Oduho (32, 107) serving as the leading returner. The Dukes do add in Mont St transfer Gianni Carter (PS#131) but with the losses ahead of them, this appears to be a down year for the group.

O-Line - The Duquesne OL has improved in each of the past 2 ssns with LY's 213 ypg (5.0) mark being their best in more than a decade as all 5 st'rs returned (1 st'r moved to TE). This ssn the losses are heavy as C Cameron Downey (38 car sts), RG Jamaal Thomas (33 car sts) and 1st Tm NEC LT Ron Dunn (42 car sts) all depart leaving just LG Eric Warning (22 car st) and LY's JUCO addition RT Jeremy Summers (11 st) as the only 2 members on the unit with a start. With that being said, a drop in the overall rush numbers should be expected as the Dukes attempt to fill the massive holes left by those who graduated.

D-Line - After a ssn in which the Duke defense all'd 197 ypg (4.8) on the ground ('09), new DC Dave Opfar switched over to a 3-4 and saw immediate improvement as they all'd 175 ypg (4.3). LY the group lost just 1 st'r (1st Tm NEC DE) and saw their yds all'd get even better all'g 142 ypg (3.6), their best mark since the '06 ssn w/19 sk. The starting unit has been gutted heading into 2012 as all 3 st'rs Aldon Sutton (8 st, 26 tkl) and 2nd Tm NEC honorees Mike Passodelis (11 st, #5 tkl'r, 5.5 tfl) and Alex Inda (11 st, t-#7, 4.5 tfl) move on. The group has just 3 car sts returning from DE Reggie Eiland who saw his '11 campaign cut short due to an ankle inj. The Duquesne DL has just 24 career tkls at its disposal making this without question the weakest unit on the entire tm.

LB's - In '10, the LB's unit lost 1 st'r but then converted to a 4-man unit and showed a small improvement to 25.7 ppg all'd. LY they ret'd 2 st'rs and then got the large addition of Ohio St tran Dorian Bell (PS#4) who became eligible to play for the Dukes in the 5th gm of the ssn. Bell recorded 37 tkls in a shortened ssn and appears to have locked up a starting spot alongside a pair of returning st'rs in Childozie Oparanozie (11 st, #3 tkl'r) and Derrick Lakins (11 st, 42 tkl). Duquesne does lose 1 full time st'r in leading tkl'r 2nd Tm NEC Christopher Oliver (11 st, 9 tfl) and 2 reserves in Ashton Burno (26 tkl) and Anthony Rhoades (9 tkl). While they may not improve upon LY's ppg mark of 18.3 (#8 in FCS) due to a weak front 3 ahead of them, make no mistake - this could potentially be the best LB corps in the entire NEC.

DB's - This unit has had some solid success in each of the past 2 ssns. After finishing with the #36 rated pass eff D in '10 when they all'd 171 ypg (55%) and a 12-6 ratio, the group added in starting LB Serge Kona (64 tkl, 11.5 tfl) giving the Dukes 2 st'rs coming back heading into LY. The group flourished again led by the emergence of NEC DPOY Kona (48 tkl, 6 pd) as they surrendered just 139 ypg (51.2%) in the air while all'g just 9 td passes all ssn (10 int). With Kona listed as the only returning st'r in the unit heading into 2012, it may be difficult for the Dukes to stay close to their #6 PDR finish LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After 2 yrs of avg 34.1 and 30.4 on his punts, Charlie Leventry put together a service-able campaign LY to earn 2nd Tm NEC honors as he avg 36.8 while also pulling duty as both the starting K (12-17 att) and KO specialist (4 TB on 62 att). Leventry returns for his 4th and final ssn while the group also gets the return of PR Serge Kona (9.4) and KR David Thomas (22.2). The Dukes finished with our #49 ST's ranking LY and assuming Leventry improves again, their rating should as well.

COACHES - Jerry Schmitt enters his 8th yr with the Dukes and prior to LY, he handled the OC duties himself. Taking over the OC position in '10 was Gary Dunn who had spent the previous 14 ssns at Morehead St incl the L/11 as OC. The DC for a 3rd straight yr is former St Francis HC Dave Opfar.

Overview - Prior to joining the NEC in '08 the Dukes had put together 14 straight winning ssns dating back to 1994. After a pair of less than stellar yrs (6-15 record), they returned to their winning ways in '10 with a 7-4 mark. The schedule appeared in their favor as they got both of '10's co-champs (Robert Morris & Central Conn St) at home giving them a chance at a run for the title. After blowing a late 4Q lead in the opener vs Bucknell, the Dukes would go on to win their next 4 contests heading into a date with Albany. In their meeting with the Great Danes, Duquesne found themselves in a 24-0 hole heading into HT for their 1st conf loss of the ssn. Despite running the table over the L/5 incl wins vs both of LY's co-champs, the Dukes, despite being 9-2, lost out to co-NEC champ Albany for the playoff berth. The Dukes return the fewest amount of st'rs in since moving up to the FCS (9) incl just 4 on a defense that finished 4th in the FCS LY in ypg all'd (282). While a winning record is feasible, a 1st place finish may be a reach in 2012.

ALBANY GREAT DANES

Bob Ford (Career 255-178-1)
43rd Year at Albany (246-157) 40th varsity level
Albany, New York — Enrollment: 17,040

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - From 2007-'09 this unit was manned by Vinny Esposito who left as the team's #2 all-time passer. Dan Di Lella (PS#333), who threw 4 passes in '09, started the first 6 in '10 before they made a switch and he finished with 720 (52%, 3-4). RFr Buddy Leathley (PS#286) started the L/5 throwing for 748 (54%, 4-5) while also rushing for 178 (3.4). Both ret'd LY and Di Lella started off the season again as the starter but this time he not only held on to the job but earned 1st Tm NEC by throwing for 2,548 (59.9%, 25-10) and rushing for 311 (4.2). Leathley was here in the spring but decided not to return this year leaving the Great Danes with a 1st time starter. Soph Will Fiacchi (PS#155) RS here in '10 and had 1 att in 2 gms LY will be the #1 into the fall leaving So Ricky Joseph and true frosh Ryan Spelman (PS#412) as the backups.

RB's - Drew Smith was #3 in '09 with 379 (5.9) and was the only RB among the top 4 rushers to return in '10 and he led with 724 (4.5). True Dillon Romain was the NEC's top off rookie finishing with 547 (4.2) with the QB #3 and Ben Miseikis #4 (163, 4.7). All 4 ret'd LY and Smith topped the magical barrier running for 1,092 (5.6) while adding 322 (10.7) rec earning 2nd Tm NEC honors. Romain was #2 with 371 (4.1) and the QB #3 again with rFr Omar Osbourne #4 (308, 5.5). TY the QB departs and they lose FB Justin Petersen who made 20 st the L2Y but the top 6 RB's all return and after the top 3 totaled 1,434 (4.4) in '10 they ran for 1,771 (5.2) LY.

Rec's - The unit lost their #1 (2x 1st Tm NEC) and #3 into '10. Ryan Kirchner (#4, 186, 11.6 '09) led the team with 504 (10.1) followed by Nick Hutcherson (169, 8.9). Four other rec's totaled over 100 yds receiving and the unit ret'd intact for LY. Kirchner led for a 2nd straight ssn with 615 (11.0) earning 2nd Tm NEC while Hutcherson dropped to #5 (228, 9.5). RFr Cole King was #2 with 582 (18.8) with Kevin Chillis #3 (351, 15.3) and a RB #4. They lose only a total of 4 receptions and this intact unit will make it an easier transition for the new QB.

O-Line - While the 2010 OL lost an NEC 1st Tm'r they still returned 4 starters so the drop in the numbers wasn't to be expected. They avg'd 151 ypg and 3.7 ypc and it was the 3rd straight season with declining production. LY they had to replace 3 starters. We projected in LY's mag the numbers would still improve with replacements having had a fair share of backup time in '10 and they did rushing for 182 ypg, 4.7 ypc with only 9 sks (2.6%). TY they have to replace a pair of 12 gm starters plus a player that made 32 st from '08-'10 but only 3 LY. The 3 returning starters will be joined by a pair of players who have played significant time as backups the L2Y and with the power stable at RB should see their numbers increase again.

D-Line - After 5 straight season of allowing under 120 ypg and 3.3 ypc the Great Danes switched to a 4-man front in 2010. They had to replace 1 starter and of course had to fill 1 extra spot and the numbers rose to 134 ypg and 3.8 ypc with only 12 sacks which was 13 less than any season the previous 5Y. LY they lost 2 starters (1st & 2nd Tm NEC) but did return 2x 2nd Tm NEC DE Eddie Delaney who went on to set a school record with 9 sks grabbing 1st Tm honors. The team's ypg rose to 153 but they cut the ypc to 3.6 and had 28 sks. TY they lose 3 starters incl Delaney and a 2nd Tm'r. The new DE's combined for 3 st LY so while they return only 1 st'r they may not fall as much as you would think.

LB's - After the 2009 season they had to replace all 4 starters that finished as their #1, #3, #4 and #5 tacklers perhaps assisting in the decision to switch to the 4-3. The new unit and 3 overall defensive starters only saw their scoring D rise by 3.8 ppg and the overall D by 37 ypg. LY they ret'd 2 starters that were the team's #1 and #2 tkl'rs but could basically only match 2010's numbers. TY they return intact with the top 2 again finishing #1 and #2 although in opposite order while Kyle Jordan was the NEC Rookie DPOY. They'll be counted on to help a very inexperienced DL and secondary.

DB's - With 3 starters back incl a 1st Tm FS Albany finished #26 in '10's pass eff D with a 15-13 ratio allowing 53%. LY they again ret'd 3 starters but the numbers slipped a bit as they finished #46 in pass eff D with a 20-11 ratio. TY they have to replace 3 starters but have a solid building block with a 2Y starting CB that was 2nd Tm NEC while the FS has made 3 st and has 59 tkls the L2Y. While they have a chance to drop to the 2nd half of the rankings this team always seems able to reload.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The numbers were pretty average across the board and their finish in our ST rankings mirrored that in '10 as they ended #61. They ret'd intact last year and Paul Layton deserved his 1st Tm honors by raising the net P from 32.3 to 38.6. Herb Glass put up similar number going 8-19 (L/45) in 2010 and 11-21 (L/48) LY. The KR and PR numbers fell a bit but both ret D's improved and the Danes moved up to #41. This year they have to find a new K but the bar is reachable to make another move up.

COACHES - Albany started football in 1922 but discontinued their program 3 years later. After a 46 year absence they started it again in 1970 the same year KC beat MIN in SB VII and have had ONE HEAD COACH. Bob Ford is now in his 43rd season here. Ryan McCarthy returns for his 11th season here and 5th as OC. Mike Simpson may be the longest tenured DC as he returns for his 27th season in that role.

Overview - The Great Danes were coming off a 4-4 conf record LY which was their worst since 2000. They led Colgate 31-21 but lost in OT. They were overmatched and trailed Maine 24-0 in the 4Q but the next wk were +3 TO's and led by 17+ most of the 2H at Columbia. They opened up NEC play at St Francis and left there a perfect 13-0 in the series. UA jumped out to a 21-0 lead getting HC Ford his 250th win vs Duquesne. At 2-0 in conf play they rolled their next 3 foes leading 63-21 at HT, setting a new school scoring record and finally shutting out Wagner. They hosted Bryant and fell back into a 1st place tie getting outscored 21-0 in the 2H. They started slow and were tied at 17 vs Monmouth but pulled away in the 2H and in the reg ssn finale were again tied at HT but won by 10 and tied for the NEC crown but got their 1st playoff berth s/'77 due to their win vs Duq. It was a school record 6th straight winning ssn and while they only ret 12 st'rs they've had that or less 3 of the L5Y.

WAGNER SEAHAWKS

Walt Hameline (Career 204-123-2)
32nd Year at Wagner (204-123-2)
Staten Island, New York — Enrollment: 2,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After being a #8DC in baseball and playing catcher for 4Y for the KC Royals the 22 yr old frosh Nick Doscher made 9 st in '09 throwing for 1,330 (58%, 8-9) while also leading the team in rushing with 769 (4.8, 13 td). He was named NEC Rookie POY and was 1st Tm All-NEC. Doscher threw for 2,067 (50%, 16-15) and led the team in rushing again with 672 (3.6) in '10. LY Doscher missed 1 st and was banged up in others but still became Wagner's all-time leader in total off although he only threw for 909 (44.8%, 7-6) and rushed for 290 (2.5). Matt Misley made the other start and played in 7 gms throwing for 353 (41.7%, 0-1). Both return and they also add tran Marshyl Rothman (PS#228) who was at Murray St in '10 and sat out here LY and is an elusive scrambling QB. They are deeper from a year ago and the production should rebound after an inj plagued season.

RB's - The QB led the team in rushing in both '09 and '10. Dominique Williams (PS#272) was #2 in '09 with 642 (5.7) and was the only player from the top 5 not to return due to an inj. In 2010 the top 3 RB's had 565 (4.1), 255 (4.8) and 250 (5.6) and no RB with an att ret'd LY. Williams not only ret'd from his injury but became the first here top 1,000 yds since '07 with 1,338 (4.9) while also scoring 14 td's. Newcomer Kenny Howard (PS#110) was at New Hampshire and then at a JC was #3 but with only 62 (3.6) while true frosh Otis Wright (PS#277) who orig signed at TT had 34 (2.8). Obviously the unit is a polar opposite in terms of experience compared to LY and the newcomers add quality depth.

Rec's - David Crawford was #2 in '09 with 282 (20.1) and was the leading returnee in '10 finishing #1 with 629 (18.0) earning 2nd Tm NEC. Tyrone Collins was #3 in '09 (232, 15.5) and finished #2 in '10 with 488 (15.2) while Justin Matthews improved on his 186 (12.4) of '09 finishing #3 with 450 (15.0). LY 2 of the top 4 ret'd but Crawford was inj'd and OFY after 3 st finishing with 124 (15.5). Matthews started the entire season but only was #3 with 240 (11.4). TE Joe Sidaras (PS#286) who was a tran from Hofstra led with 293 (14.6) while newcomer Wandy Saintilien (PS#539JC) who worked at RB in spg and moved to WR in the fall was #2 (249, 17.8). TY they only lose one (#3) from the top 5 thanks to Crawford getting a MedRS for LY making this the deepest unit in some time.

O-Line - The OL lost 2 starters into 2010 and the numbers slipped to 156 ypg, 3.9 ypc with 23 sks allowed. LY they had to replace 4 starters incl a pair of 1st tm'rs but 2 Temple transfers helped them basically match their production at 158 ypg (3.8) but the sks did balloon to 36 (14.3%). TY they only lose 2 players that combined for 7 st. With 4+ starters and 7 with starting exp returning they may set new recent highs as should almost every unit on this Seahawks offense.

D-Line - The 3 man front ret'd intact in '10 and improved by 79 ypg and 1.6 ypc while grabbing an additional 8 sacks. LY they had to replace a pair of starters and the entire defense only had 4 returning starters so it certainly was impressive that they actually improved, albeit by a miniscule amount to 141 ypg (3.7) and had just 1 less sack with 22. This season they lose all 3 starters and a quality bkp. Their experience, or lack thereof, can best be exemplified by the returnees combined production of 2 tackles.

LB's - Two starters returned in 2010 and they helped the team trim 8.1 ppg off of '09's numbers. LY this unit not only ret'd 3 of the 4 starting LB's but they ret'd 3 of the team's 4 returning defensive starters. Thanks to Ark St tran Mike Lombardo (PS#195JC) who led the team in tackles the numbers only fell to 26.4 ppg and 368 ypg. TY they have to replace 1 starter in Julian Stanford who earned 1st Tm NEC and was the team's MVP. This unit will be called on to compensate for a very young DL but they are at least equal to LY's version.

DB's - Despite having 3 starters back in '10 the secondary still finished #90 in pass eff D (19-9 ratio). LY they had to replace all 4 starters but thanks to a Syr tran (PS#197) and a Purdue tran, both of whom started all 11, plus a 9 gm starter from '09 the pass eff D actually improved to #81 (21-13). This year 3 starters are back incl both BCS tran so they are clearly much better off than LY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Seahawks finished #76 in our ST rankings in 2010 and only returned their K. David Lopez was 11-17 (L/54) in '10 and was 4-5 (L/45) LY before being inj'd (OFY). Three others combined to go 3-5 (L/44). Rory Cregan (35.4) and Penn St tran PS#169 AJ Firestone (38.1) had a combined 3 punts blocked and finished with a combined 31.1 tm net. The team's PR (9.4) was above avg but the KR's (19.9) were below and they dropped all the way back to #104. This year the only loss is Cregan and the unit should clearly finish in the upper half of out rankings.

COACHES - Ronald Reagan became the 40th president when Walt Hameline took over what was then a DIII program. Hameline is entering his 32nd season and he is 1 of just 36 coaches at any level to win 200 games at the same school. Jason Houghtaling was a RB and then an OL cch here from '06-'09 and ret'd LY as the RB cch and OC and this year will handle the QB's on top of the OC spot. Malik Hall was the DC here in 2010, left to become a DL cch at UMass and now returns as DC again.

Overview - The Seahawks had a disappointing finish in '10 losing 4 out of their L/5 but started off LY with a div win vs SFU, 38-28. The next week they were overmatched vs #9 Richmond then vs CCSU the first 7 scores were td's and Wagner could only get a FG on their 4Q drive to lose by 4. Against Bryant they were SOD 3x losing their 2nd straight close game. Mistakes led to a Cornell loss getting 2 punts blk'd and fmbl on a sack and despite the stats being close they trailed 24-0 at HT. They faced Georgetown and got to the Hoyas 7, 15, 23, 3 and 25 and came away with only 10 pts. After B2B conf losses by 16 and 24 pts they stood at 1-7. The were tied at 14 vs SHU and got 2 pick 6's to snap the losing streak then outgained RM (only gm they had a ydg edge) to win a second straight. A def and ST td opened up the game in their finale as they won their final 3. An injury plagued ssn usually gives a team a lot of depth and that's the exact position they are in for 2012.

ROBERT MORRIS COLONIALS

Joe Walton (Career 105-79-1)
19th Year at Robert Morris (105-79-1)
Moon Township, Pennsylvania Enrollment: 5,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Jeff Sinclair (PS#260) earned the final 7 sts of his true frosh ssn as he was much more mobile than the previous 2 st'rs HC Joe Walton had behind center. Sinclair would go on and pass for 828 yds (54%) with a 9-6 ratio. In his 1st full ssn as a st'r in '10 Sinclair would go on to lead the Colonials to an 8-3 record and a playoff berth throwing for 1,920 yds (60%) with a 22-10 ratio and earning 1st Tm NEC. LY was more of a rocky campaign for Sinclair as he was hitting on just 50% of his passes with an 11-10 ratio before injuring his knee and missing the L/3 gms. In his absence, both Matt Layman and Tyler Forbes earned starts with neither able to steer the offense in any positive direction. TY RMU loses Forbes giving Layman the sole #2 duties behind a now healthy Sinclair who should return closer to his 2010 form

RB's - The Colonials were forced to replace their 4x leading rusher heading into LY and reigning NEC OPOY in RB Myles Russ. Out of the top 5 rushers from '10, only QB Sinclair returned. With struggles expected, it wasn't much of a surprise to see the unit's leading rusher finish with just 386 yds (Deontae Howard). Howard (PS#251) returns again TY along with the tm's top 6 rushers. Justin Brooks (274, 3.4) and Grayling Sanders (160, 4.8) will challenge Howard for carries but after a ssn that featured a group with plenty of inexperience, 2012 appears to be a bit more promising.

Rec's - In '10 this unit lost its top rec (668, 14.2) but ret'd its next 5 incl TE Shadrae King who put together an AA ssn for the Colonials pulling in 531 yds (12.3) and leading the tm in rec yds, catches (43) and rec td's (7). King ret'd to the tm LY giving RMU 3 of their top 4 back. While King led the tm again, his yardage (524) and td rec (5) fell a bit. 2nd Tm NEC WR Anthony Coleman (399, 13.3) and WR Jamie Cobb (275, 16.2) finished #2 and #3 behind 2nd Tm NEC King but all 3 depart TY leaving Rickeem Jackson (227, 13.4) as the tm's leading returner. After being leaned upon a yr ago with an inexperienced RB corps, this unit is the one lacking the necessary proven depth heading into 2012.

O-Line - With the absence of a 1,300+ rusher heading into LY it was no surprise that this unit took a hit as they went from paving the way for 184 ypg (4.6) in '10 to just 109 (3.0) in '11. The biggest discrepancy however came in pass protection as the unit all'd a whopping 42 sks (13.2%, 28 more than the yr prior. TY the group loses a pair of All-NEC honorees in 2nd Tm C Logan Miles (26 car sts) and 1st Tm RG Brad Rogers (33 car sts) along with reserve Brian Bevilacqua (4 sts LY, 20 car sts). RMU returns 3 st'rs to this group and after a porous '11, expect both the sack and rush totals to improve.

D-Line - LY this unit lost 1 st'r but gained another with former center Sam Miller expected to take a role in the interior of the DL after beginning his career on offense. Surprisingly the group suffered a significant increase in their ypg all'd going from 114 (3.4) in '10 to 153 (4.0) while the sk ttl remained at 21. TY they return all of their key contributors led by DE Nolan Nearhoof who suffered a ssn ending inj at the tail end of LY (1st Tm NEC '10). A decrease in the opposition's rush yds should be expected with 61 car sts among the members of the def 2 deep.

LB's - After all'g just 17.5 ppg in '09, the def has seen a drop the past 2 ssns including a poor 27.9 ppg LY ago as the group lost 3 of their 4 st'rs. TY the group loses just 1 st'r in Jon Krepps (#5 tkl'r, 3.5 tfl) along with bkp Anthony Caperelli (1 st, 13 tkl). With more stability returning for the Colonials, this unit should cut back some on the ppg all'd.

DB's - After finishing #38 in the pass ratings in '10 all'g 199 ypg (55%) with an impressive 18 int (17 td), the secondary lost its #3, #4, #6 and #11 tkl'rs (each started 11 gms) heading into LY giving the projected starting lineup a ttl of 29 tkls from the year prior. As expected, the group struggled finishing with #108 eff D rating all'g 198 ypg (61.7%) with a very disappointing 22-6 ratio. TY the unit loses both starting CB's in Alex Tarr (47 tkl) and Antwan Smith (37 tkl) while a pair of safeties, DJ Myers (#2 tkl'r) and 2nd Tm NEC Cameron Chadwick (#1 tkl'r) return. Chadwick has AA-type potential but with the losses of both CB's, it may be tough to see a significant amount of improvement.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY, with the Colonials having to replace both their starting K and P, it wasn't much of a surprise to see them drop fairly low in our ST rankings (#97). TY both K Greg Langer (12-15, L/45) and P Tony LaMancusa (34.9, 31.2 net) have a year of experience under their belts giving them an excellent opportunity to move up in our ratings assuming they find an ample replacement for Coleman who served as both the KR (23.2) and PR (4.2) LY.

COACHES - Joe Walton who earned NEC COY in '10, enters his 19th ssn as HC for the Colonials including earning NEC COY in 2010. Walton still maintains the duties as the OC here while Scott Farison is in his 11th ssn (7th as DC). After sharing duties LY with Scott Benzel, he assumes the sole DC role TY.

Overview - After the Colonials turned the corner in '10 and earned a bid to the FCS playoffs, 9 returning st'rs and the loss of their starting RB did them in LY as they fell back to 2-9 record. RMU began the yr with a trio of losses to Dayton, Liberty and Morgan St before narrowly skating past Monmouth and drilling St Francis to move to 2-3. The Colonials were unable to get another victory the rest of the ssn losing their final 6 incl a 35 pt ssn finale loss to rival Duquesne. On the year RMU finished with a -3 mark in net close losses and also makes our Turnovers=Turnaround article with a -11 difference. The Colonials return 15 st'rs and 39 lettermen and while they should improve on LY's record, it's unclear how much with the lack of true fire power on the offensive side of the ball.

MONMOUTH HAWKS

Kevin Callahan (Career 109-86)
20th Year at Monmouth (109-86)
West Long Branch, NJ — Enrollment: 7,501

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After splitting the starting duties in '09 with 1,453 yds (60%) and a 10-4 ratio, PS#168 Kyle Frazier started the entire '10 ssn for the Hawks throwing for 2,072 yds (61%) and a 9-6 ratio. Frazier was lost for the ssn after just 6 gms LY with an ACL (1159 yds, 65.0%, 4-5 ratio) all'g Craig Peterson to take over duties for the remainder of the year. Peterson would go on to pass for 1,262 (62.7%) with a 10-6 ratio incl 300+ pass yds in 2 of the final 3 gms. Both ret TY giving the Hawks a very experienced and deep unit but this should be Frazier's job to lose considering he is in the top 5 in nearly every MU passing statistic.

RB's - While the Hawks were forced to replace their leading rusher heading into LY, the depth here was solid with the addition of WV tran Kwabena Asante (PS#247) and true frosh Julian Hayes (PS#344). Surprisingly Asante saw all of his work on ST's but Hayes exploded with an 805 (3.7), 14 td performance that found him as a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award. Pete Nagy served as the 3rd down back rushing for 68 yds (3.6) while FB Justin Pandorf started all 11 gms and was a solid rec option out of the backfield. Asante had a very good spring for the Hawks with an excellent mix of power and speed forming an excellent 1-2 punch with Hayes for 2012.

Rec's - LY the Hawks ret'd just 2 of their top 8 rec's led by TE Tyler George (366, 10.2) and WR Mitchell Pollard (364, 15.8). While the very small but athletic Pollard finished 2nd on the tm with 582 yds (11.0), the real story among the group was the emergence of rFr Neal Sterling who pulled in 677 yds (11.9) while earning NEC Rookie OPOY in the process (Rice Awd finalist). JUCO Tristan Roberts (PS#359) finished 3rd with 429 (11.6) while George was a distant 4th with 282 (7.8). With MU running a good amount of 2-TE sets, they are also counting on Michael McLafferty to make more of an impact after a 14 rec (13.1) performance LY. This is a very deep corps of receivers (return top 8 from LY) on a potentially very dangerous offense.

O-Line - The Hawks OL has had at least one All-NEC player dating back to the '03 ssn. After seeing their rushing production drop in each of the past 3 ssns (140, 3.7 LY), this group looks to have something special brewing for 2012 with just C Jim Sullivan (11 st) being the only st'r lost among the entire Monmouth offense. After lining up at RG for all of '11, Mike Hunchak moves to the vacated position while added to the starting rotation is Brandon Maxwell who saw a spot start at RT for the Hawks LY. This unit features a pair of 2nd Tm NEC honorees in Dino Molina and Mike Murphy and after 3 yrs of decreasing numbers, the MU OL unit and their 78 car sts appear ready for a climb.

D-Line - Despite the loss of 3 st'rs in '10 (one to inj) the Hawks DL helped cut their rush ypg all'd from 162 (4.1) in '09 to 153 (4.1). LY the group had to replace 1 st'r and again saw improvement to 147 ypg (4.1) while increasing their sks from 15 in '10 to 23. TY the unit returns 2.5 st'rs with the losses being 1st Tm NEC DE Ian Simon (10 st, #5 tkl'r, 9 sk) and DT Jimmy Lawson (7 st, 19 tkl, 6 tfl). The Hawks have more experience than you would think at this position as they often run with an 8-man rotation to keep their players fresh. With that being said, a repeat performance of LY should be in the offing.

LB's - LY the Hawks lost their #4 and #6 tkl'r to graduation and then starting OLB Bill Lauch to a knee inj after 6. MU saw their ppg all'd increase from 25.7 in '10 to 28.8 in '11 (4th consec yr the ppg has increased). TY the only losses are Lauch's replacement Steve Barroso (6 st, #3 tkl'r) and Chris Mastrangelo (16 tkl). With all 3 st'rs returning incl MLB Dan Sullivan who finished #2 on the tm in both tkls and tfl, expect MU to finally put a dent in ppg all'd for 2012.

DB's - Monmouth earned a #57 pass eff D ranking in '10 all'g 189 ypg (56.2%) with a 14-12 ratio. LY the group lost 3 of its 4 st'rs with the only returnee being star SS Jose Gumbs who earned 1st Tm NEC honors in '10 while leading the tm in tkls with 76. The MU secondary was decimated by inj's with the biggest loss being CB Elijah Phillips who was lost with a shldr inj after 5 gms. Fellow CB, Reggie Hildebrandt was able to start 10 gms for the Hawks but was plagued by an inj of his own at the tail end of the yr. TY the unit returns 3 to the starting lineup but the loss is big in Gumbs who earned AA honors and 1st Tm NEC for a 3rd consec year (#1 tkl'r). The Hawks are hoping soph Pat Gray (1 st, 26 tkl, 4 int) can take over the empty spot as they look to improve upon the #71 PDR of a yr ago (204 ypg, 56.9%, 19-11 ratio).

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY the Hawks finished with our #112 overall ranking with first yr P Ryan Mohr avg just 34.2 per att (31.4 tm net) and a KR unit that avg just 14.1 (last in the FCS). All of their key specialists return in 2012 led by K Eric Spillane who ranks in MU's all-time Top 3 in FG %, made FG's and made PAT's. Mitchell Pollard and Eric Sumlin handled the bulk of LY's KR's while Pollard avg 15.1 per PR which would have landed him #3 FCS if he had enough att. Assuming Mohr improves in his 2nd yr and the Hawks find more consistency in their KR's, a rise in our rankings should be on the horizon.

COACHES - Monmouth has had just 1 HC in their 20 yrs of existence as a FB program, Kevin Callahan. DC Andy Bobik has also been here since the program's inception while Scott Van Zile begins his 5th year at OC and 13th year with MU.

Overview - Not very often do you see a team lose all of their home gms but go on to win all of their road trips. This is exactly what happened to the Hawks LY as the bulk of the better teams on their schedule visited Kessler Field while the weaker NEC teams hosted the Hawks. MU finished with a 5-6 record for their 3rd consec losing ssn, a 1st in the tm's 19 yrs. TY things appear to be brighter for the Hawks as they return 18 st'rs incl 10 on offense. The only negative in the equation is that LY's home games become TY's road gms and vice versa so assuming they hold down the fort at home and escape with a few road wins, this group should be in contention for the NEC Title.

BRYANT BULLDOGS

Marty Fine (Career 68-37)
9th Year at Bryant (53-32)
Smithfield, Rhode Island Enrollment: 3,268

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After sitting out '08 from his tran from Merrimack College, Mike Croce started each of the L/3 seasons with the Bulldogs watching his numbers increase every year in that span. LY despite a foot inj that kept him from starting the 1st 2, he passed for 1,850 yds (57.2%) with a 20-10 ratio. In his absence, Mike Westerhaus lined up under center and finished the ssn with 300 yds (54.3%) and a 2-3 ratio. Westerhaus is expected to inherit the job for 2012 while Brian Testorf and Devin O'Connor battle it out for #2. Despite having 2 sts under his belt, Westerhaus is clearly not on the same level as Croce was making this group a big question mark this ssn.

RB's - After playing mostly ST's in his true frosh yr of '09, Jordan Brown burst onto the scene for the Bulldogs in '10 rushing for 1,410 yds (5.3) with a ttl of 18 all-purp td's in the process (1st Tm NEC). LY saw Brown receive 61 more carries than the year prior and he accomplish even greater feats as not only did he rush for an FCS best 1,815 yds (5.5) and 19 td's, he also earned NEC OPOY and AA honors. Spelling Brown on a very minimal basis was the combo of Ricardo McCray and Michael Perry who combined to rush for 227 (4.9). All 3 return in 2012 but with an upgraded schedule, it may be difficult for Brown to surpass LY's fine mark.

Rec's - The Bulldogs returned their top 2 rec's last year in WR Jordan Harris (467, 18.7) and TE Matt Tracey (382, 12.7) so improvement was expected. The duo again led the unit as each surpassed their marks from the year prior. Harris posted a school record 10 catches for 224 yds vs Albany and earned 1st Tm NEC with 959 yds and an outstanding 22.8 ypc (#2 FCS). This year Bryant gets the return of Harris while Tracey (all-time program leader in td rec) moves on after earning 1st Tm NEC honors. While Harris should put together another fine year, the absence of their starting QB and a dominant run game may see his numbers dip.

O-Line - In '10 the OL unit lost 3 st's but actually saw their numbers increase to 183 ypg (4.2) with an All-Conf RB carrying the ball. LY they ret'd all 5 st's along with all of their bkps so improvement was expected. While their ypc rose up to 4.4, their ypg stayed virtually the same (176) and they all'd 2 more sks in the process (21, 8.2%). TY the unit returns 3 to the starting rotation with 1st Tm NEC C Tony Edwards (31 car sts) and LT Cody Aughney (22 car sts) moving on. The schedule also gets tougher as all 11 tms are from the FCS after they were forced to only battle 9 LY. Despite those factors, this is a relatively experienced group that should deliver yet another solid year with an AA RB rushing behind them.

D-Line - The DL lost 3 st's in '10 including a 1st Tm NEC performer but only saw their numbers slip to 159 ypg (4.2) after allowing 146 (3.8) in '09. LY they lost just 1 starter so improvement was expected. The group lost DT Christopher Sywetz before the season giving them just 2 back resulting in another dip in the numbers as they all'd 175 ypg (4.0) with 24 sks. This year the only loss to the starting rotation is DE Joshua Janes (2Y st'r, 38 tkl, 4 tfl). The unit boasts 35 sts from 2011 and should have no problem fixing a somewhat leaky run game over the past 2 seasons.

LB's - After allowing 17.3 ppg (entire front 7 ret'd) in '09, the Bryant defense has surrendered 24.5 and 25.1 ppg the past 2 years as they have had little experience returning. This year's situation is very similar as the group loses all 3 st'rs in Franck Tebou (#1 tkl'r, 7.5 tfl), Paul Hanley (#2 tkl'r, 10.5 tfl) and Mike Abany (#4 tkl'r, 3.5 tfl) along with a pair of backups in Nick Sengotta (19 tkl, 7 tfl) and Luke Steinke (8 tkl). With just 32 career tackles among the LB unit, this is clearly the weakest position on the entire 2012 team.

DB's - The Bulldog secondary has been impressive over the past 8 yrs with the highest % of completions all'd in that span being 54.9 in '07. After a #24 finish in the pass eff D rankings in '10 when they allowed 204 ypg (50%) and a 16-15 ratio, the group improved to the #23 rating (177 ypg, 51.5%, 16-9) despite returning just 1 starter. This year the Bryant secondary has to part with just 1 starter in SS Tyler Carter (57 tkl) giving them a slew of experience that could see them continue their recent trend of success.

SPECIAL TEAMS - This has been a subpar unit to the say the least in each of the past 2 seasons. LY K Tom Alberti saw just 8 FG att's all ssn converting on just half while P Brendan Lane avg just 31.3 on his punts with just a miniscule 28.5 net. The return game was an integral part of the unit finishing with our #42 ranking as KR Jeremy Woodson (24.1) and PR Brown (9.3) each found success while the coverage unit held opposing KR's to just a 16.2 mark (#3 FCS). TY Alberti is expected to pull double duty with the departure of Lane while the Bulldogs get the return of both Woodson and Brown. Assuming there is a step up in the kicking game, Bryant has a good chance to move up again in our rankings.

COACHES - Marty Fine enters his 9th ssn with the Bulldogs guiding his squads to winning campaigns in 6 of the past 7 seasons including a 7-4 mark LY. Fine serves as his own OC while Greg Gigantino returns for his 7th season here and 6th as DC.

Overview - The Bulldogs are in their 5th year of FCS football after moving up from Div II. They joined the NEC in '09 and have gone 13-11 in their 3 seasons including 5-3 a year ago. This year the schedule gets tougher for the Bulldogs as meetings against the likes of Div II opponents American Int'l and Stonehill switch to non-conf FCS meetings against Marist, Maine and Bucknell. Bryant enters 2012 with 11 returning starters including AA RB Jordan Brown but will also need a replacement at QB and some desperate help at the LB position that saw all 3 of their st'rs depart. Despite delivering B2B winning campaigns, HC Marty Fine will need to put together one of his best coaching jobs to see a 3rd straight year of .500+ football.

Interim HC: Mark Nofri

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Dale Fink started as a frosh in 2007 and earned 2nd tm NEC and he finished as a 4Y starter throwing for 2,907 (61%, 18-10) in 2010. He earned All-NEC honors 3x in his career finishing with 8,803 (63%, 82-44). Luke Wischnowski (PS#197) RS here in '09 and DNP in '10. He started the opener LY but lost his job finishing with 136 (51.7, 0-1). Tim Little also RS in '09 and DNP in '10. He started the L/10 LY finishing #1 in the NEC with 2,465 (58.2%, 16-12). Both return and the unit goes from returning ZERO career att's to returning a pair of players that made starts including the conference leader.

RB's - In 2010 they had to replace their top rusher (529, 5.0). Marcel Archer who was #3 in '09 (292, 5.0) led with 783 (3.9) followed by rFr Gregory Ibe (453, 5.7) with no one else having over 15 yds. LY Ibe (136, 4.0) ret'd but played in 4 and started 2 before a ssn ending inj. Greg Moore (PS#307) started the season at WR but played both spots replacing the inj'd Ibe and ended up leading with 576 (5.3). True Fr Keshaudas Spence started the L/9 and ran for 480 (3.6). TY all 3 return plus they add Navy tran FB Kevin Eckel making it a much deeper and improved unit compared to the previous several seasons.

Rec's - TE Rich Rossi was #2 in '09 (313, 8.9) and as the leading returnee led in '10 with 704 (13.8) earning 2nd tm NEC. Tony Patterson was #3 in '09 and finished #2 with 491 (12.3) while Mark Uyeno was #3 (437, 9.1) and Harry Coles was #4 (411, 13.7). Among their top 5 they lost their #2 and #3 into LY and Rossi led again with 574 (12.2) this time earning 1st Tm honors. Moore, who also led in rushing was #2 with 447 (10.9) followed by Coles (435, 11.4) and Rock Tate (392, 10.9). TY they lose their #1 and #3 and early indications are to use Moore at RB more than WR. They also plan on switching Pat Casey (10 rec) to TE after making 9 sts at FB LY. If they do make those changes it means they will be without their top 3 and down a couple of notches.

O-Line - With this pass oriented offense the rush numbers have been underwhelming. After having to replace 2 starters in '09 they only had to replace 1.5 starters in '10 so it was surprising that the production fell across the board with only 100 rush ypg and 3.2 ypc while allowing 21 sks. LY they only lost a 9 gm starter making it the most veteran unit in 3Y but again the numbers dropped across the board (98, 3.1, 29 sks). TY they lose 2 starters which is the most in 3 seasons so they should improve, right?

D-Line - Much like the OL the number of returning starters hasn't matched the production as they had to replace all 3 starters in '08 but allowed their lowest ypg in the L6Y. After returning 2 starters in '09 they again ret'd 2 in '10 and gave up 164 rush ypg and 4.4 ypc with only 14 sks (#100). LY for a 3rd straight season they ret'd a pair of starters but this time actually improved as they cut the ypg to 156, the ypc to 3.8 and had over double the sacks with 30. This year they were scheduled to return one starter but shifted him to OLB in the spring. The only player with any true experience is DT Troy Moore (29 tkl, 3.5 sk, 3 tfl) who started 1 and played in 10 as a true. Obviously the unit is down several steps compared to LY.

LB's - Three of the 4 starters ret'd in 2010 incl their #1 but their returning #4 tkl'r was inj'd and OFY after 3 starts. They allowed basically the same at 28.2 ppg and trimmed a bit off the ypg to 346. LY they again ret'd 3 starters (#1, #2 & #4 tklr's) and Chris Mandas led the team in tackle's for a 3rd straight year earning 1st tm NEC. TY they lose 2 starters but with DE Tyler Foehr (10 st) coming in we'll call it 3 starters back and while they lose their top producer we'll call them even with LY.

DB's - The secondary had to replace one starter in '09 and also in '10 and the veteran unit allowed a recent best 55.8% comp finishing #60 in pass eff D. They were to return 2 starters LY but 1 didn't return and the other started only the opener and lost his spot. Four True freshman combined to make 31 starts incl all 4 starting the L/6 gms and while you would think they had to bite the bullet with inexperience they improved by finishing #35 in pass eff D. Needless to say the unit returns intact incl 3 players on the 2nd string that combined for 19 sts. LY's numbers are closely related to the DL pressure with 30 sks and they may not get that type of production TY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - This unit finished #64 in our ST rankings in 2010 and only ret'd their punter. Rob Sheperd's punting numbers slipped from 38.7 to 36.5 with the net going from 32.2 to 30.1. RFr Chris Rogers was the only FCS K to make all his FG's (11-11, L/39) earning 1st tm NEC. The teams KR and PR numbers were both below avg and despite blk'g 4 punts they allowed a block and also 2 PR td's and finished #77. This year they only lose their top PR (only 7-6.4) and should make a solid climb up with a shored up PR D.

COACHES - Mark Nofri is the longest tenured cch in Pioneer history. The longtime LB/ST cch will begin his 19th ssn here as the interim HC due to 8 yr vet Paul Gorham taking a medical leave of absence TY. Kevin Bolis is entering his 6th season as OC and 2010's offense was the 3rd highest total in school history. Dave Wissman returns for his 4th season and this will be his 2nd season as DC.

Overview - The Pioneers opened up a second straight season vs non-scholorship Marist and lost again getting shutout the L/3Q. After an early bye the offense sputtered again going 2-16 on 3D and 1-7 on 4D in a loss to Bryant. They played an even game vs Dartmouth and got a win after blocking a 53 yd FG att on the final play. They got back to .500 after spotting CCU a 14-0 lead thanks to finishing +4 in TO's and the next week had a winning record for the first time since '08 with a 3Y high of 483 yds at Columbia. The offense exploded again as they totaled 588 yds and the 60 pts scored was their most S/'95 (61 vs DIII foe) as their win streak moved to 4. They split their next 2 conf games losing by 14 and winning by 12 and then they had a 364-215 yd edge vs Wagner but all'd two 4Q int ret for td's (36 & 66 yds) in the 6 pt loss. At 5-4 they had to face the top 2 NEC teams and lost by 14 and 10 to finish 5-6. This year they have 14 ret starters. While they finished 3-4 in conf play they outgained those foes. They're in position for a 2nd winning ssn in the last 7 years.

CENTRAL CONNECTICUT ST BLUE DEVILS

Jeff McInerney (Career 42-25)
7th Year at Central Connecticut St (42-25)
New Britain, Connecticut — Enrollment: 12,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After putting together a strong performance in his 1st spg with the Blue Devils, tran Gunnar Jespersen won the starting job for CCSU passing for 1,918 yds (60%) with an 11-8 ratio and an additional 495 yds (3.5) on the ground. Entering LY as the clear-cut st'r, Jespersen saw his numbers dip a bit throwing for 1,681 yds (55.7%) and a 12-11 ratio (452 rush, 3.5). Jake White saw action in 5 contests a yr ago with 9 att's serving in mostly mop-up situations and appears to be the projected st'r TY with JUCO tran Austen Fales and former LB Andrew Clements providing competition. Regardless of who takes over under center, this group is clearly less exp'd in 2012.

RB's - Entering LY, this unit had a good run with their leading rusher posting at least 1,300 yds in each of the previous 3 seasons. After Hofstra tran Everette Benjamin moved on following '10 (1330, 5.3), backups Chris Tolbert and Brian Fowler competed for the #1 spot. Tolbert would go on to lead with 816 (4.8) while Fowler contributed 687 (4.5) and 9 td's as the goal line back. TY the Blue Devils lose Fowler and battling Tolbert is the combo of Darius Lee (58, 3.4) and Kent St tran Rob Hollomon (PS#192) who saw just 14 carries (6.7) LY with the Golden Flashes. This is a strong group that will have to carry even more of a load now that the passing game will be limited.

Rec's - CCSU entered LY without its top 3 rec's from '10 as Deven Baker (215, 11.3) and Raul DeBenendittis (155, 11.9) ret'd as the top 2 targets. Baker (589, 13.4) and DeBenendittis (389, 11.8) found themselves on top of the '11 leaders board with Nick Bacarella (324, 12.5) and Denzell Jones (246, 12.3) rounding out the top 4. TY the group returns 3 of the top 4 with DeBenendittis being the only roster casualty. While more experienced, the lack of a true QB to get them the ball will likely see their overall production drop a few notches.

O-Line - After a monstrous 285 (5.6) rush performance in '06, the Blue Devils have seen their numbers decrease in each of the past 5 seasons with LY's 193 (3.9) being the first time they dipped under the 200 yd mark. After losing 3.5 st'rs in '11, TY's unit has even greater losses with the departures of 1st Tm NEC Brendan Brackett (27 car st), 2nd Tm NEC LG Garth Harrison (22 car st), LT Casey Ryan (11 st LY) and Dewayne Dawkins who split his 11 sts between C and RG (16 car st). C Blaise Rosati (7 st) and OT Taylor Fuller (2 st) are the only 2 lineman returning with experience while CCSU is hoping for the JUCO combo of Joe Dowling and Jonathan Connors to pay immediate dividends while LY's backup Kris Patterson looks to fill out the last spot in the starting rotation. With that being said, a dip in the run production for a 6th straight yr should be expected.

D-Line - CCSU had just 1 st'r returning heading into '10 and saw their rush numbers go from 137 ypg (4.1) to 194 (5.1). LY they lost just 1 st'r so improvement was expected. Surprisingly, the numbers stayed virtually the same as they all'd 192 ypg (4.9) with 19 sks. TY the losses are extremely heavy as all 4 st'rs depart led by 1st Tm NEC DE Charles Williams (11 st, #3 tkl'r, 12 tfl). The unit has just 2 car sts returning making it very difficult to think that they could improve in 2012.

LB's - After all'g 22 ppg in both the '08 and '09 campaigns, the Blue Devils have all'd a td more in the past 2 seasons incl a 29.5 mark LY. TY the group is a bit more experienced with 2 ret st'rs incl 2nd Tm NEC and leading tkl'r Lorenzo Baker (8 tfl). While a trimming in the ppg is possible with a pair of 2Y st'rs, the lack of a front 4 ahead of them is a bit alarming.

DB's - After a #40 performance in the pass eff D rankings in '10, CCSU entered LY without a pair of 4Y st'rs and saw their numbers slip even further in the pass eff D rankings to #60 as they all'd 56.1% with a 17-11 ratio. TY the secondary returns 3 to the starting rotation with bkp and former Conn tran Markeith Cirinna taking over the spot left by CB London Lomax (10 st, 28 tkl). Despite the wealth of experience, it may be difficult for CCSU to move up much in the pass eff D rankings for 2012.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Blue Devils had to replace a 3Y K LY in Joe Izzo who earned 1st Tm NEC honors in '10 hitting on 13-15. After a battle with a few underclassmen in fall Juan Duque took over the reigns hitting on 4 of the 5 att's CCSU attempted on the ssn. Kicker wasn't the only position that saw a new starter as Greg Migdal (76 comb punts '09-'10) was relegated to the bench in favor of Steven Calitri (36.7) who shared the duties with QB Gunnar Jespersen (39.2) and Jake White (30.0). The 3 combined for a poor net of 32.7 which may make for another camp battle between Calitri and Migdal who both return along with Duque and Nick Bacarella who pulled double duty as the Blue Devils' PR (4.6) and KR (19.3). With the amount of key contributors returning, the CCSU ST's has a good chance to improve upon our #90 ranking of a yr ago.

COACHES - Jeff McInerney enters his 7th ssn with the Blue Devils but after posting winning records over his 1st 5 (NEC COY '09), CCSU saw their record drop to 4-7 LY. Tim Stowers is in his 3rd yr as OC while the Blue Devils will use Jason Manson (3rd yr w/tm, 1st a DC) and Tommy Buzzo (HS HC '02-'11, 89-24 rec) as co-DC's TY.

Overview - CCSU fans went 15 years without a winning season from '89-'03 but since then, the Blue Devils have finished with a winning record in 7 of the last 8 yrs with LY's 4-7 record being the only blemish over that span. After an expected victory over Div II Southern Conn, CCSU was held to just 9 pts in their loss to #19 James Madison. Following a win against Wagner, the Blue Devils would then drop 6 consecutive contests including a loss to lowly St Francis. Saving some face over the final 2 weeks, CCSU would go on to claim victories over Robert Morris and Bryant to up its record to 4-7 on the year. This year the losses are heavy in several key areas including QB, OL and DL. With just 10 returning starters and trips to a trio of FCS playoff teams (Stony Brook, New Hampshire and Albany), it appears that back-to-back losing seasons may be on hand.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - John Kelly was a preferred walk-on at Penn St in '08 and transferred here in '09. He started all 11 throwing for 1,357 (51%, 7-8). Under a new HC Kelly made 10 starts in '10 (1314, 53%, 12-8) and made 10 again LY throwing for 1,677 (50.0%, 12-11, #2 rusher). Corey Nielsen (PS#96) RS at Hawaii in '09 and saw no gm action there in '10. He transferred here and made 1 st LY and ply'd in 5 throwing for 238 (57.1%, 2-3). Both return and while Kelly gets the nod as a returning 3 year starter, he will have to perform to keep his hold on the job.

RB's - True frosh Kyle Harbridge finished #2 in '09 with 484 (6.2). The top 2 ret'd in '10 and Harbridge led with 593 (5.1) followed by Jude Yearwood (#1 '09, 518, 3.9) who rushed for 392 (3.4) with QB Kelly #3 (148, 2.2). LY Yearwood left and Harbridge led for a 2nd straight season, this time exploding for 1,430 (5.7) with 14 td's earning 3rd Tm AA. QB Kelly was #2 with 440 (5.0, 7 td) and JC tran Keion Wade was #3 (323, 5.1) with no one else having over 36 yds. All 3 return as does blocking FB specialist Dan Conley who has made all 33 starts the L3Y. This is their deepest unit in recent history.

Rec's - In both 2010 and LY the receiving unit lost its #1 rec but returned its next 5. Omar Winston was #2 in '09 and the leading returnee but with only 225 (6.6). Winston did lead in '10 with 413 (10.3). Anthony Howze was the leading returnee LY with 289 (9.3) and he finished #2 again with 280 (14.0). The leader was a VERY rare VHT in Fla St tran AJ Alexander (PS#20) who finished with 490 (19.6). Eight players had DD rec's LY and they only lose Howze and with the double teams that Alexander will command whoever steps it up and becomes the #2 can have a very productive season. Clearly this unit is also the best the fans in Loretto have seen in quite some time.

O-Line - Politely said the 2008 offense was horrific (243 ypg & 11.4 ppg) and they rushed for 70 ypg (2.3) while all'g 26 sk. Four starters returned in '09 and there was an obvious improvement (116 rush yd, 3.1, 23 sk all'd). Four starters returned again in '10 but they fell back to 104 rush ypg (3.2) and trimmed the sks to 14. LY they had to replace 2.5 starters but in the 2nd season of the new offense almost doubled their production to 204 rush ypg (5.0) but the sacks did increase to 23 (7.5%). This season they lose 1 starter in Jordan Kelly (22 car st, 2nd Tm NEC). The 4 back made 42 of the 44 starts and filling Kelly's void will be Jake Smith who made 14 sts in '09 and '10 combined. While it's tough to improve again as much as they did LY the offense is set up to do just that.

D-Line - In 2010 the 3 man front ret'd only 1 starter and the entire defense only ret'd a total of 4 starters. The unit allowed 190 rush ypg (4.1) with only 13 sacks. LY they again lost 1 starter and experimented throughout the season with both a 3-4 and 4-3 despite losing several players to inj's. The numbers plummeted to 242 rush ypg (5.9) again with only 13 sks. TY the unit returns intact as 7 players made starts. They upgraded the defensive front by bringing in Terrace Bourne (PS#264) who started the L/7 and is listed ahead of a 22 gm starter who was OFY after 1 st LY. In the L7Y the team's best rush D was 173 ypg (4.4) and 21 sacks and those could all easily fall.

LB's - Three of the teams 4 returning starters in 2010 were LB's and the very young D allowed 32.7 ppg. LY they had to replace 3 starters incl Scott Lewis (1st Tm NEC) and Matthew Parker (2nd Tm) who finished as the #1 and #2 tacklers EACH of the L3Y. The team allowed 38 or more pts in 10 of 11 games finishing 3rd to last in the FCS allowing 44.1 ppg. They lose 3 players that combined for 12 sts and the 3 returning starters are clearly led by Anthony Bowman (PS#306) who set a school record with 141 tkls and despite the team's poor overall showing earned 2nd Tm NEC. There's only one way to go.

DB's - By reading the other 3 defensive spots you're well aware that this unit was depleted in 2010 and they finished #109 in pass eff D. LY they lost 1 starter, returning 7 different players that made starts and along with the rest of the D posted recent worsts and finished #118. They lose 4 of the 8 who started LY and 4 ret'g comb for 16 so we'll call it 1.5 back. With the front 7 much deeper it'll clearly help this unit improve on LY's numbers.

SPECIAL TEAMS - There's a direct correlation of a team's depth and its ST play so it is no surprise that the Red Flash finished #96 in our 2010 rankings. They ret'd intact but this depth shy squad was #120 in net P, last in PR and #111 in KR and they finished with our #117. They return basically intact incl a pair of bright spots in Josh Thiel who was 9-12 (L/47) and Kyle Harbridge who avg'd 25.4 on 14 KR's.

COACHES - Chris Villarrial is the 25th HC at St Francis. The former NFL All-Pro OL played for both CHI and BUF. Villarrial was hired as the OC in 2009 and was promoted the next season. In his 2Y the team has gone from 16.1 to 27.5 ppg and 228 to 379 ypg on offense. Eric Long is in his 1st season as OC. He spent the previous 5Y at DII Mercyhurst incl the L/4 as OC. Jake Nulph was the lone DC in 2011, his first year, but will share the duties TY. Co-DC Scott Benzel spent the last 9 years at in-state and conf rival Robert Morris incl co-DC the last 3 years finishing 1st and 2nd in NEC D in that span.

Overview - Into LY the Red Flash had a 3Y record of 3-30. They opened up vs conf foe Wagner and had a 474-378 yd edge but allowed 31/1pl and 67/1pl td "drives" and a 37 yd IR td. After a pasting by eventual Nat'l Champ N Dakota St they trailed Morehead St 49-28 but behind a school rec 348 yds rush by Harbridge, they completed the comeback. The next 5 games showed how much work the team still had to do as they were outscored by 24 ppg and the defense allowed 537 ypg. Despite the 5 game losing streak they played the best game of their season vs Cent Conn St having a 24-0 HT lead with 241-57 yd edge. In their home finale they trailed Monmouth the first 3Q but took their first lead at 45-41. After allowing a 91/11pl td drive they had a 1&10 at the M17 later getting a game tying 22 yd FG blk'd. In the finale they fell behind 17-0 and couldn't recover. Two wins is the first step and the offense is there so with TY's improved D they'll surely top 3 wins for the FIRST TIME SINCE 1992!!

PHIL'S 2012 NORTHEAST FORECAST

1. DUQUESNE - Duquesne had won 8 straight MAAC Titles and against NEC competition had compiled a 9-1 mark from '05-'07 despite still being a DII team. In 2008 they transitioned and offered scholarships and against the increased competition had their first losing ssn S/'93. In '09 they had 12 ret st'rs but we pegged them 7th and that's exactly where they finished. They were -47.8 ypg in NEC play (3rd worst). In '10 they had 17 ret st'rs and were coming off a ssn with 4 net close losses and -8 in TO's, which are all factors pointing to an upswing. They finished 7-4 overall and 5-3 in NEC play. LY they got '10 co-champs Robert Morris and Cent Conn St at home so some improvement was expected. The Dukes would go on to a 7-1 NEC record finishing in a 1st place tie with Albany. While Duquesne has just 9 ret st'rs, they do return their key offensive weapons and did finish with the 2nd best mark in the NEC at +86.8 ypg. This will be a tight division race with their Nov. 11th home game against Albany quite possibly determining the NEC Title.

1. ALBANY - The 2000's were the decade of the Great Danes as Albany won 4 conf titles and from '07-'09 won 18 straight conf games. In 2007 they outgained conf opponents by 79.3 ppg and improved that in '08 to 122.5 ppg. In '09 they traveled and lost to CCSU snapping their 3Y conf winning streak and finished as the NEC runner-up. In '10 they ret'd just 9 st'rs and were overmatched at times and for the FIRST time since joining the NEC in 1999, they failed to have a winning conf record at 4-4. LY was redemption time as the Great Danes returned a league leading 15 st'rs and 79% lettermen. They also got the 3 tms we ranked directly below them at home. Despite a late slip up vs Bryant, Albany finished 7-1 tying for the NEC Title and earning the FCS playoff berth with the regular ssn win over Duquesne. While they led the NEC with a +111.9 ypg mark LY, the Danes return just 12 st'rs (lose QB Di Lella) TY and have to go on the road to Duquesne late in the ssn, likely costing them B2B FCS playoff berths.

3. WAGNER - Wagner did not have a winning season in conf play from '03-'08 (13-28). While they only had 12 st'rs back in '09 it was actually their most in 4 yrs. The Seahawks had a very fortunate 5-3 conf record (t-#3) as their -66.1 ypg was the WORST in the NEC. In '10 they ret'd a recent high of 16 st'rs and improved to -8.1 ypg, but their disappointing conf record fell to 3-5. LY was clearly a rebuilding yr as they returned only 7 st'rs. Wins in their final 3 gms of the ssn moved them to a surprising 4-4 conf record despite the fact that they were -92.5 ypg within NEC play (2nd worst). TY they return 16 st'rs including 10 on offense while getting Duquesne, Robert Morris and Monmouth all at home. The Seahawks should be one of the more improved tms in all of the NEC in 2012.

4. ROBERT MORRIS - The Colonials are led by NFL veteran HC Joe Walton, who started the FB program here in 1994. From 2004 to 2009 the team was uneven, pulling upsets against some of the league's elite teams, but then dropping some very winnable games. Their 5 year NEC record during that span was 21-21. Robert Morris was our surprise pick for first place in the NEC in '10 and they delivered with a 7-1 conf record and a trip to the FCS playoffs (+105 ypg). LY they only returned 9 st'rs, had 2 net close wins and an off ypp of 12.6. Their 4 road games were ALL against our 1-4 teams which meant their winnable games were all at home. The Colonials would regress even more than we expected to 2-6 as they were -84.4 ypg within NEC play. TY they return 15 st'rs, were -3 in net close losses in '11 and get key matchups against Albany, Duquesne and Monmouth at home, giving them a solid chance for improvement.

4. MONMOUTH - After winning the NEC in '06, 2007's losing season was a big surprise made even more shocking by the fact that they benefitted from +12 in TO's. They bounced back going 6-1 in '08 (+88.6 ypg) with their only loss being to undefeated Albany. In '09 they ret'd 11 st'rs and finished 4-4 but they were -24.0 ypg in conf play. In '10 they ret'd 15 st'rs but lost their top RB's and WR's and we called for them to finish 5th. The Hawks did finish 5th at 3-5 but were SECOND with +76.8 ypg. Monmouth was by far the hardest team to predict LY with 10 st'rs back and 2 road gms against our Top 5. The Hawks would go on to accomplish a rare feat of losing all of their home gms and winning all of their road gms. Monmouth returns a recent high of 18 st'rs and finished with a +38.5 ypg clip against conf members in '11. With road trips to all of the top 4 ahead of them, we'll call for more of a middle of the pack finish for this much improved squad.

6. BRYANT - The Bulldogs have had an impressive first 2 seasons in the NEC going 8-8 after transitioning from DII. In 2009 they returned 19 st'rs and that exp'd squad produced a 4-4 NEC record, but was +56.3 in conf play which was 3rd best. In '10 they only had 11 st'rs back and while they again went 4-4, they were actually -11.4 ypg in conf action. LY there were a couple risks picking the Bulldogs as high as we did as they did have 2 net close losses and an off ypp of 11.0 in '10. While they had 7 ret off "st'rs," they welcomed back a 2Y starting QB, 1st tm NEC RB, their top 2 rec's, all 5 OL and 11 of their top 15 tkl'rs. They also hosted CCSU and Monmouth and were another year deeper with their added scholarships. The Bulldogs went on to a 5-3 conf record while outgaining their NEC foes by 6.9 ypg. TY they aren't as lucky as they return just 11 ttl st'rs and lose their veteran QB. Many of their winnable conf gms are on the road in 2012 giving us enough ammo to place them 6th in the NEC for the upcoming ssn.

7. SACRED HEART - The Pioneers went a combined 1-12 in NEC action in '06 and '07 giving them 5 straight losing seasons. They got to 4-3 in '08 but we weren't fooled as they were outgained by 56.0 ypg in conf play meaning they were very fortunate. They ret'd 15 st'rs in '09 and had their best numbers by far, finishing only -21.8 ypg, but lost 2 gms by a total of 5 pts and finished 2-6. The '10 season was similar as they improved their ypg for a 4th straight ssn to -11.5 (another 2-6 record). LY they ret'd 13 st'rs but were forced to travel to 3 of the 4 teams we had listed directly above them. The Pioneers would again improve their ypg to a recent best of +5.8 while improving to a 3-5 NEC record. TY they return 14 st'rs but road trips in 4 of their final 6 gms have us placing the Pioneers at #7 in '12.

8. CENTRAL CONN ST - While we called Albany the team of the 2000's, Cent Conn St should clearly be mentioned in that conversation since 2004 with a 40-18 record including 4 conf titles ('04, '05, '09 & '10). In '09 CCSU went 7-1 and while they were #1 in ypg (+90.0), they had trouble scoring (only +5.0 ppg) and 4 of their NEC wins were by a TOTAL of 5 pts. In '10 they ret'd 12 st'rs but only finished 3rd with +68.8 ypg. They played multiple close gms and won 3 by a total of 6 pts including 2 in OT. In the battle of undefeated conf teams vs Robert Morris they trailed wire-to-wire and finished at 7-1 and a tie for the NEC Title. The Blue Devils ret'd 12 st'rs LY from a squad that had a def ypp of 11.8. On the negative side their off ypp was 13.2 and they had 3 net close wins. CCSU would go on to post just a 3-5 conf record despite outgaining NEC foes by 23.3 ypg. TY they have just 10 ret st'rs and a very difficult schedule making a near bottom finish a real possibility for the Blue Devils.

8. ST FRANCIS (PA) - Since 1996 the Red Flash has topped 2 conf wins just ONCE (3-4 in '05). They have gone 3-28 in NEC play in the L4Y but after being -52.4 ypg in '08 and -55.9 ypg in '09, they plummeted to -175.5 ypg in '10 which was the 4th worst in the FCS. The Red Flash finished the 2010 ssn with 19 straight road losses and extended that LY with an additional 6 with 13 st'rs back. They did however pull out a pair of victories incl a conf win over CCSU, but their -96.1 ypg in NEC play was still a league worst. While St Francis returns 16 st'rs in 2012, they clearly have some ground to make up to form any sort of competition within the NEC. We'll go ahead and call for them to end their 25 gm road losing streak but they will likely claim a spot in the conf basement once again.

EASTERN KENTUCKY COLONELS

Dean Hood (Career 26-20)
5th Year at Eastern Kentucky (26-20)
Richmond, Kentucky — Enrollment: 16,515

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After starting the L/8 gms as a rFr (2153, 58%, 6-8), TJ Pryor was relatively the only healthy QB throughout '10, starting all 11. While his passing numbers took a dip (1613, 53%, 12-12), he led the Colonels in rushing with 505 (3.5) and 9 rushing td. Pryor was the clear-cut starter entering LY and while he missed the opener with inj, he showed progress in the passing game hitting on 55.6% of his passes with an 18-8 ratio. He did see his rushing carries diminish however with the emergence of RB Matt Denham, as he carried the ball 50 less times from the year prior. Jared McClain started the opener in place of Pryor and hit just 10-28 passes on the year. He appears to be lined up as the bkp again TY with Bethune-Cookman trans Ben De La Cruz looking to create competition. With 30 starts under his belt and 10 returning starters on offense, expect Pryor to deliver again in '12 as EKU attempts another playoff push.

RB's - After a '10 ssn that saw QB Pryor lead EKU in rushing, Kentucky trans Matt Denham (PS#418) took over the reigns full-time a year ago rushing for 1,570 yards (6.2) while earning 3rd Tm AA (1st Tm OVC). Denham's 130.8 ypg was 3rd best in the FCS during '11. Jeremiah Williams (PS#578JC) provided the depth behind Denham, rushing for 317 (3.6) but it appears that he will make most of his impact at WR in 2012. Backing up Denham will be converted LB Zavier Foster, Kansas trans Deshaun Sands (PS#163) and Miami, Oh trans Roman Lawson (PS#287). This unit appears to be stocked to the ceiling in terms of talent and while Denham remains one of the best RB's in the entire FCS, his numbers could drop some with the ample talent lined up behind him taking some of his carries.

Rec's - LY it appeared that the Colonels had 3 of their top 4 returning at WR but 2nd Tm OVC Orlandus Harris (940, 16.8 in '10) was lost for the year prior to the start of the ssn. With Harris absent, Tyrone Goard (#2 in '10 with 315, 15.8) assumed the #1 WR role pulling in a team-best 627 yards (16.1) and 11 td's. Cameron Bailey and Justin Williams finished 2nd and 3rd respectively while TE Matt Lengal (TE position is an extension of the OL) was 4th. The Colonels have their top 6 receivers returning from a year ago although Harris has since transferred. With a QB entering his 4th year as a starter and a solid running game ahead of them, this unit should flourish in 2012.

O-Line - In '10 EKU returned 2 st's and 4 others who had comb for 8 sts in '09. The unit saw their numbers increase for a 2nd straight ssn opening holes for 152 ypg (3.9 ypc). LY the Colonels ret'd 4 st's to this unit and saw their numbers climb even higher to 196 ypg (4.4), their highest marks in 5 ssns. TY the unit again returns 4 st's with the only loss being OG Josh Miller (19 car sts). The unit has a combined 72 career sts led by 1st Tm OVC LT Patrick Ford and could challenge those solid numbers from '07.

D-Line - With the loss of '10 OVC DPOY Andrew Soucy, the Colonels saw their rush numbers slip a ssn ago as they allowed 169 ypg (4.0), 70 ypg more than the year prior. TY EKU again loses their top player on the unit in 1st Tm OVC DT Emory Attig while DE Anthony Brown moves to LB. They do add in Virginia Tech trans Courtney Prince (PS#179) to push for playing time in the interior. While less talented, expect the Colonels DL to improve some on LY's worse than ordinary finish.

LB's - This has been a steady unit over the past 8 yrs as the team has not allowed more than 23.8 ppg during that span. LY they ret'd 1.5 st's and added Iowa St trans Kevin Hamlin (PS#372). The unit surrendered 23.3 ppg in part due to a leaky front 4. Hamlin earned a spot on the OVC Newcomer team while 1st year st'r Ichiro Vance was 1st Tm OVC and is the leading returning tkl'r for the upcoming ssn. Added to the mix is Anthony Brown who earned 1st Tm OVC honors a year ago playing DE for the Colonels. This is the most experienced unit on the defense and another solid year should be expected.

DB's - Despite 3 st'rs returning in '10 incl a 1st Tm OVC CB, EKU allowed recent highs in both ypg (244) and comp % (60.2) finishing 94th in pass eff D. Three st'rs ret again LY and the unit found themselves more consistent finishing 64th while allowing 221 ypg (59.7%) with an 18-14 ratio. TY the secondary loses leading tkl'r SS Patrick McClellan along with 2nd Tm OVC CB Jeremy Caldwell. 3rd year starting FS Brooklyn Fox returns along with promising CB Justin Bell while they also get the big addition of Virginia Tech trans Theron Norman (PS#76) who left the Hokies after spg. With Norman in contention to replace McClellan at SS, this group may not drop very far.

SPECIAL TEAMS - RS Jeremy Caldwell has been the heart and soul of this unit for 3 seasons but he now departs leaving the returning duties up in the air. The new leader of this group may just be P Jordan Berry, who earned 1st Tm OVC a year ago with a solid 41.0 avg (37.3 net). JUCO trans Luke Pray beat out Austin Delpont for the kicking job but hit just 10-20 att's while Delpont saw minimal action as a KO specialist. LY the Colonels finished #15 in our ST ratings but with the loss of their star, a drop should be expected.

COACHES - HC Dean Hood is in his 5th ssn and was OVC COY in '08. Dane Damron is in his 2nd ssn as OC (4th overall). Tony Hatmaker is in his 2nd ssn as DC (5th overall).

Overview - After stumbling out of the gate at 1-3 including a blown 4Q lead vs FBS foe Kansas St (led 7-0 entering final frame), the Colonels ran off 5 consecutive conf victories to get back into the playoff hunt including a 1 pt victory over Murray St and a 4 pt win over #18 Jacksonville St in B2B in road games. After a 7 pt loss to Tenn Tech, The Colonels knocked off UT-Martin to earn a share of the OVC Title and an at-large playoff berth. The Colonels blew another 4Q lead, this time against #17 James Madison who hit a 35-yard FG as time expired for the 20-17 victory. Things look promising for The Colonels entering 2012 as they have 17 returning starters including a 4th year starting QB.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After seeing limited playing time behind LSU trans PS#1 Ryan Perrilloux in '08 and '09, PS#144 Marques Ivory took over behind center in '10 and delivered an outstanding performance earning 1st Tm OVC and leading JSU to a 9-3 record incl an upset of FBS foe Ole Miss. On the yr Ivory tossed for 2,248 yds (59%) with an 18-9 ratio. Ivory appeared poised for an even bigger '11 as he dropped 25 lbs in the offseason and was in great shape. Unfortunately, in their opener vs UTM, Ivory broke his ankle and was OFY. Backup QB and starting P Coty Blanchard (PS#114) took over the duties and played well, passing for 1,703 yds (64%) with a 12-5 ratio. Both return TY and while Ivory has the starting gig locked down, the offensive coaches have to feel pretty good about the depth here.

RB's - JSU ret'd 3 of their top 4 rushers a ssn ago led by Calvin Middleton (514, 4.4) but the biggest story of the unit was the addition of UGA trans Washaun Ealey (PS#3) who rushed for a combined 1,500+ yds in his first 2 ssns with the Bulldogs. Ealey immediately took over the starting duties becoming the 10th 1,000 yd rusher in JSU history and earning 1st Tm OVC in the process. Middleton wasn't left completely out of the mix as he saw just 9 fewer carries than Ealey and rushed for 723 (4.3). TY Middleton departs in graduation and battling for carries behind Ealey will be DeMarcus James (59, 4.5) and 2 true frosh in Miles Jones (PS#182) and Troymaine Pope (PS#323). With no experienced RB to spell Ealey, it's almost a forgone conclusion that he'll put together an even stronger '12.

Rec's - LY JSU was forced to replace their #1 and #3 rec along with a 1st Tm OVC TE. After pulling in just 17 rec's in '10 (14.4), Alan Bonner became the main target in the off as he led the tm in rec, rec yds, ypc and rec td's. Western Mich trans Trey Smith (PS#196) finished 2nd on the tm with 300 (12.5) while Kevyn Cooper was #3. All 3 return for the upcoming ssn while the TE position also features some talent in Troy trans Gavin Ellis and Navy trans Luke Smith. With all the key pieces coming back, QB Ivory should have a solid array of weapons at his disposal.

O-Line - In '10 the unit was forced to replace just 1 st'r (2nd Tm OVC). While the rush numbers dipped to 167 ypg (4.2), the sks were cut from 24 in '09 to just 9 in '10. LY they lost 3 All-OVC players (one 1st Tm, two 2nd Tm) and then starting LT Odie Rush to inj (basically 1 st'r returning) but with a less than expected finish in '10 and the newly acquired addition of RB Ealey, the numbers jumped back up to 220 ypg (4.8) while all'g just 13 sks. TY the unit takes a hit on the interior as both RG Michael Ellis (10 st) and LG Matt Jones (10 st) depart but they do get the return of Rush and slide LY's starting LT Tarik Milner to LG. With all the key parts of the skill positions returning, the JSU OL should improve yet again.

D-Line - After slipping from 150 rush ypg all'd in '09 to 162 ypg all'd in '10, the JSU DL ret'd 2 st'rs to the 3-man unit but surprisingly slipped again to all'g 166 ypg (4.6) with the tm's 12 ttl sks being their worst since they recorded 8 in '05. TY the losses are heavy as only NG DiMetrio Tyson (11 st, 25 tkl) returns. JSU will be counting on a trio of transfers to aide in the rebuilding as JUCO Ketrick Wolfe, Alcorn St trans Martez House and Baylor trans Sean Watson attempt to fill the void next to Tyson. With the recent struggles, this group could easily drop down for a 3rd consecutive yr.

LB's - After putting up their best numbers in quite some time in '09 when the JSU defense all'd just 17.1 ppg, the group saw their numbers plummet in '10 to 25.0 ppg as they were forced to replace their #1 tkl'r. LY the Gamecocks had to replace their #1 and #2 tkl'rs but got the huge upgrade of Ole Miss trans Clarence Jackson (PS#107) who started 6 gms despite dealing with inj's. The unit slipped again all'g 26.8 ppg and while they return 2 st'rs to the 4-man group, Jackson departs leaving #1 tkl'r Rashad Smith as the leader of the group. This is a group that has some solid talent and potential but with the expected struggles of the DL, JSU could see their ppg all'd increase yet again.

DB's - In '10 this unit all'd 198 ypg and a recent high of 58.4% comp (#54 PDR). LY they lost just 1 st'r to graduation but were also forced to fill the FS spot as Keginald Harris was unhappily moved to LB. The unit was then gashed to the count of 225 ypg (60.5%) with their 17 int's being the only statistic that actually helped them save some face (#65 PDR). TY the losses are heavy as they lose CB's Jawaan Booker (10 st, 29 tkl), 2nd Tm OVC AJ Davis (11 st, 28 tkl) and FS Jason Horton (8 st, 37 tkl). Pierre Warren and Brooks Robinson shared the starting SS duties LY and both ret along with Harris after a yr at LB. JSU added Clem trans Desmond Brown (PS#113) to help at CB but with a leaky front 7 ahead of them, this unit will be challenged.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST's unit ret'd intact a ssn ago which incl former Fla St trans James Esco handling the kicking duties. Esco hit on 13 of his 20 att's in '10 and followed that up with a 9-10 performance LY. After a 39.5 avg in '10, P Coty Blanchard saw his numbers dip in '11 as he was pulling full-time double duty serving as the Gamecocks' QB as well. Alan Bonner led JSU in both PR (10.8) and KR (25.9) in '10 and while he again led the group with a 9.9 PR avg, his KR avg dropped to 17.5 opening the door for Gabriel Chambers who had a 24.4 avg incl a 99-yd td ret vs Kentucky. TY JSU loses Esco but everyone else returns. If Griffin Thomas is able to handle the K duties and keep his KO's from going OOB (6 LY), JSU has a chance to improve upon '11's #44 finish in our ST rankings.

COACHES - Jack Crowe is now in his 12th yr as HC of the Gamecocks guiding his program to 9 consec winning ssns. His OC is Ronnie Letson who has spent the L9Y here while DC Chris Boone enters his 2nd yr at JSU after previously serving in the same capacity at UTM.

Overview - The Gamecocks have had an impressive 4 yr run going 32-13 with 4 of those losses coming to BCS tms and 1 occurring in the '10 playoffs. Despite the fact that JSU lost their starting QB in the ssn opener (ranked #9 to start ssn), the tm didn't fold as they began the ssn 5-1 with the only defeat coming at the hands of #23 Chattanooga. Sporting a #10 ranking heading into a meeting with FBS foe Kentucky, the Gamecocks would go on to drop that matchup and surprisingly 2 more after that as they sat at 5-4 and out of the Top 25. JSU would go on to squeak out a 1 pt victory over SEMO and then followed that up with a 38-16 win over Tenn St to finish the yr with some momentum and a 7-4 final record, finishing tied for the OVC crown. TY the Gamecocks get back their starting QB but the losses on def are heavy (just 4 ret st'rs). The schedule isn't easy either as besides having to open and close the regular ssn at Arkansas and Florida respectively, JSU also has to visit EKU and Tenn Tech (2 tms they tied for the OVC Title with LY).

MURRAY STATE RACERS

Chris Hatcher (Career 31-24)
3rd Year at Murray State (13-9)
Murray, Kentucky — Enrollment: 10,623

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After starting the final 3 gms in '09 throwing for 543 (55%, 3-3), Casey Brockman took over again in '10 with sts in the L/6, throwing for 2,442 (67%, 15-6) while rushing for 292 (3.7). Brockman entered LY as the commander of the 'Hatch Attack' off and delivered impressively earning 1st Tm OVC (various AA honors) and throwing for 3,276 (66.2%) with a 25-9 ratio. With backup Graham Craig moving on (10 att) the #2 duties will be between Spencer Phillips and Memphis trans Anthony Hayes (PS#124). Brockman is clearly one of the top QB's in all of the FCS making this a much improved unit.

RB's - Despite missing the final 2 gms of the ssn in his 1st yr at MSU, JUCO trans Mike Harris (PS#359) earned 1st Tm OVC with a 904 yd (6.5), 10 td performance including 2 gms of 200+ yds. LY the top 5 ret'd and Harris was at it again surpassing the 1,000 yd plateau and recording 13 td's. TY the Racers lose 2x 1st Tm OVC Harris and taking over his role is LY's #2 rusher Duane Brady (283, 4.7). MSU may also get VHT PS#7 Jaamal Berry, who saw 35 carries in 2 ssns with Ohio St. The unit will be down a notch, unless Berry does indeed transfer in.

Rec's - For the 1st time in 4 ssns the Racers return their top receiver from the year prior. In fact, MSU returns its top 3 in Walter Powell (584, 13.0), Ja-Vonta Trotter (523, 10.9) and former Central Mich trans Hannibal Beauford (493, 11.7). The unit does lose a pair of WR's that each started 6 gms a yr ago in Dexter Barnett (290, 9.1) and Arthur Brackett (418, 13.1) but expected to make an impact in their absences is Utah St trans Dontel Watkins (PS#205JC). This is a very dangerous group of WR's that should put together a fine ssn with an experienced QB behind center and a possible weakness in the running game.

O-Line - In '09 the unit ret'd 3 st'rs but their ypg dropped by almost half, as they avg just 68 ypg (2.2 ypc) while all'g 47 sks (2nd worst FCS). Despite the loss of 4 st'rs in '10, the unit improved as they paved the way for 136 ypg while decreasing the sacks down to a serviceable 16. LY they ret'd every player that made a start in '10 and expectations were at an all-time high. The unit would improve again to 152 ypg (4.3) but did see the sack total jump up a little to 24. TY the group returns 3 st'rs with 2Y st'r and 1st Tm OVC LT Raymond Hopson departing along with LG Elbert Ojendis (10 st). With a QB that attempted 477 passes a ssn ago the rush numbers may not be as impressive as pass protection will be key for the unit's success.

D-Line - After allowing 146 ypg (3.6) in '08 the Racers DL has surrendered 190+ in each of the past 3 ssns including LY when they gave up 194 ypg (4.4) while recording 23 sks. TY the losses are significant as departing are DT's Ryan Walker (7 st, 18 tkl) and Joe Gamsky (6 st, 21 tkl) along with DE Jamal Crook (6 st, 21 tkl). MSU must also deal with the tragic passing of DE Jeff Richard (L3 st, 21 tkl, 5 tfl). The talent remaining in the unit is something to keep an eye on however as they feature a trio of JUCO transfers (PS#57) and 5 players that saw a start a year ago. After 3 disappointing yrs, we'll call for this group to improve in 2012.

LB's - In '09 the LB unit lost one st'r (AA & #1 tkl'r) and they all'd 31.4 ppg. In '10 they again were forced to replace one st'r but for the 6th consec ssn, the Racers all'd more than 30 ppg. LY, despite losing 2 st'rs, they ret'd enough talent for us to believe that the 30 ppg streak would finally come to an end. MSU accomplished that feat as they surrendered 28.5 ppg. TY the Racers lose a pair of part-time st'rs in Andre Clarke (5 st, 32 tkl) and Darrell Davis (7 st at LB/DB combined, 32 tkl). The unit features a trio of highly touted st'rs led by leading tkl'r Sam Small (PS#173JC, 115 tkl, 9.5 tfl) and former Kentucky trans Qua Huzzie (PS#70, 80 tkl, 14 tfl). For a 2nd consec ssn we'll call this group improved and another decrease in their ppg should be expected.

DB's - MSU had a enormous amount of talent a ssn ago in the secondary which saw their PDR rating go from #87 in '10 to #39 LY as they all'd 201 ypg (54.6%). TY they once again look stacked and ready to improve as the only loss is CB Dontrell Johnson (7 st, 40 tkl, 11 pbu). The projected starting lineup collected a ttl of 35 sts a ssn ago and barring any unforeseen inj's or departures, this group has the capability to climb into the Top 25 in the NCAA's PDR.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Not very often do you see a ST's unit that has 2 players handle double duties but after K/P Kienan Cullen and RS Dontrell Johnson served in that capacity in '10, they both ret'd LY. Cullen had and excellent ssn for the Racers as he hit on 15 of his 17 FG att's and averaged 40.7 on his punts. While Johnson earned 2nd Tm OVC honors as a RS, he saw some assistance in KR with Duane Brady getting 20 att's (18.6) compared to Johnson's 11 (16.5). Johnson finished 3rd in the FCS in PR avg at 16.2. TY the unit is forced to depart with both Cullen and Johnson. RFr Marc Wynstra is expected to take over the kicking duties while the punter position will be battled for in the fall between Steven Mix and Ron Pavlik. After an 18th place finish in our ST's rankings in '11, expect this group to drop a few notches here as they search for replacements.

COACHES - HC Chris Hatcher enters his 3rd ssn with the Racers after previously being let go by Georgia Southern (18-15 in 3 ssns). OC Mitch Stewart and DC Ashley Anders return for their 2nd and 3rd yrs respectively.

Overview - The Racers combined for only 5 wins from '05-'07 and after just 3 wins in '09 made a coaching change. HC Hatcher has had a successful 2 yr run with MSU posting a 13-9 record although LY's 7-4 performance left some wondering "What if?". After failing to get any rhythm in the 'Hatch Attack' off vs FBS foe Louisville (lost 21-9), the Racers easily got past Miss Valley St and Tenn St. In their only true bad outing, MSU gave up 28 str 1Q pts to UTM and were unable to dig out of that hole. The Racers' then lost by 8 against #14 Jax St but they followed that up by knocking off both Georgia St and Eastern Illinois. A missed xp in the 4Q vs EKU gave the Colonels a 1 pt win and put MSU at an amazing 4-4 on the year where they could have been easily 6-2 and contending for the outright OVC Title. The Racers would go on to win their final 3 including a pair of 1 pt wins of their own vs #20 Tenn Tech and SE Missouri St. TY the unit returns 13 st'rs incl QB Brockman plus the potential addition of RB Berry. Their schedule however isn't as favorable as they have road trips to EKU and Jax St.

UT MARTIN SKYHAWKS

Jason Simpson (Career 37-31)
7th Year at UT Martin (37-31)
Martin, Tennessee — Enrollment: 8,400

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '09 the Skyhawks added Fresno St trans Derek Carr (PS#56) to the roster and he paid immediate dividends passing for 2,543 yds (58%, 13-12). Carr returned last year and put up a very impressive 25-10 ratio including a 387 yard, 6 td performance in their 61-23 victory over Austin Peay. He now enters his Sr campaign and battling for the backup role will be the trio of Jarod Neal, Tyler Rice (PS#215) and Travis Eakin (PS#212JC). Carr already owns the UTM career record for 300+ pass games with 7 and another solid performance should be expected.

RB's - UTM appears to have a very solid 1-2 punch at the RB position in Jason McNair (PS#228) and Tevin Barksdale (PS#303) who combined for 1,467 yards (5.4) and 13 td's a season ago. Despite their solid years they will be forced to hold off PS#266 DJ McNeil, who also showed ability in '11 with 5 td's on just 58 att's. The only loss for the Skyhawks is FB Jarvis Perry who saw limited chances to carry the ball during his 5 sts LY. The FB position will be decided in camp between true frosh Roland Genesy and converted LB Bobby Ellis. This remains a very deep and talented group that should do well complementing the play of QB Carr.

Rec's - Five of the Skyhawks' top 6 receivers (incl 2 RB) ret'd a season ago led by Stephen Shiver who led the team in '10 with 634 yards (17.6). The story of LY however was Ga Tech trans Quentin Sims (PS#326) who took over as the #1 option in the pass game with a team best 712 yards (13.2) and 10 td's earning 2nd Tm OVC in the process. Shiver finished a close 2nd with 657 (15.6) while FB/TE Kenny Jones was #3 (334, 13.4). Both Shiver and Jones depart heading into TY opening the door for Conn trans Malik Generett (PS#94, 1 rec here LY) and LA Tech trans Jeremy Butler. QB Carr has plenty of FBS transfers at his disposal this season making this group one to watch.

O-Line - After seeing their rush numbers slip each of the previous 2 ssns (166 ypg in '09, 154 ypg in '10), UTM returned 3 st's to the unit in '11 and saw their numbers jump up to 192 ypg (4.8). Gone for this year are a pair of starting OG's in Ladarrius Stallings and 2nd Tm AA Michael Mancini. The unit returns 45 career sts and despite the loss of their top player, the Skyhawks do have former Vanderbilt trans Michael Bryant (PS#157) to fill in one of the vacated spots. With 3 st's returning again along with a solid arsenal at RB, don't expect the rush numbers to drop very much in '12.

D-Line - In '10 the unit lost just 1 starter and ret'd 8 who combined for 34 starts yet the rush numbers rose to 145 ypg (123 ypg '09). LY they saw 3 depart who had combined for 22 starts. UTM saw their numbers slip even further to 158 ypg (3.9) despite the presence of Tenn trans Montori Hughes (PS#355) in the middle. Hughes returns TY along with fellow interior lineman Darrin Nalls and DE DJ Roberts giving the group 3 st's/rs back as DT Karlos Jones (5 st, 16 tkl, 5 tfl) and DE Josh Cody (5 st, 26 tkl) are the only roster casualties. Added to the mix are LB's Darelle Nash (3 st LY) and Jett Howard who was OFY after just 2 gms. With the added depth to this unit, a decrease in the rushing numbers should be expected.

LB's - The Skyhawks returned 2 st's/rs in '10 and allowed 23.1 ppg incl just 12.8 over the final 5. LY they lost 2 st's/rs incl 1st Tm OVC Josh Bey and saw their numbers slip to allowing 27.8 ppg. Things look a bit more promising TY as they return their top 2 tklr's from a year ago in Ben Johnson (97 tkl, 7.5 tfl) and Jarvis McCann (62 tkl, 6 tfl). The unit does lose #3 tkl'r Jonathan Utley (61 tkl, 6 tfl) and a trio of players who move positions on defense. The return of Johnson and McCann should be enough however to see the ppg cut down a bit in '12.

DB's - Despite losing 3 st's/rs in the secondary entering the '10 ssn, the Skyhawks posted a spectacular year allowing just 154 ypg and only 50.5% (#13 pass eff D). LY they had just 1 starter depart but surprisingly saw their numbers falter to 210 ypg (58.1%) ranking them #96 in the pass eff D. The losses are heavy TY as they lose former Marshall trans TJ Drakeford (11 st, 48 tkl) along with fellow starting CB CJ Estelle (11 st, 33 tkl, 11 pd) and S Kendal Harper (10 st, 30 tkl). LB Julius McNair (8 st, 53 tkl) slides over to S for the upcoming ssn with just 6 other career sts from the rest of the unit. The last time UTM lost 3 str's they put up superb numbers but it's highly unlikely that they could accomplish that feat again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After basically returning intact a season ago and finishing with our 21st ranked ST's unit, UTM is now forced to replace P Joe Hook (38.1 avg, 33.3 net) after 3 seasons at the helm along with 1st Tm AA PR CJ Estelle who led the FCS with a 17.7 avg on his 16 att's (1 td). 1st Tm OVC K Cody Sandlin returns after hitting on 25-31 att's the past 2 yrs and it appears that LY's part-time KO specialist James Satterfield has the 1st opportunity to land the vacated P spot. This unit remains a talented bunch but with the loss of 2 of their key contributors, a drop in our rankings wouldn't come as much of a surprise.

COACHES - HC Jason Simpson enters his 7th season with the Skyhawks. OC duties will be shared by Mac Bryan and Carmen Felus for a 2nd consecutive season while DC Jeff Byrd begins his 1st year at UTM after previously serving as DC at Div II Arkansas Tech.

Overview - The Skyhawks have teetered around the .500 mark each of the past 3 seasons. Last year UTM blew a 23-10 lead at #9 Jacksonville St in the opener before knocking off Union College of KY (NAIA) and #24 Murray St to begin the year at 2-1. The Skyhawks would end up exchanging wins and losses the remainder of the season before dropping back-to-back close losses to end the season, costing them a winning record. The Skyhawks have 7 returning starters on offense including QB Derek Carr but there are some questions on the other side of the ball with 3 starters missing in the secondary. If a few DB's find their way early, UT Martin should have an excellent opportunity to reach a winning record for the third time in the last five years.

TENNESSEE TECH GOLDEN EAGLES

Watson Brown (Career 118-182-1)
6th Year at Tennessee Tech (25-31)
Cookeville, Tennessee — Enrollment: 9,217

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Tre Lamb (PS#292) started the 1st 8 gms for the Eagles in '10 prior to being lost to inj (974, 53%, 11-4 ratio). LY Lamb returned to start all 11 gms earning Tm Off MVP and breaking 8 individual team records in the process throwing for 2,342 yds (65.2%) and a 17-10 ratio. Lamb returns for his 3rd and final ssn as a st'r in '12 while the bkp duties will be settled in camp between Darian Stone (PS#160, 5 att LY) and rFr Steve Wilson (PS#244) who has also practiced with the WR's in his short time in Cookeville. Assuming Lamb continues his growth, the Golden Eagles appear to be in excellent shape.

RB's - The Eagles ret'd their top 3 rushers in '10 led by Dontey Gay (556, 5.6) and added Kansas trans Jocques Crawford (PS#41JC). Crawford and Gay would go on to combine for 1,054 (5.8) and 12 td's (9 by Crawford). Crawford moved on heading into LY leaving Gay alone to handle the brunt of the carries. He would go on to rush for 1,045 (5.5) incl 15 td's. Adam Urbano was a distant 2nd with 475 (6.2). TY the Eagles again lose their top rusher and battling Urbano for the starting role is Illinois trans Bud Golden (PS#47) who played sparingly here a ssn ago after transferring late. TT has had success the past 2 ssns despite the departures of their leading rushers making us believe that it can happen yet again.

Rec's - TT ret'd 5 of their top 6 rec's in '10 incl Tim Benford who pulled in 812 (16.2) and a 2nd straight 1st Tm OVC honor in the process (4th Tm AA). Benford returned again LY and as expected, landed on top of the leader board with a career best 923 (14.2) earning 2nd Tm AA and OVC POY (1st WR to earn the award S/'03). Benford moves on heading into '11 as the #3 all-time receiver in both catches (210) and yds (3,007). The leading returnee is RB/WR hybrid Zack Ziegler who pulled in 375 yds (10.1) a yr ago. The loss of Benford (UFA DAL) is a huge blow to this unit and expect their productivity to drop a few notches in '12.

O-Line - In '10 the TT OL ret'd 3 st'rs and saw an improvement of 48 ypg from the yr prior finishing with 157 ypg (4.0). LY the group ret'd 4 to the starting rotation led by a pair of multiple-year st'rs in RG Slade Adams and LG Scott Schweitzer. With the experienced group the Eagles improved yet again to 195 ypg (4.4). TY the Eagles lose 1st Tm OVC Schweitzer (4Y st'r), Malcolm Jones (10 gms) and Ryan St John (1 st, 10 gms). Four return to the starting lineup with their 5th projected st'r, Hunter Beedle, having earned 11 sts at RT in '10. This is a loaded group that should improve for a 4th consec ssn.

D-Line - The Golden Eagles play a 3-4 defense and have improved in 3 consec yrs in rush defense with LY's 148 ypg (3.9) being their best mark S/'07. This ssn the losses are heavy as 2nd Tm OVC Travis Adkins (11 st, 23 tkl) and Jamere Hogue (44 tkl, 4.5 tfl) move on leaving NG Jordan Johnson (11 st, 40 tkl) as the only returnee in the 3-man group. The Eagles are counting on DE's Tommie McBride (26 tkl) and LaDarrius Verge (14 tkl) to assume the vacant positions but with the loss of a pair of outside presences, expect this unit to drop a notch TY.

LB's - TT was expecting to have to replace just one st'r heading into '10 but inj's to 2 others made this unit very lacking in experience. With those mentioned problems the Eagles would go on to allow 28.8 ppg, nearly a FG more than the year prior. While the group lost their #1 tkl'r entering LY, they returned 6 that earned sts from the year prior and improved their ppg all'd to 25.4 (best S/'04). With the amount of passing tms the Eagles faced LY their 3-4 scheme became more of a 3-3-5 with NB Corey Watson actually earning 11 sts in place of a LB. TY the unit loses a pair of st'rs in Jake McIntosh (#4, 4 tfl) and Dwight Evans (#6, 5.5 tfl) along with a pair of bkups and NB Watson (#5, 10 pd). Howard Griffin (#3, 6.5 tfl) leads the unit with project st'rs Marcus Edwards and Blake Adams combining for 76 tkls in '11. Kedrick Towles (15 tkl LY) appears to be the 4th st'r if they choose to line up in the previously used 3-4. Despite the loss of the st'rs to this group, the bkups saw more than ample time a year ago and the drop off shouldn't be extensive.

DB's - After all'g 185 ypg (63.2%) and an 18-12 ratio in '10 (#97 PDR) the Eagles were expecting to return 3 st'rs back to the lineup and improve upon those numbers. While the PDR (#43) and the comp % (58.6) did take a drop, TT all'd 204 ypg in the air, their most S/'08. This was impressive considering that starting FS Marty Jones (87 tkl '10) missed the entire yr with a knee inj. TY they lose 1st Tm OVC CB Richmond Tooley (79 tkl, 8 pd) but return 72 car def sts incl Jones who comes back from inj. This is without question the best position group on the defense and another fine finish should be expected.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After hitting on 9 of his 15 att's in '10, former Oregon St trans Matthew Barker lost his spot to PS#53 true frosh Zach Sharp, who also hit on 9 of 15 and 46-47 xp's. The Eagles featured a pair of new return specialists after '10's departure of Henry Sailes. Demetrous Garrett handled the PR duties (10.7) while Cody Forbes served as the KR (22.0). Both return again LY along with Sharp. 2nd Tm OVC P Nick Campbell (39.3 avg, 37.1 net) is the only significant loss to the unit. RFr Chad Zinchini and true frosh Chris Harris will battle it out for the vacant spot in the fall and assuming the position finds some success, TT has a chance to pull out another solid performance (our #35 ST ranking LY).

COACHES - Reigning OVC COY Watson Brown returns for his 6th yr with the Eagles after spending the prior 12 ssns as the HC at UAB. Brown will again serve as his own OC while Billy Taylor returns as the DC (5th yr) and asst HC.

Overview - For the 1st time in 10 ssns the Golden Eagles topped the 6 win plateau earning HC Brown OVC COY honors and TT a share of the conf title. After an expected loss to FBS foe Iowa, TT rattled off 4 consec wins including a 3-0 start to conf play. The Eagles found themselves trailing Tenn St big at the tail end of the 3Q and despite a 20-0 run to close out the gm, the Eagles fell just short losing by 2. After knocking off #14 ranked Jax St 21-14 on the road, TT again hit a bump in the road dropping a 1 pt game at home to Murray St (TT missed xp in 4Q). The Eagles would go on to win meetings against #24 EKU and Austin Peay before dropping their ssn finale to #15 Central Arkansas and placing them in a 3-way tie for the OVC Title. TY the Eagles return 12 st'rs and appear ready for another run in the OVC. They do however have an inexperienced front 7 on the defense that could see them struggle early on.

EASTERN ILLINOIS PANTHERS

Dino Babers (Career 0-0)
1st Year at Eastern Illinois (0-0)
Charleston, Illinois — Enrollment: 11,178

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After using a slew of both FBS and JUCO transfers at this position in years past, the Panthers gave the starting duties to Jimmy Garoppolo for the final 8 games of his true frosh season where he threw for 1,639 yards (59%) and a 14-13 ratio earning a spot on the OVC All-Newcomer team. In his 2nd season as a starter in '11 Garoppolo saw his productivity increase as he passed for 2,644 (62.2%) with a 20-14 ratio. The only other QB to even see time a year ago was Taylor Duncan who attempted 1 pass and rushed twice in 4 gms of mop-up duty. While Garoppolo is purely a drop back passer, new HC Dino Babers has mentioned that there is no question that Garoppolo can handle the new hurry-up spread scheme and continue to grow as a QB.

RB's - This position is similar to the QB spot in terms of FBS transfers that have filled the duties in the past. Toledo trans Jake Walker is the most recent addition to the team and after seeing limited carries in his 1st year as a Panther in '10 (180, 3.4), he was able to lead the team in rushing a year ago with 580 (3.8). Walker returns again TY along with backup Jimmy Lera who saw 45 carries a season ago (4.2). The only loss to this group is AJ Woodson (3 st, 215, 3.2) who moves to the defensive side of the ball for '12. Adding depth TY will be a trio of rFr in Trey Pendergrass, Shepard Little and Reggie Box. With basically all their key pieces back, expect this unit to improve in the 1st year of the new offense.

Rec's - In 2010 EIU ret'd everyone who caught a pass in '09 incl 6 with 200+ yds including Chris Wright who finished with a Div I best 26.5 ypc! Five of the top 6 returned again LY and while Wright saw his ypc "drop" to 17.5, he led the team again in both rec yds (735) and td catches (11). This group did suffer some losses during the year however as Erik Lora (50 rec '10) was forced to RS due to inj and Kenny Whittaker was dismissed from the team in Oct. TY Lora returns to the unit and the only other loss is Lorence Ricks (3 st, 209, 13.1) as 3 of the top 4 return. This is one of the conference's top units for a 2nd consec ssn.

O-Line - The Panthers' OL saw their numbers plummet in '10 (87 ypg, 2.7) thanks to the loss of 3 starters that included both a 1st and 2nd Tm OVC honoree. With the infusion of 3 new starters from the year prior, EIU found themselves a little more experienced heading into LY with 6 that had started previously along with Illinois trans Mike Garrity (PS#126). Garrity was able to start just one game all season long and while the Panthers started the same 5 for the first 8 games of the year, the numbers stayed the same (86 ypg, 2.7). Garrity departs TY along with 2nd Tm OVC LG Eric Zink but the unit returns 4 starters (6 w/career sts) and truly has only one way to go in productivity.

D-Line - The Panthers' has seen its numbers increase in each of the past 3 ssns including a dismal 240 ypg (5.2) LY (2 ret starters) that included being gashed for 1,079 rush yds over a 3-game span against Jacksonville St, SE Missouri St and EKU. On the bright side is the fact that all four 11 game starters return in '12 including 2nd Tm OVC DE Artavious Dowdell who finished 3rd in the conf in sks. This group is out to prove that LY's performance was simply a mirage and expect the EIU rush defense to be one of the most improved in the OVC this ssn.

LB's - In 2010 this unit lost 1 starter but much like the rest of the defense they underachieved allowing a baffling 29.3 ppg. LY they lost #1 tkl'r and 2x 1st Tm OVC Nick Nasti but returned their #2 and #4 tklr's in Cory Leman and Gordy Kickels. Despite their returns the unit faltered again as they surrendered 31.4 ppg (most S/'02). Things are not looking much better for 2012 as both Leman and Kickels depart with only Antonio Taylor (#2 tkl'r w/92) returning as a starter. With the change in scheme and inexperience at the position, it may be difficult to improve upon LY's porous numbers.

DB's - LY the Panthers were forced to replace both of their starting CB's (one 2nd Tm OVC) who were the team's #5 and #6 tklr's. The tm saw their PDR drop from #34 in '10 to #72 (64.4%, 12-4 ratio) in '11. Things look improved however entering this upcoming ssn as all 4 starters return plus they get the addition of former RB Woodson. Expect the EIU secondary to climb a notch or two TY with LY's learning curve now behind them.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The unit returns K Cameron Berra who has hit on 15-20 att's through his 1st 2 ssns with EIU. Scott Weatherford (bro of NFL P Steve) was solid in his 1st yr as P with a 37.6 avg (33.4 net). Pete Houlihan (3.1) returns as the team's PR but the Panthers will need to locate a new KR after the departure of both Tavares Crawford (24.8) and Lorence Ricks (25.6). The Panthers finished #61 in our ST rankings a year ago and another middle of the pack finish should be expected.

COACHES - Bob Spoo retired after a 144-127-1 record in his 25 ssns as the HC of the Panthers trailing only Joe Paterno, Albany's Bob Ford and Villanova's Andy Talley for the longest tenure at 1 school. Replacing Spoo TY is former Baylor asst Dino Babers (asst here in '87) who brings in some changes in both offensive and defensive schemes. The new EIU OC is Sterlin Gilbert who joins the college ranks after a successful tenure in the Texas HS HC ranks. Kim McCloud will serve as the DC here after spending time as an asst at Baylor with Babers.

Overview - Prior to the 2011 season 25 yr Panthers HC Bob Spoo announced he would retire at the end of the ssn. After a shocking 2-9 ssn in '10, things appeared to be back on track after EIU used a 21 pt 4Q to knock off Illinois St in the opener but after an expected loss to FBS foe Northwestern, the Panthers dropped their next 6 games. After a 9 point win over Austin Peay, EIU blew a double digit 4Q lead in legendary HC Spoo's final HG and lost by 1 Tennessee St. The Panthers found themselves on the wrong end of many close games a season ago as they dropped 6 games by 9 points or less including two 1 pt losses. The Panthers should improve with 17 starters and 79% of their lettermen returning. However with their first new coaching regime since 1987 and different schemes on both sides of the ball, this will likely spell a 3rd consecutive losing season, something that has not happened at EIU since 1991-1993.

TENNESSEE STATE TIGERS

Ron Reed (Career 8-14)
3rd Year at Tennessee State (8-14)
Nashville, Tennessee — Enrollment: 9,165

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Mid Tenn trans Jeremy Perry (PS#197) joined the Tigers in '09 and after seeing limited action in his 1st yr, he would go on to start the 1st 8 gms in '10 (1,469, 54%, 9-6) before going down late with inj. Perry would again line up behind center to start LY but after 3 sts, rFr Michael German (PS#245) would take over the duties and deliver a solid campaign throwing for 1,899 yds (56%) with a 12-7 ratio and earned OVC Fr POY in the process. TY the Tigers are forced to part with Perry (702, 45.3%, 5-3) and petitioning for the bkp role are true frosh Ronald Butler (PS#128) and rFr Imonni Carswell (PS#253). German should continue to improve in his 1st full ssn as a st'r.

RB's - After rushing for 182 yds (2.9) and earning a start as a true frosh in '09, PS#89 Trabis Ward was forced to take a RS in '10 due to a knee inj. Ward ret'd a ssn ago along with '10's leading rusher Dante' Thomas (793, 5.1 '10) and after battling it out in camp, Ward came out victorious for the starting gig and put together 978 yds (5.1) and 11 td's. Not to be outdone, Thomas also chipped in 7 td's to go with his 659 yds (5.2). TY the Tigers lose Thomas but return Ward and LY's #3 rusher Ryan Berry (168, 7.0). The depth here also looks impressive with a pair of true frosh, Kaylen Pearson (PS#208) and Telvin Hooks (PS#174) looking for time. With the departure of Thomas, we expect Ward to reach the 1,000 yd plateau in 2012.

Rec's - Converted QB Calvin McNairl entered LY as the leading returning rec after a 429 yd (12.6) performance in '10. McNairl led the Tigers LY with 735 yds (17.9) including 7 td's while Devin Wilson led TSU in catches with 48 (12.2). Travis James was the Tigers' deep threat posting 529 yds and a whopping 19.6 ypc. TE London Davis (PS#39, Illinois trans) had just 3 catches missing a good portion of the yr with inj. This summer they got a huge addition in Florida tran AC Leonard (PS#5) who had 4 sts for the Gators LY. McNairl is the only roster casualty among the top 10 rec's making this unit extremely dangerous this ssn.

O-Line - The TSU OL lost 40 of its 55 sts heading into '10 but with a 3-headed RB corps ahead of them, the numbers improved to 190 ypg (4.9). LY they lost a pair of 2nd Tm OVC honorees and saw their numbers dip back down to 179 ypg (4.7) while all'g 12 sks for a 3rd consec yr. TY the Tigers lose starting RT Justin Ridgeway (20 car sts) and part-time starter DeMadre Dean. Four st'rs (three 2nd Tm OVC and a former Mich St trans) return (74 car sts) and replacing Ridgeway in the starting lineup is JUCO trans Demetrius Rhaney (PS#184). This is the most experienced group this unit has boasted in yrs giving them an excellent opportunity to surpass '07's recent best of 211 ypg.

D-Line - LY this unit lost 1 st'r but were expected to return both WV trans Marcus Broxie and S Carolina trans Dontee' Nichols to the unit giving TSU their most experienced group in quite some time and the potential to put up their best numbers in the previous 7 ssns. While Nichols was able to start all 11 gms with the Tigers, Broxie didn't see the field and the Tigers regressed all the way down to 180 ypg (4.7), 27 ypg more than '10. TY the unit loses the interior presence of Nichols (29 tkl), DJ McCellion to injury (23 tkl) and DE Tyler Lusk (17 tkl) but do return former Troy trans Antonio Harper (PS#57) who earned 2nd Tm OVC LY with 44 tkls and 6.5 sks. Despite being less exp'd, the numbers should see improvement.

LB's - With the chunk of yards the front 4 gave up LY it was no surprise that TSU all'd 32.8 ppg, their most since all'g 33.4 ppg in '07 and nearly 10 ppg more than in '10. TY the losses are heavy as the Tigers are forced to part with OVC DPOY Rico Council (87 tkl, 8.5 tfl) who's 295 car tkls placed him #2 all-time in TSU history. John Jones (8 st, 47 tkl, 7.5 tfl) also departs leaving Wilson Robinson (41 tkl, 4.5 tfl) as the tm's only returning st'r to the group. Added to the mix in '12 is Northern Illinois trans Greg Barksdale (PS#181) as well as JUCO Clarence Jordan (PS#366). While the cupboard wasn't left bare, it will be hard for this unit to improve very much with the loss of its star.

DB's - In '10 the Tigers lost 2 st'rs and all'd 189 ypg (53.4%) finishing #62 in pass eff def. LY the unit ret'd 2 st'rs but with the struggles of the DL and LB's ahead of them, the team all'd a whopping 263 ypg (59.1%) with a 27-7 ratio, earning a #103 ranking in pass eff def in the process. TY the unit appears to be in better shape despite the loss of 1st Tm OVC and 3rd Tm AA FS Joseph Wylie (66 tkl). The 2-deep features FBS transfers from Colo St, Ark St, Marshall, Kansas St and LSU (PS#33 Ronnie Vinson) and should see vast improvement in '12.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After hitting on just 9 of his 18 att's in '10, Jamin Godfrey improved upon those numbers LY hitting on 16-24. Matt Moseley handled the punting duties (38.7 avg, 33.1 net) while Weldon Garlington served as the Tigers' KR (20.9) and PR (19.4 on 9 att) specialist. TY everyone but Moseley returns and it appears that Godfrey (2 punts LY) is the frontrunner to serve in a double duty capacity. TSU finished #33 in our ST rankings a year ago and as long as the kicking game continues its consistency, another fine finish should be expected.

COACHES - Ron Reed was promoted to HC here in '10 after spending '03-'09 as the DC of the Tigers. After serving as his own DC in '10, Reed has a pair of coaches handling the duties now in Osita Alaribe (4th year) and Justin Roberts (2nd year). Mike Jones is back for his 3rd yr and was previously the HC of NFL-Europe's Frankfort Galaxy ('04-'07).

Overview - After a 3-win 2010 ssn that saw the Tigers' victories come against a SWAC tm and a pair of MEAC opp's (0-7 vs conf), TSU came just a win away from a winning record in 2011 as they improved their OVC record to a solid 4-4. The Tigers beat up on SWAC member Southern to a 33-7 final before losing to another SWAC member, Jackson St by a 6 pt margin. Three additional losses followed including a 3 pt loss to Austin Peay, a game that saw the Governors kick the GW FG with :11 remaining. At 1-4 and staring down at another disappointing ssn, the Tigers would go on to win 4 of their next 5 with 3 of those victories coming by 5 pts or less. With a winning ssn on the line, a 5-5 TSU squad dropped their home and ssn finale by 22 pts to Jacksonville St. TY the Tigers return 14 st'rs and 56 lettermen along with failing to draw an FBS foe on TY's schedule. If the defense is able to trim back some of their lapses from '11, the offense has the ability to carry this squad to their first winning record in 4 ssns.

SE MISSOURI STATE REDHAWKS

Tony Samuel (Career 59-100)
7th Year at SE Missouri State (25-43)
Cape Girardeau, Missouri — Enrollment: 11,510

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Matt Scheible (PS#302) made every pass att for SEMO in their playoff push of '10 throwing for 1,246 yds (60%, 8-3) with another 887 (5.2) yards on the ground (1st Tm OVC). With the departure of AA RB Harris last year, even more of the off was put on Scheible's shoulders and he led SEMO with 967 (5.3) on the ground while increasing his air productivity (1459, 55.2%, 12-7). Trey Lewis saw minimal action as the #2 QB with 10 pass att on the season but he departs along with 2nd Tm OVC Scheible. Taking over the unit for '12 appears to be Ohio trans Kyle Snyder (PS#232) who saw limited action as a rFr with the Bobcats (8 pass att). The bkp duties will be a camp battle between Tyler Peoples and Scott Lathrop while a pair of true frosh wait in the wings. Snyder possesses many of the same physical attributes of Scheible and should adjust well to the new off but being without a 3Y st'r could see this group drop a notch or two.

RB's - This unit was without question the biggest concern on the tm a yr ago with the losses of AA and OVC OPOY Henry Harris (1,735, 5.7, 18 td) and bkp Mike Jones (362, 4.2). In fact, their leading returning RB Renard Celestin, had just 4 carries the yr prior. SEMO used a RB-by-committee approach in '11 led by FB Ron Coleman who posted 320 (3.9) on the ssn which was a 3rd of the tm's leading rusher, QB Scheible. Celestin (244, 6.3), Levi Terrell (312, 6.6) and Lennies McFerren (255, 3.9) split the starts and carries at TB which appears to be the idea again for the upcoming ssn. However if this unit is to improve, one of the 3 TB's must take control, especially with the loss of Scheible behind center.

Rec's - The Redhawks ret'd 3 of their top 4 WR's in their magical yr of '10 but with an off that leaned extremely heavy on the run, SEMO's top contributor was Chantae Ahamefule who had just 357 (13.7) on the yr. Ahamefule was the only 1 of the top 6 to return a yr ago. While he still saw 11 starts, his production was cut in half as he pulled in just 9 rec's with his 116 yds being #5 on the tm. DJ Foster (#1, 352, 14.1) and Spencer Davis (#2, 314, 15.7) emerged as the top targets in the pass gm and both return for '12. Ahamefule and Aaron King (#3, 167, 12.8) depart opening the door for Ola Alli, Matt Bell and the TE duo of Tyler French and Marq Goodlit. The unit as a whole is more experienced heading into the new ssn but with questions at QB, it may not show too much in the statistics.

O-Line - In '10 the Redhawks saw their rushing output nearly double from the year prior as they avg'd 184 ypg (4.5). In '11 they returned 3 st'rs but in front of an AA TB, SEMO finished #3 in the FCS with 265 ypg (5.0) while allowing just 6 sks. Things looked bleak heading into LY as the unit lost 4 st'rs from their playoff team (three 1st Tm OVC & 2 AA's) along with their premier TB. The only returnee was 1st Tm OVC LT Evan Conrad. Arkansas trans Dominic Maldonado DNP in '10 after 5 st in '09 but emerged at RT a year ago. The unit took a dip in production but not as much as you would think averaging 233 ypg with a recent high of 5.3 ypc (13 sks all'd). Things look a bit brighter for the SEMO OL TY as 4 st'rs return. They may however have some issues surpassing LY's unexpected finish.

D-Line - SEMO lost a pair of 1st Tm OVC DT st'rs heading into LY but did see the return of DE's Steve Hendry and Justin Love who combined for 60 tkls and 5 sks in '10. With the loss of an experienced interior presence, this unit took a major hit in defending the run as they all'd 251 ypg (5.4), 99 ypg more than they surrendered in '10. Losses TY are similar to LY as departing are Hendry (11 st, 31 tkl, 5.5 tfl), DE Johnnie Morgan (5 st, 20 tkl) and DE Courtney Brame (4 st, 22 tkl). SEMO does have some experience up the middle now and improvement in the rush numbers should be expected.

LB's - This unit helped deliver a recent best 21.5 ppg all'd in '10 and ret'd 3 that combined for 19 st and 145 tkls heading into 2011. After a 59 tkl performance as a soph, Blake Peiffer recorded an OVC-best 151 tkls (#3 FCS) while earning 1st Tm OVC in the process. The problem for this unit however was the lack of push the front 4 was able to get as SEMO all'd a recent worst 37.5 ppg, more than 2 td's more from the year prior. This year the unit returns 2 in Peiffer and Darrick Borum (#4 tkl'r) while #3 tkl'r Philip Klaproth moves on. Peiffer is a prime contender for OVC DPOY and this unit should vastly improve from a year ago.

DB's - After improving for a 3rd straight yr in '10 with 3 st'rs back (#14 PDR, 165 ypg, 58%), the secondary also saw a dip in production a year ago (2 ret st'rs) with our #93 rating (183 ypg) all'g a whopping 66.7% comp. The losses are heavy for the SEMO DB's TY as they lose 3 st'rs in SS Bryan Blanfort (73 tkl, #2) and CB's Kweku Arkorful (54 tkl) and Bradley Montgomery (38 tkl). Despite the departures, the secondary, much like the rest of the team, has a good chance to improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - SEMO is led by the steady punting of Kent St trans Joe Vucic who avg'd 41.1 (34.2 net) a year ago. K Drew Geldbach also returns for his 3rd season, hitting on 19-30 att's in his career. Spencer Davis avg'd 20.5 on KR and 5.7 on PR during his 1st year as the primary RS in 2011. All the major contributors return for the upcoming season giving them a solid chance to improve upon our #70 ranking of 2011.

COACHES - HC Tony Samuel enters his 7th ssn here and was previously the HC at NMSt from '97-'04. Samuel won the Eddie Robinson and OVC COY awards in '10 after his team went from 2-9 to 9-3 and an FCS playoff berth. LY Tim McGuire made the unusual switch to OC after serving as the DC here for 5 ssns. Brian Mohnsen took over the DC duties in '11 after previously spending time as the DL cch with Buffalo.

Overview - The stars aligned for the Redhawks during the '10 season as they went 9-3 and earned a playoff berth with 14 returning st'rs. 2011 didn't look as promising as SEMO ret'd just 9 st'rs and lost the OVC OPOY in RB Henry Harris. After expected losses to #19 Southern Illinois, FBS foe Purdue and Tenn Tech, the Redhawks were able to get into the win column with a strong 2H vs Eastern Illinois. The SEMO offense was held to just 158 ttl yds in an embarrassing loss to Tenn St and after another thrashing at the hands of EKU, the secondary came through with 2 int's in a 4 pt win over Austin Peay. Following an 8 pt loss to UT-Martin, the Redhawks mustered an 11 pt win over NAIA member Central Methodist. SEMO dropped their final 2 contests by 1 point each to finish at 3-8. With 13 st'rs back SEMO has a chance to improve, especially if their def answers the call but a winning record and a trip back to the playoffs seems very unlikely.

AUSTIN PEAY GOVERNORS

Rick Christophel (Career 18-37)
6th Year at Austin Peay (18-37)
Clarksville, Tennessee — Enrollment: 10,723

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Jake Ryan (PS#254, son of NFL QB Pat) started the final 6 games of his rFr season in '09 throwing for just 593 (38%) and a horrid 1-10 ratio. Ryan started the first 9 in '10 (1120, 51%, 7-11 ratio) before being lost with a thumb inj over the final 2. He entered LY as the clear-cut starter but accuracy and inj issues again plagued his season as he hit on just 53.1% of his passes with a poor 12-15 ratio while missing 2 with a knee issue. In his absence, true frosh Landon Curtis (PS#251) earned 3 starts and will battle rFr Jacob Sexton for the #2 spot. Ryan enters this season 5th all-time in career passing yards at AP (Brian Baker 5587, '98-'01) but with a 20-36 career ratio and a history of injuries, it's unclear how much improvement should be expected for the upcoming season.

RB's - After earning 1st Tm OVC in '09 with 1,081 yards (4.7), Ryan White saw his numbers drop some in '10 to 769 (4.9) as he was forced to share time with fellow 1st Tm OVC Terrence Holt (793, 5.4). White had the duties all to himself a season ago returning to the 1,000 yard plateau (1100, 4.7) while earning 2nd Tm OVC. White departs this year after a 3,550 yard career (#2 in AP history) turning the starting role over to Wesley Kitts who had 495 yds (5.9) as White's primary backup a season ago. Challenging Kitts TY are diminutive Ean Pemperton (5'3") and true frosh Omar Williams (PS#339). The loss of White is huge and an expected drop could be in the offing.

Rec's - Last year the Governors returned their top 2 at the position in Devin Stark and Scott Thomas but their numbers were less that admirable as they pulled in just 253 and 223 yards respectively. Stark became more of a target LY pulling in their most rec (53) and td catches (7) since 2006 (Lanis Frederick). Thomas finished #2 for the 3rd consecutive year (299, 10.7) while RB White was #3 (179, 7.2). Thomas is the only roster casualty at this position for 2012 making this unit much improved heading into the season.

O-Line - In 2010 AP had to replace 2 starters but saw their numbers increase for a 3rd consecutive year to 167 ypg and a recent high 4.5 ypc. LY they entered the season having to replace just one starter and had one of the deepest groups in some time. As expected, a 4th consecutive year of improvement occurred with the Governors rushing for 170 ypg (4.4). Even more impressive was a 2nd solid showing in sacks allowed as they surrendered just 11 after giving up 9 the year prior. This year the losses are a bit bigger as a pair of 3Y starters (C Tim Schmid, LT James Barker) depart along with 2Y starter RT JP Washington. LG Jacob Langston (2Y st'r) slides over to the vacated C position while Chris Hartman (11 st) mans the RG spot for a 3rd straight year. After 4 straight years of improvement, it looks like this unit will take a small step back in 2012.

D-Line - After blowing away recent bests with 3 starters in '09 when the unit allowed just 124 ypg and 3.4 ypc, the group lost 3 starters in '10 (incl 2nd Tm OVC NT) and the numbers ballooned to 222 ypg and 4.7 ypc. LY they lost 3 who combined for 25 sts but after a disastrous '10, the numbers were expected to improve and that they did slightly to 199 (4.6). All 4 starters return TY with only backup DT Skyler Springfield (1 st, 15 tkl, 4.5 tfl) moving on. This is the most experienced unit on the defense and even more improvement should be expected.

LB's - In '09 AP switched to a 4-2-5 but since we limit the DB's to four, we will again include the WS with the LB unit. After 4 consecutive ssns of allowing less than 30 ppg, the Governors have surrendered 38.2 and 36.0 ppg each of the L/2 years. This year AP returns both LB starters in Josh Carroll and Darrick Dillard but will have to find a replacement at WS as 1st Tm OVC Amius Smith (#2 tklr) moves on. Replacing Smith will be either Steven Rich, who saw ample time as a true frosh a yr ago collecting 33 tkls or Jeremy Ross, who took a MedRS LY but had a combined 17 sts and 103 tkls in his 1st 2 yrs with the team. The cupboard is not bare at this position and improvement should be expected after 2 porous yrs.

DB's - In '09 the secondary returned 3 starters including a 1st Tm OVC but still slipped to 228 ypg and 64%. In '10 they returned just 1 starter but put up similar numbers finishing #107 in pass eff def at 148 ypg (62.8%, 19-8 ratio). LY they lost just a total of 2 tkls but surprisingly saw their pass eff def dip again to #113 at 152.5 (61.7%, 20-7 ratio). The only starter lost to the unit TY is CB Sheldon Wade (11 st, 36 tkl, 8 pd) while reserves Jonathan Smith (22 tkl) and Chris Taylor (2 st, 12 tkl) also depart. The projected 2-deep for the upcoming season all saw action led by Antwaun Majors and his team-leading 88 tkls. Expect this group to be a bit more productive in '12 and climb up some in the rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - K Stephen Stansell is just 3 FG's short of becoming the school's all-time leader but his accuracy must improve after converting on just 10-19 att's a year ago. Ben Campbell was serviceable as a true frosh punter LY but will need to improve upon his 33.2 net if he is to retain his job. Tee Howell is the leading returner in both KR (22.3) and PR (11.4) and should see even more improvement in '12 as the Governors as a whole try to improve upon LY's #103 finish.

COACHES - Rick Christophel is one of 3 brothers to play QB here and is now in his 6th season as HC and remains his own OC. DC Granville Eastman enters his 9th season here (7th as DC).

Overview - The Governors haven't posted a winning season since their 1st year in the OVC (2007) and LY was no exception as they struggled to a 3-8 record. After a 62 pt thrashing by Cincinnati, AP lost by 21 to Memphis giving the Tigers one of their two wins on the season. Austin Peay followed that up with B2B wins against EKU and Tenn St (trailed 27-13 at HT) before the bottom dropped out and they lost 6 of their final 7 with their only victory coming against DII foe Central St (40-0). In the Governors' 8 losses during the 2011 season, they were outscored by a 43-13 margin. The defense again returns 9 starters from a unit that allowed 36 pgg and 417 ypg a year ago and Austin Peay returns 58 lettermen as a whole. Despite that exp, it's likely that AP's struggles will continue.

PHIL'S 2012 OVC FORECAST

1. EASTERN KENTUCKY - EKU has now reeled off 11 straight OVC winning ssns including winning B2B championships going 8-0 in 2007 and 7-1 in 2008 which was HC Dean Hood's 1st season. In his inaugural campaign, EKU only ret'd 9 starters but thanks to being +14 in TO's, lost only one game despite getting outgained by 21.2 ypg in OVC action. They ret'd 12 starters in '09 and went 5-6 which snapped a streak of 31 straight winning seasons but still outgained OVC foes by 55 ypg. In '10 EKU returned 14 st'rs and much like '08 finished with a 5-2 OVC record but was outgained by an amazing 47.4 ypg. LY they ret'd 16 st'rs and finished in a 3-way tie for the OVC Title earning a FCS playoff berth. Negatives from a yr ago were that they were surprisingly outgained by 9 ypg in conf play with their +14 mark in TO's helping them throughout. While those negative factors normally call for a decrease in victories, a look at the '12 group has them returning a recent high of 17 st'rs (10 on offense) while getting to host some of the OVC's other heavy hitters in Murray St, E Illinois and JSU. Look for the Colonels to capture yet another conf title in 2012.

2. JACKSONVILLE ST - JSU has been a staple at the top of the OVC standings with an 8 yr conf record of 54-17 grabbing exactly 6 conf wins each of the L4Y. In '09 with PS#1 QB Perriloux, JSU dominated finishing +168 ypg (#2 was +55) and while they went 6-1 with the best record, they were ineligible for the playoffs. In '10 they ret'd 13 st'rs and despite a new QB, knocked off Ole Miss in the opener and jumped out to a 5-0 conf record. In control of the conf title race at 6-1, they were 6-1 traveling to 3-4 Tenn Tech but blew a 24-7, 4Q lead. They still made the playoffs. LY they were our pick to take home the OVC Title as they got the addition of a VHT trans RB Washaun Ealey (PS#3) and had a veteran HC. JSU would go on to finish in a tie for the OVC Title while finishing 4th in outgaining conf opp's with a 36 ypg edge. JSU returns 13 st's incl their QB/RB combo. An early trip to EKU could decide their fate in the conf but they do get the edge in their Oct 27th showdown against Murray St giving us enough confidence for them to finish #2 in 2012.

3 . MURRAY ST - After fond memories of the MSU program being a dominant force under Houston Nutt in '95 & '96 delivering B2B 11 win ssns, they fell on hard times going 1-22 in OVC play from '05-'07. They brought in HC Chris Hatcher (Ga Southern HC 3Y) in '10 and he produced their first winning ssn in 6 yrs. In '09 MSU was horrific at -149.5 ypg in conf play (-56, 2nd last) making '10's 5-3 finish with +69.6 ypg and only 11 ret st'rs even more remarkable. They lost to eventual champ SEMO by 13 and their other 2 losses were to playoff bound JSU and at EKU. The "Hatch Attack" off was in its 2nd yr of existence LY and they ret'd 17 st'rs. MSU would go on to post a 5-3 mark for a 2nd straight yr in the OVC while leading the conf in scoring (39.0) and ttl offense (483.5). The only real negative for MSU was their defense who all'd 422.6 ypg vs OVC opp's, good for #8 in the conf. The defense gets 7 st'rs back for the upcoming yr while the off returns 1st Tm OVC QB Casey Brockman and gets the possible addition of Ohio St trans RB Jaamal Berry. We'll call for MSU to push for a title but with a late trips to JSU and EKU on the schedule, a 3rd place finish appears to be in the offing.

4. UT MARTIN - UTM hasn't had a losing OVC ssn S/'04 which was HC Jason Simpson's 1st ssn but have also reached the 6 win mark only twice in those 7 seasons. They have failed to win a conf title in that span and have been the runner up on 3 occasions, incl in 2008 when they faced off vs EKU in the season finale with both teams at 6-1. They've had no trouble moving the ball however as they've ranked among the OVC's best in conf ypg finishing #2 in '07 (+62.5), #3 in '08 (+77.4), #3 in '09 (+47.6) and '10's +134.8 was almost double the #2 (SEMO +72.3). LY was no exception in posting positive ypg as they finished +44.6 ypg in the OVC despite going 4-4 in div play. TY things look positive for UTM as they return 7 st'rs on offense incl their star QB Derek Carr after finishing -3 in net losses in '11. The Skyhawks are also pretty fortunate in their schedule with home matchups against EKU and JSU giving them some of their easier games TY away from home.

4. TENNESSEE TECH - HC Watson Brown took over in 2007 and went 3-12 in conf play with an unbelievable 2 year turnover total of -38. The Eagles ret'd 16 starters in '09 and turnovers=turnaround came into play as they were +8 (after -20 in '08) and had their first winning conf record S/'01 despite being outgained by 56 ypg. In '10 they again returned 16 st'rs and were again outgained in conference play (-35.6 ypg) but with a pair of losses by a combined 5 pts finished just 4-4. LY they brought back an OVC high 18 st'rs but it is a concern that they were outgained for 4 consec yrs. The Eagles would go on to finish in a 3-way tie for the OVC Title while outgaining conf foes by a league-best 62 ypg. TY things don't appear to be as bright as they return just 12 st'rs and finished LY with a +2 close win mark. An early road trip to Murray St followed by B2B meetings with JSU and EKU have us placing TT a little lower than most with a tie for 4th place in the OVC.

6. EASTERN ILLINOIS - The Panthers dominated the OVC from '05-'07 going 22-2. After a poor 5-7 (-40.2 ypg) in '08, they ret'd 13 st'rs, had 2 Florida trans at RB and one of the most experienced O-lines in the FCS. We said they would be taken lightly by the media but had both UTM and EKU at home and called for a 2nd place finish. EIU was upset in the ssn finale vs 3-7 TSU but made the playoffs as JSU was ineligible. In '10 hopes were high with 15 st'rs but bad fortunes snowballed and they started 0-8 and finished with their worst record S/'77. Legendary HC, Bob Spoo returned LY for his 25th and final ssn. While coming off -11 in TO's was a positive, that was negated by having the fewest ret lettermen in the conf (66.7%). The Panthers would go on to post a 2nd str 2-9 ssn with just a single victory in the OVC (Austin Peay) while finishing 2nd worst in the conf in ypg with a -75.8 ypg mark. TY former Baylor asst Dino Babers takes over the reins so there will be sufficient changes in both their off and def schemes. Some promising things to look at however were that EIU finished with a -4 net loss mark in '11 while again struggling with TO's at a -14 clip. We'll go ahead and call for the Panthers to improve with 17 st'rs and 79% of their lettermen returning but with a new coaching regime and the struggles of the last 2 ssns, they still may be a year away from contention.

7. TENNESSEE ST - After being the BEST tm in the league statistically in '08 outgaining OVC tms by 125.5 ypg, the Tigers have struggled in conf play with a 7-15 mark the past 3 yrs incl in '10 when they spiraled into a frustrating 0-7 OVC ssn with 5 losses coming by a TD or less. Their -45.9 ypg was only 4th worse. They returned 15 st'rs LY and of course had 5 net close losses but unfortunately had to travel to 3 of the 4 teams we forecasted in the bottom half of the conference making their home schedule brutal. TSU would actually pick up 2 late road wins over #19 Tenn Tech and E Illinois to finish with a 4-4 OVC mark while outgaining conf foes by 8 ypg. While they do return 14 st'rs, the schedule again is not very generous as they are on the road for 4 of their final 5 gms. A 7th place finish is the best we can give the Tigers for the upcoming ssn.

8. SE MISSOURI ST - HC Tony Samuel came here in 2006 after the team had 3 straight losing seasons. The streak reached 7 straight losing ssns after going 2-9 in 2009 with a 1-7 conference record but they were only outgained by 49.6 ypg meaning they were more competitive than their record. In '10 we mentioned that we were befuddled by the Redhawks only having 4 OVC wins in 4 years and that some of the power ratings called for them to get to 5 conf wins. They ret'd 13 st'rs and not only had their 1st winning ssn in 8 yrs but had the FCS's largest ever turnaround going for 2-9 to 9-3 losing to eventual FCS Champion Eastern Wash in the playoffs. LY they had multiple things working against them including a bounce back after that meteoric increase and tms no longer will be looking past them. SEMO was also +13 in TO's, had 3 net close wins and returned the OVC's fewest starters with 9. As predicted, they struggled to a mark of 3-8 (2-6 in conf) although they were outgained by just 13 ypg in OVC play. TY they return 13 st'rs but with a schedule that features many of their toughest opp's on the road, we'll go ahead and call for another low finish for the Redhawks.

9. AUSTIN PEAY - AP joined the OVC in '07 coming from the non-scholarship Pioneer Conference meaning they were taking a huge step up in class. In '08 they went 2-6 (-71.1) and improved in '09 to 3-5 (-28.8). In '10 they graduated many of their first scholarship signees and only returned 12 st'rs. They fell to 2-7 with a very poor -152.3 conf ypg avg. LY they ret'd 16 st'rs but after B2B conf wins to start the yr, they fell to 2-6 in the OVC while being outgained by a conf-worst 113.8 ypg. TY they return 15 st'rs and 81% of their lettermen but judging by LY's finish and the large gap that they had in ypg, another last place finish could be in their future.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 Chris Lum threw for 2,881 yds (58%, 19-13) earning 1st Tm PL in his first full starting season. Mike Colvin (PS#102) started vs NH in '10 (due to inj) and both ret'd LY. Lum shattered Lehigh's season passing record by 800+ yds throwing for 4,378 (66%, 32-17). He led the FCS in total passing yds, was #3 in total offense and #17 in pass efficiency. He was the league's POY and finished #2 in the Walter Payton Award balloting. With Lum's (13 st) graduation, Colvin and Bialkowski were the top contenders for the job in the spring. Colvin is a bigger threat with his legs (549 career rush yd) while Bialkowski is a big armed southpaw. No matter who wins the job, it'll be extremely difficult to replace Lum's record setting production.

RB's - Last year Lehigh had to replace its top rusher Jay Campbell who finished with 659 yds (4.7) in 2010. The thunder and lightning combo of former Gatorade PA POY Zach Barket and Keith Sherman took over with Barket earning 1st Tm PL honors with over 1,000 total yds of offense before he suffered a season ending ankle injury vs Georgetown missing the final 3 gms. Matt Fitz took over the power back role, finishing as the top rusher in both playoff games. This year Fitz (3 st, #3 rusher) departs but both Barket and Sherman return to form one of the league's top combos.

Rec's - The top 4 receivers returned in 2010 but the story was the emergence of soph Ryan Spadola (1 rec '09) as he became the school's first 1,000 yd receiver s/'01 leading the squad with 1,130 yds on 78 rec's. Spadola earned 1st Tm PL and AA honors and was joined by #2 rec Jake Drwal as a returning st'r LY. Spadola caught a school record 96 rec with a league record 1,614 yds (#2 FCS) with 11 td. Spadola was suspended for the Mountain Hawks' season ending playoff loss to N Dakota St due to a retweet of an inappropriate remark and Drwal caught 10 passes for 111 yds which also put him over the 1,000 yd mark. The two were the FCS's most productive duo with only 1 other school (E Washington) having a pair of 1,000 yd receivers. This year 1st Tm PL WR Drwal (13 st, #2 rec), WR Jimmy Jefferson (4 st, #5) and TE Mark Wickware (8 st, #7) move on but Spadola returns looking to set new records as a senior.

O-Line - LY the Hawks needed to replace 2.5 st'rs including the Patriot League's highest ever draft pick AA LT Will Rackley (#3DC) who started 14 gms as a rookie with the Jaguars. The rush totals actually increased from 104 ypg (3.2) in '10 to 129 (4.1) LY while the sacks allowed edged up slightly from 14 (3.0%) to 17 (3.0%). This year 3 st'rs depart in 1st Tm PL C Jim Liebler (12 st, 3 yr st'r), 2nd Tm PL RG Keith Schauder (13 st, 4 yr st'r) and 1st Tm PL LT Troy McKenna (11 st, 2 yr st'r). The top returning OL 1st Tm PL RT Mike Vuono is one of 5 players with starting experience but the line is a little greener overall.

D-Line - After all'g 135 rush ypg (3.4) and totalling 39 sks in 2010, the Hawks returned 6 with starting experience including all 3 st'rs LY. They had their strongest line in years as the rush ypg fell to 103 (3.2) which ranked #12 FCS with 34 sacks. This year 1st Tm PL DT Ben Flizack (13 st, 13 tfl), 2nd Tm PL DT Andrew Knapp (12 st), NG Billy Dokouslis (2 st) and DT Cody Connare (1 st) all leave. The cupboard isn't completely bare, however, as 2nd Tm PL NG Sajjad Chagani and DT Tom Bianchi, who had the game winning safety vs Towson, will now anchor the front. While there is talent available, there is less depth.

LB's - Three st'rs returned to the unit in 2010 and the D allowed 19.1 ppg. LY three starters were back for the 3rd straight season including their #1, #3 and #4 tkl'rs. LB's finished as the team's top 2 tkl'rs but the ppg fell slightly to 20.2. TY the losses are substantial as 6 members of the 2 deep depart in 1st Tm PL ILB Mike Groome (13 st, #1 tkl'r), ILB Colin Newton (13 st, #2), OLB Fred Mihal (8 st, #5), OLB Tanner Rivas (5 st), OLB Devin Greene (2 st) and LB Shane Ryan (#11). Only 1 starter returns in Billy Boyko who had a career high 14 stops vs Colgate. He will be joined at ILB by Sam Loughery (4 st) who missed the final 5 gms of 2011 due to injury. This is the least experienced LB corps in years and the defense's biggest question mark.

DB's - Three st'rs returned to the secondary in 2010 and Lehigh allowed 210 ypg (58%) with an 18-16 ratio which ranked #39 in pass efficiency D. Last year the Mountain Hawks had to replace all 4 st'rs, all of whom earned All-PL honors. Despite having just 2 career sts return, the secondary surpassed expectations allowing 213 ypg (53%) with a 16-17 ratio to rank #14. Two st'rs earned 2nd Tm PL in top cover CB Bryan Andrews and SS Billy O'Brien. This season FS Jonathan Littlejohn (13 st, 3 int) and CB Kenyatta Drake (2 st, 2 int) are the only players departing from what should be one of the PL's best secondaries.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Tim Divers hit 11 of 17 FG's with a long of just 36 and 37 of 41 xp's. He also handled the punting duties avg just 36.7 with a 31.5 tm net (#101 FCS). The coverage units allowed 21.3 on KR's and 9.8 on PR's. Top PR Jake Drwal avg'd 7.2 while Jason Suggs (20.7) and Marcus Dormevil (22.2) were the top KR. Lehigh finished #110 in our ST rankings and should improve.

COACHES - Andy Coen returns for his 7th season after winning the Patriot League and leading the Mountain Hawks to the 2nd round of the FCS playoffs for the 2nd straight season. OC/QB cch Dave Cecchini is his 3rd season of his 2nd tenure here. He was also the OC at The Citadel ('01-'03) and QB/WR cch at Harvard ('03-'06). When DC David Kotulski left for Stanford, DL cch Donnie Roberts and DB cch Gerard Wilcher were promoted to co-DC's.

OFFENSE - LAST 7 YEARS - DEFENSE

Overview - After an easy win over Monmouth, the Hawks rallied from an 18 pt 3Q deficit vs New Hampshire to take a 3 pt lead with 4:35 left. A Wildcats FG sent it to OT where UNH hit a td pass and Lehigh was SOD in a wild 48-41 loss. After a win in Princeton's opener, the Hawks and Liberty traded long td passes in a 27-24 Lehigh HC victory. Five TO's keyed a 37-7 rout of Yale and the Hawks jumped out to a 30-3 3Q lead in their PL opening win over Bucknell. Lehigh had 32-13 FD and 598-334 yd edges in the win over Fordham. After they held off Colgate to sweep a 3 game road trip, they returned home to beat Holy Cross for the first time in Goodman Stadium since 2003. A win over Georgetown clinched the Hawks second straight league title and FCS playoff berth. A 37-13 win over Lafayette gave them their fourth straight win over their rival and a second straight undefeated PL season. After a 1st round bye Lehigh beat Towson 40-38 in a shootout which was decided by a late 4Q safety as the Hawks were able to run out the final 5:14 with a 12 play drive. With All-American WR Spadola and #1 rusher Barket out, Lehigh was intercepted at the NDSU 36, 32 and in the endzone and was SOD at the Bison 27 and 32 in a 24-0 shutout by the eventual national champs North Dakota St.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2010 Ryan Taggart had the difficult job of replacing three time PL Off POY and two time FCS total offense leader Dominic Randolph. With just 2 career att to his credit Taggart threw for 1,899 yd (58%) with a 14-7 ratio and was the #2 rusher (284, 3.3). Taggart was greatly improved as senior finishing #2 PL in passing and total offense throwing for 2,948 yd (62%) with a 17-7 ratio with 496 rush yds (3.8) and 7 td. Second Tm PL QB Taggart (11 st) graduated leaving the QB spot wide open as top candidate Kevin Watson didn't participate in the spring with the 3 other candidates (Max Librizzi, Ryan Laughlin and Steven Elder) all lacking experience at the FCS level. No matter who wins the job the numbers should be closer to 2010's production.

RB's - Former MA Gatorade HS POY Matt Bellomo led the Crusaders RB's in rushing in '09 with 442 yds (4.9). Bellomo was injured in '10 along with Eddie Houghton whose production fell from 389 (5.7) as a freshman to 146 yds (3.7). Sam Auffant led the squad with 451 (3.8). LY all 3 RB's were back with Houghton emerging in the 2H of the year to lead with 506 yds (5.9). Auffant was #4 with 72 yd (4.1) while Bellomo saw limited action with 47 (5.9). Reggie Woods was the #3 rusher behind QB Taggart with 328 yds (3.8). With all of the RB's back and the inexp at QB the Crusaders could rely more on the run in 2012.

Rec's - The top 6 receivers were all back in 2010 for new QB Taggart and Bill Edger led with 540 yd (12.3). LY the top 3 all departed but they returned 3 players with starting experience in Gerald Mistretta, Mike Fess and TE Alex Schneider. Mistretta was named 1st Tm PL finishing #3 in the league in receptions and receiving yds. Fess was 2nd Tm PL finishing #4 in the conf in receptions. Kyle Toulouse returned to the program after sitting out 2010 and was #6 PL in receptions and rec yds. Schneider was snake bitten with injures and had just 15 rec's. This year only WR Charles McCall (4 st) and WR Josh Jenkins (1 st) depart. Having the top 8 receivers back should help out the new QB.

O-Line - The Crusaders needed to replace 4 OL starters in 2010 and combined with the RB injuries Holy Cross averaged just 99 rush ypg (3.4) while allowing 17 sks (4.1%). Last year 3 starters returned including star LT Mike McCabe. Aided by QB Taggart's mobility the rush numbers increased to 133 ypg (4.1), the best performance here since 2002, while allowing 21 sks (4.9%). This year 1st Tm PL LT McCabe (11 st, 3 st'r), RG Andrew Jameson (11 st) and LG Kyle Cannon (1 st) all depart with McCabe signing a UFA contract with the Packers. Three starters return this year with all 5 projected starters having starting experience. Even without its star, the line should be just fine.

D-Line - Last year HC returned 2 st'rs to their 3 man DL and the more experienced unit cut the rush ypg from 167 (3.8) in '10 to 147 (3.9) with the sacks increasing from 15 to 26. This year only DE Ryan McGinn (3 st, 2 sk) and DE Eric Oldiges (3 st) depart so basically 2.5 st'rs return including 2nd Tm PL DT Jack Maliska. With nearly the entire unit back the rush D numbers could approach 2008's level (115, 3.7).

LB's - Basically 2 st'rs returned to the 4 man unit in 2010 as they got a former #1 tkl'r back from injury. The Crusaders allowed 23.1 ppg that season, their best s/'06. Last season 2 st'rs were back again including their top 2 tkl'rs in Ricky Otis (#1) and CJ Martin (#2). LB's comprised 3 of the top 5 tkl'rs and the ppg fell to 20.0, which bettered their '06 unit (21.4). First Tm PL ILB Otis (11 st, #1 tkl'r), 2nd Tm PL Martin (10 st, #3) and OLB Jimmy Thomas (9 st, #5) now all depart. The only returning st'r OLB Mike Tucker was just the #10 tkl'r. While there are 5 LB's with starting exp, expect the ppg to increase.

DB's - Two starters returned to the secondary in 2010 when the Crusaders allowed 213 ypg (63%) with a 19-6 ratio to rank #79 on the pass eff D chart. LY both starting CB's returned and SS Tom Mannix earned 2nd Tm PL in his first year as a st'r. CB Andrew Zitnik had the key 97 yd interception return td vs Harvard. The pass yd allowed shrunk to 195 ypg (55%) with a 15-9 ratio for a #27 pass eff D ranking. This year 1st Tm PL CB Chandler Fenner (11 st, #4 tkl'r) and FS Cav Koch (11 st, #7, #2 PL pd) depart, leaving HC with 2 returning st'rs once again. A top-notch cover CB like Fenner is always tough to replace so they may take a step back in our rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Holy Cross needed to replace virtually their entire ST unit in 2011 and despite the new faces finished #43 in our rankings. K John Macomber tied the school FG record by hitting 12 of 15 with a long of 37. P Corey Page avg'd just 37.5 but with a 35.7 net (#36 FCS). Andrew Zitnik (22.5) and Ben Coffaro (25.0) were the top KR but Josh Jenkins struggled on PR (4.1). The coverage units all'd 2.8 on PR and 21.2 on KR's. A new P and PR must be found, but with all of the standouts back this could be a quality unit.

COACHES - Tom Gilmore enters his 9th season with his Crusaders being 1 of 12 FCS programs who have had a winning record for the past 7 seasons. Richard Rodgers left after 7 seasons as DC to take a job with the Carolina Panthers. New DC Andy Rondeau was the DC at Old Dominion from '07-'11. Andy McKenzie enters his 2nd season as the OC and has served as the QB coach here s/'08.

2011 RESULTS

PRE-RK	OPPONENT	POST-SCORE
–	Massachusetts	16-24
–	Colgate	37-7
–	Harvard	30-22
–	at New Hampshire - #7	32-39
–	at Brown	13-20
–	Dartmouth	25-17
–	at Bucknell	16-13
–	Georgetown	6-19
–	at Lehigh - #8	7-14
–	Lafayette	29-24
–	at Fordham	41-21

Overview - After an opening loss to UMass, Holy Cross bounced back to throttle Colgate 37-7 in the PL opener. The Crusaders took advantage of mistakes as they led 23-14 early 4Q when they returned a Harvard int 97 yds for a td in a 30-22 win over the Crimson. New Hampshire won a wild shootout 39-32 thanks to a 60 yd td pass with 1:10 left. The Crusaders led Brown 13-10 going into the 4Q but the Bears hit a FG and then drove 99/11pl to score a td with 3:04 left. HC was SOD at their 49 and int'd on their final 2 drives in the 20-13 loss. After Taggart set a school QB rushing record with 173 yds in the win over Dartmouth, he threw for 380 yds in the 16-13 win over Bucknell. HC then lost 19-6 to Georgetown in a freak October blizzard. HC had a 300-240 yd edge but was int'd at the GU23, and was SOD at the 23 and 6. HC blew a 7-0 halftime lead in a 14-7 loss to league leader Lehigh in which they were outgained 394-230. HC int's ended Lafayette's final 2 drives at the Crusaders 3 and in the EZ in a 29-24 win. In the finale the Crusaders' scored 27 unanswered pts in a 41-21 win over Fordham.

GEORGETOWN HOYAS

Kevin Kelly (Career 17-48)
7th Year at Georgetown (17-48)
Washington, DC — Enrollment: 7,433

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Isaiah Kempf started 7 games as a freshman in '09 throwing for 1,231 yd (50%) with a 2-9 ratio. In 2010 he threw for 748 yd (53%) with a 3-2 ratio while splitting time with 11 game starter Scott Darby who threw for 1,338 yd (54%) with an 8-6 ratio and was the team's #2 rusher (270, 2.5). The duo split the job once again LY this time with Kempf seeing more action throwing for 1,268 yds (55%) with a 10-6 ratio and rushing for 263 yds (2.7). Darby (3 st) now departs after throwing for 603 yds (61%) with a 6-3 ratio and running for 84 yds (2.8). This is indisputably Kempf's team and he will have his best season as a senior.

RB's - The Hoyas' #1 rusher had just 308 (4.1) in '09 and 400 (4.5) in '10. Last year their #3 rusher Wilburn Logan (232, 4.6) and #5 Dalen Claytor (106, 5.6) returned but it was sophomore Nick Campanella who lead the way with 477 (3.6) earning 2nd Tm PL honors. The carries were spread pretty evenly as 4 RB's had 38 or more including #2 rusher Logan (295, 5.1), ex-WR #4 Brandon Durham (239, 6.3) and #5 Claytor (233, 4.2). This year everyone is back making this GU's most talented and experienced collection of RB's in years.

Rec's - Except for the #1 receiver everyone returned to this unit last year. The top returning WR Max Waizenegger scored the game-winning td after evading 2 tacklers vs Lafayette and led the unit across the board. Sophomore Jamal Davis was #2. Freshman Kevin Macari (PS#341) showed big play ability leading the team in ypc (12.9) with 3 td's. Tucker Stafford led the TE's in receptions with 11. This year WR Patrick Ryan (11 st, #3 rec) and Slot Jeremiah Kayal (9 st) depart but everyone else is back.

O-Line - Georgetown returned 3 multi-year starters in 2010 and their 104 rush ypg (3.4) was actually their best rushing performance in 3 years while allowing 25 sks (6.5%). Last year they lost 3 starters but had 7 players return with starting experience. Mike Roland started games at 3 different positions as a freshman earning 2nd Tm PL. Their 148 ypg (3.8) was their best rush average since 2004 and they also cut the sacks to 21 (6.3%). This year RG Edward Hesselgren (8 st) is the only lineman to leave making this the Hoyas' most experienced OL in many years.

D-Line - Despite returning just 1 st'r to this unit for 3 straight years the Hoyas' rush defense has improved from 208 ypg (4.7) in '09 to 145 (3.6) in '10 to LY's 99 (2.9) which finished #10 FCS. Last season they did welcome back the team's best player in DE Andrew Schaetzke who led the conference in sacks (13) and tfl (22.5) earning the PL's Defensive POY award and becoming the league's 9th consensus All-American. Schaetzke (11 st, #4 tkl'r) and DE Daniel Lenihan (8 st) now depart marking the 4th season in a row only 1 st'r returns to the 3 man unit. It will be difficult to replace a rare talent like Schaetzke who finished as the school's #2 all-time sacker (30.5), so look for the rush ypg to increase for the first time in 4 years.

LB's - All 4 LB st'rs returned to the unit in '10 and the D cut the ppg allowed from 28.1 to 22.6. Last year 2 st'rs and a backup (#1, #6 and #9 tkl'rs) left the squad. Robert McCabe (#2 tkl'r) moved inside where he shined with a league leading, school record 134 tkls. LB's finished as the team's top 3 tkl'rs and the 19.3 ppg allowed by GU was the school's best in Patriot League play. This year 1st Tm PL ILB McCabe returns along with OLB Dustin Wharton (#2 tkl'r), ILB Jeremy Grasso (#3), OLB Sean Campbell (6 st, #10) and OLB Alec May (5 st, T-#11) to what is the Patriot League's most talented LB corps.

DB's - After allowing 229 ypg (59%) with a 10-18 ratio to finish #21 in the pass eff D rankings in 2010 all 4 st'rs returned to this unit in 2011. With opponent's inability to run the ball, they took to the air and the Hoyas allowed 251 ypg (63%) with a 13-17 ratio to finish #52 in pass eff D. This year 2nd Tm PL CB Jayah Kaisamba (10 st, #8 tkl'r), FS Wayne Heimuli (10 st, #6) and SS David Quintero (11 st, #7) depart leaving just 1st Tm PL CB Jeremy Moore who finished #2 in the league in int despite missing 3 gms. Two other CB's return with starting experience and LY's NB Malcolm Caldwell-Meeks and Javan Robinson were the starting S duo in the spring game. This unit underperformed in 2011 so there's a chance the pass efficiency defense ranking could improve despite having to replace 3 veterans.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Georgetown welcomed everyone back to this unit in 2011. After hitting 7-10 FG with a long of 38 FG's in 2010, K Brett Weiss nailed 16 of 22 FG with a long of 49 including a miss from 55 to earn 2nd Tm PL. P Matt MacZura struggled for a 2nd straight season avg just 34.8 with a 30.1 team net which was #115 FCS. First Tm PL return specialist Jeremy Moore avg'd 29.2 on KR's while PR Kevin Macari avg'd 15.3. The coverage units allowed 22.6 on KR's and 8.2 on PR's. Overall the special teams finished #74 in our rankings. This season Weiss moves on but everyone else is back although the P job is likely up for grabs.

COACHES - Kevin Kelly is the Hoyas' second HC since they moved back up to the FCS level in 1993. After a rough start to his tenure (5-38 from '06-'09), the Hoyas bounced back in 2011 for their first winning season since '99 and their highest ever finish in the Patriot League at 2nd place. Rob Sgarlata enters his 7th season as DC and his 18th overall here. After OC Dave Patenaude ('10-'11) moved on to become Coastal Carolina's OC, Vinny Marino was named OC. Marino was Columbia's OC from '06-'11.

Overview - After the Hoyas' opening win over Davidson, they scored a td with 6:09 left to take the lead over Lafayette and then forced a fmbl at their own 23 with 1:10 to preserve a 14-13 win in the Patriot opener. After a 37-27 loss to Yale in the first contest of their 5 game road trip, QB Darby accounted for 5 td as GU scored its most points since '98 in a 52-28 win over Marist. Bucknell jumped out to a 28-0 halftime lead in a 35-18 Hoyas loss. Waizenegger scored on a 71 yd td reception on 3rd & 10 with 6:29 left to put GU ahead by 2 scores in a 24-10 win over Wagner. After a 21-3 win at Howard, GU blasted Colgate at home, 40-17. On a wintery afternoon the Hoyas forced 5 TO's in a 19-6 win over Holy Cross. Despite being outgained 446-376 by Fordham the Hoyas took advantage of 4 TO's including a 4Q 75 yd IR td to beat the Rams. GU travelled to Bethlehem for the Patriot League Championship game but a 3Q IR td put the Mountain Hawks up by 2 scores in a 34-12 win in which Lehigh had a 25-10 FD edge.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Raiders came into 2011 looking to replace three year starter Greg Sullivan who earned 1st Tm PL honors as a senior in 2010 after throwing for 1,349 yds (65%) with an 8-5 ratio while finishing as the team's #2 rusher (651, 5.2). Gavin McCarney won the job and proved to be a more than worthy successor. Despite missing the Cornell game due to a shoulder injury, McCarney threw for 1,649 yds (65%) with an 11-7 ratio while leading the PL in rush ypg (75 ypg, 5.4). He finished #2 in the PL in pass efficiency and #3 in total offense. Backup Josh Hasenberg played in 2 with all 3 of his completions (52 yd) and all 127 of his rush yds in his lone start, the OT loss to Cornell before being knocked out for the season due to injury. Both QB's return in 2012 with McCarney looking like one of the Patriot League's best QB's.

RB's - After running for 932 (5.4) as a freshman in 2008, Nate Eachus was banged up in 2009 playing in just 8 gms yet still ran for 919 (4.9) with 16 td. Jordan McCord actually led the Raiders with 930 (4.8). McCord sat out 2010 while Eachus was 100% running for an FCS best 1,871 (5.9) with 21 td earning 1st Tm AA honors. Last year Eachus was banged up and missed 5 gms running for 763 (4.7) but still finished as the team's #1 rusher. McCord returned and was the #3 (348, 4.5) while also starting several games at S finishing as the team's #2 tkl'r. Zauhn Lewis was the #4 rusher (340, 4.0), running for 144 yds his only start vs Towson. Edward Pavalko stepped right into the starting lineup at FB as a freshman. Despite the fact that Eachus (6 st) will be in training camp with the KC Chiefs, the RB position is well stocked with McCord (who is penciled in as a starting LB but is still expected to see time at RB this year) and Lewis in the lineup.

Rec's - Last year's top returning WR Daniel Cason had 185 yds (8.8) in 2010 while the #2 returner Chris Looney had 91 (11.4). Despite missing a game Cason led the team in 2011 with 485 yds (13.5) while Looney was #2 (309, 10.0) despite also missing a game. Both now return this year with far more experience while #3 receiver Jonathan Mputu (254, 11.5) moves to the secondary. Returning starting TE Charles Stempeck, all purpose back Jimmy DeCicco, Ryne Morrison, Siddiq Cornish and former DB Nat Bellamy round out the deepest Raiders receiving corps in years.

O-Line - After rushing for 276 ypg (5.2) in 2010 and allowing 9 sks (4.4%) with 2.5 st'rs back, 4 starters returned in 2011 and big things were expected. Unfortunately, RB Eachus spent most of the year banged up and the ypg fell to 217 (4.7) with 13 sks all'd (5.0%). This year 2 st'rs depart in RT Vittorio Ottanelli (11 st, 2 yr st'r) and RG Jamie Germano (11 st, 2 yr st'r) and the unit is a little less experienced overall. The numbers should remain solid.

D-Line - After allowing 128 rush ypg (4.2) with 31 sacks in 2010 the Raiders had to replace the front's 2 best players in 2011 in PL DPOY Zach Smith (10.5 sk) and 1st Tm PL DE Lamont Sonds (8 sk). The two starters at DE (Andrew Nairin and Shane Wilson) had a combined 3 career tkls coming into 2011. Both DT starters returned but Greg Kafaf lost his job. The rush numbers bloated to 167 ypg (4.9) with 20 sacks. This season DT Tyler Danielsen (11 st) and Kafaf (3 st) depart but look for progress with 3 st'rs back.

LB's - With a strong DL in front of them in '10 the Raiders all'd 21.8 ppg with LB's finishing as the defense's top 2 tkl'rs. Last year 2 starters returned to the 3 man unit and they were the D's top two players in 2nd Tm PL Chris DiMassa and the team's Defensive POY award winner Adam Lock. Patrick Friel started the first 7 gms before being knocked out for the season due to injury. He was replaced by Austin Dier and both return this year while S/RB Jordan McCord moves into the unit. With a much weaker DL, Colgate allowed 30.4 ppg, their most ppg allowed in a season s/'95. DiMassa (#1 tkl'r) and Lock (#5) depart TY but with a veteran DL in front of them expect the pts allowed to dwindle.

DB's - Three st'rs returned to the secondary in 2010 and they allowed 168 ypg (56%) with a 15-9 ratio to finish #53 in the pass eff D rankings. Last season essentially 3 st'rs departed as 5 were back who totalled 12 sts in 2010. RB Jordan McCord played both ways for the first time in his college career, finishing as the team's #2 tkl'r at S. With the unit wracked by injuries and inexperience, it's not surprising that Colgate slid to #80 in pass eff D allowing 208 ypg (62%) with a 17-11 ratio. This year S Vinnie Nicosia (9 st, #3 tkl'r) and CB Kenny McKenzie (5 st) leave but they will get back Demitri Diamond who started 10 gms in 2010. WR Jonathan Mputu (#3 rec) also moves to S. This is a more proven group on what should be an upgraded D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Raiders struggled on ST finishing #113 in our rankings in 2011. Evan Goldszak avg'd just 35.1 on punts with 2 blk's and an FCS worst 29.2 team net. The top PR Ryne Morrison (6.2) and KR Jimmy DeCicco (21.1) and Nat Bellamy (22.1) all return. The coverage units allowed 15.9 on PR's and 20.7 on KR's. K Joe Uglietto hit 7-10 FG with a long of 43. Everyone is now back except for Uglietto and with another year of experience the ST ranking should get a boost.

COACHES - Dick Biddle returns for his 17th season taking a program which hadn't had a winning season s/'90 and transforming them into an annual contender in the Patriot, winning the league crown 6 times in his tenure. Dan Hunt is in his 7th season as OC while co-DC's Pat Foley and Ryan Knowles enter their 4th season in charge of the defense.

Overview - The Raiders rallied from a 31-21 halftime deficit to beat Albany 37-34 in OT as RB Eachus ran for 165 yd and scored the gm winning td in OT after the Great Danes had settled for a 41 yd FG. A blowout to Holy Cross (trailed 37-0 4Q) was followed by back-to-back losses to Dartmouth and Towson without Eachus. He returned to run for 228 yds in the win over Fordham and 139 in a 26-14 victory at Monmouth. The Raiders stretched their win streak to 3 gms by beating Cornell 35-28 in OT despite missing Eachus and QB McCarney as QB Josh Hasenberg ran for 127 yd and 2 td while Jordan McCord starred both ways with 4 tkl and 1 int on defense with 84 rush yds and the game winning td run. A loss at Georgetown snapped the win streak then Colgate suffered losses to league leader Lehigh and Lafayette in which the Leopards DB Darius Safford returned an int 100 yd for a td in OT. Colgate returned an int 79 yds for a td in their 5th straight win over Bucknell.

BUCKNELL BISON

Joe Susan (Career 17-15)
3rd Year at Bucknell (7-15)
Lewisburg, Pennsylvania — Enrollment: 3,583

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The PL's 2010 Rookie of the Year Brandon Wesley threw for 1,699 yd (58%, 6-9) with 197 rush yds (#2 rusher) as a freshman. Wesley cut his int's as a sophomore but struggled with his consistency passing for 1,446 yd (53%) with a 7-6 ratio and 67 rush yds. Freshman Trey Lauletta received playing time in each of the final 3 gms due to Wesley's accuracy issues. Lauletta hit 22 of 35 for 166 yds in the season finale vs Colgate when he QB'd all but 1 series. He led the Orange team to a shutout victory in a waterlogged spring game and the QB competition is likely to continue deep into August. With 2 young QB's now more experienced expect the passing numbers to increase.

RB's - The Bison returned their top 7 rushers from 2010 including Tyler Smith (#1 - 426, 3.9). Smith had 370 yds after the first 8 gms, but back-to-back 200 yd performances vs Lafayette and Fordham marked the best 2 gm total (416) in team history and vaulted him to the top of the Patriot League rushing chart. He also added 28 rec's out of the backfield. Jeremiah Young made a fine 1-2 punch picking up 105 yds vs Duquesne and 91 vs Colgate when 1st Tm PL RB Smith was limited. Both return this year along with Charles Thompson who was the #1 rusher in the spring game. The addition of some talented freshmen including Brian Regan makes this the league's deepest and most talented collection of RB's.

Rec's - The top 6 receivers returned to this unit in 2011 including Victor Walker who led the team with 443 yd (23.3!) as a freshman. Frank DeNick had his 2nd career 100 yd game and 2 td in the win over Georgetown. Walker again led the team in ypc (22.5) despite missing 1 gm due to injury. TE's Nick Gatto and Patrick Kelly were used more as blockers than receivers combining for just 10 rec's. This year 2nd Tm PL WR DeNick (8 st, #1 rec) and WR Gabe Skwara (4 st, #4) depart. If the QB's can find a way to get Walker the ball more, he could blossom as a junior.

O-Line - Three OL starters returned in 2010 but with a new HC and a freshman QB the rush ypg fell to 82 (2.5) with 38 sacks allowed (12.3%). Last year 4 st'rs returned and while the rush game improved to 124 (3.1), the sacks remained at 38 (14.3%) with 2 young QB's under center. This year the losses are heavy as 2nd Tm PL C Ian Dal Bello (11 st, 4 yr st'r), 2nd Tm PL RG Anthony Carter (11 st, 4 yr st'r), LG Carson Rohrbaugh (11 st, 2 yr st'r), RT Josh Phillip (11 st, 2 yr st'r) and LT Andre Shields (4 st) all graduate. LT Lonnie Rawles, who started the last 7 gms as a freshman, is the only returning OL with starting experience. This unit is the offense's biggest question mark.

D-Line - The Bison switched from a 3-4 to a 4-3 in HC Susan's first season in 2010 and returned just 1 st'r up front. The rush D slid to allowing 153 ypg (4.2) with 20 sacks. LY 2 st'rs returned who earned All-PL honors in DT Robert De La Rosa and DE Josh Eden. Both had terrific senior seasons as De La Rosa had 6.5 tfl vs Georgetown and finished #2 PL in tfl with 17.5. Eden finished 4th in the PL in tfl with 12.5. Bucknell had one of the FCS's most improved rush D allowing 78 ypg (2.6) to finish #3 in the country to go along with 25 sacks. This season 1st Tm PL DT De La Rosa (11 st, #7 tkl'r) and 1st Tm PL DE Eden (11 st, #5) both move on. While 2 st'rs return again expect the production to fall after losing two of league's best DL.

LB's - After allowing 23.6 ppg with a 4 man unit in '09, the Bison moved to a 3 man LB corps in '10. Two starters were back but the D got worn down and they allowed 28.2 ppg. LY they lost their top tkl'r but returned their #2 (Tim Bolte) and #4 (Sean Rafferty) tkl'rs. LB's were the defense's top 3 tkl'rs and the ppg fell all the way to 19.4 (#15 FCS). This year the top 2 tkl'rs depart in 2nd Tm PL WLB Rafferty (11 st, #1 tkl'r) and SLB Bolte (11 st, #2). Second Tm PL MLB Beau Traber (#3), who led the LB's in tfl (11.5), now headlines a greener group.

DB's - Bucknell returned 3 st'rs to the secondary in 2010 and they cut the pass ypg allowed to 227 (59%) with a 21-6 ratio to finish #100 in the pass eff D rankings. Last year they needed to replace 1.5 st'rs but this unit benefitted greatly from a vastly improved front seven. CB Bryce Robertson, who had 1 career interception in his 3 years as a st'r coming into 2011, was one interception away from tying the FCS season record with 13! He easily broke the school and Patriot League records and had 4 more picks than any other FCS player. The Bison allowed 223 ypg (56%) with a 22-22 ratio to finish #33 in the pass D rankings. This season 1st Tm AA CB Robertson (11 st, #8 tkl'r) is the only player to depart but expect the rankings to fall a bit with a weaker front seven and the loss of their star.

SPECIAL TEAMS - K Drew Orth hit 12 of 15 FG's with a long of 43. He earned 1st Tm PL along with P Ryan Gutowski who avg 36.7 with a 33.2 net. PR Bryce Robertson avg'd 7.8 while top KR Tyler Smith avg'd 26.0. The coverage units allowed 6.4 on PR's and 21.0 on KR's. The Bison finished #68 in our ST rankings LY and replacements for Orth and Robertson must be found.

COACHES - HC Joe Susan was an assistant at Rutgers from '01-'09 and also led Davidson to its first undefeated season in school history going 10-0 in '00. OC Bryan Bossard enters his 3rd year. With LY's DC Clayton Carlin heading to Coastal Carolina after the Bison led the FCS with a +27 TO margin, the DC duties have been split between D run game coord/DL cch Matt Borich and D pass game coord/S cch Mike Kashurba.

Overview - The Bison drove 82/12pl for the game winning 1 yd td run by QB Wesley on 4th down with 0:57 left in a 27-26 season opening win over Duquesne. After a 28-14 win over Marist in which BU never trailed, Wesley was SOD at Cornell's 8 on 4th & 3 with 1:35 left and the Big Red added an 87 yd td pass 3 plays later in a 24-13 CU win. Bucknell blasted Princeton 34-9 before jumping out to a 28-0 late 2Q lead over Georgetown in 35-18 win which left them 4-1 for the first time s/'01. Back-to-back blowouts at the hands of Patriot and Ivy winners Lehigh and Harvard were followed by a 16-13 home loss to Holy Cross in which they held the Crusaders to -16 yds rushing and 6 TO's but had just 8 FD's on offense. After forcing 7 Lafayette into TO's in a 39-13 win, they posted their first shutout s/'01 over Fordham which clinched the school's first winning record since '06. Freshman QB Trey Lauletta played most of the Colgate game but in the 4Q he threw a 79 yd IR td and was int'd at the CU32 in a 21-6 loss.

LAFAYETTE LEOPARDS

Frank Tavani (Career 66-69)
13th Year at Lafayette (66-69)
Easton, Pennsylvania — Enrollment: 2,360

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Ryan O'Neil threw for 2,183 yds (67%) with a 15-7 ratio in 2010. LY, after O'Neil was knocked out of the Georgetown game with a concussion, he was passed up on the 2 deep by the athletic but erratic Andrew Shoop. Shoop threw for 4 td in his first start, a win over Penn. The next week he became the first Lafayette QB to throw for 400 yd s/'03 but also threw 3 int in a loss to Stony Brook. Shoop was benched for O'Neil in a blowout by Harvard, but ret'd as the primary signal caller the rest of the season with O'Neil coming off the bench as a change of pace QB. This season O'Neil (2 st, 511 yd, 67%, 3-1) moves on while Shoop is coming off a 2,024 yd (56%, 15-11) performance. HC Frank Tavani called out his practice habits in the spring so it wouldn't be surprising to see Kyle Ohradzansky or Zach Zweizig take over the job if Shoop falters.

RB's - Inj's and attrition have hit this unit hard the L2Y. After the leading rusher Alan Elder had just 450 yds (3.8) in 2010, a stronger run game was expected in 2011 with everyone back. However, Jerome Rudolph (#3 rusher '10) retired due to concussion issues and Marcellus Irving (#4) DNP due to a knee injury. To make matters worse Vaughn Hebron (#5) wasn't 100% and missed three of the first 4 gms while Pat Mputu (#2) was suspended for 7 gms due to off-field issues. Mputu was the only RB to have a 100 yd game (116 vs Fordham). Elder was soon bypassed by freshman Ross Scheuerman who earned the Patriot League Rookie of the Year award finishing as the team's #1 rusher (499, 4.8). This year everyone is back again incl FB's Pat Creahan and Greg Kessel and they are likely to remain healthier.

Rec's - The Leopards lost their top rec but welcomed everyone else back to the lineup in '11. The most exp rec's Kyle Hayes (#2 rec '10) and Mitchell Bennett (#3) missed a combined 10 gms due to inj's. Mark Ross stepped up earning 2nd Tm PL honors with 27 FD's and 9 td's on his 49 receptions. This season WR Hayes (6 st, #2 rec), WR Bennett (5 st, #3), WR Greg Stripe (2 st, #5) and TE Kevin Doty (9 st, #7) all depart leaving Ross surrounded by an unseasoned group.

O-Line - In 2010 Lafayette had to replace a 3 multi-year starters and combined with the RB woes they avg'd just 110 rush ypg (3.1) while allowing 30 sacks (7.7%). In 2011 four returned to this unit who made 6 or more starts and their 6'3" 311 average across was the heftiest in HC Tavani's tenure. Like the other positions on offense, injuries curtailed production. The unit was persistently shuffled with only 1 OL starting all 11 games at the same position. RT Luke Chiarolanzio emerged to start the last 10 games as a freshman. The Leopards avg'd just 100 ypg (3.0) while allowing 27 sks (7.5%). This year LG Scott Biel (11 st, 3 yr st'r), LT/C Matt Welch (11 st, 2 yr st'r), C Jake Crooks (5 st - OFY, 2 yr st'r) and RG Anthony Buffolino (4 st - inj, 3 yr st'r) graduate while LT Andrew Anastor (6 st) will miss the year after tearing his ACL. Only 7 OL were healthy in the spring and this unit is less tested overall.

D-Line - Lafayette returned 1 DL st'r and moved from a 3 man unit to a 4 man front in 2010 and as a result allowed 173 rush ypg (4.5) with 15 sacks. Two starters returned LY and they were in the 2nd year of the system. The numbers remained weak, however, as they allowed 166 ypg (4.5) with 14 sacks. DE Mike Grimaldi (7 st) and DE Nate Dixon (4 st) are the only players who depart with starting exp TY. With 3 st'rs back this is their deepest DL in a few years so expect the numbers to improve.

LB's - Just 1 st'r (who was the team's #1 tkl'r) returned to the LB corps in 2010 as they moved from a 3-4 to a 4-3. The entire D struggled as they allowed 27.1 ppg. LY the #1 tkl'r departed but their #3 tkl'r Ben Eaton, #5 Nick Nardone and #9 Leroy Butler were back while Hofstra transfer Tyler McFarlane joined the squad. LB's were the top 3 tkl'rs but the ppg still slid to 28.0. WLB Butler (10 st, #1 tkl'r), MLB Eaton (11 st, #2), SLB McFarlane (11 st, #3) and SLB Nardone (1 st, 23 tkl) all depart leaving this unit completely devoid of starting experience. This unit is the D's biggest question mark.

DB's - Three st'rs returned to this unit in 2010 and the Leopards allowed 180 ypg (58%) with a 17-7 ratio finishing #74 in the pass eff D. Last year all 4 starters were back but the injury bug bit this unit hard. Kyni Scott was a projected st'r at CB who missed all but 2 gms while both S's were nicked up. The ypg allowed slid to 212 (57%) with a 15-8 ratio for a #45 finish thanks in part to CB Darius Safford who earned the team's D MVP award. This year SS Evan McGovern (9 st, #6 tkl'r), FS Kyle Simmons (7 st, #5) and CB Brandon Ellis (11 st, #4) all depart. Safford and Scott make a nice CB combo but a new S pair must be found.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY Lafayette finished #86 in our ST rankings LY despite solid work from a new K and P. Freshman Austin O'Brien hit 9 of 16 FG's with a long of 48 but transferred to Temple. P Ethan Swerdlow earned 1st Tm PL honors avg 39.6 with a 34.4 net which was an upgrade from the team's 30.0 net in 2010. PR Safford avg'd 7.1 while KR Scheuerman avg'd 23.1. The coverage units allowed 9.8 on PR's and 22.6 on KR's. This season the staff is requiring starters to participate on at least 1 ST unit and while a new K must be found, everyone else returns.

COACHES - Frank Tavani returns for his 13th year and is the only coach in school history to lead his team into the postseason. Mickey Fein enters his 3rd season as OC while DC John Loose has been Tavani's right hand man for his entire 13 year tenure.

Overview - The Leopards opened with 4 straight road gms including a blowout loss to eventual FCS national champ ND State followed by a 14-13 PL opening loss to Georgetown in which freshman RB Scheuerman was stripped of the ball on 1st & 10 at the GU23 with 1:10 left. After blowing out Penn in QB Shoop's first start, Lafayette outgained Stony Brook 486-335 but was done in by TO's (-4). After losing 3 TO's and being penalized 16 times in a home loss to Harvard, Lafayette posted back-to-back wins over Yale and Fordham. Seven Leopard TO's and a blanket of snow then conspired to snap Lafayette's 9 gm series win streak over Bucknell. CB Darius Safford had record 100 yd IR td in OT which put an exclamation point on the end of Lafayette's comeback win over Colgate. Two Lafayette pass interference pen's on 3rd & 12 and 4th & 11 helped Holy Cross drive 97/15pl for the gm winning td with 1:06 left. Their 4th straight loss to rival Lehigh ended a season in which the Leopards played the FCS's most difficult schedule according to the NCAA as their opponents compiled a 73-45 record.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - John Skelton (#5DC) threw for 3,708 yds (64%) with a 26-10 ratio as a senior in '09. Blake Wayne and Ryan Higgins combined to throw for 2,279 yds (59%) with a 10-8 ratio in 2010. LY Wayne was moved to WR and the inconsistent Higgins lost the job to freshman Peter Maetzold. Maetzold threw for 668 yds (60%) with a 4-4 ratio but Higgins saw increased action before taking over the starting job vs Penn. Higgins threw for 413 yds vs Lafayette (#3 all-time in school history) and then followed it up by hitting 1-6 for 5 yds vs Army. Higgins passed for 1,788 yds (57%) with a 7-11 ratio on the season as the Rams finished #90 FCS in pass eff. New HC Joe Moorhead staged a QB competition in the spring which will continue into August.

RB's - The Rams returned their top 3 rushers in '10 and added in Hofstra transfer Carlton Koonce (PS#226). Three players surpassed 450 yds with Darryl Whiting leading the way with 771 yds (4.6) while QB Blake Wayne finished #2 (458, 4.2). LY Koonce was moved to WR. Whiting led the team in rushing for a 3rd straight season finishing 4th in the league with 668 (3.9). Langston Lacroix finished #2 with just 135 (3.5). TY Whiting (10 st) departs but Koonce moves back into the unit. Moorhead added several talented freshmen including Jared Crayton (PS#204). Despite losing their top rusher expect the production to increase after LY's poor results.

Rec's - LY this unit had to reboot after losing 6 of their top 7 receivers including their top guy Jason Caldwell who had 2,162 yds in his last 2Y. QB Blake Wayne and RB Carlton Koonce moved into the unit while several recruits were added including JC transfer Greg Wilson. Wilson showed some big play ability including an 82 yd td reception vs Lehigh. Despite missing 2 gms freshman Brian Wetzel had 4 gms with at least 6 receptions including 11 for 118 vs Georgetown. Wayne and Koonce led the team in receptions with 38. TE Dan Light finished as the #5 rec and freshman WR Sam Ajala had 14 rec's in the first 3 gms before being bitten by the injury bug. TY Koonce returns to RB and WR Brad Pierre (2 st, #6 rec) departs, but this group is vastly more experienced.

O-Line - Three starters returned to the OL in 2010 and the Rams ran for 176 ypg (4.1) while allowing 16 sacks (4.6%). Three starters again returned in 2011 as both OT's needed to be replaced. A less mobile QB, attrition at RB and OL injuries combined to see the run game bottom out avg just 86 ypg (2.7) which tied for #108 in the FCS while allowing 26 sks (6.7%). This year 2 st'rs once again depart in C Jonathan Sheridan (11 st, 3 yr st'r) and LG Connor Hartigan (8 st). Eight players return with starting experience including Lloyd Morrison, a 2 year st'r who returns after sitting out 2011. While the OL must learn new schemes, there is no place to go but up after LY's poor production.

D-Line - All 3 st'rs returned to this unit in '10 and the veteran DL allowed 137 ypg (3.5) although the defense had just 16 sacks. LY the Rams lost just 4 sts to this unit but suffered a huge blow in the opener when NG Justin Yancey, who had a team high 10.5 tfl as a freshman in 2010, suffered an injury and sat out the season. Without their top guy and with an injury ravaged stop unit overall the run defense collapsed allowing 255 ypg (5.5) to rank #119 in the FCS with just 14 sacks. This year NG Thomas Lloyd (9 st, #10 tkl'r) and DE Andy Okonkwo (6 st) depart but Yancey returns along with 6 other DL with starting experience. The Rams should be among the PL's most improved up front.

LB's - Two starters ret'd to this unit in 2010 and they cut the ppg allowed from 26.1 to 24.5. LY they lost 3 st'rs who finished as the #5, #7 and #8 tkl'rs. Only 2 players who started more than 1 gm returned in Michael Martin (#3) and Nick Womack (#10). With little help from the DL the Rams allowed 33.5 ppg (#104 FCS). LB's finished as the team's top 3 tkl'rs and there were 5 among the top 8. TY only OLB's Andre Delaire (11 st, #2 tkl'r) and Benjamin Daley (1 st, #13) depart. Three starters are back including their top tkl'r ILB Martin and 3 freshmen saw action LY. This unit should be the anchor of an improved defense.

DB's - Despite having 3 st'rs back in the secondary in 2010 Fordham allowed 232 ypg (61%) with an 18-5 ratio to finish #91 in the pass eff D rankings. LY the Rams needed to replace 3 st'rs who finished as the team's #1, #2 and #5 tkl'rs. The most experienced CB coming into the year was Zachery Crosby (3 st '10) who didn't play due to surgery and CB Khary Powell and SS Kevin Carter also missed time. Fordham allowed 211 ypg (61%) with a 14-6 ratio to finish #99. This year SS Carter (5 st, #6 tkl'r) graduated and CB Vaughn Scott (8 st, #9) was lost over the summer giving them 3 st'rs back. However, this is a deeper and more experienced secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Rams finished #60 in our ST rankings led by All-American P Patrick Murray whose 40.9 net ranked #1 in FCS. K Michael Marando hit 7 of 15 with a long of 41 as a freshman. PR Wilson (7.1) and KR Lourenzo Smith (18.2) were mediocre while the coverage units allowed 6.3 on PR's and 22.7 on KR's.

COACHES - After leading the Rams to 1 winning season (8-4 in '07) in 6 years Tom Masella was shown the door after a 1-10 season in '11, the worst s/'99. New HC Joe Moorhead was a starting QB here and Conn's OC ('09-'10). The Pass Game Coord will be QB Cch Andrew Breiner who was a grad assistant at Conn. The Run Game Coord is OL Cch Joel Rodriguez who was Bryant's OL cch from '08-'11. DC David Blackwell was USF's co-DC in '09 and was an asst at Clemson, Pitt and East Carolina.

Overview - After a 35-3 loss to Conn the Rams got their only win of the season 21-14 over Columbia sparked by LB Womack's 100 yd IR td in the 2Q. Rhode Island drove 78/8pl for a td with 1:13 left and int'd a Maetzold pass at the URI15 with 0:20 left in a 21-17 Fordham loss (outgained 451-194). Colgate RB Nate Eachus ran for 228 yds in a 38-14 win over the Rams. HC Masella switched QB's going with Higgins vs Penn, a 35-20 loss. Lehigh blew away the Rams 34-12 with 32-13 FD and 598-334 yd edges. Lafayette held on 4th & 1 twice in the 2Q at the Leopards' 2 and 30 in a misleading 45-24 win over Fordham in which the Rams had a 565-523 yd edge. Army dominated Fordham 55-0 with 27-6 FD and 544-86 yd edges in their first meeting s/'49. An early 4Q 75 yd IR td by Georgetown blew open a close game in a 30-13 loss. Five TO's and 2 missed FG's were instrumental in a 21-0 loss to Bucknell. After Fordham blew a 21-14 halftime lead against Holy Cross Masella was fired.

PHIL'S 2012 PATRIOT FORECAST

1. LEHIGH - The Mountain Hawks went 20-5 in Patriot League action from '03-'06. In 2007 they had just 4 returning starters and despite going 2-4 in the rebuilding season were only outgained by 6.1 ypg in league play. The next 2 seasons they ret'd 13 and 9 starters respectively and went 4-2 both years but went a combined 0-4 vs Colgate and Holy Cross who finished #1 and #2 both years. After being -34.9 ypg in 2008 conf action the team improved to +15.7 ypg in '09. After finishing no higher than 3rd in the conf standings the previous 4 seasons we wrote in '10 that with 17 ret starters it wouldn't surprise us to see them share the title. They exceeded our expectations and went a perfect 5-0 in PL play, winning by 16.2 ppg and outgaining PL foes by 106.3 ypg. LY they ret'd 13 st'rs and had an advantageous schedule which had us calling for their 2nd straight PL Title. The Hawks had a dream season as they dominated PL foes winning by 19.8 ppg and outgaining them by 211.5 ypg (167 ypg more than #2). They did benefit from 2 net close wins and this year the losses are heavy as they return just 10 st'rs (tied for fewest in PL) but do return their leading rusher and receiver. While this team certainly is not as strong as the L/2 editions which both made it to the 2nd round of the playoffs, there's too much separation between the Mountain Hawks and the rest of the PL to knock them off their perch.

2. HOLY CROSS - The Crusaders are the only Patriot League team to have 2 or fewer conference losses in each of the L/6Y. In 2007 they finished 4-2 but were +106.9 ypg in conf play. The 2008 team was 5-0 going into the season finale against an undefeated Colgate squad and blew a 24-14 HT lead but finished the season with a conf leading +149.6 ypg. If you check out our 2009 magazine, we called for the Crusaders to make their 1st playoff appearance since 1983 and they did exactly that finishing +71.2 ypg in conf play with their 14 ret starters despite being -12 in TO's. In '10 they only ret'd 9 starters and had a new QB but with Turnovers=Turnaround on their side and their winning attitude, we called for them to finish in the top half of the standings and they finished tied for 2nd. LY their 12 ret st'rs were 3 more than '10 but were coming off a season with 3 net close wins, a -51.0 ypg mark in conf play and lost a PL high 23 lettermen. We called for a tie for 2nd which is exactly where they finished at 4-2. They did outgain league foes by 44.5 ypg which was 48.3 ypg more than #3. This year they return 14 st'rs (most s/'09) but do lose their QB and 4 of their top 5 tkl'rs which could prevent them from dethroning Lehigh.

3. GEORGETOWN - In the 6 seasons from '04-'09 the Hoyas were winless in conf play 4 times. From '07-'09 they finished -214.4, -130.2 and -241.2 ypg in PL play which was last, by far, in each season. Georgetown went 3-29 and had lost 12 straight going into 2010 with their 13 ret starters. The start of the season was shocking as they won 3 of their first 4 games beating both Lafayette (8-3 in '09) and Holy Cross (9-3 in '09) but struggled to the finish line dropping the final 6. LY they ret'd 13 st'rs and while they made strides in '10 they still finished -110.5 ypg. We expected them to be more competitive but we were shocked when the dust settled and the Hoyas finished tied for 2nd at 4-2. Despite the record they were however -93.5 ppg which was 2nd worst. This year they welcome back 14 st'rs and could be even stronger than LY's squad with their top QB, RB, WR and top 3 tkl'rs all back! However the Hoyas were +15 in TO's LY and benefitted from an 11.9 offensive ypp and an 18.1 defensive ypp. Despite having more talent and experience, we'll call for the Hoyas to take a slip in the standings.

3. COLGATE - In 2007 the Raiders were 4-2 but were +126.9 ypg in PL play and with 16 ret starters in 2008 went undefeated in conf play. In 2009 they had only 12 starters back and finished 4-2 but led the league at +104.8 ypg in conf play. In '10 they again ret'd 12 starters and finished 4-2 but again led the league at +129.5. Their 11 ret st'rs LY were 2nd fewest in the PL and they shockingly fell to 2-4 in the conf and had their first losing season s/'06. They did benefit from 2 net close wins but this year are more exp'd with 15 ret st'rs (most s/'08) and return their dual-threat QB McCarney. Despite the 2-4 mark in conf play LY, they were actually outgained by just 4.8 ypg. While the overall schedule is brutal with a total of 7 AG's they do get Lafayette and Holy Cross at home and should return to their winning PL ways TY.

5. BUCKNELL - It had been a struggle for the Bison as they totaled just 6 conf wins from '07-'10. From '07-'09 they were 2nd to last in conf ypg ahead of just Georgetown finishing -170.2, -88.9 and -115.2 ypg. In '10 they ret'd only 12 st'rs and brought in new HC Joe Susan who made the tough choice to play his youth and they finished last at -146.2 ypg. LY they were in the 2nd season of scheme changes and tied for a league high with 16 ret st'rs. We wrote that they still had a lot of ground to make up but noted that the new regime could bring the winning ways back to Lewisburg as they had only one winning season the L/9Y. The staff did just that as the Bison finished 3-3 in conf play and were outgained by just 3.8 ypg (#3). They did benefit from an incredible +27 in TO's (+2.5 per gm) which was the highest TO margin per gm in the FCS s/'01 (St Peter's Peacocks +3.18). This year they return just 12 st'rs and play all the league powers on the road. Susan and Co. are doing a fine job here but we will call for them to slip in the standings.

5. LAFAYETTE - The Leopards were a staple in the Top 25 rankings from '04-'09 as they were ranked at some point each season and were the only PL team to have a winning record each year. Despite having a league leading +127.4 ypg in '07, they only went 4-2. They ret'd 14 starters in '08 and were +68.4 ypg but fell to 3-3. They continued to move the ball in '09 and with 11 ret st'rs finished just a yard from the conf lead at +103.5 ypg but lost the final 2 games by 2 points and in OT to finish 4-2. In '10 they only ret'd 10 starters, switched defensive schemes, had trouble scoring and finished in the basement. Numerous things pointed to a rebound season LY incl 4 net close losses, 16 ret st'rs and having the league's 3rd best numbers at +72.2 ypg. However, we wrote in the mag that their schedule was not kind and they wound up playing the FCS's most difficult overall schedule according to the NCAA and only improved to 2-4 in conf play but did fall to -58.7 ypg (#5). This year they return only 10 st'rs but do have their top QB, RB, and WR back and last year had 2 net close losses and they also qualify as a TO=Turnaround team as they were -14. This year again the schedule is not kind as they get Lehigh, Holy Cross and Georgetown at home meaning many of their winnable gms are on the road and they may suffer a rare 3rd straight losing season.

7. FORDHAM - We include the Rams here only as a reference to how we think they will finish in comparison to the other PL teams. Fordham is an associate member and despite playing a full league schedule their games do not count towards the official Patriot League standings for either team, however, we include them on our pages. They decided to start giving scholarships in '10 allowing them to upgrade their schedule and play FBS opponents (now count toward bowl-eligibility). The Rams last title was 2007 but they followed that with a 1-5 season in '08 (-56.4 ypg) and 2-4 season in '09 where they were +60.0 ypg. In '10 they were 3-3 vs Patriot League teams with the numbers mirroring their record as they were outgained by just 0.3 ypg. LY they ret'd 10 st'rs and with their 2nd scholarship class we thought they would get stronger but the bottom fell out as they finished 0-6 vs PL teams and were a league-worst -95.2 ypg. This year they bring in a new HC and must learn new schemes on both sides of the ball. They are several signs pointing up as the Rams were -12 in TO's, had a 23.9 off ypp and tie for the 2nd most ret st'rs in the PL this year with 14. There's a lot of ground to make up but it wouldn't shock us if Fordham pulled off an upset or two in PL play.

DRAKE BULLDOGS

Chris Creighton (Career 125-38)
5th Year at Drake (30-14)
Des Moines, Iowa — Enrollment: 5,348

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Mike Piatkowski (PS#316) won the starting job for the Bulldogs as a rFr in '09 throwing for 2,139 yds (63%) and a 14-9 ratio. After a subpar '10 that saw him pass for 1,854 yds (58%), Piatkowski emerged a yr ago earning PFL OPOY honors throwing for the 2nd most yds in Drake history with 2,934 (65.3%) and a 25-12 ratio. Backup Nick Ens saw very limited time attempting just 4 passes all ssn. Piatkowski returns for his 4th yr as the st'r needing just 942 pass yds and 14 td passes to become the school's all-time leader. With his guidance under center, the Bulldogs should deliver another solid offensive showing despite the fact that they return just 4 st'rs from a yr ago.

RB's - After leading the team in rushing with 357 yds (4.7) in '10, Patrick Cashmore ret'd to the unit a ssn ago and saw his touches heavily increase. With an extra 119 carries at his disposal Cashmore led the Bulldogs again with 841 yds (4.3) and 7 td's. Trey Morse finished #2 on the squad for a 2nd consec ssn with 292 (2.7) but he now attempts to take over the full-time duties with the departure of Cashmore. Competing for carries will be LY's #3 rusher DeAndre Calloway (78, 5.2) and JUCO acquisition TJ James who led the Bulldogs in rushing for the spg gm. Despite the loss of their leading rusher, this group has enough talent to surpass LY's serviceable marks.

Rec's - The Bulldogs ret'd 7 of their top 8 rec's from a yr ago led by Drew Blackmon who pulled in 535 yds (13.0) but did lose RB/HB Stephen Platek who finished 2nd with 461 (9.6) after placing 1st in both the '08 and '09 campaigns. Blackmon finished 2nd LY with 694 (13.3) while Nathan Paddock totaled 737 yds (15.4). Both depart for '12 leaving #3 Nick Rosa (402, 11.8) and #4 Joey Orlando (382, 11.9) as the top 2 returners while coaches are expecting TE Kevin Marshall (280, 8.5) to make more of an impact. The return of QB Piatkowski should give this group a solid opportunity to match LY's fine numbers.

O-Line - The Drake OL has seen their rushing yds drop under 100 ypg in each of the past 2 ssns incl a 99 (2.5) mark a ssn ago while also surrendering 33 sks as their tm captain Avery Fuhs missed the final 4 gms of the yr with inj. TY the losses are heavy as they lose 4 st'rs from a yr ago in 1st Tm PFL RT Evan Lawrence (3Y st'r), 2nd Tm PFL C Chris Wilson (2Y st'r), LG Stephen Flynn (3Y st'r) and LT Dan Clinton (2Y st'r). Fuhs returns for the upcoming ssn with a likely move from RG to RT while another former st'r, LT Matt Purdom (10 st '10, 2 gm LY w/inj) re-joins the starting rotation. Zach Bosch (4 st LY) and John McMahon ('11 Sct Tm OPOY) are also expected to contribute and while they have just 26 car sts returning (112 departing), the numbers may rise after 2 less than avg finishes.

D-Line - This unit has been a dominant force in each of the past 3 ssns with LY's fine finish of 77 ypg (2.6) all'd being 2nd best in all of the FCS while their 39 sks were tied for 5th. While the bookend combo of 2nd Tm PFL Brandon Coleman (11 st, 51 tkl, 12 sk) and Anthony Gianaras (11 st, 41 tkl, 5 sk) return TY, the Bulldogs are forced to part with their interior presence of 2nd Tm PFL DT John Sawhill (10 st, 42 tkl, 3.5 sk) and NG David Witkiewicz (11 st, 44 tkl, 4 sk). Brett Park (1 st, 10 tkl) and Matt Acree (2 tkl) are expected to take over for the departed st'rs. While less exp'd, this unit has proven to be very consistent against the run and another fine finish could be in the offing.

LB's - The Drake defense has all'd 17.8 ppg or less in 3 of the past 4 ssns. The unit is led by 2x 1st Tm PFL Tyler Moorehead who has now finished #1 in tkls each of the past 2 ssns. While he pulled in just 1.5 sks in '10, Moorehead saw much more time in the backfield LY as he recorded a solid 10.5 sks with an additional 10.5 tfl. Travis Merritt earned PFL Frosh DPOY at MLB LY finishing 2nd on the tm in tkls with 66 while Jeff Grovak rounded out the starting rotation. TY the Bulldogs return Moorehead and Merritt with Grovak being the only departure. Jake Underwood (36 tkl) should take over the vacant spot as the defense should continue their recent trend of all'g a limited amount of ppg.

DB's - After finishing #49 in the PDR rankings in '10 when they all'd 237 ypg (62.4%) and a 12-12 ratio, the secondary found themselves with an even more impressive finish a yr ago as they gave up 219 ypg and trimmed their comp % down to 57.2. TY the unit loses a trio of impact players in 2nd Tm PFL CB Michael Lahart (7 st, 8 pbu, 5 int), CB Lyndon Crawford (25 tkl, 5 pd) and SS Nick Chenier (11 st, 45 tkl). The Bulldogs do return 2 st'rs to the group in CB Dustin Davis (8 st, 25 tkl) and FS Michael Ratelle (11 st, 63 tkl, 8 pbu) so while LY's #23 finish may not be in reach, the productivity shouldn't drop back too much for '12.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Billy Janssen has served double duty for the Bulldogs in each of the L2Y as K/P but now departs opening the door for a pair of young and unproven players in true frosh K Cam Bohnert (PS#66) and soph P Jeremy Stein who had 1 att a ssn ago. Also departing from Drake TY is PR Mike Lahart who avg 6.9 a return in '11. The only returnee to the group is KR Dustin Davis who put up less than admirable numbers a ssn ago with a 18.6 avg. The Bulldogs finished with our #50 ranking in ST's in '11 but baring major contributions from their new additions, a drop in the ratings appears likely.

COACHES - Chris Creighton is back for his 5th year as HC of the Bulldogs and will again serve as his own OC. The new DC is Brad McCaslin who spent the last 14 yrs at Neb-Omaha including the L/6 as their DC.

Overview - The Bulldogs have now posted 8 consecutive winning seasons incl 4 straight under HC Chris Creighton. After being blanked by North Dakota 16-0 to start the year, Drake would narrowly skate past NAIA member Grand View in OT and Div II Missouri S&T by just 4 to move to 2-1 on the ssn. Wins against Butler, Campbell and Morehead St followed but in a trip to fellow PFL contender San Diego, the Bulldogs would allow a late 4Q PR for a td in a 7 pt defeat. Drake would go on to sweep their final 4 to finish the yr at 9-2 and tied with the Toreros for the league title. This year the Bulldogs have just 10 starters returning but that does include a 3Y starting QB Michael Piatkowski. The Bulldogs have a 3 year Pioneer record of 19-5 and while they have to travel to San Diego they are capable of winning all or a part of a second straight conference title.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - We'd be remiss to not start this position off by talking about Josh Johnson who departed here as a #5DC after a 2007 season that saw him post a 43-1 ratio!! Mason Mills played baseball at New Mexico St in '09 and signed on here in '10 making a splash in the spring. It took him a couple of games to become acclimated and he started the L/9 throwing for 2,160 (67%, 18-8). Mills ret'd and threw for 2,370 (61.7%, 22-13) making 10 st. Bo Stomp, who made 4 st in '09, made the other LY vs Morehead throwing for 203 (61.3%, 1-3) and guiding the Toreros to their 2nd highest pt and yardage total of the season. Mills was named 2nd Tm PFL and the team OPOY. Both return and with Mills under C, this spot looks set for the next 2 years.

RB's - They had to replace their top rusher from '09 (546, 4.1) but ret'd the next 3. Phil Morelli, who was #2 in '09, finished as the team leader in '10 with 461 (4.4) followed by Matt Jelmini (258, 3.4) who was #2 both seasons. Kenslow Smith was #3 (202, 3.1) and they all ret'd LY. Smith was #2 but with only 171 (4.0) and Moerelli was #3 with 140 (3.9). Soph Kenny James (PS#553) had only 9 carries as a frosh. He took over the job in the summer and started all 11 gaining 1,151 (5.3) while also finishing with 334 (16.7!) rec yds with a combined 14 td's finishing #2 in the FCS in All-Purpose yds and of course taking home 1st Tm PFL honors. James returns and while they lose their next 2, the production they provided was similar to the #3 and #4 who are returning. They now return an all-conf player making them stronger then LY.

Rec's - John McGough led the team in rec in '09 (680, 13.9) and finished #2 in '10 with 330 (10.6). Godfrey Smith, who was #4 in '09 (302, 11.2), blossomed into the lead rec and led in '10 with 1,024 (15.1) but was the only one among the 8 not to return for LY. McGough led again, this time with 672 (15.6) followed by true frosh Brandon White (561, 12.5) who earned PFL Frosh POY. Tran Sam Hoekstra who started his career at Drake was #3 with 554 (10.5) with RB Kenny James #4. TY is very similar to LY as they lose their #1 but return 7 of the next 8 while also getting the return of AF tran TE Colin King (PS#221). They have some nice talent on the second line and we'll call them up from LY.

O-Line - After having to replace only 1 starter in '09 they had to replace 4 in '10 and only slipped to 117 ypg and 3.1 ypc but the sacks rose to 27. LY they lost 2 starters but had a JUCO step in and start all 11 and they improved to 158 ypg and 4.2 ypc while cutting the sacks in half to 13. TY they lose 3 starters incl the heart and soul of the OL in C Christian Fetters who started all 33 the L3Y earning 1st Tm PFL the L2Y. They are down a couple of notches but the skill players around them are better and they may match LY's numbers.

D-Line - The 4-man front ret'd 2 starters in both '08 and '09 and after returning 3 starters in '10, they sliced the numbers to 108 ypg and 3.6 ypc improving to 37 sacks. LY they again ret'd 3 starters and the rush numbers were almost identical at 113 ypg and 3.6 ypc while their 40 sks was #4 in the FCS in sks/gm. They lose 1 starter in Mario Kurn who had 29.5 sks the L2Y and after being named an AA in '10, was 2nd Tm PFL LY. Leading the 3 returning starters is DE Blake Oliaro who had 15 sks LY and was an AA being named to TY's Buchanon WL. Call them equal to LY.

LB's - The LB corps ret'd 2 starters in 2010 and basically matched the '09 numbers that 3 returning starters posted at 21.9 ppg. LY they again had to replace a starter and of the 4 returning players with starting exp, no one made over 9 st or finished in the top 4 of the tm's tackler's. They allowed 23.6 ppg which was the 3rd straight year the numbers slipped albeit not by a great margin. TY they again lose one starter but ret the #1 tkl'r who was 1st Tm PFL with the opening filled by a 4 gm starter from 2010 or a PS#407JC making it the deepest in the past several seasons.

DB's - The 2010 secondary ret'd just 1 starter so it was a respectable #61 finish in pass eff D. LY they ret'd a pair of starters incl a 1st Tm PFL CB and 2nd Tm SS and while improvement was expected, they jumped up to a #13 finish with a 18-15 ratio. This year they again lose a pair of starters but it's their 2x 1st Tm PFL CB and 3x all-conf SS. They return a 10 gm starter at SS but after him, of the 7 other returning players that made sts, no one had over 3. Both CB's will be newcomers in HT tran James Farrow (PS#116) and Navy tran David Sperry who made 12 st at Annapolis. This has the makings of the conferences best unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Toreros really struggled in all aspects of the kicking game in 2010 (29.2 net, 11-21 FG's L/36) which led to a #82 finish in our ST's rankings. The new K's excelled as Ernie Collins avg'd 39.8 with a 37.0 net with 2 combining for 10-14 (L/44). Sam Hoekstra upped the PR's from 9.4 to 11.2 while the tm's KR finished #23 in the FCS. The KRD (#15) and PRD (#15) propelled them to a #3 finish. They lose one of the FG K's and Collins (5-9 LY) will handle double duty but it'll be tough to come close to LY's numbers.

COACHES - Ron Caragher had the task of replacing Jim Harbaugh who of course went to Stanford and now the SF 49ers. Caragher is in his 6th season and has reached 9 or more wins 3 times. Tanner Engstrand is in his 8th season here as QB cch and his 2nd as OC. Dale Lindsey was here in '08 and returns TY as the DC. He was at New Mex St the L3Y and was even the SD Chargers DC in 2002-'03.

Overview - San Diego posted B2B losing seasons for the first time since 1976-'77 after going 5-6 in '10. In a wild opener SD was tied 12-12 at HT and trailed 19-15 into the 4Q before coming back as the teams combined for 48 4Q pts in a win vs NAIA APU. They had no trouble against DII W NMex but -4 in TO's made their only game vs a scholarship FBS program even tougher. MSU had the PFL's top off and SD overcame a 17 pt 4Q deficit going 51/8pl and scoring with :17 left. The Valpo game was a stat builder and the following week played an even game vs Drake but came out ahead to move to 6-1. The Toreros traveled to Campbell and jumped out to a 7-0 lead but trailed the rest of the way and after cutting it to 28-24, allowed the final 20 points. What a swing of momentum vs Dayton as SD scored the first 24 pts but allowed 28 straight before going 61/8pl and scoring a GW with :47 left. Their win in the mud and rain vs Marist set up a pair of 6-1 PFL teams in the ssn finale and the Toreros D did the job to grab a share of the conf title. While they only have 12 ret starters, they are deeper than that with their transfers.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Flyers were forced to find a new st'r at QB a ssn ago with the graduation of Steve Valentino. After backing up Valentino in '10 (5 pass att) Zachary Splain appeared to be the frontrunner to take over behind center. Splain would go on to start the opener for Dayton but after struggling a bit against Robert Morris, Will Bardo saw some 2H action and took over the starting duties for the remainder of the ssn. Bardo threw for 1,206 yds (46.3%) and a 13-6 ratio while contributing an additional 491 yds (4.0) on the ground. Bardo returns as the projected st'r for the Flyers this ssn while Jake Voigt (3 att LY) and Luke Johnson duke it out for the #2 spot. After a yr of inexperienced QB play, Dayton should find themselves in a much better situation for 2012.

RB's - Dayton ret'd 3 of their top 4 rushers a ssn ago with the lone departure being their leading ball carrier in QB Steve Valentino (712, 4.5). Brian Mack finished a distant 2nd to Valentino at 411 (4.4) while Taylor Harris was used as the Flyers short-yardage specialist finishing with 13 td's and 343 yds (4.5). While Mack saw some early sts and carries, Harris took over the duties full-time by wk 3 rushing for 899 yds (6.8) and earning 1st Tm PFL in the process (8 td). With QB Bardo finishing 2nd on the tm with 491, Mack saw 19 fewer carries than in '10 and rushed for 296 (4.0). TY the Flyers return their star Harris along with Dan Jacob who finished with 260 (5.8) LY. This unit appears groomed to put up yet another strong showing for the upcoming ssn.

Rec's - After leading the Flyers in B2B ssns in '09 (927, 19.7) and '10 (16.2), the unit was forced to part with All-PFL honoree Justin Watkins a ssn ago. They did however return their #2 (Tyler Hujik, 345) and #3 (Luke Bellman, 339) options so too much of a drop off wasn't in the forecast. Bellman would go on to lead the Flyers in '11 with 552 (12.8) and 5 td's while Hujik finished 4th with 127 (5.5). Branden Johnson (398, 15.9) and Jordan Boykin (232, 11.0) were 2nd and 3rd respectively and return TY while Dayton is forced to part with Bellman and Hujik. This does however remain a solid group with a ton of potential and with more consistency at QB and a solid RB ahead of them, we will call for the Flyers receiving unit to improve in '12.

O-Line - The Dayton OL has seen their rushing numbers climb in each of the past 3 ssns including 182 ypg (4.7) LY, their best mark since the '05 ssn. The Flyers are expected to lose a pair of st'rs to this unit in '12 as 2nd Tm PFL RT Dan Prindle (3Y st'r) and RG Justin Griffis (2Y st'r) move on in graduation. C Bill Petraiuolo, LT Tom Corcoran and OG Owen Elger all return to the starting rotation while they are hoping that '11 reserves Chris Cortopassi and Dave Allen are able to supplant themselves in the vacated positions. With a very steep mark of 182 ypg to improve upon, the OL may see their numbers fall back some but not enough to draw and concerns.

D-Line - After allowing splendid rushing marks of 75 ypg and 61 ypg in '07 and '08 respectively (both 2nd best in the FCS), the Flyers went on to give up 103 ypg (3.4) in '09 which was still 13th best in the entire FCS. They returned to top form again in '10 by all'g 78 ypg (2.7), good for 2nd best and with 2 st'rs returning to the unit LY they all'd 98 ypg (3.1), good for 8th place in the FCS. Things appear to be very similar TY among the unit as they again lose 2 st'rs but do get the return of both of their run-plugging interior DT's in Brannon Dunn and Phil DeBoer. The group features 4 players that earned at least 1 st LY so despite the losses of their bookends, you almost have to expect yet another Top 10 finish.

LB's - Dayton went 3 consec yrs all'g 15.6 ppg or less from '07 to '09 but over the past 2 ssns, they haven't had as much luck keeping opposing offenses off of the scoreboard as after all'g 21.1 ppg in '10, they surrendered 20.1 a yr ago with the loss of 3 of their top 8 tkl'rs. TY the unit returns 1 st'r in Colin Monnier who finished #2 on the tm in tkls a yr ago (9 tfl). Coaches are hoping to slide in Joe Janasek to an OLB spot after filling in as a key reserve a yr ago but the 3rd spot in the starting lineup remains up in the air heading into fall. A similar finish from the past 2 yrs may be in the future for the Flyer defense.

DB's - With a very impressive run defense over recent yrs, it doesn't come by much of a surprise to see opposing offenses attempting to throw the ball. The Flyers finished with the #56 PDR in '10 all'g 246 ypg (58.6%) and a 20-12 ratio. LY they ret'd 3 st'rs and jumped up 3 spots in the PDR to #53 all'g 239 ypg (61.1%) with a 17-15 ratio. TY the secondary returns 2 CB's to the starting lineup and 5 players who st'd 2 or more gms. While the losses of both of their safeties will hurt, forecasting Dayton with a huge drop in the PDR doesn't seem very likely.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After serving as the full-time punter and a reserve K for the Flyers in '10, Nate Miller took on both duties a ssn ago hitting on 11-19 FG att's and posting a 36.7 avg as their punter. Coaches will need to find a replacement for the graduated Miller this ssn with the hopes of LY's KO specialist Pat Sankovic taking over the K duties and rFr Kyle Pignatiello serving as the P. While PR Tyler Hujik also departs (6.6), the Flyers do return KR Gary Hunter (21.5) to the squad. LY's unit finished with our #94 ranking and with an abundance of new players coming in, a similar finish could be in the offing.

COACHES - Rick Chamberlin is in his 5th ssn as HC of the Flyers finishing with a winning record each yr. Chamberlin is his own DC while long-time OL cch Chris Ochs inherits the OC job for the upcoming ssn.

Overview - Flyer fans have been treated to 33 winning seasons over the last 34 years including LY's 6-5 performance. In those 33 winning seasons they have had just 66 total losses or an avg of 2 per year. After splitting out their 1st 2 gms against a pair of NEC opp's, Dayton delivered consec wins against fellow PFL member Marist and Div II foe Central St. After narrow defeats at the hands of Butler and Jacksonville, the Flyers went on to shutout Davidson, escape at Morehead St by 2 and clobber Valpo by 39. At 6-3 and a chance to win the PFL with meetings against San Diego and Drake on deck, the Flyers would go on to lose the final 2 and finish at 6-5, finishing 5th in the conf. Dayton returns 12 st'rs TY including solid experience on offense and as always a consistent defense. The Flyers could very well find themselves in the running for the postseason.

JACKSONVILLE DOLPHINS

Kerwin Bell (Career 36-21)
6th Year at Jacksonville (36-21)
Jacksonville, Florida — Enrollment: 7,426

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Record-setting QB Josh McGregor started the last 4 ssns for the Dolphins but moves on now after a 3,044 yd (62.9%) performance including a 29-17 ratio. This year the Dolphins will have to break in a new st'r but that decision may not be that easy with 4 players vying for the vacated job. Out of the 4 contending for the spot only Trevius Folston has seen prior action for JU as he participated in 6 gms during '11 with 6 pass att's. Steven Hughes is a former trans from Delaware and the most highly touted of the bunch coming out of HS with a PS#120 rating. RFr Kade Bell (PS#313) is the son of the HC while Ryan Walker rounds out the competition. McGregor finished his career with over 11,000 yds passing and 116 td passes so you would have to figure that this group would take a few steps back for the upcoming ssn, no matter who ends up behind center.

RB's - Despite the loss of their star and leading rusher heading into LY, coaches felt pretty good about the potential here with the return of their #2 performer from '10 in JJ Laster (810, 8.5, 7 td). While Laster would see 61 more carries from the prior yr, his numbers dropped to 610 (3.9). Spelling Laster throughout '11 was Keith Dawson who would post a solid 418 yds (6.0). TY the Dolphins are forced to part with Laster but they do return Dawson and Jarrius Lindsey who saw 10 rush att's a ssn ago. While the JU running game may be counted on a bit more with a new QB in the huddle, we would still expect to see a bit of a drop in production with the loss of their top performer from a ssn ago.

Rec's - This unit took full advantage of a 4Y starting QB over recent yrs including '10 when Josh Philpart pulled in 800 yds (16.7) and 12 td's earning 1st Tm PFL in the process. Philpart and #3 receiver Larry Thompson (477, 14.9) ret'd LY so exceptions were through the ceiling. While Philpart led the Dolphins again, his numbers took a bit of a dip down to 675 (13.5) and 6 td's while Thompson saw an increase to 655 (16.8) and a team-high 9 td catches. Adrian Riley (433, 15.5) and TE Quintin Davis (360, 18.9) finished 3rd and 4th on the team respectively while combining for 10 td's. TY the team is forced to part with Philpart and Thompson while the returnees to the entire unit have just 8 car sts under their belts with 5 being held by Davis, the offense's only returning st'r in '12. This group will more than likely drop a few notches TY.

O-Line - With all 5 st'rs returning in '10 this unit saw a dramatic turn in productivity as they went from 127 ypg (3.9) on the ground in '09 to 193 ypg (5.5). LY the OL had to replace a pair of 1st Tm PFL performers so while a drop in production was expected, falling all the way back down to 103 ypg (3.4) was not. This yr the losses are extremely heavy as all 5 st'rs depart including a pair of 2nd Tm PFL honorees in RG Ian Osking and LT Chad Cypher. With just 3 career sts returning to the entire unit (129 car sts departing), the Dolphins are hoping that a pair of transfers will step in at OT in Trammel Williams (PS#100, South Carolina) and Dylan Bostick (App St). Regardless of their success, this group is clearly in trouble for 2012.

D-Line - After showing improvement in both the '09 (119 ypg) and '10 (106 ypg) ssns the JU DL saw their numbers climb back up to 186 ypg (4.5) a ssn ago despite the return of 3 st'rs to the group. The Dolphins again get the return of 3 st'rs to the unit but do lose their star Rolando Fines (11 st, 72 tkl, 11.5) who finished 2nd on the tm in tkls and earned 1st Tm PFL honors in the process. With 5 players returning with starting experience from a yr ago, this unit should show progression despite the loss of its top player.

LB's - After hovering around the 20 ppg mark from '08 to '10, the Dolphins found themselves all'g a bit more with just 1 returning st'r to the LB unit LY (23.4 ppg all'd). This ssn JU loses just 1 st'r in Joe Barnett while 7 ret with starts under their belts. This group should see some improvement in the amount of points put up on the board in '12.

DB's - This has been a special group over the past 7 yrs incl '10 when the Dolphins all'd just 50.9% of their passes to be completed and a 17-16 ratio to finish #24 in the pass eff D rankings. LY the unit ret'd 3 to the starting lineup so even more improvement was expected. The Dolphins would go on to finish with the #11 pass eff D ranking as they all'd 53 ypg less than in '10 (169 ypg) despite all'g a bit more pass att's to be completed (55.1%). TY the unit loses a pair of starting safeties in 1st Tm PFL and leading tkl'r Leonard Smith (74 tkl, 5 pbu) and 2nd Tm PFL FS Lacy McDougald (47 tkl) who led JU with 5 int's. Five return to the unit who earned sts a ssn ago and while the numbers could slip some, this remains one of the better secondaries in the conference.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite the losses of their K and P heading into last ssn, the Dolphins found some success in our ST's rankings as they finished #38. Newcomers Bladen Gudz and Garrett Mohr performed well with Gudz hitting on all 6 of his FG att's and Mohr posting a 40.6 avg. D'Andre Randle did a solid job as the Dolphins primary PR with a 15.9 avg while Colby Walden chipped in a 26.3 mark as the KR. The only significant loss for JU this ssn is Mohr as either Gudz (2 att LY) or soph Blake Myregaard (5 att LY) will assume the duties. The Dolphin ST unit has the talent to deliver another fine ssn.

COACHES - HC Kerwin Bell was a QB at Florida and later played in the NFL and CFL. He enters his 6th ssn with the Dolphins and continues to serve as his own OC. Jerry Odom returns for his 3rd yr as DC.

Overview - After a 3-8 campaign to start his HC career with the Dolphins, Kerwin Bell has rattled off 4 straight winning ssns including LY's 7-4 mark. Things didn't look good early for JU as they began the year with consec non-conf losses to The Citadel and Western Illinois. After squeezing by Charleston Southern by a td, the Dolphins would go on to win their first 5 PFL gms by a 27 ppg avg. The Dolphins would then go on to lose 2 of their final 3 gms against co-conf champs Drake and San Diego to finish out the year 7-4 and 3rd in the PFL standings. TY the losses are extremely heavy on the offensive end as all but 1 st'r depart. After finishing 1st in the conf in off ppg and 2nd in ypg LY, the Dolphins will likely have to lean on a defense that returns 7 st'rs to have a 5th straight winning season.

MOREHEAD STATE EAGLES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2009 the Eagles had to replace a 3Y starter and 3 different QB's made starts. RFr Zach Lewis (PS#216), who caught the eye of the coaches in the fall camp made 2 starts and played in 7 games but still led the team throwing for 813 (53%, 4-7). Lewis took control of the job in '10 throwing for 2,898 (62%, 15-13) while blossoming LY setting school and PFL records throwing for 3,585 (63.2%, 28-7). The Eagles now return a senior record-setting QB who could shatter all the school career records.

RB's - This rush attack use to consist of 2 HB's and a FB but all that changed in 2010 with the passing prowess of Lewis as one of the HB spots became more of a rec TE type. Desmond Cox led the team in rushing in '09 with only 305 (3.8) and again in '10 with 448 (3.7) and as the featured back LY finishing #1 with 956 (5.4) and earning 2nd Tm PFL. HB Adam Slupski was #2 in '10 but with only 118 (5.6) and as mentioned above was much more involved in the pass attack where he was #3 with 330 (8.9) and LY Slupski only had 2 rush att's. RFr Rees Macshara was #2 LY with 173 (5.2) while #3 was Brandon Bornhauser (110, 5.5). TY they are clearly down a couple of notches losing their 3-time leader and they'll need someone to set up.

Rec's - In '09 only 1 rec had over 250 yds and that was Ronnie McDermott (309, 10.3). McDermott ret'd in '10 and led again but this time with 673 (13.7) while 4 other rec's topped 250 yds, 2nd Tm PFL in '10 McDermott was named HM LY as he finished #2 with 530 (11.3). Donte Sawyer was #2 in '10 (457, 10.6) but finished #1 LY leading with 904 (15.1) earning 1st Tm PFL. While their #2 and #4 rec's depart from last year, this group is now tested and returns 3 players that totaled over 400 yds and 5 that made 18 or more receptions.

O-Line - With the transitioning offense in 2010 and only 2 returning starters the rush numbers fell to new recent lows at 71 ypg and 2.8 ypc with 31 sks (7.1%). LY they returned three 11 game starters and the rush numbers climbed to 121 ypg (3.6) and, while the sacks rose to 41, the sack % was almost the same (7.3%). This season they must replace 3 players that combined for 20 starts. They return 3 multi-year starters with one of the openings filled by a 3 gm starter from LY. They have a very inexperienced RB corps so the rush numbers may not improve but we expect a decrease in the sack %.

D-Line - The 4-man front allowed only 84 ypg in '08 and 72 ypg in '09 returning 3 starters both years. In 2010 they ret'd only 1 starter having to replace both a 1st and 2nd Tm PFL DL and the rush D slipped to 138 ypg and 3.6 ypc but the sacks rose to 28. Last year the unit ret'd 3 starters who each went on to start all 11 so it was a surprise that they ended up allowing recent highs at 177 ypg and 4.9 ypc with only 23 sacks. We do need to point out that Morehead St was ran-over by the 2 scholarship FCS schools they faced and only allowed 142 ypg and 4.1 ypc in the others. This season they lose their top 3 DL starters who depart having made a combined 94 starts. While they officially return one starter, those starts were split among players who made 3, 3 and 5 and each will fill an opening. They are several notches below last year and they will truly need to overachieve losing 6 starters on the defensive front 7.

LB's - After allowing only 21.6 ppg in '09 with 3 starters back, they struggled with only 1 starter back in '10 giving up 31.8 ppg. Last year they returned all 3 starters including their #1 and #2 tkl'rs and all 3 started all 11 so as with the DL, it was shocking they allowed 35.4 ppg giving up 40+ six times. All 6 players (comb 91 tkls in 51 gms) on the 2-deep are underclassman and this defense will clearly be in rebuilding mode.

DB's - The secondary ret'd 3 starters in '10 but still only finished #110 in pass eff D with a morbid 29-4 ratio. After 9 players made starts in '10, they had to replace 4 that combined for 23 st so we'll call it 2 lost starters. They still allowed 32 td passes but they gathered 14 int's and moved up to #79 in pass eff D. They have to replace 2 players that combined for 10 sts and the 3 returning starters will be divided among 7 who all made starts LY. Only SS Andrew Lee started all 11 gms and the only one that made over 8 starts but this is clearly the most experienced unit on the defense.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Eagles finished #103 in our ST rankings in 2010 and returned intact. Rainer Duzan handled double duty both seasons and his net P increased slightly to 32.0 which was enough to grab 1st Tm honors while going 12-17 (L/49) was a drop from '10 (11-13). Donte Sawyer avg'd 20.3 on KR's in '10 and improved to 21.7 LY while Quentin Brooks took over the PR's and didn't match the previous seasons numbers. They finished #92 LY and with everyone returning, should move up in our rankings again.

COACHES - Matt Ballard is Morehead St's all-time winningest head coach. He is entering his 19th season here as HC and was also the Asst HC/OC here from 1984-'87. His first head coaching position was at Union College (Ky) from 1988-'93. Rob Tenyer is in his 11th ssn as an asst here and is in his second season as OC. DC John Gilliam is an alumni who played for Ballard.

Overview - The 2010 Eagles finished with 2 wins to get to 5-6 and ret'd 16 starters for last season. The first 2 went as expected blowing out NAIA Ky Christian and getting blown out by Ill St. It was heartbreak on their trip to St Francis as they led 49-28 late 3Q with 4 straight drives ending in TO's to get outscored 22-0. The next week vs SD they blew another lead, this time 37-20 into the 4Q to lose by 4. They beat Valpo then lost to Drake by 15 which represented how the game was played. After the Jax loss, the Dayton game was close but MSU trailed the L/3Q. They had opportunities in a pair of close road losses at Campbell and Davidson but couldn't make the needed plays down the stretch. They won their 4th straight ssn finale by putting up an FCS tm high 669 yds. The Eagles lost all 4 close games LY and despite finishing 2-6 in the PFL, they were only outgained by 2 ypg in conf play. The defensive front 7 will be the entire key or lack there of to 2012's success.

MARIST RED FOXES

Jim Parady (Career 103-103-1)
21st Year at Marist (103-103-1)
Poughkeepsie, New York — Enrollment: 4,394

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After serving in a bkp capacity for the Foxes in '09, Tommy Reilly (PS#285) took over the starting duties in '10 throwing for 2,383 yds (58%) and a 15-8 ratio before being lost with an ACL in the ssn finale. Chuckie Looney (PS#272) took over in the final gm and with Reilly still hampered at the start of '11, Looney inherited the role starting each of the 1st 3 before he too was struck with inj (OFY vs Campbell). Reilly would return to start the final 8 however his numbers were nowhere near what he posted in '10 as he hit on just 55.6% of his passes with a very poor 9-16 ratio. Both return TY with Looney appearing to have the upper hand to start heading into fall (2nd true Jr to be named tm captain in HC Parady's 21 ssns). Regardless of how it plays out in fall, if the duo is able to remain healthy, the productivity at this position should increase.

RB's - The Red Foxes used a RB-by-committee approach in '10 with Calvin McCoy leading the way with 281 (3.4) and 6 td's. All 4 of their top rushers returned LY with McCoy, Ryan Dinnebeil and Atiq Lucas splitting the starting duties on the ssn. McCoy led again with 421 (4.3) while Dinnebeil (183, 3.0) and Lucas (177, 2.9) saw an equal number of carries behind him. TY the unit returns 3 of the top 4 with the only loss being Dinnebeil. Another campaign of using the RB-by-committee strategy appears to be in place with similar numbers expected.

Rec's - For the 2nd consec ssn the Foxes are forced to replace their top receiver from the previous yr. Kevin Fitzpatrick finished with 601 yds (12.3) a ssn ago and didn't miss a gm during his 4-yr career. The unit is loaded however for '12 as the next 4 top receivers from LY return including Bartley Leneghan and Armani Martin who both produced a 100 yd performance in a contest in '11. The Foxes also get the return of Michael Rios who missed nearly the entire '11 campaign with a hamstring inj. TE Anthony Calcagni (1st Tm PFL) was 2nd on the tm LY in receiving with 494 (12.4) while his 5 td receptions tied Fitzpatrick for the team lead. With a loaded arsenal of weapons here and plenty of experience at QB to get them the ball, the Marist receiver unit is arguably one of the Pioneer's best in 2012.

O-Line - The unit lost all 5 st'rs in '10 and saw their rushing numbers cut nearly in third as they paved the way for just 61 ypg (2.4), 4th lowest in the FCS and 89 ypg less than in '09. LY the unit ret'd intact led by outstanding RT Phede Celestin. Marist saw their numbers pick up some to 81 ypg (2.5) while trimming their sks down in the process to 28 (35 in '10). TY the group returns 4 to the starting lineup with the only loss being LT Stephen Carretta (6 sts). Celestin earned 1st Tm PFL as the anchor of this unit and baring any unforeseen inj's, another year of increased numbers should be expected.

D-Line - After all'g a solid 104 ypg (3.3) in '09, this unit was gouged in '10 as they surrendered 180 ypg (4.6) while recording just 2 sks (FCS-low) among the entire defense. Last year the group ret'd just 1 to the 3-man unit but after a dismal '10, improvement was expected. They saw their DL return to '09 form as they all'd just 121 ypg (3.1) while the D got back on track in the sk brigade by recording 20, their most since '05 (21). This year the unit again loses 2 of its starting members in HM PLC honorees DE James Desautels (11 st, 45 tkl, 7.5 tfl) and NT David Toriola (11 st, 45 tkl). They do however return their star in DE Terrence Fede who earned 2nd Tm PFL honors while recording 8.5 sks and finishing 2nd on the tm with 72 tkls. Both of this year's projected st'rs opposite Fede saw some ample time as backups last year so another solid finish could be in the offing.

LB's - The Red Foxes play a 3-3-5 D but since we limit the secondary to 4 ply'rs well add the extra S here. After all'g a recent best 17.1 ppg during the '09 ssn, Marist lost 2 st'rs to this group incl their top 2 tkl'rs so it wasn't much of a surprise to see the numbers dip down some to 26.5 ppg. LY they ret'd the #2 & #3 tkl'rs and saw their numbers improve to 20.8 ppg. TY the unit loses its top performer in 1st Tm PFL and leading tkl'r Ryan Cronan (11 st, 6 tfl) but with the return of a trio of st'rs (one S) and a stable front 3 ahead of them, this group should find themselves pretty close to their finish of a yr ago.

DB's - After a #65 finish in the PDR in '10 that saw the Foxes allow 209 ypg (65.4%), LY's losses were heavy with the departure of 3 st'rs. Surprisingly the unit found themselves with an improvement in the PDR as they all'd 165 ypg (62.1%) with a 14-9 ratio, good for a #50 finish. TY the unit loses 1st Tm PFL CB Jaquan Bryant (11 st, 47 tkl, 9 pd) and S Brandon Kicklighter (26 tkl). Despite the losses, the Marist secondary should find themselves in the upper half of the PDR ratings once again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - While Marist was forced to replace both of their RM a ssn ago they did get the return of both K Jason Myers (5-10 FG) and P Kevin Pauly (39.4 avg, 34.0 net). While Pauly did see his numbers take a small dip (38.0 avg, 31.4 net), Myers improved hitting on 6 of his 7 att's. Emmanuel Onakoya took over the KR duties (21.7) while Jaquan Bryant served as the Foxes' PR (8.1). TY Marist gets the return of Myers and Onakoya. Coaches are hoping that true frosh Nicholas LaPerche is able to take over the punting duties this fall to potentially eliminate Myers serving in double capacity. With half of their key returnees coming back, expect the Foxes to slightly improve upon LY's #106 finish in our ST rankings.

COACHES - Jim Parady enters his 21st year as HC of the Red Foxes and also continues to handle the OC duties as well. Scott Rumsey is now in his 15th season and 12th as the DC.

Overview - The Red Foxes entered their 3rd season as a member of the PFL a year ago with mixed results as they put together a 4-7 campaign. It was their 2nd consec losing season after posting a 7-4 mark in their inaugural year in the conf. After a 20-7 victory over Sacred Heart to start '11, the Red Foxes would go on to lose their next 4 by an avg of 16 ppg. Marist was aided by 2 Davidson TO's to escape with a 13-9 win and after another defeat against Campbell, Marist would go on to split the final 4 with victories over Butler and Valpo and defeats at the hands of Drake and San Diego. This year the Foxes return 14 starters including a pair of QB's who have seen a good portion of action. While a run at the PFL Title seems a bit far fetched, we expect Marist to increase their win total from a year ago.

CAMPBELL FIGHTING CAMELS

Dale Steele (Career 13-31)
5th Year at Campbell (13-31)
Buies Creek, North Carolina Enrollment: 4,663

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Camels have featured 2 former FBS transfers at this position since reinstating their FB program incl TY's starter Braden Smith (PS#92) who spent a few ssns at SMU before joining CU a yr ago and passing for 1,965 yds (57.2%) and a 14-7 ratio. Backing up Smith for a 2nd straight yr is Dakota Wolf who has seen 10 pass att's in his 2 ssns with the Camels. With the departure of nearly all of LY's RB's, CU will have to lean heavily on Smith as he looks to surpass LY's fine numbers.

RB's - CU ret'd 7 of their top 8 rushers from '10 LY led by Rashaun Brown who had a solid 673 (5.7) campaign. Things didn't go as planned for the leading rusher however as Brown was forced to RS in '11 due to inj creating a large hole among the unit. The carries were split between a trio of Camels in Carl Smith (677, 4.4), CJ Oates (518, 5.6) and FB Jordan Cramer (421, 6.1) as they combined to post 26 rushing td's with QB Smith adding an additional 8 of his own. TY the losses are heavy as all 3 of LY's leaders depart. The Camels do however get the return of Brown while Josh Williams (2 att LY) and Stephen Sladek (9 att LY) add depth. This group is clearly weaker with the amount of key losses.

Rec's - This has clearly been a run-based offense since returning in '08 and '10 was no exception with just 4 players surpassing the 100 yd rec mark for the ssn and the leader (Harrison Jordan) finishing with just 334 (11.5). Three of the top 4 ret'd LY incl Jordan. Preston Dodson finished #1 with 473 (11.0) while Jordan (446, 13.1) and Paul Constantine (407, 14.0) were a close 2nd and 3rd respectively. TY the unit returns just 1 of their top 6 from a yr ago in Chad McMichael (#4, 156, 9.8). With an experienced QB under center and the lacking of leadership at the RB position, this group of green WR's and TE's may find themselves being rushed into action faster than expected as the Camels fight to get something positive going with the offense.

O-Line - After being overpowered in their return ssn of '08 when they managed to rush for just 68 ypg (2.0), the Camels have seen increases in each of the L3Y incl LY when they rushed for 210 yds (4.7) behind all 5 st'rs returning from the yr prior. TY they won't be as lucky when it comes to returning st'rs as they lose everyone except RT Daniel Ritter who earned the final 6 sts for CU a ssn ago. After 3 yrs of climbing up the rushing charts, 2012 may be the first time they have to take a step back in productivity.

D-Line - As with the OL you find the biggest mismatches in the trenches with new programs and '08 wasn't any different for this group as they were gashed for 239 ypg (5.6). This unit has also improved in each of the L3Y incl a 140 ypg (4.0) performance LY where they also more than doubled their sack output with 26 (11 in '10). Like nearly every other part of the tm in '12, this unit will be forced to undergo a slew of changes in the starting lineup as 3 of their 4 depart with Taurean Lynch (23 tkl, 3.5 tfl) being the only member returning in the 2-deep that even earned a start a yr ago. Just like the OL, we'll call for this group to drop a few notches in '12.

LB's - With Campbell expecting to use a bit more of a 4-2-5 scheme TY we listed just 2 LB st'rs on the PSL with a new NB position listed as a starter. After all'g a terrible 40.6 ppg in their inaugural return to FB in '08, this group has found themselves all'g 10+ ppg less in each of the past 3 yrs incl 29.5 LY behind 2 returning st'rs. CU isn't as fortunate TY with an abundance of experience as only former Appalachian St trans Michael Rudisill (11 st, 48 tkl, 5.5 tfl) returns to the starting group. While the unit is clearly weaker, LY's 29.5 ppg is still rather high and too much of a dip in those numbers shouldn't be expected.

DB's - In '10 the Camels lost 1 st'r while another was inj'd and OFY but with tms finding it more difficult to run the ball, the secondary found themselves under more of a barrage all'g 199 ypg (62%) with a 16-4 ratio (#84 in the NCAA's PDR). LY the unit ret'd all 4 st'rs plus 2 more that combined for 38 sts in '08 and '09 so improvement was expected. CU has gouged however in the air all'g 288 ypg (65.7%) with a 26-18 ratio (#95 PDR). TY the unit returns a trio of st'rs in CB's Steth Monroe (49 tkl, 15 pd) and Jeff Swinton (53 tkl, 5 pbu) along with SS Brandon Chandler (50 tkl, 6 pd). With the secondary clearly being the most experienced unit among the def and oppositions potentially finding more success on the ground in '12, this group could improve by default for the upcoming yr.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Camels had an abundance of experience returning LY in K Adam Willets and P Ted Moore who were both in their 4th ssns occupying their respective positions. Willets would hit 4 of his 7 FG att's and 47-49 xp's while Moore saw his avg jump to 41.7 with a 36.4 net. Both depart for '12 with Sam Eberwein expected to take over at K (2 car FG att) and Adam Lutz at P. Brandon Chandler will again serve in the double duty capacity at KR (20.6) and PR (11.9) but with the absence of 2 veterans, it may be hard to see CU improve upon LY's #22 finish in our ST's ranking.

COACHES - HC Dale Steele was brought in during '06 to help resurrect a program that had been placed on the shelf since 1950. Over his 4 yrs of guiding the program the Camels have gone from 1 win in '08 to their 1st winning record a ssn ago at 6-5. The OC for the 2nd consec ssn is Oscar Olejniczak (been here since the re-start of the program) while the Camels have a new DC for '12 in Wally Ake who spent the previous 3 yrs as a DB cch at Liberty.

Overview - The Fighting Camels brought back football for the 1st time in over 50 years in 2008 and after 3 years of struggles they found themselves with something to be proud of finishing with a 6-5 record on the season despite a 2 game slide vs Valpo and Georgia St to end the year. Things appear to be in question this year however as they lose a good portion of their 1st class since re-establishing football as just 8 starters return after 20 and 18 in each of the previous 2 (returning just 57% of their lettermen). The Camels may also find themselves on the opposite end of our Turnovers=Turnaround article as they finished +10 for 2011. This is a team with major holes at nearly every position in 2012 and unless some of the reserves from a year ago are able to answer the call in a productive fashion, a 4th losing season in 5 years appears to be in their future.

BUTLER BULLDOGS

Jeff Voris (Career 48-68)
7th Year at Butler (33-34)
Indianapolis, Indiana — Enrollment: 4,200

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10 Butler ret'd 12gm st'r Andrew Huck who threw for 2,454 (63%) with a 21-11 ratio in '09 and was the #2 rusher (467, 4.6, 10 td). They also ret'd Calvin Blair (77, 71%, 2-0), who plyd in 4 gm as a backup. Huck passed for 1,865 (58.7%, 12-7) and was the #3 rusher with 347 (3.4). Matt Kobli took the backup job throwing for 221 (63%, 0-2) and was the #4 rusher (343, 5.0, 6 td) while Blair had just one pass att but both departed LY. Huck ret'd and despite missing 2 gm threw for 2,262 (65.5%, 20-7) and was the #3 rusher (220, 3.2). He departs as Butler's #2 car passer. They ret Wade Markley (1 st, 25-36-301 3-0) and Tom Judge (1 st, 25-51-284, 3-3) who was the #5 rusher (102, 5.7). They also ret former Illinois St trans Matt Lancaster (PS#158) who RS here LY and was the scout tm OPOY. Despite the loss of a 3 yr st'r this unit is talented and has a decent amount of experience.

RB's - Scott Gray led the PFL in scoring in '07 but was hurt most of '08. He ret'd in '09 and led with 868 (5.1) while Ryan Hitchcock (346, 6.3) was #3 behind QB Huck. In '10 Gray and Hitchcock both ret'd along with Steven Depositar who had 130 (6.8) as a rFr. Gray led again but with just 457 (4.8) while Hitchcock was #2 with 360 (4.1) and Trae Heeter was #5 with 138 (8.6). LY Gray and Hitchcock departed but Heeter and Depositar (47, 5.9) ret'd. Heeter led with 713 (5.2) while rFr Don Stewart was #2 with 283 (4.5) but Depositar had just 20 (2.9).TY they lose Depositar and while they ret their top 2 they do not have another RB who had a rush att LY, so while experienced they do lack depth.

Rec's - Butler ret'd 3 of their top 4 rec's in '10 in Zach Watkins (918, 11.8, 10 td), Eddie McHale (493, 13.0) and Jordan Koopman (258, 10.8) but lost #3 Dan Bohrer (471, 9.1). They also ret'd blocking TE Carter Walley (11 st, 5 rec). Watkins led again with 703 (10.3) and was 2nd Tm PFL. Koopman was #2 with 536 (10.7), McHale was #3 with 319 (11.4) and Jeff Larsen was #4 with 192 (8.3). LY McHale and TE Walley (8 st, 4 rec) departed but the other 3 WR's all ret'd. TY they lose their top 3 rec in 1st Tm PFL Watkins (1044, 13.1), who became Butler's car leading rec, Koopman (501, 10.4) and Larsen (425, 10.4). Their top returnee is Brendan Shannon (295, 11.8) who is joined by TE's Matt Jensen (5 st, 149, 16.6, 4 td) and Ryan Webb (5 st, 45, 15.0). They are very inexperienced at WR, as the #2 ret WR is JT Mesch who had just 1 rec LY.

O-Line - The unit ret'd four 12 gm st'rs in '10 in 1st Tm PFL LG Donnie Gilmore, 2nd Tm PFL OT Mike Staniewicz, C Rob Hobson and RG Pete Mattingly. Surprisingly they fell from 176 (5.1) to 161 rush ypg (4.4) and their sk all'd rose from 13 (3.3%) to 22 sk (6.1%). LY they lost OT Staniewicz (4Y st'r), C Nick Schirmann (10 st), OG Hobson (4 st) and OG Gilmore (3 st) while LG Paul Sciortino (5st) moved to TE. They ret'd RG Mattingly (11st) and RT Matt Storey (11 st). Their rush ypg dropped to just 133 (worst s/'07, 4.4) while all'g 19 sk (4.7%). TY they lose 1st Tm PFL C Mattingly (11 st), RT Charlie Schmelzer (11 st) and RG Ryan Myers. They ret 4 OL who com for 25 sts incl RT Storey (9 st) and LT Jay Howard (9 st) and are slightly more exp'd.

D-Line - In '10 the DL ret'd 2nd Tm PFL DE Grant Hunter (39 tkl, 10 sk), DE Jeff Poss (41 tkl, 7.5 tfl), DE Rob Cosler (26 tkl) and DT Ross Teare (4 st, 29 tkl, 4 tfl). Surprisingly their rush ypg all'd rose from 117 (3.3) to 144 ypg (4.0). LY they lost Cosler (22 tkl, 3.5 tfl) but ret'd 6 of their top 7 DL incl Hunter (#12 tklr, 4 sk, 6 tfl), 2nd Tm PFL Teare (#4, 5 tfl), Poss (#9, 2 sk) and DT Larry Thomas (11 st, 15 tkl). They cut their ypc all'd to 3.8 and the D increased their sk from 15 to 24. TY they lose DE Poss (11 st, #12 tkl'r), NG Teare (6 st, t-#10, 7 tfl), DT Taylor Clarson (4 st, 15 tkl) and DE Hunter (11 st, #6, 10 sk), who departs as the PFL's car sk leader (38). The DL is much less exp'd as their top returnees are DE Jeremy Stephens (11 st, #5 tklr, 7.5 tfl) and DT Glenn Somers (1 st, 10 tkl).

LB's - In '10 the LB unit lost the #2 tkl'r but ret'd 2nd Tm PFL Nick Caldicott (#1 tkl'r, 8 tfl, 3 int), Andrew Cottrell (#4) and Jordan Ridley (#10, 8.5 tfl). After all'g 19.1 ppg in '09 they all'd 19.2 ppg. LY they only lost Cottrell (20 tkl) and ret'd 1st Tm PFL Ridley (130 tkl, 9.5 tfl), Caldicott (#2, 7 tfl) and OLB Artis Hailey (t-#10). Shockingly they all'd 27.1 ppg as Caldicott (27 tkl) was lost for the ssn after 8 st. TY they lose Caldicott but ret ILB Ridley (11 st, #1 tkl'r), who was #5 FCS with 140 tkl along with OLB's Paul Yanow (6 st, t-#8) and Philip Powell (7 st, t-#10). While the unit is more exp'd the rest of the D is not and they may struggle to improve.

DB's - The secondary ret'd 3 st'rs in '10 in CB Jack McKenna (#6 tkl'r, 3 int), CB Tadd Dombart (30 tkl) and FS Mark Giacomantonio (#4, 5 int) along with SS Logan Sullivan (38 tkl). They were #37 in pass eff D all'g a 9-8 ratio. LY they lost 2nd Tm PFL Dombart (#7 tkl'r), SS Sullivan (#3) and FS Giacomantonio (#8). They ret'd CB McKenna (#5 tkl'r, 2 int), FS Andy Dauch (#6), CB Sean Grady (26 tkl) and S Jayme Szafranski (15 tkl). They fell to #102 all'g a 18-15 ratio despite all 4 st'rs starting all 11. TY they lose 2 st'rs in CB McKenna (#7 tkl'r) and 2nd Tm PFL Dauch (#2, 3 int). They ret SS Szafranski (#3, 2 int) and CB Grady (#4, 3 int) along with CB Kevin Cook (28 tkl) and could improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The ST unit ret'd all their top ply'rs in '10 and they finished #75 as K David Lang hit 14-23 (tm rec for FG's made) but P Michael Wilson had a poor net (32.2). LY they only lost their top PR but slipped to #82. TY they lose all their top ST ply'rs and could slip again.

COACHES - HC Jeff Voris is in his 7th ssn and after handling the OC duties by himself, he will be joined by co-OC Kyle Conner. Both co-DC's enter their 3rd ssn in Tim Cooper who was Miami, OH's secondary cch from '04-'08 and Joe Cheshire, who has been here S/'04.

Overview - After a school rec 11 wins in '09, Butler entered LY off a disappointing 4-7 ssn. Butler led Albion 31-3 at half in their opener. They only trailed Indiana St 21-20 at half but trailed 48-20 early 4Q. They breezed by Taylor leading 23-0 in the 4Q. They led co-PFL champ Drake 7-6 in the 2Q but trailed 24-7 before a meaningless td with 1:25 left. They trailed Dayton 27-23 in the 4Q but got a GW FG with 1:31 left to even their conf rec. They led Campbell 6-0 in the 2Q but never led again and trailed 38-16 in the 4Q. They only led Valpo 14-7 at half but led 35-7 in the 4Q. They trailed Marist 28-3 into the 4Q before a td with 3:53 left. They led Davidson 17-0 in the 3Q and evened their conf rec at 3-3. They led JU 24-17 into the 4Q but allowed the final 17. They only trailed MSU 24-16 late 2Q but never got closer and finished with a losing ssn at 5-6 despite playing 2 lower div tms. TY the Bulldogs ret just 9 st'rs and play just 1 lower div tm and could have a 3rd straight losing ssn.

DAVIDSON WILDCATS

Davidson, North Carolina — Enrollment: 1,900

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In '10, Jonathan Carkhuff became the first frosh to start a gm at QB since '05 as he started the final 9 contests throwing for 2,002 yds (60%) with a 12-9 ratio and earning PFL Frosh OPOY in the process. Carkhuff ret'd LY and improvement was expected. He would go on to lead all of the FCS in completions (348) and finish #6 in yds with 3,326 (62.6%), both school records for Davidson. Carkhuff's biggest performance came against Div II foe Johnson C. Smith when he threw for 427 yds and 5 td's. Chris Cochrane participated in 6 gms for the Wildcats a yr ago, mostly in mop up time attempting just 6 passes. Carkhuff returns for his 3rd ssn as st'r with hopes of surpassing last years numbers while trimming back on his 17 int's.

RB's - The Wildcats were forced to replace their top 2 leading rushers from '10 heading into LY with Marcus Johnston being the only RB with a career rush att (82, 3.2). After seeing just 1 gm of action on ST's ('10), Chris Gorman inherited most of the carries for Davidson rushing for 591 yds (4.8). Clem Butler saw 5 sts on the year and finished a distant 2nd with 188 (3.8) while Johnston saw just 20 touches for 48 yds. TY the Wildcats lose 3 of their top 4 but do return leading rusher Gorman. Coaches are hoping to see a bigger impact from soph Spencer Perry who saw 4 rush att's LY as a true. This is a solid group with a potential All-PFL RB in the making.

Rec's - After a tm-leading 685 rec yds in '10 incl 6 td rec, Lanny Funsten ret'd to this unit a yr ago (only 1 of the top 3 to return). Funsten would see his numbers increase even higher as he pulled in 100 rec (#3 FCS) for 1,107 yds and 8 td's earning All-PFL honors for a 2nd straight yr. Six of the top 7 return TY incl Funsten with the only loss being #2 rec Jonathan Adams (556, 10.3). With an experience QB behind center, the Wildcats receiving unit should again perform above expectations for the upcoming year.

O-Line - The Davidson OL has seen a large dropoff in productivity in each of the past 2 ssns as they have gone from 146 ypg rushing in '09 to 80 ypg in '10 and an even worse 54 ypg (2.1) LY (3rd worst FCS) while surrendering a recent high of 45 sks (did not allow less than 2 sks in a gm all ssn). More alarming is the fact that the Wildcats were held to negative yds in 3 contests and if you take their 2 contests against Div II foes out of the equation, their ypg avg would have been an even poorer 46 ypg. Things appear to be a concern again in '12 as the group returns just 1 st'r in RG Adam Kurtz (7 st) with the 4 departed st'rs combining for 91 car sts.

D-Line - The Wildcats run a 3-4 defense and despite the return of just 1 st'r in '10, the unit saw their numbers drop to all'g 145 ypg (4.0), a 26 ypg improvement from the yr prior. LY the unit ret'd all 3 to the starting rotation incl 2nd Tm PFL DT Morgan Popham. The group would go on to allow an even better 126 ypg (3.4) despite their sack total taking a bit of a hit to 21 (28 in '10). This year they lose their star in Popham (8 st, 18 tkl) along with fellow DT Ellis Martin (11 st, 49 tkl, 5.5 sk). NG Lewis McAlister (11 st, 24 tkl) is the only part of the starting 3-man unit to return while part-time st'r Torry Treu (3 st, 13 tkl) is expected to take over one of the vacant spots full-time. With the departure of their bookends, expect the Wildcats' rush numbers to drop a notch or two for the upcoming ssn.

LB's - The Wildcats' LB unit saw their ppg all'd improve in '09 to 23.5 with the return of 3 of their 4 st'rs. The '10 unit featured a total of 12 players with exp and 4 with starting experience so it came by much of a surprise to us that the group surrendered a recent high of 30.5 ppg. LY they lost just 1 st'r to the 4-man group so improvement was expected. Davidson saw their ppg all'd trimmed to 25.9 led by the stellar play of Patrick Moynahan who earned PFL honors and finished as the #1 tkl'r. TY the losses are heavy as they lose 3 to the starting group with Moynahan being the only returnee.

DB's - As with the rest of the Davidson defense, the Wildcat secondary struggled during the '10 ssn as they all'd 209 ypg (62.2%) and a 22-4 ratio earning the #115 ranking in the PDR ratings. While they ret'd their top 4 safeties in '11, they did lose both of their starting CB's making it difficult to get a proper read on an expected finish. The unit would go on to finish higher in the PDR with a #69 finish as they trimmed down the opp's comp % to 56.8 while seeing a vast improvement in ratio with a mark of 21-10. TY the group returns 3 of its 4 st'rs with the only loss being SS Peter Kidwell (11 st, 49 tkl, 9 pd). With 3 upperclassmen in the starting rotation, the Wildcats could finish at or near LY's solid mark.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After returning intact for the '10 ssn, the Wildcats ST's unit was depleted due to graduation heading into LY with all of their key contributors moving on. TY the only loss is P Brenton Goodman who avg 38.2 (34.6 net) per punt a ssn ago. K Chazzo Habliston (7-13 FG's) and RM Toms Bernhards-Callahan (19.6 KR, 11.6 PR) both return giving the Wildcats an opportunity to improve upon LY's #78 finish in our ST's rankings.

COACHES - Tripp Merritt enters his 8th season as the HC of the Wildcats. His OC for a 2nd consec year is Matt Mumme who is the son of former Kentucky and NMSt HC Hal Mumme. The DC is Meade Clendaniel who is in his 13th year with Davidson.

Overview - After having B2B 6-4 seasons ('06 & '07) the Wildcats have now been forced to suffer through 4 consec losing campaigns incl a 4-7 mark of a ssn ago. Even more disheartening is the fact that 2 of their wins came against Div II foes Lenoir-Ryne and Johnson C Smith while their other 2 victories came against Morehead St and Valpo (combined 4-18 record in '11). Despite a solid QB under center, the Wildcats struggled offensively during portions of the yr including totaling just 9 pts in a combined 3 gm stint against San Diego, Marist and Dayton (shutout in 2 of those contests). Just 9 car sts return to an OL in '12 that paved the way for just 54 ypg a yr ago. Despite the passing gm having some weapons, that could result in the defense being left on the field a bit too much and potentially creating a handful of shootouts. With just 10 st'rs back on the entire team and just one meeting against a Div II foe, the Wildcats may struggle to reach LY's 4-win plateau.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Crusaders struggled at this position in both '09 and '10 starting 3 different QB's each season and the team avg'd just 10.1 ppg and 223 ypg. Eric Hoffman (RS here in '10) brought stability to this spot starting all 11 while throwing for 2,302 (59.7%, 13-14). The offense improved by 85 ypg and they scored a td more per game than in '10. Their best performance of the season yardage wise was 463 yds which they did twice and were 105 yds better then their top game from '10 while their top scoring performance LY was 35 pts after not topping 19 pts in any one game the year prior. Hoffman now returns as a junior giving them an established starting QB to work with during spring and summer camps for the first time in 3 years.

RB's - The leading rusher has had under whelming numbers as QB Bobby Wysocki had 237 (3.1) in '09 and despite switching to RB full-time in '10, only led with 253 (3.0). He ret'd LY and only started the F/3 finishing #6 with 63 (3.5). True frosh Gabe Ali-El started 6 and led with 231 (3.3) but he was also the #2 rec with 365 (10.4). SDak St tran Dale Cook had 127 (3.7) while Sterling Summerville made 2 st and had 115 (2.0). They return their top 5 TY and while Cook moves to the secondary, we expect Ali-El to get close to doubling his yards.

Rec's - In 2009 Tim Bennett led the team with 376 (13.9) and while he and the #3-#5 rec's all ret'd, he only had 49 (4.5) as he was inj'd and OFY after 4 starts. Sean McCarty took over as the #1 with 526 (12.2) followed by Kevin Becker (353, 10.4) and Travis Anderson (259, 7.4). Only their #3 didn't return among their top 4 rec's and McCarty led again with 418 (16.1). True frosh Tanner Kuramata followed a RB with 354 (11.8) making only 4 st while Bennett ret'd from his inj and added 242 (9.3) while 3 others had 200+ rec yds. This year they do have to replace their top rec but return their next 8 which incl's 7 players with starting experience. The offense has a vibe about it and could actually post the best numbers the Valparaiso fans have seen in over 7 seasons.

O-Line - After avg 175 ypg rushing in '08, the OL ret'd just 2 starters and had very little depth into '09 and the production was sheared to 91 ypg and 2.7 ypc with 19 sks allowed. In 2010, despite returning 3 starters, they finished last in the FCS with 55 ypg and 1.8 ypc while allowing 34 sks. LY 4 st'rs ret'd including 3 multi-year starters so it certainly was disappointing that they opened holes for only 61 ypg with a 2.0 ypc while the sacks allowed increased to 37. TY the departing trio combined to make 95 of their possible 99 starts the L3Y leaving this unit in desperate need of some new talent to step up and impress.

D-Line - The DL has been overmatched the last several seasons and on top of that, with a struggling offense they been on the field an extended period of time. The Crusaders ret'd 3 starters to their 4-man front in '10 and allowed 273 ypg and 5.9 ypc with 21 sacks. LY with a switch to a 3-4, they moved 1 starter to LB and still filled all 3 spots with starters. It's difficult to say the numbers improved when they still allowed 253 ypg and 5.6 ypc but their sack total was cut in half with only 10. This season the cupboard is basically bare as they have to replace all 3 starters (combined 84 starts). Obviously they are light years behind last season in terms of returning experience but how much can they drop?

LB's - In 2010 they had to replace all 3 starters and had the unfortunate distinction of finishing last in scoring D at 46.7 ppg. They switched to a 3-4 LY and had to replace a pair or starters (#2 & #6 tkl'rs) but still allowed 45.5 ppg which was 2nd last in the FCS. They return intact TY with a pair of 11 gm starters and 6 others that split starts in 2 other spots. They are way ahead of LY and have only one way to go.

DB's - After seeing the overall numbers from 2010 it will come as no surprise that despite returning 3 of 4 starters, they still finished #111 in pass eff D. LY they had to replace both starting CB's and they finished at #117 allowing 65% and a 32-8 ratio. This season they again have to replace 2 starters but with this unit splitting starts throughout the season, all 4 spots will be fielded by someone who made at least 3 st LY. While their returning experience matches LY, we'll sound like a broken record saying there's only 1 way to go.

SPECIAL TEAMS - When a team lacks depth it usually always correlates directly to the ST's finish and 2010 was no exception as they ended up #124. They only ret'd their P and Greg Wood saw his avg slip from 43.6 to 42.0 despite his net rising from 33.0 to 35.5. The FG K doesn't get many opportunities here and in fact they attempted only 3 FG's each of the last 2Y making one each season. The KR unit finished #97 and the PR unit finished #121 which all added together for a #116 finish.

COACHES - Dale Carlson is in his third season here and prior to his arrival his resume included 21 years as a HC including the previous 6Y at Ohio Dominican. OC/Asst HC Bob Muckian is also entering his 3rd season here and he held the same role under Carlson in his LY at ODU. The new DC is Tyson Silveus. He came from DII Northwood (MI) and in his 5 seasons there was actually both the OC and DC at different times.

Overview - In 2003 the Crusaders went 8-4 but haven't had a winning season since. After going 5-6 in '07 they dropped to 3-8 and finally down to 1-10 and made a coaching change. 2010 was brutal across the board as only 1 game was decided by under 20 points. LY they opened against Franklin who was ranked #24 in DIII and lost to them for a 5th straight time getting outgained by 206 yds. Against their 2 scholarship FCS foes they were outgained by 403 ypg and outscored by 50 ppg. Against Morehead St and SD they trailed at HT 28-7 and 28-0 but battled Butler and only trailed 14-7 but three 2H TO's led to 21 pts in the loss. They were overmatched vs Drake and Dayton but 5 TO's vs Marist turned a hard fought 1H into a 23 pt loss. In their FHG they drove 47/8pl and scored on a 9 yd pass with 3:09 left to snap a 29 game losing streak and continued to play hard in the ssn finale as they only trailed 16-14 at HT but faded. They return 13 starters but also ret 30 players that have starting experience. They were outgained in the PFL play by 260 ypg in '10 and cut that to 163 ypg LY and are headed in the right direction.

PHIL'S 2012 PIONEER FORECAST

1. DRAKE - The Bulldogs have had just one losing season in 20 yrs ('02). In '08 they had just 10 ret st'rs (fewest in the league) and had their 3rd HC in 3 years. Surprisingly they were +62.8 ypg in Pioneer play and moved up to 4-4 thanks in part to +12 in TO's. In '09 they had 13 ret st'rs but surprised us again going 6-2 (tied 3rd) and were +9.1 ypg (#5). In '10 with 14 ret st'rs incl QB Mike Piatkowski they were poised to continue their winning ways and did so with a 6-2 conf record (+17.9 ypg). LY Drake had 17 st'rs return incl 10 on offense but they did lose an AA DE. We mentioned that if they can pull an upset at San Diego on Oct. 15 the PFL Title could be within reach. Drake would go on to a 7-1 mark in the conf with that lone loss coming to the previously mentioned Toreros. They would share the PFL crown with San Diego while leading the conf with a mark of +105.3 ypg. While the Bulldogs have just 10 ttl st'rs returning there are a few reasons for us picking them as the 2012 PFL Champs. They return the PFL OPOY in QB Piatkowski and get the Toreros at home on Oct. 6th. Assuming they can pass road contests against Dayton and Jacksonville, the title should be theirs.

2. SAN DIEGO - From '05-'08 San Diego was a remarkable 23-3 in league play and had 6 straight winning seasons overall. In Pioneer play from 2005-'07 they outscored their foes by an avg of 41-16! In '08 they lost amazing QB Josh Johnson to the NFL, who had a 43-1 ratio (is that even possible?) along with their top defensive player in DE Bakhtiari (20 sks). They were also +14 in TO's in '07 and even with 14 ret st'rs they had TWO PFL losses for the first time (joined league in 2003). In '09 they had 16 ret st'rs with QB Trujillo having a 35-9 ratio in his first year as starter. They are the only league team that did not get a shot at Campbell and had to travel to both Dayton and Morehead St but we were surprised that they dropped to 4-7 overall (3-5). They did have 3 net close losses in '10 but only had 12 ret st'rs. While they had their 2nd str losing season at 5-6 overall they were 5-3 in conf play and were +118.8 ypg (#2). LY they return 16 st'rs and got both Drake and Jacksonville at home making them prime contenders for the PFL crown. Despite a slip up against Campbell, the Toreros were able to knock off Drake and Jacksonville to finish at 7-1 and tied for the PFL title. While USD was able to outgain conf opp's by a 69.3 ypg margin, three things have us calling for a 2nd place finish. The Toreros finished with a remarkable +5 close wins LY, have just 12 returning st'rs and are forced to go on the road to face LY's co-champ, Drake.

3. DAYTON - We called the Flyers the BEST defense in the league in '08 with 8 of the top 10 tacklers back and they allowed a paltry 224.7 ypg in Pioneer play! Our question in '08 however revolved around the losses of Pioneer OPOY and QB Kevin Hoyng and their 27 year HC Mike Kelly. They were 6-0 in the PFL and appeared to have the title in their grasp but lost their last 2 and fell to a tie for 2nd. In '09 they had the best D in the league again but the offense had just 3 st'rs back. Dayton had the league's #1 offense and #1 defense and their +158.8 ypg was by far the league's best. They finished 7-1 with their only loss coming to co-champ Butler. In '10 they had just 3 st'rs back on D (avg 8 ret st'rs L/4Y). They finished a perfect 8-0 but were "only" +49.8 ypg (#3). LY they returned just 9 st'rs (#123 FCS in exp) and lost a 3x 1st tm PFL player in QB Mike Valentino. They also benefitted from 3 net close wins and were +11 in TO's. While it's hard to ignore their 27-4 PFL record the previous yrs, an expected drop was in the forecast. The Flyers would go on to finish just 4-4 in PFL play outgaining conf foes by just 4 ypg. The 12 returning st'rs are tied for their most since '07 and they get the schedule edge by hosting Jacksonville at the end of Sept. If Drake or USD slips up, Dayton could find themselves in contention for the PFL title.

4. JACKSONVILLE - The Dolphins just started playing football 15 years ago and while they had just one overall winning season in their first 10 years, they did have 2 straight winning marks in the Pioneer until 2007's 2-5 finish. They were -63.7 ypg in league play in '07 and only had 12 ret st'rs but still improved to +113.8 ypg in '08 and won the Pioneer Title. In '09 they had 16 ret st'rs and while we missed the boat on the Dolphins in '08, we had them pegged near the top in '09 and they tied for 3rd with their +81.4 ypg (2nd best). They had 15 ret st'rs incl 10 from the league's top offense in '10 and would dominate the PFL with a perfect 8-0 record outgaining their opps by 220.1 ypg and outscoring them by 27 ppg but they did benefit from 3 net close wins and were +14 in TO's. LY 13 st'rs returned incl Walter Payton candidate and 4Y starting QB McGregor who had a 32-7 ratio in '10. Late losses at eventual co-champs Drake and San Diego did them in and they finished 6-2 in the PFL for a 3rd place finish despite outgaining conf foes by 99.1 ypg (#2). Judging by the Dolphins recent history it is hard to pick them this low but just 1 st'r (TE Quintin Davis) returning on off (8 ttl) has us believing a poorer finish is in their future.

5. MOREHEAD ST - After finishing 3rd in the PFL in '07, the Eagles only ret'd 12 st'rs, lost their QB and top RB, had to play BOTH Dayton and San Diego on the road and finished just 4-4 in '08. In '09 they had 15 ret st'rs but surprisingly had just their 2nd losing ssn S/'96 at 3-8. The team was hit hard by injuries and they actually outFD'd their opponents despite their record. We called for them to move up in the standings in '10 and they did going 4-4 but were -18.1 ypg. LY they had 16 ret st'rs and had a dream PFL schedule getting SD, Drake, Dayton and Butler at home and we expected them to finish with their most conf wins since '07. MSU surprised us again as they posted a dismal 2-6 PFL record despite being outgained by just 2 ypg. TY we'll call for a middle of the pack finish for the Eagles as while they return just 10 st'rs, they were -4 in net close losses a ssn ago which should call for a bit of an improvement.

6. MARIST - The Red Foxes joined the league in '09 after competing as an Independent in '08 and playing in the now defunct MAAC prior to that. They had 3 straight losing years but had 16 ret st'rs incl 10 back from a defense that allowed just 22.8 ppg. They were 1-1 vs Pioneer teams in '08 and had a solid debut season at 5-3 with a +61.4 ypg. In '10 two of their road games were vs Valpo and Campbell so most of their winnable games were at home. Shockingly they finished just 1-5 at home and fell to 2-6 in conf play (-80.3 ypg). LY they returned 13 st'rs and got Campbell and Valparaiso at home while suffering from 6 net close losses in '10 so improvement was expected. The improvement from Marist was small however as they finished 3-5 in the PFL, just a single victory more than the yr prior. TY the Foxes return 14 st'rs to a group that surprisingly outgained their PFL opp's by 22.8 ypg despite the poor record. We'll go ahead and predict Marist to improve upon LY's record for a 2nd consec ssn.

7. CAMPBELL - Campbell went 1-10 overall (0-8 in the PFL) their first year back with just 6 rFr on the roster as the team was almost exclusively made up of true freshmen. Their Pioneer games were basically non-competitive with an avg loss by 43 ppg and they were outgained by 334.1 ypg!!! Almost everyone was back in '09 and we pegged them for last again but they not only escaped the basement, Campbell beat Morehead St AND Valpo (2-6) and trimmed the ypg deficit to -66.4 which was 132 ypg better than Valpo. In '10 they had 20 ret st'rs and again finished 2-6 and the ypg slimmed to just -20.8 ypg. LY looked like HC Dale Steele's best team yet as they suffered 4 net close losses the yr prior and returned 18 st'rs. Despite a more difficult schedule, the Camels found themselves with their 1st winning mark since their return finishing 6-5 overall and 5-3 within the PFL. Things pointing downward for the Camels TY are the fact that they have just 8 returning st'rs and were -47.4 ypg in LY's contests. Campbell will find it difficult to stay out of the lower half of the PFL standings for 2012.

8. BUTLER - Butler had 2 winless conf ssns over 3 yrs with a 2-18 league mark heading into '08. They lost their QB and had just 13 ret st'rs from a tm that lost their 7 league gms in '07 by an average of 41-17, so they had a lot of ground to make up. We were very surprised that the Bulldogs got their most wins since 1997 (6) and finished tied for 4th in the Pioneer. In '09 they had 15 ret st'rs including QB Matt Kobli who threw for 2,518 (66%, 23-7) in '08. We called for Butler to have another winning ssn overall but it was a magical ssn for the Bulldogs to say the least. They had SEVEN NET CLOSE WINS were +7 in TO's, went 7-1 and won the Pioneer and then the postseason game vs CCSU. They were +45.3 ypg in the league (4th best). In '10 they were a stronger tm with 17 ret st'rs but we questioned whether they could win every close game. They shockingly dropped to 2-6 in conf play despite being +20.9 ypg (#4). LY they appeared much improved (#28 FCS in exp) and we felt that they could double their conf win ttl from the previous ssn. Butler would move to 3-5 in PFL play, an improvement of just 1 gm while being outgained by 49.3 ypg in conf play. TY the Bulldogs return a recent low of 9 st'rs with most of their winnable gms coming on the road making it hard to believe that an improvement in their record is in the future.

9. DAVIDSON - The Wildcats were the only tm in the league that ret'd their QB and top RB in '08 and were +53.3 ypg in PFL play in '07. They only lost to league power San Diego by 4 but shockingly lost to Valpo and had 4 Pioneer losses by 6 or less and were just 3-5 despite being +20.3 ypg. In '09 they had just 11 st'rs back and appeared to be rebuilding. They were just 3-5 for the 2nd straight yr and were -40.8 ypg (4th worst). In '10 they had just 12 st'rs back and again finished 3-5 (-48.4 ypg). While they benefitted from 3 net close wins they were -15 in TO's. LY they return 15 st'rs and appeared to be an upset away from getting to 4 conf wins for the first time S/'07. After surprisingly dropping their first 6 PFL contests, the Wildcats would win their final 2 against Morehead St and Valpo to finish at 2-6 in conf while being outgained by 38.5 ypg in PFL play. TY the unit returns just 10 st'rs and could struggle again with most of their winnable gms being away from home.

10. VALPARAISO - Valpo had just 13 ret st'rs in '07 yet outgained league foes by 27 ypg despite going 2-5. In '08 they had 17 ret st'rs. Their '07 defense had 30 sks and in '08 had 10 st'rs back on that side of the ball. Instead of making another step up with their exp'd squad they actually regressed to 2-6 and were -118 ypg in Pioneer play. In '09 they looked to be rebuilding with just 10 ret st'rs and even benefitted from +8 in TO's in '08. They dropped to last at 0-8 and were by far a league worst -198.3 ypg. In '10 they had 12 ret st'rs but had a new HC and finished 0-8 with again a league worst -259.8 ypg. LY they again return 12 st'rs and were -16 in TO's the yr prior but their winnable games vs Davidson and Marist were on the road and they had a lot of ground to make up in conf play with 17 str conf losses. While they finally got a conf win (Campbell), the Crusaders again earned double digit losses for a 3rd consec ssn while again being outgained by a league-worst 163.1 ypg. Valpo has 13 returning st'rs coming back TY but with the disparity between the other members of the PFL, another bottom finish should be expected.

WOFFORD TERRIERS

Mike Ayers (Career 173-132-2)
25th Year at Wofford (162-111-1)
Spartanburg, South Carolina Enrollment: 1,495

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Terriers run a wingbone offense so the QB usually has more rushing than passing yards. RFr Mitch Allen threw for 170 (59%, 1-0) while rushing for 404 (8.4) as a backup in '08. He became the starter in '09 and started all 36 games the L3Y. In '09 he threw for 605 (44%, 7-6) and was the #1 rusher (663, 4.7) while throwing for 871 (54%, 8-3) in '10 and finishing as the #2 rusher (681, 4.5). LY he had 728 passing yds (45.5%, 4-7) and finished as the #3 rusher (856, 5.2). Brian Kass will now takeover the reins after RS here in '09 and spending the L2Y in a backup role. Kass threw for 297 (53%, 4-0) and rushed for 156 (3.7) in '10 and LY threw for 157 (57.1%, 3-0) while rushing for 43 (2.9). After losing a multi-year starter, we'll have to call them down a couple of notches.

RB's - After an inj-plagued 2009 the unit ret'd almost intact in 2010 and Eric Breitenstein (1639, 6.1, 22 td's) earned AA honors. He returned LY along with the QB who was #2 and Donavan Johnson (353, 6.7) who was #4. Breitenstein (1474, 5.5, 19 td) was again named 1st Tm AA and he was followed by Johnson (967, 8.8) with the QB at #3. The trio became the 1st in school history to each rush for 100 yds in a gm (Samford) and the team finished #1 in the FCS in rushing while setting school records for FD's and rush yards. Breitenstein returns and is the FCS's active leader with 37 rush td's and they return everyone in the top 11 with the exception of QB Allen (#3) and a WR who was #5. We'll call them even with LY which again makes them one of the nation's best.

Rec's - The rec's in this offense have avg'd 4-5 rec/gm the last several years. Brenton Bersin had 49% of the rec in '10 with 32 (22.0) followed by Devin Reed (12 rec, 13.2) and Andre Young (4 rec, 17.0). Bersin returned LY and had 51% of the tms rec with 26 (17.1) followed by Jeff Ashley (7 rec, 26.9) and Young (5 rec, 20.4). TY Ashley is the only player among the top 3 to return so while the unit doesn't produce huge numbers, it'll still be down a notch.

O-Line - This unit obviously deserves much of the credit for the recent record setting numbers. Four starters ret'd in '10 incl a 1st and 2nd All So-Con and the numbers rose to 298 ypg (5.6 ypc) but the sacks saw a slight increase to 13. They lost 4 starters LY incl a 1st Tm AA and a 1st Tm SoCon so many across the league saw this as a rebuilding season. The unit proved otherwise setting a new recent high watermark at 365 ypg while also reaching 6.0 ypc. TY they lose only 1 starter in Nate Page who into LY had 6 career sts and finished earning multiple AA awards. Two of the 4 returning earned 2nd Tm SoCon and while they're steps ahead of LY in terms of returning experience it'll be tough to top a record setting season.

D-Line - The 3 man DL was inj riddled in '09 and allowed 172 rush ypg and 4.5 ypc. All 3 starters ret'd in '10 and the expected improvement occurred as the team allowed 133 ypg (3.5) and 25 sks led by AA and SoCon DPOY DE Ameet Pall. LY they all returned again and the 3 man unit had started 69 of the 72 gms in '09 and '10. They played a run heavy schedule and allowed 136 ypg (3.7) while totaling 30 sks. The trio departs after earning a pair of 1st Tm, along with a 2nd Tm SoCon honor leaving 3 backups to take over. This unit may have the biggest shoes to fill of any defensive unit in the entire country.

LB's - Despite having to replace a pair of starters (#4 & #6 tkl's) in '10, with an exp'd DL in front of them they sliced the ppg allowed from 33.5 to 18.9. LY they lost only 1 starter (#8 tkl's) but the numbers rose slightly to 24.3 ppg, the difference being that in '09 they held 3 opponents to 10 or less with 1 shutout while not allowing under 14 pts to any opp LY. This unit is the polar opposite of the DL as all 4 starters return as well as a total of 7 that have made starts and 10 LB's that finished ranked in the top 18 of the teams tacklers from LY.

DB's - After a horrific 2009 season with the Bulldogs finishing #112 in pass eff D and a 24-6 ratio, they ret'd 3 starters in 2010. They had to replace 1 starter but returned 5 that made prior starts and made a meteoric rise to #11 in pass eff D with a 11-16 ratio. LY they had to replace 2 starters incl a 1st Tm SS and moved in James Zotto (4 st OLB '10) to fill that spot. The unit regressed and finished #78 in pass eff D with only a 20-9 ratio. TY they have to replace their most veteran DB in CB Preston Roseboro (38 st over 4Y) but there is experience waiting as Stephon Shelton made 3 sts LY and 6 in the L3Y. They're a notch ahead of LY and we should see the numbers improve.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2010 the Terriers finished #62 in our ST rankings. Christian Reed was 13-16 (L/48) but LY with the prolific offense he was only 4-6 (L/38). Kasey Redfern split the punting duties in '10 (36.2, 32.7 tm net) but handled them all LY avg 37.1 with a net of 34.4. The team only had 7 PR's but avg'd 19.4 with 2 td's while the KR numbers were below avg and they fell back to #91. The only loss is the PR that had 5 att's so with another year of experience we'll expect an upper half finish.

COACHES - This trio has been together here for a combined 57 years! HC Mike Ayers is going into his 25th ssn while OC Wade Lang enters his 23rd season and the "newbie" is DC Nate Woody who is "only" going into his 12th year here.

Overview - The Terriers came into LY having made a playoff appearance in 3 of the previous 4 ssns. In the opener they may have looked ahead to Clem as they were tied vs PU needing a td pass with :51 left. They stood toe-to-toe vs LY's ACC Champ but couldn't hold on to a 24-21 3Q lead. They parlayed a strong 2H vs Samford into a win against #3 App St and then blew out their next 2 foes to get to 5-1. Against Furman 2 costly int's proved to be the difference but they then handled both Elon and WCU setting up a #9 vs #4 showdown. This was the 6th meeting vs GSU in 5Y's with the L/5 decided by a ttl of 14 pts but they were held to a ssn low and all'd an FCS high in yds in the 31-10 loss. They secured their 4th post ssn berth in 5Y vs Chattanooga scoring two 4Q td's. Wofford went 1&out as they had a 478-238 yd edge vs UNI but had 3 fumbles in a disappointing finish. With 15 st's back the fans in Spartanburg should be enjoying playoff football again.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN EAGLES

Jeff Monken (Career 21-8)
3rd Year at Georgia Southern (21-8)
Statesboro, Georgia — Enrollment: 20,212

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - When HC Jeff Monken came over from Ga Tech to run the tm, Jaybo Shaw (PS#57) followed his former coach a short time later from GT and instantly took over the starting job with 1,233 pass yds (50.7%) and 514 rush (2.5) in his 1st ssn with the Eagles (21 ttl td's). Shaw improved a ssn ago hitting on 56% of his passes while recording 1,476 yds and a 10-3 ratio (420 rush). With Shaw's emergence in '10, GSU moved Jerick McKinnon (1 st at QB '10) to AB a yr ago to get his athleticism on the field. After a yr that saw him rush for 537 yds (6.7) and pull in 6 catches, McKinnon returns to QB and will battle LY's bkp Ezayi Youyoute for the vacated starting job. There is plenty of talent remaining at the QB position but with the departure of Shaw, this unit is sure to take a hit in production this ssn.

RB's - HC Monken re-installed the triple option in '10 with winning results thus far. LY GSU returned their top 5 from the yr prior led by Robert Brown who narrowly eclipsed the 1,000 yd plateau (1004, 4.7) as a frosh. While Brown put up a solid 937 yds (6.9) a yr ago, the big story was the emergence of yet another frosh in Dominique Swope (PS#316) who rushed for 1,023 yds (6.1) while earning SoCon FOY in the process. Seven of the top 8 were expected to return TY but Brown was lost for the ssn with an inj suffered over the summer. With not as much experience in the pass gm, expect this group to have a bigger influence in 2012.

Rec's - With the changes in the off scheme the past 2 ssns it's no surprise that this group has seen their productivity decrease. LY GSU returned every player that had a rec the yr prior but JJ Wilcox, their leading WR from '10 (551, 25.0) was shifted over to RB. Another RB, Johnathan Bryant led the tm in receiving LY with 355 (27.3) while WR Kentrellis Showers led the tm in receptions with a miniscule 15 (17.2). TY the Eagles again return the brunt of their WR's from the year prior (75 of the 83 catches) but with a new QB and a very established corps of RB's, expect this group to again take a backseat to the rest of the offense.

O-Line - After rushing for just 97 ypg (3.0) the year prior to switching back to the triple option, the rush gm has flourished the L2Y going from 261 ypg (4.6) in '10 to 324 (5.8) LY, good for #2 in the FCS behind fellow SoCon member Wofford (365 ypg). TY the losses to the group are heavy with the departures of a pair of 1st Tm SoCon honorees in RT Brett Moore (29 car sts) and RG William Maxwell (35 car sts) along with C Brandavious Mann (30 car sts). With the scheme that the tm runs however, masking the issues they may have early while grooming new st'rs (63 car sts returning) could be an easier transition than some might think.

D-Line - The Eagles switched their def scheme to a 4-3 in '10 and saw their rushing numbers dip down to 127 ypg (3.6) after all'g 140 ypg (3.9) in '09. LY they ret'd all 4 st'rs incl AA NT Brent Russell (71 tkl, 18.5 tfl '10). While the numbers shot back up a little to 150 ypg (4.4), the defense was forced to play the #1 and #3 rushing offenses in the FCS in Wofford and the Citadel. TY the unit loses 2nd Tm SoCon DE John Douglas (14 st, 33 tkl, 9 tfl) and part-time st'r Roderick Tinsley (5 st, 28 tkl). Russell returns to the middle along with DE Dion Dubose (24 car sts) who missed all of LY with inj. This unit should finish closer to their '10 numbers with the talent on hand.

LB's - GSU ret'd just 1 st'r to this unit in '10 but also moved away from the 3-4 alignment. After all'g 27.5 ppg in '09, the group, with just the 1 returner, gave up 18.5 ppg, their best since '04. LY the unit ret'd a pair of st'rs but saw the numbers escalate to 23.6 ppg. TY the Eagles are forced to part with Josh Rowe (#2 tkl'r) but return the other 2 members to the starting lineup. This is a solid group that should improve along with the front-4 ahead of them.

DB's - The Eagles finished #32 in PDR in '10 as they all'd just 160 ypg in the air (53.9%) while recording 15 int's (15 td). LY they lost 1.5 st'rs and then starting FS Derek Heyden was lost after just 3 gms with a neck inj. While they surpassed the '10 int mark with 16, they also all'd 7 more td passes and 47 more yds in the air (58.3%) to finish #67 in the pass eff D. TY the group loses both of its starting CB's in 1st Tm SoCon Laron Scott (14 st, 53 tkl, 21 pd) and Hudson Presume (7 st, 37 tkl) along with Heyden (3 st, 19 tkl) and Michael Butler (3 st, 27 tkl). The unit adds WR Mitchell Williford and Illinois trans Valdon Cooper (PS#229) but with the lack of experienced CB's, it may be hard for this group to improve much TY.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Eagles ret'd all of their key pieces to the ST's unit a year ago and as expected, the group found vast success finishing #13 in our ratings. TY things don't appear as bright as GSU loses nearly everyone including AA kicker Adrian Mora who hit on a combined 31-35 fg's the past 2 ssns while failing to convert on just 2 of his 109 xp att's. Also departing TY are P Charlie Edwards (42.1 avg, 38.0 net) and KR Laron Scott who's 30.6 avg was 3rd best in the entire FCS (2nd Tm AA honors). There is a good chance that PR Darreion Robinson (8.7) could take over the KR duties for the departed Scott but the big concerns for GSU is at K and P as a pair of unproven players in rFr K Kyle Morris and P Luke Cherry (1 career punt) are expected to inherit the spots. This unit goes from one of the best in the FCS to a major question mark in 2012.

COACHES - GSU wanted to return the option back to the offense so they brought in GT RB cch Jeff Monken in '10 as the new HC and in his 2 ssns with the Eagles, GSU has a 21-8 record with 2 playoff appearances. OC Brent Davis returns for his 3rd ssn as well while DC Jack Curtis enters year 2 after replacing Brent Pry who went to Vandy after a ssn with the Eagles.

Overview - With the return of the triple option, GSU saw themselves in the playoffs in each of the L2Y. GSU entered LY ranked #4 in the FCS and after a pair of early victories, they were #1 in the nation. GSU would slide past both WCU and Elon before nearly blowing the lead vs Chattanooga as the Mocs went for 2 and were denied late. After 2 more impressive wins vs Furman and Presbyterian, they lost by 7 in a Top 5 battle with App St. GSU would slip past the Citadel (14-12) and knock off #9 Wofford on the road before closing out the reg ssn with a 45-21 loss to future FBS Champ Alabama. GSU entered the playoffs with the #3 seed and after wins against both ODU and Maine, NDSt proved to be too much on their run to the title knocking off the Eagles 35-7. TY GSU returns 13 st'rs and 56 lettermen but do lose QB Shaw and had a rough spg with the losses of LB Rowe and RB Brown. Look for this off to be even more dedicated to the run as they look to make it to the postseason for a 3rd consec yr.

QB Jamal Jackson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2009 Armanti Edwards threw for a school record 3,291 (68%, 12-7) while also rushing for 679 (5.0) with 18 td's. He was a FOUR time AA and the 1st ever 2-time Payton Award winner departing as the FCS's #2 in career ttl off (Steve McNair) and a #3DC (CAR). DeAndre Presley (PS#143) threw for 379 (67%, 1-2) in '08 and 89 (47%) in '09. He started all 13 gms in '10 throwing for 2,631 (61%, 21-7) and he was also the #1 rusher with 1,039 (6.4 13 td) giving them an AA QB for a 5th straight year. Jamal Jackson RS in '09 and was a co-#1 in spring throwing for 144 (50%, 1-1). Both ret'd but Presley (812, 59.7%, 4-4) was inj'd after 5 sts. In Jackson's first start vs the Citadel he completed his first 15 passes and the team had 552 yds followed by 519 the next week. Jackson held on to the starting role even after Presley ret'd and threw for 2,001 (61.5%, 15-8) with 296 rush (3.3). Presley was listed as the #2 and made a start at both WR and CB down the stretch. Jackson returns but for the first time in 5 years they don't have a returning AA at this spot.

RB's - In 2010 they ret'd 6 of their top 7 losing their QB who was #2. The new QB Presley was #1 followed by Travaris Cadet (671, 5.8). LY they ret'd their top 2 as well as their #4 Cedric Baker Boney (261, 4.3) who finished 4th again with 260 (5.1). Cadet led with 651 (4.3) taking home his 2nd straight 2nd Tm SoCon honor while newcomer Steve Miller (PS#390JC) was #2 with 380 (5.0). TY they only return 2 of the top 7 with Miller being the only RB in the group. Rod Chisolm returns as the #2 after being ineligible LY (ran for 244 the previous 2 seasons) while we also expect HT WKU tran Quartterrio Morgan (PS#71) to move towards the top of the depth chart. While they return less then LY, the production should increase.

Rec's - After returning their top 6 rec's in 2010, they returned only 3 of their top 8 LY. Brian Quick had 982 (16.1) in '09 followed by 844 (18.0) in '10. His 1,096 (15.4) led the team again last year while he earned AA honors his final 2 yrs and departed as the first pick in the 2nd round (STL). TE Ben Jorden also returned LY and was #5 with 171 (9.5) leaving as a 4Y starter while earning All-Conf honors all 4Y (3x 1st Tm). This year they again return 3 of their top 8 and the unit will be led by Andrew Peacock (#2, 564, 11.8) and Tony Washington (#3, 355, 11.1). While the numbers returning are close to last year, they lose a pair of very decorated players.

O-Line - With 4 starters back in 2010 the unit opened holes for 217 rush ypg and 5.2 ypc. LY the unit was decimated losing three 1st Tm SoCon honorees incl LT Daniel Kilgore (#5DC SF). It was no surprise that the unit posted recent lows gaining 61 ypg and 1.2 ypc less and while the sacks were still very respectable at 17, it was almost double the previous year. TY they lose a pair of 3Y starters and a part time starter. Five players return that made starts LY and they also add Alex Coulthard who RS at NC. They are better off then a year ago and the numbers should improve.

D-Line - After returning intact in '09 they lost 2 to graduation and 1 to inj and with only 1 ret starter the numbers rose to 167 ypg and 4.2 ypc but they still produced 31 sks. The unit lost 2 st'rs LY incl an AA DE and while they also ret'd Lanston Tanyi (18 st 2Y, inj'd '10) he was again banged up and made only 4 sts. They improved the rush numbers to 149 ypg and 3.9 ypc but the sacks fell off to 24. Ronald Blair earned Frosh AA and is one of 2 returning st'rs giving them close to '09's experience.

LB's - In 2010 the unit returned a pair of starters but only AA DJ Smith (#1 tkl'r) held on to his job. There was a slight increase in the ypg (348) and ppg (23.6). Last year they lost Smith (#1, #6DC GB) and their #2 tkl'r returning a pair of part-time starters (#3 & #10 tkl'rs) and the numbers were basically identical to the previous year. This season they are tweaking the D so with the BAN in the DL and the STAR here we'll call it 2 back (#1 & #2 tkl'rs) making it the most experienced LB corps they've had in several seasons.

DB's - While the secondary lost an AA CB in '10 they ret'd 3 starters incl an AA SS and a 2nd Tm SoCon CB and they finished #30 in pass eff D with an 18-14 ratio. LY they lost 1 starter but it was 2x AA Mark LeGree (#5DC SEA). The 3 returnees couldn't match the '10 finish and fell to #58 in pass eff D. This season they return 3 starters incl a 1st tm SoCon CB while also returning FS Patrick Blalock who started the F/3 before inj and ret'd to start the playoff game. It's the deepest unit in a while and the goal should clearly be a Top 20 pass D finish.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After a #58 finish in our ST rankings the Mountaineers had to replace their K (11-12, L/50). P Sam Martin whose avg rose (39.2 to 40.9) saw his net fall (36.7 to 32.5) getting 2 blk'd and the tm allowing 3 PR td's. He also split time on FG's but was only 3-9 (L/51) while Drew Stewart was 8-10 (L/44). Travaris Cadet again handled both return duties and showed a slight improvement on both. The KRD (#95 FCS) matched the PRD and it all added up to a #99 finish. Cadet moves on but the ret D has to improve.

COACHES - Legend Jerry Moore returns for his 24th year. He's the first to ever win 3 FCS/IAA Nat'l Championships and he's only 1 of 8 active FCS HC's w/200+ wins. Scott Satterfield returns after spending 15Y here as a QB and cch and spent the L2Y as FIU OC. Dale Jones is in his 16th ssn here and is in his 2nd as DC after first being a DL cch then a LB cch.

Overview - After an expected 2-1 start App St won its 18th straight conf opener at home vs #13 Chattanooga after trailing 3-0 at HT and stopping a 4Q 2 pt conv. Versus a second straight ranked foe they couldn't slow the rush attack vs #8 Wofford all'g 388 (5.5) rush. They led the Citadel 49-14 and after all'g 28 pts needed a 6:10 drive to run out the clock. They handled Samford to get to 5-2 with a meeting vs #1 on deck. After all'g 661 (5.6) in B2B gms the D dominated their 3rd option foe holding Ga Southern to a ssn low in yds, rush yds and FD's. Four TO's cost them in a possible letdown vs Furman before taking out their frustrations vs W Car. In the reg ssn finale they beat Elon for the 16th straight time BUT needed to match their largest EVER Div I comeback after falling behind 21-0. They made the playoffs but were outgained 466-275 vs #13 Maine and for the 1st time in 7Y didn't win a playoff game. You know the bar is high when 8 wins (avg'd 11.8 '05-'10) and a postseason appearance is a disappointment.

QB Terrell Robinson

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Despite returning a starter in 2009, Tenn tran BJ Coleman (PS#65) took over and threw for 2,348 (57%, 17-9). Coleman upped his numbers to 2,996 (56%, 26-13) and earned 2nd Tm SoCon in '10. He returned LY but came up 359 yds short of the school record as he was inj'd after 7 sts finishing with 1,527 (60.9%, 9-9). Terrell Robinson became the 1st Fr QB to start a game here S/'03 and was the SoCon FOY throwing for 336 (62.8%, 6-3) while finishing #2 in rushing with 417 (4.6). Graham Nichols (62, 66.7%, 0-0) also made 1 st. Coleman departs and because of his injury the unit now returns a pair of QB's that received valuable playing time LY and the battle continued this spring as they were both listed as #1's. Still, the unit is down several notches losing a 3Y starting SEC HT transfer.

RB's - Erroll Wynn led the team in rushing in 2008 with 636 (3.2) and after taking a RS in '09 due to an injury, led the team again in '10 with 653 (5.3) followed by Keon Williams (500, 4.9) LY. Wynn and the #4 rusher departed and Williams missed the season (susp) leaving JJ Jackson (#3, 223, 3.5) as the top returnee. Jackson was 1 of 3 RB's to make starts as he missed 3 games to inj finishing #3 (4 st, 234, 3.3). Ala A&M tran Marquis Green made only 1 st but led with 530 (4.4) followed by the QB while Chris Awuah made 5 sts and was #4 (227, 3.9). This year not only are the above 4 all back but so is FB Taharin Tyson (7 st, 143, 3.0) while Williams also returns.

Rec's - In 2010 Joel Bradford earned AA honors with 1,284 (15.9) while Marlon Anthony was #5 (195, 11.5). They were the top 2 returnees LY and finished #1 and #2. Bradford's numbers slipped to 660 (12.5), still good enough for 2nd Tm SoCon while Anthony added 333 (12.3). Sloan Allison was #3 (1 st, 213, 8.9) with TE Faysal Shafaat #4 (11 st, 179, 9.4). This year they lose their #1 and #3 and we'll call them down just a bit from last year.

O-Line - For 2 straight seasons ('09-'10) the OL ret'd all 5 starters and in that span the rush numbers went from 85 ypg to 144, from 2.3 ypc to 4.2 ypc and from 42 sks allowed to 9 and 15. LY they lost three 3Y starters incl a 1st tm SoCon yet the numbers only dropped marginally to 144 ypg with 3.5 ypc and 24 sks allowed. A pair of frosh manned the C and LT spots and they are part of 4 returning starters making this unit several steps ahead of LY.

D-Line - From 2005-'08 this unit was run over for 219 ypg. All 4 starters ret'd in '09 and the numbers matched the returning experience improving by 92 ypg, 1.9 ypc and 14 more sacks. In '10 they lost a pair of starters incl a 1st tm'r that led the FCS in sks/gm but got a PS#5. The numbers surprisingly slipped across the board (163 ypg, 4.0 ypc, 20 sks). LY they lost 2.5 starters incl a 2nd Tm SoCon DE in Tennessee tran Chris Donald (PS#5) who had a career ending inj in the summer and the unit impressed by basically matching the previous seasons numbers allowing 164 ypg, 3.9 ypc with 23 sks. This season they basically return intact plus add GA tran Derrick Lott (PS#136) and they have the potential to post new recent bests.

LB's - After slicing 12.2 ppg off of their scoring D from '08-'09 they lost 2 starters who were the teams #1 and #3 tkl'rs as well as a backup (#7 tkl'r) and the numbers bounced back up to 31.2 ppg. LY they ret'd intact and after not having allowed under 25 ppg since 1997 (22.2 ppg), they broke the 20 pt barrier allowing 19.7 ppg. TY they lose 1 starter but it is Ryan Consiglio who was the #1 tkl'r in B2B ssns and departs as the teams all-time leading tkl'r. Replacing him will be Shane Heatherly who only had 11 tkls LY but made 10 sts in 2010 so the drop may be less then expected.

DB's - In 2010 the secondary ret'd 3 starters and they allowed over 60% comp for a 5th straight season finishing near the bottom with a pass eff D of #103. Last year they lost 1 starter but it was Buster Skrine who was 1st Tm SoCon and a #5 DC (CLE). The 3 back made all 11 starts in '10 and did so again last year when they had the biggest improvement in all of DI football going from #103 to #5 with a phenomenal 4-12 ratio. This year they lose 2 players who combined for 68 career sts and at some point were All-SoCon. Both returnees were 2nd Tm SoCon LY and filling one opening is Chaz Moore, who has made 6 starts the last 2Y. They clearly won't match LY's ratio but a Top 25 finish is possible.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Mocs finished just #87 in our '10 ST rankings. They ret'd everyone LY but K Jeff Veres (3-9, L/37) played WR and rFr Nick Pollard (PS#67) was 10-14 (L/38). Mike Hammonds avg'd 38.4 but had a horrific 29.7 net in '10. He upped those numbers to 40.2 with a tm net of 35.5. Joel Bradford saw his PR avg fall from 8.9 to only 3.1 while Chaz Moore took over the KR's and avg'd 26.0 lifting the unit up to #55. TY they return Pollard who may handle double duty and Moore and could easily move up again.

COACHES - Russ Huesman is in his 4th season here and in his 1st ssn took home the SoCon COY as the team's 6 wins matched the total wins from the previous 3Y. He spent 8Y as a Memphis asst and prior to arriving here was the DC at Richmond incl during their Nat'l Champ season. OC Marcus Satterfield took over a team that avg'd 12.8 ppg and 225 ypg and improved by 8.7 ppg and 77 ypg. DC Adam Fuller is also in his 4th season and was also with the HC at Richmond.

Overview - The Mocs entered LY ranked off of B2B winning seasons for the 1st time S/'90-'91. After a loss at Nebraska they knocked off their first Top 10 team since 2000 outgaining Jax St by 284 yds. They handled EKU and traveled to face #3 App St and the D pitched a shutout but lost due to a 73 yd fum ret and 46 yd int ret, both for td's. The next week they blew a 27-0 lead and lost by a pt then traveled to #1 Ga So and this time trailed 21-7 but lost by the exact same 28-27 score for a 2nd straight game. They took out their frustrations vs W Car (51-7) and got to 4-4 vs Elon thanks to finishing +4 in TO's. It was scoreless at HT vs Furman and the offense could only muster 169 yds while the D allowed a 53/5pl drive and 10 yd td run w/2:06 left. After beating Samford 24-9 they were going for a 3rd straight winning season but despite a 31-7 lead, lost to #13 Wofford giving them their THIRD 28-27 conf loss with the 5 SoCon losses coming by a combined 12 pts. The attitude has changed and the 16 returning starters will expect to win and after 5 close losses, they'll have a definite say as to who takes home the title.

SAMFORD BULLDOGS

Pat Sullivan (Career 49-72-1)
6th Year at Samford (25-30)

Birmingham, Alabama   Enrollment: 4,758

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - In 2008 true frosh Dustin Taliaferro (PS#250) started all 11 gms and was named SoCon FOY. He now departs after making 41 starts and throwing for 7,165 career yds while leaving with a school record 707 completions (Ray Nelson 704, '01-'04). In 2010 he only made 9 sts and threw for 1,427 (59%, 5-9) while LY as a senior he threw for 2,301 (62.6%, 14-10). Looking to replace a 4Y starter is Ben Neill (PS#381) who was the holder LY and had 14 att's and newcomer Andy Summerlin (PS#61JC) who made 2 sts at Memphis LY throwing for 469 (47.9%, 0-2). Also on the roster are rFr Carson Barnett (PS#147) and soph Trett Hardman (PS#104). We expect the VHT Summerlin to win the job so the drop off may not be as much as one would think despite losing a school record holder.

RB's - After not having a 1,000 yd rusher s'/99 Chris Evans accomplished that feat in '07 (1033, 5.6) and later became the first in school history to do it in B2B seasons and went on to accomplish it all 4Y's departing after gaining 1,106 (4.7) in 2010. LY they were without their #1 and #3 rushers and the leading returnees were #2 Fabian Truss (301, 6.5), #4 QB Taliaferro (137, 2.1) and #5 Jonathan Sillers (83, 3.8). Truss (PS#265) blossomed and despite missing 1 gm with an inj, finished with 847 (5.6) earning 1st Tm SoCon RB and 2nd Tm RS. True Frosh Jeremiaha Gates (PS#394) was #2 with 391 (4.4) while also getting on the field as a WR for the L/2 gms (13 rec, 9.3). WR Kelsey Pope was #3 with 175 (5.3) followed by Sillers (173, 5.8) and Stanley Robinson (173, 4.2). Sillers is the only one among the top 5 not returning so this unit is leap years ahead of LY's in terms of experience.

Rec's - In 2010 the rec unit was expected to return their #1 (Riley Hawkins, PS#171) and 5 of the top 6 but Hawkins RS. LY they again lost their top 2 and only ret'd their #3 (Kelsey Pope, 234, 8.4) and #4 (Chris Cephus, 222, 14.8) from among their top 7 rec's. Pope led with 810 (9.4) earning 2nd Tm SoCon while Hawkins returned and finished #2 with 472 (12.8). Cephus was #3 with 339 (13.6) followed by true frosh Kelvin Clay (171, 10.1) and S Miss tran TE Zeke Walters (PS#88) who was inj'd and only made 6 sts finishing with 153 (13.9). The top 8 are all back and this unit will rival any in the conference.

O-Line - In 2010 the OL ret'd three 11 gm starters but George Allers was inj'd and OFY after 1 start. Thanks to a JUCO stepping in they bettered their numbers by 47 rush ypg while slicing 10 sks off their total. LY they only lost 1 starter (2nd Tm SoCon) so it was a bit surprising they slipped to allowing 166 ypg and 21 sks but the ypc did increase to 4.2. TY they again lose 1 starter led by 2nd Tm C Ryan Dudchock and because of some players getting banged up a yr ago all 5 spots will be manned by someone who made 6+ sts LY. With 107 career starts returning, that puts them in the top 10% of the FCS in returning experience. The offense has the makings of something special and this group will be leading the way.

D-Line - After losing 2 starters in '09 the numbers were almost similar so it was a shock when they only lost 1 starter in '10 and slid all the way back to 163 ypg (4.0 ypc) with only 21 sacks. They only ret'd 1 starter to the 4-man front LY so a 3rd straight drop in production wasn't a surprise as they allowed 194 ypg (4.3) with only 17 sks. For a second straight season they only return 1 starter but we expect a lot more from USF tran Brandon Wilkinson (PS#212) who was a late signee here LY and only had 7 tkls.

LB's - In both '09 and '10 this unit lost 2 starters while returning the teams #1 tkl'r MLB Bryce Smith who earned 2nd Tm then followed it up with 1st Tm SoCon honors. After posting a recent best in '09 with 17.5 ppg allowed, they fell back to 25.3 ppg in '10. LY Smith graduated but they ret'd two 11 gm starters (#2 & #11 tkl'rs) and also returned a backup that was the teams #7 tackler. Despite losing their star it was still a surprise that they posted similar numbers at 24.8 ppg. This season they return all 3 starters (#2, #3 & #5 tkl'rs) and this is clearly the strength of the defense.

DB's - The secondary lost only 1 starter in '10 but only finished #85 in pass eff D. LY they lost 2 starters incl a 1st Tm SoCon FS, but led by Corey White (#5DC NO) who became the Bulldogs highest DC ever, the team shot up to #24 in pass eff D with a 11-13 ratio. This year they again lose 2 starters and it would be no surprise if the spots are filled by an Ark St tran (PS#378) and a CB who originally signed at Wyoming (PS#419). After losing an NFL draft, pick we'll call them down just a touch.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Samford finished in the middle of the pack at #65 in our ST rankings in 2010. Last year they ret'd their K and KR. Cameron Yaw was 17-23 (L/48) and an even better 23-28 (L/46) last year grabbing 2nd Tm SoCon. Fabian Truss only had 12 KR in '10 (28.4) but had 27 LY avg 29.3 and also earning a 2nd Tm SoCon award. RFr Greg Peranich bettered the punt numbers (41.1, 34.9 net) while PR Riley Hawkins (12-11.0) rounded out the unit that finished #31. Everyone's back so another jump up would be expected.

COACHES - Former Auburn Heisman winning QB Pat Sullivan enters his 6th season here while also having HC experience at TCU ('92-'97). This will be the 1st year of co-OC's with Brandon Herring (6th yr here as OL cch) and Travis Trickett (2nd yr here, TE cch LY) sharing duties. Bill D'Ottavio is also in his 6th season here and is in his 2nd ssn as Asst HC.

Overview - Since joining the SoCon the Bulldogs went from 6 wins to 5 and then fell to 4-7 in 2010 by losing 4 of their final 5 games. They returned only 11 starters last year and were tied at HT 7-7 vs #4 Ga Southern but lost by 14. After an expected blowout win they traveled to face another ranked foe and only trailed 17-16 at HT at #9 Wofford but another poor 2H cost them. Samford had no trouble with G-W and played another solid 1H at Furman leading 16-0 and this time they held on for the win. The offense topped 400 yds for the 4th time as their +3 TO mark insured a win vs Elon. They traveled to App St and for the 3rd time vs their 3rd ranked foe they lost but the next week beat W Car as expected which is the way the entire season had gone. TO's were to blame in the only game they were "upset" as they finished +7 FD's and +114 yds but were -2 in TO's including a 43 yd fumble ret td. A win at The Citadel and a loss to Auburn finished off a 6-5 year. This year 15 starters are back and they should top the 6 win mark for the first time since 2003 (haven't topped 7 wins since 1992).

FURMAN PALADINS

Bruce Fowler (Career 6-5)
2nd Year at Furman (6-5)
Greenville, South Carolina Enrollment: 3,121

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After inj's curtailed a substantial portion of his 1st 2 ssns with the Paladins, former UCLA trans Chris Forcier (PS#14) took over the starting gig LY with great success throwing for 2,265 yds (64.1%) with a 23-8 ratio and earning 1st Tm SoCon in the process. PS#170 Dakota Derrick earned 2 sts in '10 and saw 6 gms of bkp action LY hitting on 8 of 17 passes. Derrick and rFr Travis Eman (PS#117) shared most of the snaps in spg and will again battle in fall for the starting duties but with the departure of Forcier, this unit will drop of few notches in production.

RB's - In '10 Furman ret'd their top 4 rushers incl FB Tersoo Uhaa and TB Jerodis Williams. Williams led the tm in rushing but with just a miniscule 389 yds (4.6) while Uhaa was a close 2nd at 325 (4.5). Both ret'd LY (4 of the top 5) and Williams flourished rushing for 1,055 yds (5.3) and 9 td's. Uhaa was relegated to more blocking duties finishing 4th (211, 3.6) behind both QB Forcier and bkp TB Hank McCloud (241, 4.2). TY the Paladins lose Uhaa but get the return of both Williams and McCloud. With a less exp'd QB under center, this unit will likely be leaned on even more in 2012.

Rec's - Furman ret'd 7 of their top 8 rec's in '10 led by Adam Mims who pulled in 878 (11.9) in '09. Mims again lead the squad with 724 (13.2) while TE Colin Anderson finished a distant 2nd with 242 (15.1). LY the Paladins parted ways with Mims and Anderson became more of a focal point for the offense leading Furman in rec (40), rec yds (696) and rec td's (7). WR's Tyler Maples (583, 15.3) and Sederrick Cunningham (340, 20.0) finished 2nd and 3rd respectively but both depart for the upcoming ssn. 1st Tm SoCon Anderson returns for 2012 as one of, if not the best TE's in all of the FCS.

O-Line - The Paladin OL unit has improved in each of the L3Y raising their rush ttls from 142 to 151 to 167 ypg (4.2) in '11 led by the return of 3 st's to the unit. TY the losses are heavy as Furman returns just 2 st'rs to the group in RG Ryan Storms (9 st) and 2nd Tm SoCon LT Dakota Dozier (11 st) with C Daniel Spisak (33 car sts), RT Ryan Lee (27 car sts) and LG Jordan Eshelman (7 st LY) all moving on. The Paladins have just 39 car sts returning to the entire unit and after seeing continued improvement, it wouldn't surprise us much to see a dip in productivity this ssn.

D-Line - The Furman DL lost all 4 st'rs heading into '10 so a drop was expected. The group was gashed on the ground for 212 ypg (4.3), 38 ypg more than the previous yr while recording just 9 sks on the ssn (2nd yr in a row with single digit sks). LY they ret'd 3 st'rs to the group and saw their numbers improve to 181 ypg (4.0) while surpassing '09 and '10's combined sack mark with 21. The unit is led by 2x 2nd Tm SoCon honoree Josh Lynn who tallied 49 tkls and 5 sks LY in 11 sts at DE. Lynn and the rest of the starting rotation return this ssn with the only losses being a pair of reserves in Brandon Boykin (4 tkl) and Cody Reynolds (17 tkl). This is a very experienced and deep unit that should easily surpass the past 3 ssns of production.

LB's - After all'g 31.5 ppg in '09, the Furman LB corps ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 and saw their numbers improve to 25.5 ppg despite the struggles of the DL ahead of them. LY the group ret'd all 3 st'rs led by 1st Tm SoCon Kadarron Anderson. Despite not playing in the finale, Anderson notched his 3rd consec ssn of 100+ tkls earning 1st Tm SoCon and AA honors in the process. TY Anderson departs along with Chris Wiley (7 st, 43 tkl) and Sterling Johnson (10 tkl LY, 7 st in '10). Mitch McGrath (#2 tkl'r, 13.5 tfl) is the new leader of the unit but with the departure of their star, Furman may see an increase in the ppg all'd for 2012 (26.1 LY).

DB's - The unit ret'd 6 players who comb for 44 sts heading into '10 and as expected, the group improved all'g just 161 ypg (56.4%) and earning the #25 pass eff D ranking. LY Furman ret'd 2 st'rs while FS Nathan Wade also missed a portion of the ssn with a susp. With a lightly experienced lineup the Paladins saw their numbers dip to 194 ypg (59.3%), good for the #86 pass eff D. TY the group parts ways with 1st Tm SoCon CB Ryan Steed (46 tkl, 8 pd) and reserve st'r EJ Vinsang (4 st, 25 tkl). Three return to the starting rotation (incl Wade) making a jump in the pass eff D a distinct possibility.

SPECIAL TEAMS - A handful of key contributors ret'd to this unit a year ago so improvement was expected. In '10 K Ray Early hit on 11-12 att's as a true earning 2nd Tm SoCon honors but unfortunately his 1st yr success didn't carry into '11 as he hit on just 2-6 att's losing his job for a portion of the ssn to P Chas Short (5-8, L/46). Short also saw his numbers falter a yr ago going from averaging 38.3 (38.0 net) in '10 to just 35.5 (33.4 net) LY. This ssn they lose Short and KR Sederrick Cunningham (26.7). If true frosh punter Hunter Townes is unable to claim the job in the fall, expect Early to assume double duty this year as the Paladins attempt to improve on our #79 ST's ranking of a year ago.

COACHES - After serving 9 seasons at Vandy as their DC and asst HC, Bruce Fowler (also former Furman DC) took over the Paladins last year with Bobby Lamb resigning after 29 years with the team. Jimmy Kiser was the passing gm coordinator at Vandy before following Fowler here to take over the OC duties. DC John Windham is also in his 2nd year after serving the previous 4 seasons as DC at Gardner-Webb.

Overview - Bobby Lamb departed in 2011 with a record of 67-40, opening the door for former Furman DC Bruce Fowler. While the Paladins finished with just a 6-5 mark in Fowler's inaugural campaign, they did pull out a pair of upsets against #5 Wofford and #3 App St. An early loss to Coastal Carolina accompanied by a 41-34 defeat in their home finale to Elon cost them a potential chance to climb into the division race. This year the Paladins return just 5 starters on offense as they are forced to deal with the departure of QB Forcier. They do however return 8 on defense and get both Chattanooga and Georgia Southern at home. This group has some talent but with 3 members of the SoCon earning playoff berths last year, a push of their own to the postseason may be too much to ask for in just Fowler's 2nd year in Greenville.

THE CITADEL BULLDOGS

Kevin Higgins (Career 87-72-1)

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Three different QB's started in '09 and all 3 departed as the Bulldogs made the switch to the triple option. In '10 Matt Thompson (PS#264) started 7 throwing for 353 (37%, 3-7) while finishing as the #3 rusher (264, 2.7). Ben Dupree (PS#252) started the opener and the L/2, playing SB in between passing for 77 yds with an additional 187 (2.8) rushing. Sam Martin (73, 24%, 0-2) made 1 st and was the #2 rusher with 288 (3.5) and the only one from the trio not to return. Dupree took over and started all 11, throwing for 192 (47.8%, 0-3) while finishing as the #2 rusher (645, 3.6). True Fr Aaron Miller won the backup job and threw for 118 (41.7%, 0-3) while rushing for 314 (3.7). Both return as does Thompson (1 pass, 2 rushes) who moves to a WR spot. Dupree now has experience and in the 3rd year of the switch, the production will increase.

RB's - With the transition to the option in '10 and having lost 5 of their top 7 RB's they experimented moving in a pair of WR's and a LB. Terrell Dallas who led in '09 with 357 (3.8), led again with 665 (4.9) earning 2nd Tm SoCon. QB's were #2, #3 and #5 with true frosh Terrance Martin finishing with 220 (5.2). LY the only loss in the Top 5 was QB Martin (#2). Darien Robinson had 100 (3.7) as a true and finished #1 as a soph with 862 (6.3) while QB's were #2 and #4. Rickey Anderson missed all of '09 and half of '10 (108, 6.0) but finished #3 with 498 and a tm high 9.6 ypc while throwing the teams ONLY pass td. TY the Top 6 all return and the unit will flourish.

Rec's - In 2009 Andre Roberts had 77 rec and departed as a #3DC (ARZ). In the first year of the option Dominic Jones led with 12 rec (16.0) followed by Luke Caldwell with 6 (17.3). The top 3 returned LY and Jones was #2 with 5 rec (12.6) while Greg Adams led with 8 rec (11.1) despite only making 1 st. TY they lose 2 players that combined for 15 sts and 11 rec but in this offense those that excel at blocking will see the field.

O-Line - The Bulldogs ret'd 3 starters in 2010 to lead the way for the new offense that opened holes for 207 rush ypg but with only a 3.9 ypc and while they allowed "only" 12 sks, it was 11.2%. LY they lost 2 starters but with another year into the system solid improvement was expected and they delivered as the team rushed for 287 ypg and 5.2 ypc allowing 6 sks (8.0%). TY they lose only 1 starter and the returning anchor is C Mike Sellers who was named 1st Tm SoCon. The Bulldogs finished 3rd in the FCS in rushing behind both of their conference foes so for them to reach the top 2, they'll need to knock of Wofford or Ga Southern.

D-Line - Just 1 starter ret'd in 2010 and under the new coaching staff they overachieved allowing just 12 ypg more (167) with the same ypc (4.3) while getting 6 more sacks (19). LY they lost only 1 starter in a 1st Tm SoCon DE but it was still a disappointment to seem the allow 168 ypg and 4.1 ypc while finishing with 20 sks. Throughout the season they started to introduce a 3-4 D and we'll use that as their base D for TY. They lose 1 starter but return a 2nd Tm SoCon DE and a 1st Tm DT in Derek Douglas but he tore his ACL in March and may miss the opening month. We'll call it down a touch and perhaps much more if Douglas can't return from the inj.

LB's - The LB corps lost their #1 tkl'r from 2009 but ret'd their #4 and #5 plus moved in their SS (#3). One of the returnees lost his starting job and despite returning almost intact allowed 26.9 ppg. LY they ret'd all 3 starters and when lining up with a 4 man unit as they did much of the time Jeremy Buncum (11 st '09, 1 st '10) filled in and made 9 starts. The unit allowed 23.4 ppg the best here since 2001 (18.3). This year they lose 3.5 starters (#1, #2, #4 and #9 tkl'rs) returning only a 6 gm starter (#8 tkl'r) making this by far the team's biggest question mark.

DB's - The secondary was expected to return 3 starters in 2010 but one moved to LB. The secondary improved allowing 48 ypg less in passing but still only finished #92 in pass eff D. They again lost 2 starters LY but that incl CB Cortez Allen (#4DC PIT). They finished an almost identical #91 in the FCS pass eff D. TY they lose 1 starter in E Mich tran Joe Boateng who made 29 sts here the L3Y. They not only return 3 starters but Keith Gamble will fill the void after starting 4 gms LY and 9 gms in '10.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Bulldogs had a solid #32 finish in our ST ranking in 2010 and their only loss was a part-time K (3-5 L/39). Ryan Sellers who was 5-9 (L/47), went 6-12 (L/41) LY while Cass Couey improved his avg from 39.1 to 43.0 and the net from 36.5 to 38.2. The PR and KR's were similar but the ST story of the year and probably decade was a new NCAA record NINE blocks (Middle Tenn '88) with soph Dominic Jones also setting an NCAA single season record with 5 including 3 that were ret'd for td's propelling the Bulldogs to the top of our ST's rankings for 2011!

COACHES - Kevin Higgins returns for his 8th season here in Charleston. Prior to his arrival he spent 4Y with the Detroit Lions as a QB then WR cch. Higgins also spent 13Y at Lehigh incl the L/7 as HC and in his final 3 seasons there he led the Mountain Hawks to 3 straight playoff appearances and a 34-4 record. The Bulldogs had 3 OC's in 3Y but Bob Bodine returns for his 2nd ssn as OC and 3rd overall. He was previously the OL cch at VMI where they led the FCS in rushing in both '08 and '09. Denny Doornbos is in his 3rd ssn here and 1st as DC. He's been a DC at N Ill ('04-'07), Army ('86-'99) and UTEP ('83-'85).

Overview - The 2010 season ended with 7 straight losses prior to winning the finale and the offense managed just 9.5 ppg in conf play. After a loss to Furman in Wk 2 of LY the offense struggled at Elon losing in OT. The Bulldogs came back from a 27-0 deficit to knock of their 1st ranked foe since 2007 but the next week were overmatched against #5 Wofford. They trailed #7 App St 49-14 but never got the ball back after cutting it to 7 with 6:10 left. They learned how to beat overmatched foes winning the next 2 by 28 and 27 and with that confidence held #5 Ga So to 14 pts but could only muster 12 themselves. At 4-5 they jumped out to a 14-0 lead vs Samford but were shutout the final 3Q and after a ssn finale loss to South Carolina, they finished 4-7. The Citadel made huge strides as after getting outscored by 17.5 ppg in conf play in '10, they were outscored by only 3.4 ppg LY and only lost 1 SoCon game by over 7 pts. They've only topped 6 wins once since 1992 and with an upset or two, they could do it again.

ELON PHOENIX

Jason Swepson (Career 5-6)
2nd Year at Elon (5-6)
Elon, North Carolina — Enrollment: 5,916

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After playing in just 7 gms (1 st) in his 1st 2 ssns at Elon, Thomas Wilson (PS#319) was given the starting gig heading into LY. Wilson aired it out early and often as his 3,057 pass yds were good for 1st in the SoCon and 9th in the FCS. Wilson completed 67.9% of his passes but did struggle some with the TO's throwing 21 int's on the ssn (2nd most in FCS). Battling Wilson for the job LY and again for this ssn is former Maryland trans Tyler Smith (PS#36) who hit just 1 of 8 passes LY in mop-up time. Smith missed the spg with inj potentially hurting his chances of overtaking the role.

RB's - The Phoenix ret'd 4 of their top 5 rushers a yr ago incl '10's leader AJ Harris who posted 608 (4.9) and 8 td's. Harris again led Elon but despite seeing his carries increase from 124 in '10 to 145 LY, his numbers dropped to 560 (3.9) with just a single td. Dontay Taylor, the #3 rusher in '10 with just 47 yds, garnered most of the goal line touches earning 9 td's among his 410 rushing yds (3.6). Both depart TY along with #3 rusher Jamal Shuman (81, 3.7) leaving QB Wilson and WR Aaron Mellette as the only 2 players returning who had positive rushing yds a yr ago. The Phoenix are counting on Akron trans Karl Bostick (PS#224) to take over the starting duties while former FB/TE Matt Eastman was shuffled into the unit to help out with depth. This is an area of concern for the Elon offense making Wilson's play in the passing gm even more important for 2012.

Rec's - This unit has produced some quality performers as of late with 3x 1st Tm SoCon honoree Terrell Hudgins moving on following the '09 campaign and current Phoenix WR Aaron Mellette making a name for himself in each of the past 2 ssns. After seeing limited action in Hudgins' final ssn (8 rec), Mellette burst onto the scene in '10 earning 1st Tm SoCon and AA honors with an 1,100 yd (12.8) campaign ranking him 7th in all of the FCS. Mellette answered '10 with an even stronger '11 as he led the entire FCS (#4 Div I) with 1,639 yds (14.5) and 12 td's for a 2nd consec yr. Mellette (1st Tm SoCon & AA) returns again for his Sr ssn and adding depth behind him is Jeremy Peterson (333, 8.5). While the unit does lose 2 other WR's that combined for 47 catches along with their top 2 TE's, with Mellette returning, this unit instantly becomes one of the SoCon's best.

O-Line - After a solid '08 ssn that saw the Phoenix pave the way for 144 ypg (4.1), the unit's rushing numbers have fallen in each of the L3Y incl LY's 102 ypg (3.0) performance (3 st'rs ret). TY things are similar with just 2 st'rs departing in 1st Tm SoCon LT Ned Cuthbertson and C Logan Hardin but both Austin Sowell (RT to LT) and Clay Johnson (RG to C) appear to be making position changes. As long as they are able to handle their new assignments, this unit should improve for the 1st time in 4 ssns in now the 2nd ssn of OC Chris Pincince's tutelage.

D-Line - While on paper it looks like the Phoenix DL has been gouged in each of the L2Y (198 ypg in '10, 191 ypg LY), they are a member of the same conf that featured '11's #1 (Wofford), #2 (Ga Southern) and #3 (The Citadel) rushing tns in the entire FCS as between those 3 squads Elon all'd nearly half of their rush yds (1,022) for the entire ssn. Take those 3 contests out and the Phoenix would have surrendered 135 ypg, a much more manageable number. TY the unit returns intact as 3 of LY's 4 st'rs were able to start all 11 gms. While improved, they obviously have all of the top 3 again on their schedule which won't result in a very big improvement in the overall statistics.

LB's - After all'g an amazing 13.2 ppg in their 9-2 ssn of '09, Elon has given up 27.5 and 32.6 ppg in each of the past 2 ssns with the problems stopping the run. TY the losses are heavy as Elon departs with leading tkl'r (#5 all-time here w/343 career tkls) Joshua Jones, fellow starter Zach Henderson (58 tkl) and part-time st'r Dale Riley (5 st, 22 tkl). Jonathan Spain (37 tkl, Frosh AA) and Odell Benton (14 tkl) combined for 7 sts a yr ago while added to the unit is LY's FS Blake Thompson who finished a distant 2nd on the tm a yr ago with 60 tkls. This is a lightly experienced group that may have some issues improving.

DB's - While all'g just 154 ypg and 49.4% passing looks impressive, a closer look into Elon's secondary of a year ago shows that just 5 of their 11 opponents attempted more than 30+ passes in a gm. Despite that statistic, the Phoenix put together a dismal td/int ratio of 22-8 which was a big reason that they finished just #49 in the pass eff D. TY Elon loses starting CB Jonathan Conner (11 st, 48 tkl, 7 pd) to graduation while FS Thompson slides over to one of the vacant OLB spots. Assuming that the secondary gets a better fix in the td/int ratio, this group has the ability to climb some in the pass eff D.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite losing their top KR, PR and P heading into LY the Phoenix still performed decent in our ST rankings (#65). The lone returning impact player was K Adam Shreiner who after hitting on just 50% of his FG's in '10, hit on 10-15 LY incl 4 in their OT win over The Citadel. After seeing minimal time in '10 (13 att), Kenton Beal took over the punting duties full-time a yr ago finishing with a 38.4 avg (35.8 net) but with 3 of his att's being blk'd. David Wood served double duty in the return gm averaging 19.9 on KR's and 6.3 on PR's. All the key contributors return TY and a climb up our ST rankings isn't out of the realm of possibility.

COACHES - After spending the '07-'10 ssns as the RB cch at NCSt, Jason Swepson took over the HC duties LY guiding the Phoenix to a 5-6 record. Chris Pincince returns for his 2nd yr as OC (previous 3 yrs as OC at Rhode Island) while Ed Pinkham is also back as the DC (DC stops at Rutgers and Colgate prior).

Overview - The schedule wasn't very kind to the Phoenix a yr ago as not only did they battle FBS foe Vanderbilt in the opener (45-14 defeat), Elon also faced 4 SoCon members ranked in the Top 17 of the FCS rankings including 3 straight to close out the ssn. After an OT win over the Citadel, the Phoenix actually jumped out to a 3-1 record before being blasted at home by #1 ranked Ga Southern by a 41-14 score. Elon would go on to lose 3 of their next 4 following their matchup with GSU but would pull out an upset of #17 ranked Furman on the road. With a home finale vs #9 App St determining Elon's winning ssn, the Phoenix jumped out to a 21-0 lead, but dropped a 4-pt heartbreaker to finish at 5-6. TY Elon returns 13 st'rs including AA WR Mellette. While the offense looks to improve upon their 26.5 ppg of a year ago, defense will be the key after they were gashed for 400+ yds in 4 of the final 6 gms.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Zac Brindise RS as a walk-on at South Carolina in '07 and came here in '09 but didn't see any action. In 2010 he started the L/7 games after the #1 QB had a ssn ending inj throwing for 1,405 (55%, 7-9). True frosh Brandon Pechloff (PS#178) also started 2 gms throwing for 357 (36%, 3-7). Both ret'd LY but they went through a change in the offense as HC Dennis Wagner took over as the OC and went to a pistol no-huddle offense. Pechloff started 7 throwing for 1,660 (53.1%, 12-11) while Brindise (808, 54.8%, 6-5) started 4. Pechloff was expected to return before another change in the offense and a new staff (decided to tran). That left them with no exp returning but they did take in Eddie Sullivan (PS#178) who played in 7 gms as a true at Marshall and tran here after not seeing any action LY. Backing him up will be rFr Jawan Simmons (PS#198) who was at NC Tech as well as true frosh Michael Helms (PS#412). They're much less exp'd but clearly a more talented group.

RB's - The unit ret'd their top 2 and 4 of their top 5 in 2010 and Michael Johnson, who was named SoCon Fr POY in '09 (568, 3.8) led the team for a second straight year with 611 (4.0). Nate Harris who had only 86 yds in '09 finished #2 with 342 (4.6) while the QB was 3rd with 77 yds. The unit ret'd intact LY and Johnson slipped to #3 (274, 3.1) making 5 sts as inj's caused him to miss the seasons F/2 and L/2. True Fr Shaun Warren finished #1 (454, 5.0) playing in 10 and starting 4 while JUCO Michael Vaughn was #2 (344, 3.6) in 2 sts. The top 3 return TY and the unit should be healthier and now have loads of experience.

Rec's - In 2010 they returned their top 6 rec sans #2. Cent Mich tran Deja Alexander (PS#386) led with 524 (16.4) while Jacoby Mitchell (PS#340) who made 2 sts in '09 (158, 7.9) started 10 gms finishing #2 with 441 (11.3). Josh Cockrell had 5 rec in '09 and finished #3 (347, 14.5) while Gary Green (PS#392, 345, 11.9) and George Richardson (335, 12.9) were right behind in production. This year they lose 2 players in their top 7 in Cockrell and 3Y starting TE Andrew Rogers (128, 11.6) but with 5 players returning that made starts LY the unit is overall deeper.

O-Line - Despite returning 4 starters in '09 they posted recent lows at 83 ypg and 2.8 ypc. Three starters were back in '10 and the unit had a slight increase to 107 ypg and 3.3 ypc but the sacks slipped to 29. LY they lost just 1 st'r but with the switch in offense they only increased their ypg to 116 while the sacks also increased. While they have another change in the offensive schemes TY they return every OL and they come into the season with 111 career starts. This unit will clearly post numbers better than any in the L7Y.

D-Line - The 4 man front lost 2 starters in 2010 and the numbers were almost identical to the previous year at 204 rush ypg and 4.7 ypc but they did increase their sack total to 23. LY they lost 3 starters and to be polite they were absolutely mauled allowing 334 ypg and 6.2 ypc which was 80 ypg higher than the 2nd worst team. This year they lose 2 starters (3Y starting DE) and 4 players who combined for 11 starts. The new DC has a challenge but it is safe to say the numbers will improve.

LB's - After allowing a 4 year best of 25.9 ppg in '09 they lost their #1 tkl'r but returned 2 starters and fell back to allowing 34.5 ppg. LY they ret'd 2.5 starters as their only loss was their #11 tkl'r who made 6 sts. Despite the experience they unfortunately were last in the FCS in scoring D allowing 45.6 ppg. This year they lose 1 starter (7 st, #11 tkl'r) but in the new 4-2-5 D we limit the secondary to 4 players and we'll incl Ace Clark here meaning they return their #1, #2, #4 and #7 tklr's for the 3 open spots.

DB's - It's been a senior laden group and all 4 starters departed in '10 and the team finished #95 in the pass eff D rankings. LY they again were basically depleted as they returned 1 player that made 5 sts and they dropped even further finishing #110 with an 18-5 ratio. This year they lose 1 starter but we also moved another to our LB write-up so 2 starters are back. They also return De'Von Richardson who RS here LY after starting 9 gms at Navy in '10. Much like the entire D, there's only one way to go.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Catamounts finished #86 in our 2010 ST rankings. They had to replace their K (4-8, L/40) and Clark Sechrest went 4-7 (L/51). Blake Cain was consistent at punting as LY's numbers (38.8, 35.3 net) where almost identical to '10's (39.3, 35.5 net). Deja Alexander saw his PR numbers slide from 7.5 to 5.9 while George Richardson took over the KR duties and bettered '10's top guy (20.1) by avg 27.3. The unit finished #72 LY and does have to replace their punter but still has a chance to break into the upper half of our rankings.

COACHES - After a 4Y run with an 8-37 record a coaching change was made. Mark Speir started here in 1991 and spent 6 seasons as an asst. He's been a SoCon asst since 2000 with 3Y at Elon and the L/9 at App St where he was a DE cch in '09 and '10 and an ILB cch LY. New OC Brad Glenn also came from App St spending the L7Y there with the L/3 as QB cch. New DC Curtis Walker held the same position at Coastal Carolina for the L10Y.

Overview - The opener went as expected with a loss to GT but Western did top 300 yds. The offense exploded vs DII Mars Hill with a school record 45 1H pts and the team snapped a 7 gm losing streak. A road trip to #1 Ga Southern saw the off gain 380 yds but the D all'd 694 in a 32 pt loss and the next week they trailed Furman 33-7 before gaining 183 yds over their L/3 drives. They scored with 4:05 left to tie Elon at 31 but allowed a late TD for the season's only loss by less then 18 pts. After the loss to Chattanooga the defense really fell apart as they allowed 27 FD/gm over the final 5. Down the stretch the losses were by 28, 28, 18, 32 and 24 pts. The most important job for the new coaches will be to instill a positive attitude which may be difficult with 6 straight losing seasons but the fans in Cullowhee deserve credit as despite the lack of success they still avg'd 6,610 fans per game. It'll be a process but there's clearly more talent here then LY's numbers show.

PHIL'S 2012 SOUTHERN FORECAST

1. WOFFORD - In 2009, the Terriers had their first losing season in 8 years but ret'd to their winning ways in '10. They were 6-0 in conf play but with an outright title on the line lost to App St by 30. They still shared the SoCon Title and made their 3rd playoff appearance in 4 years but lost the rematch vs Georgia Southern. The Terriers outgained conf opp by a league-best 130.9 ypg which was 41.8 ypg more than #2 Chattanooga. Last year they ret'd 12 st'rs and 68.3% of their lettermen including the SoCon DPOY DE Ameet Pall. They led the FCS in rushing in '10 (298 ypg) and ret'd 3 of their top 4 rushers incl AA FB Eric Breitenstein. They again led the FCS in rushing (365 ypg) and were #1 in the conf at +97.8 ypg (6.5 better than #2 GSU) but they were tied for #2 in ppg (8.9) behind #1 GSU (15.0). As expected they beat GSU and lost to App St, while a 26-21 loss to Furman cost them a share of a 2nd straight SoCon Crown. They still earned their 2nd straight playoff berth but despite a 240 yd edge, lost to #2 UNI 28-21. This year they ret 15 st'rs incl 2x AA FB Breitenstein which is t-#2 in the conf behind only Chattanooga and also a conf best 73.4% of their lettermen. This year looks again to be a 3 horse race with Chattanooga coming up on the outside. While they play at both App St & GSU, the road team has won 7 straight in the GSU series and they also host Chattanooga & Furman. That has us calling for the Terriers to win at least a share of their 2nd SoCon crown in the past 3 years.

2. GEORGIA SOUTHERN - The Eagles switched back to their famed option offense in '10 and with the addition of Georgia Tech transfer QB Jaybo Shaw (PS#57), saw it pay dividends. They started the season just 4-4 but after winning their L/3 reg season gms, including an upset of #1 App St in OT, made their first playoffs s/'05. They won 3 straight including beating W&M and Wofford on the road but lost to Delaware in the semi-finals. Despite the upset of App St they were still just 5-3 in conf play as they outgained conf opp by 51.9 ypg (4th best). LY they led the SoCon with 20 ret st'rs incl all 11 on offense. As we predicted they started the ssn 7-0 but they lost to App St and 3 gms later lost to future FBS Champ Alabama. They still won the outright SoCon crown and were ranked #3 into the playoffs. They got by 2 CAA tms in ODU & Maine but were shutdown by future FCS Champ NDSU, losing 35-7. While they were 7-1 in conf play and were a conf best +15.0 ppg, they were #2 in the conf at +91.3 ypg (6.5 behind Wofford) and 2 of their wins were by a comb 3 pts. GSU lost 2 All-SoCon players over the summer and return just 13 st'rs which is tied with 3 other teams for the fewest in the conf but they ret 67.5% of their lettermen which is 3rd in the conf but must replace QB Shaw. GSU hosts both App St & Wofford but must face Chattanooga on the road, who they only beat by 1 LY at home (stopped 2pt conv).

3. APPALACHIAN ST - The Mountaineers have had 18 straight winning seasons and while they have made 7 straight playoff appearances incl winning 3 straight FCS Championships ('05-'07), they had a streak of 6 years of 10+ wins end last yr and have not made the Championship game since '07. Last year they had to replace 3 NFL DC's but ret'd 12 starters and 71.2% of their lettermen including AA QB DeAndre Presley, their top RB and top WR. In what looked to be a 3 horse race App St lost on the road at Wofford and while they beat GSU, at home the next week they were upset by Furman and missed out on a share of the SoCon Crown. They still were ranked #9 and got an at-Large bid to the playoffs but lost 34-21 at home vs #13 Maine. While they finished 3rd in the conf at +71.0 ypg LY which was 20.3 behind #2 GSU that was 65.2 in front of #4 Furman. This year they lose Presley but he was injured last year and after returning, lost his job ending the season playing WR/CB. They return 13 st'rs which is tied with 3 other teams for fewest in the conf and ret just 58.2% of their lettermen. Appalachian St hosts Wofford but travels to both GSU & Chattanooga and while they should make their 8th straight playoff appearance, we will call for them to miss a share of the SoCon crown for a 2nd straight season.

4. CHATTANOOGA - Last year the Mocs were off their first back-to-back winning seasons since '90-'91 as their 5 SoCon wins in '10 were their most since '85. The Mocs outgained conf foes by 89.1 ypg in '10, which was 2nd best in the SoCon. LY HC Huesman and both coordinators ret'd for their 3rd ssns but the Mocs ret'd just 13 st'rs and had to replace NFL DC CB Buster Skrine. After an expected loss to Nebraska, they upset #10 Jax St but after beating EKU and being ranked #13, lost to #3 App St by 2, The Citadel by 1 and #1 GSU by 1 the next 3 gms. They later lost to Furman by 7 and with a 3rd straight winning ssns on the line, lost to #13 Wofford by 1 in the ssn finale. They were -17.4 ypg which was 3rd worst in the conf but were +8.9 ppg which was tied with Wofford for #2. They were -5 in net close wins as while their 3 conf wins were by an avg of 27.6 ppg, their 5 conf losses were by an avg of 2.4 ppg. While they lose former Tenn tran QB BJ Coleman (PS#65), he was inj'd part of the ssn and they ret SoCon FOY QB Terrell Robinson and will be shifting to a slightly different spread where the QB runs more much like FBS member Northern Illinois, who hosted the UTC cch's to assist in the switch over. The Moc's return a conf best 16 st'rs and 69.2% (#3) of their lettermen. They should get a few more breaks TY and we will call for them to have another winning conf rec.

5. SAMFORD - The Bulldogs came into LY with 6 losing seasons over the previous 7 yrs and had won just 2 conf gms in '10, their fewest since joining the SoCon in '08. However despite a 2-6 conf rec in '10, they were only outgained by 5.4 ypg in conf play (6th best). Last year they returned just 11 starters and 66.7% of their lettermen, both 2nd fewest in the conf. They also brought in a first time OC and switched to a "fast-paced offense." They improved slightly as they were only outgained by 2.0 ypg in conf play (5th) and improved to 4-4 in conf play defeating the bottom 4 tms while losing to the top 4. This year they ret 15 st'rs (tied 2nd most) but lose a 41 gm starter in QB Taliaferro who leaves with a school career record 707 completions. They have the potential to start the ssn 4-0 but then face the top 4 conf tms and Kentucky in their final 7 gms and will need an upset or 2 in those game to improve on LY's record.

6. FURMAN - In '10 Furman missed the playoffs for a 4th straight year and 9 year HC Bobby Lamb (67-40) stepped down after 29 yrs at Furman as a player and cch. LY they brought in Vandy DC Bruce Fowler, who was a former Furman DC. They also brought in a new DC and OC, but 17 yr OC Tim Sorrells was retained as asst HC. The cupboards were far from bare as they ret'd 14 st'rs (4th most SoCon) and 76.3% of their lettermen (2nd most). While they slipped a little on both sides of the ball where pts were concerned, they improved their offensive yds and were 4th in the conf at +5.8 ypg going 5-3 in conf play incl upsetting both #5 Wofford and #3 Appalachian St. This year the Paladins must replace former UCLA transfer QB Chris Forcier (PS#14) and ret just 13 st'rs which is tied for fewest in the conf and 64.9% of their lettermen. They host both The Citadel & WCU after beating both on the road LY which should keep them out of the cellar but must travel to both Samford and Elon along with App St & Wofford who will both be looking for a little revenge as their losses to Furman cost both a share of the SoCon Title. While they will be in the 2nd yr of their systems, they are less exp'd and will likely take a step back this year.

7. THE CITADEL - The Bulldogs have had 7 losing seasons in the last 8 yrs including 4 straight with just 4 wins or less. In 2010 they switched from a spread to a triple option offense and lost 23 fumbles which was a big part of their poor record as they won both gms they had a positive TO margin in. They were outgained by 97.6 ypg in conf play (3rd worst). Their only conf win was by 1 pt at Samford in the season finale. LY they ret'd 15 st'rs which was 2nd most in the conf and their most in 7 yrs. They went from -13 to just -3 in TO's and were "only" outgained by 61.8 ypg but that was 2nd worst, 44.7 ypg behind #7. While they were #3 in the FCS in rushing off (which was also #3 in the conf), they were dead last in passing off with just 354 yds for the entire ssn. They did improve to 2 conf wins beating WCU by 28 and upsetting #15 Chattanooga on the road by 1 and 4 of their conf losses were by 7 pts or less including coming up 2 pts short of defeating SoCon Champ Georgia Southern. TY they enter the 3rd ssn of the offense and have ret'd 15 st'rs including 9 on offense but just 61.3% of their lettermen. They ret their top 6 rushers but lose 4 of their top 5 (incl top 3) tkl'rs. They host both Elon & WCU along with Chattanooga but face both Samford & Furman on the road meaning they will need to pull an upset in order to improve their conf record and get a 3rd conf win which they have not had since '07.

7. ELON - The Phoenix won their last 4 gms in '10 to finish 6-5, their 4th straight winning season. They had only lost to '10's co-champs App St and Wofford by a comb 10 pts and beat a ranked Chattanooga by 14. They were -45.4 ypg (5th) in conf play but then lost HC Pete Lembo (35-22), who took the HC job at Ball St. LY they ret'd just 10 st'rs and 58.2% of their lettermen which were both the fewest in the SoCon. They had new schemes on both sides of the ball but still had a shot at another winning season but lost the ssn finale 28-24 to #8 App St to finish 5-6. They did have 4 close wins incl all 3 of their conf wins including getting by The Citadel in OT at home. TY they ret just 13 st'rs (tied fewest) along with 64.2% of their lettermen. While they host Furman & WCU they must travel to The Citadel and Chattanooga and may take a slight step back this year.

8. WESTERN CAROLINA - The Catamounts last winning season was in 2005 when they were 5-4 incl 4-3 in conf play. Since then they are just 3-43 in SoCon play incl 0-8 LY. After being outgained by a conf worst 163.5 ypg in '10, they switched to a pistol offense and they improved overall with 16 st'rs back (+39 ypg in conf play), but were again a conf worst at -178.9 ypg. They were outscored by a conf worst 26.9 ppg in conf play as while they only lost to Elon by 7, all their other conf losses were by 18+ pts. They also continued to struggle with TO's as after being -11 in '09 and -12 in '10, they were -11 LY. This year they are in the middle of the pack (t-4th) as they ret 14 st'rs but have a new HC who is again switching the offense which cost them as QB Pechloff (7 st LY) decided to transfer leaving them very inexperienced. The Catamounts appear headed for another tough ssn as they face both teams (Elon & Citadel) that finished right above them LY on the road and they have a lot of ground to make up with the rest of the SoCon.

Willie Fritz (Career 156-58-1)
3rd Year at Sam Houston State (20-6)
Huntsville, Texas — Enrollment: 17,618

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Brian Bell (PS#272) made an immediate impact for SHSU as a true frosh coming in during the 2nd gm of the ssn and starting the final 9 in '10 throwing for 1,381 yds (54%, 7-4) with an additional 269 (3.8) on the ground. Bell was the clear-cut starter heading into LY earning 2nd Tm SLC and guiding his team to the FCS Championship game (2069, 58.8%, 20-7). Spelling Bell and earning a start vs UTSA was PS#155 Greg Sprowls who struggled in that contest hitting just 7-18. RFr Chris Grett is expected to land the backup role TY with the graduation of Sprowls but also keep an eye on PS#262 true frosh Don King who joins the team in fall. Bell now enters his 3rd year as the starter and should have no problem surpassing LY's solid numbers with the arsenal of weapons around him.

RB's - Kansas St tran Tim Flanders (PS#85) arrived in Huntsville in Aug of '10 and immediately paid dividends with 948 rush yds (5.5, 13 td) and setting the school record with seven 100 yd gms in the process (1st Tm SLC). The top 5 rushers ret'd LY including Flanders who had a full offseason to get acclimated to his new team. Flanders would explode for SHSU as a soph finishing 3rd in ttl rush yds (1644, 5.5) and 2nd in rush td's (22) in the FCS while earning SLC POY and various AA honors. WR Richard Sincere was used as the "Wild Bearkat" and in fly-sweep roles and nearly eclipsed the 1,000 yd rush mark himself falling just 21 yds short (7.6 ypc). SHSU has its top 7 rushers returning this year and should be one of the most elite groups in the FCS.

Rec's - The Bearkats were expected to return their top 8 receivers LY but '10's leader, Seth Patterson didn't make it back onto the roster in the fall. Kevin Matthews was #2 in '10 with 274 (13.7) but he too was virtually absent playing in just 5 and not recording a catch. Richard Sincere and Torrance Williams emerged as the 2 primary targets in the passing game combining for 935 yds and 7 td's while RB Flanders finished 3rd with 414 yds. Seven of the top 8 are expected back for the upcoming ssn with the only losses being WR's Grant Merritt (6 st, 49, 9.8), Keith Blanton (9 st, 241, 17.2) and Brandon Closner (62, 31.0). This is a very upperclassmen-heavy group that should continue to find success.

O-Line - SHSU has seen its rushing numbers increase each of the past 3 seasons including LY when they paved the way for the FCS's #6 rush attack (256 ypg, 5.5) while all'g 11 sks (4.0%). TY the Bearkats lose two 1st Tm SLC and All-American starters in C Travis Watson and LG Chris Crockett. The cupboard isn't bare however as the unit has 79 career starts returning led by three year starter and 2nd Tm SLC OT Kaleb Hopson. However, after last year's stellar numbers, a drop of a notch or two could be in the offing.

D-Line - In '10 this unit lost all 4 st'rs incl a 2nd Tm SLC DE. They did return 3 players who earned starting time in '09 and shockingly saw their numbers improve to 100 ypg (3.4, #8 FCS). While 3 st'rs ret'd to the unit LY, it was tough to believe that they would improve again. The group responded to hold opp's to an amazing 73 ypg (2.6), #1 in the FCS and #2 in all of Div I behind FBS National Champ Alabama. Things look just as bright for this group again as the only lose DE Eddie DeCambre (8 st, 31 tkl, 7 tfl) and reserve DE EJ Nduka (6 tkl, 2 tfl) while bringing back one 1st Tm SLC and AA DT and two 2nd Tm SLC honorees. It's almost a lock for this group to drop some in rush defense TY, right?

LB's - SHSU went back to a 4-2-5 defense in '09 (we list the WS with this unit) and after all'g 33.7 ppg in the 1st year of the conversion, the group ret'd 2 st'rs in '10 and cut the ppg to 23.4. LY with a ferocious front 4 and all 3 st'rs back to the unit, the Bearkats improved again all'g just 14.9 ppg which was #2 in the FCS behind the tm SHSU lost to in the FCS Championship, North Dakota St (12.7 ppg). While the unit is forced to part with 2 st'rs in 1st Tm SLC Will Henry (15 st, #4 tkl'r, 12 tfl) and HM SLC Kash David (15 st, 71 tkl, 12 tfl), the group returns leading tkl'r and SLC DPOY WS Darnell Taylor (10 tfl) and a pair of LB's who saw ample time a year ago without a start in HM SLC Darius Taylor (#3 tkl'r, 9 tfl) and Eric Fieilo (56 tkl, 10 tfl). With a continued presence from the front 4 ahead of them, this group should flourish yet again.

DB's - With a solid front 7 in front of them, it was no surprise that the opposition used the passing gm in an attempt to move the ball. The secondary (3 ret st'rs) answered by cutting their pass ypg all'd from 261 (50%) in '10 (47th in the NCAA's PDR) to an outstanding 207 ypg all'd (50.1%) LY improving their ratio from 18-9 in '10 to 16-23 and ranking them 4th in the FCS in PDR (23 int were #1 FCS). All 4 st'rs return (99 car sts) this year including one 1st Tm SLC and two 2nd Tm SLC honorees, plus they add in Boise tran Quaylon Ewing-Burton making this again one of the best in the FCS.

SPECIAL TEAMS - SHSU finished with our #23 ranking LY but a repeat performance may be difficult as they are forced to make a slew of changes with the graduations of K Craig Alaniz (12-13 FG LY) and RS Brandon Closner who led the Bearkats in both KR (23.3) and PR (7.4) LY. The only remaining contributor from '11 is Australian P Matt Foster who earned 2nd Tm SLC with a 40.2 avg (36.2 net) and Miguel Antonio (31-54 career FG). Now a Sr, he will be given a chance to retake the role (5-12 last year).

COACHES - HC Willie Fritz enters his third season with the Bearkats and has done an excellent job since coming over from C Mizzou including last year's FCS Championship appearance that helped him earn both SLC and AFCA COY. DC Scott Stoker was the HC at Northwestern St from 2002-2008 (43-38) and returns for his 4th year. The new OC for '12 is Doug Ruse who spent the L/2 years in the same capacity at Western Illinois.

Overview - The unranked the Bearkats wasted no time getting their championship run started with wins over W Illinois and a 21 pt upset of #18 Central Arkansas to move up to #20 in the polls. SHSU then went on the road to knock off FBS foe NM in OT and followed that up with a win over UTSA (QB Bell out w/inj) and blowouts of SFA and Nicholls St to move into the Top 10. After a 24 pt win over McNeese St, the Bearkats wiped out Lamar, SEL and NWSt by a combined 147-26 to move to #2. A win over Texas St secured an undefeated regular ssn (only tm in FCS to make it through unscathed) and the #1 seed heading into the playoffs. After a come-from-behind 7 pt win over #22 Stony Brook, the Bearkats got past Big Sky foes Montana St (#7) and Montana (#5) to get to the Title game. In a defensive battle that saw just 445 ttl yds combined, SHSU's magical ssn came to an end in a 17-6 defeat. Things look bright for the Bearkats again in '12 however as they have 16 returning starters incl 8 from LY's suffocating defense (#3 in FCS). SHSU outscored their opp's by a 37-15 avg so there is definitely some margin for error but another playoff berth should be on the horizon.

JC Harper (Career 29-30)
6th Year at Stephen F Austin (29-30)
Nacogdoches, Texas — Enrollment: 12,954

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After playing sparingly as a rFr in '10 Brady Attaway was given his opportunity LY and took full advantage of it passing for 3,181 (60.4%) and earning HM SLC honors. One thing that Attaway must improve on is his tendency to throw in traffic as he led the FCS in int's with 22. Backup Dalton Williams (257, 63.6%, 3-0) moves on via graduation opening the #2 role up to either Joe Minden or converted WR Tyler Boyd who pulled in 7 catches as a true LY and may move back to WR if Minden nails down the job. Attaway has the potential to shine again in the SLC assuming he is able to cut down on his mistakes.

RB's - Jeremy Barnes switched from DB in the spg of '10 and ended up finishing as the #2 rusher with 337 yds (3.2). He returned LY along with #3 rusher Keith Lawson (311, 5.5) and wound up leading SFA with 491 (5.0) while Lawson finished #3 yet again (354, 6.0), 2 yds short of #2 Fred Ford (PS#196, 356, 5.5). Along with LY's #4 rusher Gus Johnson (PS#147, 194, 4.3), the unit returns intact and should improve the running game for a 2nd consec yr.

Rec's - LY the Lumberjacks returned their top 6 receivers led by the trio of 1st Tm SLC & 2nd Tm AA Cordell Roberson (1011, 16.6, 16 td), 1st Tm SLC Gralyn Crawford (981, 13.3) and HM SLC Kris Lott (616, 14.3). Roberson (794, 12.6, 1st Tm SLC), Crawford (780, 10.8, 2nd Tm SLC) and Lott (362, 11.7) again finished as the top 3 while Marquis Mosley (356, 8.5) and Ryan Gambel (333, 11.9) chipped in with a combined 70 catches of their own. TY the unit again returns its top 6. With Attaway now in his 2nd year behind center, expect increased productivity out of this group and potentially a repeat performance of their '10 showing.

O-Line - In '10 the OL unit was forced to replace a 1st Tm SLC LT and a 2nd Tm C and saw their numbers dip from 125 ypg (4.3) in '09 to a miniscule 80 ypg (3.2). Everyone returned LY (93 car sts) making it one of the most experienced groups in the FCS. Increased production was expected and achieved as the unit paved the way for 121 ypg (4.3) while allowing a recent best 5 sks (0.9%) which tied for best in the FCS. Four st'rs return TY with the only losses being 1st Tm SLC and AA LT George Bias and reserve Willie Watkins (9 gm). Proj starting LT Corey Dickerson was an 11 gm st'r in '10 before being knocked out LY after 5 sts. Three of the five on the line have received some kind of SLC honor in their careers and a repeat showing of '11 should be in the making.

D-Line - The Lumberjack DL has a knack for getting to the QB and LY was no exception as they led the FCS in sks with a whopping 48 led by 5 players who ret'd with starting experience incl 3 st'rs. The ring leader in the sack brigade was surprisingly a non-starter in Baylor tran Willie Jefferson (PS#112) who recorded an conf best 15 earning conf SLC Newcomer of the Yr and 1st Tm SLC honors. While Jefferson didn't start, he received plenty of action on passing downs for Jacob Fincher (45 tkl) who saw most of his action against the run. This year 2nd Tm SLC DE Malcolm Mattox (35 tkl, 7 sk) slides inside to the vacated spot left by DT Weekendfer Saurit (11 st, 29 tkl, 9.5 tfl) while Fincher graduated. The unit technically returns 2 st'rs if you want to leave Jefferson out of the equation but after all'g 127 and 129 ypg rushing in each of the L2Y, expect that number to improve as the sack numbers continue to mount.

LB's - SFA ret'd all 3 st'rs in '10 including their AA Jabara Williams. Over they 3 yr span of '08-'10 the unit saw their ppg go from 39.6 to 22.8 to 19.5 in Williams' Sr campaign. LY the unit had to replace their star (#7DC) but ret'd 2 who had 47 car sts between them in Derrick Choice and Devin Ducote. PS#226 Ryan Epperson took over the role vacated by Williams and delivered a 2nd Tm SLC showing as he led SFA in tkls with 113 although the tm did allow 24.9 ppg, their worst since '08. TY the losses are heavy as both HM SLC LB's Choice (46 tkl, 10 tfl) and Ducote (97 tkl, 8.5 tfl) both depart along with Romeo Robinson (18 tkl). The unit does return some solid depth including TCU tran Justin Isadore (PS#140, 12 tkl) and could see some improvement TY despite the losses.

DB's - SFA had to replace 1 starter heading into '10 and put together a solid performance finishing with the NCAA's #45 PDR (209 ypg, 61%, 18-10). The group again had to replace just 1 starter LY and finished eerily similar with the #47 ranking despite all'g 32 ypg less passing (61%, 15-10). TY the situation is the same yet again as starting CB and former Texas tran Ben Wells (PS#25, HM SLC) departs and the other 3 return after each earning HM SLC LY. There is some solid talent in this group giving them an excellent chance to improve yet again.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After a solid #48 finish LY the Lumberjacks return nearly everyone in '12 as the only departure is 4Y punter Drew Nelson who avg 41.5 in '11 with a 36.3 tm net. The SFA coaching staff is hoping that true frosh Nick Bruno will take over the reigns once he arrives in the summer. If Bruno is unable to handle the duties look for K Jordan Wiggs to serve in double capacity TY for the Lumberjacks. Wiggs earned HM SLC as a true frosh LY hitting on 17-24 FG's. The return duties will again be under the supervision of Gralyn Crawford who earned AA honors with his marks of 23.7 on KR and 13.5 on PR. As long as the unit gets some consistency at P, an upper half finish in our ST's ranking should be feasible.

COACHES - HC JC Harper enters his 6th ssn with the Lumberjacks and has now posted winning records in each of the L3Y. The DC is David Gibbs who enters his 5th year here while SFA has a new OC for a 2nd straight year in Richard Olin. Olin has been one of the most successful HS HC's in the state of Texas with 11 state playoff appearances in his 18 year stint.

Overview - After knocking off former FBS HC Hal Mumme and his Div III school McMurry, 82-6, the Lumberjacks went on a 5 game losing streak against much tougher opponents including FBS foe Baylor and a pair of highly ranked FCS tms in Northern Iowa (#4) and Sam Houston St (#11). Staring down a losing ssn at 1-5, HC Harper and company rattled off 5 consec victories to finish with a 3rd straight winning campaign outscoring those L/5 opponents by an avg score of 45-14. Things look promising for a 4th consec winning yr for SFA as they return 16 st'rs (10 on offense) and 53 lettermen.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Cody Stroud saw 2 spot starts as a rFr for MSU passing for 586 yds (57%, 3-4). He beat out North Texas tran Riley Dodge (PS#6) for the starting gig LY and while he put up over 2,000 yds (60.8%), his 9-10 ratio left something to be desired. Dodge battled a injury to his throwing shoulder during his time with the Mean Green that even saw him move to WR for a period. He wasn't 100% healthy here either and played sparingly (25 pass att) in '11 and decided to move on following the ssn with a yr of eligibility remaining. The backup role behind Stroud TY appears to be a 2-man battle between a pair of rFr in Tyler Bolfing and Garrett McCain. Stroud should see his productivity increase in his 2nd full season as the starter but if an injury occurs, there is no real answer and this group would struggle.

RB's - MSU received a nice upgrade at this position in '10 with the tran of Andre Anderson (PS#139) from Mich St. All Anderson did in his inaugural campaign with the Cowboys was rush for 855 yds (5.0) while earning tm MVP and 1st Tm SLC in the process. The top 3 rushers (Anderson, Marcus Wiltz and Champlain Babin) all returned again LY although Anderson saw his carries and yardage drop (618, 4.0), he still earned 1st Tm SLC for a 2nd consec ssn. WR Darius Carey finished 2nd on the tm in rushing (330, 6.3) being used on sweeps and reverses. Wiltz (311, 5.0) and Babin (158, 3.4) finished 3rd and 4th respectively and return to battle for the starting role alongside Javaris Murray (74, 3.9) who came away with the #1 spot after spg. No matter who takes over the starting role, this unit will drop a few notches with the loss of its star.

Rec's - Despite returning just 2 of their top 5 receivers LY the Cowboys got an injection of talent with the additions of North Texas tran Darius Carey and Texas Tech tran Ernest Celestie (PS#135). Carey quickly became one the more dangerous weapons in the conf with 1,406 all-purp yds including 487 yds on 42 receptions. Celestie wasn't as productive finishing 3rd tm with 261 (10.4) with Wes Briscoe sandwiched in between with 380 yds and an outstanding 22.4 ypc. The 7 top rec's return including former East Carolina tran TE Josh Jordan (163, 13.6) making this one of the better units in the SLC.

O-Line - After putting together an outstanding ypc mark of 5.6 and 218 ypg in '09 despite having to replace 4 st'rs (3 All-SLC), the Cowboys returned 4 heading into '10 but surprisingly saw their numbers dip all the way down to 154 ypg (3.8). LY they were expected to return 3 st'rs to the unit but 1st Tm SLC RG Miguel Gauthreaux was lost prior to the ssn with inj. Without their star, the unit dropped a bit further as they paved the way for 148 ypg (3.7) but all'd an abysmal 37 sks (11.2%). The Cowboys return all 5 st'rs TY (112 car st) along with Gauthreaux who received a MedRS. It will be extremely hard to find a group as experienced as this one and they should post their best numbers since at least '09.

D-Line - In '10 the MSU DL ret'd all 4 st'rs incl 1st Tm SLC DT Desmund Lighten. The unit cut their number (160, 4.2 in '09) all the way down to 113 ypg (3.5) as Lighten earned 1st Tm SLC again but was the only returning st'r heading into LY. As expected, the numbers dropped some to 137 ypg (3.8) and the D totaled 13 sks. This year they lose Lighten (#4 tkl'r, 9 tfl, 3x 1st Tm SLC) and DT Justin Breaux (11 st, 24 tkl). Three return with starting exp incl HM SLC DT Pat Williams but with the loss of their star, they may drop a notch or two.

LB's - The Cowboys run a 4-2-5 D but we limit our secondary write-ups to 4 st'rs so we'll include the BS here. Despite losing their #1 tkl'r for 3 straight ssns in '09, MSU actually improved their ppg all'd from 29.3 to 27.3. In '10 they lost one st'r but ret'd another from inj and improved again to 24.9 ppg. LY they were forced to replace 2 st'rs but despite those losses, the numbers barely dropped as the Cowboys gave up 25.1 ppg. All 3 st'rs return TY with the only loss being Kentrell Butler (3 st, #5 tkl'r) and Eric Papion (15 tkl). This is a very solid group with a ton of potential and improvement should be expected.

DB's - The MSU secondary ret'd all 4 st'rs in '10 but still saw their numbers slip from '09's 199 ypg (59%) to 230 ypg (61%). The leader of the unit is Malcolm Bronson who has now earned 1st Tm SLC each of the past 3 ssns incl LY when the Cowboys ret'd 3 st'rs and rebounded to allow 194 ypg (57.1%, 18-15) and finish with the NCAA's #41 ranked PDR. The departures are heavy TY as MSU loses 1st Tm SLC WS Darrell Jenkins (11 st, #2 tkl'r, 9 pd), FS Brandon Robinson (5 st, 32 tkl) and CB's London Durham (7 st, 11 tkl) and Janzen Jackson (3 st, 34 tkl). It will be interesting to see how much of an impact Bronson makes with the lack of help beside him.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Cowboys had all of their key pieces return to this unit LY which saw them climb all the way up to #34 in our rankings. KR Champlain Babin (23.0), PR Darius Carey (16.9, led SLC, #2 in FCS) and K Josh Lewis (11-18 FG's LY, 1st Tm SLC '10) all return in attempt to repeat LY's fine performance with only P Ben Bourgeois (35.9 avg) being a roster casualty. Coaches are expecting true frosh PS#54 Jean Breaux to take over the punting duties once he joins the team over the summer. This is a steady performing group that will need to increase their productivity to deliver another Top 40 finish.

COACHES - HC Matt Viator took over after 4 gms in '06 and has led the Cowboys to a 45-20 record and 3 SLC Championships. The DC is Mike Collins while Tim Leger takes over the sole responsibilities as OC after sharing the duties with Broderick Fobbs in recent ssns.

Overview - Viator's 1st full ssn ('07) was the highlight of his tenure so far with the Cowboys as they finished 11-1. MSU has posted 6 consec winning ssns but the last 2 years have been close, finishing 6-5 in each. After getting trounced in the opener against FBS foe Kansas, the Cowboys rattled off 3 straight victories including a 2 pt win over NWSt, a game in which they stopped a 2 pt conv in the 4Q. MSU would then blow a 4Q lead vs Texas St, lose by a FG to Central Arkansas and get blown out by Sam Houston St and Stephen F. Austin during a 4 gm losing streak. Staring down a losing ssn, the Cowboys were able to rattle off 3 straight wins to close out the ssn incl a 3 pt win over UTSA. MSU has two of the more exciting players in the SLC in Darius Carey and Malcolm Bronson but they may be fighting again late in the year to deliver a 7th straight winning season.

CENTRAL ARKANSAS BEARS

Clint Conque (Career 89-51)
13th Year at Central Arkansas (89-51)
Conway, Arkansas — Enrollment: 13,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - UCA has been a pit stop for many former Arkansas QB's including Zak Clark (2002, 2004 - #4 career passer here) and Nathan Dick (PS#42) who finished 3rd on UCA's all-time list thanks in part to a 3,275 yd (64.2%, 32-9) performance a yr ago earning him 1st Tm SLC and AA honors. Spelling Dick LY was Wynrick Smothers who threw for 374 yds (49.2%) while earning a start against Arkansas St for an inj'd Dick. TY Smothers battles yet another Razorback tran in Jacoby Walker (PS#36) who played sparingly in his 2 ssns in Fayetteville. Smothers will be given an opportunity to fight for the starting gig but with the recent history at the position, expect Walker to be under center in the ssn opener.

RB's - UCA lost its top 3 rushers from '09 and leading returnee, Houston tran Jackie Hinton (127, 6.3) found himself splitting carries with Terence Bobo who DNP in '09. Bobo (PS#252) rushed for 436 (4.2) with 9 td's earning 2nd Tm SLC while Hinton finished #2 (349, 4.5). Both returned LY with Hinton winning the job and leading the team with 673 (4.6). Bobo finished 3rd with 276 (3.7) while Anthony Blackmon was #2 with 302 (4.3). All 3 return TY and with the inexperience at the QB position, expect their numbers to climb.

Rec's - After losing 5 of their top 7 rec heading into '10, the Bears ret'd 6 of the top 7 LY with the only loss being leading WR Kenneth Robey (809, 11.4). UCA saw 5 different players record 300+ rec yds led by Ole Miss tran Jesse Grandy who pulled in 788 yds (16.1) along with 9 td's (2nd Tm SLC) and HM SLC Dominique Croom (518, 13.6). Three of the those 5 return and added to the mix is Oklahoma tran TE Austin Haywood (PS#24) who RS here LY. This group has plenty of potential but their production will depend on the development of a solid QB.

O-Line - After averaging 175 ypg (4.7) on the ground in '09, this unit has tailed off the past 2 ssns allowing identical 119 rush ypg (3.7) in each. The Bears are led by 1st Tm SLC and AA RT Dominique Allen but return just 2 st'rs. Logan Roubique (2nd Tm SLC, 15 car sts), Matt Dickerson (24 car sts), Joe Lehocky (17 car sts) and Brad Jakel (17 car sts) all depart. Despite the less than fulfilling numbers each of the L2Y, it may be difficult to improve with the lack of experience in the starting rotation.

D-Line - The Bears all'd a recent best 100 rush ypg (3.0) in '09 but haven't found the same mojo in each of the L2Y as they surrendered 141 rush ypg (3.9) in '10 and an even worse 154 rush ypg (4.1) a ssn ago as they lost 1st Tm SLC and 6th RD DC Markell Carter. While losses are not nearly as heavy entering '12 with 3 ret st'rs, the Bears do have to part with 1st Tm SLC DE Jermayne Lett (#6 tkl'r, 17.5 tfl). UCA does have Texas Tech, Tennessee and Buffalo transfers within their 2 deep and improvement should be in the forecast after a pair of disappointing ssns.

LB's - With the struggles in stopping the run the last 2 ssns it's no surprise that the ppg all'd increased as well. LY they lost just 1 st'r (#2 tkl'r) but still struggled all'g 28.7 ppg, more than a td more from '10 and 11 ppg more than '09. TY they lose #2 tkl'r Frank Newsome (HM SLC, 11 st, 12.5 tfl) and part-time starter Jessie Sims (#3 tkl'r, 7 tfl) but return #1 tkl'r Seth Allison (2nd Tm AA, 15.5 tfl) and Justin Heard (moving from WLB to MLB) to the starting lineup. The vacated WLB spot will likely be a TC battle between Blake Childress and Rojae Jackson, who could also see time at DB. Much like the DL, this unit should also improve after 2 lackluster years.

DB's - In '10 the Bears lost 2 st'rs and saw their numbers drop from 198 ypg (58%) in '09 to 204 ypg (60%, 17-17) ranking them #48 in the NCAA's PDR rankings. LY they ret'd 8 who had combined for 35 sts so improvement was expected. Surprisingly the numbers dropped down even further to 255 ypg and a terrible comp % of 65.6 with a 27-17 ratio. TY the Bears return 3 st'rs incl 2x 2nd Tm SLC SS Jestin Love and once again, the numbers should improve after registering the NCAA's #75 PDR a ssn ago.

SPECIAL TEAMS - LY the Bears had to replace 2nd Tm SLC Eddie Carmona who served as both the K and P. They saw their productivity dip some landing with our #84 ST's ranking as JUCO P Kevin Buford (PS#234) struggled in his 1st ssn with just a 36.5 avg (33.3 net, #75 FCS). Arkansas tran Eddie Camara (PS#10) took over the K duties hitting on 14 of 19 and garnered 2nd Tm SLC honors. After a 14.7 avg on PR in '10 at Ole Miss, Jesse Grandy took over those duties here, but the results were much different as he avg'd just 3.3 ypr with a long of 14. Isaiah Jackson served as the KR in each of the past 4 yrs (21.8 LY) but he now moves on. Everyone else returns, however, and as long as Buford finds more consistency in his punting, the Bears should climb in our ST rankings.

COACHES - HC Clint Conque returns for his 13th ssn with the Bears and in that span his squads have posted a losing record on just 3 occasions. That feat is pretty amazing considering that Central Ark has transitioned from D2 in '05 to full FCS status in 2007. UCA returns both coordinators for their 4th ssn in OC Brooks Hollingsworth (18th season ttl) and DC Matt Williamson.

Overview - After winning records in 6 of the previous 7 yrs the Bears were our pick to win the SLC LY as they ret'd 15 st'rs incl Arkansas tran QB Nathan Dick. After gliding past Div II foe Henderson St in the opener, the Bears all'd a td in OT for the 48-42 loss to FBS foe La Tech. Ranked #18 on the road, UCA was outgained 415-271 against SHSU in a 21 pt loss. The Bears were without Dick the following week against Ark St in another big defeat. With Dick back under center UCA would run the table for the rest of the regular ssn and earn an FCS playoff berth with an 8-3 record. After a 20 pt win over #21 Tenn Tech, the #15 Bears were knocked off by #5 Montana to end the ssn. Things don't look as bright for UCA entering '12 as they return just 12 st'rs incl only 4 on off. They do, however, have a solid coaching staff and improved defense and a 8th winning ssn in the past 9 yrs could be within reach.

NORTHWESTERN STATE DEMONS

Bradley Dale Peveto (Career 10-23)
4th Year at Northwestern State (10-23)
Natchitoches, Louisiana Enrollment: 9,191

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Demons' QB's appeared to be in good shape heading into LY as they ret'd HM SLC Paul Harris (14 car sts) and added in JUCO tran Brad Henderson (PS#266). Things didn't go as planned, however, as Harris was booted from the team following wk 2 and Henderson was given the job for the remainder of the ssn after completing a school record 12 consec passes in the ssn opening win over Delta St. Henderson came through with an HM SLC performance throwing for 1,853 yds (61.6%, 12-6) and an additional 204 yds on the ground. Henderson returns for '12 and handling the bkp duties will be either Don Canyon (PS#140) or Keenon Gibson (PS#192). Both saw limited action a ssn ago but if they are called upon for more than just taking final snaps to close out gms, this group could be in trouble.

RB's - The Demons returned their top 7 rushers from '10 LY so significant improvement was expected. Surprisingly their numbers were virtually the same. DJ Palmer (PS#288) led the team with 350 (4.0) while '10's leading rusher Sterling Endsley had just 19 att's on the ssn. Endsley departs TY but this group once again appears stacked. They also add in Louisiana trans Robert Walker (PS#129) and true frosh Daniel Taylor (PS#75) to challenge for carries. For the 2nd consec yr, we'll call this group much improved.

Rec's - NSU had 7 of their top 9 receivers return LY. Justin Aldredge led with 514 (13.2) and TC Henry was #2 (283, 11.8). Those two depart TY with Phillip Harvey (PS#179, #3, 279, 14.7) and Louis Hollier (#5, 235, 7.3) as the Demons' 2 expected st'rs along with Oklahoma tran Sheldon McClain (PS#75) filling the third spot and South Carolina tran Corey Simmons challenging at TE. With a more consistent run game ahead of them, this still has the making of a solid group despite the loss of their top 2.

O-Line - In '09 the OL ret'd 4 starters but saw their numbers drop to 150 rush ypg (4.0) after a 173 rush ypg (4.0) performance in '08. In '10 they lost just 1 st'r again and ret'd 6 who had starting experience. Surprisingly the numbers dropped again to 106 rush ypg (3.2) while the sks increased to 22. LY the unit lost 2 st'rs incl a 1st Tm SLC LG but given the porous numbers from the previous yr, improvement was expected. While the numbers moved up, it was marginal at best as they paved the way for just 108 rush ypg (2.9) and 26 sks all'd (8.4%). For the 3rd time in the past 4 seasons the Demons return 4 st'rs to the unit with the only losses being HM SLC and 4Y st'r Zach Case and reserve Sherard Sorrells (4 st). With a good portion of weapons returning at the skill positions and a QB now entering his 2nd yr as the st'r, NSU will almost certainly improve this year.

D-Line - NSU ret'd 2 st'rs to this unit in '10 and saw their ypc all'd cut from 4.9 to 4.1. Despite returning just 1 st'r LY, the unit improved again as they all'd 136 ypg and trimmed back their ypc to 4.0. That was a 36 yd improvement from '10 and the best s/'06. TY the Demons return 3 to the starting lineup with the only loss being 2nd Tm SLC DE Ricky Issac (11 st, #3 tkl'r, 9.5 tfl). This is a solid group that now gets the guidance of veteran DC so another improved performance could be in the offing.

LB's - The Demons have trimmed back their ppg all'd in each of the L3Y going from 36.5 to 27.5 to 27.0. TY the losses are heavy as both OLB's depart in former Tulane tran Lamont Simmons (2nd Tm SLC, #5 tkl'r) and Yaser Elqutub (#7 tkl'r). Leading tkl'r and 2nd Tm SLC honoree Derek Rose returns although after recording 142 tkls in '10, was able to collect just 82 a year ago. There is not an abundance of experience at LB heading into '12 which could be a concern but with a solid DL in front it may mask the inexperience.

DB's - Despite the loss of 3 st'rs heading into '10, the Demons secondary trimmed their ypg to 228 ypg (54%) with a poor 16-4 ratio ranking them #72 in the NCAA's PDR. LY they ret'd a slew of experience (3 st'rs) and while they did allow 252 ypg (54.3%), they recorded an impressive 17-16 ratio and improved to #38 in the PDR. TY the Demons are forced to find a new pair of CB's with the departures of 2nd Tm SLC honorees Cashas Pollard (44 tkl, 14 pd) and Jeremy Lane (43 tkl). Cortez Paige (1 st, 28 tkl) and Rico Albert (7 tkl) look to fill the starting void. Safeties Jamaal White (2nd Tm SLC, #4 tkl'r, 8 pd) and Brashard Booker (#2) round out this unit. This is a group to keep an eye on early as the inexperienced CB's attempt to fit in.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The NSU ST's unit put together a fine ssn in '11 as they finished with our #10 ranking led by the solid kicking of 1st Tm SLC John Shaughnessy who hit on 14-16 FG's. P Nic Russo was serviceable in his 1st year with a 38.3 avg to go along with a 35.8 tm net. Both return TY along with PR Kevin Shief (10.0) and KR Phillip Harvey (27.0, 1 td). 2012 is billing to be another high finish for the NSU ST's.

COACHES - Bradley Dale Peveto enters his 4th yr as HC and following an 0-11 mark in his inaugural campaign of '09, NSU has gone 5-6 in each of the past 2 years. OC Todd Cooley was the OC at Central Arkansas from 2005- '08 and also enters his 4th yr. Veteran DC Gary DeLoach, who has had stops as DC at N Texas, NMSt and SFA, takes over the defense after Brad Laird took an administration job in June.

Overview - The Demons have had only one winning ssn s/'05 but nearly accomplished that feat in each of the past 2 yrs under HC Peveto. NSU escaped with a ssn opening win against Div II foe Delta St as they stopped a 2 pt conv with :10 remaining. After being outscored 89-10 in B2B defeats vs FBS teams the Demons delivered a solid road performance vs Nicholls St shutting out the Colonels 34-0. NSU had a 2 pt conv of their own stopped in the 4Q in a loss to #18 McNeese St and then rolled off convincing victories over Lamar, SEL and Texas St. With a winning ssn on the line, the Demons lost to 3 caliber tms in Central Arkansas, SHSU and SFA by a combined 121-37. Peveto has this team headed in the right direction with B2B 5-6 seasons and with 8 st'rs returning on offense and a solid special team's arsenal, this may be the year they eclipse the .500 mark.

LAMAR CARDINALS

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After transferring from HC Ray Woodard's former employer Navarro JC, Andre Bevil started 9 gms for the Cardinals in '10 passing for 2,013 yds (55%) with a 14-14 ratio. Bevil earned the spot behind center again LY and while his passing yardage took a dip down to 1,719 yds (54.5%), he improved upon his accuracy with a 14-10 ratio. Bevil moves on TY leaving Caleb Berry (3 gm, 150, 69.6%, 1-2 LY) to battle JUCO addition and former Kentucky tran Ryan Mossakowski (PS#22) for the #1 spot. Mossakowski played the final snaps in 3 gms with the Wildcats in '10 before 1 ssn at NW Miss CC where he threw for 2,422 yds (60.4%) with 26 td's. True frosh Matt Bergeron (PS#296) and rFr Dillon Barrett round out the depth. Assuming that Mossakowski claims the job, this Cardinals QB group appears on par with LY's version.

RB's - In the 1st season back, Octavious Logan paced Lamar with 229 rush yds (4.4). However, the Cardinals totaled 1 rush td on the entire year and that 1 td did not return LY. Logan only played in 6 LY and finished #4 (174, 6.7). Mike Vernon, who originally signed with TCU before heading to JUCO, led with 332 (3.2) while Wildcat QB Jeremy Johnson was #2 (217, 6.0). DePauldrick Garrett began the ssn as the st'r but was OFY in gm 3 and awarded a MedRS. He still finished #3 (198, 4.7) and led the tm with 5 rush td's despite his limited action. The rush numbers should see a significant increase TY with the addition of Okla St tran Herschel Sims (PS#9) who rushed for 242 yds (7.8) in one start with the Cowboys LY. Adding Sims to the 3 RB's that shared starting duties LY (Venson, Garrett and Caleb Harmon), this group looks to be the primary focus of the '12 Cardinals offense.

Rec's - Besides bringing in QB Bevil from his days at Navarro JC, Woodard also brought in a trio of his former WR's to fill out the roster here. 6'3" 205 JJ Hayes was part of that group and made an immediate impact in Lamar's return to football as he pulled in a tm best 745 yds (14.3). Not to be outdone, the remaining members of the trio, Marcus Jackson and Josh Powdrill also made an impact finishing #2 and #4 respectively. All 3 returned LY along with #3 receiver Kendrick Prejean. Hayes would go on to lead the unit again with 951 (17.9) while Jackson was a distant #2 with 432 (18.0). Powdrill and Prejean saw their numbers dip combining for just 20 catches. TY the losses are heavy as Hayes, Jackson, Powdrill and Prejean all depart leaving TE Payden McVey and RB Mike Venson as the leading returning rec's. Lamar did add in Okla St tran Kevin Johnson (PS#84) to the unit but with the departures, expect this group to drop in productivity, especially with a new starter at QB and an improved run gm.

O-Line - With 8 different players starting 3+ gms in '10 it wasn't much of a surprise that this unit struggled paving the way for just 60 ypg (2.2). Everyone ret'd LY so improvement was expected. The group nearly doubled their output from the yr prior with 115 ypg (3.3) however the sks also increased from 25 (6.4%) in '10 to 34 (9.7%) in '11. TY the Cardinals lose 3 st'rs in 2nd Tm SLC LT Anthony Oden (10 st), HM SLC RT Cameron Epple (11 st) and LG Daniel Campbell (10 st). Lamar is expected to slide former Mizzou tran Taylor Davis (PS#229) into the vacated LT spot while JUCO Brock Wempa (PS#393) takes over at LG. Despite the losses, this unit has potential, especially with a slew of talent RB's behind them.

D-Line - The '10 unit was stockpiled with several JC and FBS tran filling out the 2 deep and that unit all'd 171 rush ypg (4.4) while recording 15 sks. LY everyone ret'd led by former Iowa DE Jacody Coleman (40 tkl, 11.5 tfl '10). Coleman was inj'd early, however, playing in just 4 and the unit as a whole all'd 190 rush ypg (4.7) while seeing the tm's sk total increase to 24. While Coleman is eligible to receive a 6th yr after LY's inj, it appears that he has decided to move on leaving former Texas A&M tran Adren Dorsey, John Prescott and Jesse Dickson and Okla St tran Joe Okafor (PS#121) battling for spots on a unit that may begin to flirt with more 3-man fronts as they begin to move away from the 4-2-5 they have used in the past. This group has an excellent chance to lower their rush ypg all'd in '12.

LB's - After all'g 26.1 ppg in '10, the Lamar D took a step back LY surrendering a poor 39.1 ppg (#115 FCS). TY they lose leading tkl'r Asim Hicks (HM SLC, 6 tfl) and Darby Jackson (34 tkl, 4 tfl) but add in Ark St tran Blake Chavis (17 tkl, 3 tfl) who moves over from DE. This is a solid group that should contribute in the trimming of the ppg all'd.

DB's - The Lamar secondary has put up very similar numbers in each of the L2Y incl 212 ypg (58.9%, 22-13) LY, ranking #92 in the NCAA's PDR. TY the unit loses 1 st'r in SS Tim Hayter (#4 tkl'r, 6 pbu) along with reserves Ryan Clark (11 tkl) and Michael Allen (11 tkl). With the experience returning, a better performance should be in the offing.

SPECIAL TEAMS - HC Woodard has worked under legendary ST's coach Frank Ganz so you know this unit is a priority to him. Despite having to kick with a groin inj in '10, Justin Stout was able to connect on 9-13 FG's with a long of 47 yds. Stout again handled the duties LY hitting 5-8 but TY he has company with LY's KO specialist Juventino Sanchez and true Fr Alex Ball (PS#53) looking to grab the spot. Kollin Kahler averaged 38.0 ypp in '10 and improved LY to 42.3 (32.2 tm net) earning HM SLC. He returns along with LY's KR VanLawrence Franks (23.2) and PR Kye Hildreth who saw just 2 returns all ssn. With everyone back, the Cardinals should have decent improvement after finishing just #101 in our rankings LY.

COACHES - Ray Woodard is the 8th HC since 1949 in the Lamar football program but the 1st since the Cardinals brought football back in '10. Now entering his 3rd year, Woodard has a pair of new coordinators in OC Larry Kueck and DC Bill Bradley.

Overview - The Cardinals began the '11 campaign with wins in 3 of their first 4 gms including victories over a Div II and a NAIA member. Once conf play kicked into full gear however, Lamar would go on to win just 1 of their final 7 (Nicholls St) being steam rolled by a combined 135-10 in back-to-back matchups against SHSU and SFA. On the ssn, the Cardinals were outscored by a 44-20 clip against FCS foes and had no answer on defense all'g 455 ypg in those contests. While the group returns just 4 st'rs on off for the upcoming ssn, they do return 9 to that much maligned group of defenders. This is an improved tm heading into '12 but after being outscored by 24 ppg in SLC play last year, those improvements may not translate in an increased amount of wins.

SE LOUISIANA LIONS

1st Year at SE Louisiana (0-0)
Hammond, Louisiana — Enrollment: 15,414

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After starting 2 gms in '10 for an inj'd Tyler Beatty, Brian "BJ" Young (PS#292) beat out Ole Miss tran Nathan Stanley (PS#36) for the starting gig a yr ago and threw for 2,855 yds (58.7%) and a 15-15 ratio. Stanley saw action in 5 gms passing for 286 (48.3%) with a 2-6 ratio. Both Stanley (8-9-194) and Young (7-11-96) performed well in the Lions' spg game and appear to be in a neck and neck battle for the starting job heading into the ssn. No matter who wins the job, field vision must be addressed as a combined 17-21 ratio of a year ago won't cut it in a league that features some of the better tms in the FCS.

RB's - While the Lions lost their leading rusher they did return 5 of their top 6 in '10 led by Zeke Jones (PS#301) who rushed for 395 (5.0) and Sam Fairley (104, 3.7). Fairley led the tm with 579 (4.0) with Jones again finishing #2 with 380 (3.8). Both ret'd again LY and it was much the same as Fairley (396, 3.5) and Jones (292, 4.4) finished #1 and #2 respectively. SEL returns its top 7 rushers this year but after just a top performance of 396 yds last year, expect a more consistent effort by this year's leading man.

Rec's - SEL ret'd 4 of its top 6 rec in '10 and also got the big addition of Texas tran Brandon Collins (PS#46). Collins immediately paid dividends for SEL as he led with 875 yds (15.6). Simmie Yarborough (PS#240) finished a close 2nd with 709 (11.8) leading the Lions in both rec's (60) and td rec's (9) while Kory Theodore was #3 with 622 (18.3). All 3 ret'd LY plus the Lions got another expected upgrade at TE in Tulane trans Antoine Duplessis. While Duplessis really didn't pan out (2 st, 5 rec), the trio of Collins, Yarborough and Theodore did as they all put together eerily similar numbers. TY their top 3 depart with Dean Johnson (226, 9.8) being the tm's leading returner. The heavy losses make this unit go from one of the tm's strengths to one of their biggest question marks.

O-Line - After a dismal performance in '08 when the Lions avg a miniscule 83 ypg (2.8) on the ground (46 sks all'd), this unit has now improved in each of the L3Y moving up to 114 ypg (3.5) LY but all'g 29 sks (6.0%). The losses aren't as heavy TY (2 st'rs lost in '11) as the only departure is 2nd Tm SLC C Josh Penton. Replacing Penton will be a TC battle between career reserve Geremy Wilson and JUCO newcomer John Murphy. The rest of the unit, led by HM SLC LT Gasten Gabriel, have a total of 57 car sts under their belts and a 4th yr of improvement is entirely possible.

D-Line - With the new coaching staff being installed, the Lions will now use a 3-3-5 scheme on defense which comes at the right time as after all'g a much improved 129 rush ypg (3.4) in '10, this group fell flat on their face a yr ago all'g a program worst 222 ypg (5.1) while recording just 15 sks (28 in '10). With the changes in schemes, there is also changes in individual players positions as a pair of DE's (Devan Walker and Frank Bryant) have been moved to OLB. The line does however return 2 st'rs to the new 3-man alignment with NG's Jarrod Black (6 st, 19 tkl), Devin Boutwell (2 st, 10 tkl) and DE David Durden (2 st, 27 tkl) all moving on via graduation. There is only one way to go for this group after LY's poor outing.

LB's - SEL is moving to a 3-3-5 scheme, we'll list the LION safety in this unit breakdown. Def ppg all'd has been a sore subject since SEL joined the Southland in '05 with that 1st year mark of 27.5 ppg being the best in the past 7 seasons. LY was even worst than expected as the Lion defense all'd a school record 37.7 ppg. While LB Avery Crooks (#4 tkl'r) departs via graduation, this unit is bolstered with DE's Devan Walker (11 st, 51 tkl, 14 tfl) and Frank Bryant (4 st, 19 tkl) plus FS Kevin Roberts (9 st, 34 tkl) who takes over the LION position. With the new scheme in place and a slew of depth at the position, the SEL defense has a decent shot to get close to that high finish of '05.

DB's - The losses were extremely heavy for this unit LY as they were forced to replace their #2, #3, #5 and #10 tkl'rs to a group that finished with the NCAA's #67 PDR all'g 238 ypg (58%, 20-18). With the front 7 all'g rushing yds at will, the secondary saw 43 less pass att's from the year prior which cut their ypg all'd down to 219 (56.0%). They did however allow a ghastly 26 td passes (13 int) and saw their PDR sink to #87 in the FCS. TY the group returns 3 of their 4 st'rs with the only loss being FS Kevin Roberts who has moved to LION. With a better front 7 ahead of them, the SEL secondary has a good chance to climb up the rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Despite returning all of their major contributors LY the Lions ST's unit finished with our #84 ranking due to poor coverage units that all'd 10.9 on PR's and 26.7 on KR's (2nd worst in the FCS). P Matt McCormick earned HM SLC with a 41.5 avg (36.4 tm net) while Beau Mothe also saw 16 punt att's with not as much success (36.5 avg). K Seth Sebastian hit on 14-21 FG's LY after hitting on a solid 10-14 as a true in '10. KR Jordan Wells (26.6) finished 2nd in the SLC while Brandon Collins' 11.0 PR avg was 3rd best. Everyone but Collins returns TY and assuming the KR coverage improves, the Lions should see a rise in our rankings.

COACHES - Mike Lucas departs after 5 seasons and a 19-37 record. The new HC is Ron Roberts who joins the Lions after 5 yrs and 4 conf championships as the head man at Div II Delta St. The new OC (Greg Stevens) and DC (Pete Golding) both spent the past 2 ssns coaching under Roberts at Delta in the same capacity.

Overview - The Lions' season went pretty much as expected last year as sandwiched between losses to FBS foes Tulane and Southern Miss was a dominant 63-6 win over Savannah St. After another expected loss to #19 McNeese St, the Lions dropped a tight contest to Lamar before being waxed by Northwestern St. Southeastern Louisiana got past Texas St by 10 but was then dominated by Central Arkansas and Sam Houston St by a combined 93-38. Despite a 474-292 yd deficit in their trip to Stephen F. Austin, the Lions used 4 int's to stay close before dropping the contest by 8. The Lions then jumped out to a 31-0 lead vs last place Nicholls St to finish 3-8 on the ssn. New HC Ron Roberts inherits 16 ret st'rs and 50 lettermen but with so much distance between the Lions and the upper echelon teams of the SLC, another losing year appears to be in the immediate future.

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The changing of the guard has appeared to have been made as 25 game starter LaQuintin Caston (870 pass, 707 rush LY) is expected to make the move to WR/Wildcat QB in order to give Landry Klann a full crack at the starting spot after earning 2 sts in each of the L/2 ssns. Klann (377, 63.2% LY) possesses more of a QB-type build that should allow the Colonels to challenge downfield more in 2012. With Caston's transition to WR the new backup is Beaux Hebert (son of Bobby) who saw action in 5 gms LY (254, 54.5%) before a shldr inj sidelined him. This is definitely a position to keep an eye on TY and if Klann happens to struggle, it will be interesting to see if HC Charlie Stubbs moves Caston back to this spot.

RB's - In '10 Jesse Turner took over the starting role and delivered with 630 yds (5.7) while also recording 308 rec yds (9 ttl td's, 2nd Tm SLC). LY wasn't as kind to the tm's leading rusher as a knee injury saw his time extremely limited allowing him just 15 carries the entire yr. In his absence, a new starter arose in Marcus Washington (251, 5.1 '10) who rushed for 565 yds (4.5) and earned 2nd Tm SLC. Washington still finished 2nd to Caston (707, 3.9) and returns TY along with a now healthy Turner making carries a bit harder to come by. Even with the carries being split, this is a deep group that will help the QB situation.

Rec's - LY the Colonels returned the top 7 receivers but with the lack of a true passing QB and a more run-oriented offense, this group suffered as Kenyad Blair's 270 rec yds (10.4) were tops on the team (lowest in SLC for a tm's leading receiver). TY the Colonels lose Blair and Joshua Warren (145, 11.2) but could see some more productivity from LY's poor numbers as potentially a better passer behind center could emerge.

O-Line - In '10 NSU lost 7 OL who comb for 32 sts and switched from a spread option to a multiple pro set. Their ypc plummeted to 3.6 and the 46 sks all'd were only 2 fewer than what they gave up the previous 4 yrs combined! LY they ret'd 5 who started at least 7 but once again couldn't control the pass rush all'g 47 sks (16.7%, #119 FCS). The Colonels did see a small increase in their rushing output (147 ypg, 3.8) despite the early loss of C Gerald Gruenig to a leg inj. TY the losses are heavy with the departures of RT Michael Billingsley (11 st), Jarrad Hernandez (11 st), Pio Adams (8 st) and Oliver Thierry (4 st) but Gruenig does return. Despite the departing players, this group should do a better job in pass protection.

D-Line - The Colonels ret'd 2 st'rs for the '10 ssn and saw significant improvement all'g 4.2 ypc while posting their best rush ypg s/'05 (14.7). LY all 4 st'rs ret'd but they also began to experiment with a 3-4 alignment. The numbers stayed virtually the same (155 ypg, 4.2) although they did see their sack total drop to 13. This year NSU is expected to use even more of a 3-4 scheme but does return 2 st'rs incl Darrell Brown (2nd Tm SLC) with the only losses being AJ Carter (7 st, 23 tkl) and reserve Gavin Whitfield (2 st, 18 tkl). There is a solid amount of talent remaining here but it may be difficult to improve much upon LY's numbers.

LB's - The NSU defense has been gashed in recent yrs as they all'd an avg of 35.7 ppg from '08-'10. Despite the return of all 3 st'rs a year ago, the story was the same as the Colonels all'd 34.5 ppg. TY they lose Shawn Elrod (6 st, 37 tkl), Pa'a Kamauoha (5 st, 31 tkl), Stefan Bergeron (5 st, 26 tkl) and Mike Walker (4 st, 18 tkl). Two full-time st'rs return to the new 4-man unit along with the additions of JC tran Chris Bermond (PS#269) and Minnesota tran Dwayne Mitchell (PS#123). The group should have an opportunity to put up their best numbers since 2007.

DB's - In '10 the Colonels lost 3 st'rs but did return CB Bobby Felder who earned 1st Tm SLC recording 4 int and 7 pbu as NSU finished #64 in the PDR (247 ypg, 53%, 22-14). LY Felder and HM SLC S Jordan Hanberry (#3 tkl'r) returned. While they surrendered less ypg (205), they all'd 60.8% with a dismal 27-9 ratio and finished with the NCAA's #104 PDR. TY they lose their star in Felder (1st Tm SLC, 49 tkl, 8 pbu) and fellow CB Chika Madu (8 st, 30 tkl) but do get the return of both Hanberry (43 tkl, 4 pbu) and 2nd Tm SLC and tm DPOY Siegan Vergenal (#2 tkl'r). Assuming candidates arise for the vacated CB positions, a climb up the PDR is a possibility.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Colonels put together a solid showing LY with our #46 rated ST's. NSU returns both K Andrew Dolan and P Cory Kemps TY but do lose their all-time leader in KR yds, Chika Madu who had a 24.4 avg and 2 td's LY (SLC record 304 KR yds vs SFA) and PR Bobby Felder (6.9) who also blocked 3 kicks on the ssn. Dolan has hit 12-21 att's thru his 1st 2 yrs here while Kemps earned 1st Tm SLC LY with a 42.8 avg (34.8 tm net). If NSU is able to locate a pair of return specialists, another Top 50 finish could be in the offing.

COACHES - Charlie Stubbs enters his 3rd year with the Colonels after serving as an OC with Oregon St, Memphis, UTM, UNLV, Alabama and Louisville. He will once again serve as his own OC. The DC for the 4th seasaon is Jeremy Atwell who has now been on the NSU coaching staff for 7 years.

Overview - After a 42-0 ssn opening victory over NAIA foe Evangel, the bottom fell out for the Colonels as they dropped the next 10 being outscored by a 38-16 avg with only 1 close loss in that span (Central Arkansas). This yr NSU returns just 12 st'rs (18 LY) with a switch at QB (Caston to WR) and in defensive schemes (4-3 to 3-4). HC Stubbs stressed fundamentals in spg getting a look at some of his younger players and escaped the practices injury free. The Colonels return 51 lettermen and have added some transfer talent to the defense. While another losing ssn is projected, NSU should keep their contests a little tighter and potentially steal away a win or two in the process.

PHIL'S 2012 SOUTHLAND FORECAST

1. SAM HOUSTON ST - In 2010 the Bearkats had just 9 ret st'rs and benefitted from 2 net close wins in '09. They were also going thru a coaching change and we thought they would finish in the lower half of the standings. The Bearkats would exceed our expectations with a 4-3 conf record (+2.9 ypg) and they had one of the most improved defenses in the country. Last year they had 20 returning st'rs including all 11 on offense (#3 in FCS exp), were in the 2nd year of new schemes and had 4 SLC HG's. We called for them to have their best finish in the SLC standings since 2007 and despite our high expectations they again exceeded them by having a dream season as they finished 7-0 in conf play outscoring conf foes 44-10 (+193.4 ypg) en route to a FCS Champ gm appearance. This yr they return 16 st'rs incl the SLC's top 2 rushers and the SLC's top tkl'r along with their QB and their top 4 rec's. They did benefit from a +28 TO margin and had 3 net close wins LY but with most of their key ply'rs back along with LY's SLC COY who enters his 3rd ssn here, the Bearkats are the clear favorites to repeat as SLC champs.

2. SF AUSTIN - In '09 the Lumberjacks had the most exp'd team in the SLC with 18 ret st'rs including QB Jeremy Moses. SFA was just 2-12 in the SLC in '07-'08 but we went out on a limb and called for them to achieve a winning record. SFA surpassed our expectations by winning the SLC title. They even won a 1st round playoff game before losing to Montana, 51-0. In '10 they had 13 ret st'rs from a team that was a league best +96.6 ypg and they had one of the top QB's in the country. The Lumberjacks would win the SLC Title again and QB Moses would win the Walter Payton Award and set the all-time NCAA career mark for completions. They led defending champ Villanova 21-7 in the playoffs before imploding with 6 TO's. Last year they ret'd 8 st'rs on offense and were +134.3 ypg (91.2 more than #2) but lost their 4 yr starting QB. They also had 2 net close wins and were +12 in TO's in '10. These factors had us calling for them to slip in the standings and they did exactly that finishing 5-2 (3rd). This year they return 16 st'rs (tied for most in SLC) incl 10 of 11 (although the 11th starter was OFY after 5 gm LY and does return TY) from one of the best offenses in the FCS and the Lumberjacks were an impressive +188.3 ypg in SLC play (#2) LY. The schedule is brutal with a neutral site gm vs SHSU and road trip to McNeese St but they do have 4 conf HG's and this tm should build off LY's strong finish where they won their L/5 conf gms by an avg of 45-14.

3. McNEESE ST - In '09 McNeese had just 9 ret starters and was not the preseason favorite. They returned QB Fourroux (2205) and top RB Pendland (1431, 6.5). We called them the most talented team in the SLC and they had 4 SLC home games. Their +86.3 ypg was 2nd best in '09 and they finished as co-champs but lost in the first round of the playoffs. In '10 they lost their QB, RB and top receiver but had 14 ret st'rs and got their toughest foes at home. They finished 5-2 (+43.1 ypg) and only lost to conf champ SFA by 5. Last year they ret'd 9 st'rs (just like '09) and while several of our power ratings called them the most talented team in the SLC they faced Central Ark, SHSU and SFA in 3 consec gms with 2 on the road and they would go on to lose all 3 as they finished 4-3 (-8.6 ypg). This year they return 15 st'rs (most s/'07 11-1) have 4 conf HG's including get key gms vs Central Ark and SFA at home. A 7th consec winning ssn in SLC play looks to be in the cards yet again.

4. CENTRAL ARKANSAS - In 2009 the Bears lost their All-Conf QB but added in VHT Arkansas transfer Nathan Dick (PS#42). They had 14 ret starters but dropped to 2-5 from 6-1. Despite their losing record they were +90.1 ypg in Southland play and had an AMAZING SEVEN NET close losses on the year with all 7 by 5 or less and 6 by 4 or less. In '10 they had just 9 ret st'rs (fewest s/'07). UCA was much stronger than their '09 record and despite being less exp'd we called for them to move up in the standings and they did finishing 4-3 (+10.1 ypg). Last year they ret'd 15 st'rs incl QB Dick and installed a multicolored turf for an enhanced home edge and we called for them to win the SLC. They fell just short of our expectations finishing 6-1. A couple factors have them pointed downwards this season as despite a #2 finish in the standings they were -24 ypg in conf play (#4), benefitted from +11 TO's and had 2 net close wins. With just 12 ret st'rs (tied for last), we'll call for the Bears to drop in the standings as they have to travel to both SFA and McNeese St.

5. NORTHWESTERN ST - Three yrs ago the Demons ret'd 51 lettermen and had 14 ret st'rs. Had former HC Stoker still been around we would have had them in the upper half of the league. A new HC and new schemes meant they were not as exp'd as the numbers would suggest and they dropped all 11 games and were -79.6 ypg in SLC play. In '10 they had just 10 ret st'rs and only 3 SLC HG's. Surprisingly, they finished 4-3 but were -33.4 ypg and benefitted from 3 net close wins. Last year they had 16 returning st'rs (most s/'07) and were -15 TO's in '10 and despite a tough schedule exceeded our expectations at 3-4 (-48.3 ypg, #5). This year they return 14 st'rs incl their QB, top 4 rushers as well as their top 2 tkl'rs. While they play SLC heavyweights SFA, Central Ark, and McNeese on the road they get their winnable gms at home vs Lamar, Nicholls St and should be in line for another 5th place finish.

6. LAMAR - Lamar brought back football two yrs ago after dropping their program in 1989. The schedule was set-up to have some success as they played a Div II team, a pair of NAIA schools plus Georgia St who was also a first year program. They also played 4 SLC teams and nearly beat McNeese on the road in their opener, losing by 3. Last year they ret'd all 22 starters and had 65 returning lettermen. With so much experience returning we thought they were capable of an upset or two in conf play and they did just that finishing 2-5 with wins over SEL and Nicholls on the road. They were, however, dead last in the SLC at -119.6 ypg and are less exp'd TY with only 13 returning st'rs. They do bring in a PS#9 RB tran and with home gms vs SEL and Nicholls, look for the Cardinals to finish in the #6 spot for the 2nd year in a row.

7. SE LOUISIANA - SEL took a big step in '09 with 12 ret st'rs moving to 6-5 and 4-3 in the Southland and their -19.9 ypg was 4th best. In '10 they had 16 ret st'rs and expectations were high but they did lose their QB and had just 3 SLC HG's. Surprisingly, they fell to 1-6 in conf play. Despite the record they were +24.3 ypg (3rd best) and had an incredible 6 NET CLOSE LOSSES. Last year they ret'd just 8 st'rs, lost their top 6 tkl'rs and were #118 in FCS exp. Despite being underrated in '10 we thought they were weaker LY and they finished 1-6 incl -84 ypg in conf play (#6) and let go of HC Lucas. This yr they are much more exp'd with 16 ret st'rs but they are learning new schemes incl switching from a 4-3 to a 3-3-5 on D. Even with the new staff, they are capable of pulling off an upset in SLC play and are one of the more improved teams in the league.

8. NICHOLLS ST - Three years ago the Colonels had 12 returning st'rs but had 4 league road games giving them the toughest schedule of the lower half teams. They were a league worst -102 ypg in '08 so they had some ground to make up but in '09 only improved to -95.1 ypg. In '10 they lost 28 lettermen and had just 9 ret st'rs. They did have 4 SLC HG's and they improved to 3-4 in the conf but were again -103.1 ypg (last in SLC). Last year they were much more exp'd with 18 returning st'rs, were in the 2nd year of new schemes and got both NWSt and Lamar at home. We figured they would be much improved but they finished dead last at 0-7 and were -97.3 ypg (#7). This year they are less exp'd with just 12 ret st'rs (tied for last in SLC) and have 3 road gms vs FBS schools in their first 3 gms. On the positive side they were -13 in TO's and get SEL at home in the finale. A win there could pull them out of the basement.

WR TC McWilliams

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Former WR Devin Dominguez won a fall camp battle in '10 to take over the starting QB job. He would go on to pass for 1,536 yds (49%, 19-15) while also finishing as the #3 rusher (181, 1.5). Dominguez missed spg in '11 due to baseball which opened the door for Troy trans Greg Jenkins (PS#217JC). Jenkins would go on to start 8 gms for the Hornets while passing for 1,475 yds (59.5%) with an 11-5 ratio and 330 yds (2.7) on the ground (#2 on tm). Dominguez saw 3 sts and passed for 962 (53.8%, 5-2). While Dominguez moves on, this unit should be much improved with Jenkins now entering year #2 behind center.

RB's - After having to replace their top 3 rushers in '10 the Hornets were expected to return all of their key pieces in the run game LY led by Andrew Pitts who posted 557 yds (4.8). After playing baseball in the spg, Pitts was declared ineligible for the ssn turning the duties over to Tim Clark (409, 5.4) and Quendarius McKibben (257, 3.0). TY the Hornets are forced to part with Clark but return McKibben and get a huge addition in VHT Georgia trans Isaiah Crowell (PS#4) who rushed for 850 yds (4.6) LY with the Bulldogs earning SEC FPOY in the process. With QB Jenkins also making an impact in the ASU run game, it shouldn't be much of a surprise that we feel the Hornet rushing unit is among the SWAC's elite.

Rec's - The Hornets ret'd their top 3 rec's in 2010 including 2nd Tm SWAC honoree Nick Andrews who pulled in 803 yds (17.1) in '09. Andrews led ASU in receiving with 627 yds (13.1) while TC McWilliams finished a close 2nd with 579 (14.5). LY Andrews and McWilliams again finished #1 and #2 but this time Andrews distanced himself surpassing the 1,000 yd mark while pulling in 10 td rec's. McWilliams, Nehemiah Henry and Landon Jones combined for 983 yds (12.3) and 4 td's. TY the Hornets lose Nick and John Andrews (106, 8.8) but do get the return of McWilliams, Henry and Jones. This remains a solid group with McWilliams likely the best candidate to take over the #1 duties.

O-Line - After a poor showing in '09 that saw the Hornets rush for 102 ypg (3.2) and allow 38 sks, things haven't been much better the past 2 ssns incl LY when despite improving upon the rush ypg with 107 (3.2), they all'd an even worse 41 sks. TY the OL returns 4 of its 5 st'rs with the only departure to the starting rotation being RG David Hate (11 st). The group is led by 1st Tm SWAC LT Terren Jones who has 22 of the 76 car sts returning to the group. With QB Jenkins displaying more poise in the pocket and the amount of talent in the ASU backfield, the OL should easily put up their best numbers in the past 5 yrs.

D-Line - The Hornets DL put together a solid campaign in '09 when they all'd 109 ypg (3.4). The past 2 ssns haven't been as successful however as they all'd 152 ypg (3.8) in '10 and followed that up by all'g 158 (3.7) LY. This yr the unit loses a pair of st'rs in 2nd Tm SWAC DT Kynjee Cotton (11 st, 56 tkl, 6.5 sk) and DE Raymond Heningburg (11 st, 47 tkl, 8 tfl). Assuming their replacements find solid ground early on (DE Jimmy Daniels had 12 sts, 19 tfl in '10), this group should find themselves with improved numbers despite the departure of half of their starting lineup.

LB's - The ASU defense has seen their ppg all'd trimmed back in each of the past 5 ssns incl LY when they all'd just 17.5 ppg behind the return of 2 st'rs to the LB rotation. TY the Hornets lose starting MLB and 2nd Tm SWAC honoree Demarques Taylor (11 st, 79 tkl, 5.5 tfl) and one other part-time st'r in Nigel Carr (4 st, 18 tkl). They do get the return of Brandon Roberts who started 8 gms in '10 before missing all of LY with eligibility issues. The '12 Hornet LB unit features 6 different players with previous starting experience and baring any inj setbacks, a 6th straight yr of improvement could be on the docket.

DB's - The Hornets secondary has been an impressive bunch in recent yrs incl '10 when they finished #5 in the FCS in pass eff D all'g 166 ypg (48.3%) and a very impressive 9-19 ratio. ASU again found themselves among the FCS elite LY finishing with the #2 pass eff D all'g 194 ypg (52.8%) and an even better 10-22 ratio. TY they lose a pair of st'rs in CB Donovan Masline (11 st, 48 tkl, 9 pd) and SS Markinley Saint Fort (11 st, 62 tkl) but do have 4 players in the unit who earned at least a start a yr ago led by 3x 1st Tm SWAC FS Kejuan Riley who has 16 car int's (#2 in ASU history). This unit has an elite reputation and should once again find themselves near the top of the pass eff D rankings.

SPECIAL TEAMS - After spending the start of his career at Ariz St, Bobby Wenzig was added to the Hornets' roster a ssn ago and immediately took over both the starting K and P duties. Wenzig would go on to earn 2nd Tm SWAC honors in punting with a 41.5 avg (37.1 net) and would also go on to hit 15-25 FG's. TY Wenzig and PR Kejuan Riley (8.4) return with only KR John Andrews (23.1) departing. After a #36 finish in our '11 ST rankings, the Hornets should find themselves relatively close to that rating once again in 2012.

COACHES - Reggie Barlow enters his 6th ssn with the Hornets improving his record in each of the past 4 yrs. His OC is Fred Kaiss who previously spent time at Hampton in the same capacity while Cedric Thornton is in his 4th ssn at ASU and 3rd as DC.

Overview - After putting together a solid '10 campaign that saw the Hornets reach the SWAC Title game, ASU ret'd 18 st'rs LY and were one of the favorites to win the SWAC East. The team would go on to finish with an 8-3 record with those 3 defeats coming by a total of just 11 pts including a 1 pt loss to Alabama A&M and a 3 pt loss to Southern, games that would cost them the SWAC East Title and a berth into the Championship Game. TY the Hornets look primed for another run as they return 14 st'rs and get the large addition of UGA trans RB Isaiah Crowell. Their defense of a yr ago ranked in the Top 5 in the nation in takeaways (2nd straight yr) and return a good portion of their st'rs there as well. This is a very solid team in all facets of the game and a trip to the SWAC Title game should be in the offing.

JACKSON STATE TIGERS

Rick Comegy (Career 149-77)
6th Year at Jackson State (41-26)
Jackson, Mississippi — Enrollment: 8,300

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Former JUCO trans Casey Therriault (PS#289) put together a pair of huge ssns for the Tigers incl LY when he threw for 3,791 yds (60%) with a 27-15 ratio and was the SWAC OPOY while also finishing 10th in the Payton Award balloting. Therriault departs TY and battling for the starting gig is a pair of unproven players who have seen limited action with the Tigers in Dedric McDonald (PS#173) and Tevin Chapman (PS#304). McDonald does have 5 sts under his belt incl 1 last year (3-9-29) while Chapman had 2 att's LY in mop up time. Another player to keep an eye on in the future is true frosh Ivy Lamontiez (PS#75) who put together a couple of solid ssns in his final 2 years of prep ball. We expect McDonald to win the job but with the loss of their star, this unit is clearly weaker for 2012.

RB's - With the Tigers having to replace their leading rusher heading into '10, former SMU trans BJ Lee (PS#356) took over the duties and led JSU with 439 yds (4.4). Lee returned again LY but saw his carries cut some (99 in '10 to 66 LY) with the emergence of Tommy Gooden, who ran for a tm leading 597 yds (6.7). FB's Rakeem Sims (262, 5.1) and former New Mexico St trans Marquese Dunn (118, 9.1) rounded out the top 4 rushers and all 4 return in '12 with Lee and Gooden using camp to audition for the #1 role. With inexperience at QB, expect the Tigers offense to lean a bit heavier on this group for the upcoming ssn.

Rec's - The Tigers ret'd 7 of their top 8 WR's heading into LY with only their #1 receiver, Anthony Mayes (727, 17.3) being the lone departure. After finishing #3 on the squad in '10 with 538 (15.8), speedy Rico Richardson led JSU with 896 yds and an FCS leading 24.2 avg (11 td). Richardson, who posted 7 td's of 20+ yds in '11 returns TY along with EJ Drewery (354, 13.6) who makes the full-time transition from TE to WR while the other half of the top 4, Marcellus Wilder (719, 13.1) and Renty Rollins (595, 14.9) both depart. While the Tigers do return their star, more of an emphasis on the run game and a lack of a proven veteran at QB could cause this unit to drop a few notches in '12.

O-Line - With the emergence of a QB that attempted an avg of 445 passes in each of the L2Y, it wasn't much of a surprise to see the OL's impact in the rush game take a back seat to pass protection. The unit did however perform well in both areas last year as they paved the way for 143 ypg (4.4) while cutting their sks all'd to 21 (-8 from '10). TY the unit returns 4 of their 5 st'rs with the only casualty being 1st Tm SWAC LG Roderick Gladney. With the departure of QB Therriault, running the ball and protecting the QB will be extremely important if the offense is to find any amount of success this year.

D-Line - The DL struggled in '10 as they ret'd 2 st'rs and went from allowing 2.9 to 4.2 ypc while their ypg went up from 105 to 165. LY the unit again ret'd 2 st'rs incl DE Donavan Robinson who earned 2nd Tm SWAC in '10 with 7.5 sks. Robinson flourished in his final ssn as he and fellow DE Joseph LeBeau combined for 29.5 sks, good for 2nd in all of the conf. Robinson earned 2nd Tm SWAC honors while LeBeau found himself the SWAC Newcomer POY. The unit as a whole trimmed the rush ypg all'd down to 120 (3.1) while contributing to the 38 ttl sks by the defense. While the loss of Robinson is a big one, LeBeau and the return of JSU's 2 starting DT's should give the group the opportunity to cut the rush ypg allowed once again in '12.

LB's - JSU runs an interesting 4-4-3 defense with an extra LB and one fewer member in the starting secondary. After all'g 22.5 ppg in '10, this group did their job in '11 by cutting that total by over a td to 15.3. TY the only loss to the 4-man unit is Tim Dandridge (36 tkl, 4.5 tfl) as everyone else returns led by 2nd Tm SWAC ILB and leading tkl'r Todd Wilcher (7 tfl). While it may be difficult to deliver another 15.3 ppg performance, this is a solid unit that should keep TY's number relatively close.

DB's - The JSU secondary has been one of the best in all of the FCS the past 2 ssns including a #1 finish in pass D eff LY when they all'd 165 ypg with a miniscule 40.6% completion percentage (8-11 ratio). TY the unit returns all 3 st'rs led by 2nd Tm SWAC performer Qua Cox (35 tkl, 12 pd). With 2 extremely productive ssns under their belt, it wouldn't surprise us much to see another finish near the top of the FCS in '12.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Tigers' ST unit entered the 2011 campaign in good shape as they ret'd all of their key components from the previous ssn. Unfortunately K/P Reed Gallagher opted not to return following the spg, leaving a large hole in JSU's kicking gm. After seeing limited time in '10 hitting just 2-2 FG attempts Jabril Smith was rushed into duty but performed well hitting on 7-12 while also handling the tm's KO duties. PS#70 Kris Selita took over the punting duties as a true frosh finishing with a 38.6 avg (33.5 net) while Michael Perkins chipped in with 10 punts of his own (34.9 avg). Selita departs after a ssn here turning over the full-time duties to Perkins while Smith also returns. KR BJ Lee (19.5) and PR Rico Richardson (11.8) are also back giving the Tigers a solid chance to move up after finishing #81 in our ST rankings last year.

COACHES - Rick Comegy returns for his 7th ssn with JSU having now posted winning marks in 5 of his last 6 yrs. The OC for a 3rd straight season is Earnest Wilson while DC Darrin Hayes has been here during the whole period of Comegy's tenure.

Overview - HC Rick Comegy has done an excellent job in rebuilding this squad into a perennial winner and last year was no exception as the Tigers finished 9-2 and tied for the SWAC East Title. In fact, JSU could have easily ran the table as they had 2 close losses against Alabama St (21-14) and Grambling St (26-23). Being ineligible to play in the SWAC Title game due to a postseason ban (APR), the Tigers sat home and finished ranked #22. The coaching staff will be depending on their defense this year as the Tigers attempt to break in a new QB after the departure of 2x SWAC honoree Casey Therriault. They will be tested early with 3 road games (1 neutral) to start the season (incl FBS foe Miss St) and road trips to Alabama St and Grambling St (only 2 losses in '11). With that being said, a now postseason eligible Tigers squad should be in contention in the SWAC East race for the upcoming campaign.

ALABAMA A&M BULLDOGS

Anthony Jones (Career 90-57)
11th Year at Alabama A&M (72-45)
Huntsville, Alabama — Enrollment: 6,000

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After transferring from Kentucky following his RS ssn, Deaunte Mason (PS#238) would take over the starting duties midway through his 1st yr with the Bulldogs in '09 passing for 1,018 yds (52%) with a 6-6 ratio and an additional 603 yds (5.2) on the ground. Mason was on his way to eclipsing those numbers in '10 before a groin inj forced him out of the final 4 (911, 52%, 8-6 ratio). Mason ret'd again LY to earn 2nd tm SWAC honors while leading A&M to an appearance in the SWAC Champ gm despite playing with a bad knee (1996, 49.2%, 11-7 ratio, 512 rush, 4.1). UAB trans David Isabelle (PS#200) spent his 1st yr with the Bulldogs between QB and WR and returns again TY. Now entering his Sr ssn, Mason has plenty of tools at his disposal to put together an even finer campaign.

RB's - After finishing 2nd behind Sr Tony Green in '10 with 710 yds (5.3), Kaderius Lacey stepped to the forefront LY posting a school record 1,143 yds (Ulysses Banks 1,123 '09) and earning 1st Tm SWAC honors in the process (#1 rusher SWAC). Lacey returns for the upcoming yr and battling for carries behind him will be the diminutive (5'7") combo of Brendan Johnson and Terrell Badie who have both seen action in yr's prior. A healthy QB Mason could cut back on a few of Lacey's carries for the upcoming ssn but with the experience returning on the offensive side, incl all 5 OL st'rs, another 1,000 yd ssn could be in the offing for their star.

Rec's - A&M had to replace 3 of their top 4 rec's heading into the '10 ssn. G'Alonzo Milton finished #1 (517, 17.2) but was the only one of the top 5 rec's that ret'd for '11. He would go on to finish #2 LY pulling in 380 yds (13.1, 8 td) with Montarius Smith stepping to the forefront with 669 (13.7). TY things look even more improved as A&M returns every player that pulled in a pass from a yr ago. A position to keep a greater eye on TY is TE as the combo of Bobby Goldsby and former N Carolina trans Kenneth Harris can create some mismatches in the intermediate routes. It appears to be a broken record but this is another unit that should be vastly improved with the return of all of their key contributors.

O-Line - With 3 st'rs returning a ssn ago it was a bit of a surprise that the rushing ypg fell back some to 150 ypg (3.8) after B2B 171 ypg performances. TY the unit is fully stocked with all five 12 gm st'rs returning from a ssn ago led by 1st Tm LT Jamaal Johnson-Webb and 2nd Tm RG Justin Goodrich. 2005 was the last time that the Bulldogs eclipsed the 200 ypg mark but with the amount of solid returnees in '12, that mark could be surpassed yet again.

D-Line - The Bulldogs lost 2 of their 4 st'rs LY incl their star in DT Frank Kearse (#7 DC). Despite those losses, the unit trimmed down their rush ypg all'd from 122 (3.8) to 110 (3.2) while delivering 38 sks (+15 from '10). TY A&M again loses its star in former Marshall trans and 2nd Tm AA DE Corey Hart whose 17 sks were #2 in the entire FCS. The unit does return 4 players that earned at least 5 sts LY along with a former Ball St trans in Dee Lett who had 6 sts with A&M in '10 (inj LY). While the sks will likely see a dip with the departure of Hart, another good showing in the overall rush ypg all'd is expected.

LB's - After slipping to 23.9 ppg all'd in '10, the Bulldogs rebounded a ssn ago to allow 18.5 ppg with the return of 2 st'rs. TY the losses are heavier as A&M departs with 1st Tm SWAC and leading tkl'r Willie Fuller (78 tkl, 13 tfl) and Markeith Cliatt (45 tkl) while the lone returnee to the starting rotation is Vernon Marshall who finished #2 in tkls. The Bulldogs also expect converted DL Montay Rover (4 st LY) and former Tenn trans Robert Nelson (PS#188) to play significant roles with the unit as they attempt to keep the ppg all'd under control for '12.

DB's - This unit's WORST ssn in the L8Y was all'g 50.8% in '08 so it wasn't much of a surprise that this group again put together a solid campaign despite the departure of 3 st'rs. The Bulldogs would finish #31 in pass eff D as they all'd 200 ypg (47.1%) and a 17-12 ratio. TY the group loses 1st Tm SWAC FS Rico Porch (48 tkl, 11 pd) and part-time starter Clarence Morris (7 st, 13 tkl, 8 pd). Despite the departures, A&M still has 6 players among the secondary who started a gm LY and judging by the recent history at the position, another fine finish should be expected.

SPECIAL TEAMS - While the Bulldogs were forced to depart with RM Tony Green heading into LY, they did bring back their outstanding K/P Chance Wilson. Wilson flourished a ssn ago earning 1st Tm SWAC honors at K (11-15 FG's) and P had a 37.8 avg and returns again this yr. KR Terrance Pride (23.7) and PR Montarius Smith (6.5) are also expected to return to the squad giving the Bulldogs all of their key pieces and a good shot to surpass our #95 ST's rating of a ssn ago.

COACHES - Anthony Jones returns for his 11th ssn as the HC of the Bulldogs posting winning records in 8 of his 10 yrs with the program. Also returning to the squad are OC Cedric Pearl and DC Brawnski Towns.

Overview - After posting just their 2nd losing season in the past 9 years in '10, the Bulldogs ret'd to form under HC Anthony Jones LY marching out to an 8-4 record and their 5th SWAC Championship game in the past 9 ssns. Things didn't start off well for A&M however as after all'g Hampton to steal away a 1 pt victory in the opener, they were held to just 6 pts the following wk against Southern. After an expected victory against Div II member Tuskegee, the Bulldogs would rattle off 6 more wins to move to 7-2 on the ssn with narrow victories against Grambling St, UAPB, Texas Southern and #16 Alabama St in the process. A&M split their final 2 meetings of the ssn and in a rematch with Grambling St in the SWAC Championship gm, A&M all'd a 69 yd fumble return in the 4Q to lose by 1. Things look even more promising for the Bulldogs heading into '12 as they return all 11 offensive st'rs incl every player that posted stats on that side of the ball. Despite just 4 home games and a late season matchup against FBS foe Auburn, A&M does get to host Grambling St and perhaps only an upset or two away from making their 6th SWAC Title game in the past decade.

ALCORN STATE BRAVES

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Tim Buckley started his final 2 ssns here and in 2009 threw for 1,949 (51%, 16-14) while also rushing for 240 (2.1) in 2009. Brandon Bridge who played HS FB in Canada started 7 gms as a true in '10 throwing for 2,086 (52%, 19-13) and finished #2 in rushing with 601 (5.0). Bridge ret'd LY but only ply'd in 5 gms making just 2 starts throwing for 632 (50%, 5-4) while rushing for 121 (3.1) before being dismissed. Darius Smith who had 25 att's of experience started the other 8 games throwing for 1,044 (38.3%, 9-11). Smith heads into this season as the starter and the only depth they currently have is a soph with no gm experience and a true frosh leaving them very, very thin.

RB's - In 2010 the leading RB had 612 (3.3) with the QB #2 and a WR #3. The leading returning RB into LY was Arnold Walker, who had just 80 (8.0) despite making 5 sts. Walker filled the lead back role and led with 713 (5.0) followed by true frosh Anthony Williams with 218 (4.3) and Rueben Duckworth (161, 3.9). This year the top 2 return and Walker is our pre-ssn 2nd tm SWAC RB giving them a much stronger unit compared to last season.

Rec's - In 2010 the top 2 rec's had 631 (16.6) and 478 (10.6) but were the only rec's among the top 7 who didn't return LY. Simon Collier was the leading returnee with 358 (14.3) and he finished #2 with 426 (16.4). Terrance Lewis was #4 in '10 (281, 17.6) finished #1 with 489 (17.5) and was also named 1st tm SWAC ret specialist. Rodney Whitmore was #3 with 240 (21.8!) followed by Donte Parker with 226 (11.9). While they ret their top rec TY they lose their next 3 meaning that only 1 player on this team had double digit receptions LY. Louisville tran Jacques Caldwell (PS#161) has started each of the last 2 seasons as a WR but was moved to CB at midseason last year and will be an important addition if he's here the entire season. With a year of experience under their belt with this QB, the unit is far better then by just looking at LY's stats.

O-Line - After being under 100 ypg rushing and 3.4 ypc for 3 str ssns, with all 5 starters back in 2010 the OL opened holes for 141 ypg and 3.8 ypc but still all'd 28 sks. While we wrote LY that 4 starters were scheduled to return only 2 did and their numbers fell to 119 ypg and 3.3 ypc while the sacks rose to 33. TY they have to replace a pair of multi-year st'rs and while the unit has 2 Sr starters back, the other 8 players in the 2 deep are underclassman making them one of the youngest units not only in the conference but also the country.

D-Line - After a disappointing '09 season when 4 returning starters saw their rush D numbers climb they ret'd 4 starters again and they improved allowing 144 ypg and 3.9 ypc with 28 sacks. LY they lost their top player in 2nd tm SWAC Malcolm Taylor (6.5 sk, 8.5 tfl) and even with 3 ret starters the number rose more than expected to 171 ypg and 4.3 ypc with just 19 sacks. This season they lose both DE's which makes them the least experienced unit the Braves have had on the DL in 4 years. They do have a pair of DE's that made a combined 5 starts LY so they're not starting completely from scratch.

LB's - The Braves ret'd only 1 starter in 2009 but it was Josh Cragin who was their #1 tkl'r earning 2nd tm SWAC. Cragin was 1 of 2 starters in '10 and finished 1 tackle off the team lead and their scoring D was slightly better at 29.0 ppg. They were to return a pair of starters (#1 & #8 tkl'rs) but Herve Tonye-Tonye (82 tkl's) ply'd in just 1 gm with no stats. Robert Gainwell who made 7 starts in '09 (#9 tkl'r) but only had 8 tkl's in all of 2010, stepped in and made 8 starts and the team's scoring D improved for a 3rd straight season. This season they return 2 starters and the opening will be filled by an exciting JC who was a late signee and played in 9 gms but still was the teams #11 tkl'r. The unit is a click or 2 ahead of LY and the numbers very well could improve for yet another season.

DB's - The 2010 season was an impressive as the secondary only ret'd 2 starters but still finished #42 in pass eff D with a 14-14 ratio. LY they had to replace 2.5 starters incl a 2nd tm SWAC CB, returning an 11 gm starting SS and a 5 gm starter at CB. Despite the SS only making 4 starts (OFY) the unit overachieved in topping '10's numbers and finished #34 in pass eff D. This year they have 3 returning starters making it the deepest in 3 seasons and if this unit overachieves for a 3rd straight season a top 10 finish may be in the offing.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The 2010 special teams unit finished #95 in our ratings and would have been lower if not for PR Edward Johnson whose 21.2 avg was #2 in the FCS. It seemed unfortunate that he was the only one from this unit to not return so while you might have expected a lower finish they shocked even us by reaching the top 10 (#7). P Arturo Tomayo upped his avg (37.9 to 41.6) and the net (32.9 to 35.8) while also improving his FG's from 5-13 (L/43) to 6-9 (L/42). Terrance Lewis was the main KR (23.4, 2 td) and PR (13.1, 1 td). Lewis returns and for now it looks like a true will handle the kicking double duties so a drop is clearly expected.

COACHES - On May 28th, Jay Hopson became the Braves 18th HC and the first non-African American HC in the SWAC. Hopson was a DB at Ole Miss and prior to this post was the Memphis DC and a LB cch at Mich. Check out a Q&A with Hopson on pg 229. New OC Willie Simmons held the same position at Middle Tenn St while new DC Tony Pecoraro was the DC at DII Northern Alabama under Terry Bowden the L2Y.

Overview - The 2010 season finished with B2B losses making it 4 straight losing seasons. LY they ret'd 14 st'rs but got off to a rough start going 0-10 on 3rd down in the opener. In their road opener they led 20-10 vs APBU but were shut out in the 2H. They took out their frustrations in a win vs MVSU but were stonewalled with only 132 yds vs Texas Southern. After being tied at HT vs Alabama St they were outplayed in the 2H. The offense then put up 58 pts in their 2nd win but that was against NAIA Concordia. Back to SWAC action they were out of it early trailing 20-0 after 1Q at Southern. The next week they were tied at HT vs Alabama A&M but were outscored 14-0 the 2H. They finished the disappointing ssn allowing 91 pts the final 2 gms and their 1 SWAC win was their worst S/'00. The "new-era" starts with 14 returning st'rs plus knowing that LY they lost 3 close SWAC games, so they could improve upon LY's poor finish.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY STATE DELTA DEVILS

Karl Morgan (Career 1-20)
3rd Year at Mississippi Valley St (1-20)
Itta Bena, Mississippi — Enrollment: 2,400

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After starting 9 gms in '10 and entering spg as the projected st'r LY, Oliver Hughes tore his ACL in April costing him the entire '11 campaign. Carl Davis started 2 gms in '10 and appeared to be the frontrunner to assume the position but a pair of former JUCO's, Garrick Jones and Marvin Pittman would take over the duties. Jones would start 8 contests throwing for 844 yds (47%) and a 7-7 ratio while Pittman chipped in with 327 yds (43.9%) more with a 2-3 ratio in his 3 sts. Davis would go on to RS. TY the Devils are forced to part with both Pittman and Hughes freeing the spot up completely for Jones. Davis will battle another pair of JUCO's in Marcus Randle and Jeremy Collins for the bkp duties. With nearly a full year of experience behind him, Jones should perform better for MVSU in 2012.

RB's - With the loss of QB Hughes to inj heading into LY, the Devils were without their top 4 rushers from '10. A pair of JUCO's Trey Bateaste (561, 3.8) and Brandon Stansell (405, 3.9) took over the unit and are expected to return TY. Also returning is FB Dytanyl Greer who was also a JUCO addition a ssn ago. With much more experience lined up in the backfield, it should come as no surprise that we feel this group will be much improved for the upcoming ssn.

Rec's - While the Delta Devils were expecting the return of their top 2 receivers from '10, Chris Williams (#2, 315) transferred following spg leaving Paul Cox (#1, 520) and Kenneth Dabney (2 catches) as the only 2 WR's to return to the roster with previous experience. Cox would go on to lead MVSU in receiving again in '11 with 641 (16.9) while Dabney was a distant #2 at 291 (9.7). TY the Devils are forced to part ways with Cox as Dabney is the only member of this unit (TE and WR) with previous starting experience. Despite a more polished QB to get them the ball, the lack of proven depth could be a liability for 2012.

O-Line - After a very poor '09 that saw the Delta Devils run for just 61 ypg (2.0), they have seen progress in each of HC Karl Morgan's 2 ssns moving to 93 ypg (2.8) in '10 and an even more impressive 134 ypg (3.5) LY behind 3 returning st'rs. The group did however allow 11 more sks than the yr prior (36). This ssn the unit returns 4 to the starting rotation with the only departure being RT Nicholas Sherman (20 car sts). MVSU is hoping that JUCO trans Justin Barner (PS#396) will assume the vacated duties among a unit that has 65 car sts between them. With a solid duo at RB returning, you would almost have to expect this group to come near LY's solid numbers.

D-Line - With the return of 2 st'rs to the 4-man unit a ssn ago, the Delta Devils saw their rush ypg all'd improve to 145 ypg (3.9) after a dismal 199 ypg (5.2) the year prior. TY the group returns all 4 of its st'rs incl leading tkl'r DE LePloyer Franklin (11 st, 72 tkl) and DE Javaris Fritz (PS#367) who saw his 2011 campaign cut short with inj (7 st). The unit features 5 players that saw at least 4 sts a ssn ago and assuming the DL maintains solid health, another decrease in ypg all'd could be in the offing.

LB's - This group has been a major culprit in the past few ssns in ppg all'd incl a very poor mark of 30.3 in 2011 despite Miss St trans Terrell Johnson being among the returning st'rs. TY they lose Johnson (13 tkl) and Desmond Spivey (11 st, 62 tkl) but return 4 players who earned a start a ssn ago. While there is some talent here, recent trends have us thinking that it may not translate to much success in the area of ppg all'd.

DB's - Similar to the LB unit of the recent past, the MVSU secondary has had its share of issues as they finished #116 in the FCS in pass eff D in '10 all'g 269 ypg (64.4%) with a 25-7 ratio and was nearly as bad LY with a #105 pass eff D all'g 209 ypg (61.4%) and a 22-7 ratio. TY the Delta Devils lose a pair of starting CB's in Marquis McFadden (8 st, 32 tkl) and Michael Boykins (11 st, 35 tkl, 3 int) along with a part-time starting S in Armon Williams (4 st, 57 tkl). Starting safeties Carlos Hollis (10 st, 43 tkl) and Jeremy Langston (7 st, 21 tkl) do return but the depth at CB isn't terrible with Marquez Floyd and Jeremy Johnson both seeing action LY including 4 combined sts. With some experience at CB and some solid depth behind their st'rs, we'll go ahead and call for some improvement out of the MVSU secondary for the upcoming ssn.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Delta Devils return Carlos Sanchez for the 3rd consec yr to serve in the double-duty capacity of K and P. Sanchez hit on 8-14 FG att's and a 39.7 punt avg while MVSU finished with our #71 ST's rating. KR Kenneth Dabney (23.0) and PR Brandon Stansell (8.3) also return giving the Devils a solid chance for improvement in 2012.

COACHES - Karl Morgan has posted just a single victory in his 2 ssns with the Delta Devils (LY vs Texas Southern) but returns again for 2012. After serving as the DC for MVSU a yr ago, Terrence Graves moves back to coaching the LB's while Morgan takes over the defense. Ramon Flanigan is in his 3rd ssn as the OC.

Overview - Mississippi Valley St will always be associated with its most famous alum, the great Jerry Rice. Since he left MVSU, the Delta Devils have had only 4 winning ssns in 26 yrs! After a winless '10 campaign in Karl Morgan's 1st year as HC, they nearly repeated that effort last ssn finishing with a mark of 1-10. MVSU was outscored by a combined 80-9 mark to start the ssn against Alabama St and then followed that up with an additional 6 more losses to march out to an 0-8 start and a 19-gm losing streak. The did however nearly pull out the upset in their final 2 gms of the previously mentioned losing streak against #25 ranked Jackson St (lost by 1) and at eventual SWAC Champ Grambling St (lost in OT). Morgan and company finally broke into the win column vs Texas Southern in a 12-9 victory but in a letdown spot the week after, they were destroyed by South Alabama 35-3. A 12-pt loss to UAPB ended their 1-10 ssn as they were outgained by nearly 100 ypg on the yr. TY the Devils return 14 st'rs and 48 lettermen and are balanced with a solid run game on offense and a very experienced DL. We will expect MVSU to come close to the 3-8 mark that they delivered each ssn from '07-'09.

GRAMBLING STATE TIGERS

Doug Williams (Career 64-29)
8th Year at Grambling St ('98-'03, '11-current) (61-21)
Grambling, Louisiana — Enrollment: 6,900

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - After taking over the starting duties as a true frosh in '10 throwing for 1,443 yds (55%) with an additional 247 on the ground, Anthony Carrothers appeared to be the clear-cut st'r heading into last ssn. Surprisingly he opted to transfer following spg opening the door for rFr Frank Rivers and true frosh DJ Williams (HC's son) to battle it out for the starting gig. Williams would earn the 1st 4 sts of the ssn before giving way to Rivers for the next 5. In week 10 the job was back with Williams who held onto it for the final 3 incl the SWAC Champ win over Alabama A&M. Williams finished with better numbers (1102, 50.7%, 14-7 ratio) than Rivers (967, 48.2%, 10-10 ratio) and appears to be the frontrunner for the spot heading into fall. With the tutelage of his father, Williams has a chance to break out in '12 as one of the SWAC's elite QB's.

RB's - GSU lost their top 2 rushers heading into LY incl 1st Tm SWAC and Conf OPOY Frank Warren who rushed for 1,537 yds (6.6) and 18 td's. After seeing a gm on ST's as a true in '10, Dawrence Roberts took over the main duties for GSU rushing for a conf-best 1,102 yds (5.5) with 8 td's and earning 1st Tm SWAC in the process. Kenneth Batiste finished a distant 2nd with 327 (3.8) while Juwan Martin was #3 (118, 2.6). FB Oshae Hamilton saw most of his action in the passing game pulling in 8 receptions. Batiste is the only one of the previously mentioned 4 departing for the upcoming ssn and while Martin should see a few more carries TY, Roberts should find himself fighting for another 1,000 yd campaign.

Rec's - With an emerging ground game ahead of them, the receiving unit has taken a backseat over the past few ssns. LY the Tigers had to replace their leading receiver (761, 22.4) but did return their #2 (Mario Lewis, 284) and #3 (Bakari Maxwell, 196) options. Louis would go on to lead GSU with 1,129 yds and an impressive 22.1 ypc with 18 rec td's (both #2 in the FCS). Damian Jefferson would finish 2nd with 221 (17.0) while Maxwell was 3rd again with 154 (11.8). TY the losses are extremely heavy as the leading returning rec is FB Oshae Hamilton and his 111 yds (13.9). While the group lacks experience heading into '12, there are a pair of former FBS transfers (UTEP and Miss St) among the unit giving them some hope this ssn.

O-Line - Despite having just 2 st'rs return to the rotation in '10, this group saw their numbers increase to 208 ypg (5.1). LY the Tigers ret'd 8 players with previous starting experience incl a pair of 1st Tm SWAC honorees. Surprisingly, despite a 2nd straight yr of blocking for a 1,000 yd rusher, the OL struggled paving the way for just 125 ypg (3.4) while all'g 34 sks in the process (21 in '10). TY the unit returns 4 st'rs led by 2x 1st Tm SWAC RT Sanford Banks and 2nd Tm honoree RG Clint Marsh with the losses being LT Bennie Peoples (19 car sts, 1st Tm SWAC '10) and part-time st'r Aaron Jackson (11 car sts). After a less than expected finish a ssn ago, the GSU OL should be able to redeem themselves in '12 and produce solid numbers.

D-Line - With the return of all 4 st'rs in '10, the GSU DL found themselves trimming back the rush ypg to 114 ypg (3.4), a 25 ypg improvement from the previous yr. LY the unit ret'd 3 st'rs but shockingly saw their numbers dip all of the way back to 142 ypg (3.8) despite an increase in sks to 32 (24 in '10). TY the losses are heavy as 3 depart from the starting rotation. 2nd Tm SWAC DE Jomarcus Savage (PS#141, 8 sk) is the only returnee to the lineup but he is recovering from an inj suffered in spg. GSU does add N Texas trans Kyle White to the middle but with the losses mentioned prior, this group may drop another notch in '12.

LB's - After a porous '09 that saw the Tigers allow 26.6 ppg, improvement has occurred in each of the L2Y incl LY when GSU all'd 20.8 ppg with 2 st'rs returning to the lineup. While the Tigers do lose leading tkl'r and SWAC Co-DPOY Cliff Exama TY, they do return their other 2 st'rs and a pair of reserves that combined for 76 tkls a yr ago. We expect this unit to post very similar numbers from a ssn ago.

DB's - The Tigers's secondary did solid work in '10 ranking our #41 in pass eff D with a solid 12-16 ratio. The unit lost 2 st'rs for a 2nd ssn in a row heading into LY but despite all'g a 19-11 ratio, they cut down their opposing comp % to 54.1 and all'd 7 ypg less in the air, good for #31 in pass eff D. The secondary again returns 2 st'rs but after LY's fine finish, a drop of a notch or two could be in the offing with the departure of 2nd Tm SWAC and #2 tkl'r FS Bruna' Foster.

SPECIAL TEAMS - K Zoltan Riazzo joined the Tigers in '10 as a JUCO trans and paid immediate dividends hitting on 11 of his 15 att's and earning 2nd Tm SWAC honors. Riazzo ret'd to the tm LY along with P Fabian Carter (36.3 avg '10) and their KR. Riazzo again earned All-SWAC recognition hitting on 8-12 incl a long of 53 yds. Carter saw his numbers improve to 40.9 (36.1 net) while Edward Patterson avg 25.1 on KR's and David Stuckman 14.7 on PR's (#3 FCS). TY GSU is forced to part with Riazzo and Stuckman. Joel Myou was brought in during spg to potentially take over the K spot but after some struggles, it appears that Carter might find himself serving in a double duty capacity. GSU finished with our #30 ST's rankings a yr ago and assuming that they find a consistent player to fill the K spot, we wouldn't expect too much of a drop in 2012.

COACHES - Doug Williams returned to GSU a ssn ago after a spending 7 yrs away from the tm. Williams is a former #1 NFL DC and MVP in Super Bowl XXII. Williams has posted a 61-21 record in his 7 ssns with the Tigers with just 1 losing ssn in that span ('98). Vyron Brown is in his 2nd yr as OC while Andre Robinson is in his introductory yr as the Tigers' DC.

Overview - After LY's 8-4 ssn the Tigers have now posted winning records in 12 of the L13Y. GSU didn't get off to a good start a yr ago however as after getting past Alcorn St by a TD, the Tigers lost each of their next 4 contests incl 3 against fellow SWAC members. At 1-4 and staring a losing ssn in the eye, GSU would go on to win their final 6 gms of the regular ssn (OT win over Miss Valley St) and meet SWAC East Champ Alabama A&M in the Title Game. A&M was part of the Tiger losing streak early in the ssn but trailing by 6 going into the 4Q, LB Jacarde Carter would return a fumble 69 yds for the go ahead TD and a 1 pt SWAC Championship victory. The Tigers return their fewest amount of st'rs (12) S/'08 this ssn but with an abundance of solid weapons on both sides of the ball, GSU has a good shot at claiming the SWAC West Title and returning to Championship game.

PRAIRIE VIEW A&M PANTHERS

Heishma Northern (Career 5-6)
2nd Year at Prairie View A&M (5-6)

Prairie View, Texas — Enrollment: 8,300

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - KJ Black started in both 2010 and '11 finishing his career here by throwing for 2,154 (59%, 13-5) and earning 2nd Tm SWAC. They ret'd JUCO tran Jonathan Troast who started the first 2 despite only throwing for 129 (45%, 1-2) on the season. Troast started the opener LY and made 3 sts overall finishing with 743 (54.9%, 6-5). RFr Jerry Lovelocke (PS#175) made the other 8 starts throwing for 1,020 (51.4%, 10-4) while rushing for 318 (5.6). Deauntre Smiley (PS#195), who was also a rFr, saw action in 8 gms throwing for 172 (45%, 0-2) and rushing for 117 (4.9). Both soph's return and in the second year under the polished OC Mark Orlando, we expect Lovelocke to challenge for All-Conference honors.

RB's - Donald Babers led the team in rushing his final 3 years earning All-SWAC honors all 3. In his final season of 2010 he rushed for 918 (4.0) while the #2 RB only had 171 (4.2). Jermaine Waddy had 67 (4.5) which was #3 and he was the leading returnee LY finishing #4 with 227 (3.5). La'Darryae Groover started all 11 but only finished #2 with 519 (4.3) while true frosh Fred Anderson led with 540 (4.3) while adding 123 (6.5) rec. The QB was #3 and Waddy was #4 with 227 (3.5) earning 2nd Tm SWAC honors as a KR. They return the top 7 and are several notches ahead of where they were LY and we clearly expect Anderson to carry the load for this improved offense.

Rec's - In 2010 they had to replace their #1 and #3 rec's. Shaun Stephens, who was the leading returnee with 404 (11.2) led the team with 859 (13.6) followed by Brandon Bell (455, 13.4) and Michael Benson (338, 14.1). Spencer Nelson was #4 with 323 (12.9) and the only one among the top 9 to return LY and he led with 659 (12.4). TY is the complete opposite as EVERY player that had a rec returns which will ramp up the competition and make them even better.

O-Line - After returning 4 starters in B2B years it was surprising they fell to recent lows in 2010 with 95 ypg rushing and only 2.8 ypc with a mind-boggling 35 sks all'd. LY they had to replace 2 starters and learn a new offense so while much wasn't expected, they posted the best rush numbers here since 2006 at 174 ypg (4.1) and cut 10 sks from the previous season allowing 25. This season they have to replace both starters from the left side in James Dekle (29 st, 3x All-SWAC) and Tim Tusey (31 st, 1st Tm '09). They'll fill the two sizeable holes with a pair of rFr and if they can stand the pressure, we very well could see an improvement again.

D-Line - Check out the defensive numbers from 2008 as the Panthers finished #3 in the FCS in overall D and rush D. Each of the next 3 seasons they had to replace 2 of their 4 starters and the rushing ypg declined from 134 to 158 to 159 ypg LY. The ypc rose to 4.2 in '09 but the DL trimmed it to 4.0 ypc and down to 3.5 ypc LY while the sacks also improved to 21 in '10 and exploded LY finishing with an FCS-leading 45. This season they only have to replace 1 starter but he was clearly the leader in TT tran Adrian Hamilton (PS#127) who was the SWAC co-DPOY with 22 SACKS! While they have more experience than any DL here the L3Y, they could improve the rush numbers but expect a sizable drop in the sacks.

LB's - Despite losing 2 starters in '10 and allowing 3 ppg more than the previous season, the Panthers still only gave up 19.8 ppg. LY they had to replace 1.5 starters incl a 2nd Tm SWAC who was the anchor at MLB. They ret'd 2 that combined for 15 sts and while they allowed 30.8 ppg, a hefty portion was because of ST and opposing def td's (4.5 ppg). This season the unit returns intact with 5 players that made 4+ sts with no one making more than 8 starts. Raheem Caldwell (PS#165) is an HT while Danny Brownell (13 tkl) impressed as a rFr and may beat out one of the returning players with starting experience. They are obviously well ahead of LY.

DB's - The 2009 secondary finished #8 in pass eff D. The 2010 secondary ret'd 3 starters having to replace a 1st Tm SWAC SS and came close by finishing with the #17 pass eff D thanks to a 12-16 ratio. LY the unit had to replace a pair of starters incl a 2x 2nd Tm SWAC FS. Moses Ellis ret'd LY and was named 1st Tm SWAC CB for a 2nd straight season but overall the unit plummeted to #89 in pass eff D with a 19-6 ratio despite the pressure the DL gave. TY they again have to replace a pair of starters incl Ellis but if Tex/Oreg tran Marcus Davis (PS#26) returns to health (2 st here LY), they'll be just fine.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The Panthers had a fine #23 finish in our ST rankings in 2010 but had to field a completely new unit LY. Travis Jatzlau improved the punt avg (37.7-39.2) and the net (32.5 to 35.3) while Chris Barrick only hit 9-17 (L/46). Both returnmen were solid but the KRD struggled finishing #121 in the FCS and A&M finished #69 in our ST rankings. They return both K's but lose their top PR but with better depth across the board, we should see an improvement.

COACHES - Heishma Northern was here for 6Y as an assc HC and the DC and is now in his 2nd ssn as HC. OC Mark Orlando will work his magic in his 2nd ssn here as he raised Bethune-Cookman's scoring off from #101 to #2 and in his last ssn at Southern they had the #22 scoring off which fell to #72 the year after he left. John Pearce is entering his 9th season here and was promoted to DC for the 2011 season.

Overview - After a streak of 80 straight losses that ended in 1998 the Panthers went 32-11 from '08-'10. LY they returned only 11 starters and had a new coaching staff. The opener was a blowout as most games are when you're -6 in TO's. PVAMU used their 212 yds wisely as they scored the games final 17 pts to pull out the win vs TSU but turnabout was not fair play for them as they allowed the final 22 pts vs UAPB. Versus MVSU the Panthers trailed into the 4Q but pulled away and then after a 3-3 HT tie vs Grambling, scored four 2H td's. At 3-2 they traveled to Baton Rouge and tied at 20, went 41/12pl and got a 19 yd FG with :10 left for a 3rd str win vs SU. Despite a 456-296 yd edge vs Ala St, they turned it over on int's 2x, SOD 4x and missed 3 FG's. A&M was mauled by JSU but outgained WAC bound Tex St by 93 yds but allowed 3 scoring drives of under 36 yds and a ST td. At .500 after beating Alcorn St, they dropped the ssn finale in a defensive struggle. Watch out TY with 17 returning starters and the expected improvement in the second ssn of new offensive schemes.

ARKANSAS-PINE BLUFF GOLDEN LIONS

Monte Coleman (Career 19-25)
5th Year at Arkansas-Pine Bluff (19-25)
Pine Bluff, Arkansas — Enrollment: 3,200

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Josh Boudreaux split starts in 2009 taking control by the end of the season throwing for 974 (58%, 9-4). Boudreaux came into 2010 as the starter but dual threat frosh Benjamin Anderson caught the eye of the coaches in fall camp. They RS Anderson and Boudreaux blossomed his senior season throwing for 2,750 (59%, 21-13) getting named 2nd Tm SWAC. Anderson was the #1 as a rFr LY and started all 11 throwing for 1,876 (53.7%, 10-9) and while he had 338 gross rush yds he also was sacked 36 times. Anderson, who was named SWAC Fr POY, will be backed by CJ Branch (PS#372) who had 2 att's LY and may see some time at TE if he's not needed here. They also switched TQ Mims (PS#203) back to QB where he RS in '09 before spending the L2Y as a DB. They are several notches ahead of LY and look to be set at QB for the next couple of seasons.

RB's - In 2010 they returned every RB that had carries except their #1 (451, 3.8). RFr Justin Billings (PS#324) made only 2 starts but still led with 388 (6.8) followed by Okl St tran Adrian Moore (PS#325) who had 328 (4.5) plus 188 (10.4) rec. Dhabion Woodfin (209, 4.3 in '09) was the leading returnee and he was #3 with 305 (7.1). LY 3 of the top 7 ret'd and Moore started all 11 finishing with 680 (5.2) and 295 (9.8) rec. Stephen Jones had 206 yds his first 3 seasons here but finished #2 with 460 (4.7). Dennis Jenkins was #3 with 373 (4.2) and Billings was #4 (251 (5.8). This year they lose their top 2 but remember Billings did lead the team in rushing in '10.

Rec's - Raymond Webber finished #2 in '09 with 392 (10.9) and as the leading returnee finished #1 in '10 with 1,429 (14.1) and was the only rec not to return LY. Rontrell Bailey (PS#256) made 6 st at QB here in '09 and was the #3 rec in '10 (175, 10.3) led the team with 403 (12.2). RB Moore was #2 followed by Dezmond Beverly (294, 8.6), Jevon Dixon (263, 15.5) and Mareo Howard (244, 16.3). This season they have to replace their top 2 and 5 of their top 10. They do add a PS#368JC and with an experienced QB expect about the same amount of production.

O-Line - In '09 with only 2 starters back they posted recent lows at 90 ypg (3.0) although they did allow a recent low in sacks with 21. In 2010 they ret'd all 5 starters and expected improvement occurred opening holes for 135 ypg with a 7Y best 4.6 ypc but they did allow 28 sacks. LY 3 starters ret'd and while the ypg rose to 163 the ypc dropped to 3.7 and they allowed 36 sks (11.4%). TY they again return 3 starters but are in better shape with a C that has 32 starts under his belt and a 2x 2nd Tm SWAC LT with 24 straight starts plus they add an HT in PS#136JC RT Kenny Eagle.

D-Line - The Golden Lions run a 4-3 and despite having 3 starters back in '10 regressed to 164 ypg and 4.5 ypc with only 18 sks. LY they had to replace both DT starters but led by Ky tran DE Brandon Thurmond they improved to 119 ypg (3.7) with a recent best 26 sks. It's not often that a team returns all 4 starters but has to replace a 2nd Tm SWAC DE but that's the case with Michael Johnson (1 st, 7 sk, 4 tfl). They're still in great shape and also add a N Tex and UAB tran ranking this unit among the SWAC's best.

LB's - The LB corp had to replace all 3 starters in '10 incl a 1st tm SWAC and the numbers dropped for a 3rd straight ssn to 28.0 ppg. LY they ret'd a pair of st'rs who finished #1 and #2 in tkl's with Jer-ryan Harris taking home 1st Tm and SWAC Fr POY. Harris only played in 7 and made 5 sts but they still improved the scoring D by almost a td. This year they lose 1/2 starter (6 st, #9 tkl'r) but we'll call all 3 back as it's the trio they prefer to have on the field giving them an intact front 7 returning.

DB's - A pair of starters ret'd in 2010 and they finished #88 in pass eff D. Three of the 4 starters ret'd LY and the sizeable climb to #29 was thanks to their improved ratio going from 20-12 to 17-18. They only lose one starter from the entire defense in 1st Tm SWAC CB James Harrell (5 int) who made 31 sts the L3Y. Despite having to find only one new starter they won't need to look far because Gyovanni Harvey made 9 sts here in '10 as a rFr but was banged up and only played in 3 gms LY. Clearly they can match LY's numbers and the D will challenge for the title of being the best in the SWAC.

SPECIAL TEAMS - This unit has been the weak link and finished #119 in our ST's rankings in 2010. Aaron Godwin took over P duties LY and while the tm net was only 31.7, it was actually an improvement from '10 (29.8). Chris Ewald handled FG's and amazingly went 10-17 BOTH years with a L/49 both years. Mareo Howard led a PR unit that finished above avg but the KR's numbers were below avg and the team finished #114. TY they only have to replace their main KR but after only avg 17.0 LY they should be able to do that and make a considerable climb.

COACHES - Monte Coleman is in his 5th season as HC. The former Washington Redskin never played HS football and after walking on at Cent Ark was the first player ever drafted from that school. Coleman is in his 2nd season of also being the DC. Eric Dooley is in his 2nd season as OC and was previously the WR cch at Southern.

Overview - The Golden Lions were 4-3 in '10 but lost 3 of their final 4 for a 4th straight finish without a winning record. They came into LY with 14 ret starters but were scoreless in 4 trips inside the 25 losing to NAIA Langston. They won a pair of early conf games coming back from a 20-10 deficit vs Alcorn St and after trailing PVAM 29-14 into the 4Q scored their final td with :24 left. They doubled up DII CA yardage wise but struggled in the RZ coming away with a 9-7 win. They were out of the game early vs JSU and the next week vs SU allowed a td on the final play but blk'd the XP for the win. At 4-3 they hosted GSU and scored on 44 & 48 yd td passes in the 1Q but were outscored 27-6 the rest of the way and then dropped a 2nd straight to #23 Ala St. They finished with wins against both of the div trailers and finished 5-4 in SWAC play and their first winning record since '06. They have 16 ret starters and the D will make them a contender.

TEXAS SOUTHERN TIGERS

Darrell Asberry (Career 40-25)
1st Year at Texas Southern (0-0)
Houston, Texas — Enrollment: 9,500

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - The Tigers lost former Iowa transfer Arvell Nelson (PS#32) heading into last year opening up a battle between 2010 backup and 1 game starter Riko Smalls and Troy transfer Dantavious Parker (PS#258). Parker earned the start for the opener but was injured allowing Smalls to start the final 10 for the Tigers throwing for 2,177 yds (52.5%) with a 12-9 ratio including a 384 yd performance against Grambling St. Parker would see action in just 1 more game the remainder of the season while #3 QB Rudy Johnson had 9 pass att's on the yr. TY the entire unit returns giving the Tigers an excellent chance of putting together even more impressive stats.

RB's - This has been a very deep and fortunate unit over the past 2 ssns as after a '10 campaign that saw every single player return that had a rush att the year prior, 4 of the top 5 ret'd LY led by 1st Tm All-SWAC honoree Marcus Wright who rushed for 1,212 yds (4.6) and 8 td's. Wright finished '11 with 701 (3.9), good for #2 on the tm behind Martin Gilbert (838, 4.6, 11 td) who led the Tigers in rushing back in '09. TY the losses are heavy as both of their top 2 depart opening the door for Tulsa trans Tony Peoples (PS#304) to take over the job while another FBS trans, Aston Jefferson (PS#263, Oregon St) will serve as the tm's FB. Kendall Denson and Edward Perkins Loving will battle for the #2 spot but with the loss of their 2 top rushers, this group is sure to be down a few notches.

Rec's - Similar to what occurred at the RB position, this group also has to rebuild with the losses of their top 2 contributors from a ssn ago in Richard Samuel (698, 17.0) and former La Tech trans Joe Anderson (638, 13.6). The Tigers bring in an infusion of new talent in transfers Daniel McKayhan (Ga Tech), Frederick Plummer (JUCO) and TE Troy Allen-Ford (Virginia). Accompanied by Donnie Dawson (256, 12.8) who was the only player on the unit to earn a start here LY, this unit has some talented players. Experience is another story however and we expect this group to struggle early as they learn the system.

O-Line - After a huge season that saw the Tigers rush for 214 ypg (4.3), the unit lost 4 of its 5 starters and saw their numbers take a dip down to 164 ypg (3.6) while allowing 10 additional sacks in the process (15 in '10 to 25 LY). This year things appear to be promising as the group returns all 5 to the starting rotation with just a pair of part-time starters moving on in Jared Benton (2 st) and Donovan Steveson (4 st). After a big performance during their offseason workouts, this group is much stronger and should have no problem paving the way for a higher mark in the running game for 2012.

D-Line - TSU finished #3 in all of the FCS in 2010 allowing just 82 rush ypg (2.7). Last year, despite the loss of 2 starters the unit again put up a fantastic performance by allowing that same 82 ypg (2.9) finishing #4 in the FCS. The defense did however see their sack totals drop from '10 (46) recording just 24. This year the unit loses 3 of its 4 starters in DT Jonathan Hollins (9 st, 16 tkl), DT Lagrone Shields (11 st, 30 tkl) and former USC commit DE Marquis Jackson (2x 1st Tm SWAC, 18.5 tfl). With just 1 full-time starter and only 13 starts total returning from a year ago, this group will easily drop a few notches this season.

LB's - After losing a former Notre Dame trans and the SWAC DPOY, there wasn't much of a surprise that the Tigers would see their ppg all'd of 18.3 in '10 dip a ssn ago. TSU's def would go on to allow a td more at 25.8 ppg. TY the unit returns all 3 st'rs while also getting the addition of Adrian Bennett (34 tkl, 4 tfl) who earned 10 sts in the secondary a ssn ago. While the group is loaded with experience, they will be tested and put to work due to the lack of experience along the front 4.

DB's - The Tiger secondary ret'd 3 st'rs to the unit in '10 and finished #1 in the FCS in pass eff D all'g 123 ypg (41.4%!) LY the unit lost 2 st'rs but still found themselves near the top of the FCS rankings finishing #17 in pass eff D all'g 163 ypg and just 42.3% completions. TY the unit loses starting CB Kydarian Wilkins (9 st, 12 tkl) along with Adrian Bennett who moves over to LB. The cupboard hasn't been left bare however as the secondary features 6 players who earned 2 or more sts a year ago and judging by recent history, another Top 20 performance could be on the docket.

SPECIAL TEAMS - The return game has endured a lot of losses over the past few years and 2012 is no different as the Tigers lose both Richard Samuel and Deshon Daniels. Samuel led the unit in PR with a 5.2 avg while splitting the KR duties (23.0) with Daniels (20.1). TSU also loses its K Wilbert Ortis (3-7 FG LY) and P Francois Ejofor (37.5 avg, 28.6 net). Returning at K this ssn is Robert Hersh who hit on 18-31 att's in '09 and '10 before not seeing the field a yr ago with inj. The P position for '12 has no previous experience however with true frosh Corey Carter looking to fill that duty. On the yr TSU finished with our #118 ST ranking due to a porous coverage unit that allowed 18.1 per PR, by far the worst mark in all of the FCS. Despite a unit loaded with inexperienced talent, there is really only one direction this group can go.

COACHES - Darrell Asberry takes over as HC of the Tigers for the upcoming ssn after spending the previous 5 yrs as HC of CIAA member Shaw. In his time with Shaw, Asberry guided the program to 3 CIAA Championships. Asberry will run the offense himself in '12 while LY's interim HC Kevin Ramsey (4th yr overall) and Greg Johnson will handle the DC duties.

Overview - Not much went right for the Tigers a ssn ago starting with a late coaching change in the spg that saw DC Kevin Ramsey inherit the interim job for 2011. Two of TSU's 4 wins on the ssn came against lower division tms prompting another search for a permanent HC following the ssn. While Ramsey does stay on moving back to DC, the program is excited about the hiring of Darrell Asberry, who takes over the same ssn that the Tigers also debut the opening of their new 22,000 seat stadium. After just 9 ret st'rs a ssn ago, TSU has 13 returning TY led by a potential dominant group of LB's and a secondary that continues to impress. Asberry should be able to get his new tm more than 4 wins for the upcoming yr as he attempts to re-energize the fan base.

SOUTHERN JAGUARS

"Stump" Mitchell (Career 14-40)
3rd Year at Southern (6-16)
Baton Rouge, Louisiana — Enrollment: 6,903

POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2012

QB's - Bryant Lee was SWAC OPOY in '08 and departed following '09 after taking home B2B 1st Tm SWAC awards. Jeremiah McGinty (5 att's in '09) started 10 in 2010 throwing for 1,266 (45%, 9-7) while finishing as the #3 rusher (229, 4.4). True frosh Dray Joseph (PS#247) spelled him often and started 1 throwing for 1,117 (49%, 5-4). Both were scheduled to return LY but after summer practices McGinty and the Jag's parted ways. Joseph started the F/6 and gm 10 throwing for 1,544 (53%, 13-9) while true frosh JP Douglas started 4 throwing for 1,282 (50%, 10-6). This year they both return and neither separated themselves from the other in the spring so they will continue their battle this fall. They're about even with LY at this time but ahead of where they were in September.

RB's - The leading rusher in '10 had only 329 (3.3) while Sylvester Nzekwe was #2 and the leading returnee with 248 (3.8). While their #3 (QB, left tm) and #4 (inj'd just before ssn) were scheduled to return, neither did. Nzekwe led LY with 545 (3.8) while no other RB had over 25 yds with the QB's finishing #2 and #3 (combined 108 yds). Nzekwe returns as does FB's Brian McCain (6 st LY) and Lee Mitchell (inj'd LY, 7 st '10). They're deeper than last year and the production surely needs to increase.

Rec's - In 2010 the receiving unit had to replace 3x 1st Tm SWAC WR Juamorris Stewart (1028, 12.7) and 1st Tm SWAC TE Warren Matthews (434, 16.1). They returned their #3 Curry Allen (336, 12.9) who led in '10 with 434 (13.4) and their #5 LaQuinton Evans (166, 11.1) was #2 with 329 (19.4). Eight rec's had over 100 yds but only Evans and Charles Hawkins (#5, 195, 12.2) ret'd from that group. Evans led with 696 (15.5) earning 2nd Tm SWAC followed by newcomer JC tran Michael Berry (508, 13.0). High School teammates Lee Doss (410, 12.1) and Charles Hawkins (406, 17.7) were #3 and #4. For the 3rd straight season they lose their #1 rec but this time return their next 3 giving them some depth and returning production.

O-line - Despite returning 4 starters in 2010, they had 5Y low's with 90 ypg rushing and 3.1 ypc while going from a conf-low 13 sks to a SWAC-high 27. Last year they had to replace a pair of starters including a 1st Tm SWAC C and not only did the numbers continue to regress, they finished #119 in both ypg (63) and ypc (2.4) while allowing 36 sks. They have to replace only 1 starter this year returning 3 full-time starters and a pair that split time. After starting 6 different lineups last year, they need some continuity to get the numbers back up to being respectable.

D-Line - It has been a 4 year slide as the Jaguars allowed 116 ypg in 2007 which has increased to 135, 138,150 and finally 185 ypg LY. In 2010 they ret'd 2 of their 4 starters and while the ypc rose slightly to 3.9, they improved with 26 sacks. LY they again had to replace 2 starters but ret'd Dexter James who was 2nd Tm SWAC in '08 and basically missed '09 & '10 with inj's. James did make 6 starts but they allowed over 270 yds rushing in 3 games allowing new recent highs in ypg (185) and ypc (4.2). The defense had 14 sacks the last 3 games with the season total of 28 being the best here in over 7Y. This year they have to replace 1.5 starters. Both starting DE's return and backing them up is an 11 gm starter from 2010. The DT's are Sun Belt transfers from ULL (PS#300JC) and ULM (PS#285). The slide will stop this season.

LB's - While 2 of the 3 starting LB's ret'd in both '09 and '10, the unit allowed 10.4 ppg more at 33.8 ppg giving up 20 or more in each contest. LY they again ret'd a pair of starters but added Lambuth tran and tackling machine Jamie Payton who had 226 tkls the previous 3Y. The newcomer led the team in tackles earning 1st Tm SWAC and the Jag's cut their scoring D to 24.8 ppg. This year they lose 2 starters and only return a pair of players that made 4 sts each. They have far less depth compared to the past several seasons and Anthony Balancier will return to this unit after playing FS LY and starting 6 at LB in '10.

DB's - In '10 they were expected to return 3 st'rs but their AA SS was inj'd after 2 sts so it was really like having 2 back. They had an inj plagued ssn and struggled allowing a 25-8 ratio while finishing #108 in pass eff D. LY they lost 1 starter but ret'd 8 different players that made starts and made one of the biggest jumps in football finishing #7 in pass eff D with an outstanding 10-11 ratio. This year they return 2 starters and perhaps a 3rd who has acad issue's but either way a drop is expected.

SPECIAL TEAMS - In 2010 the Jag's had a 1st Tm SWAC K and 2nd Tm P and they finished #29 in our ST rankings. LY they fielded a brand new "unit" as 2 players each pulled double duty. Manuel Canto couldn't match '10's numbers avg 35.5 (31.4 net) and hitting 4-8 FG's (L/38). Virgil Williams upped the KR's to 29.6 and while he avg'd 10.1 on PR's, that was actually down (top man in '10 had 21.0). This year they need to fill both K spots but should top LY's #100 finish.

COACHES - Lyvonia "Stump" Mitchell is in his 3rd season here. Mitchell played in the NFL for 9Y for the Cardinals and spent the 2Y prior to coming here as the WAS RB cch. The OC spot will be handled by 3 splitting up the duties while the new DC is Dawson Odoms who was the DL cch here LY and at NC A&T prior.

Overview - Up until 2010 the Jag's had 15 winning and 2 losing ssns finishing 1 game under .500 in '05 & '06. After their fewest wins since 1972, they opened up LY getting outmanned in the opener. The D held Ala A&M 5 times on 4th down in the 21-6 conf opening win but allowed a 65/7pl td drive with 4:36 left vs JSU. About 60,000 were at the Ga Dome and SU blew a late 3Q 33-17 lead vs FAMU. The Jag's moved to 2-1 in SWAC play after a tougher then expected gm vs MVSU but over the next 2 games they were tied at 20 and had a 15-14 4Q lead and lost both by a combined 4 pts. They played their best game with a ssn high on off and a ssn best on D vs Alcorn St but that was followed by their worst performance getting outgained by 330 ypg. At Ala St, SU led 19-7 but needed a 73/10pl drive and a td with :09 left for the win. They were held to a ssn low 174 yds in the finale and finished with a 4-5 conf record. They now have 15 ret starters and are in the 3rd year of the new systems.

PHIL'S 2012 SWAC FORECAST

EASTERN CONFERENCE

1. ALABAMA ST - Alabama St ret'd 16 st'rs in '08 but took a step back for a 2nd straight year dropping to 2-5 in SWAC play. In '09 they ret'd just 12 st'rs and drew the toughest schedule of any of the East teams as they did not get to play Ark-PB or Texas Southern out of the West, instead facing 3 playoff-caliber teams. With that schedule they dropped to 1-6 and were -72.9 ypg. In '10 the schedules were evened out for all the teams and we called for them to move up in the standings. The Hornets exceeded our expectations going 6-3 and sharing the Eastern crown. Despite the record they were -53.8 ypg (2nd worst) and benefitted from 2 net close wins. LY they had 18 returning st'rs (most in SWAC) but fell short of the East Title due to 3 losses by a combined 11 pts while being outgained in SWAC play by 26.6 ypg. TY ASU returns 14 st'rs, get the addition of a VHT RB trans and always produce a top notch defense. The deciding factor for picking the Hornets as East Champs is the hosting of fellow contender Jackson St on Oct. 13th. ASU will reach their 2nd Title gm in the L3Y.

2. JACKSON ST - After winning the East in '08 with a 6-3 mark, the Tigers had 17 ret st'rs and faced much improved Alabama A&M and Southern squads on the road and also drew Grambling St from the West in '09. Surprisingly JSU went just 3-4 in the SWAC as their offense, with 10 st'rs back only avg 13.9 ppg. They only finished a game out of first but were 3-7 on the yr. In '10 they had 12 ret st'rs incl 6 from the SWAC's #1 scoring D (14.7 ppg). We thought '09 was an aberration and projected them to win the East and they ended up tying with Alabama St for the top spot and were +64 ypg (#2 overall). LY they ret'd just 11 st'rs (fewest here in 5 yrs) but did bring back their outstanding QB Casey Therriault who threw for 3,791 (60%, 27-15) and benefitted from a great home schedule. They were inelig to play in the SWAC Title game because of low APR scores but still finished with an impressive 7-2 conf mark while outgaining conf foes by an outstanding 228.2 ypg (136 ypg more than #2). While the Tigers return 15 st'rs this year and boast that impressive ypg mark, they do lose QB Therriault and have to go on the road to play both Alabama St and Grambling St making a 2nd place finish in the East their likely destination.

3. ALABAMA A&M - Alabama A&M was 26-11 in SWAC play from '04-'07 which was the best mark in the conference. They had 14 ret starters in '08 but after benefitting from +17 in TO's in '07 their record dropped from 8-3 to 5-7 in '08. In '09 we thought that the Bulldogs could easily be back at the top. They had 17 ret st'rs and were #5 in the SWAC in ypg in conf play in '08. While they were just 4-3 in the SWAC, that was good enough for first and their +78.7 ypg was 3rd best behind only the league powers. They were -7 in TO's and they did lose the SWAC Title game by only 6 vs Prairie View A&M. In '10 they had 13 ret st'rs and expectations were high but surprisingly they slipped to 2-7 (-6 ypg) in SWAC play. A couple factors pointed up LY as they were -13 in TO's and had 2 net close losses. They were also playing only 4 true road games but had just 11 ret st'rs (#106 FCS exp). With Jackson St ineligible, the Bulldogs earned a bid to the SWAC Title game (finished in 3-way tie for 1st) and fell by 1 to Grambling St, a team that they beat on the road earlier in the ssn. TY A&M returns 17 st'rs incl all 11 on offense. Their ypg vs fellow SWAC opp's LY was a virtual wash (+0.3 ypg). With that being said, their schedule is rough within their division with a neutral site game vs Alabama St and a trip Jackson St both on the docket. We'll call for the Bulldogs to post a winning record but a repeat trip to the title game appears to be a long shot.

4. ALCORN ST - In '08 they ret'd 11 st'rs (fewest in the SWAC) and had a new HC. They dropped to 1-6 (-51 ypg) and a tie for the basement. In '09 they replaced their HC again and 3 HC's in 3 yrs is not usually a good situation. They were a more exp'd tm and drew both Texas South and Ark-PB out of the West so we thought they could easily see a 3rd place finish even with the coaching chaos. Alcorn actually tied for 2nd (also 3rd) at 3-4 and was +25 ypg. In '10 they ret'd 16 st'rs and had their best ssn S/'07 getting 4 conf wins (+5.7 ypg). LY they again had a new HC and a grueling schedule that featured road trips to Texas Southern, Alabama St and Jackson St. Despite returning 84% of their lettermen they struggled to a 1-8 mark within the SWAC while being outgained by 118.7 ypg (last in the conf). TY the Braves have another new HC to take over 14 ret st'rs and a tm that had 3 close losses in '11. Despite a trip to the only SWAC tm they beat a ssn ago in Miss Valley St, we'll call for Alcorn to elude the basement and potentially improve upon LY's poor finish.

5. MISSISSIPPI VALLEY ST - The Delta Devils are just 21-63 in the SWAC over the last 10 years and were -86.7 ypg in SWAC play in '07 and in '08 were even worse at -171.6 ypg. In '09 they had 17 ret st'rs, drew both Ark-PB and Texas Southern out of the West and played Ala St at a neutral site. They had the league's worst def by far (485.6 ypg) in SWAC play in '08 and improved greatly to 351 ypg in '09. They tied for the basement again as they were -12 in TO's. Their offense avg just 224 ypg in SWAC play (-127.1 ypg overall). In '10 they had 15 ret st'rs but a tougher schedule as they played only 3 "HG's" with their stadium being renovated. Despite the exp, they would go on to have one of the worst ssns in school history going 0-9 in SWAC play and were -229.2 ypg. LY they ret'd 13 st'rs but had a long way to go to catch up with the rest of the conf. The Devils earned a 3 pt victory late in the yr vs Texas Southern to end their losing streak but that win was their only positive in a 1-10 campaign that saw them be outgained by 84 ypg. MVSU now finds themselves in their 3rd yr under HC Morgan with 14 ret st'rs. While the standings may not reflect the Devils' progress in 2012, be assured that there will be significant improvement to build upon for the future.

WESTERN CONFERENCE

1. GRAMBLING ST - In '08 they had just 12 ret st'rs, the 2nd fewest in the league. The Tigers were clearly the best team in the SWAC in '08 winning their 10 reg ssn gms by an avg of 28-8 and were +137.5 ypg. They then destroyed Jackson St in the title game 41-9! GSU did benefit from +24 in TO's in '08 and it caught up to them as they dropped to 2nd (tied) in the West at 5-2 in '09 but did have 3 net close losses. In '10 they had 14 ret st'rs but faced the other top 2 out of the West on the road and were breaking in a new QB. They still finished 8-1 in conf play (+16.6 ypg) with their only blemish being a 41-34 OT loss to Texas Southern. LY they welcomed back former HC Doug Williams and got TSU at home and were clearly the favorites in the West. The Tigers surprisingly lost 3 conf gms but still found themselves atop the West at the end of the yr earning yet another berth in the SWAC Title Game. GSU overcame a 4Q deficit to edge Alabama A&M for a 1 pt victory. They now have a 37-7 SWAC record the L/5 yrs! TY the Tigers again appear to be the toast of the West as they return 12 st'rs and host our projected #3, APB. Despite being -32 ypg in conf gms a ssn ago, GSU should be on top once again.

2. PRAIRIE VIEW A&M - What a great story it was for Prairie View in '07, their 1st winning ssn S/'76. In '08 they had 15 ret st'rs and greatly outperformed our expectations as they went 9-1 (+100.9 ypg league play) with EIGHT of their wins coming by DD's. In '09 they lost their QB but still took home the SWAC Title going 7-0 and then won the Champ Game (+23 ypg). In '10 they got Grambling St and Texas Southern at neutral sites and had 14 ret st'rs including a WKU transfer at QB. While outgaining their conf opp's by just 7.3 ypg, they finished with a 6-3 SWAC mark. LY they lost their QB and were breaking in a new HC. They also had just 11 ret st'rs. While we felt it would be hard for them to duplicate their recent success, the Panthers still posted a winning mark in the SWAC at 5-4 while being outgained by 7.7 ypg. TY the tm returns 17 st'rs and the season finale at Pine Bluff could be the difference between 1st, 2nd or 3rd.

3. ARKANSAS-PINE BLUFF - The Golden Lions had 15 ret st'rs (incl 8 on def) in '08. As expected they showed improvement on D allowing 45 ypg less and in SWAC play were only -39.1 ypg but were just 2-6. Despite having 13 ret st'rs and improving to 3-4 in '09, they were a league worst -138.8 ypg! In '10 they had 14 ret st'rs and improved yet again to 4-5 and were just -1.8 ypg. LY they ret'd 80.9% of their lettermen and despite the difficult schedule, they improved to 5-4 in conf play while being outgained by just 13.3 ypg in conf play. UAPB returns 16 st'rs TY incl 10 on a very improved def from a year ago. They also get Prairie View A&M at home in the ssn finale which should give them a solid shot to finish #2 in the West.

4. TEXAS SOUTHERN - It's a no brainer who the worst tm in the SWAC was from '04-'08 (5 yrs). Texas Southern, which had just 4 overall victories from '04-'07 including two winless 0-11 ssns. They had 14 ret st'rs in '08 and went from 0-11 to 4-8. In '09 they had just 12 st'rs back and we called them one of the most improved teams in the league but still picked them for the basement. We were STUNNED to see they had the #1 offense in the SWAC and the #1 defense and finished 6-5. In '10 they had 14 st'rs back and looked even stronger and they did not disappoint going 8-1 (+238.9 ypg) finishing with the most wins here S/'56! LY they ret'd just 9 st'rs (#111 FCS exp) and played Grambling St and Jackson St on the road so struggles were expected. TSU went 2-7 within the SWAC but did outgain their foes by a very impressive 92.2 ypg. TY they have a new HC for a 2nd straight yr but do return 13 st'rs and finished '11 with -3 net close losses. While it may be hard to leap frog the projected top 3 in the West standings, they should top last years 4-win total.

5. SOUTHERN - In '08 the Jaguars had a veteran QB who had a 23-4 ratio in '07 and dealt Grambling St their only FCS loss of the reg ssn. We thought they would contend for the SWAC Title in '08 but they lost by 1 to PV A&M and GSU got revenge for the previous loss and they finished 6-2 (+123.0 ypg was 2nd best in the SWAC). While they had weapons on off in '09, our main concern was the def which had just 3 ret st'rs. Southern tied for the basement at 3-4 but was only -37.7 ypg. In '10 Southern had 14 ret st'rs but did have a new HC. They dropped significantly to 1-8 (-41.9 ypg) but did have 3 net close losses. LY they had 13 ret st'rs and were in the 2nd yr with the new coach but had scholarship restrictions and were inelig for the SWAC Title. The Jaguars finished with a 4-5 SWAC mark despite being outgained by 38.6 ypg. TY they return 15 st'rs but could find themselves in a tussle with TSU to stay out of the West basement.

SHERATON SOCIETY HILL HOTEL
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

THE SPORTS NETWORK FEATURED SECTION

Craig Haley is the FCS Executive Director for The Sports Network, the leading national media outlet for Football Championship Subdivision coverage and an international real-time sports wire service which furnishes a wide range of content on a 24/7 basis.

TSN oversees a national panel of voters to present the major individual awards in the FCS - the Walter Payton Award (FCS outstanding player), the Buck Buchanan Award (FCS outstanding defensive player), the Eddie Robinson Award (FCS coach of the year) and the Jerry Rice Award (FCS outstanding freshman player) - at the national awards ceremony on the eve of the NCAA Division I Football Championship Game. Each week throughout the season, TSN oversees The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS Top 25 and The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS National Players of the Week, followed by The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS All-America Team.

HIGHLIGHT GAMES OF THE 2012 FCS SEASON

The eye doctor gave some advice about the blurry vision.

He said to stop looking at the entire 2012 FCS schedule for hours upon end.

Sorry, just a habit. But with 122 teams anxiously waiting to kick off their season, somebody has to bring the national schedule into focus.

If you don't mind paying for the bifocals, here's the top games to look forward to this season:

CONFERENCE

Bethune-Cookman at South Carolina State (Sept. 8) - At least on paper, the biggest game of the MEAC season is its first one.

Jacksonville State at Eastern Kentucky (Sept. 22) - Washaun Ealey versus Matt Denham. Not a bad matchup of running backs.

Montana at Eastern Washington (Sept. 29) - Roll out the red carpet for the Griz running game against Eastern's passing attack.

Grambling State at Alabama A&M (Sept. 29) - It's a rematch of the 2011 SWAC Championship Game. Will Doug Williams and the Grambling assistant coaches have their bonuses by then?

North Dakota State at Northern Iowa (Sept. 29) - UNI has a brutally tough schedule in September, but oh will the Missouri Valley get fun if the Panthers beat the defending FCS champion Bison.

Youngstown State at North Dakota State (Oct. 6) - A week later, North Dakota State takes on the only team to beat it last season.

Towson at James Madison (Oct. 6) - After the two CAA teams did not face each other last year, Towson running back Terrance West gets his first look at James Madison's powerful defense.

San Diego at Drake (Oct. 6) - Collecting frequent flyer miles must be a hobby in the Pioneer Football League. These two teams shared the league title last year.

Appalachian State at Georgia Southern (Nov. 3) - The FCS' No. 1-ranked team has lost on the road in each of the last two meetings (ASU in 2010 and GSU last year).

Stony Brook at Liberty (Nov. 10) - The last five Big South titles have included at least one of these conference powers.

BONUS MATCHUPS (hey, they're basically just as good)

Delaware at New Hampshire (Sept. 29) - This game will go a long way in showing if coach K.C. Keeler has the visiting Blue Hens back in the national title picture this season.

Southern Utah at Montana (Oct. 13) - If a team is going to come out of Missoula with a win, it needs a quarterback like Southern Utah's Brad Sorensen.

Albany at Duquesne (Nov. 10) - Albany's win over Duquesne last year was decisive, although the two teams went on to share the Northeast Conference title.

Old Dominion at James Madison (Nov. 17) - No doubt this season-ending game will factor into the CAA Football title. Will it be ODU's final CAA game?

RIVALRY (Beyond Conference!)

UC Davis at Cal Poly (Sept. 22) - How is this for weird? The former Great West powers play their first Big Sky game against each other.

Sam Houston State-Stephen F. Austin (Oct. 6) - The Battle of the Piney Woods will feature offensive fireworks.

Norfolk State at Hampton (Oct. 13) - Maybe the losing team can be forced to walk home across the Chesapeake Bay Bridge.

Alabama A&M-Alabama State (Oct. 27) - The Magic City Classic will draw the biggest FCS crowd of the season ... again.

South Dakota State at North Dakota State (Nov. 10) - The Dakota Marker trophy is so cool - a model replica of the quartzite monuments that were used to delineate the border between North and South Dakota.

Montana State at Montana (Nov. 17) - Think these sides will exchange Christmas cards?

Lafayette-Lehigh (Nov. 17) - Lafayette leads the series but has dropped four straight meetings in college football's most played series (which turns 148).

Harvard-Yale (Nov. 17) - Speaking of recent dominance, Harvard has won five straight and 10 of the last 11 meetings in "The Game."

Bethune-Cookman at Florida A&M (Nov. 17) - This annual meeting at the neutral Citrus Bowl feels like a bowl game but with playoff implications. Take that, FBS.

Grambling State at Southern (Nov. 24) - So much pageantry at the Louisiana Superdome, but Grambling State has won each of the last four meetings by at least two touchdowns.

NON-CONFERENCE

Bethune-Cookman at Alabama State (Sept. 2) - B-C returns to the MEAC-SWAC Challenge off a 63-14 pounding of Prairie View A&M last year.

Montana at Appalachian State (Sept. 8) - This is better than Montana going to the University of Tennessee last September.

Montana State at Drake (Sept. 8) - Montana State sixth-year coach Rob Ash is the winningest coach in Drake history (125 wins from 1989-2006).

Central Arkansas at Murray State (Sept. 8) - UCA won a game in the playoffs last year. That's where Murray State and QB Casey Brockman want to get to this season.

Stephen F. Austin at Montana State (Sept. 15) - SFA's last trip to the state of Montana ended with a 51-0 loss to Montana. The Bobcats don't plan to be any more accommodating.

McNeese State at Weber State (Sept. 15) - John L. Smith will coach as many wins at Weber State as he will at McNeese State.

San Diego at Harvard (Sept. 15) - With the Patriot League going to athletic scholarships in 2013, matchups between the Pioneer and Ivy leagues will become more frequent. This one matches defending champions.

Eastern Kentucky at Coastal Carolina (Sept. 15) - Both teams play tough September schedules, so this is one neither wants to let get away.

Lehigh at Liberty (Sept. 22) - This was a better matchup last season.

The Citadel at VMI (Nov. 10) - Don't overlook the 68th renewal of the Military Classic of the South.

FBS

Southern Utah at Utah State (Aug. 30) - Will this one jump-start the FCS season on opening night?

Jacksonville State at Arkansas (Sept. 1) - Gamecocks coach Jack Crowe used to be the Arkansas coach.

Appalachian State at East Carolina (Sept. 1) - Future Conference USA opponents?

North Dakota State at Colorado State (Sept. 8) - Reigning FCS champions have a way of hanging with, or beating, FBS opposition.

New Hampshire at Minnesota (Sept. 8) - Well, we know how New Hampshire beats FBS teams and Minnesota loses to FCS teams.

Bethune-Cookman at Miami, Fla. (Sept. 15) - The visiting Wildcats have their share of FBS transfers.

Sam Houston State at Baylor (Sept. 15) - No RG3 here, but the visiting Bearkats feature star players.

Stony Brook at Army (Sept. 29) - Here's hoping they combine for 1,000 rushing yards.

Towson at LSU (Sept. 29) - It's just cool to say you're playing in Death Valley.

Georgia Southern at Georgia (Nov. 17) - Alabama's defending FBS national championship squad will vouch for GSU's triple option.

RANKING THE FCS CONFERENCES

Pick the top four FCS conferences out of a hat.

It almost doesn't matter who you choose.

CAA Football, the Missouri Valley Football Conference, the Big Sky Conference and the Southern Conference each has reason to consider it to be the best among FCS conferences.

It used to be easy. In recent years, the CAA held the honor, with four national champs and three national runner-up squads during an eight-year span. Before the CAA, the SoCon reigned supreme, with Appalachian State's back-to-back-to-back National Championships from 2005-07 as well as Georgia Southern's historical dominance.

Those two conferences remain among the best, but the Missouri Valley, home of reigning FCS champion North Dakota State, and the Big Sky, home to 2010 champ Eastern Washington, are in the heated conversation. The Big Sky has even taken on four schools from the highly regarded, but disbanded Great West Football Conference.

There's probably no right or wrong answer about who's best, but our conference rankings still have the CAA on top:

1. CAA Football - The depth of teams at the top of the conference is still why the CAA earns the high accolades. Oh, it took a step backward last season as no team reached the national semifinals. It also has lost or will lose Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Georgia State and emerging Old Dominion to conference realignment. But in mid-October last year, nine of the 11 CAA teams were ranked in The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS Top 25. Yeah, wow! Defending champ Towson, ODU and James Madison appear headed to banner seasons, and New Hampshire, Delaware and Maine are part of the next tier. If Villanova's young squad matures quickly, it could be a dark horse in conference play.

2. Missouri Valley Football Conference - North Dakota State lost many key seniors from its first FCS championship team, but coach Craig Bohl is confident of another deep run in the playoffs - perhaps a telling sign considering coaches usually try to downplay their team's chances. Traditional power Northern Iowa will probably have a losing record by September's end, but the Panthers and their running game will pick up steam in October and November. The top of the conference is bunched with the likes of Youngstown State, Illinois State, Indiana State and perhaps South Dakota State with its impressive sophomore quarterback Austin Sumner.

3. Big Sky - The FCS' biggest conference - 13 teams - is going to be a meat grinder. Some decent program is going to say, "Yeah, we're in 10th place." Montana State will be a national title threat if coach Rob Ash puts together any kind of an offensive line for quarterback DeNarius McGhee. Montana, which seems to own the deed to the conference, has stumbled off the field in the offseason. Now it's a matter of finding out how much it has fallen on the field since going to the national semifinals last season. Eastern Washington could move past the Grizzlies with its explosive offense. The depth of the conference is impressive with the likes of conference newcomers North Dakota, Cal Poly and Southern Utah (featuring QB Brad Sorensen) mixing with Portland State, Weber State and Northern Arizona.

4. Southern Conference - It seems sacrilegious to have the SoCon at No. 4, but the conference may have a lot of good, though not great teams. Unless the old guard comes through, that is. Few teams can stop Georgia Southern's triple option, and if quarterback Jerick McKinnon or Ezayi Youyoute can provide some kind of passing attack, the Eagles will be in the national title picture. All's seemingly quiet at Appalachian State. That should not be comforting for the Mountaineers' foes. Wofford has a lethal running game with Eric Breitenstein and Donovan Johnson. If Chattanooga, Furman or Samford plays to a higher level, the No. 4 ranking may not look so good.

5. Southland Conference - Sam Houston State, the 2011 FCS runner-up, appears to be the consensus pick for this season's national champion. Coach Willie Fritz's squad probably has two built-in losses against FBS members Baylor and Texas A&M, so the Bobcats may have to win all of their other regular-season games to have a favorable home schedule in the playoffs again. Stephen F. Austin has its passing game humming again, but faces a difficult first half of the schedule. A slip by the Lumberjacks will open the door for Central Arkansas or McNeese State to possibly make the playoffs.

6. Ohio Valley Conference - If last year's three-way championship was close, try separating Jacksonville State, Eastern Kentucky and Murray State going into the season. Each is a Top 25-worthy team with a veteran quarterback. And then there's Tennessee Tech, which earned the OVC's automatic bid to the playoffs last season. What dents the OVC's national reputation is that it hasn't had a member win an FCS playoff game since 2000.

7. Big South - OK, mark it down, Stony Brook will run all over the Big South again this season. Ah, but conference power Liberty, perhaps on its way to a future FBS move under coach Turner Gill, will have the home game when they meet on Nov. 10. It's a two-team race, although Gardner-Webb will be improved this season.

8. Patriot League - Lehigh hasn't lost a league game since 2009. It might happen this year following quarterback Chris Lum's graduation. The Mountain Hawks travel to Georgetown and Holy Cross, so the race will be interesting. Bucknell, Colgate and Lafayette could enjoy their moments this year, too.

9. Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference - Conference favorites Bethune-Cookman and South Carolina State appear to rivaling each other for the tougher September schedule, and, oh yes, they play each other on Sept. 8 in Orangeburg, S.C. This should be an improved season for the conference with the likes of Florida A&M, defending champion Norfolk State and Hampton not to be counted out.

10. Ivy League - In contrast to the MEAC, the Ancient Eight is taking a step back this season, with Harvard a heavy favorite to repeat as champion. Cornell is on the rise while traditional power Penn tries to regroup after a mediocre 5-5 campaign. What makes this an underrated league is that its national recruiting allows it to secure talented players, not just smart ones.

11. Northeast Conference - Pity the defensive coordinators, the NEC returns four rushers who went over 1,300 yards last year. Expect some crazy scores along the way. Defending co-champs Albany and Duquesne as well as Bryant and Monmouth have legitimate title candidacy.

12. Southwestern Athletic Conference - The conference with football legends such as Eddie Robinson, Walter Payton, Buck Buchanan and Jerry Rice needs to step back in time. Well, it kind of did last year when Doug Williams returned to the sideline to lead Grambling State to the conference title. Alabama A&M, Alabama State, Jackson State and Arkansas-Pine Bluff follow in a closely matched conference.

13. Pioneer Football League - The non-scholarship PFL seemingly is one year away from an automatic FCS playoff bid for its champion. League favorite San Diego, with a host of returning talent, sure wishes this was the year. The Toreros' tough road schedule - Cal Poly, Harvard, Drake and Jacksonville - could catch up to them. Drake, which shared last year's title with San Diego, Jacksonville and Dayton add depth to what should be a solid year for the league.

WHO'S AFRAID OF THE BIG, BAD (FBS) WOLF?

March Madness may have whet the appetite with dreams of upsets, but the small-school triumphs are much easier to be had on the hardwood than the gridiron.

Last year, six FCS programs did more than take a guaranteed payday from an FBS school, they went out and beat the big boys on their home fields.

It doesn't happen often, so the wins stand out.

That made it easy to see in September what was coming in January. North Dakota State and Sam Houston State beat Minnesota and New Mexico, respectively, on the same day. The momentum helped guide them to the FCS national championship game, where North Dakota State beat Sam Houston.

This season, there will be 105 FCS-versus-FBS matchups, including four games involving South Alabama, Texas State and UTSA, programs which are transitioning out of the FCS to the FBS.

Following is a conference-by-conference breakdown of the matchups (the non-scholarship Ivy and Pioneer leagues don't play FBS schools):

BIG SKY

The matchups (17)

Aug. 30: Eastern Washington at Idaho
Northern Colorado at Utah
Southern Utah at Utah State
Sept. 1: Idaho State at Air Force
Northern Arizona at Arizona State
Sacramento State at New Mexico State
Weber State at Fresno State
Sept. 8: Eastern Washington at Washington State
Northern Arizona at UNLV
Sacramento State at Colorado
Weber State at BYU
Southern Utah at California
UC Davis at San Jose State
Sept. 15: Portland State at Washington
Cal Poly at Wyoming
North Dakota at San Diego State
Sept. 22: Idaho State at Nebraska

Dateline, Upset City? - Eastern Washington's offensive weapons will be enhanced by the carpet inside the Kibbie Dome. And the host Vandals won't be mistaken for Boise State.

Don't overlook - Big Sky newcomer UC Davis was victorious in its last trip to San Jose State in 2010.

BIG SOUTH

The matchups (9)

Sept. 1: Liberty at Wake Forest
Sept. 8 Presbyterian at Georgia Tech
Sept. 15: Charleston Southern at Illinois
Presbyterian at Vanderbilt
Stony Brook at Syracuse
Sept. 22: Coastal Carolina at Toledo
Gardner-Webb at Pittsburgh
VMI at Navy
Sept. 29: Stony Brook at Army.

Dateline, Upset City? - Army's option offense might not outgain Stony Brook backs Miguel Maysonet and Marcus Coker.

Don't overlook - Liberty's visit to Wake Forest will be the debut of new head coach Turner Gill, who knows a thing or two about the FBS level.

CAA FOOTBALL

The matchups (11)

Sept. 1: Richmond at Virginia
Towson at Kent State
Villanova at Temple
William & Mary at Maryland
Sept. 8: Maine at Boston College
New Hampshire at Minnesota
Georgia State at Tennessee
Sept. 15: James Madison at West Virginia
Georgia State at UTSA
Sept. 29: Rhode Island at Bowling Green
Towson at LSU

Dateline, Upset City? - New Hampshire coach Sean McDonnell led the Wildcats to that nifty five-game winning streak against FBS programs from 2004-09. Minnesota is never a lock against FCS competition.

Don't overlook - Towson could open September with a win over Kent State, but the Tigers will close the month trying to escape LSU in one piece.

MEAC

The matchups (12)

Sept. 1: Savannah State at Oklahoma State
Sept. 8: Florida A&M at Oklahoma
Howard at Rutgers
Morgan State at Buffalo
Savannah State at Florida State
Sept. 15: Bethune-Cookman at Miami (Fla.)
Delaware State at Cincinnati
Morgan State at Akron
North Carolina Central at Duke
South Carolina State at Arizona
Sept. 22: Norfolk State at Ohio
South Carolina State at Texas A&M

Dateline, Upset City? - A swing and a miss is likely in all 12 games, but quarterback Seth Higgins and Morgan State could sneak up on Akron, which was 1-11 last season.

Don't overlook - Gulp, Savannah State is playing back-to-back games at Oklahoma State and Florida State. The smart money says the combined losses will total over 100 points.

MISSOURI VALLEY

The matchups (12)

Sept. 1: Indiana State at Indiana
Missouri State at Kansas State
Northern Iowa at Wisconsin
South Dakota State at Kansas
Youngstown State at Pittsburgh
Sept. 8: Illinois State at Eastern Michigan
Missouri State at Louisville
North Dakota State at Colorado State
Southern Illinois at Miami (Ohio)
Sept. 15: Northern Iowa at Iowa
Western Illinois at Iowa State
Sept. 22: South Dakota at Northwestern.

Dateline, Upset City? - Fort Collins, Colo., earned a "Best Place to Live" designation from Money magazine in 2006, but defending FCS champion North Dakota State will strictly be on a business trip to Colorado State. The Bison have a 5-3 record against FBS teams since 2006.

Don't overlook - Youngstown State junior quarterback Kurt Hess' first collegiate game in 2010 was a 21-for-25, two-touchdown performance at Penn State. Pitt better be on guard.

NORTHEAST CONFERENCE

The matchup (1)

Aug. 31: Wagner at Florida Atlantic

Dateline, Upset City? - This is Wagner's first-ever game against an FBS opponent. A win over a 1-11 Sun Belt team counts as an upset, right?

Don't overlook - Robert Morris opens its season at North Dakota State. That might feel like an FBS opponent to the Colonials.

OHIO VALLEY

The matchups (11)

Aug. 30: SE Missouri State at Central Michigan
Sept. 1: Austin Peay at Western Kentucky
Eastern Kentucky at Purdue
Jacksonville State at Arkansas
Murray State at Florida State
UT Martin at Memphis
Sept. 8: Austin Peay at Virginia Tech
Eastern Illinois at Western Michigan
UT Martin at Northern Illinois
Sept. 15: Tennessee Tech at Oregon
Nov. 17: Jacksonville State at Florida.

Dateline, Upset City? - UT Martin lost a bunch of close games last season. Its high-scoring offense should produce against Memphis, which is coming off a 2-10 season.

Don't overlook - Jacksonville State's Jack Crowe was fired as the Arkansas head coach the day after a 1992 loss to The Citadel's FCS program. He's returning to Fayetteville, and his best player is former Georgia running back Washaun Ealey.

PATRIOT LEAGUE

The matchup (1)

Oct. 13: Fordham at Cincinnati.

Dateline, Upset City? - Um, yeah, pass.

Don't overlook - New Fordham head coach Joe Moorhead went 1-2 against Cincinnati over the last three seasons as a Connecticut assistant coach, including a 38-17 win as the Huskies' offensive coordinator in 2010.

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

The matchups (9)

Sept. 1 Appalachian State at East Carolina
Chattanooga at South Florida
Elon at North Carolina
Sept. 8 Western Carolina at Marshall
Sept. 15 Furman at Clemson
Nov. 17 Georgia Southern at Georgia
Samford at Kentucky
Western Carolina at Alabama
Wofford at South Carolina

Dateline, Upset City? - Chattanooga hopes to win some of the close games that it lost last season. If the Mocs can keep it tight behind run-first quarterback Terrell Robinson and their emerging defense, maybe the East Carolina players will tighten up in crunch time.

Don't overlook - Appalachian State holds a 19-11 series lead over South Florida. In the most recent meeting to open the 2009 season, ECU held off a late rally from ASU for a 29-24 victory while Mountaineers two-time Walter Payton Award recipient Armanti Edwards sat out with an injury.

SOUTHLAND

Sept. 1 Central Arkansas at Mississippi
Lamar at Louisiana-Lafayette
McNeese State at Middle Tennessee
Nicholls State at Oregon State
Northwestern State at Texas Tech
Southeastern Louisiana at Missouri
Sept. 8 Nicholls State at South Alabama
Stephen F. Austin at SMU
Sept. 15 Lamar at Hawaii
Nicholls State at Tulsa
Northwestern State at Nevada
Sam Houston State at Baylor
Sept. 22 Stephen F. Austin at Texas State
Oct. 6 Southeastern Louisiana at UAB
Nov. 10 McNeese State at UTSA
Nov. 17 Sam Houston State at Texas A&M

Dateline, Upset City? - Sun Belt teams don't exactly put a scare into FCS teams. McNeese State has played some tougher FCS opponents in recent seasons than Middle Tennessee.

Don't overlook - Sam Houston State, which is hoping to get back to the FCS national championship game, is taking a double dip into FBS competition (Baylor and Texas A&M) while playing only three games on campus. The Bearkats better hope their playoff seed is not affected negatively by the scheduling.

SWAC

The matchups (6)

Sept. 1 Jackson State at Mississippi State
Southern at New Mexico
Sept. 8 Grambling State at TCU
Texas Southern at North Texas
Sept. 22 Alcorn State at Arkansas State
Nov. 17 Alabama A&M at Auburn

Dateline, Upset City? - Southern coach Stump Mitchell must be eyeing the fact New Mexico is coming off three straight one-win seasons.

Don't overlook - Auburn's dress rehearsal for Alabama is against ... Alabama A&M? With a $500,000 guarantee, the Bulldogs from A&M will gladly play a Southeastern Conference opponent for the first time.

FBS TO FCS TRANSFERS TO WATCH

Philadelphia, PA (Sports Network) - A transfer energizes a fanbase like little else during the offseason in the Football Championship Subdivision.

If their favorite school is willing to take on such a newcomer from a Bowl Subdivision program, fans reason that he must be a special player and will make an impact without any doubt.

Many times, it pans out that way. Last year's Walter Payton Award winner, Eastern Washington quarterback Bo Levi Mitchell, who also led the Eagles to the 2010 FCS national championship, was the epitome of what a school can gain in a highly regarded transfer.

Not all transfers will be hits, of course - some will be a swing-and-a-miss for a school. But going into a season, fans came dream big with their team's new addition.

Following are FBS-to-FCS transfers to watch this season:

D.J. Adams, RB, Portland State (from Maryland)

Graduation depleted the Vikings' running game, but they hope Adams is an immediate cure. He scored 11 touchdowns for a Maryland freshman record in 2010, but his playing time decreased last year under first-year Terrapins coach Randy Edsall (only 40 carries). At 5-foot-10, 220 pounds, Adams was often used in short-yardage situations, but his power style fits the Vikings' system, and that will increase his touches.

Tyrone Bouie, CB, Bethune-Cookman (from Minnesota)

Bouie didn't play much in two seasons at Minnesota, but he's back home in a warmer climate and ready to make an impact in the Wildcats' secondary. He has an aggressive style of play, breaking well on the ball and giving support in run coverage. Part of a big class of transfers to coach Brian Jenkins' program, Bouie has three seasons of eligibility remaining.

Marcus Coker, RB, Stony Brook (from Iowa)

Seawolves coach Chuck Priore hit the FBS-to-FCS jackpot by adding Coker, who rushed for 1,384 yards, trailing only Heisman Trophy finalist Montee Ball of Wisconsin in the Big Ten, and 15 touchdowns as a sophomore last season. He is a 5-11, 230-pound bruiser who will be one of the top FCS prospects for the 2014 NFL Draft, unless he leaves school early next year. He will join Miguel Maysonet in another dominant Stony Brook backfield, which cushions the loss of Brock Jackolski, who accounted for more than 2,400 combined yards last season.

Braden Hanson, QB, North Dakota (from North Carolina)

Hanson only has one season of eligibility remaining, but the Fighting Sioux believe that's enough to help them transition into the Big Sky Conference and groom their younger quarterbacks. The final co-champs from the Great West Conference had a porous passing game a year ago, but Hanson, a 6-6, 215-pound left-hander, will see over tall linemen and get the ball down the field. He was the 2007 North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year.

Trent Hurley, QB, Delaware (from Bowling Green)

The starting quarterback at Delaware is little like center fielder for the New York Yankees - it's a position always revered, yet under the microscope. There's no guarantee that Hurley will be QB 1 for coach K.C. Keeler, but he will have an opportunity to win the job in preseason camp. He seriously considered going to Delaware before he enrolled at Bowling Green and now has three seasons of eligibility remaining. He has good arm strength and runs the ball effectively.

Jordan Love, CB, Towson (from Georgia)
Darrell Givens, S, Towson (from Rutgers)

Eddie Robinson Award winner Rob Ambrose needed to improve his secondary this offseason and he secured answers with Love and Givens, who both have two seasons of eligibility remaining. They were highly regarded coming out of high school, Love from Maryland and Givens from New Jersey. Love has more playing experience, having appeared in 21 career games, with 21 tackles and two forced fumbles.

Mika'il McCall, RB, Southern Illinois (from Iowa)

McCall came out of spring practice listed at No. 3 on the Salukis' depth chart at running back, but McCall will work his way into regular duty. He follows former Salukis running back Jewel Hampton in the Iowa-to-SIU transfer. McCall rushed for 61 yards on nine carries in Iowa's season opener against Tennessee Tech last year before he suffered a broken ankle. When he returned to the field, he was a disgruntled backup who was suspended for the Hawkeyes' final two games. He has three seasons of eligibility remaining.

Jonathon Miller, RB, Illinois State (from Oklahoma)
Ezra Thompson, S, Illinois State (from Colorado State)

His recovery from shoulder surgery may force Miller to miss the start of the Redbirds' season, but he could be their starting running back when he returns to the lineup. He was lightly used at Oklahoma, but did damage against an FCS opponent, rushing for 88 yards and a 36-yard touchdown against Idaho State in 2009. Like Miller, Thompson has two years of eligibility remaining and he is expected to start at strong safety. The former Illinois high school standout made 52 tackles in two seasons at Colorado State. He was a ball-hawk during the Redbirds' spring practices.

Kyle Padron, QB, Eastern Washington (from SMU)

The story is so unique: Padron replaced Mitchell as SMU's starting quarterback during the 2009 season, later lost the job and now is following Mitchell's lead to EWU, where after transferring in Mitchell won an FCS title and a Walter Payton Award. Padron, who's 6-4, 233 pounds, will excel in the Eagles' passing attack, which has a dominant group of wide receivers. He's quite mobile and likes to air the ball out. At SMU, he threw for 5,902 yards and 41 touchdowns.

Lynden Trail, OLB, Norfolk State (from Florida)

Trail needs to start making news on the field rather than off it. The defending MEAC champion Spartans think he can after switching him from defensive end to a 6-7, 250-pound outside linebacker during spring practice. Trail drew ire over a MySpace photo of him in eighth grade in gang apparel. He also was arrested on an assault charge this spring. As a player, he never took the field at Florida, but the Miami resident is the most highly recruited player in Norfolk State's Division I era.

Dontel Watkins, WR, Murray State (from Utah State)

Utah State tried to switch the former JUCO transfer from wide receiver to cornerback last year, but he's back to the position in which he excels most for a senior season at Murray State. The 6-2 Watkins will be a great target for quarterback Casey Brockman and has reminded some of former Racers wideout Marcus Harris. In 2010, Watkins played in 12 games for Utah State, making nine starts, and led the team in receptions (42), receiving yards (492) and touchdown receptions (four). He also can return kickoffs.

Leilon Willingham, LB, Northern Colorado (from UCF)

Put Willingham, a former four-star prep recruit next to All-Big Sky linebacker Clarence Bumpas, and Northern Colorado will cure some of the ills that plagued it during a winless campaign last season. The 6-2, 240-pound Denver native, who returns to his homestate, was the only true freshman to start in UCF's season opener last year. He played well early in the season before fading. He has excellent speed to match his impressive size.

ROB AMBROSE CAPTURES EDDIE ROBINSON AWARD

Towson coach honored as most outstanding FCS college football head coach

Rob Ambrose
Towson

Before the 2011 season started, Towson was picked to finish last in CAA Football.

However, the Tigers turned the standings upside down this season, putting together a 9-3 record, winning an outright CAA title and hosting a game in the second round of the FCS playoffs.

Having guided his team to new heights, Towson coach Rob Ambrose was honored as the 2011 Eddie Robinson Award recipient, given annually to the FCS Coach of the Year.

Ambrose is the 25th recipient of the award, which is named for legendary Grambling State head coach Eddie Robinson, the second-winningest coach in Division I history with 408 victories.

Now in his third season as a head coach, it was rocky at first for Ambrose, a Towson alumnus, as his teams struggled to 2-9 and 1-10 finishes in his first two seasons.

"You have to get to a point where you can actually discuss winning, and it took two years before that could even be a conversation," Ambrose said. "The first time I walked out on the field against a CAA team and looked at my guys versus another CAA team, we looked like a JV team, and I'm thinking 'My gosh, this is terrible.'"

Last season, winning was finally part of the discussion, as the Tigers went 5-2 against teams ranked in The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS Top 25 and reeled off three different three-game winning streaks. Towson hadn't had a three-game winning streak since 2006.

Ambrose appeared on 110 of the 132 ballots and received 59 first-place votes, edging out Sam Houston State's Willie Fritz.

Ambrose was the fourth coach from the CAA (formerly the Atlantic 10 and Yankee Conference) to win the Eddie Robinson Award, and the first since James Madison coach Mickey Matthews was honored in 2008.

Matthews, the only two-time winner, helped present the award at the national awards dinner in Frisco, Texas.

The Robinson Award was voted on by a national panel of sports information and media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries.

BO LEVI MITCHELL WINS 2011 WALTER PAYTON AWARD

Prolific quarterback honored as the most outstanding player in FCS

Bo Levi Mitchell
Eastern Washington

As the injuries mounted for the Eastern Washington football team last season, Bo Levi Mitchell's production increased when most quarterbacks would have endured a decline.

Mitchell was all too happy to put the Eagles on his throwing shoulder and carry them.

The senior was honored for his record-setting season with the 2011 Walter Payton Award, which goes to the outstanding player in the Football Championship Subdivision. He was the 25th annual recipient.

Mitchell, who one season earlier was named the most outstanding performer when Eastern Washington won the FCS championship game in Frisco, collected 57 first-place votes and 453 points from a national panel of 132 sports information and media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries. Lehigh quarterback Chris Lum and Indiana State running back Shakir Bell tied for second with 219 points each.

"He worked at (development) and we saw the growth - he worked hard to develop his skills and was tireless at studying video in order to better understand and operate our offense," EWU head coach Beau Baldwin said of Mitchell, who transferred to the Big Sky Conference school from SMU following his sophomore year. "It culminated with his production this season and the way our team ended the year with six wins in our last seven games. I couldn't be more proud of what he accomplished here."

The 6-foot-2, 210-pound Mitchell led the nation in passing yards (4,009) and touchdown passes (33) during the regular season. As Eastern Washington's offense suffered seven key injuries (including five that were season-ending), the Big Sky's offensive player of the year averaged 364.5 passing yards per game, which ranks ninth in FCS history. He completed 318-of-503 attempts (63.2 percent), with 13 interceptions. The Eagles finished with a 6-5 record.

"I'm blessed with more receivers around me that are so good," Mitchell said.

Mitchell, from Katy, Texas, was the second player from Eastern Washington to win the Payton Award - quarterback Erik Meyer won in 2005 - and the sixth winner from the Big Sky.

Lum, a 6-2, 205-pound senior, led Lehigh to a second straight unbeaten season in Patriot League play and was named the league's offensive player of the year. As the Mountain Hawks finished 10-1 in the regular season, Lum ranked third in the FCS in passing yards per game (348.6) and second in touchdown passes (31). He completed 297-of-443 attempts (67 percent) for 3,739 yards, with 15 interceptions.

Bell, a 5-foot-7, 185-pound sophomore, was the FCS rushing leader (1,670 yards, 151.8 per game) during the regular season. Named the Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Year, he scored 14 touchdowns and averaged 7.3 yards per carry. The Sycamores posted their second straight winning season with a 6-5 record.

MATT EVANS COLLECTS BUCK BUCHANAN AWARD

New Hampshire's gritty linebacker honored as most outstanding defensive player in FCS

Matt Evans
New Hampshire

New Hampshire junior linebacker Matt Evans kept busy throughout the entire regular season, leading the Football Championship Subdivision with 154 tackles and 88 solo stops.

He was rewarded for all his stops as he was named the 2011 Buck Buchanan Award winner, which honors the outstanding defensive player in the FCS.

"It was really something I didn't expect," Evans said. "It's a huge honor to be a part of that prestigious group."

The second player from CAA Football to win the award, Evans appeared on 113 of the 132 ballots and received 45 first-place votes, edging out Northern Iowa senior linebacker L.J. Fort.

Before the season, Evans never set his sights on individual awards.

"I just try, and want to be, the best player I can be," he said. "If I play well and get those honors, that is just added incentive. Obviously, it means more to me for the team to have a better season."

In addition to leading the nation in total tackles and solo stops, Evans posted double-digit tackles in 10 of New Hampshire's 11 regular-season games. He also snagged a pair of interceptions (one for a touchdown), forced three fumbles and registered six tackles for loss.

"Matt is one of those kids who is a very instinctive football player," New Hampshire coach Sean McDonnell said. "He's not a huge linebacker, he weighs about 215, 220 pounds soaking wet. He's got great speed, he's got great athleticism and he tackles very well. But, the thing that Matty does is he understands how people are attacking. He also knows how to get there, and gets around blocks."

The instincts that Evans, who is officially listed at 6 feet, 227 pounds, showed this season, have been refined since he started playing football at a young age in Hanover, Mass.

Those instincts received an upgrade the past three seasons, as the Wildcats defense went head-to-head in practice with one of the best offenses in the nation.

"Our offense is definitely one of the best in the country," Evans said. "It's always been that way, at least since I got here. But, it's helped with the change on defense, we've gotten much better since I've been here."

AWARD FAVORITES

2012 Buck Buchanan Award Favorites

1. Matt Evans, New Hampshire, LB, Sr., 6-0, 219
Evans is seeking to become the second two-time Buchanan Award recipient after winning the award last season. Two years ago, he was fourth in the voting. The production won't change much as a senior after he posted double-digit tackle totals in 21 of the Wildcats' 25 games the last 2 seasons.

2. Brent Russell, Georgia Southern, NT, Sr., 6-2, 291
The Southern Conference's reigning defensive player of the year has been outstanding for three straight seasons. His career numbers, including 45.5 tackles for loss and a school-record 20.5 sacks, are particularly strong when factoring in how he often faces double-teams

3. Marcus Williams, North Dakota State, CB, Jr., 5-11, 190
Perhaps the top FCS prospect for the 2014 NFL Draft, Williams will have to keep making electrifying plays – he scored four touchdowns off a variety of return last season. He's a shutdown defender, but no cornerback has won the Buchanan Award.

4. Ben Obaseki, Indiana State, DE, Sr., 6-3, 235
Obaseki is capable of dominating a game and consistent big numbers will be impressive to voters, especially if the Sycamores reach the FCS playoffs. He enters his final season with 36.5 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks and 17 QB hurries in his career.

5. Keith Pough, Howard, LB, Sr., 6-3, 235
Pough is a ball carrier's nightmare; they just don't seem to get back to the line of scrimmage when he is around. He led the FCS with 28.5 tackles for loss in 2010 and added another 21 last season. In three seasons, he has 277 career tackles.

2012 Eddie Robinson Award Favorites

1. Jeff Monken, Georgia Southern
If Monken keeps doing the job he has done in each of his first two seasons as the Eagles' head coach, he is going to win a Buchanan Award at some point. He has revitalized the six-time FCS championship program with back-to-back national semifinal appearances. His style also represents his profession well.

2. Mickey Matthews, James Madison
The only two-time winner of the Robinson Award would be charmed by a third time because that likely will mean his Dukes had won the title in rugged CAA Football and enjoyed a banner campaign. His squad seemed to put it together in November last season.

3. Chuck Priore, Stony Brook
The Seawolves once again have two chances to pick off FBS competition this season. Put a win like that on top of another undefeated run in the Big South and Priore might capture more than just the conference's coach of the year award.

4. Eric Wolford, Youngstown State
With a 6-5 record last season, the Penguins doubled their win total from Wolford's rookie season in 2010. They were the only team to beat FCS champion North Dakota State last season and appear ready for an even bigger season this year.

5. Dean Hood, Eastern Kentucky
Many people didn't believe the Colonels should have been included in last year's FCS playoff field. Hood isn't planning to leave anything to chance in this year's Ohio Valley Conference race. His squad is primed for a big season.

2012 Walter Payton Award Favorites

1. Aaron Mellette, Elon, WR, Sr., 6-4, 212
Villanova's Brian Finneran (1997) is the only Payton Award winner through its first 25 years, but voters will find it hard to deny Mellette if he builds on last year's incredible season of 113 receptions for a school-record 1,639 yards - both FCS highs - with 12 touchdowns. Mellette, who might be the first FCS player selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, is helped by the return of Phoenix quarterback Thomas Wilson.

2. Timothy Flanders, Sam Houston State, RB, Sr., 5-9, 210
If Flanders got a few more carries a game – he averages 20 – he would be the favorite going into his senior season. He also gets touches off receptions, so that added production will help keep him as a touchdown machine (he scored 24 in 15 games last season)

3. Terrance West, Towson, RB, So., 5-11, 220
Go West, young man. West did just that last season in going to the national awards banquet, collecting the inaugural Jerry Rice Award as the FCS freshman of the year. He has speed and power to build on his 1,294 rushing yards, although it might be hard to match last year's 29 touchdowns.

4. Shakir Bell, Indiana State, RB, Jr., 5-8, 185
Bell, the FCS rushing leader, tied for second in last season's Payton ballotting. The loss of quarterback Ronnie Fouch will hurt Bell, however, because opponents will key on him. Of course, they have to catch him, which isn't easy to do considering he averaged nearly 7.3 yards per carry.

5. (tie) Brad Sorensen, Southern Utah, QB, Sr., 6-5, 225
Other quarterbacks will put up better number than Sorensen, but if he answers the call in the Thunderbirds' move to the Big Sky Conference, voters will take note (those, that is, who are not voting for Montana State stud DeNarius McGhee). Sorensen has passed for over 3,100 yards in each of the last two seasons.

(tie) Eric Breitenstein, Wofford, RB, Sr., 5-11, 225
Breitenstein is the FCS' active leader with 3,695 rushing yards and 46 touchdowns. The 2011 Southern Conference Offensive Player of the Year will have another monster season despite sharing carries with backfield mate Donovan Johnson.

TOWSON'S TERRANCE WEST WINS INAUGURAL JERRY RICE AWARD

Running back named the FCS's most outstanding FCS freshman

RB Terrance West
Towson

Frisco, TX (Sports Network) - It was a season that almost wasn't for Towson freshman running back Terrance West, as he nearly redshirted and sat out the first game of the season.

But, after his redshirt was lifted, teams couldn't keep the 5-foot-11, 222-pound freshman out of the end zone. West rushed for 27 touchdowns in the regular season, ranking No. 1 in the FCS.

For his exploits, West was honored with the inaugural Jerry Rice Award, which is awarded to the outstanding freshman in the FCS.

"It feels very good to be going to the Jerry Rice Award (presentation)," said West, who received the award from its namesake, football legend Jerry Rice.

A Baltimore native, West didn't earn a scholarship until halfway through his superb season and before that the talented freshman struggled to even find a place to play, at times nearly going to Clemson, Maryland and Morgan State.

"We got him in the door and all he wanted was an opportunity," Towson coach Rob Ambrose said. "He wasn't on scholarship, he was here all spring and most of this semester not on scholarship. I told him, 'I'm going to give you the same deal I give everybody else, you'll get what you earn.'"

West made his season debut the second week of the season and rushed for two touchdowns in a win against Villanova. It was the first of nine multi-touchdown games for West (he finished with 29 total scores after a playoff loss to Lehigh).

Setting the Towson record for touchdown runs in a season, West had three four-touchdown games and helped the Tigers to a CAA Football title, the first in program history.

West was a runaway winner of the award, receiving 89 of the 132 first-place votes, 74 more than Old Dominion quarterback Taylor Heinicke, who finished second in the balloting.
way, at least since I got here. But, it's helped with the change on defense, we've gotten much better since I've been here."

COASTAL CAROLINA COACH - MORE THAN ALL-BUSINESS

By Craig Haley, FCS Executive Director

Joe Moglia
Head Coach: Coastal Carolina University
Football Career: Head coach, UFL's Omaha Nighthawks, 2011; executive advisor to head coach, University of Nebraska, 2009-10; defensive coordinator, Dartmouth College, 1981-83; defensive secondary and special teams coach, recruiting coordinator, Lafayette College, 1978-80.
Corporate Career: TD Ameritrade Holding Corp., chairman, 2008-present, chief executive officer, 2001-08; Merrill Lynch, various roles, 1984-2001.
Education: Fordham University, bachelor's degree in economics, 1971; University of Delaware, master's in education, 1974; honorary doctorate degrees from Fordham University and Bellevue University.

It's ironic how Joe Moglia's hiring as Coastal Carolina's head football coach draws so much scrutiny.

Here's a coach who left the profession for the business world for 26 years only to return in 2009, first in a volunteer role for two seasons and then for one season in the troubled United Football League.

Yet what Moglia says most people fail to recognize is that he's been more equipped for his return to coaching football than he was in 1984 training alongside a bunch of MBA graduates 10 years younger than him.

"There is a very real parallel here," said the 62-year-old first-time head coach of a college program. "When I got to the business world, most people said, 'Well, gee, this guy doesn't have anything near a business background. All he's been doing is coaching football.'

"This is my 20th season in football and I've been doing this now for the last four years. But people kind of forget that and they say, 'Hey, this guy's coming from the business world, what does he really know about football?' I'm actually far more qualified to go back to football than I was to go from football to business the first time around."

If Moglia had been named Coastal Carolina's head coach on his birthday - April Fool's Day - instead of in December, many Chanticleers fans may have laughed off the announcement as a practical joke.

Only 11 days after firing the only head coach in the program's history - the highly successful David Bennett - the Big South Conference university in Conway, S.C., hired the vastly successful former CEO of the on-line brokerage firm Ameritrade. It was surprising, if not upsetting, to many alumni.

Old enough to be a grandfather to his new players, Moglia has an unusual story, but he doesn't believe he has to explain himself to others. It might look like he's trying to live a real-life version of Fantasy Football in his golden years, but he just happens to think of his life more along the lines of Nick Saban and Urban Meyer than Warren Buffett and Bill Gates.

"I would waste a whole lot of energy if I worried too much about what everybody else thought," Moglia said. "I know the job that I need to do. And while at the end of the day, I'd agree with you, I think there are people saying, 'Gee, what's this all about?' I think there also are people saying, 'Hey, you know what, this guy really does bring some special skill sets to the table.'"

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS

Joe Moglia (pronounced with a silent "g") is making $175,000 in the first of a five-year deal to coach Coastal Carolina. His salary is dwarfed by the reported $14 million that he averaged as the Ameritrade CEO from 2001 to 2008, when he also held more than $100 million in stock from the multi-billion- dollar company.

He hasn't separated his business acumen from his coaching style. He analyzes a situation and develops a game plan for every part of the job.

After being hired by Coastal Carolina on Dec. 20, Moglia didn't try to make up for lost time on the recruiting trails, realizing the Chanticleers would lose some high school seniors due to the coaching change. His new program wound up having the smallest signing class in the conference, but Moglia felt it was more important to focus on finding the right coaching staff than chasing the wrong players at the last minute.

His new offensive coordinator, Dave Patenaude, wasn't named until Jan. 26, and his new defensive coordinator, Clayton Carlin, was announced on national signing day Feb. 1, when Moglia unveiled 11 recruits.

"The No. 1 priority for me was to think a little bit long-term and recognize that the most important decisions that I was making today were going to be the quality of the people I was bringing in in terms of my staff," Moglia said.

"So for the most part we were kind of finishing the last part of recruiting season pretty much short-handed. But I thought that that was a smart, long- term decision to be able to make for Coastal Carolina and our program. Frankly, that long term versus the short term is something that really does carry a lot of weight in the business world."

It's not surprising that since Moglia's arrival on campus some of his new players have drawn on his past to start thinking about their futures, whether it be to discuss a possible major or an internship, or life after football.

As standout defensive end Chris Thomas says, Moglia makes the people around him accountable for themselves.

"I think this is very much about decisions you make on people, whether they are executives, whether they are employees, whether they're coaches, whether they're players," Moglia said. "It's about motivating and exciting them, it's about uniting them, it's about having a well thought-out strategy, it's about knowing how to compete, it's knowing how to execute, it's knowing about being organized and handling yourself under pressure."

LIFE IN FOOTBALL, THEN OUT, THEN IN AGAIN

For 16 years, Moglia was a successful football coach. He turned around two high school programs in Delaware, was on the staff at Lafayette and then was the defensive coordinator of back-to-back Ivy League co-championship squads at Dartmouth in 1982 and '83.

But after Moglia and his wife divorced, he didn't want to be far from their four children, a scenario that he faced if he remained in a profession that often takes coaches from one job to another.

An economics major as an undergraduate at Fordham, Moglia entered a training program at Merrill Lynch in 1984 and quickly took to the career change. He rose through the ranks at the investment giant and stayed there until 2001, when he was named CEO at Ameritrade.

His success was astounding - Ameritrade rose to a market capitalization of $12 billion by 2008. But it didn't mean the man who some people at the company fondly called "Coach" could escape the feeling that the most satisfying times of his career occurred as a coach.

Oh, there had been possibilities of a career change again. While at Ameritrade, Moglia was a candidate for the chief operating officer's position on the U.S. Olympic Committee and he says he was contacted about the NFL commissioner's position which wound up going to Roger Goodell. It was only after some Yale alumni contacted him in 2008 about the head coaching position that would open following the season that Moglia decided to act on what he had been thinking about for some time.

"It's the strategic part of the game I've always enjoyed intellectually," he said. "But the part of the game that has always meant the most of me is the effect you have on your players and the people around you. So at this point of my life, I thought, what would I be best at and what do I think would give me the greatest satisfaction. And, frankly, the decision was going back to football."

After stepping down as CEO at TD Ameritrade, Moglia remained as its chairman of the board, with his successor taking over the responsibility of running the company.

The University of Nebraska's storied program in Lincoln is located only about an hour's drive from TD Ameritrade headquarters in Omaha, so Moglia held a meeting in 2009 with Cornhuskers athletic director and legendary former coach Tom Osborne to discuss getting back into coaching.

Osborne, and later head coach Bo Pelini, took a liking to Moglia. He was invited into the Nebraska program in a volunteer role, although it didn't hurt that he made a financial donation to the Cornhuskers' athletic department.

He wound up paying more dues in the form of a 4,000-hour externship with the Cornhuskers over the 2009 and '10 seasons. His title was "life skills consultant," as what he taught student-athletes off the field was as important as what he could teach on it.

Moglia then returned to the payroll as a coach. He was hired to be the head coach of the UFL's Virginia Destroyers in November 2010, but left two months later to become the head coach and president of another team in the league, the Omaha Nighthawks, who finished 1-4 last year while playing home games at, conveniently enough, TD Ameritrade Park Omaha.

Few foresaw a coaching change brewing at Coastal Carolina, with the charismatic Bennett having gone 63-39 in his nine seasons, including 7-4 last year. He led the Chanticleers to FCS playoff appearances in 2006 and '10.

But Coastal Carolina administrators pulled the trigger on a change and saw enough in Moglia to make the controversial hire.

April Fool's? No, it was real for the Chanticleers.

PUTTING IT ALL TOGETHER

Considering Moglia's background, the detractors won't go away until he proves he can lead Coastal Carolina to a successful season. This year's Chanticleers schedule is particularly tough in the first half, including games against 2011 playoffs qualifiers Eastern Kentucky, Appalachian State and Stony Brook (the Big South champion), as well as a visit to FBS program Toledo.

Offensively, the returning starters include dual-threat quarterback Aramis Hillary, hulking left tackle Jamey Cheatwood, leading receiver Matt Hazel and tight end David Duran, who recently was granted a sixth season of eligibility by the NCAA after he missed two seasons due to injuries, as well as leading rusher Travis Small.

The Chanticleers will utilize an up-tempo spread offense that attacks the perimeter of a defense, although Moglia plans to increase their north-south running as well. Above all, they will always focus on adjusting to a defense's alignment.

Defensively, their veteran unit will keep last year's 4-2-5 base alignment, although their secondary has lost NFL prospect Josh Norman at cornerback. They will attack the opposition and disguise coverages. Thomas returns alongside such standout leaders as linebacker Andrae Jacobs and defensive backs Johnnie Houston and Marcus Lott.

"Every time we look at one side of the ball, I think of myself as a coordinator on the opposite side of the ball," Moglia said. "So therefore, what puts the most pressure on the other coordinator?"

"Everybody's position is on the line, to be honest," Thomas said. "Nobody should feel confident that they're going to play next year because at the end of the day everybody is still competing for the spot. The best kids on the team are going to play."

Amid the X's and O's, Moglia remains the chairman at TD Ameritrade. But he says his role has dwindled to attending four meetings a year, including a recent shareholders' meeting, and having occasional phone calls with the CEO.

Everybody is understanding that Moglia's new job, and first love, is coaching.

He says he cherishes the commitment to his student-athletes and the families which have entrusted him with their sons at Coastal Carolina.

Re-energized, it's not something he would (Ameri)trade for the world.

"I feel pretty good about the foundation that we're laying as far as our program goes," Moglia said. "If someone just kind of watched or observed, frankly, they wouldn't even be aware of that I've been out of football at all."

Q&A WITH ALCORN ST'S JAY HOPSON

From the start, Jay Hopson made it a point to emphasize Alcorn State's school colors are more important than skin color.

"I don't see black or white, we're all purple and gold," Hopson said when he was introduced on Memorial Day as Alcorn State's new head football coach.

In taking over the Braves' struggling program, Hopson became the first white person to hold the position in the historically black Southwestern Athletic Conference.

"This candidate won every round of the interview and he was supported by each group (of the selection committee)," university president M. Christopher Brown II said. "Naysayers could only comment on his race."

If it were up to Hopson, that factor would be an afterthought. The 43-year-old already has put his focus on restoring a program that has endured five straight losing records, including 2-8 last season before head coach Melvin Spears Jr. was put on administrative leave and then fired.

But there's no denying Hopson's hiring is historic for both Alcorn State and the SWAC. The conference has been home to legendary players such as Walter Payton, Buck Buchanan and Jerry Rice, and coaches such as Eddie Robinson, Marino Casem and John Merritt. Alcorn State, last a SWAC champion in 1994, has featured Steve McNair and a certain wide receiver-turned-star-dancer, Donald Driver.

Hopson, whose coaching influences have included Bob Pruett at Marshall and Jeff Bower at Southern Mississippi, will try to carve out his own niche in Alcorn State history. He will implement a spread-oriented offense and a multiple defense which will have the ability to go in and out of 4-3 and 3-4 schemes.

Hopson accepted a contract that will pay him $150,000 in each of the next three years. A head coach for the first time, he's getting a much later start on the 2012 season than other first-year coaches. His Braves will open the campaign on Sept. 1 in Shreveport, La. against Grambling State, the defending SWAC champion.

Hopson discusses his historic hiring at Alcorn State.

Question: Can you talk about the significance of being the first white head football coach at Alcorn State and in SWAC history?

Answer: Well, I'm just honored that President Brown and the committee, the alumni, they chose me to be the head coach. Like I told everybody at the press conference, my vision's purple and gold, it's not black and white, and we have a job to do, we've got a lot of work to do. We're certainly on a mission to get this program back to where it once was.

Question: With that in mind, how will you go about settling the program after it had such a difficult season and offseason?

Answer: First of all, that's the fun process really that we're in right now. We're starting the hiring phase of the staff. Of course, we have two months to do eight months' work, so we're going to be running non-stop just getting the staff together and getting the kids here for summer conditioning. We have the fun task of implementing our offense and defense in August, right before the first game. We've got a tall order in a lot of those things we've got to get done, but we're going to roll our sleeves up and go to work.

Question: You mentioned you don't see black or white -- it's all purple and gold -- but President Brown did talk about the challenge of a new situation. Can you describe how that challenge will affect you going forward?

Answer: Like I said, the best thing that I can say, and the most honest thing I can say, is it's just a complete honor. Dr. Brown chose me. You know, I'm a football coach, I'm not running for president of the United States. I mean, our job is now to get these kids in a situation where they're able to compete for championships. We want to be champion on the field and off the field in the classroom to develop the total player. I'm going to have to depend on a good staff, I'm going to have to depend on the alumni that supported me getting the job as we go through the building phase to support me through those years. It's a process that, like I told the team, we'll win when we deserve to win and, hopefully, that's sooner rather than later. But the reality is, we know where we're at and we know what we have to do to get there.

Question: How would you describe your coaching style?

Answer: I think I'm a player's coach in the fact that with my office my door is always open. I feel like you have to be demanding, a little bit more of a fatherly figure than a brotherly figure. You definitely have to demand...and you have to demand that the kids do the right things in the classroom and on the field. But then again, I think you have to have the open-door policy where they know if they do have problems, if they do have issues, they know they can always come in and talk to Coach Hop.

Question: With you becoming head coach, will the recruiting dynamic change at Alcorn?

Answer: I don't know, because I'm just going to recruit the best players. Like I said, it doesn't matter to me if they're black or white, I want to recruit the best players. I've recruited this area my whole life in Mississippi and Southwest Mississippi. All the coaches and all the people in the area pretty much know Jay Hopson. I don't think it's a big transition. I don't think anything will change. I'm just trying to find the best players that are the best fit for Alcorn. I think that's important, finding the kids that want to be here, are comfortable here and want to get their degree and go out and represent Alcorn in a positive light.

IN THE FCS HUDDLE: PRESEASON NUMBERS MORE THAN WORDS

By Tim McDonnell, FCS Assistant

Philadelphia, PA (Sports Network) - The 2012 FCS football season is right around the corner. For many teams, the path to Frisco, Texas - site of the national championship game - starts in about three weeks, when the dog days of summer turn into dreaded two-a-days of fall camp.

For fans all across the FCS nation, the offseason is a time to rest and re- evaluate their team's chances. Whatever happened last year was the past, and whatever happens moving forward is exciting and opportunistic. However, for all the promise we have in our teams, some things can never be ignored.

Whether it be schedules, statistics or players to watch, the numbers never lie.

Here are some important figures leading into the FCS season that should not be overlooked:

Out of the 20 teams which qualified for last season's 2011 playoff field, 10 finished the season ranked in the top 25 nationally for team rushing offense. They were No. 1 Wofford, No. 2 Georgia Southern, No. 4 Stony Brook, No. 6 Sam Houston State, No. 11 Towson, No. 12 James Madison, No. 16 Montana State, No. 17 Montana, No. 22 Eastern Kentucky and No. 23 Tennessee Tech.

There are 17 matchups for the Big Sky Conference versus FBS opponents in 2012, but kingpins Montana and Montana State are only teams without an FBS game. This season alone, there are 105 FCS-versus-FBS contests.

Three teams - Eastern Washington, William & Mary and Delaware - failed to qualify for the 2011 FCS playoffs after starting the season ranked in the top 5. The other two, Georgia Southern and Appalachian State, both from the Southern Conference, finished No. 4 and 12, respectively.

Only four teams which qualified for the playoffs finished the season ranked in the top 25 nationally for team passing offense: No. 5 Lehigh, No. 15 Central Arkansas, No. 16 New Hampshire and No. 18 Old Dominion.

Reigning national champion North Dakota State held opponents to 12.7 points per game, which was No. 1 in the FCS in 2011. The Bison averaged 31.3 points per game and were very balanced, rushing for 173.3 yards per game and passing for 172.7 per contest.

Towson running back Terrence West scored 29 touchdowns last season. The inaugural Jerry Rice Award winner accomplished this in 194 carries, while the Tigers as a team had 521 total rushing attempts.

Drake and Bucknell combined to allow only nine total rushing touchdowns. Drake allowed five touchdowns at 77.2 rushing yards a game, while Bucknell allowed only four on the ground and 78.3 rushing yards per contest.

Six teams from last season's playoff field finished ranked in the top 25 nationally for team defense: No. 2 Norfolk State, No. 3 Sam Houston State, No. 11 James Madison, No. 17 Wofford, No. 19 Lehigh and No. 20 North Dakota State.

Lehigh wide receiver Ryan Spadola averaged 134.5 receiving yards per game, which was good for second nationally. Spadola enters his senior season with 175 career receptions and the Mountain Hawks haven't lost a Patriot League game since Nov. 7, 2009.

Over 12,000 miles. That's how many the San Diego Toreros will travel for six away games in 2012. The Toreros, who earned a share of the Pioneer Football League title last season, play five of their six away games against Harvard, Jacksonville, Marist, Drake and Davidson. The closest distance they have to travel will be at Cal Poly to open the season.

TOP 10 FCS QUARTERBACKS

Ten FCS quarterbacks to watch

Give Football Championship Subdivision head coaches some credit. When they have a promising young quarterback, they're not reluctant to turn the keys of the offense over to him.

Some of the best FCS quarterbacks, such as Illinois State's Matt Brown, Old Dominion's Taylor Heinicke, Youngstown State's Kurt Hess, Cornell's Jeff Mathews, Montana State's DeNarius McGhee and South Dakota State's Austin Sumner, gained their team's top job as a true or redshirt freshman.

Seniors Casey Brockman of Murray State and Brad Sorensen of Southern Utah are 2011 Walter Payton Award finalists who became QB1's as sophomore and now are entering their third season as starters.

No, a good coach won't deny talent.

Following are 10 FCS quarterbacks to watch this season:

Casey Brockman, Murray State, Sr., 6-2, 215 - That Brockman has thrown for 497, 570 and 600 yards in games the last two seasons - with a pair of seven- touchdown performances - is a scary proposition for opponents. He's smart and poised in the pocket with the ability to move around. He finished last season with 3,276 passing yards and an impressive 25 touchdowns against nine interceptions. He's entering his third season as the Racers' starting QB.

Matt Brown, Illinois State, Sr., 6-4, 215 - The most accurate passer in Redbirds history (64.5 percent) is big, tough and has the arm to make every throw on the field. He was sacked only six times last season, as he also moves well in the pocket. Brown has thrown for at least 2,000 yards in each of his first three seasons and 7,226 over his career, along with 51 touchdowns.

QB Matt Brown
Illinois St

Derek Carr, UT Martin, Sr., 6-1, 196 - A third-year starter, Carr is ready to take a big step as a senior. He is a drop-back passer who finds a receiver with little trouble and can get the ball downfield. He cut down on interceptions last season, throwing just 10 while passing for 2,482 yards and 25 touchdowns.

Taylor Heinicke, Old Dominion, So., 6-1, 190 - There may not have been a more impressive statistic in the FCS last year than Heinicke's 25 touchdown passes against one interception. After his redshirt was lifted, he played the season's final nine games and completed 68.7 percent of his passes for 2,385 yards ,while rushing for another 363 yards and four touchdowns. Those statistics reflect how well he moves around in the pocket and makes plays happen. He was the runner-up for the inaugural Jerry Rice Award as a freshman.

Kurt Hess, Youngstown State, Jr., 6-3, 235 - The Missouri Valley Football Conference's 2010 freshman of the year climbed to a higher level last year, including a season-ending flourish that yielded FCS champion North Dakota State's only loss. Hess, a poised signal-caller who makes the big throws, has passed for 4,585 yards and 38 touchdowns through his first two seasons. The Penguins had their most prolific offense ever in 2011 and seem headed to even greater heights this year.

Jeff Mathews, Cornell, Jr., 6-4, 210 - A two-year starter, the Californian has been a steal for what had been a struggling Ivy League program. He ended his sophomore season in incredible fashion, throwing back-to-back 500-yard games with a combined 10 touchdowns and only one interception. Mathews set the Ivy record for passing yards in a season (3,412) in 2011 and became its first sophomore to be named offensive player of the year. He has a strong arm and doesn't shy from contact.

DeNarius McGhee, Montana State, Jr., 6-0, 213 - A Walter Payton Award finalist in each of his first two seasons, McGhee moves around in the pocket until he can make a play. He's strong in the upper body despite being just 6 feet tall and is capable of picking up yards on the ground. His statistics were down last season from his redshirt freshman campaign, although combined he has thrown for 5,962 yards and 47 touchdowns already.

Brad Sorensen, Southern Utah, Sr., 6-5, 225 - One of the FCS' top offensive prospects for the 2013 NFL Draft has pro-ready size, accuracy and decision- making skills. A pure pocket passer, he has thrown for over 3,100 yards in each of his two seasons. The Brigham Young transfer, now in his third year as Southern Utah's starter, will have more of a showcase as the Thunderbirds move from the disbanded Great West Conference into the Big Sky Conference.

QB Brad Sorensen
Southern Utah

Austin Sumner, South Dakota State, So., 6-5, 230 - The Missouri Valley freshman of the year cemented himself as a leader and producer in starting the final eight games of last season. He went on to lead all FCS freshman quarterbacks in passing average (238.2 yards per game), total passing yards (2,382) and touchdown passes (16). He's a drop-back passer who excels in a no- huddle, quick-rhythm type of offense. He completed 37 passes, which tied a school record, in a game against nationally ranked Northern Iowa.

Thomas Wilson, Elon, Sr., 6-4, 216 - Wilson must cut down on interceptions this season - he had 21 in 2011 - but he had already started doing that as the year wound down. He relies on the FCS' top receiver, Aaron Mellette, to help him in that regard. Wilson is primarily a pocket passer with a strong arm, but can make plays with his feet. He threw for 3,057 yards and 23 touchdowns last season while succeeding Scott Riddle, the Southern Conference's all-time passing yardage leader.

It's worth noting former SMU quarterback Kyle Padron has transferred Eastern Washington and could win the No. 1 job after the Eagles lost 2011 Walter Payton Award winner Bo Levi Mitchell. Ironically, Padron replaced Mitchell as SMU's starter in 2009, prompting Mitchell to transfer to EWU. Padron could become one of the top quarterbacks in the FCS.

TOP 10 FCS RUNNING BACKS

Ten FCS running backs to watch

It may not be the year for offensive coordinators across the Football Championship Subdivision to be overly fancy with their game plans.

Just give the ball to the running back and let him go.

Indeed, this is the year of the running backs nationally.

The stable of FCS backs is an embarrassment of riches. An All-America team can go three or four teams deep and some obvious candidates will still be left off the list.

Among the backs returning this season are seven finalists for the 2011 Walter Payton Award: Indiana State's Shakir Bell, Wofford's Eric Breitenstein, Bryant's Jordan Brown, Youngstown State's Jamaine Cook, Sam Houston State's Tim Flanders, Delaware's Andrew Pierce and Towson's Terrance West.

It will be interesting to watch the yards and touchdowns pile up.

Following are 10 FCS running backs to watch this season, although another group of 10 might be questioning their omission:

Zach Bauman, Northern Arizona, Jr., 5-10, 200 - A consistent runner who can calculate defenders' moves before they do them, Bauman does a lot of his damage as a workhorse between the tackles. He was a 1,000-yard rusher as a freshman in 2010 and used two 200-yard games as a sophomore last season to ground out 1,435 yards. Also an excellent pass catcher, he has 57 receptions in his career.

Shakir Bell, Indiana State, Jr., 5-8, 185 - Bell finished tied for second in the Payton voting after his sophomore season in which he rushed for 1,670 yards on a scintillating 7.26 yards per carry. He was one yard shy against South Dakota State from having five 200-yard games. Small, but powerful, his speed is nearly unstoppable in open space.

Eric Breitenstein, Wofford, Sr., 5-11, 225 - Officially listed as a fullback, don't get the wrong impression, Breitenstein has helped the Terriers' wing-bone lead the FCS in rushing in each of the past two seasons. He has great feet and vision to get to the hole and move through it. He is the active FCS leader with 3,695 rushing yards and 46 touchowns.

RB Eric Breitenstein
Wofford

Jordan Brown, Bryant, Sr., 5-9, 185 - By rushing for at least 100 yards in all 11 of Bryant's games last year, Brown finished with 1,815 yards to lead FCS players (Bryant was in the transitional phase to the FCS, so he was not in the official NCAA leaders). He is a workhorse who averages 30 carries a game while also getting touches on passes and returns. He had 2,500 all-purpose yards last year.

Jamaine Cook, Youngstown State, Sr., 5-9, 205 - What's Cook-ing? A potentially huge season for Youngstown State with its outstanding back leading the way. Cook sees the field and reads his blocks well. Last year, he built on a breakout sophomore season (1,276 yards) with 1,386 more yards and 14 total touchdowns.

Matt Denham, Eastern Kentucky, Sr., 5-11, 181 - Through four games last season, including three EKU losses, Denham had hardly touched the ball, getting a combined 21 carries. It all changed from there as Denham averaged 29 carries and 184.5 rushing yards over the final eight games. The former University of Kentucky player is a between-the-tackles runner who has great vision. He will work behind one of the FCS' better offensive lines this season.

Washaun Ealey, Jacksonville State, Sr., 5-11, 215 - The former University of Georgia standout slowly, but surely became the focal point of the Gamecocks' offense last season. There's no denying his skills as a runner. He rushed for 1,082 yards on over six yards per carry in his first season at JSU. He is the FCS' top 2013 NFL Draft prospect among running backs.

Timothy Flanders, Sam Houston State, Jr., 5-9, 210 - The lasting image of Flanders battering the Montana defense for 287 rushing yards in last year's FCS semifinals must stick in the heads of opposing Southland Conference coaches. Flanders, a transfer from Kansas State, is a touchdown machine, scoring 24 in 15 games last season. He rushed for 1,644 yards as the first option on a Sam Houston offense that has to spread around the touches to its offensive talent.

Andrew Pierce, Delaware, Jr., 5-11, 200 - It's hard to believe Pierce has two more seasons of eligibility remaining. He's been a standout since the first game of his freshman season and helped the Blue Hens to a national runner-up finish in 2010. He is 62 rushing yards shy of 3,000 in his career. The workhorse also has 74 career receptions.

Terrance West, Towson, Soph., 5-11, 220 - The inaugural Jerry Rice Award winner scored an FCS-high 29 touchdowns in his freshman campaign last year. His emergence, including 1,294 rushing yards, helped CAA Football's 2010 cellar dweller win a surprising conference title last season. He has the speed and power to rough up defenses.

It's worth noting that there isn't a better combination of FCS backs on one team than Stony Brook's Miguel Maysonet and Marcus Coker. Maysonet had a tag- team partner in each of the last two seasons with fellow two-time 1,000-yard back Brock Jackolski. This year, Maysonet, who rushed for 1,633 yards and 15 touchdowns last season, will share the load with Coker, a Iowa transfer who rushed for 1,384 yards to finish second to 2011 Heisman Trophy finalist Montee Ball of Wisconsin in the Big Ten in rushing.

TOP 10 FCS RECEIVERS

Ten FCS Receivers to Watch
The prototypical receiver has changed in the last decade with wide receivers taking on tight end height and tight ends taking on wide receiver speed.

The ones who have both traits are especially lethal.

The Football Championship Subdivision will feature such receivers this season.

Elon senior Aaron Mellette headlines a contingent of 10 FCS receivers to watch (OK, we've thrown in a tight end to make it 11) and only one of them stands below 6-foot-2.

Yes, it's a group that sizes up well.

Following are FCS receivers to watch this season:

Xavier Boyce, Norfolk State, Sr., 6-4, 220 - The Virginia Beach, Va., product took the MEAC by storm last season after transferring home to Norfolk State from Virginia Tech, catching 68 passes for 750 yards and four touchdowns. He has an ability to break tackles and make yardage after the catch, especially on screen passes. His size doesn't just come up big in the passing game, he uses it well in run blocking.

Nicholas Edwards, Eastern Washington, Sr., 6-3, 200 - A former walk-on, Edwards no longer sneaks up on the competition. He entered last season as the Eagles' No. 2 receiver, but then blistered the competition, hauling in an FCS- high 19 touchdowns (only one other receiver had more than 12) among his 95 receptions for 1,250 yards. Known for his conditioning and outstanding preparation, Edwards is third among active FCS players with 178 career receptions and first with 29 career touchdown receptions.

Lanny Funsten, Davidson, Sr., 6-2, 185 - It can be easy to overlook a Pioneer Football League receiver, but not Funsten after he hauled in 100 receptions last season. He's a possession receiver with excellent hands. He included a 99-yard touchdown reception among his 1,107 receiving yards and eight touchdowns. He's sneaky fast.

Brandon Kaufman, Eastern Washington, Sr., 6-5, 215 - Kaufman was the Eagles' No. 1 receiver ahead of Edwards until a broken hand ended his season prematurely. He caught two touchdowns in EWU's second-half rally past Delaware in the 2010 FCS championship game. That season, he caught 76 passes for 1,214 yards and 15 touchdowns. Kaufman uses his big body to be physical in traffic and long legs to get behind the secondary.

Aaron Mellette, Elon, Sr., 6-4, 212 - Every defense knows where the ball is going, they just can't stop Mellette. Last season, he caught 113 passes for a school-record 1,639 yards - both FCS highs - as well as 12 touchdowns. He's a fast-rising mid-round NFL Draft pick next year, with the possibility of moving up to the early rounds. Mellette, fifth in the 2011 Walter Payton Award voting, enters his final season with 207 receptions for 2,856 yards and 26 touchdowns in 33 career games.

Cordell Roberson, Stephen F. Austin, Sr., 6-3, 200 - You could substitute SFA's Gralyn Crawford in here as both dominate in the Southland Conference. The lanky, fast Roberson is more the touchdown-maker with 29 in 34 career games. He caught 61 passes in 2010 and 63 last season by outworking defenders for the ball.

Rodrick Rumble, Idaho State, Sr., 6-2, 201 - There's nothing unlucky about the Bengals' No. 13. Rumble caught at least 10 passes in eight of his 11 games last season, finishing with 112 receptions - a school record - for 1,348 yards and nine touchdowns. He's a quick, athletic receiver blessed with a good vertical leap (he high-jumped 6 feet, 8 inches at the Washington state high school track & field championships in 2009).

Ryan Spadola, Lehigh, Sr., 6-3, 205 - Over the last two seasons, Spadola has caught 174 passes for 2,754 yards and 20 touchdowns - Mellette-type numbers - to dominate the FCS ranks. This season, Spadola won't be catching passes from standout Chris Lum and will be the focal point of opposing defenses, so it will be interesting to chart his production. It will remain high in the Patriot League, where he is unstoppable. He has moved on from his suspension from the FCS quarterfinals at North Dakota State last season because of an offensive tweet.

Tyrone Walker, Illinois State, Sr., 5-11, 200 - Walker has a way of putting his stamp on a game. His size or speed won't wow anybody, but his excellent hands have made him both highly reliable and productive throughout his career - 160 catches for 2,246 yards and 23 touchdowns. His passes come from one of the FCS' best quarterbacks - Matt Brown - so Walker should end his career with a flourish. He's in line to set some ISU career receiving marks.

Norman White, Villanova, Sr., 6-4, 210 - Some of the Wildcats' demise last season was due to White suffering a season-ending lisfranc fracture of his left foot in the team's season opener. He hopes to regain his form of 2010, when he caught 69 passes for 886 yards and 11 touchdowns while making the All- CAA Football first team. He's a downfield receiver who uses his size to outleap defensive backs and get the ball. He used his lost season to chart defenses and learn to take advantage of them even more.

Sam Houston State standout Richard Sincere, the 2011 Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year, is as much an all-purpose player as he is a wide receiver, deadly at running the Bearkats' version of the Wildcat offense.

So make the list 11 receivers because the top tight end to watch is Furman senior Colin Anderson. A big target at 6-4, 231 pounds, Anderson led the Paladins in receptions (40), receiving yards (696) and touchdown receptions (seven) last season while making The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS All- America first team.

TOP 10 FCS OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

Ten FCS offensive linemen to watch

Matt Denham should consider picking up a restaurant bill or two if he hasn't done so already.

The Eastern Kentucky running back will want to make sure his offensive linemen remain both happy and well-fed.

Denham averaged an absurd 184.5 rushing yards over the Colonels' final eight games last season. Of course, some of the credit has to go to his offensive line, which featured three Ohio Valley Conference first-team selections paving the way.

Two of the players, tackles Aaron Adams and Patrick Ford, are among the best at their position in the Football Championship Subdivision. They join forces with fellow senior O.J. Enabosi, a center, to give EKU an incredibly talented offensive line.

Following are 10 FCS defensive linemen to watch this season:

Aaron Adams, Eastern Kentucky, OT, Sr., 6-6, 290 - Adams enjoyed a breakout season last year and might have been the best player on EKU's outstanding O-line. Slightly older at 23, he is a true technician with his hands and feet, always getting in position to stop defenders.

Malcolm Boyd, Liberty, OG, Sr., 6-4, 280 - A leader by example on the offensive line, the gritty Boyd does everything that is asked of him by his coaches. He is fundamentally sound in pass blocking, allowing only one sack last season while earning All-Big South Conference first-team honors. The Flames ranked eighth in the FCS in scoring offense (35.9 ppg).

Evan Conrad, Southeast Missouri State, OT, Sr., 6-3, 305 - Conrad has made 30 career starts, although he was slowed by injury last season. He was a first-team Ohio Valley Conference selection two years ago. He is particularly strong in run blocking, but grades out well all-around.

Gavin Farr, Southern Utah, C, Jr., 6-3, 300 - Great West Conference coaches think so highly of Farr that he was named to their first team despite missing six games with an injury last season. A year earlier, he was the media's choice for Great West Offensive Lineman of the Year as a redshirt freshman (over such players as South Dakota left tackle Tom Compton, the recent NFL Draft choice). Farr is the center for All-America quarterback Brad Sorensen.

Patrick Ford, Eastern Kentucky, OT, Sr., 6-6, 306 - The third-year starter is a versatile player whose physical style works at any position. He was tall and skinny coming out of high school, but has developed his body into an intimidating presence. His father, Gary, was a linebacker on the 1979 EKU national championship team.

Terren Jones, Alabama State, OT, Sr., 6-7, 325 - Offensive linemen keep getting bigger and bigger, but Jones moves so well despite his massive frame. He understands technique and assignments and couples them with excellent footwork, leg drive and aggression. He overcame an ACL injury last offseason to make the All-SWAC first team as a junior.

Danny Kistler, Montana, OG/OT, Jr., 6-8, 330 - Offensive linemen don't come much bigger than Kistler, who is carving out his place among Grizzlies greats. This season, he is expected to move from left guard to right tackle. No matter where he lines up, he brings excellent technique and a wealth of experience to a team that will pound opponents with its rushing ability.

Blake Matthews, Norfolk State, OT, Sr., 6-4, 315 - Described as an old-school type of offensive lineman, Matthews is an aggressive and intelligent player who uses leverage to go after defenders. He was lightly used until last season, when he came on strong as the MEAC Offensive Lineman of the Year for the conference champions. He was named to The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS All-America second team.

Alec Savoie, McNeese State, OT, Sr., 6-7, 332 - Savoie's size doesn't slow him down. The third-year starter anchors the Cowboys' line and is especially strong in pass protection, stopping rushers with his athleticism and foot movement. An All-Southland Conference selection, he produced 38 pancake blocks and 41 knockdowns in a banner junior season.

Earl Watford, James Madison, OG, Sr., 6-4, 290 - It's rare that Watford is caught out of position. He's agile and smart, and uses his hands and feet effectively in both run and pass situations. The All-CAA Football first-team pick, who has made 25 career starts, helped the Dukes average 222.4 rushing yards per game last year (ranking 12th in the FCS).

TOP 10 FCS DEFENSIVE LINEMAN

Ten FCS defensive linemen to watch

Get you motor running...

Talk to people who are around the top defensive linemen in the Football Championship Subdivision and they all seem to point out their relentless drive on the field.

The best of the best, whether ends or tackles, consistently wreck havoc in opposing backfields, and no coach has to worry about their stars taking plays off.

Seeing them across the line of scrimmage is not for the feint of heart.

Following are 10 FCS defensive linemen to watch this season:

Frank Beltre, Towson, DE, Sr., 6-3, 245 - An aggressive, driven player who keeps getting better, Beltre is entering his fourth year as a starter. The All-CAA Football talent helped the Tigers post an amazing turnaround in winning the conference title last year. He had 68 tackles, including 12 for loss, and four sacks. He has 30.5 tackles for loss in his career.

J.T. Cleveland, Sam Houston State, DT, Sr., 6-0, 290 - Cleveland was the anchor on a deep and talented Bearkats' defensive line last season. He pushes aside offensive linemen with his strength, but for a big man, Cleveland moves very well on his feet with lateral quickness. His 46 tackles, including nine for loss, led the Bearkats' D-linemen. He was a high school teammate of 2010 Walter Payton Award winner Jeremy Moses of Stephen F. Austin.

Willie Jefferson, Stephen F. Austin, DE, Sr., 6-6, 230 - The 2011 Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year casts particularly imposing size to offensive players, but it's his ability to blow past offensive linemen with his speed that is most effective. Last season, the 6-foot-6 strongman posted 15 sacks to tie for fourth in the FCS. It included a four-sack demolition of Northwestern State.

Cody Larsen, Southern Utah, DT, Sr., 6-4, 272 - A versatile player, Larsen was used at end, nose tackle and 3-technique last season, but he will concentrate more at D-tackle this year. He combines a high-end motor with terrific strength. He was part of 26 stops last season, including seven sacks. He added three quarterback hurries in his relentless pursuit.

DL Joseph LeBeau
Jackson State

Joseph LeBeau, Jackson State, DE, Sr., 6-1, 245 - After transferring in from Arkansas Baptist Community College last year, LeBeau went on to win the SWAC Newcomer of the Year award. He gets off the ball very quickly as a game- changing edge rusher. Last season, he totaled 15.5 sacks (his 1.41 per game was second-best in the FCS) and 24.5 tackles for loss (2.23 per game, ranking fourth in the FCS right behind teammate Donavan Robinson). He also forced three fumbles while making 75 tackles.

Zach Minter, Montana State, DT, Sr., 6-1, 285 - The Bobcats' four-man defensive line could be the best in the FCS, and its anchor, having enjoyed a breakout season last year, helps set the physical tone. The unanimous All-Big Sky Conference selection is extremely productive, totaling 52 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks and eight QB hurries. He uses his upper body to fight off blocks and quickness to pounce into the backfield. He has an exuberant personality as well.

Nolan Nearhoof, Robert Morris, DE, Sr., 6-2, 280 - There's a lot to be said about being a smart player. Nearhoof already is a two-time selection for both the All-Northeast Conference first team and its Scholar-Athlete award in football. He has the size of a defensive tackle, but with rush speed. With 16 career sacks, he is three off the school record. He had 60 tackles last season, bringing him to 137 in his career.

Ben Obaseki, Indiana State, DE, Sr., 6-3, 235 - Obaseki has been outstanding for three seasons while the Sycamores' program has enjoyed a turnaround from FCS also-ran. He is a strong one-on-one tackler who already has totaled 36.5 tackles for loss, 18.5 sacks and 17 QB hurries in his career. Obaseki, a Buck Buchanan Award finalist last season, also switched off to fullback and scored on all five of his carries in goal-line situations.

Blake Oliaro, San Diego, DE, Jr., 6-5, 250 - After missing the 2010 campaign, Oliaro's return to the field last year was exceptional. A former defensive back, Oliaro's statistics were better than fellow Toreros defensive end Mario Kurn, a 2010 All-America. Oliaro had 57 tackles, 19.5 tackles for loss, 15 sacks and six QB hurries while the Toreros tied for the Pioneer Football League title. He is fast on the edge and relies on an intelligent style of play.

Brent Russell, Georgia Southern, NT, Sr., 6-2, 291 - The two-time finalist for the Buchanan Award has helped the Eagles reach the FCS semifinals in each of the past two seasons. In one-on-one matchups, Russell stands up opponents with outstanding leverage and strength. He excels despite often drawing double- teams. The 2011 Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year has 45.5 tackles for loss and a school-record 20.5 sacks in his decorated career.

TOP 10 FCS LINEBACKERS

Ten FCS linebackers to watch
All-seeing and all-knowing.

That's the general trait seemingly shared by the best linebackers across the Football Championship Subdivision.

They use their innate skills to collect ball carriers in the way Jay Leno collects cars.

And they might even be faster than Jay's cars.

The group of standouts starts with 2011 Buck Buchanan Award recipient Matt Evans of New Hampshire and welcomes the aptly named Tyler Starr from South Dakota, who is transitioning to linebacker.

It's a balanced and impressive group.

Following are 10 FCS linebackers to watch this season:

Aaron Archie, Indiana State, Sr., 6-0, 235 - The Sycamores' leading tackler in both 2009 and 2011 has played a big part in the program's transformation from FCS laughingstock to FCS playoff contender. Last season, his 122 stops ranked second in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. The outside linebacker's spectacular play took away some of the spotlight from teammate and defensive end Ben Obaseki, which isn't easy to do.

Clarence Bumpas, Northern Colorado, Jr., 6-2, 244 - Bumpas has made the most of a second chance after leaving Kansas State following his arrest on a drug charge. Despite the inside linebacker's big size, he gets to the ball with a running motor. He led the Big Sky Conference with 145 tackles as a sophomore. Expect another dominant season.

Wes Dothard, Chattanooga, Jr., 6-1, 235 - A breakout sophomore campaign in the middle of the Mocs defense led to Dothard making The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS All-America first team. Dothard has an all-around style of making plays. He was among the FCS leaders with five forced fumbles while also making 98 tackles.

Matt Evans, New Hampshire, Sr., 6-0, 219 - The Buchanan Award winner will try to become the second two-time winner after the original winner of the FCS defensive player of the year award, Appalachian State linebacker Dexter Coakley (1995-96). Evans was the nation's leader in tackles last regular season, including 24 against Lehigh, and finished the playoffs at No. 2 overall with 13.75 per game, including 92 of his 165 tackles being solos. The middle linebacker uses his speed and athleticism to get around blocks and to the ball.

Jeremy Kimbrough, Appalachian State, Sr., 5-11, 238 - The Mountaineers' new 3-4 alignment didn't slow Kimbrough, who gave up some of his roaming space inside but still led the team with 105 tackles, including 12 for loss. He's a hard-working run-stopper who flows well to the action. He's been compared to former ASU standout Jacque Roman, a tackle machine.

LB Jody Owens
Montana State

Jody Owens, Montana State, Jr., 6-0, 221 - An outside linebacker who studies his opponents well, Owens came on strong as a sophomore. A tad undersized, he uses his quickness and intelligence to get into the right spot for making plays. He corralled 105 tackles, including a Big Sky-best 17 for loss, a year ago. He's a leader for a top Bobcats 'D' this season.

Blake Peiffer, Southeast Missouri State, Sr., 6-1, 225 - Considering Peiffer grew up in the shadows of the SEMO campus, coach Tony Samuel did the right thing in keeping him home with the Redhawks. The outside linebacker set the school record with 151 tackles last season. His physical strength helps set him apart at linebacker.

Keith Pough, Howard, Sr., 6-3, 235 - Blessed with size, speed and range, Pough has been a one-man wrecking crew in the MEAC, leading the FCS with 28.5 tackles for loss as a sophomore before adding another 21 as a junior. He disrupts opponents in so many ways, including 11 quarterback hurries a year ago. The outside 'backer also led the MEAC with 10.9 tackles per game.

Alvin Scioneaux, Wofford, Sr., 6-2, 214 - Scioneaux doesn't mind getting help from his teammates, but he often gets into an opposing team's backfield for solo stops. While other teams put great focus on defending Wofford defensive end Ameet Pall last season, Scioneaux was happy to fly through the door from his outside linebacker post. He had 17 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks while forcing five fumbles.

Tyler Starr, South Dakota, Jr., 6-4 1/2, 236 - If it seems like Starr has the size of a defensive end, it's because he is making the switch from that position to outside linebacker. In his first season of action last year, he shook off some rust as a redshirt sophomore and raced around offensive lines for 14 sacks, all solos. This season, he will face tougher competition in the Missouri Valley Conference, but Starr will keep being a playmaker, albeit from a new position.

TOP 10 FCS DEFENSIVE BACKS

Ten FCS defensive backs to watch

Offensive firepower may come to mind first with the Southland Conference - like the rushing talents of FCS runner-up Sam Houston State and the passing of Central Arkansas and Stephen F. Austin.

But it doesn't get any better than the top defensive backs in the Southland, as they fill spots among the best in the Football Championship Subdivision as well.

The depth is so impressive that Sam Houston State cornerback Daxton Swanson, who led the conference and was third in the nation with eight interceptions, ranks behind safeties Malcom Bronson of McNeese State, Jestin Love of Central Arkansas, Darnell Taylor of Sam Houston State and Jamaal White of Northwestern State.

The best players combine speed, power and the ability to get into position to make plays.

Following are 10 FCS defensive backs to watch this season:

Malcolm Bronson, McNeese State, FS, Sr., 5-11, 192 - The playmaking Bronson has twice led the Cowboys in tackles, including 86 as a junior last season. Blessed with outstanding speed and a 40-inch vertical leap, he has a knack for making the big plays. A year ago, he had two interceptions with nine pass breakups and forced three fumbles, while making the All-Southland first team for the third time.

DB Charles James
Charleston Southern

Charles James, Charleston Southern, CB, Sr., 5-10, 175 - James wears jersey No. 1 and expects to take that spot on the Buccaneers' all-time interceptions chart. He enters his senior season one interception shy of the record 11 picks. The former sprinter is technically sound in coverage and plays with an aggressive style. He had 40 solo stops among his 66 tackles last season, while making the All-Big South first-team secondary alongside recent NFL draftees Josh Norman and Justin Bethel.

Serge Kona, Duquesne, FS, Sr., 5-11, 225 - With a sideline-to-sideline playing style, Kona gets to ball carriers and then delivers hard-hitting tackles (he started 11 games at outside linebacker in 2010). He's quick and agile, and, with dreadlocks that flow out from his helmet, he makes people think of another safety in Pittsburgh, Troy Polamalu. Kona had 48 tackles and forced three fumbles last season.

Jestin Love, Central Arkansas, SS, Jr., 6-0, 204 - "Jestin Time" might have been more entertaining than the Bears' new purple-and-gray turf last season. He continually made big plays late in games, including three interceptions that helped seal victories. The athletic Love has terrific instincts as well as ball skills. He has 11 interceptions through two seasons, three of which he has returned for touchdowns. He also had 75 tackles a year ago.

Demetrius McCray, Appalachian State, CB, Sr., 6-0, 185 - As a sophomore in 2010, McCray's first three career starts were against the University of Florida and in FCS playoff games. Ever since, his terrific coverage skills and tackling ability have kept McCray in the starting lineup. He is a former high school quarterback who knows how to position himself for balls in the air, and uses long arms to grab them. He intercepted five passes and broke up nine more in a stellar junior campaign last year.

Kejuan Riley, Alabama State, FS, Sr., 6-0, 208 - Hornets safeties coach Dominique Stephenson says when the ball is in the air, Riley is like "a hawk circling overhead looking for his prey and he feels like it is his ball and no one else's." Riley was fifth in the Buck Buchanan Award voting last season (in fact, he was the only defensive back in the top 13). Athletic and quick, Riley had nine interceptions last season, which ranked second in the FCS. He has 17 in his career.

Darnell Taylor, Sam Houston State, SS, Sr., 6-0, 190 - Amid all the talented defensive backs in the Southland Conference - and talented players - Taylor was named the conference's defensive player of the year while he helped the Bearkats go undefeated up to their FCS championship game loss. He is a fierce one-on-one tackler, with 88 solos among his 128 tackles. He's quick with an innate ability to be in position to make the play.

B.W. Webb, William & Mary, CB, Sr., 5-11, 175 - The highly decorated Webb (2009 CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year and first-team all-conferencce in each of the last two seasons) has been a playmaker throughout his career. Opposing quarterbacks started avoiding his side of the field after he had eight interceptions as a redshirt freshman in 2009. He's fast with slick skills. He also is dangerous on punt returns.

Jamaal White, Northwestern State, SS, Sr., 6-0, 192 - White played alongside NFL draft selection Jeremy Lane in the Demons' secondary last season and now is a candidate for the 2013 draft. Emotional on the field to a fault, White is athletic, aggressive and a big hitter. He picked off three passes and forced two fumbles last season. He made the All-Southland second team - ahead of Lane.

Marcus Williams, North Dakota State, CB, Jr., 5-11, 190 - Breaking up isn't hard to do ... at least not for Williams. He had seven interceptions and 15 pass breakups in an electrifying campaign for the FCS national champion Bison last season. A member of The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS All-America first team, Williams scored two touchdowns off his own interceptions, another off an interception-and-lateral from safety Colton Heagle and another off a kickoff return. He also finished the season with 53 tackles.

TOP 10 FCS SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYERS

Ten FCS special teams players to watch

Philadelphia, PA (Sports Network) - Too often when football fans analyze teams, their focus is on the offense and the defense. Makes sense, right?

Well, football coaches always talk about the three phases of the game. That's because they recognize the importance of special teams.

The kicking and return games are full of game-changing players who literally give their teams a leg up on opponents, whether it's with a kicker or an elusive return man's speed.

Coverage teams are vital, too, hoping to put an opponent in a bad spot which can get a defense off the field quickly and put the offense back on the field.

The Football Championship Subdivision is full of such special teams standouts.

Following are 10 FCS special teams players to watch this season:

Zach Brown, Portland State, PK, Sr., 6-1, 200 - Brown enters his senior season with 60 career field goals (out of 78 attempts), setting the school record with 18 field goals as a freshman in 2009, matching it with another 18 as a sophomore and then setting a new standard with 24 as a junior. The first-team All-America has six career field goals from at least 50 yards. He's also lethal inside 40 yards (45-of-47).

Darius Carey, McNeese State, PR, Sr., 6-0, 185 - Not just speedy, Carey is an elusive punt returner. Last year, he averaged 16.9 yards per return, including a 68-yarder for a touchdown against Sioux Falls, to rank second in the FCS. He made The Sports Network/Fathead.com FCS All-America second team. Carey also was McNeese State's leading receiver after transferring to the Southland Conference school from North Texas.

Gralyn Crawford, Stephen F. Austin, KR/PR, Sr., 5-11, 175 - Over the last two seasons, Crawford has scored five touchdowns on returns, four off kickoffs and one off a punt. He's not afraid to get hit, but he also uses his speed to avoid would-be tacklers. He has averaged 27 yards on kickoff returns and 11.2 yards on punt returns in his career. He also has caught at least 50 passes in each of his first three seasons for a total of 197 receptions, 2,546 receiving yards and 19 touchdown catches.

A.J. Cruz, Brown, KR, Sr., 5-9, 190 - Only Liberty's Kevin Fogg averaged more yards per kickoff return in the FCS last year than Cruz's 31.2. Included was an 83-yarder for a touchdown against Dartmouth. Extremely athletic with a 37- inch vertical, Cruz is also the top cornerback in the Ivy League, having gained first-team honors in each of the past two seasons.

Darius Drummond, South Carolina State, PR, Jr., 5-11, 185 - Drummond is a smart, versatile player who is instinctive with the ball. He ranked fourth in the FCS in punt return average (13.6) a season ago and broke loose for a 68- yard touchdown return against Florida A&M. He has excellent ball skills, having intercepted two passes and broken up eight more in the Bulldogs' secondary last season.

Kevin Fogg, Liberty, KR, Sr., 5-10, 180 - Opponents get lost in the Fogg when they try to tackle this explosive returner. He led the FCS in kickoff return average (33.5) and was the only player to return three for touchdowns last season. He sees the field very well as both a cornerback and a return specialist, and has sub-4.4-second speed in the 40-yard dash. Liberty coaches believe Fogg has NFL skills.

Patrick Murray, Fordham, P, Sr., 5-7, 160 - Murray's size belies his booming style as a punter. Last year, he started using more of a rugby style and averaged 44.1 yards for the No. 3 ranking in the FCS. It was the second time he led the Patriot League in punting average, as he also did it as a freshman in 2009. Murray, who originally attended Delaware, comes from a family of national-caliber Gaelic football players in Ireland. This year, he's expected to return to a more conventional punting style.

Jonathan Plisco, Old Dominion, P, Sr., 6-0, 210 - Naturally right-handed, Plisco injured his right foot as a child and learned to kick predominately with his left foot. He led the FCS in punting average (44.8 yards) as a sophomore in 2010 and raised his mark to 46.1 yards last season, although that dropped to second nationally. He's booted 56 punts of at least 50 yards in his career and earned second-team All-America honors as both a freshman and junior.

Tyler Sievertsen, Northern Iowa, PK, Jr., 6-2, 185 - As a sophomore last season, Sievertsen delivered on 18 of his 20 field-goal attempts - a scintillating 90 percent - with three coming from 48 yards. He also converted all 39 of his extra-point attempts. His 93 points were the most in a season by a UNI player since 2008. He kicks with a powerful, driving style.

Fabian Truss, Samford, KR, Jr., 5-9, 190 - A hometown product, people in Birmingham are well aware of Truss' elusive running skills. He has the quickness to make people miss and the speed to break long runs. He averaged 28.4 yards per kickoff return as a freshman in 2010 and 29.3 yards a year ago, while breaking an 82-yarder for a touchdown against Western Carolina at Samford's Homecoming. Had he not had a late-season leg injury, Truss might have posted a 1,000-yard season as a running back as well.

STRUGGLING PROGRAMS MUST REALIZE IT'S TIME

New head coaches, especially those with struggling teams, are often quick to sidestep questions about win totals measuring their success.

You've probably heard the coach speak before: If the team gets back to the basics and does all the little things it is supposed to do, then the winning will fall into place.

Of course, if that doesn't happen, then the coach will keep his moves like Jagger the next time the media ask about a timeframe for winning.

It's usually the veteran coaches, and winning coaches, who are more open to wins and losses being a barometer.

Whether that's fair or not is debatable because, well, graduating players is an important measuring stick that too often is overlooked by sports fans.

It makes what football coach Rob Ambrose did in his third season at Towson all the more impressive.

Last year, he turned a team that was 3-19 in his first two seasons into the CAA Football champion and a Top 10 team. But he also had told his team in no- uncertain terms that it was time to start winning. And he was open about it to the media.

By year three, the honeymoon is over for coaches. They have had time to get their assistant coaches, recruits and philosophies in place. The struggling ones must say it's time to start winning more.

Some coaches who came on board for the 2010 season have taken their programs to great heights in their first two seasons, such as Sam Houston State's Willie Fritz, who had the Bearkats ranked No. 1 last season on their way to a national runner-up finish; Georgia Southern's Jeff Monken, who has reached the national semifinals twice; and Bethune-Cookman's Brian Jenkins, Murray State's Chris Hatcher and Portland State's Nigel Burton, who have orchestrated turnarounds with their programs.

To a lesser extent, Bucknell's Joe Susan, Cornell's Kent Austin, Lamar's Ray Woodard, Tennessee State's Ron Reed and Youngstown State's Eric Wolford have brought excitement to their programs.

But others need to make sure year three is so much better than the first two - channel their inner Ambrose with his blueprint.

There's Princeton third-year coach Bob Surace, who turned in his black-and-orange stripes with the Cincinnati Bengals to return to the ones he wore in the Ivy League with the Tigers. Surace has played enough young players in the last two seasons for the Tigers to improve dramatically on his 2-18 record, although running back Chuck Dibilio, the league's 2011 freshman of the year, is trying to recover from a stroke suffered in January.

Saint Francis (Pa.) hasn't posted a winning season since 1992, but the Northeast Conference team appears primed to show improvement under Chris Villarrial, who is 3-19 through two seasons. With the return of running back Kyle Harbridge (1,430 yards, 14 touchdowns), it could happen.

In the Southwestern Athletic Conference, Southern took a big step in Stump Mitchell's second season, doubling its win total from two in 2010 to four. Meanwhile, Mississippi Valley State ended a 19-game losing streak in Karl Morgan's second season, although it's his only win in his two seasons.

Dale Carlson also has only one win in two seasons at Valparaiso, which has been the FCS' worst program recently. But the Pioneer Football League team has a young nucleus, including quarterback Eric Hoffman, that appears ready for greater success.

Nicholls dropped from 4-7 in 2010 to 1-10 in Charlie Stubbs' second season. This year's schedule is front-loaded with difficult games, so the Colonels may need to win some games late in the season to show marked improvement.

One program that likely faces a rough going in coach Bill Curry's third season is Georgia State, which is joining the CAA in its final season before moving up to the FBS. After going 6-5 in 2010, the Panthers fell to 3-8 last season and now have a tougher schedule ahead.

Then again, it was easy to cast doubt on Towson going into 2011.

Most head coaches of struggling teams may talk about progress more than the wins. Even if it's just behind the scenes, it's time they demand accountability in the win column.

WE VALUE YOUR OPINION

The College Football season is just around the corner and I really appreciate your purchase of my second edition FCS Football Preview Magazine. I want to make it the very best magazine available and I really value YOUR opinion of it. In all of my magazines I have a questionnaire about the publications. This has helped me improve each of them on a yearly basis and almost every addition to each is because YOU, the reader, asked for it. This is the 18th edition of my FBS College Football Preview Magazine and I really do want YOUR opinion on everything that you like or dislike about this year's version. Please take a few minutes and fill out the form below. I have listed most of the different sections that are in the magazine and have broken down the team pages into the 4 different sections that I include on each team. If you really enjoy any or all of the sections, please mark how you feel below with a "Great" vote. If there is part of the team pages or other areas that you do not read, please let me know. I want the pages to have the information YOU want to see. If there is a statistic or chart you would like to see next year, please note it below. As my thanks to you for taking your valuable time to fill out this questionnaire, you can use it as a coupon for a 10% discount on any of my Phil Steele Publications. Simply check the box at the bottom to use your 10% discount. Please mail this form to Phil Steele's Publications, 25935 Detroit Rd, Suite 183 • Cleveland, OH 44145 or fax to 800-433-8885. Limit one completed questionnaire per address/customer (ONLY one discount per product). Thank You.
