POSITION OUTLOOK FOR 2014

QUARTERBACKS - It seems that every summer Les Miles says how improved the QB position is and every fall the results are disappointing. In '12 Zach Mettenberger was supposed to be an upgrade over the Jarrett Lee/Jordan Jefferson combo that was disappointing in big games. Mettenberger only played in 5 in '11 (8-11) as 3rd string. Versus Fla, SC and A&M Mettenberger avg'd 134 ypg (43%, 1-2). He had his best game vs Alabama (24-35-298) finishing with 2,609 (59%, 12-7). Last spg they added in 2 VHT true frosh in dual-threat Anthony Jennings (PS#24) and Hayden Rettig (PS#16). Mettenberger finally lived up to Miles' summer prediction. He recorded the first B2B 300 yd gms in 6 yrs for an LSU QB (UGA and MSU) and at midseason was leading the SEC in passing (4th nation) with a 190.1 QBR. In the first 6 he threw for 290 ypg (68%, 15-21). In the next 6, it dropped to 224 ypg (61%, 7-6) and he suffered an ACL vs Ark. Trailing Ark, Anthony Jennings led the gm winning td drive then started the bowl. In 9 games Jennings threw for only 181 (44.8%, 1-1). He gives them more mobility. Brandon Harris (PS#7) was IFS and had 4 td's in the spg gm. No matter who wins the job, they won't match the accuracy or the deep ball of Mettenberger (#6DC TEN).

RUNNING BACKS - LSU's backfield is usually 5 or 6 deep with VHT RB's. In '12 the top 4 ret'd but true frosh Jeremy Hill, who had 2 carries vs BCS tms in the first 6, was the first RB to top 100 for 3 str gms (SC, A&M, Bama) s/08 (Charles Scott) and led with 755 (5.3, 12 td). In '11 the top 4 RB's comb'd for 2,338 (5.3) and in '12 comb for 1,978 (5.1). LY they had to replace 2 RB's (#6DC). Hill was susp'd for the opener but topped 100 in 4 of his first 6 and had 216 (7.7) in the bowl (MVP). He finished with 1,401 (6.9, 16 td, #3 rec w/181). Terrence Magee (PS#33), who is also a Wildcat QB, had 95+ yds 4 times but only 166 in the other 9 (3rd down back) and finished #2 (626, 7.3). Kenny Hilliard (PS#12) had 800 (5.6) in '11 and '12 comb and was #4 (310, 4.6) LY. The largest FB in the NCAA might have been JC Copeland (6'1" 275) who is a solid blk'r while his bkp, Connor Neighbors, had 92 rec yds (13.1). The top 4 RB's rushed for 2,680 (6.3) but they lose Hill (11 st, #2DC CIN), Copeland (6 st) and Alfred Blue (2 st, 343, 4.8, #6DC HOU). They do add in PS#1 true frosh Leonard Fournette.

RECEIVERS - LSU always has receivers with solid size and speed but spotty QB play has held down their production as of late. In '11 Rueben Randle (6'4" PS#1) led with 917 (17.3). True frosh Odell Beckham was #2 (475, 11.6). In '12 Randle left early for the NFL (#2DC). Jarvis Landry (PS#2, 4 rec true) finished #2 w/573 (10.2). Beckham led with 713 (16.6) and PS#21 Kadron Boone was #3 (348, 13.4). LY the top 4 ret'd.

Vs Furman, Beckham became the first 1,000 yd rec here s/03 (Michael Clayton) and Landry (1193, 15.5, 10 td) matched the feat giving LSU its first ever 1,000 yd rec duo (prog started in 1893). Beckham (1152, 19.5, 8 td) and was #2 in the FBS in all-purp yds (178 ypg). To say those 2 were the featured WR's would be an understatement as the next WR was rFr Travin Dural (PS#65) with 145 (20.7). TY both Beckham (#1DC NYG) and Landry (#2DC MIA) left early for the NFL and to show how amazing their depth was James Wright (4 st WR in '12, 0 rec and 12 ST tkl LY) was drafted as a WR (#7 CIN). It will be tough to replace their talent and production (understatement of the year) despite the addition of PS#1 Malachi Dupre.

OFFENSIVE LINE - In '12 LSU appeared to have 104 car sts back (#5 FBS) but the unit was ravaged by inj's and defections (29 sts lost). As you would expect, the numbers dropped to 174 ypg rush (4.3, 32 sk). LY they had to replace 2 str's then lost LG Josh Williford (19 car st) over the summer so they had 30 car sts back. This time they lost just 8 sts to injury and the healthier OL paved the way for 202 ypg rush with their 5.0 ypc the best s/97 (25 sk). TY the only loss is 2nd Tm SEC RG Trai Turner (PS#50, 13 st, #3DC CAR) and this could be the best OL that Miles has fielded (75 car st).

DEFENSIVE LINE - At least 1 LSU DL has been picked in each of the last 11 drafts. In '11 they had one of their more veteran units and trimmed down to 90 ypg rush (2.7, 39 sk). Most of those sks ret'd in '12 with Sam Montgomery (9) and Barkevious Mingo (8) but LSU "slipped" a little to 102 ypg (3.0, 35 sk) which was #9 in the FBS. LY 3 DL left early for the NFL and all 3 were drafted in the F/3 rounds. The unit had 0 ret str's. As you would expect, LSU slipped to 143 ypg (3.9, 27 sk). TY both DT's left early for the NFL in Anthony Johnson (PS#2, 13 st, 35 tkl, 3 sk, 6 tfl, undrafted) and Ego Ferguson (PS#12, 12 st, 58 tkl, 3.5 tfl, #2DC CHI). With 5 of the top 8 back (also lose DE Jordan Allen, 3 st, 16 tkl, 2 sk), this unit is clearly a lot more exp'd than the '13 version.

LINEBACKERS - In '12 LSU lost a 2nd Tm SEC LB (#4 tkl'r) and 2 others (9 st, 35 tkl). They then lost Tajh Jones for all but the bowl (27 tkl '11) leaving them with just 4 LB's that had taken a snap with the most exp'd being Kevin Minter (PS#29, 11 st, 61 tkl '11). Minter led with 130 tkls (15 tfl, 2nd Tm AA) and left for the NFL LY (#2DC). They did return their #2 tkl'r Lamin Barrow (PS#43, 104 tkl) but the next LB tkl'r was #15 Deion Jones (PS#66, 23 tkl). LY LSU was a little more exp'd than '12. True frosh Kwion Alexander (PS#7) won a starting job in '12 before inj (2 st, 7 gm). Tajh Jones inj'd his hamstring and that opened the door for Alexander whose quickness turned some heads (9 st, #4 tkl'r, 6.5 tfl). Kendall Beckwith (PS#9) had 11 tkls but could be a star in the making. The one ret str, Barrow, was #1 w/91 (1.5 sk, 4 tfl) and the #2 tkl'r was DJ Welter (PS#64). TY they lose 3rd Tm AA Barrow (13 st, #5DC DEN) and Tajh Jones (3 st, 10 tkl) but the Tigers are more exp'd and will stop their negative def ppg trend the L2Y (11.3, 17.5, 22.0 LY).

DEFENSIVE BACKS - LSU has had some outstanding DB's incl a pair of eventual Thorpe Award winners teamed at CB in '10 with Patrick Peterson & Morris Claiborne. In '10 they were #13 in my PDR and with the emergence of "The Honey Badger" (Tyran Mathieu), they finished #2 in '11. In '12 they had to replace #1DC (6th overall) Claiborne, #3 & #4DC's and Mathieu (#3DC). Despite having just 1 str back, LSU only fell to #10 (56%, 15-18). LY they had to replace a CB (#5DC) and a 1st Tm AA S (#1DC). LSU "slipped" to #28 (56.0%, 15-11). Keep in mind, the front 7 was young (only 27 sk). The last 4 starting CB's here whose elig exp'd are all in the NFL. They ret'd 2 soph's named Jalen (Collins & Mills) LY at CB but 2 true frosh earned CB starts in Tre'Davious White (PS#20) and Rashard Robinson (PS#62). Six diff players st'd at S.TY they lose Craig Loston (10 st, t-#6 tkl'r, 3 int, 3 pbu) and Micah Eugene (3 st, 33 tkl). LY was a highly unusual season as no LSU DB's were selected to the All-SEC team. That will change in '14 with 6 of the top 8 back.

SPECIAL TEAMS - Les Miles' Okla St tms ('01-'04) finished #3, #18, #3 and #11 in my ST rankings. The unit continues to be a strong suit for him as in his 9 yrs he's recorded six top 12 finishes. LY they lost their top P (40.7 tm net), K (21-29, L49) and KR (549, 27.5) and had their lowest finish s/07 at #40. The star was Odell Beckham with 845 (26.4) on KR's, 160 (8.9) on PR's and a 100 yd return of a missed fg vs UAB. Colby Delahoussaye hit 13-14 fg's (L49) and P Jamie Keehn avg 41.0 (38.1 net). TY they lose Beckham but are more exp'd overall and should finish near the top again.

COACHES - Les Miles replaced Nick Saban here in '05 and did something that no LSU HC had ever done, tally B2B DD win seasons. He then led LSU to a Nat'l Title in his 3rd season and took them back to the title game in '11 (AP COY). Prior to LSU Miles took Okla St to 3 str bowls (1 bowl prev 12Y). Second year OC Cam Cameron was an NFL OC for 10Y (BAL '08-'12 & SD '02-'06) as well as a HC in both the NFL (MIA '07) and college (Ind '97-'01). John Chavis is in his 25th season as a DC spending the L/5 here w/14 yrs at Tenn ('95-'08).

PHIL'S FORECAST

In the 111 years prior to Les Miles' arrival, LSU had DD wins just 7 times. He's done it 7 times in his 9 yrs. In '03 my preview was the only magazine to forecast LSU to even win the SEC West and they were my #2 Surprise Team and took home a Nat'l Title despite being #14 in the AP Preseason Poll. In '07, LSU went 10-2 in the reg season with both losses in OT but after knocking off Tenn in the SEC Title game, got to the Nat'l Title game and won it again. Surprisingly the Tigers were just 8-5 and 9-4 the next 2 yrs but finished 11-2 (#8) in '10. In '11 after beating Bama on the road in OT, LSU beat UGA 42-10 in the SEC Title gm but this time Bama shut them out, 21-0 in the Nat'l Title game and they finished #2. In '12 they would have been #1 AP but "The Honey Badger" was susp over the summer and they took a revote (#3). They had close losses to Fla (finished #9 AP) and eventual Nat'l Champ Bama then dropped their bowl to Clemson and finished just 10-3 (#14). LY they lost 11 players early to the NFL draft (12 ret str's). They were only #12 AP and picked 3rd in the West by the media. They opened with a solid performance vs TCU (448-259 yd edge). After a couple of expected wins, they dominated Auburn leading 21-0 at half and won 35-21. They came up a fg short versus UGA on the road. They only led Miss St 28-26 late in the 3Q but went on a 31-0 run. A banged up Fla came in with a bkp QB and LSU won 17-6 all g just 240 yds. QB Mettenberger (15-2 ratio) had 3 int's vs Ole Miss (UM 525-388 yd edge) and UM got a 41 yd fg with :02 left for the upset. LSU trailed Bama just 17-14 at half but lost by 3 td's. LSU dropped to #18 when they hosted #9 A&M and had not beat a Top 10 team at Tiger Stadium while ranked outside the Top 15 s/95. They dominated A&M 34-10 and Miles had prev said that Tiger Stadium was where "dreams come to die" and that is what happened to Manziel's Heisman hopes. LSU was lucky to escape with a win the next week vs Ark with bkp QB Jennings hitting a 49 yd td pass w/1:15 left. They got past Iowa 21-14 in the bowl and finished #14. LY LSU was the first team in SEC history to feature a 3,000 yd passer, two 1,000 yd rec's and a 1,000 yd RB and unfortunately TY all 4 depart. This is still another strong LSU team and they host Alabama and are a title contender.

3rd all-time gm (3rd different venue). LSU is 2-0 incl a 27-7 win in the L/meeting ('72). This will mark the 4th time in the L5Y the Tigers will open w/a neutral setting, 3-0 w/an avg win by 10 ppg.

First meeting. L14Y LSU has lost one non-conf HG ('00 vs UAB). LSU holds the longest non-conf home win streak at 44. Bearcats went 9-5 LY (FCS playoffs L3Y, Nat'l Champ runner up 2x).

LSU is 2-0 ('03 & '10). Tigers have outFD'd the Warhorns 40-21, outgained 725-430 & outscored ULM 100-7. If you take away a garbage 4Q td drive in '03, ULM's deepest drive is to just the LSU26.

Tigers have won 14 str. LY LSU trailed 23-21 but w/17 before HT got a 14 yd td pass. After a MSU fg, LSU would score 31 unanswered. MSU's L/5 poss ended on a missed fg, 2 TO, SOD & time.

In the schools only prior gm ('96), LSU won 63-7. The Tigers had a 56-0 lead into the 4Q w/31-14 FD and 598-278 yd edges. Into '14, under Miles, the Tigers are 35-0 in non-conf reg ssn gms.

Visitor has lost 12 of the L/14. LTH LSU led 9-0 but trailed 10-9 at HT. LSU would get the led w/a 30 yd fg w/5:26 3Q. Clinging to a 2 pt lead LSU all'd just 92 yds (4.1 ypp) in Auburn's L/5 drives.

Tigers are just 1-3 their L/4 Gainesville trips. LTH was a battle of Top 10 tms (just 437 combined yds). LSU led 6-0 at HT and down 7-6 late 3Q fumbled at the UF23 (never threatened again).

The home tm has won 3 str. In the L/meeting ('11) LSU suffocated UK leading 35-0 before all'g a garbage td w/4:22 left. UK had just 155 yds w/100 of those (65%) coming on its L/2 poss.

Four of the L/5 gms have been decided by 7 pts or less. LY LSU trailed 17-0 w/9:29 3Q. The Tigers eventually would tie the gm 24-24 but all'd a 61/14pl drive capped off by a GW 41 yd fg w/0:2.

Alabama: LY's 21 pt MOV was the largest in this series (reg ssn & also in bowl) s/03. LSU trailed 17-7
