

WEEK Three
 BYU AT WISCONSIN

Wisconsin upset by BYU in first nonconference home loss since '03

MADISON, Wis. -- Squally Canada ran for 118 yards and two touchdowns and BYU handed mistake-prone Wisconsin its first nonconference home loss since 2003, giving the No. 6 Badgers fits with its motion offense in a 24-21 victory Saturday.

The Cougars (2-1) tossed in a trick play, too, when receiver Aleva Hifo found open tight end Moroni Laulu-Pututau for a 31-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter.

Wisconsin (2-1) had one last chance to avoid an upset with a drive that started with 3:55 left at the 8. But normally reliable senior kicker Rafael Gaglianone's 42-yard field goal attempt to tie with 41 seconds left went wide left.

"BYU! BYU!" yelled the small contingent of Cougars fans in the stands.

The Badgers' 41-game nonconference home winning streak, the longest active in the nation, came to an end. Their hopes to make the College Football Playoff probably did, too.

Skyler Southam's 45-yard field goal with 9:58 left, set up by Canada's 46-yard run on the first play of a five-play drive, gave BYU the lead for good, 24-21. The Cougars followed the Badgers' blueprint, punching right back after Wisconsin tied the score at 21 on Taiwan Deal's 5-yard touchdown run.

Deal rushed for two short scores. Star sophomore Jonathan Taylor had for 117 yards on 26 carries, but Wisconsin couldn't hit many big plays against a defense that was giving up 156 on the ground going into the afternoon.

The Badgers also sputtered for much of the day through the air.

Quarterback Alex Hornibrook was 18-of-28 for 190 yards, throwing an interception deep in Wisconsin territory on the team's opening drive of the second half. Canada scored his second touchdown of the day on the next series.

Hornibrook did his best work on Wisconsin's final possession with short passes over the middle and a 16-yard scramble to get the team to the BYU 26.

The Badgers gained just 2 yards the rest of the way, and Gaglianone missed after BYU called two timeouts.

Tanner Mangum was 12-of-22 for 89 yards, but he deftly operated an offense that used spread formations, motions and sweeps to find holes against Wisconsin.

It was quite a bounce-back performance for the Cougars a week after losing to California. A hot-and-cold offense has looked good in road wins against Arizona and Wisconsin but struggled in the second half last week against the Buffaloes.

Wisconsin's last nonconference loss at Camp Randall Stadium was to UNLV, 23-5, on Sept. 13, 2003.

THE TAKEAWAY

BYU: The Cougars set the tone early by keeping the young Badgers defense on its heels. BYU lost starting outside linebacker Andrew Van Ginkel to a right leg injury in the first quarter. The Cougars played with confidence in a tough road environment a week after a sluggish second half against California when they managed just 94 yards. BYU more than doubled that output in the first half alone against Wisconsin with 222 yards of total offense.

Wisconsin: The Badgers have first-year starters at cornerback, outside linebacker and defensive end. BYU exploited the defense with jet sweeps, though Wisconsin also has used that play for big gains, so it's not like the defense hasn't seen it in practice. Wisconsin also had a few missed tackles early in the game, including two by normally sure-handed inside linebacker Ryan Connelly.
