

WEEK TEN
UCLA AT OREGON

EUGENE, Ore. -- Justin Herbert threw for 264 yards and two touchdowns and Oregon defeated UCLA 42-21 on Saturday in Bruins coach Chip Kelly's first game at Autzen Stadium since he left the Ducks following the 2012 season.

Dillon Mitchell caught eight passes for 156 yards and two touchdowns for the Ducks (6-3, 3-2 Pac-12), who became bowl eligible. The victory also snapped a two-game losing streak that had dropped the Ducks out of the rankings.

With the loss, UCLA (2-7, 2-4) was guaranteed to finish below .500 in Kelly's first season with the Bruins.

During Kelly's four-year tenure Oregon made four straight BCS bowl appearances and he was lauded as the architect of the Ducks' up-tempo "blur offense." He was greeted with warm applause when he was introduced prior to the coin flip.

Oregon is on its third coach since Kelly's departure. The Ducks let go of Mark Helfrich following the 2016 season, then Willie Taggart stayed for less than a year en route to Florida State, and now Mario Cristobal leads the Ducks.

Herbert started for Oregon after going through concussion protocol earlier this week. He had been under observation after a hard hit in the second half of the Arizona loss. Mitchell also cleared concussion protocol this past week.

UCLA started Dorian Thompson-Robinson at quarterback against the Ducks. He did not play last weekend in UCLA's loss to Utah because of a shoulder injury and Wilton Speight made his first start since the season opener.

Thompson-Robinson threw for 135 yards and a touchdown before Speight replaced him in the third quarter.

Oregon's Ugo Amadi scored on a 56-yard punt return to give Oregon an early lead.

Thompson-Robinson was intercepted in the end zone by Jevon Holland, and on the ensuing drive Herbert hit Mitchell with a 49-yard pass before CJ Verdell's 1-yard touchdown run put the Ducks up 14-0.

Herbert also found Mitchell for a 4-yard touchdown in the second quarter. But Thompson-Robinson threw a 63-yard touchdown pass to Caleb Wilson to get UCLA on the scoreboard.

JJ Molson missed a 56-yard field goal for the Bruins as time ran out in the half.

The Bruins stopped Oregon on a fourth-and-1 attempt and took over on the UCLA 47 but Thompson-Robinson was sacked and fumbled and Oregon's Justin Hollins recovered. A pass interference call got the Ducks to the 1 and Cyrus Habibi-Likio scored on a 1-yard run to put the Ducks up 28-7.

Speight took over at quarterback for the Bruins, leading the team on a 75-yard drive that ended with Joshua Kelley's 25-yard touchdown run. Kelley finished with 26 carries for 161 yards.

Oregon was hurt late in the third when starting center Jake Hanson was ejected for targeting on Speight.

Herbert hit Mitchell with a 67-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave the Ducks a 35-14 lead, but the Bruins answered with Speight's 11-yard touchdown pass to Theo Howard.

Tony Brooks-James ran for a 54-yard touchdown midway through the final quarter for the Ducks.

THE TAKEAWAY

UCLA: Kelly went 46-7 as head coach of the Ducks, including a 26-2 mark at Autzen Stadium. ... It was unclear if Thompson-Robinson was injured by the sack, but he was on the sidelines with his helmet on during the fourth quarter.

Oregon: Herbert surpassed 6,000 yards career passing during game. ... The Ducks also won the last five meetings with the Bruins in Eugene, but UCLA hadn't played at Autzen since 2013, when Marcus Mariota was Oregon's quarterback. The last two meetings have been at the Rose Bowl, including last season's 31-14 UCLA victory.
