WEEK THIRTEEN WESTERN CAROLINA at ALABAMA

Jones, No. 5 Alabama rout Western Carolina, 66-3

 ${\tt TUSCALOOSA}$, Ala. -- Tua Tagovailoa watched from a cart as his Alabama teammates treated him to a dominant performance against a badly outclassed opponent.

Final

Mac Jones passed for 275 yards and three touchdowns in little more than a half and No. 5 Alabama began life without Tagovailoa with a 66-3 romp Saturday over Western Carolina of the Football Championship Subdivision.

With Tagovailoa watching much of the game from behind the bench, the Crimson Tide (10-1) put on a one-sided show against the Catamounts (3-9). The star quarterback, who had hip surgery on Monday, was cheered as he was driven toward the sideline before the game. He didn't have to give much of a pep talk.

"Just his presence," Tide wide receiver Jaylen Waddle said. "Just knowing what he meant to the team. That was enough. He didn't have to say much."

Alabama is fifth in the College Football Playoff rankings and hoping to somehow make the field despite failing to win the SEC West -- and losing its biggest star.

But this one was about taking care of business after an emotional week, not impressing the selection committee.

"It's not easy to overcome something like that, losing a great leader," said Jones, who completed 10 of 12 passes in his second career start. "But I think we're built for that. We train every day for the whole year mentally and physically. It's really mental toughness and learning how to rebound and respond to adversity."

Alabama forced five turnovers, including Xavier McKinney's 81-yard interception return for a touchdown, and got big plays from Jones and wide receivers DeVonta Smith and Jaylen Waddle.

Jones only threw one pass after halftime. Smith had four catches for 94 yards and two touchdowns, including a 57-yarder when he juked a defender before sprinting to the end zone. Waddle produced 101 yards and took a screen 54 yards for a touchdown, then returned a punt 49 yards to near the goal line on his next touch.

"I thought he threw the ball well and he was accurate on the deep ball," Alabama coach Nick Saban said of Jones. "I know he missed one, but we just want to keep building on his confidence and our confidence in him that he's going to go out there and do his job well."

THE TAKEAWAY

Western Carolina fell to 0-57 against FBS teams. The Catamounts came up empty after making it into Tide territory on each of their first four drives, including three turnovers.

"We had five turnovers on the day, and you can't do that against anybody, but especially the University of Alabama," Catamounts coach Mark Speir said. "I wish them the best of luck in their quest for the playoffs."

Alabama did what it was supposed to and showed no signs of an emotional hangover after Tagovailoa's injury. The defense had some shaky moments but was missing several players nursing injuries, including linemen Raekwon Davis and D.J. Dale. Najee Harris ran for a touchdown and caught a scoring pass.

TAULIA'S TURN

Tagovailoa's absence gave his younger brother, Taulia, a chance for his most extended action. The freshman came into the game with 12:12 left in the third quarter and threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Smith on his first attempt. He completed 2 of 3 passes for 35 yards. Alabama scrapped plans to redshirt the four-star recruit, who already had played in four games. Fellow freshman quarterback Paul Tyson, great-grandson of coaching icon Bear Bryant, saw his first action.

CARE TO DANCE?

When Saban recruited safety Jared Mayden, he took part in a dancing contest. Mayden's mother, Katrina Salles, reminded him of that during the pre-game ceremony honoring the seniors on the field.

"She reminded me of that today and actually said, `Do you want to dance?' I said, `Not today," said Saban, laughing.

PICKS IN PAIRS

McKinney ended Western Carolina's first two drives with interceptions, including the pick-six, after coming in with just one. Mayden got his third and fourth interceptions.
