Oklahoma State Postgame Notes

Saturday, December 2, 2023
AT&T Stadium, Arlington, Texas

18/19/19 Oklahoma State vs. 7/7/7 Texas

December 2, 2023 | Arlington, Texas (AT&T Stadium) | Attendance: 84,523

Final Score: No. 7 Texas 49, No. 18 Oklahoma State 21

Updated Records: Oklahoma State 9-4 overall (7-2 Big 12); Texas 12-1 overall (8-1 Big 12)

Postgame Notes

- In its second Big 12 Championship Game appearance in the last three years, Oklahoma State fell to Texas, 49-21, at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas.
- Rashod Owens became the first Cowboy this season to record multiple receiving touchdowns in a single game, hauling in touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters.
- Ollie Gordon II, the nation's leading rusher, was helped off the field multiple times with injuries. He finished the game with 88 total yards in 17 touches.
- Gordon II moved into sixth on the single-season all-purpose yards list in team history. Here's a look at the list heading into bowl season:

Individual Single-Season All-Purpose Yards

4. 2,009 - Terry Miller Jr., 1976
5. 1,980 - Ernest Anderson Jr., 1982
6. 1,940 - Ollie Gordon So., 2023
7. 1,922 - Thurman Thomas So., 1985
8. 1,885 - Dez Bryant So., 2008

- Nickolas Martin finished with 13 tackles and an interception. This was his sixth game of the season with at least 10 tackles and is one shy of breaking into the top 10 in single season tackles in program history with 133.
- Alan Bowman surpassed 3,000 passing yards on the season with 250 on Saturday, becoming the first Cowboy since Taylor Cornelius in 2018 to do so. Bowman also set a new season-high with three passing touchdowns in the game.
- Cam Smith posted eight tackles and 2.0 tackles for loss, both setting career highs.
- Starting cornerback Korie Black left the game in the first quarter and didn't return for the Cowboys.
- Coming into the game with only four touches on the season, true freshman Sesi Vailahi logged his first career reception on the Cowboys' second drive of the game. He finished with two carries for seven yards and two receptions for 12 yards.

Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game: Texas vs Oklahoma State

Saturday, December 2, 2023

Arlington, Texas, USA

AT&T Stadium

Oklahoma State Cowboys

Mike Gundy

Alan Bowman

Nickolas Martin

Postgame Press Conference

Texas - 49, Oklahoma State - 21.

THE MODERATOR: We have been joined by Coach Mike Gundy, Alan Bowman, and Nickolas Martin.

Coach, if you'd start us off with an opening statement. Then we'll go to questions.

MIKE GUNDY: That was a really good football game. Live they're actually better than what they look like on tape. Very fast, very explosive.

We didn't get off to a good start. I felt like we needed to get off to a really good start to kind of maintain the blows back and forth. We didn't really get off to a good start. Then we got into a multiple score game, made it difficult. Gosh, they're really explosive, on a roll right now. It's a good football team.

I told our guys -- these guys had a great year. What our guys were able to accomplish, I mean, they had a great year, and I couldn't be any more proud of what they did and what they accomplished. They deserved to be in this game today.

We came up short. They made some plays. We didn't. They made some coaching calls. We didn't. So I give them credit. They did a good job.

But gosh, our guys, they had an unbelievable year. I told them that. Sometimes you don't win. You come up short. But there's no way taking anything away from what these guys were able to accomplish. I couldn't be any more proud of the way they competed to get to this point.

Week in, week out, they stayed with the process. They didn't lose their train of thought. They didn't lose the process of preparing each week. We're lucky. We get to play another game. We're going to find out where we're going to go in a bowl game. We'll get to go play again.

We'll give these guys a week off. I've never given a team seven days. I'll probably give them eight days off. Normally it's four or five, and we're right back at it. This team, they need a break. They're tired. We practiced harder in the last eight weeks than I have ever as a head coach in 19 years.

I wanted them to know how much I appreciate that and what they brought to the table and that there's nobody taking anything away from this football team, in my opinion, as we move forward to a week off and then get ready to play in a bowl game.

Q. The way the game started out with them scoring quickly, how difficult did that make to use Ollie the way you guys maybe had wanted to with the run game? Did you feel you were forced to go to the pass game more?

MIKE GUNDY: We were going to use the run game some, but we knew we had to try to throw the ball more than what we had done in most games. They're really good up front. They've got mass, and at times it can be a little difficult.

But what you're saying is correct. Early we didn't get off to a good start, so we ended up being a little more one-dimensional offensively than what we would have wanted to.

Q. On the other side of the ball, seemed like maybe they had -- did they have some stuff maybe you guys hadn't seen, some schemes? It seemed like they were really trying to attack your linebackers in pass coverage a lot early on.

MIKE GUNDY: There's things we needed to do against them in man coverage to try to get the extra guy in the box at times. They did a good job on cross-concepts and such and got us in some trail technique.

They did a good job, as I said. They had some good concepts and schemes. When we went into the game, we felt like we had to be in a little bit more man than we needed to, just to kind of match up up front.

We didn't get as much pressure on the quarterback as we needed to. It's not easy to get pressure on him. We rushed three people at times. There's times it worked for us, and there's times when he sat back there longer than what we wanted. We kind of knew that going in that might happen, but we tried to rush three, we rushed four, we rushed five, there's times we rushed six.

They had some good concepts on scheme. I don't know that there was a lot. I didn't hear there was a lot of what we hadn't seen. They did a good job of getting the ball quick into the hands of skill kids and getting kick-out blocks and getting down the field and making plays.

Q. How tough was those Texas pass receivers in the open field? You get out in space, and they seemed to make a lot of plays.

ALAN BOWMAN: They got athletes that are really skilled. They've got speed on the perimeter. They really played the perimeter game early on. It seemed like we started playing catch-up, trying to figure out. Those guys got players. They made the plays. Yeah, solid players. They got speed out there.

Q. You lose Korie early in the game in this one. How did you feel the young guys in your secondary held up against Texas receivers and pass catchers?

MIKE GUNDY: They looked good. They got good experience. I looked out there, and there was three freshmen at once. I think one time we had four freshmen out there at once. So they had to grow up really fast.

They competed. They went after him. Texas saw it, and there was times they tried to mass protect and go down the field and throw it. They didn't hit a deep ball on us against those young kids, so I was proud of them for competing.

But that was tough for them. Korie is one guy we have who is experienced, and he's used to competing in situations like that, but we lost him early. So the freshmen had to go in and play.

Q. How challenging of a matchup was this going to be, just going in, from what you saw on film?

MIKE GUNDY: I don't want to repeat myself. There's no secret that matching up with them across the board can be difficult. I will give Sark credit offensively. He did some good things -- I mean, Nick can run with them. He can run with those backs and stuff on their routes. They brought them across and kind of got caught up in the trash.

He had good concepts out there. It's not something we haven't seen, and I will give him credit for that. I will say this, I'm just going to call it like it is. When you start getting multiple scores, you can start dialing stuff up a little easier. I've always said that.

The reason I know that is because I've been in situations where I'm calling plays, and things that I have that I might not get to, I can get to them easier if I'm at multiple scores. Then the matchup on the other side was trying to handle the interior group.

We had good concepts. We got the ball out there in the flat. We were effective on the perimeter, short passes here and there, which is what we thought we had that gave us the best chance based on I'm trying to protect against those big guys.

Those guys that we played against today in the inside, they're going to be playing on Sundays. We'll be watching them on Sunday. We competed against them. I thought our offensive line run block, they held up, and I thought for the most part pass block we held up. When we became a little more one-dimensional, it's more difficult.

You guys can go ahead. I took all your time.

ALAN BOWMAN: Obviously watching them on film, we knew it was going to be a good game. It was going to be a hard fought game. The best way to win is to execute, execute at a high level. Obviously we didn't come out and execute. When we don't do that and they get up and run, then we become one dimensional, and it's really tough.

Obviously when you're playing a good team, it's like any game, just execution, and we didn't do that.

NICKOLAS MARTIN: To touch on that, I feel like we knew what type of game it was going to be. We knew it was going to be a heavyweight battle. We knew they were going to have blows and we were going to have our own blows. Ultimately, they had more than we did.

Yeah, we all expected to play all quarters, heavyweight the whole game. What we saw up there is what we saw all along. They had a few kinks here and there, but ultimately they ran their offense.

MIKE GUNDY: One thing we did really well is special teams. I didn't have an issue -- I told you guys on Monday I was really concerned about the return game. Our concepts in the punt game and kick coverage was really good. We had good return yards.

I know there was a couple times they got us on the 12 or the 20, but we had 89 yards in kick returns. So we did have good schemes, good concepts. I was pleased with our special teams and our coverage.

ALAN BOWMAN: Talking about freshmen on defense, I think Sesi, offensive running back, coming in a true freshman playing at a high level. Obviously catching three and four passes, first real live action in a Big 12 Championship Game. Shout out to him. He played at a high level when we needed him. He came up in third down and fourth down. Shout out to Sesi.

MIKE GUNDY: That's a good call. You need to be a coach. I should have already done that, Bow. Thanks for covering for me. He did a really good job, competed.

Q. Alan, I know Mike just talked about the short pass success. Earlier you were going deep a lot. Is there something you saw there because it worked and sometimes it didn't. Something you were seeing there?

ALAN BOWMAN: They're a Cover 4 team, that's what they want to be. They're not going to be a Cover 1 team, so we knew we'd kind of have shots on the outside.

Like Coach said, those interior guys are kind of a load, a mass to deal with. We liked our match-ups outside. A couple shots we just didn't make. Maybe a call could have gone our way, maybe it didn't. Overthrown a couple guys.

Definitely our game plan was to take those shots outside in our one-on-one match-ups because we liked those, we thought we had the advantage there. So when you talk about matching up against them, that was one place we thought on offense we thought we could attack was those outside guys, and we tried and came up a little short.

Q. Mike, you mentioned you're going to give these guys about eight days off. With the portal open, with signing day soon, what's your staff the next couple weeks look like?

MIKE GUNDY: They're gone. Everybody's out here -- I say everybody, most of them will be out of here tomorrow morning, and the rest will be out Monday afternoon or Tuesday. Everybody's gone, hitting it, and back at it. We get 12 hours off. It's awesome.

Q. Mike, is Texas sort of blossoming under Sark? They've always had players, but they seem to have got it figured out now. Is it a good time for them to be going from OSU's perspective?

MIKE GUNDY: Changing conferences? They're very talented, we all know that. It's no secret. I told my guys, I like our guys. They're on a good run right now with -- I was told during the week they have 11 players that are going to be drafted. Now, I don't know. I don't keep track of that.

My point being is that would put him on a good run talent-wise. It's a high number, and they went through a period when the quarterback is out that, when I watched tape, they looked a little vulnerable at times. They lost the running back. They had a good running back, I heard, but other than that, they've stayed really healthy, and they're playing good football right now.

So they're a good team. I don't mind telling you, to be honest, I told the guys in here, I would guess that team can play with anyone in the country right now, just from what I saw live. Maybe I'm wrong. Whoever, they're ready to play.

If we would have got a couple breaks early, we would have been able to punch back and kind of stay in the ballgame, but we didn't get those breaks. So that's kind of a situation for us.

I do want to say again that this team is special. This team had a great year. I mean, not good. They've had a great year, and we're looking forward to playing one more time. I'm excited about walking out with them and getting on the bus with them and getting on a plane with them. I'm proud of them for what they did.

They stand for all the right things. They compete. They're humble. They keep their mouths shut, and they're willing to do what it takes for somebody other than themselves. That's why this is a special group, and I appreciate that.

You guys gave me nice and easy questions, and I appreciate you guys.

Q. You guys kind of showed a knack for being able to come back in games the past two weeks. What did Texas do especially well today that kept you guys from really digging back in?

MIKE GUNDY: We came out and got a stop. Then we rolled a little bit, and we had a high snap. We were on second and two or three. We had a high snap, we got sent back, and they stopped us. Ifs and buts, you know all that.

To me, I envision and think about what if you go down and score there? At least you may kind of clamp them a little bit on play calling.

But I don't want to take away from Texas. Today they were really well coached, and they played good. They have good players, and they have good coaches. So I don't want to take anything away from anybody. I still like my team.

Q. Just kind of following up on Mike's message to you guys about how proud he is of you, I know it's probably hard to elaborate on now, but just being here on this stage playing in this game, can you just sort of reflect on what it took to get here this year?

NICKOLAS MARTIN: It was definitely just a blessing being able to play in this game. Out of my three years of college, I've been in the Big 12 twice, so it's nothing but a blessing. Ultimately being able to play with my guys, in the postseason nothing's guaranteed, so just being able to go out here and lay it all out on the field one more time.

We've got another game after this, but definitely we never take it for granted even when you come up short, even when you win, you know what I'm saying, everything is a blessing.

ALAN BOWMAN: I would say I don't think anybody in this room expected us to be here at the beginning of the season. I think we were picked ninth in the Big 12 preseason. So to be playing in the game and be able to compete at this high level with those guys. Obviously a loss to South Alabama early, a loss to Iowa State early, 2-2, 0-1 in the Big 12. Everyone checked out on Oklahoma State.

We came together in that bye week, we go on a run, and we won 7 out of 8, and come in and play this game. So I couldn't be more proud to be a part of this team.

Obviously I just got here in January. So for them to kind of bring me in and to be able to become a leader and play for those guys, it's just awesome to be here. I know it's hard because you want to win every game you play, but looking back from where we came from to where we are now and the comeback games that we played, the tough road games, to come in here at halftime, I mean, we were down more than we've ever been than maybe, I don't know, UCF.

Nobody was yelling at each other. Nobody was upset with anybody. Everybody said, yeah, we can do this because we've done it before. We came up short today, but just to be here is pretty special.

Q. You threw to Brennan 15 times today. What did you like about that matchup today, and what has he meant to you all season, what has he meant to this team all season?

ALAN BOWMAN: B.P. is an elite player. He's almost unguardable. To find him as many times as we can, we're going to be better on offense. Obviously we have the big guys outside we can throw up to and make plays.

Yeah, I think he's an elite, next level player. His ability to go get the ball even though he's a shorter guy. So as many times as I can find No. 80 to get the ball in his hands, he's going to make plays and make guys miss.

Q. Nick, two quick ones. First one, how do you get hurt right there on your face? Something get inside your face mask?

NICKOLAS MARTIN: This has happened like five times this year. I don't know how, but I keep getting hit in my cheekbone and it swells up. It's weird. It's war, you know what I'm saying? If I got to do this and go through all the pain inflicted for my guys, I'd do it a million times.

Q. My main question for you. You talked about their speed earlier. Was that the biggest difference maybe seeing them live versus on tape, or was there something else that stood out about this team that gave you guys trouble early?

NICKOLAS MARTIN: I wouldn't say the speed was unexpected. We knew what type of team they were. We knew they have speed. We knew they had some good wideouts.

Ultimately, I just think that we just came up short. We took some heavy blows early in the first quarter. Our first possession on defense was backed up on the 39. We had our backs against the wall coming out.

It's never an excuse, but, yeah, we just took some blows. Tried to fight back, and we just couldn't fight back in time. Ran out of time.

ALAN BOWMAN: I would say it's a game of momentum. I think they had the momentum the whole first half, and we couldn't stop it. I think it just kind of poured on. It's a momentum game.

Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game: Texas vs Oklahoma State

Saturday, December 2, 2023

Arlington, Texas, USA

AT&T Stadium

Texas Longhorns
Coach Steve Sarkisian
T'Vondre Sweat
Quinn Ewers

Postgame Press Conference

Texas - 49, Oklahoma State - 21

THE MODERATOR: We've got Coach, Quinn and T'Vondre.

COACH SARKISIAN: I'd like to start by saying how happy and proud I am of these guys and our team and our players. This has been a heck of a journey that we've been on, and for Sweat for quite some time in the three years here with me, and then for Quinn, for two years. And it's been a journey all the way through.

And as much as we look at just this season, it's been a process, from day one. And I really commend these guys for believing in what we believed in and buying into what we believed in into the culture, to the competitiveness, to the love, to the togetherness, to the schemes, to the workouts.

All that stuff's really hard. Running in DKR at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the middle of June is really hard, is it not? It's really hard.

But when they bought into that and that idea that that was going to develop the mental and physical toughness needed to achieve something like this, it continued to grow.

And these guys know, we've been talking about being champions since this summer. And we haven't backed off of it. And I've challenged them, I made it very known publicly that's what this season was about, and they never blinked. And they continue to respond every time adversity struck.

We had a lot of different things this season that challenged us from adversity, from depth issues and guys being out, to, in the end, we probably played our best football in the last two weeks. And we played two really good, complete games where, throughout the season, we've had to rely on different aspects of our team.

But in the end, today, we just played a fantastic game. I couldn't be more proud of these guys and more happy for them. And couldn't be happier for Longhorn Nation. I know it's been a long time coming. I know everybody's been starving for this championship. So to get it on our final game in the Big 12, I hope everybody enjoys this as much as we do. So that's all I've got.

Q. Steve, why do you think this team deserves a spot in the College Football Playoffs?

COACH SARKISIAN: I would say two things to that question. The first is, as I touched on with the team, I didn't want this win and I didn't want this championship to be about the College Football Playoff. This is an accomplishment in and of itself, us winning a championship. That's the first part.

I'm so happy for these guys that there should be, regardless of what happens, they should feel very proud that they were leaders on this team, two of our captains on the team, to get us to this point.

That's the first part. I want to be clear on that, we're here to celebrate this victory and this season and what we were able to accomplish this year.

But I think one thing we've shown, we're a very complete football team. We don't rely on one phase or one aspect of this team to win. We play great defense. That offense was averaging well over 400 yards a game. That was one of the top running backs in the country. We held them to 2.6 yards per carry. Just a fantastic effort, defensively.

Offensively when you go out and you have well over 600 yards, you're able to throw it, you're able to run it and you have almost three receivers over 100 and have another back go over 100 -- and special teams.

That's the thing I think about our team is unique. We are very, very versatile. We have extreme depth. And we can win at the line of scrimmage and we can win at the skill-position spots.

So this may be a little bullish of me saying, but we'll play anybody in the country. I'm not shying away from that part. Like I feel very comfortable, if we get into this tournament, we'll play anybody. We'll find out if we're good enough or not. But I feel like we have the team, the culture, the scheme and the versatility of this team to play against anybody.

Q. T'Vondre, how much lobbying did you have to do to get a pass thrown to you? And why do you deserve the Heisman?

T'VONDRE SWEAT: Well, I mean I was going to Coach Flood all the time and Coach Sark waiting on this opportunity to get this touchdown. They told me during the game, I was going to get the touchdown, and it happened.

And the Heisman, I mean, I'd love to go to New York.

COACH SARKISIAN: Nice pose, though. I like the pose.

T'VONDRE SWEAT: It was.

Q. Coach, you were standing right next to him -- it was hard for us to hear through the booing -- but it appeared that the commissioner said that your dominant performance showed that you all deserved to be in the College Football Playoff; is that what he said?

COACH SARKISIAN: Correct. Yes, sir.

Q. Steve, earlier this week I asked you how you've felt you've grown as a coach from the beginning of the year to now. You said you hadn't time to assess that yet. From 5-7 to now, Big 12 champs, what are the emotions and thoughts?

COACH SARKISIAN: The biggest thing I reflect on, even now just being in the locker room, greeting every player coming in is my connection with these guys. I think a lot of times you go through the process of being a coach, and you're a position coach and then you become a coordinator, and then you're a young head coach and you go through it.

But I think these guys would tell you, my connection to Sweat is the same as my connection to Quinn. To me, that's the thing I enjoy the most about what I get to do.

Yes, I love the Xs and Os and I love pushing these guys to be the best they can be. But the fact that I get to watch them grow as men, that's the most gratifying thing.

I don't know if I appreciated that as much as a younger head coach. And in this time over the last three years, getting that connection has been probably a little more difficult than I wanted because I wanted that connection with these guys from the beginning.

But as I tell them all the time, trust equals time plus consistency. And I needed to remain consistent over time for them to keep getting closer to me. And in the end, the thing I praised them for is they trusted me, they trusted me this year. They believed me when I told them how things would go. And luckily for me those things did occur.

And so in the end you just try to keep building trust to forge these relationships that last a lifetime because that's what this is about. We're building young men to go in society to do great things, hopefully for a long time on the field but beyond.

And I think our culture is one that is allowing them to grow that way but remain being themselves. And as they grow into leaders in our program. You can start to see some of the things I really truly believe in come out of them. That's the part I probably relish the most in.

Q. What are the qualities of this team that you feel like have gotten them to this point?

QUINN EWERS: I think today, like I said earlier, I think we showed that how well we play and how well we come together in the championship games like we did today.

And like Coach Sark was saying, how complete we are. We can win a game in any three phases, whether it's defense, special teams or the offense making plays. And today I think we came out here and showed that we're capable of doing all three and playing together as one.

Q. This game was broadcast at Times Square and in 140 countries throughout the world. Could you share with Texas Longhorn fans around the globe, what does it feel like to be champion playing football at the University of Texas?

QUINN EWERS: I'll start. There's no better feeling, honestly, especially for the guys who just dreamed of playing here and coming to their state. And accomplishing something to this magnitude has been just nothing but a blessing.

I didn't know that it was broadcast in all those places. So to hear that, it's pretty cool, especially, I tell these guys come out here and play like no one's seen us play before and show them what Texas football is really about and what we believe in and all that stuff. But that's a pretty cool stat you said there.

T'VONDRE SWEAT: Yeah, I like that. (Laughter).

Q. Coach, tomorrow, do you have any plans for a watch party for the guys or anything like that? Or maybe you haven't thought that far. Secondly, regardless of what happens tomorrow, will you still categorize the season as a success?

COACH SARKISIAN: Without question. This season has been an amazing success. We're not done regardless. We're not done. We went into this season to be champions. And we are. These guys are wearing hats that say "champions" across the top. And that says a lot. So very, very proud of them of that.

We'll figure out what tomorrow looks like. I said to be ready to watch this thing around 11:00. And hopefully they haven't slept yet, so that's a good thing.

Q. On that final play, you had Jonathon Brooks out there. Obviously he had ended his season. What did he mean to you this season? And why did you give him the ball on that final play?

COACH SARKISIAN: Well, this team is very close, and there's a great deal of love on our team. And Jonathon meant a great deal to us. We would not be here today without Jonathon Brooks and what he did for us in a good portion of this season.

And you hate when guys have season-ending injuries like that. And so ironically, on Thursday, at the end of practice, we took a knee. I had everybody on the sideline, and we took a knee. And I put Jonathon out there when we took the knee, and I think everyone is like, what's he doing?

When I was done, I said when we win Saturday, Jonathon's going out there to be part of this victory with us, and he's going to register a snap that he was part of a Big 12 Championship game. And the guys, they love that stuff. So we had to follow through.

So it was a great moment. He's earned it. He deserved it. These guys are so close with one another that I'm glad he was able to have that moment.

Q. I know you talked about what this meant to all the players, but your story's been pretty well documented. You weren't sure you were going to get this chance again. Just were you able to reflect personally on what this championship meant to you?

COACH SARKISIAN: Yeah, I mean, I've never done anything in my life not to try to be the best at what you do. And so when President Hartzell and CDC and Kevin Eltife called about this opportunity to be the coach, like I told you before, I didn't take this job just to say I was the head coach of University of Texas.

I took this job with the mindset we're going to go here and win championships. I said that in the opening press conference. I said it to these guys in my very first meeting. I've said it to them in some nicer ways. I've said it to them in other ways, which Sweat can attest to.

But in the end, the journey is the journey, and our own personal journey is our personal journey, and my story is my story.

Hopefully what comes out of this is my story can inspire others to maybe make changes in their own personal lives for growth because we don't have to stay where we are. We can overcome things in life, and there's so much more out there for us to go do.

And, again, I'm grateful and thankful for the opportunity. Every day I'm humbled that I get to be the head coach here. So the fact that we're able to fulfill this dream of winning a Big 12 Championship is awesome. I wish I could say it in a better way or use a better word but, it's just frickin' awesome. I love it for these guys and it's great.

Q. Sark, I want to ask you about Quinn's performance, best of his career statistically. What did he mean to you today, and also over this four-game stretch since he came back from the injury?

COACH SARKISIAN: I thought Quinn was lights out today. And the biggest thing today was when the first read was there, he was throwing the ball really accurately and guys were making plays. But I thought the thing that showed up today was him getting to secondary reads and getting through progressions and still throwing the ball really accurately and giving guys chances to make plays.

Obviously A.D. Mitchell made some plays and J.T. Sanders with a great game, some contested catches. Xavier got us started with a really explosive play early on.

I think there's always that calming factor when your starting quarterback is in there. So to get him back for the last four was big. And, hey, we wouldn't be here if it weren't for Maalik Murphy in those two games. And people sometimes overlook us beating Kansas State. That is with a backup quarterback and against a really good team.

So it all adds up to we got here and we were as healthy as we could be. And he played a fantastic game and played it confidently. So I'm proud of him because this has been a journey for him, too. None of us forget some of the tough days last season, but to get to this point to have this moment today, that's pretty special.

Q. Quinn, wanted to ask how it felt out there today? Did you think about the game against Oklahoma State last year and how far this team has come since then?

QUINN EWERS: 100 percent. It felt awesome to be out there, super confident in my teammates to make plays and confident my abilities to get the ball in my hands.

Sure I thought back during this week to what happened last year. I didn't play my best game. I threw three interceptions.

To come out here against the same group of characters was awesome to go out there and play what I believe is my true game.

Q. Coach, talk about the first part of the game. You guys all seemed like you were free wheeling. Was that the plan? I just came from Coach Gundy and he said you had things going your way. Quinn had 12 straight completions to start the game to eight different receivers. Was it just the confidence factor, and once you got up you built on it? What happened?

COACH SARKISIAN: We made a point Monday morning, when we started talking about how we were going to try to win this game, what it was going to take. One of the key points and what it was going to take we wanted to come out and start fast.

We really wanted to come out and throw our best punches that we had. This was not a game that we wanted to throw jabs and feel it out. We wanted to go for it. And I think the guys got a lot of confidence in the game plan of how we were going to try to do that. And they executed it.

As we touched on last night in our final meeting, especially with the offense, it's all set. Now let's just go execute. Let's have great poise, get great composure, great confidence and go play loose and go play the game.

And they did it and they gave me confidence. When they start playing like that that gives me as the play caller confidence to call some things knowing they're going to execute it in those moments.

Q. How fun was that for you as a play caller when you see Quinn dealing like that, did that take you back to the days of you dealing to (indiscernible) and Chad Lewis (phonetic) back in the day?

COACH SARKISIAN: No, I thought one of the keys today, too, where I got confidence was I thought we were protecting Quinn really well. And that's a good pass-rushing team. They've got a couple of guys that can rush.

And so I felt like he showed a lot of comfort in the pocket because the pass protection was good. And that allows you to keep spreading the field and getting the ball in your playmakers' hands and allows you to call some different things -- reverse passes and whatnot -- because you just feel comfortable. You start finding your rhythm.

And I think Quinn was definitely in a rhythm. And I'll say credit to him, it's never easy as a quarterback when you throw an interception. That's always tough. Especially when they get the short field and they score off of it.

But his response, like it's been all year, was tremendous. And I think we talk about growth on everybody, but what an area of growth for him to respond the way that he did and continue to play at a high level.

Q. I'm going to go back to the T. Sweat touchdown. My question for both T'Vondre and Coach Sark, what were you thinking when you knew that was the play and you saw the ball in the air? And, Sark, why was this the game to showcase that part of his game?

T'VONDRE SWEAT: Well, first we started, we did it Thursday. And Coach told me that that was going to be the first play we call when we get in goal line. He wasn't lying. He did it. It was amazing, though. It was amazing.

COACH SARKISIAN: Every game you get down there, you have a plan of what you're trying to do. And it just happened to be this was a good look for it. And ironically, they kind of played it exactly how we thought they would. And when did you bobble it? Was that yesterday or Thursday?

T'VONDRE SWEAT: Yesterday.

COACH SARKISIAN: He bobbles it yesterday in practice. I said, do not mess with me; you better catch it, and don't get a penalty get your behind to the sideline and celebrate to the sideline. So very cool moment.

Q. Obviously college football, sports, you're not guaranteed a spot to play in the national championship and you've been part of multiple different types of championship selections, but to be a 12-1 team potentially looking at behind 13-0 teams, is that a frustration for you, or is that something that you just understand as part of the sport?

COACH SARKISIAN: It's not frustrating. I think that's the thing about college football that is unique. We don't all play common opponents. We have our own conference. We decide to schedule our nonconference games the way we do.

I credit our administration. We played three bowl-eligible teams in our nonconference schedule and whether it was Rice, Wyoming, obviously to go Tuscaloosa, Alabama and win that game, that's a tremendous feat for these guys to accomplish that.

Now, when you do that, sometimes that takes its toll on your team when you play the epic battles like that, when we play in Tuscaloosa. But to win that game by 10 points, I think, helped us as the season went on, and it helped us have some resolve, when we did lose a gut-wrenching game in early October, but we bounced back the way we did. And I think since that ball game that we lost, we've only trailed twice in the rest of the games on our schedule.

And so hopefully, when people kind of look at the totality of the body of work, it's not just about the record; it's about the quality of the team. And I think that's the intent of the College Football Playoff, is putting the four best teams in that playoff.

Do we think we're one of those four? Sure, we do. But this isn't a vote. We don't all get to go to the election booth and vote. So it's in their hands. All we can do is, like we told the players, control what we can control. Now let's play the best football we could, and I thought we did that today and hopefully put in their minds what would it look like if Texas was in a four-team playoff.

I think it would look pretty good. But again, we'll see what they think.

Q. Keilan you said last week was a conduit for everything you wanted to do. He scores the touchdown, but then comes right back on special teams and makes the tackle on the kickoff. What was the challenge in getting your guys to really buy into that part of, it's not just about the touchdown, it's about the little things on special teams?

COACH SARKISIAN: No, I'm glad you point that out. And these guys know -- and they'll tell you -- we take a lot of pride in the little things in the game. And I probably coach more of those types of things. Like, these guys know on Monday morning I'll do a good, bad, ugly tape. And I'm coaching things away from the ball that they never show up until they show up, when you don't do those little things.

When you have a Keilan Robinson or Jordan Whittington doing those things around the ball and we can celebrate them, hopefully that inspires others to do it that way. And my job as a coach is I've got to find ways to reward them for doing that.

And Keilan, like I said, when I first got here and he transferred here, I think he was a big component to kind of show the way of how important special teams is, how important the little things are to developing kind of the mindset of our team.

And he hasn't changed. It's three years later and he's scoring a touchdown and then covering the kickoff. It's that's what we expect of our guys. That's the standard in which we play. Every play has a life of its own. And what you put on tape for that play is how you'll be judged.

And I think our guys really understand that now, that we don't look at the scoreboard. We don't worry about how much time is left in the game. We want to play that play to maximum ability, maximum effort.

Like I tell these guys, we critique effort first. And when you can see a guy do it like that coming off a touchdown play and then still have that effort, that should inspire other players to stay on the field.

Q. Quinn, Big 12 record in passing. You've talked about it. How have you improved as a quarterback since kind of early in the season? And Coach, quick, initial thoughts on Xavier, does it look like an ankle injury?

QUINN EWERS: Like Coach said earlier, just the way I'm able to keep a level head and stay poised even though maybe things aren't going our way, like that pick.

We harped on not giving these guys a short field and I end up giving them short field and not focusing on the negativity, but focusing on what we've been doing good and how can we attack this after putting one in.

COACH SARKISIAN: Positive news on Xavier. X-rays were negative. He's been dealing with ankle stuff for the past month or so. But the beauty of it is we've got plenty of time now to get him healthy and get a lot of the guys healthy.

We were not 100 percent health-wise coming into the game. A lot of guys had to fight through. So this will be a good couple weeks for us to get ourselves back and get ourselves healthy again and figure out where we're going to play.
