RECORD UPDATES

- Ohio State improved to 12-2, while Oregon fell to 13-1. Oregon now leads the all-time series with Oregon, 10-2. The No. 1 seed in CFP games is now 12-7.
- Ohio State improved to 5-4 in CFP games (2-0 vs. Oregon), while Oregon dropped to 1-2.
- In AP No. 1 vs. No. 6 games, No. 1 now leads by just 12-9.
- This was the 26th rematch of regular season opponents in a bowl game, the 17th time the teams split the pair (seven teams swept, two were rematches of tie games).

ONE-LINER QUICKIES

- First Quarter Dominance. In the 12-game series between the schools, Ohio State has now outscored Oregon 94-13 in the first quarter.
- Three & Outs (Or Worse): Ohio State came into the game forcing its opponents into three-and-outs or worse 55 of 145 possessions (not including kneel-downs); today the Buckeyes forced the Ducks into those five times in 13 possessions (after Oregon had just 24 in 146 drives coming in).
- No Laundry. The first half saw no penalties called on either team. The first penalty (face mask on Oregon) didn't come until 42:14 into the game. The five combined penalties (Oregon 3, OSU 2) were a bowl season low to date (three previous games had six).
- Turnover Free. It took until the 38th game of the bowl season to have a turnover free game, which was the case this afternoon. In fact, neither team even fumbled once.
- Averted. Oregon's late first half score averted a tie for the second-largest halftime deficit in RBG history; in the 2016 game, Stanford led Iowa, 35-0; in the 2002 game (also the BCS championship game), Miami-Fla. led Nebraska, 34-0.
- Scoring. Dating back to the last three quarters of the 2014 RBG when Michigan State scored in each period, the winning team has scored at least 43 of 48 quarters (and all three overtimes).
- Sack Attack. Ohio State's eight quarterback sacks are the most by any team this bowl season (38 games); Toledo, Michigan and Louisville had the most previously with five.
- This was the fourth RBG decided by 20 points (the 26th by 20 or more points). It was the largest margin of victory since the 2016 game when Stanford defeated Iowa, 45-26.

● Possession Breakdowns. How this afternoon's possessions figured out for both teams:

Ohio State - 41, Oregon - 21

THE MODERATOR: We're joined by Ohio State.

Q. Coach, how much of tonight is a reflection on what you were hoping to get when you brought Chip Kelly on?

RYAN DAY: Yeah, I thought Chip called a great game. I thought the whole offensive staff worked hard to put the plan together.

But ultimately it comes down to the players putting it on the field. I've said that all along. I think sometimes in this game coaches get too much attention. This is about these guys right here. A lot of good plays out there, but they've got to make it work. And I thought they really put it on the field and we came out aggressive.

But I thought Chip called an aggressive game and certainly had a big smile on his face after.

Q. You've been in a position last month that most coaches, maybe the first ever, where a large portion of the fan base has been displeased. And you guys had to come into a postseason under some tough circumstances. I'm wondering, what's it been like for you through this journey and how cathartic was it today to have the game you guys had?

RYAN DAY: Well, in this game, there are ups and downs along the way, and when things are going good you've got to hug the guys you love the most and when things aren't, you've got to hug them even harder. And you just hang in there and you keep swinging.

PLAYOFF
QUARTERFINAL

I talked to these guys about it a couple of weeks ago. That's life. And this team is resilient. And when you surround yourself with great people, with great character, you find yourself working through difficult times.

At the end of the day, we wanted to win a national championship, and the way that we got here wasn't what we expected. It wasn't what we planned for.

But nonetheless, we had an opportunity to come back and play Oregon after we had already played them early in the season, and that's the only thing that mattered. And the guys have been doing a great job staying focused. The staff have stuck together.

But the players have stuck together and they're fighting to stay together because the winner gets to play together another week. The loser doesn't. So those guys have worked hard to stay together, and now we've got an opportunity to go play Texas and a lot of football ahead of us.

Q. Just looking at the enormous impact that Jeremiah has had on this season, on your team, how would you say he mirrors somebody like Marvin Harrison Jr., who you have seen develop and be able to do great things?

RYAN DAY: I think we always want to draw comparisons because that's what we do naturally. I think whether it's players or coaches it's easy for everyone to say, well, he's this person and -- not quite put him in a box but sort of categorize them based on somebody who has come before.

And Jeremiah is his own person. And I think the way that he's come in from the get-go, he had a look in his eye he wanted to make an impact as a freshman.

I think his teammates would tell you the same thing. And he's earned the respect of the teammates, not because of his ability. You guys see his ability, but to me it's the work ethic every day. He comes in. He's serious. He doesn't say a whole lot. But when he does, people listen.

ASAP sports . . . when all is said, we're done.®

His maturity, physically, emotionally and mentally has allowed him to play like this. And remember, he's a freshman. So for him to be playing his best football late in the season speaks to his maturity.

Q. When Marcus Freeman was here after they played SC, I asked him, sometimes a defeat is the best thing that happens to a team. I know that's hard to say when you lose to your rival, but are there some aspects of that loss that may have, in the end, where you're at right now, may have been the best thing for your team? I see you shaking your head no already.

RYAN DAY: It's hard for me to say something like that. But I know that you're a sum of your experiences. And this team has had great wins this season. It's had some tough losses. And we have learned from those.

And you've got to grow and you've got to build and you've got to make sure you're focusing on your strengths and making sure that you understand what your weaknesses are. And I think that's a big part of it.

But ultimately it comes down to our guys. I just keep going back to that because these guys are resilient. We're at a place where you can hear a lot of noise, but they didn't do that.

And I'm very, very proud of our staff. I'm very, very proud of our players. But we're far from done.

Q. I asked you this a couple weeks ago. You talked about playing free, without fear of consequences. Over these last two games, it would probably look like that's what that looks like. What's been the shift in that mindset? What have you done? What has the team done to allow that to happen? Is it a focused effort on that?

RYAN DAY: I don't know. You can talk to the players about it. I think all year you make adjustments along the way. But we've focused hard after the regular season on our execution. And I know that sounds really simple, but it's something we talked a lot about in our walk-throughs, in our meetings.

It might be practices, it might be a walk-through in a hotel, might be a meeting. It may be one little tip that could give you that little bit to say, hey, this will help you execute on this play and this situation.

And then you also have to be situationally aware, which I think as the season's gone on we've done a better job of that.

And then the last piece is doing your job. Everybody has to do their job. Like, you take, for instance, the route that Jeremiah ran on the play where he stuck his foot in the ground and went across the field. It was a perfectly run route.

But the protection was there. The setup by Will of getting the whole defense to run one way, looked like it was a naked, and then we came back and threw the ball. There's so much that goes into that one specific play. And I think that we've really focused on that part of it.

And I think it's the same thing with the defense. I think that they all understand how they fit in with each other. And then it comes down to execution.

But then when you mix that with after the snap has been snapped, the physicality and how hard we're playing right now, I think those two things are the reason why you're seeing us play that type of football.

Q. There's been a lot of talk in your time at Ohio State about this program's record in big games and the way the last couple of years ended. Obviously this program has bigger goals, but to win the last couple of games in the way you did, do you take any personal pride in that as a coach in the journey?

RYAN DAY: Every game is big at Ohio State. And we know that when we came and when we decided to come to Ohio State. And certainly this game is huge for a lot of reasons.

But I think the most important for our team is that we had a chance to play together for another week. To me that's the most important thing.

Every game here is important. So when you lose, you've got to figure out how to move forward.

But when you recruit great people, with high character who care about each other, when you go through difficult times, you stick together. You don't splinter.

And, again, that's why whenever we're in these situations I just fall back on these guys right here. I wish you guys were asking these guys questions because they're the ones on the field. These guys are the ones playing, not me.

I'm just there to direct them and make sure we're all going in the right direction. These are the guys who are the warriors who are doing it on the field. And I just can't say enough about these guys.

Q. Jeremiah and Cody, what did you see today that was different from the first game? And what are some of the things you practiced that you thought were going to be there?

CODY SIMON: From the first game, I think our defense -- that was obviously one of our let-down games for our defense. One of the biggest thing we changed was our attitude and mentality. There were plays in the game we weren't aligned or ready to go. With an offense like that for Oregon, they thrive on that stuff.

For us, it was just that mentality we had to change. We went through a lot of tough conversations after that game and a lot of changes we had to make, but I think we're better for it now.

We made those changes. And like Coach Day said, it's all about execution. No matter what, no matter who is across the ball, you have to do your job. If you do your job, you're going to like the results.

JEREMIAH SMITH: Offensively, just after that game, we had a bad taste in our mouth. We just had to come in the next day and just see what was the issue, fix the issues and get on the field and work it.

But, you know, offensively we knew we had to get the ball to the perimeter, take shots and just win one-on-one match-ups. And that's what we did today.

Q. Jeremiah, your offense is so good when you guys get vertical. How does Will kind of help you guys along? And why do you feel like he has to prove himself week after week?

JEREMIAH SMITH: Will does a great job in practice just trusting us, just throwing the ball out there. We tell him, just throw it out there. We'll make a play for you. It don't matter if it's a bad ball or not, we'll make our quarterback look good.

But Will playing with that confidence that he has, just being a leader out there, I feed off his energy. He's just great guy. I love Will to death. And I would do anything for him.

Q. Cody, Coach talked about execution, execution. But this is an emotional game. Football is emotional. How have you as a captain worked with your team to just, let's balance the emotions with the execution and do this the way he wants us to do it?

CODY SIMON: That's probably the biggest part about football: It's a game about getting your body, mind and spirit right.

I think Coach Day does a great job, he wants us to, like, understand the moment, how the steps of each game goes, and we don't play that game a week ago, but we have to get our mind ready to be in that sense.

So obviously it was a lot of emotion, a lot of people talk about redemption. But, for us, it's really just about doing your job because our coaches put us in the right position, so we've just got to go and make the play. They've done it so well this season. We trust them 100 percent.

Q. With the college football landscape changing every single day, it seems like, what does it mean to you guys to win the Rose Bowl knowing that there's more football left to be played?

RYAN DAY: I think for us, we literally are taking it one week at a time, but we are -- I keep saying it, we're fighting to keep this team together because we have a great group of guys together.

I think that we believe that when we're executing at a high level, that we can play with anybody in the country. And so we have a lot of respect for Oregon. We have a lot of respect for Coach Lanning and his staff and his players. I think they're a very, very good team and well coached. We knew we had to be at our best today.

It will be the same thing next week. When you're playing in the playoffs, you're playing against very, very good teams. We hold ourselves to a high standard. So now we're going to have to get back. We're getting back. We're not staying the night. We're getting back on the plane, heading back to Columbus. We'll get some rest and then we'll focus on Texas.

Q. You always talked in these big games about your best players need to step up. These last few weeks, even going back to the Michigan game, the way Jack Sawyer has played, what have you thought about the way he stepped up and made an impact?

RYAN DAY: I can't say enough about Jack as a leader, as a person. He really stands for what it means to be a Buckeye, and to see him playing at a high level, he's the heart and soul of the front.

And Cody will tell you just what he brings every day. He brings a hard hat and a lunch pail and goes to work, and it's showing late in the season. He's playing a lot of great football. He's a big reason we won today.

Jeffrey Bassa

Postgame Press Conference

Ohio State - 41, Oregon - 21

THE MODERATOR: We're joined by Oregon.

DAN LANNING: Before we get into the game, first off, just want to recognize the people in New Orleans, how we're thinking of them, praying for them. There's no place for that in the world for that. And the loss of life is always something that you don't want to take for granted. And so I'm hoping for some solutions there.

But getting to the game, they clicked tonight and we didn't. And I didn't get our team prepared. And that's a great team. When you play a great team like Ohio State, you can't not be clicking on all cylinders. And they were. They were clicking on all cylinders.

We really didn't have the ability to stop them, and we didn't have the ability to get something going for us on offense. And we haven't faced a lot of moments like this all year. It's an unbelievable team. Coach Day and his staff have done an unbelievable job there.

I don't want to discredit what our players have been able to accomplish this year. We had a great team. We just ran into a great team tonight and we didn't play our best. Credit to those guys.

I'll say this about our team: There wasn't a second we stepped on the field where I felt our guys were disheartened, where they didn't want to give the effort to go out there and play.

I just don't think we had a good enough plan as coaches tonight, and we have to find ways to prepare ourselves for these moments better as a coaching staff.

But I love that team. I love that team in there. I love what those guys were able to accomplish, and it was tough when you play great teams at the end of the season somebody's not going to come out on top. Those guys came out on top tonight. Obviously that's a team I think that has the ability to go win it all.

So proud of our guys. Certainly proud of this season and disappointed tonight. If you're a competitor, there's no way you're not going to be disappointed in the result tonight.

Q. Your thoughts on just how the long layoff between games, between now and the Big Ten championship game, impacted the guys in terms of how the game started?

DAN LANNING: I think that's an excuse. I thought our guys prepared well going in. Obviously they had a better plan than us. But that's an excuse.

That's an opportunity that we had to recharge. I thought our guys did practice well. I'd tell you if that wasn't the case. I thought they had a great focus. I just don't think our plan was good enough. I think they had a great plan to attack us. So credit to those guys.

Q. You've obviously talked about the growth mindset a lot, talked about this game and maybe some of the things that didn't go right. What do you learn from this and maybe things that you need to adjust going forward?

DAN LANNING: We've got to be able to adjust a little bit faster. There were some things we were able to get going at points throughout the game. We didn't adjust fast enough.

And it's tough when you play a team that doesn't have a lot of weaknesses. They've got strengths. Their wideouts were creating a lot of success down the field. And then their ability to run the ball makes them a dangerous team. They didn't make mistakes on special teams. You need some of those things to bounce your way.

And offensively we struggled to get a first down early on and I thought Dillon did an unbelievable job there at the end of the half creating a spark for our team, but a lot of those weren't natural plays. It wasn't like the first read was there. It was this guy busting his tail, and guys like Traeshon and the O line fighting like crazy to extend plays and create those moments. We just didn't have enough of those moments tonight.

Q. Dillon, what were you hoping to do game plan-wise that they took away from you guys?

DILLON GABRIEL: You plan to create explosives, be really good on situational football and move the chains that way. We just didn't do that on third down. They had a great plan, like Coach said. But if you don't go get the third you can't move forward.

Q. Coach, how was Ohio State able to execute differently offensively tonight versus when you played them the first time?

DAN LANNING: I think they were able to find some shot opportunities. Caught us in a couple of coverages that gave them the chance to have success. And you could decide, okay, we're going to try to pressure, and that's still going to leave some one-on-ones. But they got us in some situational checks, some stuff that was successful.

And they have great players. They have some guys out there that made plays. And you have to give those guys credit.

Q. A lot of teams fall down 34-0 they roll over. You guys didn't. You kept fighting. You scored the next two possessions. What's that say about your team and the mentality that they have?

DAN LANNING: Just that. If you give them a great plan, they're going to have the chance to go out and execute at a high level. They've got a lot of fight. Like I said, I thought our guys fought all night.

There's probably even more opportunities where I could have given them a chance to fight, and I didn't do a great job of that. But those guys went out and battled every second tonight.

Q. What makes Jeremiah Smith so tough to stop? What didn't work in the game plan against him?

DAN LANNING: He's strong, attacks the ball in the air as well as any receiver I've seen. The guy is NFL-ready. He's that talented and that special. And Will Howard did a great job getting him the ball. And he's tough and he's physical. He's got all the tools. A really talented player.

Q. How do you use this game as fuel for motivation but at the same time know this team went 13-0 prior to tonight?

DAN LANNING: Probably not there yet. There's disappointment. But I talked to the team about life in that locker room and how grateful I am for the opportunity to coach this team. I love these guys. And they put it all out on the field for us -- blood, sweat and tears.

Adversity happens in life. And we're going to get an opportunity in life to continue to attack and move forward. And I know there's a lot of winners in that room, and there's guys that are going to have a chance to go on in life and be great fathers and husbands. I hope they saw those examples on our team. They're going to be great business leaders and NFL players. And they gave their heart and soul to us.

To me it's not about getting knocked down. It's about getting back up and what you do next.

Q. Evan was such a weapon for you guys in the first match-up against Ohio State. Sounded like something happened pregame. Could you elaborate a little bit on what happened with him and what did you miss most about not having him?

DAN LANNING: He's a dynamic player. He's been great for us all year. Kind of got tweaked in pregame, and had been able to practice but was somewhat limited. We thought he was going to be a potential go. Leaned on the side of protecting the player.

I think in that situation, you asked Evan, he wanted to be out on the field. But you don't want to put him in a situation that's not safe for him.

He's certainly been a dynamic piece for us all year, and would have loved to have him out there for us. But grateful for what he's been able to do for us this season.

Q. Why do you think Ohio State struggled the way they did against Michigan? And do you see any significant adjustments they've made since then to get things turned around the way they have?

DAN LANNING: Sometimes it's not your day. I think that was us today. It wasn't our day today. It wasn't their day against Michigan.

But what's unique about college football right now in this dynamic is that you've got to be playing your best ball at the end. I think anybody watching Ohio State recognizes they're playing really good football.

Q. Jeffrey, what were you seeing out of the Ohio State offense that was really just causing you guys some issues in the first half?

JEFFREY BASSA: Overall, I think that they did a good job taking shots early on. Like Coach said previously, they caught us in some coverages where receivers were able to get open downfield.

As well as their offensive line, I think their offensive line, with the injuries that they had in their room and a lot of moving parts and pieces, I think they did a good job just up front as well.

And, of course, the quarterback, I think he did a good job just getting the ball to the receivers, commanding his offense.

They were just firing on all cylinders, and credit to them.

Q. Obviously you won a Big Ten title and you had to face Ohio State in the first round. There's been a lot of talk about CFP format and that potentially changing going forward. What did you think about the thought of the path your team had compared to other teams?

DAN LANNING: We had an opportunity. We didn't take advantage of the opportunity. I'm not going to make excuses for our opportunity.

And ultimately you have to be great teams to beat teams at the end of the year we didn't do that. This is the road we had to travel. And they did it better than us tonight.

No complaints for us for having that opportunity. They just took advantage of it and we didn't.

QUICK QUOTES – HALFTIME

Ohio State Head Coach Ryan Day

On defensive successes:

“We have got to do a good job on third down. We gave up the explosive play; we just didn’t hold up there at the end. They get the ball to start the second half, so we need to come out and do a good job in the first four or five minutes. We need to get a stop coming out of the half and turn around and get a score. Overall, we’re winning the line of scrimmage.”

Oregon Head Coach Dan Lanning

On the second half:

“We got a lot to continue to work on but it was great to go and get a score there at the end of the half and build a little bit of momentum as we carry this into halftime.”
