FORECAST - After 37 straight winning seasons, UC Davis has now had 2 straight losing seasons for the first time since '68-'69. They had 7 losses last year but 2 were against FBS teams (lost by comb 11 pts), 2 were against FCS playoff teams including losing by just 5 to eventual runner-up Montana (led 24-23 late 4Q) and they lost by just 3 to Southland leader Central Arkansas. The Aggies return 15 starters and a '07 starter (inj LY). They have plenty of depth just about everywhere. They do face 2 FBS and 3 Big Sky Opp, but should return to their winning ways and they do get to host Cal Poly on Nov 7th which could be the GW Championship game.
