THE OPENING KICK

- The Fighting Illini will help celebrate the university's 100th anniversary of Homecoming on Saturday when Indiana comes to Memorial Stadium. Illinois is looking to bounce back from a 26-6 loss at #13/11 Michigan State last week.
- The Illinois defense has made big strides this year under new defensive coordinator Vic Koenning. Illinois currently ranks 20th nationally in total defense (303.0 ypg), 23rd in rushing yards allowed (113.0 ypg), 24th in points allowed (18.5ppg). At the end of last season, the Orange and Blue ranked 91st in total defense (403.3 ypg), 76th in rushing defense (154.4 ypg) and 96th in scoring defense (30.2 ppg).
- While Illinois' record is 3-3 heading into this weekend's game, the Illini have faced the second-toughest schedule in the nation thus far according to the official NCAA schedule strength rankings. Illinois' opponents have a combined record of 26-7 this season vs. Division I opponents (not counting their game vs. Illinois). Only Iowa State has played a tougher slate so far (29-7 combined opponent record).
- Illinois' three losses this season (Missouri, Ohio State and Michigan State) have a combined record of 19-1 and all are currently ranked in the top-11 of the Oct. 17 BCS standings.
- The Fighting Illini have yet to allow more than 26 points in a game this season despite facing the nation's second-toughest schedule. Illinois held the high-powered offenses of Missouri (23) and Michigan State (26) to season-low point totals and held an Ohio State offense averaging 49.3 points per game to 24 points.
- Illinois' defense has held its opposition to under 100 yards rushing four times in six games this season (98 vs. Missouri, 46 vs. SIU, 65 vs. Penn St. and 93 vs. Michigan St.) and seven times in the last two seasons. Through six games, the Illini are allowing just 113.0 ypg on the ground, which ranks 23rd in the nation.
- Illinois ranks fourth in the nation in red zone scoring percentage, picking up points on 18 of its 19 trips inside the 20 this season (95 percent). The Illini have nine touchdowns and nine field goals in the red zone so far this season. The only time the Illini didn't convert a red zone trip into points was when the second half clock ran out at Michigan State.
- Conversely, the Illini defense ranks fifth in the nation in red zone touchdown percentage defense. The Orange and Blue have allowed just eight touchdowns on 23 opponent trips inside the 20 (34.8 percent).
- Doak Walker Award candidate Mikel Leshoure has topped the 100-yard mark in four games this season and in seven of Illinois' last 12 games dating back to last season. So far this season, Leshoure ranks third in the Big Ten and 14th in the nation in rushing with 113.3 ypg.
- Ray Guy Award and Campbell Award candidate Anthony Santella ranks fourth in the nation with an average of 46.7 yards on 28 punts. As a team, Illinois ranks fifth in the nation in net punting (41.14 ypk).
- Butkus Award candidate Martez Wilson leads Illinois and ranks in the top-10 in the Big Ten in tackles (8.7 tpg) and sacks (2.0). Wilson has led the Illini in tackles in three of the last four games, posting 11 stops against Northern Illinois, nine against Ohio State and 12 in the win at Penn State.
- With Illinois' win at Penn State on Oct. 9, Illini coach Ron Zook became just the sixth coach ever to defeat both Penn State's Joe Paterno and Florida State's Bobby Bowden on the road. Zook defeated Bowden's Seminoles in 2004 while coaching at Florida. He joins Larry Coker (Miami), Foge Fazio (Pitt), Dennis Erickson (Miami), Tom O'Brien (Boston College) and Howard Schnellenberger (Miami) as the only coaches to defeat the two winningest coaches in college football history on the road. ILLINOIS 100TH ANNIVERSARY HOMECOMING FACTS

- The first homecoming celebrated on Illinois' campus was on Oct. 15, 1910, which the Illini won 3-0 over Chicago, meaning this year's Homecoming vs. Indiana marks the 100th anniversary of that historic first. It is also the 100th Homecoming game in school history due to a flu pandemic canceling the 1918 game.
- Illinois has an all-time record of 42-55-2 in Homecoming games. This year will mark the fifth time the Illini have hosted Indiana on Homecoming. Illinois holds a 3-2 a Homecoming advantage against the Hoosiers, with the most recent Homecoming meeting being a 34-32 Hoosier victory in 2006.
- The University of Illinois boasts being one of the first universities to celebrate Homecoming, a tradition on almost every college campus. It was conceived in 1909 by students C.F. Williams and W. Elmer Ekblaw, members of the Shield and Trident senior society. They joined with another society, Phoenix, to organize the three-day event.
- For years, there has been a debate over which university had the first homecoming. Historians from various schools found research that puts Illinois among one of the first five universities to celebrate the Homecoming tradition. Baylor has documented proof of a formally named Homecoming celebration in 1909, but then took a six-year hiatus before celebrating the second event at the school in 1915. Northern Illinois had alumni events beginning in 1906, but didn't use the proper noun "Homecoming" until 1911. Indiana University renamed their 1909 Gala Day, Homecoming on Nov. 5, 1910, and Michigan began inviting alumni back to campus in 1897, but the formal name began on the Ann Arbor campus in 1916.

INDIANA SERIES NOTES

- This week's game marks the 68th meeting between the Fighting Illini and the Indiana Hoosiers. The Illini hold a 43-21-3 series advantage and are 28-8-1 against Indiana in Champaign. The Illini won 55-13 the last time the two teams met at Illinois' Memorial Stadium in 2008, while the Hoosiers won last year's meeting, 27-14, in Bloomington, Ind.
- Illinois coach Ron Zook is 2-3 in his career against the Hoosiers, while Indiana coach Bill Lynch is 1-2 as a head coach against the Illini.

HIGHLIGHTS AGAINST THE HOOSIERS

- The Illini's 55 points in the 2008 win over the Hoosiers mark the highest scoring game of the Zook era and are the most points Illinois has ever scored in a Big Ten game at Illinois' Memorial Stadium (previous high was 50 in a 50-0 shutout over Iowa in 1973).
- In the last two meetings with Indiana, the Illini have rolled up 1,006 total yards, including 477 on the ground.
- Junior WR A.J. Jenkins has had big games in his two previous meetings against Indiana. He returned a kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown in the 2008 game and had four catches for 77 yards and a touchdown in last year's game at IU.
- Junior RB Mikel Leshoure ran for 78 yards on 12 carries in last year's meeting with the Hoosiers, which was his career high at the time.
- Junior RB Jason Ford ran for a career-high 172 yards and three TDs as a true-freshman in the Illini's win 2008 over the Hoosiers.
- Sophomore OG Hugh Thornton saw the first playing time of his career when he got the start at right tackle as a true-freshman in last year's game against Indiana.

ILLINI IN THE NCAA RANKINGS

- Senior punter Anthony Santella leads the Big Ten and is fourth nationally in punting with a 46.7 average. As a team, the Illini lead the conference and rank fifth nationally in net punting at 41.14 yards.
- Doak Walker Award candidate Mikel Leshoure is averaging 113.3 rushing yards per game this season, which puts him 14th in the nation and the third in the Big Ten. Overall, the Illinois rushing offense is ranked 29th nationally at 200.3 ypg.
- Illinois' defense has been stout so far, holding opponents to just 303.0 total yards, 113.0 rushing yards and 18.5 points per game, totals that rank 20th, 23rd and 24th in the nation, respectively. The Illini pass defense also has improved to 35th nationally at 190.0 ypg.
- After nailing two field goals at Michigan State last week, kicker Derek Dimke remains tied for fourth in the nation in field goals made per game at 2.0.

THE BIG TEN'S RUSHING TEAM

- During the Ron Zook era (since 2005), Illinois leads the conference in rushing yards per game. The Illini's 196.7 yards per game (12,985 yards in 66 games) in the last 5+ seasons tops Wisconsin's 193.4 ypg (13,923 yards in 72 games) during that same time span.
- Illinois has posted three games of 200+ rushing yards this season, including a season-high 319-yard effort against Northern Illinois on Sept. 18 and 282 yards on the ground at Penn State on Oct. 9.
- Mikel Leshoure has run for 1,251 yards on 207 carries (6.0 ypc) since the mid-point of last season (12 games). Among Big Ten players, only Wisconsin's John Clay (1,476 yards on 248 carries, 6.0 ypc) has more rushing yardage since Oct. 24 of last season.
- The Illini led the conference in rushing yards per game in 2006 and 2007, and were second in 2009. So far this season, Illinois is averaging 200.3 ypg on the ground, which ranks 29th nationally.
- The Fighting Illini averaged 200.4 yards per game on the ground in 2009, ranking 17th in the nation and marking the third time under head coach Ron Zook that the Illini averaged over 200 yards rushing as a team. It also marked the third time in the last five years that Illinois finished the season ranked among the NCAA Top 20.
- Leshoure's 6.8 yards per carry in 2009 led all BCS conference players with at least 100 attempts, and he and teammate Jason Ford (6.1 ypc) ranked 1-2 in the Big Ten in that category last season.

INJURY REPORT

- On the Mend: The injury bug hit the Illini hard heading into the 2010 season. Two probable starters are out for the season in OL Corey Lewis, who tore his left ACL during spring ball, and safety Supo Sanni, who ruptured his right Achilles in practice on Aug. 25. In addition, FS Steve Hull (ankle) has missed the last two games after being injured against Ohio State and is questionable for this week's game.
- They're Back: Sophomore CB Terry Hawthorne (foot) missed the first four games of this season before returning to action Oct. 9 at Penn State. Senior WR Eddie McGee (missed NIU game with ankle injury) and bandit Nate Palmer (missed first three games with a toe injury) both returned against Ohio State after missing time earlier in the season. Junior FB/TE Zach Becker (feet) returned to action last week at Michigan State after missing the first five games.
- A pair of Illini defenders have returned from season-ending injuries last season. Linebacker Martez Wilson missed 11 games with a neck injury last season and received a medical redshirt, while cornerback Miami Thomas suffered a knee injury in training camp last year, missing the entire season. Both players went through preseason training camp without further issues. Wilson returned to action in the season-opener and has registered a team-high 52 tackles, 5.5 TFL and 2.0 sacks through six games this season. Thomas saw his first action of the season in the Sept. 18 game vs. NIU.

ILLINI DEFENSE IN HABIT OF SHUTTING DOWN HIGH POWERED OFFENSES

The Illini 'D' has held some of the top offenses in the nation in check this season:

- The UI defense held No. 13 Michigan State 179 total yards below its season average and 132 yards below its rushing average. The Spartans were averaging 473 total yards per game and 225 yards on the ground — which both ranked in the top 15 in the nation — but were held to season-low totals of 294 total yards and 93 rushing yards by the Orange and Blue.
- In Illinois' 33-13 win at Penn State on Oct. 9, the defense held PSU to season lows of seven first downs, 235 total yards, 2-of-14 third-down conversions and 21:48 time of possession, and kept the Nittany Lions to only 65 rushing yards. Penn State had been averaging 138.2 yards per game on the ground entering the game. PSU's seven first downs marked their fewest since gaining six first downs against Iowa in 2004.
- On Oct. 2, No. 2 Ohio State came to town ranked third in the nation in scoring (49.3 ppg) and eighth in total offense (506.8 ypg), but managed just 24 points and 290 total yards against the stingy Illini defense.
- The Illini held the Buckeyes to just 77 yards passing in that Oct. 2 meeting, marking the third-straight year they have held OSU, and Heisman candidate Terrelle Pryor, to under 100 yards passing (49 yards in 2008 and 82 yards in 2009). Pryor piled up 334 yards passing in Ohio State's next game against Indiana on Oct. 2.
- The UI defense held NIU running back Chad Spann to just 15 yards on 13 carries. Spann currently ranks 18th in the nation, averaging 107.6 ypg, and racked up 223 yards on 15 carries against Minnesota on Sept. 25, one week after the Fighting Illini shut him down.

MORE DEFENSIVE NOTES

- The Illini defense has been much improved over last season. In the first six games of 2009, the Illini allowed 2,525 total yards (420.8 ypg), 1,077 rushing yards (179.5 ypg) and 170 points (28.3 ppg). In six games this season, the Illini have allowed 1,818 yards (303.0 ypg), 678 rushing yards (113.0 ypg) and 111 points (18.5 ppg).

A CLOSER LOOK AT ILLINOIS' DEFENSIVE IMPROVEMENT

| Category | 2009 (Final Nat'l Rank) | 2010 (Cur. Nat'l Rank) |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------|
| Points Allowed (ppg) | 30.2 (96) | 18.5 (24) |
| Total Defense (ypg) | 403.3 (91) | 303.0 (20) |
| Rushing Defense (ypg) | 154.42 (76) | 113.0 (23) |
| Passing Defense (ypg) | 248.83 (100) | 190.0 (35) |
| Pass Efficiency Defense | 142.77 (103) | 123.35 (55) |

- The Illini's defensive turnaround this season is even more impressive when field position is taken into account. Opponents have started 14 drives in plus territory but the UI defense has allowed just one touchdown and seven field goals on those 14 drives. The average starting position for opponents is the 33.7 yard line, compared to the 27.0 yard line for the Illini offense.
- The Orange and Blue defense also has been stingy after turnovers. Following the 14 Illini turnovers, the defense has allowed just 25 points (1 TD and 6 field goals).
- The three points allowed to Southern Illinois on Sept. 11 mark the lowest point total allowed by an Illinois team since shutting out Western Illinois on Sept. 8, 2007.
- Defensive tackle Corey Liuget had a career-high 11 tackles against Michigan State on Oct. 16, including 1.0 TFL and two QB hurries. Liuget dropped 30 pounds in the offseason to get down to 285 in hopes of being more mobile and harder to block. It seems to have paid off, as Liuget has 29 tackles, a team-high 6.0 TFLs and 2.0 sacks this season to go along with a team-high four hurries and two PBUs.

- LB Nate Bussey had a career day for the Orange and Blue against Penn State, returning an interception 16 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and also tying his career high with eight tackles. His interception return for a touchdown was the first for an Illini since Terry Hawthorne's pick-six at Minnesota in 2009. Bussey is second on the team and 14th in the conference in tackles (6.7 tpg).
- Senior cornerback Travon Bellamy has saved his best season for last. Bellamy stepped up big when Terry Hawthorne missed the first four games with an injury and hasn't let up. His 5.8 tackles per game are fifth on the team and he already has eclipsed his previous season career-highs of 4.0 tackles for loss and four QB hurries.
- Trulon Henry recorded a pair of interceptions in the 24-13 loss to the Buckeyes. He intercepted a Terrelle Pryor pass in the second quarter and picked off a Joe Bauserman pass in the third quarter. Henry became the first Illini defender in six years to tally two interceptions in a game, since Kelvin Hayden against Florida A&M in 2004.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

- The Illini offense also was dominant in the win over Penn State on Oct. 9, gaining a season-high 437 yards, including 282 rushing yards. It was the third time this year that Illinois has rushed for 200+ yards and was the most rushing yards that PSU had allowed since Minnesota rolled up 288 rushing yards in 2004.
- Quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase and kicker Derek Dimke were rewarded for stellar performances in the Illini win at Penn State. Scheelhaase was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week for the second time this season after completing 15-of-19 passes for 151 yards and one touchdown while also running for 61 yards on eight carries. Dimke, meanwhile, was named Big Ten Co-Special Teams Player of the Week after hitting 4-of-4 field goals vs. PSU, including a 50-yarder.
- Illinois' 20 points in the second quarter against Penn State marks the third-highest scoring second quarter in Ron Zook's tenure with the Illini. The high is 21 points against Fresno State in 2009 and Northwestern in 2005.
- New offensive coordinator Paul Petrino's offense has shown its ball control capabilities during the first half of this season. The team's opening drive of the year was a 17-play, 9:14 monster that resulted in a 21-yard field goal. The drive exceeded last year's longest drive by 1:54 and also tied last year's longest drive in terms of plays. Through six games, Illinois had 16 scoring drives of 8+ plays and 14 scoring drives of 4+ minutes.
- Junior running back Mikel Leshoure has taken on a bigger load for the Illini offense this season. He had a career-high 27 carries for 119 yards against the Nittany Lions and is now averaging 21.2 carries per game this season. Entering the season, Leshoure had carried the ball 20+ times just once (21 carries vs. Michigan in 2009). In 2010, he has had four 20+-carry games already and is still averaging a robust 5.4 yard per carry for the season.
- Leshoure had a string of four straight 100-yard games snapped earlier this season by Ohio State, a streak that tied him with J.C. Caroline and Robert Holcombe for the most consecutive 100+ rushing efforts in school history. His four 100+-yard games this season and seven career 100+-yard games are both tied for the 10-most in school history.

- Redshirt-freshman quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase has shown his dual-threat ability in Illinois' first six games. He had earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors on two occasions already, first on Sept. 13 following his 14-of-18, 229 yard, 1 TD, 0 INT performance against SIU and then again on Oct. 11 after his 15-of-19, 151 yard, 1 TD, 0 INT game at Penn State. His 221.31 passer rating for the SIU is the sixth-highest single-game efficiency rating in school history and 115 rushing yards against NIU is the seventh-best rushing game by a QB in school history.
- When Scheelhaase took the field for the first play against Missouri, he became just the third redshirt-freshman in Illinois history to start a season opener. Scott Weaver (1993) and Rich Weiss (1978) are the only other two redshirt-freshmen to take the first snap of a season.
- Junior receiver A.J. Jenkins tallied a career-high seven receptions for 76 yards, including an 18-yard TD, in the win at Penn State. Jenkins leads the Illini with 346 yards and three touchdowns on 24 catches so far this season.
- Junior running back Jason Ford had a four-yard touchdown pass to freshman Evan Wilson in the third quarter against Penn State, Ford's first career pass and Wilson's first career TD catch. It marked the first time an Illini non-quarterback threw a TD pass since Oct. 7, 2006, at Michigan State, when WR DaJuan Warren threw a 27-yard TD to Jody Ellis.
- Ford also had nine carries for 47 yards against PSU, pushing him over 1,000 career yards. He is the 37th player in Illinois history to surpass 1,000 career yards and currently has 1,034 yards.
- Junior running back Troy Pollard had a season-high eight carries for 55 yards against PSU, including a long of 20 yards. It marked his most productive rushing game since he posted a career-best 92 yards at Syracuse in 2007.
- Senior WR Jarred Fayson had a breakout game for the Illini against Ohio State, catching eight passes for 83 yards, setting career highs in both categories. Fayson also completed the first pass of his career, throwing a 23-yarder to quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase in the first quarter, and downed a punt on the one yard line on special teams. Fayson leads the team with 25 catches through six games.
- Weak-side tackle Jeff Allen anchors the Illini offensive line once again. The junior has started every game since the fourth game of his freshman season, giving him a team-high 27 consecutive starts.

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

- Junior kicker Derek Dimke was 4-for-4 on field goals against Penn State Oct. 9, hitting from 50, 31, 41 and 38 yards. The last time an Illini kicker hit four field goals was on Oct. 21, 2006, at Penn State, when Jason Reda hit four. After two more field goals at MSU last week, Dimke is 12-for-13 on field goals this season and is 17-for-18 on field goals and 24-for-24 on extra points for his career since taking over place kicking duties. He started his career with nine straight made field goals, which was the fourth-longest streak in school history, and has a current string of eight straight makes heading into this week's Indiana game.
- Dimke booted a career-long 52-yard field goal at the end of the first half against Missouri on Sept. 4. That kick tied the sixth-longest field goal in school history and was the longest Illinois since Jason Reda's 52-yarder at Indiana on Oct. 8, 2005. Dimke also hit a 50-yarder at Penn State on Oct. 9.
- In addition to his field goal success, Dimke also has excelled on kickoffs. He has booted 13 touchbacks and has a 66.3 yard average in 29 kickoffs this season, already exceeding last year's season total of 12 touchbacks. This marks Dimke's third year as the Illini kickoff specialist, as he took over duties midway through his freshman season.
- Senior punter Anthony Santella is having a stellar final season. He had a career-best 50.8 average on five punts against SIU, equaling the fifth-best single-game punting average in school history, then booted six punts against NIU for a 48.7 average, including a career-long 67-yarder, and has not let up since. Santella currently ranks fourth in the nation with a 46.7 average on 28 punts.
- Santella has vastly improved in each of his four seasons. He's gone from averaging 37.7 yards per punt in 2007 to 39.4 in 2008, 41.3 in 2009 and now 46.7 so far this season. He currently ranks fourth in the Illinois record books in career punting average (40.4), fourth in career yardage (8,406) and fifth in career punts (208).

CHANGING THINGS UP

- With the rash of injuries during training camp, the Illini made several position changes heading into the season. Sophomore Justin Green moved from running back to cornerback, redshirt-freshman Steve Hull switched from wide receiver to safety and sophomore Jack Ramsey went from wide receiver to cornerback and now back to receiver. All three have made big contributions at their new positions in the opening weeks. Green has started all six games and has registered 28 tackles and four pass break-ups, Hull has nine tackles and Ramsey had two tackles at CB and also is the team's top return man.
- Junior Tavon Wilson also made a move during training camp, going from cornerback to strong safety. He has responded with 23 tackles, a half-TFL, a team-high five pass break-ups and two fumble recoveries this season.
- In addition, sophomore Eddie Viliunas, a former walk-on quarterback, was moved to tight end during 2010 spring ball. Viliunas has seen action in two-tight end sets during the first six games this season.

ZOOK VISITS TROOPS ON USO TOUR

Illinois coach Ron Zook was among four college football coaches that visited U.S. troops in Europe and Southwest Asia as part of the 2010 USO Coaches Tour, May 22-31. Zook and Army's Rich Ellerson, Oregon's Chip Kelly and Harvard's Tim Murphy made eight stops in nine days on the tour. The coaches conducted autograph and photo sessions, and participated in panel discussions to help boost troop morale. They also oversaw athletic competitions with the troops. The tour was presented by the USO and Morale Entertainment. Video and photos from Zook's trip can be found at <http://www.fightingillini.com/sports/m-footbl/spec-rel/052510aaa.html>.

GRIFFITH BACK FOR 20TH ANNIVERSARY OF NCAA-RECORD 8 TD GAME

Illini great Howard Griffith, noted studio analyst for the Big Ten Network, returned to Memorial Stadium on Sept. 11 when the Illini hosted Southern Illinois to commemorate his monumental performance 20 years ago against the Salukis. In that game, Griffith broke the NCAA record for points (48) and rushing touchdowns in a game (8). He still holds or shares NCAA records for rushing touchdowns in a quarter (4) and a game, as well as most consecutive rushes for a touchdown in a game (3). Griffith went on to play eight seasons in the NFL and won two Super Bowls with the Denver Broncos in 1997 and '98.

GAME NOTES

- Ohio State entered today's game with the NCAA's third-ranked scoring offense (49.2 points per game) and the nation's eighth-ranked total offense unit (506.8 yards per game). But the Illini defense held the Buckeyes significantly below those figures, allowing totals of 24 points and 290 yards.
- This is the first time Ohio State has been held to under 300 yards since Oct. 17, 2009, at Purdue, when the Buckeyes finished with 287 yards.
- The Buckeyes, meanwhile, managed just 77 yards passing after entering the game with an average of 266.5 passing yards. OSU quarterback Terrelle Pryor had season-low totals of nine completions and 76 yards. It was Pryor's fewest completions and yards since Nov. 21, 2009, at Michigan, when he completed nine passes for 67 yards.
- Trulon Henry recorded a pair of interceptions today, the first INTs of the season for the Fighting Illini. He intercepted a Terrelle Pryor pass in the second quarter and picked off a Joe Bauseman pass in the third quarter. Henry is the first Illini defender in six years to tally two interceptions in a game, since Kelvin Hayden against Florida A&M in 2004.
- Jarred Fayson had a breakout game for the Illini. He caught eight passes for 83 yards, setting career highs in both categories. Fayson also completed the first pass of his career, throwing a 23-yarder to quarterback Nathan Scheelhaase in the first quarter.
- Mikel Leshoure had 80 yards rushing today, giving him 1,338 for his career. He is the 24th player in school history to surpass 1,300 career yards rushing, moving up three spots from his No. 27 ranking coming into today's game.
- Martez Wilson was the Illini's leading tackler for the second-straight game, registering nine tackles today, including two TFLs.
- Anthony Santella, the nation's second-ranked punter, had another impressive performance today. He averaged 47.0 yards on six punts, booting two over than 50 yards. Santella also had three punts downed inside the 20, doubling his season total to six.
- Michael Buchanan posted a career-high seven tackles, more than doubling his previous high of three tackles set in the opener against Missouri.

- Illinois' 20 points in the second quarter marks the third-highest scoring second quarter in Ron Zook's tenure with the Illini. The Orange and Blue also held PSU scoreless in the second half, the second time this season that Illinois has held an opponent scoreless in the second half.
- LB Nate Bussey had a career day for the Orange and Blue, returning an interception 16 yards for a touchdown in the second quarter and also tying his career high with eight tackles. His INT return for a touchdown was the first for an Illini since Terry Hawthorne's pick-six at Minnesota in 2009.

GAME NOTES

- The Illini continued their red zone success on offense. Illinois converted two of its three chances in the red zone to scores (two field goals) and is now 18-for-19 this season in red zone scoring, which ranks among the national leaders.
- The Illini was stout for much of today's game, holding Michigan State's vaunted rushing attack to only 93 yards on 31 carries, an average of 3.0 yards per carry. That is far short of MSU's season averages of 225.0 rushing yards per game and 5.8 yards per carry. In addition, MSU entered today's game averaging a whopping 473.2 yards per game in 2010 but the Illini defense limited them to just 294 yards, the first time the Spartans have been held under 350 yards this year.
- Illinois also won the first downs and time of possession battle, topping MSU 21-16 in first downs and 32:16-27:44 in time of possession.
- The Illini defense also stiffened in the red zone for much of the game, holding MSU to field goals on 2-of-3 red zone chances. The most notable was a third-quarter possession in which the Spartans got the ball on the Illinois 16 yard line after an interception but lost one yard on the drive and were forced to kick a field goal.
- Defensive tackle Corey Liguett shined in today's game, racking up a career-high 11 tackles, one TFL and a career-best two QB hurries. Fellow defensive tackle Akeem Spence also notched a career-best two TFLs and the first QB hurry of his career.
- Defensive end Michael Buchanan recorded his first sack of 2010 when he brought down MSU's Kurt Cousins in the first quarter. Cornerback Terry Hawthorne also recorded his first TFL of the season when he tackled MSU's LeVeon Bell behind the line in the fourth quarter.
- Kicker Derek Dimke continued a strong 2010 season, going 2-for-2 on field goals and booting three kickoffs for an average of 60.7 yards on two touchbacks. He now has 13 touchbacks this season, a career high for a season.

HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

6th SEASON // MIAMI (OH), 1976

- Ron Zook was named the 2007 Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year after leading the Illini to the 2008 Rose Bowl. He was also the Big Ten Coach of the Year that same season.
- With his win at Penn State on Oct. 9, 2010, Zook became just the sixth coach in history to post road win against both Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden, the two winningest coaches in college football history.
- The University of Illinois has led the Big Ten in passing in 2008, rushing in 2007 and 2006; and was tops in sacks and tackles for loss in 2008. Illinois' middle linebackers have led the Big Ten in tackles in three of the last four seasons (Miller, 2008; Leman, 2006-07).
- Ron Zook is one of only two coaches in the nation (Jim O'Brien of N.C. State) to beat the two winningest coaches in college football history, Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden.
- Ron Zook has won games at both "The Big House" at Michigan and "The Horseshoe" at Ohio State. He is only the 13th Big Ten coach ever to accomplish the feat.
- The 2007 Fighting Illini made a seven-win improvement from the 2006 season, which was the biggest turnaround in college football that season.
- On Nov. 10, 2007, Ron Zook became the first coach in the nation in 10 years to defeat the Associated Press' No. 1 team on the road, when the Illini upset Ohio State, 28-21.
- The Illinois offense led the Big Ten in rushing for two consecutive years. In 2007, the Illini averaged 256.8 yards, which also ranked fifth in the nation. One year earlier, Illinois' 188.8 yards per game were good enough for 10th nationally. The Illini's 205.0 ypg in 2009 ranked 17th nationally.
- The Illini offense set 10 season and career records in 2007, including single-season rushing, season touchdowns, total offense and fewest quarterback sacks.
- In his eight years as a head coach, Ron Zook has led four different squads to bowl eligibility. All three bowl games Zook has coached were played on Jan. 1.
- In four of his eight seasons as a head coach, Zook's teams have finished the year ranked in the final Top-25 polls.
- Ron Zook is in his 34th season of coaching college football, and his ninth as a head collegiate coach.

- During the 2008 offseason, Ron Zook spent two days on the USS John C. Stennis aircraft carrier, during its training mission. It had been a dream of Zook's to land and take off from a carrier. While on the ship, Zook saw and studied the similarities of the military and college football with its attention to teamwork and detail.
- During the 2010 summer, Ron Zook spent 10 days visiting U.S. troops in Europe and South West Asia as part of the 2010 USO Coaches Tour.
- Ron Zook led the Illini to wins over three ranked opponents in 2007, the most since the 2001 season. It is also the first time Illinois had wins over two Top-5 opponents since 1963.
- Illinois' win over No. 1 Ohio State in 2007 marked Ron Zook's ninth win over a ranked opponent in his six years as a head coach.
