

MEAC MEDIA DAY

Media Predictions

- 1) SC State ("GREAT" secondary)
- 2) Norfolk State (BLOWN AWAY by Coach Odums' intensity and message)
- 3) NC Central (DE Malit won off-the-field National Award and seems like a great leader) ["Loaded on Offense"- HC Oliver]
- 4) Delaware State (First time not picked to finish last in quite a while)
- 5) Morgan St (Loved HC Wheatley's comments)
- 6) Howard (HC Larry Scott was impressive as Miami (FL) Interim HC)

My Predictions (Finished Conference's Writeups)

- 1) Norfolk St (Preseason OPOY in Sr. QB Juwan Carter, and Odums says team will go as far as he takes them)
- 2) SC State (Traditional MEAC power with good defense, but lack QB)
- 3) NC Central (Good, young QB with a bevy of experienced weapons and conference's top RB)
- 4) Delaware St (trending upward with determined HC and alumnus Rod Milstead, says it was his dream since a player in college to coach this team)
- 5) Howard (Experienced defense and a solid OL, and Howard was able to get in two spring games in Larry Scott's 1Y)
- 6) Morgan St (Need a lot of help as they are in a complete rebuild following '19 from an experience standpoint, and don't have a clear-cut starting QB (none on current roster with experience))
